Chapter 141 Poison? Here, You Can Have It Back!

"Little junior sister!"

The woman's attack came too suddenly, and Yuwen Mo couldn't stop it in time.

Seeing that pitch-black Black Bone Whip lashing towards her, a flash of cold, blood-red light passed through Luo Qingtong's eyes.

With her visual prowess, she could naturally see that the Black Bone Whip was coated with a kind of bizarre, intense pain.

A mere touch for ordinary people, just a small wound, and their whole body would rot away!

This woman was truly vicious!

Little junior sister?

Was this the very same little junior sister Yuwen Mo had come to her for last time, seeking the Evil Doctor to save?

He said she had a problem with her meridians.

As far as she could see, the girl seemed perfectly fine right now!

Luo Qingtong sneered, the blood-red light in her eyes flickering faintly.

The next second, she didn't dodge or duck, but instead directly reached out to grab the swiftly approaching Black Bone Whip!

"Miss! No, don't!"

Seeing Luo Qingtong's hand reaching for the whip, Yuwen Mo, who knew his little junior sister's temperament too well, became anxious and immediately cried out.

However, the expression on Huang Shang's face revealed pleasure, and upon hearing Yuwen Mo's shout, her face sank severely.

A vicious glint flashed in her eyes, and with a flick of her wrist, the Black Bone Whip lashed out at even more fierce and cunning angles towards Luo Qingtong's face!

Strip that bitch of her veil and leave a deep scratch on her face! Let's see how she'll seduce others with that face then!

Huang Shang thought bitterly to herself.

Sensing the change in the angle of the long whip, Luo Qingtong raised her eyebrows, the expression on her face growing even colder.

It truly was a case of not taking the road to heaven and barging into the gates of hell!

Since she was so eager to ruin someone else's appearance, she would personally give her a taste of this pain!

"Snap!"

Luo Qingtong's figure remained still, but her hand suddenly flipped in accordance with the changing angle of the long whip and precisely caught it by the tip.

The seemingly ever-changing whip techniques of her opponent were completely transparent in front of her Pupil Skill!

"What a vicious heart! I'll return this poison to you!"

"Swoosh!"

Following Luo Qingtong's cold snort, her palm swiftly slid along the tip of the whip.

Instantly, the long whip coiled like a dragon under her command, being straightened into a single line.

At the same time, the poisonous aura on it was immediately modified by Luo Qingtong in a flash!

With a violent flick of her wrist, the long whip snapped back like a recoiling snake, striking back at a speed faster and an angle more devious than before!

"Ah!"

The Huang Shang woman had no time to guard against it and screamed while covering her face!

The rebounding whip viciously struck her face, leaving a deep, bone-exposing wound!

"Ah! How dare you harm me!"

With a surge of intense pain across her face, Huang Shang touched her bloody face and was on the verge of breaking down!

Her face!

"Little junior sister!"

Seeing Huang Shang injured, Yuwen Mo and the others showed a change of expression.

This little junior sister was the cherished only daughter of their master. They had to take good care of her now that she had run away, otherwise, if master held them accountable, they would not be able to bear it!

"Little junior sister, are you alright?" They all gathered around her.

It was at this moment that Huang Shang suddenly let out a piercing shriek.

"Ah! My face! It's so itchy! Ah! So painful!"

As she spoke, she frantically started scratching her own face.

Upon hearing this, Yuwen Mo and the others looked at her face.

They just took one glance and immediately gasped in shock!

"Little junior sister!"

The group's faces were filled with shock and horror.

Chapter 142 Scumbag Matches a Rotten Face, a Match Made in Heaven!

The wounds on that Huang Shang girl's face were rapidly festering.

The rate at which the wounds deteriorated was exceptionally fast.

In just a moment, all the skin around those wounds had disintegrated.

In an instant, the lovely and tender little junior sister turned as grotesque as a Rashamon Ghost!

Not only that, but the decaying flesh near the wounds began to wriggle, as if something was growing out of it!

Before long, a series of ghastly and bizarre faces struggled to burst from it, silently roaring around the wounds!

This scene, akin to a spectral horror, made Yuwen Mo and the others feel a chill surge through their hearts.

"Little junior sister! What poison did you apply to your whip! Quick, take out the antidote and use it!" Yuwen Mo shouted anxiously at her.

The Huang Shang girl desperately clawed at her own face, scratching the rotting flesh until it became a blur of blood and pus, but it did nothing to ease the itch!

Through the gaze of the crowd, she too saw the horrendous changes on her face and immediately burst into tears.

"I didn't! I only smeared Bone Corrosive Poison on it! It's not supposed to itch! It's her! It must be her! It's this woman! She has tampered with my whip!"

The Huang Shang girl said while pointing her finger at Luo Qingtong, who was wiping her hands, getting ready to leave.

The latter glanced at the pointing finger, raised an eyebrow, and readily admitted to it.

"That's right, I did it. So what? To treat someone with their own tactics, I don't feel I've done anything wrong! And the ingredients for that poison were from the Bone Corrosive Poison you applied."

Luo Qingtong said, with a slight laugh.

"You should be grateful that the Bone Corrosive Poison isn't potent enough! If I had more materials on hand, you would be in an even more miserable state now!"

"What did you say?! You vile wench!" The Huang Shang girl was infuriated by Luo Qingtong's words, and then she turned back to the crowd from the Holy Institute, crying out for their help.

"Senior brothers, see for yourselves, she admitted it! She poisoned me! She wants to harm me! Won't you help me take revenge and snatch back the thousand-year-old tree heart as well?"

"Little junior sister!"

Yuwen Mo rebuked her and then turned to look at Luo Qingtong.

"Miss, indeed my little junior sister acted recklessly. Please don't take offense. We don't want the thousand-year-old tree heart anymore, I just ask you to help cure the poison on my little junior sister's face."

"Heh," Luo Qingtong chuckled softly.

"The thousand-year-old tree heart was originally mine. Since when did you have any say in not wanting it? As for the poison on her face, she brought it upon herself. An antidote, I don't have!"

Luo Qingtong had merely temporarily infused the remaining Yin Qi from the Thousand-Year Soul Summoning Wood into the Bone Corrosive Poison on the whip, altering the toxicity of the Bone Corrosive Poison.

A makeshift solution; where would she get an antidote from?

Saving the Huang Shang girl wouldn't be difficult, as long as Luo Qingtong was willing to use her Pupil Skill to force the mixed Yin Qi and toxins out of her body!

But why would Luo Qingtong do such a thing?

If one harbors a venomous heart, this disfigured face suits her just fine!

A vile person paired with a vile face, a match made in hell!

Having said that, Luo Qingtong leapt up, ready to leave!

How could Yuwen Mo and the others simply let her go?

The thousand-year-old tree heart they could let go, but they could not let anything happen to their little junior sister! Otherwise, how could they explain it to their teacher upon returning?!

"Miss! Hand over the antidote! Otherwise, I'm afraid you won't get away!" Yuwen Mo declared, as he leapt towards Luo Qingtong, intending to intercept her!

Behind him, a group of freshmen from the Holy Institute followed suit.

"Stop her! Don't let her get away!"

Chapter 143 Holy Institute Genius? Nothing Special!

"Haha."

Luo Qingtong chuckled lightly.

The next second, the blood-red glint in her eyes flickered.

In just a flash, she had swept past a group of Holy Institute newcomers who had come to intercept her.

A great number of opponents was of no use to Luo Qingtong at all!

In fact, they even became an aid to her escape!

"Ah! Senior brother!"

Those Holy Institute newcomers who had charged towards Luo Qingtong the fastest initially lost sight of her in the blink of an eye and instead found themselves staring blankly at Yuwen Mo, who was rushing towards Luo Qingtong from behind!

"Senior brother, quickly dodge!" they shouted anxiously.

These Holy Institute newcomers didn't understand what was happening.

They had clearly surrounded the girl; how had she broken through their encirclement all of a sudden?

And why were their attacks now hitting their senior brother instead?

Seeing their attacks coming his way, Yuwen Mo's expression turned stern; his figure swiftly changed direction in mid-air, quickly evading the attacks!

However, this evasion inevitably slowed him down.

"Swoosh!"

In that brief moment of dodging, Luo Qingtong had already appeared hundreds of meters away from them.

The girl's figure was ethereal as a celestial, her waist supple, swaying like a slender willow in the wind, perched atop the tip of a young branch.

Luo Qingtong looked back at them, her smile curling up at the corners of her mouth, and through the veil, her eyes and brows appeared as beautiful as a painting, almost conveying an overwhelming beauty.

"Geniuses of the Holy Institute? That's all there is to it."

She laughed softly.

As she spoke, she suddenly let go of the slender branch she had been holding.

The next second, along with the rebound of the branch, Luo Qingtong's figure soared up like a bluebird or phoenix, leaping over distant mountains and quickly darting towards the far-off lands.

Yuwen Mo and the others scrambled to pursue her but could never catch up to her figure.

In their sight, only the frail and graceful form of the girl remained, vanishing completely before their eyes like an otherworldly fairy!

Yuwen Mo's gaze was fixed on Luo Qingtong's disappearing figure, his eyes deep with thought.

In his mind, he kept replaying the girl's captivating smile as she looked back.

Unrestrained, carefree, artistic!

The dazzling elegance within it overshadowed the scenery of this distant expanse!

Even her disparaging and mocking words didn't seem so infuriating when one listened to them!

This was the first time Yuwen Mo had ever felt his heart stir!

Who was this girl?

As Yuwen Mo was emotionally stirred, Luo Qingtong's figure had already skimmed over the treetops and plunged into the depths of the mountains in an instant.

After finding a secluded and safe spot, she changed her disguise and headed straight out of the mountain range.

On the way, she passed by Yuwen Mo and the rest from afar.

After their fruitless encounter with Luo Qingtong and failing to obtain the antidote, they didn't dare linger in the mountains and hurriedly left with that woman named Huang Shang.

Luo Qingtong figured they would soon be returning to the Holy Institute.

After all, the poison on Huang Shang's face was not something that could be easily cured!

Even if they did return to the Holy Institute, it likely wouldn't be so simple to resolve!

Without paying them any further attention, Luo Qingtong avoided an encounter with Yuwen Mo and went straight for the Black Domain Suburb.

As she was about to enter into that vast Dark City, Luo Qingtong's footsteps suddenly halted.

She remembered the man whom she had treated halfway before leaving in the Bath Palace.

He shouldn't be in any trouble, right? Luo Qingtong somewhat guiltily thought.

Speaking of which, every time he encountered her, it seemed to bring him bad luck.

Heaven knew she really didn't do it on purpose!

Luo Qingtong thought, feeling a bit toothache.

At this moment, she overheard the surrounding chatter.

"Hey! Have you heard? There's trouble at the Evil Doctor's residence!"

Chapter 144 Seeking Revenge at the Doorstep

Luo Qingtong felt a sudden chill in her heart upon hearing those words.

Her mansion?

Luo Qingtong slowed her pace, looking towards those gossiping bystanders.

They hadn't noticed her, and continued talking.

"Speaking of which, a lot has happened these last few days! First, no one knows why, but the Netherworld Venerable just left! And now, there's trouble at the Evil Doctor's mansion."

"Yes."

Someone chimed in.

"I heard that someone came seeking revenge, barged in at midnight, and by the time people from the Bloody Battle Arena arrived, many were already dead or injured. The Evil Doctor's beloved slave lover was also taken away..."

Luo Qingtong heard this much, and couldn't listen any more.

Beloved slave lover?

The only one who could fit that description was Su Yu!

Luo Qingtong didn't care where the rumor started anymore; she swept up her form and dashed towards her mansion!

She had finally found a personal servant that met her satisfaction, yet someone dared to cause trouble at her door! Kidnapping her people! And injuring those at her mansion!

Luo Qingtong's face grew utterly grim.

So it's true, if the tiger doesn't show its might, they'll treat me like a sick cat!

"Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh!"

Luo Qingtong's figure appeared inside her mansion.

At this moment, her mansion was a complete mess.

Outside the main gate, spilled blood stained it like ink, and despite washing, the traces were still visible.

Luo Qingtong's eyes were icy cold as she stepped through the mansion gate.

"Who?!"

Outside, a War Slave guarded the gate, and seeing someone walking in, he immediately made a move.

Luo Qingtong grabbed his fist and flung him aside in one swift motion.

"Gather all those in the mansion who are still alive for me," Luo Qingtong said sternly, her Rashamon Mask appearing fierce and terrifying at that moment.

She gazed somberly at the War Slave in front of her.

The latter was stunned for a moment and then cried out in surprise.

"Master! The master is back!"

"Everyone gather! The master is back!"

The War Slave's voice echoed through the mansion, and in an instant, all the slaves that Luo Qingtong had purchased appeared before her.

Among them, Chu Lingfeng was notably present.

"Master! You're back!"

Upon seeing Luo Qingtong, Chu Lingfeng immediately rushed forward.

The tall and bulky figure, now covered in wounds, had deep bone-showing injuries and blood all over.

And behind him, many other War Slaves were in a similar state.

"What happened here?" Luo Qingtong's gaze swept over them and walked straight into the main hall, her eyes coldly surveying everything.

Gazing at several severely injured War Slaves, Luo Qingtong quickly sealed their life force with a flick of her finger, fed them a bottle of life-extending Medicine Liquid, and asked sternly.

"Master, someone came seeking revenge! Specifically targeting Su Yu!" Chu Lingfeng voiced loudly.

It turns out, after Luo Qingtong had purchased Su Yu, others had come demanding to buy slaves, specifically asking for Su Yu.

After being refused by the slave market, they started inquiring diligently.

Upon learning that Luo Qingtong had purchased Su Yu, they came to demand that Su Yu be sold back to them!

Chu Lingfeng originally thought these people were Su Yu's relatives, but to his surprise, Su Yu's expression changed drastically at the sight of them.

A conflict almost erupted on the spot.

Later that night, those people attacked!

"Master, even with their faces covered I could recognize them!" Chu Lingfeng nodded emphatically, "It was them who took Su Yu! Master! You must save him! They said they would torture him severely!"

Chapter 145 There is No Next Time

Luo Qingtong narrowed her eyes.

Behind the Rashamon Mask, a pair of hollow, dark eyes emanated murderous intent, with flashes of bloodlust within.

"No one touches the people around me without my permission!"

"Daring to come after me for revenge!"

"Seeking death!"

The bloodlust in Luo Qingtong's eyes was icy cold.

"Go call the people from the Bloody Battle Arena! Tell them, if anything like this happens again at my residence in Black Domain City, our cooperation will end on the spot!"

Being targeted for revenge in Black Domain City, what is the point of such an ally?

With so many forces in Black Domain City, why bother cooperating with the Bloody Battle Arena?

They have truly disappointed her!

This incident with Su Yu being captured had completely touched Luo Qingtong's nerves.

The people around her, even if it's just a cat, a dog, are not to be trifled with by others!

Whoever dares to reach out, their hand will be chopped off!

Those who dare to come seeking revenge are indeed courting death!

"Evil Doctor..."

The people from the Bloody Battle Arena were brought over by Chu Lingfeng and others, all bowing their heads, constantly wiping the sweat away.

"This was indeed an oversight on the part of the Bloody Battle Arena."

They didn't expect someone would dare to make a move on Evil Doctor's residence in Black Domain City!

Where did these reckless fools come from?! Not to take the authority of Black Domain seriously?!

Or do they think they can act in secret, and no one would know?!

The people from the Bloody Battle Arena were grinding their teeth with hate.

Let them not find out who those people are, otherwise they wouldn't need to wait for the Evil Doctor to take action, they would wipe them out themselves!

"Rest assured, Evil Doctor, we have already mobilized all our connections to track down those people..."

"There will be no next time." Luo Qingtong interrupted him, with those deep and wickedly cold eyes behind the Rashamon Mask staring at him coldly.

"If there is a next time, people from the Bloody Battle Arena need not come to me ever again! As for those people this time, you don't need to bother!"

Anyone who dares to touch her people, she will let them know the price!

"Yes..." The housekeeper from the Bloody Battle Arena dared not say more, quickly wiping away his cold sweat as he backed away.

The authority of this Evil Doctor was too daunting!

Facing him directly, he felt like he was encountering a Lord!

It was downright unsettling!

Watching as the housekeeper from the Bloody Battle Arena left with his sweat-drenched back, Chu Lingfeng was puzzled.

"Master, why don't we let them continue the search?"

Wouldn't having the people from the Bloody Battle Arena search more quickly lead to finding those people and rescuing Su Yu?

Chu Lingfeng still cared about that young man who had spoken well of him in front of his master!

Besides his master, he had recognized only Su Yu as a companion.

"No need, someone else is better aware of their whereabouts." Luo Qingtong said as she sneered, striding over to a Chinese parasol tree in the courtyard and fiercely kicking the base.

"Would you prefer to come out yourselves, or shall I drag you out one by one?" she declared with her arms folded across her chest.

The people hidden in the Chinese parasol tree were filled with shock and suspicion.

The Evil Doctor... has she noticed their presence?

As they hesitated, Luo Qingtong grew impatient.

She directly instructed Chu Lingfeng to bring over a bucket of water and, with a 'bang', poured the entire bucket over the tip of the Chinese parasol tree!

At the same time, she kicked a metal bucket towards a corner not far away!

Chapter 146 Root Them All Out!

"Boom! Boom!"

Two muffled sounds.

"Ouch!"

Two figures tumbled out from within.

"Feeling good?"

Luo Qingtong looked at them, then raised her hand and heavily clapped twice.

"Anyone else, all of you come out!"

Luo Qingtong stood with her arms crossed in the center of the courtyard, watching the two who tumbled out with a cold gaze sweeping across the courtyard.

The look on her face, hidden by the Rashamon Mask, was ghostly and chilling.

She couldn't be bothered to capture them one by one, so she simply called them all out by name.

"The one at a 30-degree angle on the eave! Behind in the flowerbed... In front inside the bushes... On the left side's wall hanging... Right side's corridor pillar... All of you hiding, roll out for me!"

These people were the ones ordered by Ye Qianming to keep an eye on Luo Qingtong.

The man had left, yet these people still remained in Luo Qingtong's mansion, faithfully performing their duties!

Now they were all being dragged out by Luo Qingtong!

Shush shush shush!

A line of people with hesitant expressions emerged from their hiding spots.

Luo Qingtong watched them with a cold sneer and strolled over.

"You lot are having a good time, eh!" Luo Qingtong looked at them, her smile cold and wickedly provocative.

"I deliberately didn't expose you, allowing you to fulfill your mission properly, and you just watched with your eyes wide open as my mansion encountered trouble? Good! Not bad! You've got guts!"

"..."

The group ordered to monitor Luo Qingtong felt a whirlwind of confusion in their hearts!

Could it be that the Evil Doctor had found them long ago?!

The patrol routes that "coincidentally" passed by their hiding spots every day were not coincidences at all?!

But soon, after hearing what Luo Qingtong said next, their hearts soured even more.

Evil Doctor, it's not that we didn't take action!

We were covertly surveilling you! Making a move would have exposed us, right?!

The people thought miserably, on the verge of tears, as they shivered under Luo Qingtong's scrutinizing gaze, not daring to utter a word.

They didn't even know why they were feeling scared.

But they all felt that the Evil Doctor's presence was quite frightening.

Luo Qingtong was also aware that their duties must not be exposed casually.

She had no interest in pursuing this matter; she had revealed these people simply for one reason alone.

"Tell me the information about those people!"

Although these people had not taken action, they had orders to monitor her residence, so they must have witnessed every move the invaders made.

Perhaps they even knew where the opponents were currently located!

After all, they were professionals in this line of work!

Luo Qingtong didn't feel like waiting for the Bloody Battle Arena's people to gather intelligence!

By the time they got the news, it would be far too late!

Who knows what those people who took Su Yu would do?

Her people, except for herself, nobody else is allowed to touch them... Whoever dares, she would chop their claws into pieces!

"I'll give you three breaths of time! If you don't tell me, I'll go tell your City Lord, saying that you've exposed your identities to me on your own initiative!"

"You should know what will happen then, right? Hmm?" Luo Qingtong's gaze was cold as she looked at them.

"Actually, I don't mind you squatting here and keeping surveillance on me! Anyway, it's all the same no matter who it is. But the premise is, we all need to look out for each other, right?" Luo Qingtong said, patting their shoulders.

"You keep your surveillance, but when something like this happens, you can't ignore it! Otherwise, I would be very unhappy! And when I'm unhappy..."

Luo Qingtong's eyes, hidden behind the Rashamon Mask, glanced sideways at them, "then I'll have to make you unhappy with me! Understand?"

Chapter 147 Aristocratic Family of the Upper-class Country

Understood!

How could the group of people dare not understand?!

Luo Qingtong's meaning was crystal clear. From now on, their assignment changed from surveillance to protection!

If there were any more problems with her mansion, she would hold them accountable!

The group was instantly burdened with amended responsibilities by Luo Qingtong, and they couldn't utter a single word of objection. They were indeed exhausted!

But who could blame them? They couldn't afford to offend their principal!

This was someone the Lord had specifically instructed them to keep an eye on...

They... They dared not resist!

The group obediently spilled the beans on the attackers' backgrounds under the threat of Luo Qingtong.

"People from the Cheng Family of Xuri Country?"

Luo Qingtong raised an eyebrow.

"So, they belong to an aristocratic family from an Upper-class Country, no wonder they're so arrogant!"
She sneered coldly.

The cause of the issue was very simple.

A young member of the Cheng Family from the Upper-class Country had a past grievance with Su Yu; now that the Su Family was in trouble and they heard Su Yu was sold into slavery, they intended to buy him back just to torment him!

Hearing that Luo Qingtong had purchased the person and yet refused to give up,

They didn't expect that Luo Qingtong would grant Su Yu so much authority. The group arrived at the door, arrogant and haughty seeking the person, only to be beaten and thrown out by Su Yu's order!

That very night, they attempted a masked kidnapping!

By now, they must have already left Black Domain City and were presumably preparing to return home.

After listening, Luo Qingtong chuckled coldly in her heart.

"It seems my reputation as the Evil Doctor isn't imposing enough! Any Tom, Dick or Harry dares to come knocking on my door looking for trouble!"

Her eyes flashed cold, bloodthirsty light.

The housekeeper of the Bloody Battle Arena who had yet to leave upon hearing this trembled, hastily wiping the cold sweat from his forehead, and said, "Rest assured, Evil Doctor, it won't happen again!"

"Our Bloody Battle Arena will immediately issue a warning to the Cheng Family through the Black Domain Suburb in Xuri Country, forbidding them from any further actions against those under the Evil Doctor's command, or they will face our Bloody Battle Arena's retribution!"

"It better be so." Luo Qingtong squinted at them.

Then she waved her hand, "Alright, you all may return to your posts! Remember, there won't be a next time!"

Those who had already left the Black Domain Suburb can't be relied upon any longer.

Luo Qingtong sneered with a pair of vacant and dark eyes.

Thinking that once out of the Black Domain Suburb, they can rest easy?

"You all stay and guard the mansion, clean up this place. I'll be back shortly."

After the surveillance group and the people from the Bloody Battle Arena left, Luo Qingtong turned to Chu Lingfeng and said.

With Su Yu not around, the affairs of the mansion naturally fell to the blockhead.

Chu Lingfeng might be a bit silly, but he had one advantage.

That is, he only followed Luo Qingtong's commands!

Stubborn, thick-headed!

Luo Qingtong felt quite at ease leaving matters in his hands.

"While I'm not at the mansion, no matter who comes, do not meet with them! If someone dares to intrude uninvited..."

"Kill without mercy!" Chu Lingfeng declared fiercely.

The big oaf, who spent his days in the Bloody Battle Arena, may not have learned much else, but he certainly mastered decisiveness and a strong murderous aura.

Otherwise, Luo Qingtong wouldn't have taken him in.

She doesn't need a crybaby fool by her side!

Chu Lingfeng is just fine the way he is; Luo Qingtong doesn't think his foolishness is a flaw.

"Master, you must rescue Su Yu!"

After uttering the ferocious declaration, Chu Lingfeng reverted back to his silly demeanor.

Scratching his head, he looked pitifully and said, "Without him, my meals have no flavor! And you mustn't let off those who hurt our people, master!"

Chapter 148 Completely Shattered

This big fool, not the sharpest tool in the shed but not completely foolish at heart.

Luo Qingtong glanced at him and curved her lips into a smile: "Who told you I'm going to save Su Yu?"

"Ah? Isn't that so?" Chu Lingfeng looked at Luo Qingtong with a clueless expression.

"Master! You mustn't ignore Su Yu! He... he has been very good to us! To master, he is utterly loyal!"

Taking Luo Qingtong's words seriously, Chu Lingfeng became anxious all of a sudden.

This big fool dashed towards Luo Qingtong in a swift motion.

"Stop!"

Luo Qingtong raised her hand to block him.

This fool, why is he like a big wolfhound, always pouncing over whenever he speaks.

Luo Qingtong looked at the clothes she had just changed into, then at his body covered with blood and mud, her lips twitching slightly.

"Alright, I will go to save the person. You quickly wash up and apply your medicine."

She was just teasing this big fool for fun and didn't expect him to take it seriously.

At this time, was she going out not to save Su Yu, or to enjoy the scenery instead?

"Just keep watch over the house honestly, and wait for my return!"

As Luo Qingtong spoke, a bloodthirsty smile flashed across her lips.

She turned around to look at the war slaves standing not far away, and upon seeing their bodies covered with large and small wounds, her eyes narrowed slightly.

"Come here," she commanded them.

A line of people all stood in front of Luo Qingtong.

The young girl looked at them and then suddenly released her spiritual power.

"Crack crack crack!"

Under a series of crisp sounds, the bodies of these expressionless war slaves shuddered sharply, and they looked at Luo Qingtong with changed expressions.

"Master..."

They looked at Luo Qingtong in shock, just as Su Yu was earlier when his slave mark had been shattered.

In their hearts, disbelief filled them completely.

The master destroyed the slave marks in their minds?

She... isn't she afraid of them rebelling and fleeing?

Especially those at the Martial Marquis Realm, their gazes towards Luo Qingtong were even more astonished.

"No need to look at me like that."

Luo Qingtong observed their expressions, unfazed.

"Although the slave mark ensures your loyalty, it prevents you from fully unleashing your strength! I do not wish for a repeat of this occurrence!"

"Moreover... since I dare to remove the slave marks within you, I am confident in preventing any backlash from you. Those who do not believe, feel free to try!"

Luo Qingtong had already planned to remove all the slave marks from these war slaves in the near future.

She would not tolerate any potential threats at her side!

Especially since those slave marks, while ensuring the people's loyalty, were also restraining their strength, preventing them from fully manifesting their own power!

If it weren't for this, with so many slaves in Luo Qingtong's residence, even if the people from Xuri Country's Cheng Family came knocking, they shouldn't have suffered such a defeat!

And to have Su Yu captured on top of that!

This was an utter and humiliating disgrace!

Luo Qingtong directly shattered the slave marks within them.

If these people remain obedient, naturally, they will have their benefits in the future!

If they don't stay in line...

Do they really think she's simply freeing them from their slave marks?

Luo Qingtong wouldn't mind using someone as an example, so the others could witness the consequences!

"As our master commands."

After a brief silence, the host of war slaves all knelt down, submitting genuinely and sincerely.

The means of Luo Qingtong were unfathomable.

To follow such a master was their fortune!

What's more, she had granted them a new lease on life.

"Very well! Those at the Military Marquis Level, come with me; the rest stay behind!"

Luo Qingtong declared, then soared away.

A few at the Military Marquis Level quickly followed after her.

Chapter 149 Tribute Elder

Thousands of kilometers outside the Black Domain Suburb.

A luxurious Spiritual Ship was anchored at the foot of a mountain.

The large doors of the Spirit Boat opened, and a group of people walked out.

"Elder Liu, I didn't expect to meet you here, it's really a great fortune." A man resembling a housekeeper said to one of the middle-aged men dressed in elder's robes, his voice filled with respectful flattery.

"With you here, we won't have to worry about our journey."

"Hmm." Elder Liu nodded.

"I also just returned from the Dongli Capital, had some matters to handle, but came back fruitless."

He sighed at this point, a trace of unwillingness appearing on his face.

Upon hearing this, the housekeeper exchanged a knowing glance with the guards beside him, well aware of what the other was referring to.

The news of the Immortal Sect relic emerging near Dongli Capital had already spread throughout the Da Qin Holy Dynasty, countless powerhouses hastened day and night only to return empty-handed.

It seemed Elder Liu was no exception!

But this was their luck!

Meeting Elder Liu, who was of the Martial King Realm, ensured their safe return on this journey.

"Are you out here on errands for Young Master Ling Yun?" Elder Liu inquired, his gaze sweeping over the huge iron cage they were carrying.

"Yes." The housekeeper smiled.

"But it's just a minor matter. The nemesis of Young Master Ling Yun's brother was sold into slavery, and his brother asked us to buy him back to get revenge. Here he is, locked in this iron cage! Just waiting to be taken back for Young Master's brother to exact revenge!"

"This Spiritual Ship was also provided by the Young Master for us to carry out this errand quickly."

The housekeeper laughed.

He didn't mention that the person was snatched from Luo Qingtong.

Just as Luo Qingtong had thought, this housekeeper, used to boasting in the Cheng Family of an Upper-class Country, did not think there was anything to fear from a simple Evil Doctor of Dongli's Black Domain Suburb!

What significant figure could come from such an impoverished and remote place?

The housekeeper was unaware of Luo Qingtong's status and influence in this Black Domain Suburb, otherwise he would not have dared to be so presumptuous!

A guest of honor even at the Bloody Battle Arena, were they someone they could afford to provoke?

Unfortunately, he knew nothing. And since he was on an errand for Young Master Ling Yun, relying on the fact that the other was a prodigy of the Great Chu Saint Academy, he didn't consider this Evil Doctor Luo Qingtong worth his attention, resulting in regret that came too late!

As a result, the Cheng Family faced great trouble!

"Oh." Elder Liu nodded upon hearing this, not saying anything further.

He had just returned from Jiuyu Mountain in Dongli Country, and although he didn't obtain the news of the Immortal Sect relic, he gained many other benefits, needing time to thoroughly examine them, thus he didn't pay much attention to the housekeeper's errand.

He asked casually and then dismissed it.

The group ignited a bonfire on the nearby open ground, and the cage containing Su Yu was thrown aside.

"Bang!"

With a violent shake, the cage tilted revealing Su Yu imprisoned inside.

Her limbs were locked with iron chains, bound to the four corners of the cage.

That beautiful and fierce face, losing no ground to any man, was now pale from loss of blood.

Only those defiant, wolf-like eyes stared unyieldingly at the housekeeper and the Cheng Family guards.

"What are you looking at?! Keep staring and I'll dig out your eyes!"

Feeling a chill in his heart from Su Yu's gaze, the housekeeper, annoyed, stepped forward and kicked the huge iron cage, making it roll over!

Chapter 150 The Grudge of the Su Family

"A prisoner at your feet! How dare you still be so presumptuous! Hmph!"

The housekeeper looked at the huge rolling iron cage and sneered.

"Su Yu, Third Young Master Su! Do you still think you're the same Young Master Yu of the Su Family as before?"

"Humph! The Su Family has long been annihilated! You, Young Master Yu, have become a slave in someone else's hands!"

"How about it? Did you enjoy the suffering you went through on the airship just now? If you don't settle down, put away those penetrating eyes, I'll gouge them out! See if you still dare to look at me like that!"

Su Yu remained silent, those proud and cold eyes never leaving the housekeeper from the start.

"You!"

Seeing Su Yu so stubborn, the housekeeper was extremely annoyed in his heart.

But he indeed couldn't really gouge out Su Yu's eyes.

After all, Young Master Ling Yun's brother had specifically ordered to bring Su Yu back for torment!

How could he overstep his authority under such circumstances?

However, being stared at by Su Yu like this, he was not willing to let it go.

Suddenly, his eyes shifted, seemingly thinking of something, he sneered maliciously at Su Yu: "Young Master Su Yu, do you know how your Su Family was annihilated?"

"Tsk tsK tsK! Losed a critical fortress, leading to a disastrous defeat for the army! The Su Family's Main General was killed, all relatives were accused of crimes! Aren't you curious? How come the Su Family, who has been in control of the military by the border for generations, never made any mistakes, but just during such an important battle, made such a grave mistake?"

Su Yu was shocked upon hearing this; her expression, which had always been unchanging, suddenly changed.

"Was it you?" she said with a hoarse voice.

Her voice was hoarse, yet still couldn't hide her icy tone.

But at this moment, that hint of iciness was completely tinged with fiery anger and hatred.

"It was you! It was the Cheng Family! You destroyed my Su Family!" she fiercely struggled to get up, the iron chains on her limbs making a clanking sound as she did.

"Haha! Correct! It hurts, doesn't it? It's not just the Cheng Family, but also the Imperial Family! Who asked your Su Family to become too powerful and threatening? And also being hostile towards our Cheng Family!"

"Just right! Our eldest son was admitted into the Great Chu Saint Academy, your Su Family can only become a discarded piece! Whose fault is it that your brilliantly talented elder brother died early! Without someone powerful to defend, your Su Family could only be annihilated!"

The housekeeper looked at Su Yu's pained expression and laughed heartily.

Though he couldn't physically torment Su Yu, tormenting her in such a manner was also possible!

Humph! What Young Master Su! Now nothing but a slave and a prisoner at your feet!

Back when the Su Family was prosperous, a Young Master like Su Yu was someone he couldn't even afford to look up to, but now she could only be locked in a cage and humiliated by him!

Looking at Su Yu with those eyes that wanted to kill him but couldn't do anything, the housekeeper felt very pleased!

"Tsk tsk, you didn't know, did you? When your Su Family was destroyed, I was also there! Ah! The screams filling the courtyard... Listening to it was truly heart-wrenching! Oh right! The taste of that Miss Su from your family, quite delightful! Haha!"

The housekeeper said, with a full face of pride.

"I'll kill you! I'll kill all of you!" Su Yu went mad!

Anyone who knew such a cruel truth would be unable to bear it!

Su Yu had always thought that the loss in that war was due to a mistake made by the Su Family!

So when faced with the Imperial Family sentencing them, the Su Family did not resist at all.

Her father even committed suicide out of shame! The entire Su Family Army crumbled!

All main generals of the Su Family were convicted!

She was captured by the enemy troops and sold as a slave!

But now, she had learned that it was all a setup!

A conspiracy orchestrated jointly by the Imperial Family and the Cheng Family against the Su Family!

They obliterated her Su Family!
