Chapter 251: Undercurrents!

“Master, what, what’s going on?!”

A monk in black asked in surprise.

Lungposa said in a deep voice, “Not long ago, Putira was killed by a kid called Yang Luo when he was working in China.

“Later, I sent Arroda, Weissag, and Vanado to China to avenge Putira.

But just now, Arroda and the others’ Buddhist tablets shattered...”

“Could it be that Senior Brother Arroda and the others were also killed by that kid called Yang Luo?!”

“Senior Brother Arroda and the others are not weak. How could they die at the hands of that kid?!”

“Master, I request to kill that kid and avenge my fellow disciples!”

“We must take revenge and make that kid never reincarnate!”

The monks roared angrily, their eyes filled with anger.

“Quiet, all of you!”

Lungposa shouted.

Only then did the monks quiet down.

Lungposa narrowed his eyes and said coldly, “You have to know that Arroda, Weissag, and Vanado are at the early and late stages of the Grandmaster Realm.

However, the three of them were still killed by that kid.

That was enough to prove that that kid was at least at the perfected Grandmaster Realm and was very likely to have stepped into the Martial Highness Realm.

If you go, not only will you not be able to kill that kid, but you will probably follow in Arroda’s footsteps.”

“Are we not going to take revenge then?”

A monk in black gritted his teeth and asked.

“Yes, of course we have to!”

Lungposa said with a cold expression, “That kid killed four of my disciples in a row. How can I not take revenge!

Therefore, I’ve decided to personally go to China to take revenge on that kid!”

“What?! You want to go personally?!”

“Master, is a Chinese kid worth yourself personally making a move?!”

The monks spoke one after another, clearly feeling that this matter was not worth their master’s time.

Lungposa said, “This kid is not simple. If I don’t go personally, I’m afraid it’ll be very difficult to kill him.”

A monk in black frowned and said, “But what if you appear in China and alarm that woman again?”

Upon hearing the monk’s words, Lungposa reached out and touched his chest, his expression uncertain.

Five years ago, he went to China alone and defeated many powerhouses in the Chinese martial arts world in a row. He threatened to trample the Chinese martial arts world under his feet.

However, just as he was advancing triumphantly and pushing his way forward, a mysterious Chinese woman appeared.

That woman was too powerful. She defeated him with just one strike and left a sword wound that was dozens of centimeters long on his chest.

At this point, he left China and promised never to set foot in China again.

That woman had already left a shadow in his heart. Every time he thought of her, he would break out in cold sweat.

He had planned to take revenge, but he later learned that the woman was one of the top martial artists in China and was ranked seventh on the Divine Ranking set up by the Dark World!

It was precisely because of this that he completely gave up on the thought of taking revenge.

An expert on the Divine Ranking was not someone ordinary people could provoke.

“Master, Master, what are you thinking about?”

A monk shouted.

“Oh, nothing.”

Lungposa retracted his thoughts and said, “This time, I’ll go to China in a low profile manner. I’ll return immediately after killing that kid. I definitely won’t alarm that woman.”

“But...”

A monk in black wanted to persuade them, but he was interrupted by Lungposa, “Alright, stop talking. I’ve made up my mind. All of you can leave.” “Yes, Master!”

The monks nodded respectfully and left.

At the same time...

Country Sakura.

On a small island.

There were mountains and rivers on the island, dense forests, and vintage-styled buildings.

Many martial artists in martial arts suits were guarding the island, and many Martial Warriors were patrolling.

The Divine Martial Sect, one of the martial arts sects of Country Sakura, was located here.

It was already late at night.

Other than some houses with lights on, everything was pitch-black.

But right at this moment...

Bam!

A loud bang suddenly sounded from the back of the mountain, as if a thunderclap had exploded!

A dazzling purple light soared into the sky from the back mountain, illuminating the night!

“What’s that sound?!”

“What happened?!”

“Could it be that the Sect Master has come out of seclusion?!”

“Could it be that the Sect Master’s cultivation has broken through?!”

The martial artists looked at the back mountain and exclaimed.

Not long after...

Everyone saw a figure flying between the mountains. He was as fast as a stream of light, making people exclaim.

After a while.

The figure appeared at the top of a nine-story pavilion.

A bright moon hung high in the sky, shining brightly on this figure, giving people the impression he was a god under the night sky.

It was a thin old man in a black robe. His figure was slim, and he had graying hair and beard.

This old man was the sect master of the Divine Martial Sect and one of the famous experts in the martial arts world of Country Sakura. He was known as the Divine Martial Supreme.

“Greetings, Sect Master!”

All the Martial Warriors knelt down with pious and respectful expressions.

Takeda Shinzo raised his hand and said indifferently, “Get up.”

“Thank you, Sect Master!”

Only then did all the Martial Warriors dare to stand up.

Takeda Shinzo stood with his hands behind his back and asked, “Did anything happen in the sect while I was in seclusion?”

At this moment, a middle-aged man in a blue martial arts suit walked out and said respectfully,

“Sect Master, during your seclusion, everything is normal in the sect.

“However...”

“However, what?”

Takeda Shinzo stared at the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man lowered his head slightly and said, “However, something happened to Junior Brother Sato, Junior Brother Nakamura, Junior Brother Kita, and Junior Brother Yagyu in China!”

The people he was talking about were Sato Taro, Nakamura Ichio, Kitada Karyu, and Yagyu Youmen.

“Hmm?”

Takeda Shinzo frowned slightly, “What happened to Sato and the others?”

The middle-aged man gritted his teeth and said, “Junior Brother Sato and the others were crippled by a brat from China!

Originally, we planned to go to China to avenge Senior Brother Sato and the others!

However, Senior Brother Sato and the others said that that kid’s strength is extraordinary and wanted us to inform you about this. That’s why we didn’t move!”

Takeda Shinzo’s expression darkened as he said in a dark voice, “Tell me in detail what happened!”

“Hai!”

The middle-aged man nodded and told Takeda Shinzo what had happened to Sato Taro and the other three in China some time ago.

After hearing the middle-aged man’s words, Takeda Shinzo’s expression darkened further.

He turned to look in the direction of China and roared, “Whoever dares to cripple my disciple, my Takeda Shinzo will definitely let you die without a burial place!”

Accompanied by a roar, a terrifying pressure and aura spread out, scaring all the disciples and making them kneel on the ground once more.

“Sect Master, are you going to China?”

The middle-aged man quickly asked.

“Of course!”

Takeda Shinzo nodded and growled, “How dare you cripple my disciple, bully my sect, and humiliate the martial arts of Country Sakura? I’m irreconcilable with this kid called Yang Luo!”

Hearing this, all the disciples were extremely excited!

The sect master had come out of seclusion. A storm was about to set off in China!

As for that Chinese kid called Yang Luo, he would naturally die!

Chapter 252: Hero of Jiang City!

The next morning.

After Yang Luo, Su Qingmei, and Prajna had breakfast, they prepared to go to the company.

However, as soon as he walked out of the villa, he saw a truck parked at the entrance of Villa No. 7 next door. The workers were moving things into the villa.

“Eh, what’s going on? Is our neighbor moving out?”

Prajna asked in confusion.

Su Qingmei nodded and said, “I think so.”

However, at this moment, a woman in black walked out of the villa.

“Yang Luo, isn’t that Sister Dongfang’s driver?”

Su Qingmei pointed at that woman.

Yang Luo looked up and was stunned.

That woman was Yun Feng!

However, when he heard Su Qingmei address Yun Feng as the chauffeur, the corners of Yang Luo’s mouth twitched.

He knew that Yun Feng was one of the twelve Battle Kings under his eldest senior sister.

Only his Senior Sister would be able to make such a person willingly serve as her chauffeur.

“Miss Yun!”

Yang Luo shouted at Yun Feng.

Yun Feng also saw Yang Luo and the others and trotted over.

“Mr. Yang, ATiss Su, Miss Prajna, good morning!”

Yun Feng smiled and greeted them.

Su Qingmei and Prajna also smiled and nodded.

Yang Luo asked curiously, “Miss Yun, what are you doing here?”

Yun Feng replied, “Oh, it’s like this. King...”

Halfway through, she quickly changed her words, “Miss Dongfang bought Villa No. 7. She said that if she comes to Jiang City in the future, she will stay here.”

“Ah?”

Yang Luo looked puzzled, “Doesn’t Senior Sister have a place to stay? Why did you buy a villa here?”

Yun Feng said, “Miss Dongfang said that she wants to live closer to you, Mr. Yang.”

“Fine...”

Yang Luo nodded speechlessly.

Alright, the rich were definitely willful. They could buy a villa worth tens of millions just like that.

He asked again, "What has my Senior Sister been doing these past few days?"

Yun Feng replied, "Miss Dongfang has been discussing something these few days. She said that she would treat you to a meal after she's done."

"Okay."

Yang Luo nodded and said, "Alright, I'll leave you to your matters."

After saying goodbye, Yun Feng left.

After Yunfeng left, Su Qingmei said nervously, "Yang Luo, Sister Dongfang will live next door to us as long as she comes to Jiang City in the future. What... what should I do?"

Yang Luo said in amusement, "What are you afraid of? My Senior Sister isn't some ferocious beast."

Su Qingmei pouted and said, "But she's your senior sister. She can be considered our elder."

Yang Luo smiled gently and tapped the woman's nose, "It's fine. My senior sister is a very good person. You'll know after spending some time with her."

Su Qingmei glared at Yang Luo and said, "You can just talk nicely in the future. You're not allowed to touch me."

Yang Luo curled his lips and said, "You're my fiancée. What's wrong with me touching you?"

"No means no. Hmph!"

Su Qingmei snorted and got into the car.

By the side, Prajna covered her mouth and giggled.

She finally realized that Yang Luo was not afraid of anyone, but he seemed to be very afraid of Su Qingmei...

Yang Luo reached out and knocked the girl's head, "What are you laughing at? You're driving today!"

"I protest..."

Prajna waved her small fists.

"Objection overruled!"

Yang Luo smiled and got into the back seat.

Prajna was on the brink of tears.

On the way to the company...

Prajna drove angrily, glaring at Yang Luo through the rearview mirror from time to time.

Yang Luo sat casually in the back seat and said with a smile, "Prajna, you drive pretty well."

Why don't you drive from now on?"

Prajna pouted and said, "Sister Su, can you do something about him? He's bullying me!"

Su Qingmei rubbed her forehead and said, "Alright, Yang Luo, she's still a child.

Don't bully her."

"Ch... child?!"

The corners of Yang Luo's mouth twitched as he said, "Qingmei, don't be deceived by this girl's appearance. This girl knows how to act."

Su Qingmei glared at Yang Luo. "I think you're the best at acting."

"I "

Yang Luo was rendered speechless.

Prajna beamed at this sight.

Yang Luo shook his head helplessly.

Damn, his status in the family was worrying!

At this moment, Su Qingmei, who was scrolling through her cell phone, suddenly exclaimed, "Yesterday, the news of you sending someone to smash the Dream Chaser Charity Foundation went on the news!

This matter has already flooded the major media and various social media!"

Prajna said excitedly, "Really? Let me see, let me see!"

"What are you so excited about? Drive your car properly!"

Yang Luo rolled his eyes at Prajna before taking out his phone to browse.

As expected...

What happened yesterday had already become a trending topic and the netizens were discussing it.

"Holy sh*t, such a big thing actually happened yesterday. I actually just found out!"

"Well done. I've long heard that the Dream Chaser Charity Foundation has done all sorts of bad things and continues to accumulate wealth in the name of charity. Now, it's finally destroyed!"

"That brother who commanded the people to smash the building is the hero of Jiang City. He's simply too handsome!"

"Do you know the name of that hero? What's his phone number, WeChat number, and where he lives? I want to give birth to his children!"

Seeing the netizens' comments, Yang Luo was caught between laughter and tears.

Su Qingmei teased, “Yang Luo, you’re famous now. You’ve become the hero of Jiang City.

Now, let our Great Hero Yang express his opinion.”

Yang Luo said unhappily, “What opinion? I didn’t expect this matter to blow up so much.

As for being a hero, I’ve never thought about it.”

Su Qingmei sighed emotionally, “Looks like this Dream Chaser Charity Foundation has long angered everyone. It’s just that no one has been able to deal with them all along and can only swallow their anger.

Now that you’ve finally moved this mountain and gotten rid of this cancer, the citizens of Jiang City will naturally be happy.”

Yang Luo also nodded in agreement.

He had only wanted to seek justice for Director Li and the others, but he did not expect to become a hero of Jiang City.

Su Qingmei continued, “Moreover, after the General Administration’s investigation, this foundation was found to be embezzling two billion yuan a year.”

“What?! Two billion?!”

The corners of Yang Luo’s mouth twitched. To say he was shocked was an understatement.

“Damn, isn’t this too exaggerated?!”

Prajna echoed.

Su Qingmei frowned and said, “Moreover, not only does Jiang City have the Dream Chaser Charity Foundation, but many other cities also have this Dream Chaser Charity Foundation.

I’m afraid this Dream Chaser Charity Foundation has a powerful background. Otherwise, why would this foundation dare to do such a thing?”

Yang Luo sighed and said, “There are too many bad people in this society.

There are obviously not enough good people.”

Su Qingmei said, “Yang Luo, the background of this foundation must be very terrifying. It’s not something we can provoke.

Therefore, let’s end this matter here. Don’t fall deeper and deeper.”

Yang Luo nodded and said, “As long as they don’t provoke me, I won’t bother with them.

Of course, if they dare to provoke me, I won’t be polite to them.”

“This...!”

Su Qingmei sighed deeply and didn’t say anything else. She only hoped that this matter would end here..

At the same time...

The capital.

At the border of the city, there was an antique style luxurious manor.

This place had beautiful mountains and clear water, and the scenery was pleasant. It was an excellent place to recuperate.

This manor was the residence of the head of the Cao family in the capital.

The Cao family was one of the five top families in the capital and one of the top families in China. They excelled in many sectors in society.

At this moment, in a courtyard in the manor.

An old man in a white Tang suit with a medium build, thick eyebrows, big eyes, and a dignified appearance with his white hair neatly combed back was practicing boxing.

This old man looked old, but every punch was filled with vigor and strength.

Therefore, this old man was the head of the Cao family, Cao Huben.

A servant was standing guard at the side with a towel and tea.

At this moment...

A middle-aged man in a black suit hurriedly walked into the courtyard, "Old Master, something big has happened!"

Cao Huben stopped and turned around, "What are you panicking for? Speak slowly!"

As he spoke, Cao Huben picked up a towel and wiped the sweat on his forehead.

The middle-aged man bowed and said respectfully, "Old Master, the charity foundation we established in Jiang City has been destroyed. Lu Minghui and the other higher-ups have also been taken away by the Jiang City General Administration!"

Hearing the middle-aged man's words, Cao Huben frowned slightly and said, "Tell me in detail, what exactly happened?"

The middle-aged man did not hesitate and quickly told Cao Huben what had happened in Jiang City yesterday.

With that, the middle-aged man took out his phone, opened a short video app, and handed it to Cao Huben.

"Old Master, this matter has blown up in Jiang City. Almost everyone knows about it!

I'm afraid it's impossible for our charity foundation to establish itself in Jiang City anymore!

“Moreover, we have to deal with this matter quickly. Otherwise, it might implicate our Cao family!”

Cao Huben took the cell phone and looked at it for a while before returning it to the middle-aged man.

With his hands behind his back, he looked at the distant sky and fell silent.

The middle-aged man did not say anything else and quietly waited for Cao Huben.

There was a moment of silence.

Cao Huben turned around and said in a deep voice, “Go and do three things now!

First, use your connections and immediately suppress this matter. Clear the relationship between our Cao family and the charity foundation and let Lu Minghui bear all the responsibility!

Also, send someone to tell Lu Minghui that as long as he takes responsibility, our Cao family will not mistreat the Lu family!

Secondly, let the people in charge of other cities keep a low profile during this period of time and do more actual charity instead. Don’t let anyone catch them red-handed!

Third, investigate carefully who this kid who went against our Cao family is!

I want to know everything about him!”

“Yes!”

The middle-aged man nodded and left in a hurry.

After the middle-aged man left...

Cao Huben turned around again and looked at the distant sky with his hands behind his back.

He narrowed his eyes and muttered softly, “It’s been a long time since anyone dared to go against our Cao family. I didn’t expect someone to dare to provoke our Cao family this time. Interesting, really interesting...”

Jiang City.

Inside Hua Mei Biomedical.

In the assistant’s office.

Xu Yan went to do what Su Qingmei had instructed.

Prajna sat at her desk, wearing headphones and eating potato chips as she watched a romance idol drama with relish.

Yang Luo was sitting at his desk and cultivating.

Now, his cultivation had already stepped into the great circle of the Foundation Establishment realm.

In order to step into the next realm as soon as possible, as long as he had time, he would use it to cultivate.

After all, there were many enemies hiding in the dark.

Although he was very confident in his strength, he could not guarantee that he would encounter a true expert.

Therefore, he had to constantly increase his cultivation and strength.

Only by becoming stronger could he not be afraid of all challenges.

But right at this moment...

Yang Luo, who was cultivating, suddenly felt a chill in his heart and sensed danger!

He suddenly opened his eyes and subconsciously tilted his head!

Bang!

With a loud sound!

A bullet pierced through the floor-to-ceiling window and almost flew past Yang Luo's cheek, piercing through the work table in front of him!

This voice was not soft, startling Prajna, who was watching a television drama!

Prajna took off her earpiece and asked in confusion, "Brother Yang, what was that sound just now?"

"Sniper!"

Yang Luo replied in a deep voice.

"What?! Sniper?!"

Prajna was shocked. She hurriedly squatted down and hid behind the desk.

However, Yang Luo did not squat down. Instead, he turned to look at an office building a thousand meters away diagonally opposite him.

Under the sunlight, a light flashed at the top of the building. It was the light reflected from the sniper rifle's reflector.

Moreover, Yang Luo also saw a figure crawling at the top of the building.

"Brother Yang, what are you doing? Hurry up and squat down!"

Seeing that Yang Luo did not understand, Prajna hurriedly reminded him.

Yang Luo waved his hand and said, "Don't worry, bullets are useless to me."

At the thought of Yang Luo's strength, Prajna heaved a sigh of relief.

She frowned and asked, "Brother Yang, why is there a sniper..."

However, halfway through her sentence, she exclaimed, "Could it be that those assassins have already started to attack?!"

"Aren't they too bold? They dare to attack in broad daylight?!"

But not only was Yang Luo not afraid, but he also revealed an excited expression, "Interesting, these guys have finally appeared!"

Right as he finished his sentence...

Bang!

The second bullet pierced through the French window and shot towards Yang Luo's glabella again!

“Brother Yang, be careful!”

Prajna shouted in surprise.

However, Yang Luo did not dodge. Instead, he instantly erupted with the True Qi in his body. His right hand stretched out like lightning and grabbed in the air!

This bullet that came from a thousand meters away was forcefully grabbed by Yang Luo!

Seeing this scene, Prajna was dumbfounded!

She clearly did not expect Yang Luo to be able to catch a bullet with his bare hands, and it was even a sniper bullet!

This level of strength was too perverse, right?

Was he even human?

Yang Luo threw the bullet on the table, then raised his right hand and raised his middle finger at the sniper a thousand meters away!

At this moment...

On the rooftop of an office building a thousand meters away.

A Caucasian man in ordinary attire with golden curly hair saw Yang Luo grabbing the bullet with his bare hands through the scope and also saw Yang Luo's raised middle finger.

“F*ck!”

The Caucasian man cursed angrily and quickly got up to pack his things.

As he packed his things, he said through the mini communicator in his ear, “This kid is not an ordinary person!

Plan A has failed. Start implementing Plan B!

“Also, come and pick me up immediately. Hurry, hurry!”

At this moment.

In Hua Mei Biomedical's assistant's office.

Yang Luo also saw that the sniper was preparing to retreat.

He immediately said to Prajna, “Prajna, I'll chase after that sniper. Stay behind and protect Qingmei!”

With that said, Yang Luo rushed out of the office, leaving Prajna in a daze.

After leaving the company, Yang Luo unleashed the power in his body and shot towards the office building a kilometer away..

Chapter 254: It's Your Honor!

After passing two streets in a row, Yang Luo ran to the third street.

But at this moment...

A black motorcycle sped over from afar and crashed towards Yang Luo!

"Damn!"

Yang Luo hurriedly dodged and avoided the motorcycle.

However, before Yang Luo could stabilize himself, the person on the motorcycle suddenly took out a pistol and fired at Yang Luo!

"Damn it, another one!"

Yang Luo's expression changed. He stomped on the ground and tilted his body to the side!

Bang!

The bullet pierced through a trash can by the street!

After dodging the shot, Yang Luo looked up and saw that the motorcycle had already driven far away!

Yang Luo looked at the roof of the office building in the distance!

A helicopter hovered in the sky. The sniper grabbed the rope ladder with his right hand and raised his left hand to give Yang Luo the middle finger!

A cold glint flashed across Yang Luo's eyes as he scanned his surroundings. He immediately discovered a motorcycle parked by the roadside.

He got on the motorcycle and prepared to leave.

"Hey, what are you doing? This is my car!"

A young man ran out of the shop.

"Lend this to me. Wait for me at Hua Mei Biomedical. I'll return it to you later!"

With that, Yang Luo rode his motorcycle and left.

Yang Luo had never ridden a motorcycle before and was not used to it at first, causing him to wobble left and right.

However, after driving for a while, he got used to it.

Yang Luo drove the motorcycle and chased after the killer on the motorcycle.

He was certain that the sniper and the killer on the motorcycle were in cahoots.

Otherwise, how could it be so coincidental? First, he was sniped, then he was ambushed on the way.

Therefore, these two killers would definitely meet up.

As long as he targeted one, he could capture the other.

During this period of time, he had been waiting for these killers to take action.

Now that these assassins had finally jumped out, he naturally would not let them off.

At this moment...

Yang Luo twisted the handle of the motorcycle to the bottom and increased his speed to the maximum as he sped along the road.

He relied on his powerful control and perception to avoid the cars on the road.

He persistently drove on for quite a few streets.

Only then did Yang Luo finally see the killer on the motorcycle in front of him.

The assassin saw Yang Luo chasing after him through the rearview mirror, so he accelerated to the maximum and drove into the distance.

At this moment...

Yang Luo and the assassin seemed to have started a competition as they sped along the road.

After an unknown period of time...

The two of them left the city and drove to the suburbs.

After driving for an unknown period of time...

The killer stopped the car and ran to a patch of grass by the road.

Yang Luo also parked the car by the roadside. After parking the car, he chased after the person.

After chasing for thousands of meters, Yang Luo saw a helicopter parked on the grass in the distance.

The assassin in black and helmet stopped and turned to look at Yang Luo.

Soon, three people got out of the helicopter.

There were three foreign men, two black and one white.

The assassin with the helmet also took off his helmet. He was also a Caucasian.

Yang Luo walked more than ten meters away from the four of them and stopped.

“Kid, no wonder you’re so arrogant to dare to provoke our assassin world. You really have some strength.”

At this moment, a black man who was nearly two meters tall spoke in fluent Chinese with a rough voice.

“I didn’t expect a ‘hunter’ like me to fail. Chinese kid, you’re not bad.”

A tall and thin blond man narrowed his eyes and said.

“However, although you have some strength, you’re extremely stupid!

Knowing that we want to kill you, not only did you not escape, you even chased us here. Aren’t you tempting fate?”

A black man who was about 1.85 meters tall said teasingly.

“Kid, you’re indeed arrogant. No one has ever dared to provoke our assassin world. You’re the first person!

“However, it’s your honor to die at the hands of the four of us today!”

A brown-haired man said with a smile.

Yang Luo was thin and did not have the aura of an expert.

Therefore, the four of them did not take Yang Luo seriously at all.

“Are you guys done?”

Yang Luo glanced at the four of them and said indifferently, “Tell me, what are your code names? What rank are you on the assassin rankings?”

The huge black man sneered and said, “Kid, then you have to listen carefully.

Don’t be so frightened that you wet your pants!

“I’m Tyrannosaurus, ranked 66th on the Assassin Ranking!”

“I’m the Destroyer, ranked 75th on the Assassin List!”

“I’m Venomous Snake, ranked 79th on the Assassin List!”

“I’m Hunter, ranked 68th on the Assassin Ranking!”

The other three men also introduced themselves.

“66th, 75th, 79th, 68th...”

Yang Luo read out the rankings of the four of them and said, “Why are there only the four of you? Where are the other assassins? Why aren’t they attacking together?”

Tyrannosaurus said coldly, “The four of us are enough to kill you. We don’t need anyone else!”

Yang Luo shook his head and said, “It’s impossible for the four of you to kill me.”

Tyrannosaurus said with a cold expression, “Kid, are you looking down on us?”

Yang Luo nodded and said, “That’s right. I am looking down on you.”

“Seeking death!”

Tyrannosaurus let out a furious roar and charged towards Yang Luo like a heavy truck!

Clang, clang, clang!

Every step he took caused the ground to tremble, and deep footprints were left behind!
The other three people watched the show from the side and had no intention of attacking.
They planned to observe the situation first.

If Tyrannosaurus could kill this kid alone, they would not have to do anything.

The next instant...

Tyrannosaurus approached Yang Luo. Then, he twisted his fist the size of a bowl and punched Yang Luo's head!

His punch was very powerful, and sonic booms erupted in the air!

If one could not block it, their head would explode with a single punch!

Therefore, Tyrannosaurus was once known as the King of Black Fist overseas. He won with 381 victories and 32 draws, shocking the boxing world!

After that, Tyrannosaurus stepped into the Dark World and became an assassin, setting many records!

Seeing Yang Luo standing there motionless, as if he was scared silly, the three saboteurs sneered repeatedly, as if they could imagine the scene of Yang Luo's head being blown apart by a punch.

However, the moment Tyrannosaurus threw a punch!

Yang Luo turned his right hand into a palm and casually raised it!

With a muffled bang, Tyrannosaurus' punch was easily blocked by him!

The power of this punch was extremely terrifying. The ground under Yang Luo's feet caved in a few inches!

However, Yang Luo stood there quietly, unscathed!

“How... how is this possible?!”

The Destroyer was shocked, “This kid actually blocked Tyrannosaurus' punch?!”

“How unbelievable!

“This kid's figure is so thin. How did he block it?!”

A look of shock appeared in Venomous Snake's eyes..

Chapter 255: Killed with a Punch!

The hunter narrowed his eyes and said, “Even if this kid can block Tyrannosaurus's punch, he definitely won't be able to block Tyrannosaurus' next punch.

“Don't worry, this kid will definitely be killed by Tyrannosaurus.”

The Destroyer and Venomous Snake nodded. They felt that Yang Luo was no match for Tyrannosaurus.

At this moment, Tyrannosaurus saw that Yang Luo had blocked his punch. He sneered and said, “Kid, you have some skills. I hope you can block my next punch!”

As he spoke, Tyrannosaurus clenched his fists and erupted with terrifying strength and speed as he charged towards Yang Luo!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

One punch after another shot out like a cannonball, causing ear-piercing sonic booms to erupt in the air!

However, no matter how powerful Tyrannosaurus’s punch was, he could not hurt Yang Luo at all!

Yang Luo’s right hand flashed in the air like lightning and blocked Tyrannosaurus’s storm-like punches!

Moreover, from the beginning to the end, Yang Luo had been standing on the spot without moving half a step!

This scene stunned the three assassins!

“This kid actually blocked all of Tyrannosaurus’s attacks?!”

“Something’s wrong. This kid is too strange!”

“Something is indeed wrong. Prepare to attack!”

The eyes of the Destroyer, Venomous Snake, and the Hunter were filled with shock. They could no longer underestimate Yang Luo.

After hundreds of consecutive punches, Tyrannosaurus panted lightly. Cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

He took two steps back and said angrily, “Kid, don’t block it if you have the ability. Fight me head-on!”

“You want to fight head-on?”

Yang Luo smiled teasingly, “Alright, I’ll do as you wish!”

As he spoke, Yang Luo raised his right arm. His muscles squirmed and his strength increased exponentially. He threw a punch at Tyrannosaurus!

Not only did Yang Luo cultivate the internal art, the Nine Heavens Dragon Taming Technique, but he also cultivated the external art, the Eight-Nine Mysteries!

Therefore, although Yang Luo looked thin, his physique was incomparably powerful. Just his strength was definitely not something ordinary people could compare to!

Tyrannosaurus also twisted his fist and unleashed all his strength to meet the attack!

In an instant!

THUD!

The two fists collided heavily like two huge rocks colliding, causing a thunderous explosion!

Strong winds howled, the ground collapsed, and soil and grass swept into the sky!

The next second!

Crack!

The crisp sound of bones cracking resounded!

Tyrannosaurus's thick right arm was broken by Yang Luo's punch. His skin and flesh were torn and badly mangled!

“ARGH!”

Tyrannosaurus let out a tragic cry as his huge body was sent flying more than twenty meters away!

With a loud bang, his body hit the helicopter heavily. The helicopter, which weighed several tons, was actually knocked over!

“Oh my God! Is this still the power of humans?!”

The Hunter could not help but exclaim, his eyes almost popping out.

“What are you waiting for? Attack!”

The Destroyer roared and charged at Yang Luo.

Venomous Snake took out a sharp knife and charged at Yang Luo.

In an instant!

The Destroyer had approached Yang Luo!

He raised his right arm and it actually turned into a silver-gray steel knife that slashed at Yang Luo!

“Could it be that you're an Esper?”

Yang Luo's figure flashed.

Bam!

The ground was cut in half like tofu!

“That's right.”

The Destroyer smiled coldly and said, “I'm a metal-type Esper. Any part of my body can turn into metal!

Some people call me a Destroyer, while others call me... ‘Ironman’!”

As he spoke, his left arm turned into a steel saber!

Then, he waved his two steel sabers and slashed at Yang Luo at the same time!

Swish! Swish!

Strong winds whistled as the air was torn apart like cloth, emitting a sharp sound!

Facing the two steel blades that slashed down, Yang Luo did not dodge anymore. Instead, he clenched his fists and faced them at the same time!

Clang! Clang!

Accompanied by a crisp sound of collision, not only did the sabers from the Destroyer fail to injure Yang Luo, but they were also forced back by Yang Luo's fists!

It was also when the Destroyer was forced back...

Venomous Snake appeared from behind!

He raised the sharp knife in his hand and stabbed towards the back of Yang Luo's heart. He was really like a Venomous Snake waiting for an opportunity to move, sinister and vicious!

However, Yang Luo quickly reacted. He suddenly turned around and swept his leg out!

With a dull thud, Venomous Snake was sent flying by a kick!

However, as Venomous Snake was sent flying, Hunter in the distance seized this opportunity. He took out two revolvers from his waist and kept shooting at Yang Luo!

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

Bullets whistled out, fast, accurate, and ruthless. They aimed at the various fatal parts of Yang Luo's body!

However, Yang Luo seemed to have expected this. True Qi erupted from his body and condensed into a True Qi barrier!

Ding, ding, ding!

The bullets collided with the True Qi barrier, emitting crisp sounds and shooting out sparks. They were all sent flying!

“How is this possible?!”

The Hunter was stunned, his eyes filled with disbelief!

Previously, Yang Luo catching his bullet with his bare hands had already shocked him!

However, he did not expect Yang Luo to have a body to block his bullets now!

Without waiting for the Hunter to recover, Yang Luo's figure flashed and he charged towards him!

He planned to kill this guy first!

The Hunter's face turned pale as he kept pulling the trigger and firing bullets!

However, Yang Luo was like an impenetrable wall as he rushed forward and blocked all the bullets!

After realizing that all the bullets he fired could not hurt Yang Luo...

The Hunter threw away the revolver in his hand, took out a dagger, and charged at Yang Luo!

Actually, most snipers were usually only good at shooting and long-range killing. Their melee strength was only average!

But now, he had no choice but to fight in close combat!

Just as the dagger in his hand stabbed over...

Yang Luo twisted his fist and punched towards the Hunter's heart!

Thud!

A dull sound resounded!

His heart was directly disintegrated by a punch!

“Uhh...”

The hunter let out a final scream as he flew backward.

After flying for more than ten meters, he fell heavily to the ground. Blood gushed out of his mouth and his body twitched a few times before he completely stopped breathing.

“Hunter!”

“D*mn it!”

“Bastard!”

Tyrannosaurus, Destroyer, and Venomous Snake roared angrily and charged at Yang Luo at the same time!

The three of them also knew how powerful Yang Luo was, so they did not hold back and erupted with their strongest combat strength!

In an instant!

The three of them approached Yang Luo and attacked at the same time!

Tyrannosaurus twisted his left fist and mobilized all the strength in his body to deliver a powerful punch!

The Destroyer waved his two sabers and slashed at Yang Luo's body!

Venomous Snake flipped his wrist and stabbed the sharp knife in his hand at Yang Luo's throat!

The attacks of the three of them were extremely ferocious and violent. If one was not strong enough to counter them, they would definitely be killed! Unfortunately, they encountered Yang Luo!

A cold glint flashed across Yang Luo's eyes as True Qi barrier appeared on his body.. After blocking the attacks of the Destroyer and Venomous Snake, he punched Tyrannosaurus!

Chapter 256: Who's the Prey?

At that moment...

THUD!

A terrifying sound of collision resounded like a thunderclap!

No matter how terrifying Tyrannosaurus' punch was, it could not block Yang Luo's punch!

After Yang Luo's punch broke his left arm, it landed heavily on his chest!

“Pfft...”

Tyrannosaurus's body was sent flying. His chest collapsed and he spat out a large mouthful of blood. He fell more than 20 meters away.

When he landed, Tyrannosaurus was already dead.

“Tyrannosaurus!”

The Destroyer and Venomous Snake roared as they kept attacking Yang Luo!

At this point, Yang Luo's body shook!

With a bang, the True Qi barrier transformed into violent air waves that sent the Destroyer and Venomous Snake flying!

However, Yang Luo did not stop at all and chased after them!

In the blink of an eye!

He caught up to Venomous Snake!

Venomous Snake twisted his waist and abdomen. He waved the sharp knife in his hand and stabbed at Yang Luo again!

However, Yang Luo stretched out his hand and slapped away the sharp knife in his hand. Then, he grabbed the latter's throat!

“You treated me as prey, but what about now?”

Who is the real prey?”

Yang Luo said coldly. His right hand suddenly exerted strength and snapped Venomous Snake's neck!

After throwing Venomous Snake aside, Yang Luo turned towards the Destroyer!

The Destroyer was shocked. His entire body was metalized, and even his face turned into metal, revealing only its eyes, nose, and mouth!

At this moment, the Destroyer really seemed to have become Ironman, a shocking sight!

“Young brat, my entire body is made of metal now. Don't even think about killing me!”

The saboteur roared and charged towards Yang Luo crazily!

“So what if your entire body is metal?”

I can still kill you!”

Yang Luo shouted and threw a punch!

Before the Destroyer could attack Yang Luo, his chest was hit by a punch. His chest immediately caved in and he was sent flying. With a bang, he crashed into the helicopter in the distance!

“D*mn it!” “D*mn it!”

The Destroyer was furious. He crawled up from the ruins and charged at Yang Luo again!

Seeing him charging over, Yang Luo threw a second punch!

THUD!

The Destroyer was sent flying for the second time. His chest caved in again and he fell heavily into the ruins!

“I’ll fight it out with you!”

The Destroyer roared as blood flowed from the corner of his mouth. He charged at Yang Luo for the third time!

Yang Luo also threw a third punch!

THUD!

The Destroyer was sent flying for the third time!

This time, he flew more than 30 meters away and landed heavily on the ground, creating a human pit!

This time, he could not get up again. His metalized body had completely cracked!

A few moments passed.

His body returned to its original appearance. His entire body was covered in cracks and blood gushed out continuously in an extremely tragic manner!

Yang Luo walked up and stepped on his chest.

“Don’t kill me... Please don’t kill me...”

Fresh blood gushed out of the Destroyer’s mouth. His face was pale as he begged for mercy.

If he had known that this operation would be life-threatening, he would not have come even if he was beaten to death.

Yang Luo asked coldly, “Tell me, where are the other killers now?”

“I... I don’t know...”

The saboteur gulped and said weakly, “Other than the four of us in a team... We don’t know if the other assassins have come to Jiang City... let alone where they are...”

“Since you don’t know anything, what’s the point of keeping you?”

Killing intent flickered in Yang Luo’s eyes as he crushed the man’s internal organs with a stomp.

“Uhh...”

The Destroyer let out a final miserable cry and died completely.

Even after brutally killing four people, Yang Luo’s mood did not fluctuate at all.

Prajna had told him that the Dark World was a world where the strong preyed on the weak. Only the strong were worthy of respect.

Since these four fellows had stepped into the Dark World and carried countless lives, they naturally had to be prepared to be killed one day.

Then, Yang Luo picked up his phone and took a photo of Tyrannosaurus, the Destroyer, Venomous Snake, and the Hunter. After that, he sent out his true fire and burned the four of them to ashes.

After destroying the evidence, Yang Luo drove the motorcycle and quickly left the place, heading straight for Hua Mei Biomedical.

At this moment...

At the entrance of Hua Mei Biomedical.

Prajna was waiting anxiously for Yang Luo at the door.

Not far away, a fashionable young man was also waiting for Yang Luo with a cigarette in his mouth.

He was very depressed. He had only been gone for the time to buy a pack of cigarettes from a roadside shop, but his ride had been robbed just like that.

The key was that the person who snatched the car said that he would wait for him here. He wondered if that guy was lying to him.

After waiting for about half an hour...

A motorcycle drove over from afar.

“Brother Yang!”

Seeing the person in the car, Prajna waved her hand in surprise.

“Brother, you’re finally back!”

The young man quickly ran over.

Yang Luo got out of the car and returned it to the young man completely. Then, he wrote a cheque and handed it to him. “Brother, thank you for lending me the car. Take this 10,000 yuan as gas money.”

The young man took the check and looked at it. He immediately smiled brightly, “Thank you, Boss! If you need a car in the future, you can look for me anytime!”

With that, the young man drove away on his motorcycle.

After the young man left, Prajna hurriedly asked, “Brother Yang, how’s the situation? Did you catch that sniper?”

Yang Luo smiled and said, “Of course I caught them. Besides that sniper, there were three other people.”

“All?”

Prajna was shocked, “There are three more?!”

“That’s right.”

Yang Luo nodded and said, “There were four killers this time. I’ve already killed them all.”

With that said, Yang Luo took out his cell phone, opened the photo album, and handed it to Prajna.

Prajna looked at the photo and was dumbfounded, “Tyrannosaurus, Destroyer, Venomous Snake, Hunter... It’s actually them!”

When she saw the tragic state of Tyrannosaurus and the other three in the photo, she had no choice but to believe that Yang Luo had really killed Tyrannosaurus and the other three.

She had been worried, but now that she looked at it, her worries were unnecessary.

Yang Luo took back his cell phone and said, “Post the photos of these four people on the dark web now.

“It’s a pity that the other eleven assassins didn’t attack together. Otherwise, I would have been able to destroy them all at once.”

As he spoke, Yang Luo sent the photos of Tyrannosaurus and the other three to Prajna.

After Prajna received the photo, she asked, “Brother Yang, are we really going to upload it?”

“Of course.”

Yang Luo nodded and said, “If I don’t upload the photo, how can my level increase?”

Prajna said, “But once it goes up, the assassin world will definitely think that you’re provoking them again!

At that time, if an even more powerful assassin comes to kill you, it will really be dangerous!”

She knew very well that once these four photos were posted on the dark web, it would definitely cause another uproar!

Who knew what would happen then!

“Don’t worry, Prajna. It’ll be fine.”

Yang Luo waved his hand and said, “No matter who comes, they only have one outcome, and that’s death!”

Chapter 257: Important News!

“Then... alright.”

Prajna also sighed. She could only follow Yang Luo’s instructions and upload all four photos to the Dark Web.

Yang Luo said, “Keep an eye on the Dark Web later. Remember to tell me if there’s any new information.”

“Alright.”

Prajna nodded.

Yang Luo said helplessly, “The key is that I don’t know where the remaining n killers are.

If they all jumped out one by one, it would be too troublesome.

I hope that after they see these four photos, they will be alerted and come to kill me together.”

Upon hearing Yang Luo’s words, Prajna felt her heart skip a beat as the corners of her mouth twitched.

She had never seen anyone who couldn’t wait for the killer to find them.

By following Yang Luo, there were times she felt that her little heart could not take it anymore.

Just as Yang Luo and Prajna were about to enter the company...

“Mr. Yang!”

A pleasant voice sounded.

Yang Luo turned around and saw a beautiful figure getting out of a taxi. It was Alinda.

Alinda was still dressed simply and casually today. She was wearing a white chiffon shirt and a pair of light blue tight jeans, coupled with a pair of sneakers.

However, no matter how simple her attire was, it could not hide her charm.

Her fair and tender skin, exquisite facial features, and amber curly hair were all very attractive.

Many employees who entered and left the company kept glancing sideways.

However, Alinda greeted everyone in a lively manner.

After walking in front of Yang Luo, Alinda greeted Prajna. Then, she looked at Yang Luo and smiled, “Mr. Yang, do you have time to bring me to see the old Chinese doctor you mentioned?”

“Of course I have time.”

Yang Luo nodded and said, “I’ll bring you there now.”

As he spoke, Yang Luo said to Prajna, “Prajna, go ahead.”

Prajna let out an “Oh” before walking back into the company.

On the other hand, Yang Luo brought Alinda to the underground parking lot and drove the Rolls-Royce Cullinan straight to the Ancient Life Hall.

On the way...

Alinda spoke out first, “You really broadened my horizons yesterday. I didn’t expect Chinese medicine to really be able to perform surgery.

“Moreover, to be able to succeed in such a difficult surgery, I really don’t understand how it can be done at all.”

Yang Luo said, “Actually, the earliest surgery originated from Chinese medicine.

However, as time passed, many things were lost, causing Chinese medicine to slowly decline.

“In addition, there are some half-baked Chinese medicine doctors who swindle people outside. That’s why people no longer believe in Chinese medicine and think that it’s useless.”

“What a pity.”

Alinda shook her head regretfully before she teased, “So, Mr. Yang, are you planning to shoulder the heavy responsibility of promoting Chinese medicine?”

Yang Luo shook his head and said, “It’s not realistic for me to promote Chinese medicine alone. This requires the combined efforts of all Chinese Medicine Practitioners.

“I can only do my best to spread Chinese medicine and make the world believe in Chinese medicine.”

Alinda nodded slowly and asked, “Mr. Yang, if I study Chinese medicine from now on, can I become a formidable Chinese medicine doctor like you in the future?”

Yang Luo said, “Miss Alinda, Western medicine and Chinese medicine are connected in many ways. As long as you’re willing to study it, I believe you’ll definitely become a great Chinese medicine doctor.

“However, I’m afraid it’s very difficult for your medical skills to be the same as mine.”

“Why?”

Alinda looked puzzled.

Yang Luo pondered before saying, “Learning Chinese medicine not only requires hard work, but also talent and comprehension.”

Alinda said with a dejected expression, “Mr. Yang, do you mean that my talent and comprehension are not enough?”

“Uhh...”

Yang Luo smiled awkwardly and said, “That’s not what I mean either. Anyway, you’ll understand what I mean after you understand Chinese medicine in depth.”

“Alright.”

Alinda nodded, and a determined glint appeared in her eyes, “However, I’ll work hard to learn Chinese medicine!”

Yang Luo smiled and said, “Good luck then!”

Alinda suddenly thought of something and said, “By the way, Mr. Yang, the Ninth Medical Competition will be held in your country soon.

Will you participate then?”

Yang Luo nodded and said, "Yes."

"Really?!"

Alinda's beautiful eyes widened. "Oh my god, looks like this year's Medical Competition is going to be exciting!"

Yang Luo smiled and said, "I'm looking forward to sparring with famous doctors from all over the world."

Alinda looked at Yang Luo's side profile in a daze and wondered how stunning this man would be when the time came.

At this moment...

Jiang City, villa number 17, by the river.

There were seven foreign men and women sitting in the hall.

Everyone was holding red wine and chatting happily.

"This time, we have so many assassins attacking at the same time. That Chinese kid called Yang Luo will definitely die!"

The Caucasian man with short red hair played with a blood-colored dagger and said with a smile.

This white man was Bloodblade, ranked 73rd in the assassin world.

"This kid actually dares to provoke our assassin world. He's really courting death!"

A Caucasian woman with golden curly hair and a black leather jacket sneered.

This Caucasian woman was Black Widow, who was ranked 63rd in the assassin world.

"Bloodshed, Black Widow, since that kid dares to provoke our assassin world, I'm afraid that kid should have some strength. Therefore, it's better to be careful."

A Caucasian man with curly brown hair and a rough face reminded him with a cigar in his hand.

This white man was Old K, who was ranked 59th in the assassin world.

Black Widow took a sip of red wine and said with a smile, "Old K, are you afraid of this Chinese kid? This isn't like you!"

Old K shrugged and said, "There's an old saying in China that goes, 'Better safe than sorry'.

If so many of us can't kill that kid, we won't have the face to survive in the assassin world in the future."

"Old K, don't worry. We have so many people here. Even if that kid really has some strength, he's not our match."

A Caucasian woman in a black robe swirled the wine glass in her hand and said.

This Caucasian woman was the 62nd-ranked assassin, nicknamed Psychic Witch in the assassin world.

At this moment, footsteps came from outside.

The seven people present turned around and saw two men and a woman walking in quickly.

These two men and one woman were the 61st, 70th, and 71st in the assassin world, the Big Beard, the Pyro Man, and the Gale Girl.

“Big Beard, how’s the investigation going?”

Old K hurriedly asked.

The bearded man picked up a glass of red wine on the coffee table and drank it in one gulp. Then, he said, “I’ve already investigated that kid’s situation.

However, we also found out an important piece of information.”

“What news?”

Black Widow hurriedly asked.

The others also looked at Big Beard..

Chapter 258: Saving Face!

Big Beard said, “Not long ago, Tyrannosaurus, Destroyer, Hunter, and Venomous Snake had already attacked that kid!”

“Is that so?”

Old K narrowed his eyes and said, “How’s the situation now? Did Tyrannosaurus and the others succeed?”

“We’re not too sure.”

Big Beard shook his head and said, “We wanted to follow and take a look, but we lost them.”

The Psychic Witch asked, “How long has it been since Tyrannosaurus and the others attacked?”

“It’s been two hours.”

After saying that, Pyro Man took out a cigarette and snapped his fingers. A ball of flame ignited on his fingers as he lit the cigarette.

The Psychic Witch said, “It’s been two hours. Looks like there should be a result.

Everyone, enter the dark web to take a look and see if there’s any latest news on the dark web.”

Everyone nodded and took out their special cell phones. They entered the dark web and found the post with a bounty on Yang Luo.

When they saw the four photos on the post, the hall fell into a dead silence.

Everyone stared at the phone screen with their mouths agape. Their eyes were filled with disbelief.

There was a long silence before they looked up again.

The entire hall immediately became noisy.

“How is this possible?! Tyrannosaurus and the other three were actually killed?!”

“Oh my god, this can’t be real, right? Are you sure you’re not dreaming?!”

“Tyrannosaurus and the other three aren’t weak. The four of them joined forces but they couldn’t kill that kid and were killed instead?!”

“This kid is indeed not simple!”

Everyone exclaimed, their eyes filled with shock.

“Old K, what should we do next?”

Black Widow asked Old K.

Old K, on the other hand, frowned and remained silent.

“This kid’s strength has already exceeded our imagination. I think we shouldn’t provoke this kid anymore.”

The White-Headed Eagle, who was ranked 69th, said in a low voice.

“White-Headed Eagle, is that all you’ve got?”

Big Beard sneered and said, “Perhaps this Chinese kid has some strength, but can’t we kill him if we form a team of ten?”

The White-Headed Eagle said, “If the operation fails, I’m afraid our lives will be lost here!”

In fact, other than the White-Headed Eagle, there were also a few killers present who had the same thoughts as the White-Headed Eagle.

In just two hours, Tyrannosaurus and the other three were killed. This was enough to prove that the Chinese kid’s strength was definitely not ordinary.

Big Beard said, “White-Headed Eagle, if you want to quit, get lost quickly!

Even without you, we can still kill that kid!

You’re so timid and afraid of trouble. You’re not worthy of being an assassin at all!”

“You...”

The White-Headed Eagle glared at Big Beard, its eyes filled with anger.

“Alright, stop arguing!”

Old K roared.

Only then did the White-Headed Eagle and Big Beard quiet down.

Old K said in a deep voice, “Now, we’ve already boasted that we’ll definitely kill Yang Luo and hang his head on the dark web!

Besides, other than the assassin world, even the entire Dark World is paying attention to us!

“If we choose to withdraw now, we will lose all our face and become the laughing stock of the entire assassin world and even the Dark World!

“Therefore, we have to kill that kid to save our face and the glory of the assassin world!”

After a pause, Old K continued, “Of course, if anyone still wants to withdraw, I won’t stop them. Please help yourself!”

Hearing this, everyone present looked at each other. No one said anything else.

Big Beard glanced at everyone before he said, “Everyone, don’t be frightened by that kid.

“As long as we work together, no matter how strong that kid is, he will definitely die.”

Black Widow said, “If Hell Envoy came, our chances of winning will be even higher.”

Old K frowned and said, “Hell Envoy will definitely not join forces with us.

However, even without the Hell Envoy’s help, we can still kill that kid.”

Big Beard said, “That’s right. We’re all top-notch assassins on the assassin rankings. If we can’t even kill a Chinese kid, how can we survive in the assassin world!”

Old K nodded and said, “Alright, let’s cut to the chase. Let’s start formulating the assassination plan!”

“Yes!”

Everyone immediately chorused out.

At that moment.

Yang Luo drove Alinda to the main shop of the Ancient Life Hall.

After parking the car, the two of them walked into Ancient Life Hall.

“Divine Doctor Yang, why are you here?

“Hello, Divine Doctor Yang!”

A few doctors and shop assistants of the medical center hurriedly welcomed him and greeted him warmly.

Yang Luo smiled and nodded. He asked, “Is Elder Huang here?”

“Oh, Master is studying acupuncture in the study. Please wait a moment. I’ll call Master now.”

A doctor replied and hurriedly ran upstairs.

After a short period of time...

Huang Tai’an, who was wearing a gray cotton shirt, came downstairs with a smile.

“Master, why are you here today? What’s the matter?”

Yang Luo smiled and said, “Elder Huang, I came to send you a disciple.”

“Disciple?”

Huang Tai’an was stunned for a moment before turning to look at Alinda, “Are you talking about this lady?”

“That’s right.”

Yang Luo nodded and introduced, “This is Miss Alinda, the president of the Western Medical Association.”

“What?!”

Huang Tai’an was shocked, “She... she’s the president of the Western Medical Association?!

That’s not right. I remember that the president of the Western Medical Association is a white old man?”

Alinda explained, “The previous president was my teacher.

“Now that Teacher is old, he handed the Western Medical Association to me to manage.”

“I see.”

Huang Tai’an nodded in realization.

Yang Luo said to Alinda, “Miss Alinda, this is Mr. Huang Tai’an, the leader of the four Divine Doctors in Jiang City. He’s also a director of the Chinese Medical Association.

If you follow Elder Huang, you should be able to learn a lot.”

Alinda smiled and said, “Hello, Mr. Huang. Please guide me.”

Huang Tai’an looked at Yang Luo strangely and said, “Master, your medical skills are so powerful. Why do you still want her to learn Chinese medicine from me?”

Yang Luo said, “Firstly, Miss Alinda has just come into contact with Chinese medicine. She can’t learn anything I teach her.

“Secondly, I have a lot of things to do on a daily basis.

That’s why I wanted to send her to you so that you can teach her.”

“Master, please accept this disciple’s bow!”

Alinda suddenly bowed to Huang Tai’an.

“I dare not accept this!”

Huang Tai’an quickly helped Alinda up and said, “Miss Alinda, you’re the president of the Western Medical Association and the authority of Western medicine.

Logically speaking, your status is higher than mine. I can’t be your master.”

Alinda said, “Mr. Huang, there’s an old saying in China that goes, ‘For every three people, there will be one that can be my teacher’..

I might be very good at Western medicine, but I know nothing about Chinese medicine.

You are the Divine Doctor of Jiang City and the authority of Chinese medicine. Naturally, you can be my master.”

Yang Luo also smiled and said, “Elder Huang, don’t be humble. Accept Miss Alinda. It can be considered as doing something for the friendly exchange between Chinese and Western medicine.”

Huang Tai’an smiled helplessly and said, “Master, since you’ve already said so, how can I refuse?

“Forget it, then I’ll take Miss Alinda as my disciple.”

Alinda was excited and quickly thanked him, “Thank you, Master!”

Chapter 259: Mysterious Man!

“You’re welcome. No need to thank me.”

Huang Tai’an waved his hand and said to Yang Luo, “Master, I’ve already gathered a lot of the herbs you asked me to gather previously. Do you still need them now?”

Yang Luo’s eyes lit up and he said, “Yes, of course!”

He had already decided to continue with the refining of more Spirit Gathering Pills. Although he no longer had any use for them, he had many friends who cultivated martial arts beside him. He could let them use them.

“Alright, alright, alright. I’ll get someone to bring the herbs over now!”

Huang Tai’an nodded repeatedly and instructed a few medical hall staff, “Go upstairs and bring down the boxes of herbs I prepared!”

“Yes!”

A few of the shop assistants responded and quickly went upstairs.

After a while.

A few of the assistants carried three large boxes of medicinal herbs down.

The assistants then carried three large boxes of medicinal herbs to Yang Luo.

Huang Tai'an said, "Master, check if it's the herbs you need."

Yang Luo opened the box and glanced at it. He said in satisfaction, "These are all the herbs I need. Elder Huang, thank you for the help."

How much do these herbs cost? Give me a number."

Huang Tai'an glared and said, "Master, are you looking down on me? How can I take your money?"

Yang Luo thought for a moment and said, "Since you don't want money, I'll write a prescription for your health."

Take the medicine according to the prescription. It can very well regulate your body."

Huang Tai'an smiled happily, "That works!"

As he spoke, Huang Tai'an got someone to bring a pen and paper.

Yang Luo then wrote a prescription and handed it to Huang Tai'an.

Huang Tai'an received the prescription as if he had obtained a treasure, "Thank you, Master!"

Then, Yang Luo got the assistant to carry the box to the trunk of the car.

Huang Tai'an said, "Master, it's already noon. Why don't we have a meal together?"

"Alright."

Yang Luo nodded in agreement.

But at this moment...

Exclamations came from outside.

"What's going on? Why is this little brother so seriously injured?"

"Why isn't this little brother moving? Could something have happened?"

Hearing the exclamation, Yang Luo and the other two hurriedly walked out. They saw that a thin young man in a black Tang suit with short hair and a delicate face had fallen by the entrance of the medical center.

Even though he had fallen, the young man still held a blood-stained Tang sword tightly in his grip.

Yang Luo only sensed for a moment and realized that this man was actually a Martial Warrior. Moreover, his cultivation had stepped into the perfected Grandmaster Realm.

This was the first time he had seen such a Perfected Grandmaster Realm Martial Warrior that was at such a young age.

However, what puzzled Yang Luo was who this man was.

Why was he here?

Who had injured him?

Huang Tai'an was stunned for a moment before hurriedly instructing, "Quick, carry him in!"

The assistants immediately ran over and carried the man into the medical center, placing him on the bed.

Huang Tai'an hurriedly checked his pulse, and his expression immediately changed, "Master, this young man's internal injuries are too serious. If we don't treat him quickly, his life will be in danger!"

Yang Luo also took the man's pulse and checked his body.

After the examination, Yang Luo said in a low voice, "His internal organs are all damaged. Six meridians are broken, four ribs are broken, and his right arm and left leg are shattered."

"It's that serious?!"

When Huang Tai'an heard this, he could not help but gasp.

Alinda was also shocked.

Huang Tai'an asked, "Master, can you treat him?"

"Yes."

Yang Luo nodded and said, "Carry him into the room. I'll treat him."

Huang Tai'an nodded and said to the assistants, "Hurry up and carry him to the treatment room!"

They immediately carried the man to a room in the backyard.

After Yang Luo, Huang Tai'an, and Alinda entered the room, they closed the door.

Alinda said, "Mr. Yang, this gentleman's injuries are so serious. Don't you need surgery?"

"There's no need. I can cure him."

Yang Luo shook his head.

If an ordinary person said this, Alinda would definitely scoff and not believe them.

However, after seeing Yang Luo treat He Wanli, she firmly believed in Yang Luo's medical skills.

After that, Yang Luo walked to the bed and took off the man's shirt.

He then took out a box of silver needles and performed acupuncture on the man.

Because this man's injuries were very serious, he directly mobilized his True Qi and used the Nine Needles of Heavenly Dao.

The nine silver needles fell one after another and pierced into the nine acupuncture points on this man's body.

Traces of True Qi also flowed into the man's body through the silver needles! After stabbing the nine silver needles, Yang Luo continued to mobilize the True Qi in his body. He extended his hands and used the Tendon Changing Bone Tempering Hand to connect the man's bones and broken meridians!

Seconds ticked by.

More than half an hour passed.

Yang Luo finally retracted his hand.

The man's shattered bones and broken meridians had already been reconnected.

Another half an hour or so passed with them watching the situation.

Only then did the nine silver needles stop trembling.

Yang Luo waved his right hand and retracted the silver needles.

“Master, is this young man alright?”

Huang Tai'an asked.

Yang Luo said, “Don't worry, he's fine. He'll wake up in a few minutes.”

Quickly, five minutes passed.

At this moment...

The unconscious man lying on the bed opened his eyes.

He suddenly sat up and looked at Yang Luo and the other two warily. He asked coldly, “Who are you?”

Yang Luo looked at the man and said indifferently, “We should be the ones asking you this. Who are you?”

Huang Tai'an smiled and said, “Little brother, don't be nervous.

“You were seriously injured just now and fainted at the entrance of my medical center. It was my master who cured you.”

“Who's your master?”

The man asked in confusion.

Huang Tai'an introduced, “This is my master.”

“You treated me?”

The man turned to look at Yang Luo.

“That's right.”

Yang Luo nodded and said, “If you don't believe me, you can check your body.” The man did not say anything else. He sat cross-legged on the bed and circulated the True Qi in his body. Then, he got out of bed and stretched his body.

Shock appeared on his face!

He knew very well how serious his injuries were!

He even thought that he was dead for sure this time!

However, he did not expect to be cured by someone!

How heaven-defying was this person's medical skill to be able to do it?

“Phew...”

The man let out a long breath and knelt on one knee in front of Yang Luo, “Thank you for saving my life, Sir. This Xu Ying will remember it forever!

If you need help in the future, I won't hesitate even if I have to climb a mountain of swords or go through a sea of flames!”

Yang Luo reached out to help the man up and asked, “Your name is Xu Ying?” “That's right.”

Xu Ying nodded.

“My name is Yang Luo. Since you met me, it can be considered our fate.”

Yang Luo smiled faintly and said, “However, I'm very curious. With your perfected Grandmaster Realm cultivation, how did you get injured so badly? Who injured you?”

Hearing Yang Luo's words, Xu Ying was shocked, “You can sense my cultivation level?”

Chapter 260: Old Friends at First Meeting!

“Of course I can.”

Yang Luo smiled and nodded.

Xu Ying sized up Yang Luo. He wanted to sense Yang Luo's cultivation level, but he found that could not!

Could it be that this person's cultivation level was higher than his?

But that was not right. This person's aura was no different from that of an ordinary person.

“Master, is this little brother really a Grandmaster Realm expert?”

Huang Tai'an asked in surprise.

Although he did not cultivate martial arts, he had some understanding of martial arts.

It was rare to see such a young Grandmaster Realm expert.

“He is indeed a Grandmaster Realm expert.”

Yang Luo nodded and continued, “That's why I'm very curious about who injured him.”

Xu Ying said, “A few days ago, when I was traveling, I saved more than ten children from a group of evil people and sent them to the local police station.

“Later, I was chased by a group of mysterious people. One of them had a higher cultivation level than me. I was not his match, so I was severely injured by him.

That person wanted to kill me, but I still escaped.

I fled all the way to Jiang City unknowingly.”

Yang Luo stared into Xu Ying’s eyes. He could tell that Xu Ying wasn’t lying.

Yang Luo, Alinda, and Huang Tai’an also respected Xu Ying’s actions.

He had saved more than a dozen children, which meant that he had saved more than a dozen families.

Huang Tai’an smiled and said, “Little brother, well done. You can be considered to have helped out when you see injustice!”

Yang Luo also smiled and said, “It seems that I didn’t save the wrong person. You’re worth saving.”

Xu Ying was neither arrogant nor boastful at their praises. He only said calmly, “My master once taught me that cultivating martial arts is not only to strengthen one’s body and defend oneself, but also to have the sentiments of a chivalrous person who pities the world.

Therefore, I’ve been traveling outside all these years. When I see injustice, I’ll help.”

“Well said!”

Huang Tai’an’s eyes were filled with admiration.

Xu Ying took out a bank card and handed it to Yang Luo, “Mr. Yang, there’s 30 million yuan in this card. I hope you can accept it.

This bit of money naturally can’t compare to your life-saving grace, but it can be considered a little token of my appreciation.

In the future, if you need help, Mr. Yang, you can contact me at any time. No matter where you are, I will definitely rush over.”

After saying that, Xu Ying gave him a series of phone numbers. Then, he picked up the Tang knife on the table and turned to leave in a carefree manner.

“Wait!”

Yang Luo stopped Xu Ying.

“Mr. Yang, is there anything else?”

Xu Ying turned around and asked.

Yang Luo smiled and said, “Xu Ying, if you have nowhere to go, you can follow me in the future. We can call each other brothers. How about that?”

Yang Luo felt a sense of familiarity with Xu Ying at first sight.

Hence, he really wanted Xu Ying to stay.

Xu Ying looked at Yang Luo in a daze, his face full of conflict.

Actually, he also felt like he had hit it off with Yang Luo at first sight.

He pondered for a moment and said, “Mr. Yang, you saved my life, so I should agree to it.

However, I, Xu Ying, have always admired the strong.

If you want me to follow you, you have to defeat me first.”

“Alright!”

Yang Luo smiled and nodded, “Then it’s a deal!

If I can defeat you, you’ll follow me in the future!

If I can’t defeat you, I won’t force you to stay!”

“It’s a deal!”

Xu Ying nodded.

Then, Yang Luo and Xu Ying walked out of the room and came to a courtyard.

Huang Tai’an and Alinda quickly followed.

Arriving in the courtyard, Alinda asked curiously, “Master, are the two of them going to compete?”

“That’s right.”

Huang Tai’an nodded.

“Oh my god, doesn’t that mean I can see Chinese Kung Fu?!”

Alinda’s face was filled with excitement as she asked again, “Master, could it be that Mr. Yang knows martial arts?”

Huang Tai’an chuckled and said, “Not only is my master’s medical skills extraordinary, but his martial arts are also outstanding. Watch carefully. He will definitely surprise you!”

At this moment, Yang Luo and Xu Ying walked into the courtyard and stopped, looking at each other.

Yang Luo raised his hand and said, “Go ahead and attack. Use your strongest strength so that you won’t be unconvinced after losing!”

Xu Ying said, “Mr. Yang, although my injuries have yet to recover, I’m not someone ordinary people can defeat!”

Yang Luo laughed and said, “Then let’s give it a try!”

“Alright!”

Xu Ying responded and stabbed the Tang sword in his hand into the ground. Then, his figure flashed, leaving afterimages as he rushed towards Yang Luo!

And the moment they got close...

Xu Ying raised his right hand and slapped towards Yang Luo!

He struck out with his palm, and the shadows of his palm overlapped. The force was strong and incomparably powerful!

Seeing Xu Ying's palm strike, Yang Luo also raised his palm to meet it!

In an instant!

Thud!

The two palms collided heavily and exploded with a muffled thunder!

This voice shook Huang Tai'an and Alinda's eardrums!

Xu Ying had thought that he could defeat Yang Luo with one palm!

However, what shocked him was that Yang Luo's palm strike was even stronger, making him unable to block it!

"Ugh!"

He let out a muffled groan and was sent flying!

After flying for more than ten meters, Xu Ying flipped in the air and landed steadily!

After this confrontation, Xu Ying was sure that this young man was definitely an expert!

Yang Luo hooked his finger at Xu Ying and said with a smile, "Come, let's continue!"

"Fight!"

Xu Ying shouted. He stomped on the ground and soared into the sky, reaching a height of more than ten meters!

"Oh my god, is this the legendary Lightness Skill?"

Alinda could not help but exclaim.

Before her voice could fade...

Xu Ying swooped down and sent another palm strike at Yang Luo again!

This time, Xu Ying did not hold back. He mobilized a platinum colored True Qi and even integrated the Saber Qi into his palm before erupting!

The palm strike seemed to have transformed into dozens of palms at the same time. Every palm shadow overlapped and turned into a palm strike that slapped down again!

A series of deafening sonic booms sounded in the air!

"Haha, good skill!"

Yang Luo shouted and stepped on the ground. He stared at the sky and raised his palm again to meet the attack!

The next instant...

Bam!

The two palms collided again like a thunderclap!

The wind howled and True Qi surged, sweeping up the dust and grass on the ground!

Although Xu Ying's palm strike was even more powerful, it was still difficult for him to withstand Yang Luo's palm strike!

Faced against this palm, Xu Ying was sent flying again!

Yang Luo said loudly, "Xu Ying, there's no need to show mercy. Just use your true ability!"

"Alright!"

Xu Ying shouted in response. As he was sent flying, he kicked the wall behind him with his right foot!

His body suddenly accelerated, as if he had turned into a stream of light that flashed towards Yang Luo!

As he swept towards Yang Luo, he waved his right hand and released a stream of True Qi!

With a whoosh, the Tang saber that was stabbed into the ground soared into the sky and was grabbed tightly in his hand!

He held the Tang saber and slashed at Yang Luo!

Swoosh!

With a slash, a sharp platinum saber beam burst out. Countless saber shadows transformed at the same time, tearing through the sky and slashing out again!

This slash was fast, accurate, and ruthless. Moreover, it was difficult to tell if it was real or fake.. It even erupted with a sharp saber qi!
