them to me.

Anna leaned on the edge of the fish tank and looked at the fish for a long time. Then, she recalled the two small fish that the had given Yvonne and shook her head firmly. “No, not those two. Those two are very small, but these are big”

Anna refused to believe it no matter what. It was Lillian who walked over and said, “Ms. Lawson, these two fish were very small from the beginning. I fed them every day and watched them grow into their current state”

She thought it was some fast-growing species.

Lillian had taken a few photos of the fish previously. She showed them to Anna.

With those photos, Anna finally believed it.

Lillian and another nanny cleaned up the fish tank. After filling it with water, she moved the two fish out and washed the fish tank.

The two fish were in a huge basin.

Without the fish tank, they even appeared more beautiful.

The two fish had beautiful bodies and smooth lines. The scales on them shone brightly, and when they swam in the basin. they looked like a beautiful rainbow.

Yvonne put her hand into the big basin, and the two fish followed her hand.

Anna did the same, but she failed to summon the fish.

She couldn’t help but feel a little disappointed.

Yvonne was stunned for a moment. Then, she walked to Anna’s side and squatted down, holding her hand and reaching it into the basin Right then, the two fish surrounded Anna’s hand.

After changing the water, Lillian put the fish back into the fish tank.

As Anna watched the fish swim, her voice suddenly sounded a little sad. Yvonne, a big fish that my grandpa raised for more than ten years is about to die.”

Her voice was very low. Yvonne quieted down, looking at her worriedly with her big, clear eyes.

Anna continued, “My grandpa likes it very much because this fish jumped out of the tank once and protected her.”

Yvonne did not understand. Anna didn’t quite understand as well, but because her family often talked about it at home, she memorized these words.

She then said, “Somehow, it fell sick suddenly, and my grandpa fell sick too...”

At that point, Anna’s voice was choked with sobs. She placed her hands on the table and buried her face in her arms, crying.

There was a sobbing tone in her muffled voice. “1... I don’t want my grandpa to be sick. I want him to be happy”
