

Abandoned Super Cutie Adopted by Billionaire Clan

Chapter 56

Chapter 56

The priest was worried that someone would see through his magical medicine formula, so he personally fed the pills to every sick pet..

He could only be at ease after ensuring that the pets digested the medicine,

As for why he chose pets, it was because the pills he made had very little effect on the human body, but for pets, it definitely had an immediate effect.

No matter what illness it was, taking the medicine would definitely increase their vitality.

Although the pills were for pets, they had got the priest a lot of money.

He was glad that he had bought these strange flowers at a high price, which cost thousand dollars a pot.

Now, not only did he earn his capital back, but he had also made money by dozens of times.

The priest quietly opened the box and looked at the pills inside. There were only a dozen left.

He thought, ‘I’ll need to go to more pet owners’ houses tomorrow. If I feed one pill to each pet, these will probably not be enough. I have to contact that woman to buy more.

After returning to his residence, he quickly took out his phone and called the woman who was providing flowers for him.

The phone rang for a long time and then was abruptly hung up.

Meanwhile, in the Adler family’s place Lillian’s expression was gloomy. She looked over at the faces of the people standing in front of her, and her tone was sharp. “Which one of you was so shameless to replace Ms. Adler’s flowers with this trash?”

As she spoke, she pointed at the rotten flowers on the table that emitted a strange smell. She was so angry that her face turned red. “No one would pick up these flowers even if they are thrown on the streets. How dare you bring these to Ms. Adler! Do you think I’m blind?”

A nanny asked in shock, “Lilian, are you saying that the fragrant flowers in Ms. Adler’s room were stolen and replaced with this?

Lillian suppressed her anger and said yes.

All the nannies immediately sighed. They looked at each other and guessed who had taken the flowers

Lilian continued. “There are so many surveillance cameras at home. No matter who stole the flowers, you should know that it’s only a matter of time before they find out about you. I’m asking you now to give you a chance.

Ever since she came in, Lillian had been watching to see who had the guilty expression.

However, she couldn’t tell yet.

At that moment, a phone suddenly rang, startling everyone.

The nannies present looked at the owner of the phone with displeasure.

Someone said. “Helen, you should’ve set it on silent mode.”

Another one said, “Yeah. It startled me.

The woman called Helen smiled awkwardly at everyone and kept apologizing. “I’m sorry. I forgot to set it.”

Chapter 36

She took out her phone and wanted to hang up

However, when she saw the caller ID, a hint of uneasiness appeared shortly on her face.

Coincidentally, Lilian noticed that

She walked over and grabbed Helen’s wrist. Then, she glanced at the caller ID and saw the words “Flower Buyer”

She asked sternly. “Who is this person?”

Helen stuttered, “Just Just a friend.”

Helen avoided Lillian’s question. She clenched her fists tightly, and the panic she tried to suppress was obvious.

Seeing her expression, Lillian had already guessed the truth. Her eyes were somewhat disappointed.

Helen was an honest person. Usually, nothing went wrong when she worked at home. She was always silent and diligent. Lilian did not expect her to be the thief.

Seeing that she couldn’t hide it anymore, Helen’s voice trembled as she begged Lillian, “Lilian, my child is sick. Thad choice but to do it. I know I was wrong. Could you give me a second chance?”

“How much did you sell the flowers for?” Lillian asked seriously.

Helen answered with her head lowered. “Just.. Just a thousand dollars...

Hearing this number, the nannies were shocked that she only sold those flowers for 6 thousand dollars.

A few kindhearted nannies said, “Helen, if you need money, you can borrow it from us.”

Another one said. “That’s right. It’s just 6 thousand dollars. We can all help you. Why did you have to take Ms. Adler’s flowers?”

Lillian let go and sneered when she saw the shame and guilt on Helen’s face.

She snorted. “She needs the money for her kid’s treatment? She’s just greedy.”

Then, she asked Helen, “Let me ask you, other than this time, how many times have you sold the flowers?”

Helen was stunned. Then, she said in a panic. “I only sold them for once.”

Lillian did not believe it. She first sneered. “You never did this before! Then how did you know that these flowers could be sold for a high price? You even left your contact information with him.”

She scolded expressionlessly. “How many times did you steal the flowers before? Tell us!”

Helen was so frightened that she trembled. In an instant, she had a lot weighing on her mind. “I secretly took one before and sold it for 200 dollars...

Lilian said. “I knew it!”

Lillian originally wanted to call the police directly, but she realized that Yvonne’s flowers were not easy to value, so she wanted to wait for Kelvin to come back and tell him so that he could make a decision.

She then asked Helen to pack her things and cancel the contract when Kelvin returned in the afternoon. By then, Helen would have nothing to do with the Adler family anymore.

After finding the person who stole the flowers, Lillian left the room to go to Yvonne.

Chapter

The nannies who had once worked with Helen looked at her with disappointment and disbelief before she left.

One of them sighed. “The Adler family has offered us so much. How could you do this?”

Another one said, “Yeah. Why did you give Ms. Adler these rotten flowers?”

Some of them said, “You’re on your own now, Helen. After you leave the Adler family, I don’t think any other family will hire you.”

The nannies spoke one after another. After saying that, they left to do their own things.

Helen’s legs went weak as she imagined the scene of her being fired. She couldn’t help but shiver.
