

Abandoned Super Cutie Adopted by Billionaire Clan

Chapter 50

Chapter 50

On Monday morning, Jeremy was spending time on his phone during breakfast when he saw some rare news in the same city.

A video taken in the wee hours of the morning was trending

On the screen, many cat-like creatures crossed the street majestically.

None of them fell behind. They were all following the leading one firmly in a certain direction.

The group was organized and disciplined. They looked like a regular army.

At that time, the sky was still dark, and there was only the street cleaners on the road.

The cleaners on the street stood far away, taking videos with their phones.

In the comment section, everyone was guessing what kind of creature it was.

Netizen A: [There are so many cats! The leading one looks so elegant.]

Netizen B: [Where are they going!]

Netizen C: [These aren't normal cats. They're shorter than cats, and they're chubby. They're Pallas's cats.]

Netizen D: The leading one looks so familiar. Isn't it Robin, the famous Pallas's cat of the zoo!]

Hence, everyone tagged the official account of the zoo.

When the zoo leaders woke up and saw that the Pallas's cat house was empty, they were stunned

They quickly checked the surveillance footage and saw that Robin didn't sleep in the middle of the night. Instead, it brought all the Pallas's cats out of a hole in the barbed wire fence in the Pallas's cat house.

They even knew how to help each other out, as if they had become intelligent.

Everyone in the zoo was totally dumbfounded.

They wondered if Robin was leading all the other Pallas's cats to rebel.

Seeing the netizens in the comment section gloating over the zoo's trouble, Jeremy could not help but laugh.

Thinking of what Robin did in his house yesterday afternoon, he was looking forward to what the Pallas's cats would do

He wondered which lucky person they would go to today to eat food.

He supposed he would see the follow-up news after school that night,

After breakfast, he went to school with Yvonne, and Kelvin went to the company.

The three of them did not come back at noon. The nannies and gardeners returned to their homes after cleaning up the villa at ten in the morning. They would come back in the afternoon after buying groceries.

After arriving at school, Yvonne waved at Jeremy and went down with her little backpack.

Almost at the same time, the door of the Yates family's car opened, and Marian got out of the car.

Inevitably, the two girls saw each other.

However, they did not say anything and walked into the kindergarten one after another.

At that moment, Yvonne heard someone calling her from behind.

she turned around and saw that it was Anna.

Anna

Wonne Amma broke free from the nanny's hand and ran toward Yvonne.

She was very excited, and the backpack on her back hopped along

As soon as she got close, she hurriedly reported the good news to Yvonne. "I've asked my mom: She knows that lady's Yvonne immediately asked. "Who is

The two girls talked as they walked, and their voices reached the cars of Marian in front of them.

Anna smiled. "My mom said that she's the head of the Holmes family. Her name is Tinley Holmes, and she's a very amazing lady. She used to be my dad's classmate Yvonne exclaimed. She did not quite understand, but she felt that it was impressive.

Anna smiled and felt honored. "By the way, I asked my mom to tell me some things about Ms. Holmes. Would you like to hear it?"

"Yes, please" Yvonne jumped happily.

Anna nodded. "Okay. I'll tell you in class."

The two girls happily held hands and ran toward the class. They did not notice that Marian's face was pale..

Marian had time-traveled from another world, so she naturally knew that Tinley was Yvonne's biological mother

Yvonne was not an orphan at all. She was the Holmes family's descendant.

The Holmes family seemed to be in the antique business in Strate City. The Adler family, Holmes family, and Jenkins family were known as the three top families in Strate City.

As for Tinley, everyone in the loop had to show her respect when they saw her.

Three years ago, Tinley's husband was critically ill. She got so agitated that she had a premature labor and gave birth to Yvonne. When she got out of the delivery room, she immediately got someone to wheel her to the intensive care unit to see her husband one last time.

At that moment, the newborn child was stolen by Tinley's enemy, who did not dare to deal with Yvonne in Strate City, so they ran to Blorencia City and dumped her by the trash can in the park.

Later on, Yvonne was picked up by Dani, the director of the orphanage, who thought that the baby was secretly born by a young girl, so she brought the baby back to the orphanage.

Tinley's husband had died and her daughter had been stolen on the same day.

She had suffered a huge blow both physically and mentally. After that, she had never shown her face in public again

Everyone in the loop said that she had bipolar disorder and her temper was even more irritable than when she was young

Someone said that there was something wrong with her mind. She looked haggard and seemed to have gone crazy.

It was not until the Holmes family found Yvonne and brought her home that Tinley reappeared in front of the public.

At first, she looked terrible and was extremely weak.

However, after a few months, she suddenly seemed to have become a different person.

Not only had she recovered, but her appearance had also returned to when she was young

Everyone said that it was because she was happy to find her daughter, Yvonne

After returning to the Holmes family, Yvonne kept in touch with the Yates family who had raised her.

She had the support of the two rich families. Everyone said that Yvonne was born to be a noble and rich lady.

Yvonne was the most prestigious one among the girls in the three top families in Strate City.

The reason why Marian knew so much was because before her time-traveled, when she was desperate, she went to ask Yvonne for help

Yvonne helped her pay off the online loan on account of their childhood friendship.

After that, Marian went to borrow money from Yvonne again. However, Yvonne told Tinley about this.

Tinley did not agree and got her subordinate to contact Marian, saying that she could help her find a job, and told her to earn money by herself to repay the loan.

She even said that as long as Yvonne kept helping her, Marian would be fearless and would keep getting loans.

Marian was not willing to work as a waitress. She left after working for two hours.

Yvonne didn't help her, and she didn't want to go to work, so she kept getting loans. She only panicked when none of the lending platforms lent her money anymore.

She was on the defaulters' list. All her friends' phones were ringing, and everyone around her knew that she was a deadbeat.

One day, Marian was in a daze and didn't pay attention to the traffic lights when crossing the road. She was hit by a speeding car and was knocked to the side of the road.

Unexpectedly, God gave her a chance, and she time-traveled to another world. When she opened her eyes again, she was actually back to when she was three years old.

Marian ran to Dani's room and stole Yvonne's necklace. She even collected Yvonne's hair from her bedside when she went out to play.

Now, Marian had got a small handful

Based on what happened previously, Marian tricked Yvonne into locking her up in a remote woodshed when the Yates family came to pick Yvonne up.

Dani and all the volunteers were looking for Yvonne. As for Marian,

she ran to Robert and lied, saying that Yvonne had gone into hiding and was unwilling to be adopted by the Yates family. The content is on

Marian could have been at ease, but unexpectedly, the Adler family had adopted Yvonne, and she had even come into contact with Ian.

Blood ties were powerful. Marian knew that if they spent a long time together, it was not impossible for Ian to recognize Yvonne's identity.

She had been worrying about this all this time

However, Marian felt at ease when she thought about the fact that she had too important tools to claim that she was the Holmes family's descendant not expect to see Yvonne asking about Tinley today.

She wondered. However, Yvonne only seems curious about it, and she hasn't realized that Tinley is her mom. In that case, it still has time
