Chapter 101 Kneeling and Kowtowing

Indeed, as soon as he spoke, laughter burst out among the people in the Bloody Battle Arena, as well as the bystanders.

"Daqin Saint Institute, we are really so scared!"

The people of the Bloody Battle Arena spoke with faces full of malice, and, laughing to this point, suddenly their expressions turned stern, and coldly said: "Then try it, let's see if the people from the Daqin Saint Institute dare to trouble our Netherworld Venerable if we break your legs here!"

Black Domain has its own rules!

As members of the Bloody Battle Arena, of course, they can't arbitrarily raise their hands against the students of the Daqin Saint Institute.

But if it's a request from the Evil Doctor, that's a different story!

Because that is a transaction!

Moreover, the people from the Daqin Saint Institute insulted the Evil Doctor, so it's only natural for them to make a move!

As for the Black Iron Level Black Domain Token... Oh, it was the people from the Daqin Saint Institute who broke the rules first!

Moreover, the lowest-level Black Domain Token does not have the right to disregard and neutralize the rules of the Black Domain!

If they cause trouble in the Black Domain, as long as they don't kill Yuwen Mo and the others, the Daqin Saint Institute definitely wouldn't dare to come looking for them for trouble!

It was exactly relying on this point that the crowd from the Bloody Battle Arena were so resolute in standing up for Luo Qingtong!

With the Netherworld Venerable on their side, what is there to fear!

In fact, they couldn't wait for none of these freshmen from the Daqin Saint Institute to compromise, giving them a chance to teach them a lesson and curry favor with the Evil Doctor!

After all, with the Medical Skill of the Evil Doctor, just refining some Medicine Liquid or Elixirs would be enough to bring them endless benefits!

"You guys!"

As soon as they heard the two words 'Netherworld Venerable', the freshmen from the Daqin Saint Institute instantly wilted.

Especially considering that the Netherworld Venerable was currently in this Black Domain Suburb, their hearts became even more panicked.

If they alarmed the Netherworld Venerable, their fate might be even more miserable!

Who knows what the Black Domain would do to win over that Evil Doctor? It's their own fault for having eyes but failing to recognize Mount Tai, offending the Evil Doctor!

At this moment, those freshmen who previously looked down on Luo Qingtong, thinking she was a scammer, felt a burning shame on their faces, filled with humiliation and indignation.

"Senior Brother..." They turned to Yuwen Mo.

The latter's facial expression was no better than theirs, perhaps even uglier.

But under the oppression of power, they had no choice but to bow their heads!

Yuwen Mo clenched his fists tightly, his heart boiling with extreme indignation due to the surging sense of humiliation.

He gritted his teeth as he looked at Luo Qingtong, finally having no choice but to lower his head.

"Thud!"

He knelt on his knees, and heavily kowtowed three times to Luo Qingtong.

"This matter started because of me, it was my fault for not recognizing a great figure and underestimating the Evil Doctor, these junior brothers and sisters were innocently dragged into this by me! Please Evil Doctor, do not take this to heart!"

Every word Yuwen Mo uttered was incredibly difficult for him to say.

As one of the Heaven's Chosen Sons of the Tianyu Empire, and having been admitted to the Daqin Saint Institute in one go becoming a Heavenly Level new student, he had never suffered such humiliation before!

The stares from the people all around were like thorns piercing him, making him feel the absolute peak of humiliation!

Yuwen Mo kept his head desperately low, not willing to let the other party see the difficulty and humiliation in his eyes.

"Very good, not bad." Luo Qingtong cast a fleeting glance at him.

This Yuwen Mo, indeed, was a character.

In such a humiliating situation, he could still endure and dissolve it.

Seeing the touched and unbearable expressions on the faces of the Saint Institute's new students around, Luo Qingtong smiled with a playful look on her face.

Interesting!

At this moment, if she continued to be aggressive, she would just be enhancing Yuwen Mo's good reputation.

She wasn't that kind-hearted!

"Okay." The young girl waved her hand, "You all may leave."

Her carefree attitude added a bit more constriction in Yuwen Mo's heart.

Without uttering a single word, he directly led the people from the Daqin Saint Institute away!

Of course, this included his injured little junior sister.

Watching his back, barely able to suppress his rage and the bulging veins on his forehead, Luo Qingtong felt very pleased with herself.

As a result, even Master Liu, who was kneeling on the ground begging for mercy, seemed much more pleasant in her eyes, and she casually handed over the antidote.

Chapter 102 Tianyu's Letter

After leaving the Bloody Battle Arena, Yuwen Mo and his companions went straight to the place where their Flying Boat was parked.

Their Flying Boat was not like Ye Qianming's, which possessed Sumeru Space and could be easily carried by shrinking. It had to be parked in the designated Flying Boat area of the Black Domain.

Once onboard the Flying Boat, Yuwen Mo remained silent, sitting gloomily in his seat, and nobody else dared to utter a word.

It was evident to everyone that his mood was extremely foul.

At that moment, a letter, like a feather of light, suddenly streaked in from the distance!

It was the urgent communication method he left in the Tianyu Empire!

It could transmit messages to him over thousands of miles!

Seeing the glimmer of the letter, Yuwen Mo raised his hand and grabbed it.

After reading the content of the letter, his already grim expression turned even darker.

"Snap!"

He directly crushed the letter in his hand, then suddenly wrote a few lines in the air, and with a sudden wave of his hand!

The transmission light instantly streaked far away!

Having done all this, he suddenly slammed his hand down onto the coffee table in front of him, breaking it into pieces.

"Cancel the engagement? Dream on!"

Yuwen Mo's face was furiously angry!

The Luo Family actually wanted to break off the engagement? Impossible!

Luo Qingtong was destined to be his, in life and death!

The engagement could absolutely not be dissolved!

Yuwen Mo did not care what Yu Wenxue did to Luo Qingtong!

All he knew was that the mere Luo Family had no right to defy him!

If he wished to marry Luo Qingtong, the Luo Family had to comply!

If they did not submit, he would not mind destroying the Luo Family, and then forcibly taking Luo Qingtong back to the Tianyu Empire!

After all, he only needed her as an ornament!

Whether Luo Qingtong or the Luo Family were willing was not within his consideration!

They were merely a Marquis Mansion of a Low-class Small Country!

What right did they have to refuse him?

Yuwen Mo's expression was icy.

If it were not for... he would not have spared Luo Qingtong a second glance!

As Yu Wenxue said, she was not worthy of him!

"Swoosh!"

The transmission light streaked rapidly towards the Tianyu Empire, and after a period of flight, it directly landed in the hands of Emperor Tianyu.

"How is it? What did Momo say?" Tianyu Empress asked anxiously by his side.

Yu Wenxue also straightened her body and looked towards her Father Emperor.

"Momo does not allow it! He instructed the Luo Family to behave and wait for him to marry Luo Qingtong when she turns sixteen!" Emperor Tianyu said as he crushed the letter in his hand.

"What?!" Tianyu Empress and Yu Wenxue were incredulously shocked.

"Even now, Momo is still not prepared to break off the engagement?!" Tianyu Empress was furiously upset, and Yu Wenxue almost twisted her own clothing corner into shreds.

"Has brother gone mad?! With things like this, he still wants to continue the engagement! Isn't this just waiting for others to laugh at our Royal Family!" She stomped her feet anxiously!

"You still have the nerve to say that! This is all because of you!" Emperor Tianyu glared coldly at her, "Who told you to harm Luo Qingtong? Your brother must have his reasons for wanting to marry her! It's you and your Mother Queen who are endlessly causing trouble!"

"I am not causing trouble! I am doing it for brother's benefit! It's such a good opportunity...if brother agrees, he can immediately rise high, and our Tianyu Royal Family can advance further! Where did I do wrong?! Besides, didn't Father Emperor and Queen Mother you all tacitly agree to this?"

Yu Wenxue stomped her feet, a face full of grievance.

"Even if marrying Luo Qingtong has its benefits, can it compare to what he could gain from that person?! That is..."

Chapter 103 Refusing to Call Off the Engagement

"Silence!"

Emperor Tianyu barked coldly.

"If your royal brother disagrees, no one's words will be of use! It's decided! Since he refuses to change his mind, you are henceforth forbidden to provoke Luo Qingtong!"

Having said that, Emperor Tianyu rose indifferently from his seat.

It's true that he had tacitly permitted Yu Wenxue's actions after discovering them, but now that there was not a sliver of possibility, accepting Luo Qingtong as his son's bride was the only choice.

As for what Yu Wenxue had done, he would naturally cover it up.

With the might of Tianyu Empire, erasing the influence of Yu Wenxue's actions was as easy as flipping one's hand!

The Luo Family had better behave! Otherwise, he wouldn't mind eradicating their entire family!

After all, Momo was marrying Luo Qingtong merely as a token figure.

"Alright, go and pacify Old Master Luo! Tell him not to harbor any other intentions! Luo Qingtong is destined to be one of our Tianyu Empire! As if the Luo Family could even dream of breaking off the engagement!"

Emperor Tianyu was not shaken inside, but his face did not show it; the words he spoke, however, were extremely discourteous.

"As for what Xue'er did, it was nothing more than a childish prank! Give them something to placate them, and let it be!"

In a bad mood, Emperor Tianyu did not even want to see Old Master Luo himself!

If Yuwen Mo had agreed to dissolve the engagement, he would have been willing to meet with Old Master Luo!

But right now, Yuwen Mo was utterly unwilling! If Old Master Luo came personally to dissolve the engagement, it would be a slap in the face!

A weak marquis mansion from a low-class country dares to request to break off an engagement with them!

Thinking of this, Emperor Tianyu felt extremely uncomfortable and left abruptly with a flick of his sleeve.

Behind him, Yu Wenxue stomped her foot in frustration.

"Mother Queen! You see how Father Emperor is..."

"Enough, this is your royal brother's decision, Father Emperor can't do anything about it. Someone, summon Old Master Luo." Tianyu Empress was also very displeased, but she knew if Yuwen Mo wouldn't budge, no one could force him!

In the current state of Tianyu Empire, half of its might was supported by Yuwen Mo!

If he disagrees, no matter their dissatisfaction, they couldn't break off the marriage!

It's such a pity...

Luo Qingtong has taken such a good spot!

If she had known, she would not have sought this marriage with the Luo Family in the first place!

Thinking this, Tianyu Empress's facial expression grew even uglier.

When facing Old Master Luo, she didn't show the slightest bit of courtesy.

With their status as the Tianyu Empire, to condescend to marry a girl from an insignificant household like Luo Qingtong was already a blessing for three generations! What could their own dissatisfaction do?

A minor marquis from a small household, should she, the Tianyu Empress, be expected to smile at him and act according to his whims?

At this time, Tianyu Empress had completely forgotten that it was Yu Wenxue who first moved against Luo Qingtong, which prompted Old Master Luo to seek to dissolve the engagement!

Of course, even if she hadn't forgotten, she probably wouldn't care!

In her eyes, the Tianyu Imperial Family could do whatever they wanted to the Luo Family and Luo Qingtong, but for them to come forward to break off the engagement was wrong!

It was tantamount to slapping the face of the Tianyu Imperial Family!

"Old Master Luo, Momo has already sent a message back. We of the Tianyu Imperial Family will not call off the marriage. Your Luo Family should also forget about having any other plans! Have Luo Qingtong ready, when she turns sixteen, people from our Tianyu Empire will come to fetch her!"

"As for Xue'er's affairs, those are merely child's play! Although it was overstepping a bit, it was not a serious breach!"

Tianyu Empress stated loftily from her high chair.

"Nonetheless, it was an alarm for your Luo Family. Here is a Gift List, consider it our compensation to the Luo Family! Let's end this matter here! Do not bring up dissolving the engagement again!"

Tianyu Empress spoke with a cold countenance.

Chapter 104 Fury Intermingled

Old Master Luo originally thought that this trip to break off the engagement would be very smooth.

After all, considering what Yu Wenxue did, with both eyewitness and physical evidence, the Tianyu Royal Family couldn't possibly deny it.

Yet, he never expected them to be so shameless!

When the Tianyu Empress spoke, he almost thought he had misheard!

Childish play? Nothing serious?!

Bribing a girl from the Luo Family's second branch to harm their legitimate daughter, ruin her cultivation, blind her, throw her to a group of brutes, and even attempt to murder her when she luckily escaped!

Is this childish play?! Is this nothing serious?!

Does the Tianyu Royal Family think he is a fool to be fooled?!

And to think of offering apologies?

Old Master Luo looked at the Gift List presented before him, his teeth nearly grinding!

Qingtong suffered such grievances, nearly lost her life! A mere Gift List to dismiss him from the Tianyu Royal Family?

Refusing to break off the engagement, and not even a slight punishment for Yu Wenxue was mentioned!

What do they take the Luo Family for?!

And what do they take Qingtong for?!

Moreover, Luo Qingtong is blind! Old Master Luo knows she is okay, having activated her Pupil Skill talent and can still see!

But the people of the Tianyu Royal Family don't know that!

Yet, the Tianyu Empress, from start to finish, never mentioned this matter!

It's as if Luo Qingtong being blind is not a serious matter!

Instead, a simple reference to childish play, nothing serious, and it's glossed over!

Old Master Luo feels that if he accepts this Gift List today, he would be too ashamed to face Luo Qingtong and the ancestors of the Luo Family!

"Bang!"

Old Master Luo, unable to contain his anger, stood up and immediately overturned the Gift List box in front of him!

"Impossible! With such actions from your Tianyu Royal Family! I will never marry Qingtong to you! This marriage, I must break off!"

"How dare you!"

Seeing her delivered Gift List box being overturned, the expression on the Tianyu Empress' face became utterly cold.

She was already displeased inside, barely keeping her calm to talk to Old Master Luo was courteous enough!

Yet, he was so unappreciative!

Is a marriage engagement under the Tianyu Royal Family something a small Luo Family can break off whenever they want?!

Bang!

She slammed her palm heavily on the armrest, her gaze coldly fixing on Old Master Luo.

"What do you think the Luo Family is? If it weren't for Momo adamantly refusing to break off the engagement, do you think I would care about your small Luo Family? That Luo Qingtong, what part of her is worthy of my son?!"

"Let me tell you, this marriage, you will consent whether you want to or not! In the face of our Tianyu Empire, the Luo Family has no right to refuse!"

"Shut your crap!"

Old Master Luo was completely enraged!

"I'm leaving words here! You Tianyu Royal Family wish to marry Qingtong? Dream on! This marriage, whether you agree or not, we in the Luo Family have decided!"

With that said, he left furiously.

Even if it costs him his life, he will not let Luo Qingtong marry into the Tianyu Royal Family!

"Bang!"

Watching the departing figure of Old Master Luo, the Tianyu Empress hit her armrest so hard she broke it.

Just then, Yu Wenxue came out from behind a screen.

"Queen Mother, how could you let this arrogant Old Master Luo just leave?"

She pouted.

"Enough, don't add fuel to the fire." The Tianyu Empress said coldly.

Chapter 105 Unwanted Guest

Black Domain.

Luo Qingtong was unaware of the events that had unfolded in the Tianyu Empire.

After giving the antidote to Master Liu, she immediately stood up and left.

Of course, the antidote wasn't given away for free.

All of Master Liu's assets had almost completely fallen into her hands.

In Black Domain Suburb, he owned an extremely luxurious and spacious mansion.

The moment Luo Qingtong got the deed, she didn't hesitate to move in!

She has always refused to shortchange herself!

Who would choose to stay at an inn with such a fine residence available? It's not like she enjoys self-inflicted misery!

But Master Liu really knew how to enjoy life.

Luo Qingtong looked at the enormous White Jade Pond behind the screen next to the master bedroom.

The first thing she did decisively was to strip and bathe!

These past few days, she really had had enough!

Black Domain Suburb was in the middle of a wilderness.

Luo Qingtong had been braving the elements for several days before she found this place!

If it weren't for Master Liu swapping her Medicine Liquid at the auction house, she would have wrapped up everything and gone back to the inn to bathe long ago!

But after a slight delay, obtaining such a residence wasn't too bad!

This massive White Jade Pond was formed by hollowing out and connecting several smaller rooms next to the master bedroom.

Master Liu even added a touch of elegance by filling the White Jade Pond with pebbles.

Around the bath, eight huge beast heads kept spouting hot water, quickly filling up most of the White Jade Pond.

Luo Qingtong shed her clothes and barefoot, she stepped onto the edge of the pool decorated with gleaming jade and gemstone ornaments and immersed herself, finding Master Liu's medicine-switching incident to actually have been a favor!

Otherwise, how would she have acquired such a splendid mansion?

You should know that real estate in Black Domain City is extremely expensive!

And furthermore, those not from Black Domain cannot purchase it!

Even though Luo Qingtong was now known as Evil Doctor Ghost Eyes, without the Black Domain Token she was to receive from Bloody Battle Arena, she wasn't qualified to buy property in Black Domain City!

In the future, she would often come to Black Domain City, so owning such a comfortable residence was ideal!

However, she knew she had to figure out what to do with the servants in the mansion.

Although Luo Qingtong wasn't afraid Master Liu would dare to tamper with anything, using someone else's people was always less comfortable!

This was a bad habit formed in her previous life.

People not personally vetted by her, she generally wouldn't keep close!

Looks like tomorrow she would have to make a trip to the slave market!

Additionally, she would need to buy back some manpower for the Luo Family!

Right now, the strength of the Luo Family was far too scant in Luo Qingtong's eyes!

Once she's done here and returns, she must help the Luo Family strengthen their power!

Especially Old Master Luo, he has been stuck in the Martial Marquis Realm for so long, unable to break through!

Luo Qingtong knew his power had long been sufficient; he was only lacking that final step in his realm enlightenment!

She planned to stay here a bit longer, collect some Spiritual Medicine, and refine a King Condensing Pill for Old Master Luo!

Alchemy and refining Medicine Liquid are two different things; thus, Luo Qingtong planned to gather more Spiritual Medicine to avoid any mishaps!

As she thought, she stretched her body, comfortably half-reclining by the edge of the White Jade Pond, soaking in the warm waters, twirling a fruit from the poolside plate, savoring each bite.

Suddenly, her eyes sharply focused, and in the next second, her body surged up adorned with a mist of water vapor.

A gauzy robe instantly appeared, enveloping her exquisite form.

A black cloak also fluttered into the air in an instant! Completely shrouding her figure.

"Who?!" Luo Qingtong's voice lowered as she shouted sternly.

Outside the room, she had set up a perimeter alert using unique techniques from her previous life.

Now, that alert had been unexpectedly triggered.

Whoosh!

A figure, as she shouted, slowly materialized within the room.

Chapter 106 A Troublesome Fate!

Ye Qianming watched the figure opposite him with a dark and deep gaze, still visibly damp from water.

The black cloak completely concealed Luo Qingtong's figure, not even a strand of hair peeked out.

Ye Qianming believed that with his own strength, he could appear anywhere without being noticed by anyone.

But obviously, the other party had discovered his presence.

Ye Qianming narrowed his eyes as he scrutinized Luo Qingtong, looking at the fierce Rashamon mask covering her face, increasingly suspecting that she might be that woman.

And Luo Qingtong, the moment Ye Qianming appeared, was inwardly cursing up a storm!

Not for any other reason, but because she recognized him – the very man from Jiuyu Mountain who she had threatened, teased, and then "forcefully kissed"!

Don't ask how Luo Qingtong recognized him!

She has the Pupil Skill!

Although Ye Qianming was wearing a Dark Gold Mask now, he hadn't used his power to cover his face, and Luo Qingtong saw right through the mask to the face hidden beneath it, inwardly cursing even more!

How come this man is everywhere!

And they've met again!

Luo Qingtong felt utterly frustrated!

If it wasn't for the need to keep her identity hidden, she would have really liked to grab this man and ask him if he was actually harboring a secret crush on her! Why was he everywhere she went! Damn!

All kinds of curses were going through Luo Qingtong's mind, but the words that came out of her mouth, feigned anger and interrogation.

"Who are you to barge into my room for no reason? Could it be that you have a hobby of peeping at others bathing?"

Luo Qingtong's altered voice sounded old and hoarse, startling Beiqing and the others outside with such a statement.

Who would want to peep at an old man taking a bath!

This Evil Doctor really is incorrigible!

Ye Qianming's expression remained unchanged.

Having been duped by Luo Qingtong at Jiuyu Mountain both openly and secretly so many times, he had become somewhat immune to these kinds of tricks by now.

He looked expressionlessly at the black-robed figure opposite him, whose voice was indeed that of an old man beyond doubt.

However, that woman was always cunning, and before confirming the true identity of the person before him, Ye Qianming wouldn't believe a single word from the other party!

"Evil Doctor Ghost Eyes?" Ye Qianming looked at her, his hand flickering as he took out a medicine bottle that Master Liu had presented to him.

"Was this Medicine Liquid concocted by you?"

"..." Seeing the medicine bottle, Luo Qingtong immediately knew how the other party had found her!

That Master Liu!

Luo Qingtong inwardly cursed him for bringing such a big problem upon her!

If she had known he was exchanging the Medicine Liquid for this man, she would have poisoned him on the spot and taken the medicine!

She should have just left him poisoned last time, dead be it!

Luo Qingtong clenched her teeth with hatred in her heart.

The Xuanyuan One Heart Liquid she had refined was inspired by the Healing Holy Spring of men, which was very effective, so she used it as her signature to establish a reputation!

Who knew this man would be in the Black Domain Suburb!

It's a small world when it comes to enemies!

"Indeed! It is indeed concocted by me," Luo Qingtong admitted, having no way to deny.

She had already made a name for herself as the Evil Doctor Ghost Eyes, and denying it would only make this man more suspicious!

Now she had to play it by ear!

What a mess this is!

If she had known this man was here, she would rather have gone a bit further and visited a Black Domain Suburb in some other country!

Luckily, she disguised herself when entering the city, else she'd have been easily caught!

Chapter 107 Lift her Clothes

Thinking about the various things she had done to this man before, Luo Qingtong made up her mind in her heart, she must not be exposed!

At all costs, she had to bluff her way through this time!

"Are you here to ask this old man to refine medicine? Unfortunately, this old man refines medicine solely based on mood! Right now, someone has intruded into my bathing chamber; my mood is very bad! Please leave!"

Luo Qingtong waved her sleeves heavily, not giving a second thought to driving the person away!

She deliberately emphasized the words "this old man," her tone filled with arrogance!

She wished that Ye Qianming would take the hint and scram!

However, since Ye Qianming harbored suspicions about her, how could he leave just because of these few words?

He coldly watched Luo Qingtong, ignoring her words to shoo him away, and instead asked again, "Where did you get this Medicine Recipe from?"

His gaze fixed on the ferocious Rashamon Mask under Luo Qingtong's black hood, trying to see whether the eyes behind her mask were blind.

However, this mask was specially made by Luo Qingtong, so he couldn't see clearly her eyes and face behind the mask.

Ye Qianming couldn't be sure at the moment whether she was the person he was looking for.

"Medicine Recipe? Oh, I exchanged it with a young girl!" Luo Qingtong knew the crux of the matter was coming.

The other party clearly had suspicions about her, hence the question.

At this time, it was not suitable to respond with "I don't know" or anything else! Only by mixing truth with falsehood could there be a chance to muddle through.

"I saved her, and she gave me this medicine recipe! I found the effects of the recipe to be excellent, so I refined it!"

"What? You know that young girl? Even if that's the case, asking for the recipe back is impossible! I obtained it through legitimate means!"

Luo Qingtong said, mixing truth with fiction.

Young girl...

Ye Qianming's eyes slightly narrowed.

If the person was really an elder, then referring to that woman as a "young girl" was indeed not wrong!

However...

At this moment, Ye Qianming suddenly stepped forward.

With a whoosh, he reached out to grab Luo Qingtong.

The palm wind carried no attack power; the objective was only the large black cloak she was wearing!

—He wanted to see with his own eyes whether she was indeed that woman!

Damn!

Luo Qingtong had been wary of Ye Qianming's movements all along, and the moment she saw him reach out, she instinctively wanted to dodge!

But she soon realized his target was her cloak!

With this man's strength, there was no way she could dodge!

If she really dodged, wouldn't that be walking into a trap, telling him she was indeed the woman from Jiuyu Mountain who took advantage of his serious injury?

Damn!

Either way, it was a losing situation!

Dodging meant walking into a trap!

And just because she could evade this move, didn't mean she could evade the next!

Luo Qingtong could sense that there were other people outside the room, all very strong!

Obviously, they must be this man's subordinates!

If her identity was exposed, there was no escaping! She'd be caught by this man within minutes!

But not dodging; she had just bathed, without any disguise or bandages or any fake old skin texture painted on her body, exposing this would definitely give her away!

Why did this man come at such a timely moment?!

Couldn't he have waited until after her bath and disguise were complete?!

It was totally infuriating!

As Ye Qianming's hand approached closer and closer, Luo Qingtong's thoughts raced urgently.

The next second, she gritted her teeth—screw it!

She forcefully took a step back.

Chapter 108 Mocking

With that one step, in an instant, Ye Qianming's hand reaching towards Luo Qingtong's front dropped down.

"Swoosh!"

The man's palm pressed onto her body!

And at that moment, Ye Qianming's expression drastically changed.

He looked at the spot where his hand was pressed with an ugly expression, and the next second, he violently tried to withdraw his hand.

But at this moment, a hand suddenly pressed on the back of his through the cloak, pushing his withdrawing hand back in place.

"How annoying! So the young master likes this! Why didn't you say so earlier? This old man also fancies such handsome and imposing men like the young master!"

Luo Qingtong's voice remained as hoarse and aged as before.

However, at this moment, amidst the hoarseness and age, there was a hint of surprise and a coy undertone, instantly causing Beiqing and others outside to break out in goosebumps!

What on earth is happening inside?!

Why did the Evil Doctor's tone of speech suddenly change? And change to something so... indescribable!

While Beiqing and the others were fiercely rubbing the goosebumps on their skin, sickened by Luo Qingtong's voice and tone, Ye Qianming's face hidden under the Dark Gold Mask also twitched violently, filled with intense agitation.

Luo Qingtong's words were just too disgusting! Especially with such an elderly tone!

With a swoosh, Ye Qianming violently withdrew his hand.

But Luo Qingtong didn't let him go and quickly followed to grab his hand.

"Don't go! Young master, although I've always been the one on top, I'm willing to switch for someone like the young master," Luo Qingtong said coquettishly.

As she spoke, she was holding back laughter.

My God, it's just too funny!

Sensing the man across her was about to explode, Luo Qingtong still didn't plan to stop there!

Dealing with this man, just this was still not enough!

She continued relentlessly: "Come on, young master! Now that I've just bathed and am not wearing anything, it's the perfect opportunity to tie the knot!"

Saying so, she snuggled up against Ye Qianming's body.

At the same time, her hand touched the clasp of her cloak, pretending to start untying it.

Ye Qianming's lips were pressed tightly together, and the veins on his forehead burst out one by one.

Luo Qingtong squinted at him, seeing that he still wasn't ready to leave, and suddenly yanked at the drawstring.

With a swoosh, the black cloak instantly flew up into the air.

And at that moment, Ye Qianming's figure shot out without looking back.

In the air, only a chillingly cold and angry voice was left behind.

"Disgusting!"

If you weren't disgusted, you wouldn't have left!

Luo Qingtong rolled her eyes and moved forward to pick up the cloak that she had thrown into the air and had fallen back to the ground.

The young girl's allure was seductive; where was the slightest hint of disgust?

That dress, soaked with water, was still dripping steadily down!

A puddle spread beneath Luo Qingtong's feet as she stood barefoot on it, her toes plump, with nails like shells, set against the ferocious Rashamon mask on her face, truly bewitching to the extreme.

If Ye Qianming had left just a moment later or turned back for one glance, he would have known what he missed!

But alas, he was so sickened by Luo Qingtong that he almost fled without looking back the moment she flipped her cloak!

Naturally, he also missed this devilishly charming scene!

Chapter 109 This Man is Evolving Too Fast!

"Phew! That scared the life out of me!"

Luo Qingtong let out a long breath of relief having successfully disgusted Ye Qianming away.

This man is becoming increasingly difficult to deal with!

She grumbled to herself.

Back on Jiuyu Mountain, she merely had to feign an attempt to kiss him to make him back off!

But just now, he would only leave after she really took off her cloak!

If she had hesitated for even a moment, he would have definitely caught on to her and uncovered her identity!

This man is evolving too quickly!

What happened to the innocent act?

Luo Qingtong secretly gritted her teeth.

But she completely forgot that it was precisely her repeated teasing that strengthened Ye Qianming's resistance to such tricks!

With great power in his hands, commanding authority far and wide, he had never come across someone as wickedly charming and shamelessly bold as Luo Qingtong before! How would he know she had so many tricks up her sleeve!

And none of them repeated!

Luo Qingtong sulked for a moment, but then she thought of the expression on Ye Qianming's face when he left just now, and suddenly she couldn't help but laugh!

It was really too much fun!

Unfortunately, such a trick could only be played once; if she tried it again, that man would probably chop her with a mere lift of his hand!

Alas!

While she thought about all this, she casually peeled the banana she had been holding in her hand to eat!

Indeed, the hard object Ye Qianming felt just now was a banana!

Luo Qingtong had originally been holding it intending to eat it!

But then Ye Qianming made his sudden appearance, and while she hurriedly donned her cloak, she continued to grip the banana in her hand!

If it hadn't been for that banana, she would definitely have been exposed by that man just now!

That was a close call!

Luo Qingtong patted her chest, quickly finished off the banana, casually tossed the peel into the fruit bowl, and got up to disguise herself again!

Startled by Ye Qianming in such a way, she was no longer in the mood to take a bath.

Who knew if that man might suddenly show up again!

Luo Qingtong thought about it and frowned.

Fortunately, her quick wits had just dispelled his doubts about her identity.

He should no longer suspect her identity as the Evil Doctor Ghost Eyes!

But since he recognized the origin of the medicine liquid, he might send someone to follow her to find out her true identity!

Why is this man so persistent!

Is it because of that pig?

Thinking of it, Luo Qingtong's face darkened.

All because of that stinky pig!

At this moment, she was extremely grateful that she had not yet released Little Fragrant Pig from the Nine-layered Exquisite Tower, as punishment intended to teach it a lesson.

Otherwise, no matter how much she disguised herself, she would instantly give herself away!

How on earth did that pig get tangled up with that man?

As Luo Qingtong pondered, she set up a few defensive measures around the room that only she could sense. Then she raised her hand and released Little Fragrant Pig from the Ninth Layer of the Nine-layered Exquisite Tower.

"How did you get into trouble with that man?"

The released Little Fragrant Pig was pitch-black, almost barbecued by the flames at the bottom layer of the Nine-layered Exquisite Tower.

Before it could even catch its breath, it was grabbed by Luo Qingtong and interrogated, on the verge of tears!

"... Pfft."

As soon as it opened its mouth, it spat out a puff of black smoke, then snorted twice, sporting a mournfully sad pig face: "How would I know! He suddenly came and snatched me out of the Inheritance Palace of the Slaughter Immortal Palace! He interrogated me about a bunch of stuff I don't know! When I said I didn't know, he wanted to kill me! Of course, I ran!"

Having said that, Heng Ji looked at Luo Qingtong and suggested, "Maybe you should ask him why he's trying to catch me?"

Chapter 110 Ancient Medical Formula

"Scram!"

Luo Qingtong slapped it on the head, instantaneously sending it tumbling and rolling away.

To go and ask that man myself, wouldn't that be like telling him, "Ah! I'm the woman from Jiuyu Mountain who brewed you up good! The pig you're chasing is right here with me!"

She wasn't brain-damaged!

"Are you telling the truth?"

Luo Qingtong looked coldly at the Little Fragrant Pig, which had rolled around on the floor and then got up like a ball.

"Do you really not know what he's capturing you for?"

"It seems to be for some Ancient Medical Formula." The Little Fragrant Pig's mung bean-sized eyes spun around innocently as it spoke.

"But that sort of thing, he should be asking Tian Mingzi, that smelly old geezer! What's the use of asking me! I think he definitely got the wrong pig!"

It declared confidently.

"Ancient Medical Formula..."

Now that it had mentioned it, Luo Qingtong somewhat believed it.

The injuries on that man were extremely strange; in her past and present lives, Luo Qingtong had seen many peculiar ailments.

But she had never seen anything as bizarre as the condition of that man's body before!

The damage to his meridians didn't seem like it was inflicted by another person.

And there was no trace of external force remaining inside his body!

Yet his meridians were snapped, one after the other!

Truly bizarre!

The man wasn't lacking in good medicine, either!

Just the Healing Holy Medicine he had was of such advanced level, and yet it couldn't cure his injuries, merely provide temporary relief, unable to heal him completely. How strange!

If he was indeed looking for some Ancient Medical Formula to treat his injuries, then the credibility of that story was pretty high!

Thinking this, Luo Qingtong temporarily accepted this statement from Little Fragrant Pig.

Only...

Frowning, she said: "Do you really not know anything about that Ancient Medical Formula?"

If it does exist, better give it to that man and be done with it! Saves her the trouble of him constantly chasing after her!

Especially since his strength is so formidable, dealing with such a major hassle like him was truly headache-inducing for Luo Qingtong!

If the strength of the powerful in this world were peaks, then the strength of that man who could tear apart the Jie Tian Divine Beast even while gravely injured is undoubtedly the Mount Everest among these peaks!

Being hassled every day by such a man! She wouldn't want that no matter how handsome he was!

How could she cultivate and grow strong in peace after this?!

"Not at all!" the Little Fragrant Pig asserted decisively, wearing a face full of grievance, "If I had it, would I have needed to sign a contract with you just to avoid him?!"

It's simply infuriating to have one's life and death controlled by someone else!

Why the heck did I get so freaked out by that guy in the first place?!

The Little Fragrant Pig thought this to itself, feeling quite depressed.

"What, feeling wronged now?" Luo Qingtong looked at it and laughed coldly with raised eyebrows.

If it weren't for this pig, even if she had offended that man, she wouldn't have to be chased all over the place!

She still hadn't settled the score with it regarding the issue with the Slaughter Immortal Palace!

"..." Little Fragrant Pig wilted at the sight of her cold, bloodthirsty smile.

Who made it choose such a mistress?!

It originally thought Luo Qingtong would be easy to control given her young age and peculiar abilities, potentially able to evade that man's detection, which is why it entered a contract with her!

And the result?

Heng Ji... talking too much is only tears!

Little Fragrant Pig squatted there, its little ears drooping.

Luo Qingtong decided to ignore it.

Since there's no such thing as that Ancient Medical Formula, she would just have to keep avoiding that man!

Luckily, she had spent over a decade in her previous life surviving through being hunted and counter-hunting; she was all too experienced in this sort of thing!

In comparison, that man is just a bit stronger and harder to deal with, nothing more!

With that thought, Luo Qingtong grandly put the issue aside and, after packing up Little Fragrant Pig, yawned and went to bed.
