Chapter 211 Supreme Assassin Pavilion, Nine-blade Killer

Shortly after she left, blood-shrouded figures abruptly appeared in the skies over Tianyu Imperial City.

Each of these people had their faces obscured by black cloths, wearing identical night-travel garments, with a powerful aura that twisted around them, rendering their presence undetectable.

Ten individuals consecutively materialized above the Imperial City of the Tianyu Empire, their auras vast and fierce, chilling to the extreme, yet failing to attract anyone's attention.

The leading man was tall and burly, a distinctive pattern of nine blood blades emblazoned on the front of his black night-travel garment, unusually conspicuous.

Supreme Assassin Pavilion, top-tier Nine-Blade Killer! A powerhouse of the Saint Realm!

If someone were to witness this scene, they would inevitably exclaim in shock!

Such high-ranking powerhouses actually appeared in the skies above the Imperial City of the Tianyu Empire!

"Are we sure the target is here?"

"Confirmed. The news came a few days ago, but we didn't make a move as we were waiting for Lord Jiu Ren to arrive," the other assassins, adorned with patterns of seven or eight blood blades on their chests, regarded the leading strongman with great deference.

The killers of the Supreme Assassin Pavilion hailed from all over, and when they gathered, everyone's identity was concealed. No one knew who the others were; recognition was solely based on individual identity marks and the rank determined by the Pavilion.

And this leading powerhouse, as a Nine-Blade Level assassin of the Supreme class, was naturally in command of the entire operation!

"Right, disperse immediately, search for the target!" the Nine-Blade Killer ordered.

"Yes!" A group of Seventh and Eighth Blade assassins nodded and scattered throughout the Imperial City of the Tianyu Empire to search.

And all of this escaped the notice of those strongmen guarding Tianyu Imperial City!

"Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh!"

Luo Qingtong's figure flitted through the Imperial Palace of the Tianyu Empire.

She had traveled this path before, the route now familiar to her.

In no time, she had found her way to the Royal Treasury's grand entrance.

All the sentries, defenses, and guardians stationed there were utterly ineffective against Luo Qingtong.

There was once a globally renowned theft organization that publicly declared, should Luo Qingtong switch to being a thief, their organization would be forced to disband!

Because no one could match Luo Qingtong's thieving skills!

They simply couldn't contend with her strength!

It was just too much like cheating!

Even with such acclaim, and despite receiving offers from various intelligence agencies and dark forces from around the world, Luo Qingtong showed no interest in joining any organization!

She lived only for herself.

She did so in her past life, and she does so in this one too!

"Done!"

Easily deciphering the use of that silver necklace, Luo Qingtong's fingers deftly wound it, and the necklace melted and recombined into a silver key in her hands.

"Indeed, it's both thick and long," Luo Qingtong remarked with a smile of genuine interest as she looked at the key.

Royal Treasury, here she comes!

Luo Qingtong, with a smile still on her face, inserted the key into the lock of the grand entrance.

In an instant, whirring sounds echoed as energy lines on it slid around, quickly forming a rune pattern.

The next second, with a quiet "click", the doors opened a crack.

Luo Qingtong leapt in.

Just as she entered the Royal Treasury, outside the courtyard reserved by Prince Chun Jiu in Yingchun Building, a series of blood-shrouded figures descended with a 'swoosh'.

It was the members of the Supreme Assassin Pavilion locating Ye Qianming.

Chapter 212 Raiding the Treasury

"The target is inside!"

The Supreme Assassin Pavilion naturally has its ways of locating targets.

In their senses, Ye Qianming's presence was right within that courtyard!

"Move!"

The Nine Blade Level assassin suddenly gestured with a wave of his hand.

In an instant, those assassins from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion, converging from all directions, stormed into the courtyard, nearing the central main house!

"Master!"

Beiqing and Feng Yu, who had been searching for their master outside without success, suddenly sensed danger to Ye Qianming and pinpointed his location, rushing over hastily.

Inside the main house, Ye Qianming, who had been lying on the bed with his eyes shut, constantly assaulting his own acupoints to find the method Luo Qingtong used to restrain him, suddenly opened his eyes.

By the bath, Prince Chun Jiu was already on the verge of foaming at the mouth and collapsing under the suggestive influence of Luo Qingtong's Pupil Skill.

Ye Qianming's gaze skipped over him, turning towards the tightly shut doors and windows.

A myriad of concealed yet unreleased murderous intents were condensing outside the doors and windows, where vague shadows were gathering.

The next second, "Boom Boom Boom!"

A series of violent auras burst forth all at once, and the tightly shut doors and windows shattered in an instant. Nearly ten figures charged in from outside!

The killing intent was bone-chilling, with icy glints slicing through the air like knives!

Luo Qingtong slipped into the Royal Treasury and, unsurprisingly, saw a mountainous pile of resources.

These resources, collected by the Tianyu Imperial Family as a foundation, could instantly eclipse the national treasury of any low-class country.

Luo Qingtong estimated that even the treasure vaults of a middle-class country were nothing more than this!

All of these were treasures!

She was just worrying about where to start improving the Luo Family's strength!

Let these items serve as compensation from the Tianyu Imperial Family for the spiritual damages to the Luo Family and the original owner!

Luo Qingtong felt not the slightest guilt as she began packing them away!

Especially after learning about the humiliation Old Master Luo faced when he failed to cancel the engagement!

The Tianyu Imperial Family was indeed powerful! The Tianyu Empire was wealthy and influential! Their Luo family couldn't provoke them!

Luo Qingtong sneered.

Today, she would turn them into an impoverished Imperial Family!

Luo Qingtong released Little Fragrant Pig.

Before heading to Yingchun Building, she had deliberately taken it back into the Nine-layered Exquisite Tower to prevent any mishaps.

Now it seemed, that was a wise decision!

That man suddenly coming to find her, if he had captured Little Fragrant Pig, she would have been in trouble!

"Get to work, take them all, don't leave a single one behind," she told Little Fragrant Pig.

The latter, with a sneaky nature, was fitted with a storage ring on each of its four trotters, all forged by Tian Mingzi, and it squealed as it charged towards the mountainous pile of resources and treasures.

"Swipe swipe swipe!"

Wherever Little Fragrant Pig went, there was plundering like a goose stripping leaves!

Forget the resources; it didn't even spare the decorative pedestals and the Luminous Pearls on them!

Watching it sweep through the treasury like a whirlwind, leaving everywhere sleek and shiny, Luo Qingtong's mouth twitched involuntarily.

She had been concerned that the creature would disdain the Tianyu Empire's items for being too low-level and refuse to take them, but now it seemed she had worried for nothing!

This pig was a master of looting!

She didn't have to lift a finger!

Luo Qingtong activated her Pupil Skill and began searching the treasury for the hidden chamber where the true treasures of the Imperial Family lay.

That was where the core foundation of the Tianyu Imperial Family resided!

"Found it!"

Just as Luo Qingtong located the hidden chamber, her heart also clenched tightly.

Chapter 213 To Save or Not to Save

"Swoosh!"

She turned her head abruptly, her gaze full of shock and suspicion as she looked outside the Royal Treasury.

That man!

The Array she had set up in that man's room had been triggered!

He was in danger!

Although Luo Qingtong had sealed Ye Qianming's acupoints before leaving, she still didn't feel assured about his safety there, and had specifically set up an Array in the room. The array, centered around the man's bed, covered the entire room and was capable of both trapping and killing!

Now she felt it—the Array had unmistakably been triggered!

And within a short period, several nodes had been destroyed!

Clearly, the attacker was very strong!

What should she do?

Luo Qingtong's expression kept changing.

She stood in front of the secret chamber of the Royal Treasury.

With the chamber's tight security, it would be impossible for Luo Qingtong, with her Pupil Skill, to silently open the chamber in such a short span of time!

Unless she directly broke the Array with brute force!

But by doing so, she would inevitably alarm the masters from the Tianyu Royal Family!

What should she do?

The blood-red glow in the depths of Luo Qingtong's eyes flickered and changed incessantly.

She was a very selfish person, always caring solely about her own gains and losses, without concern for the life and death of others!

Whether you call her nature cold and indifferent or cruel and cold-blooded, Luo Qingtong had gotten used to living for herself!

For her goals, she could abandon all integrity!

To survive, she could resort to any means necessary.

Born with a heaven-defying superpower, Luo Qingtong had always been the target of the world's covetousness and pursuit!

She herself couldn't count the numerous Life and Death Tribulations she had gone through!

She had once vowed never to have excessive sympathy again! And never to put herself in danger for someone else's sake!

But that man... that man...

Luo Qingtong bit her teeth.

Reason told her what she should be doing right now was to open that secret chamber and take away all the treasures inside! She needed to make the people of the Tianyu Royal Family so heartbroken they wouldn't have time to trouble the Luo Family!

As for that man, he might not actually be in any danger!

But what if...?

What if something happened to that man...

Luo Qingtong felt an indescribable restlessness in her heart.

She knew that disregarding that man's affair was the right thing to do!

That man's strength was so formidable; who knew how powerful his enemies could be?

With her current strength, to get involved in that level of battle, she did not know how dangerous it would be!

But that man, after all, was fixed there by her!

Thinking of this, Luo Qingtong couldn't help but swear under her breath. Suddenly, she turned and swiftly flew towards the exterior of the Royal Treasury.

"I really owe that man!"

He came to her with troubles, and now she had to go back to save him!

It's truly a bitter situation only experienced by those who go through it!

And she had finally managed to enter the Royal Treasury, yet she couldn't get her hands on the true treasures that could shake the foundation of the Tianyu Royal Family!

It was a huge loss!

Missing this chance, the people of the Tianyu Royal Family would be alerted, and it definitely wouldn't be so easy to succeed next time!

That man was simply her bane!

While Luo Qingtong was thinking this, she darted toward the exterior of the Imperial Palace.

And at this very moment, in Yingchun Building, within the courtyard rented by Prince Chun Jiu.

Ye Qianming lay on the bed, his eyes coldly fixed on the blood-smeared figures trapped within the Array.

"Supreme Assassin Pavilion..."

He narrowed his eyes slightly as he observed the characteristic blood-red patterns on the chests of those people.

Just then, with a loud boom, the entire Array was destroyed!

The Assassins from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion, weapons in hand, looked at the man lying on the bed with eyes flashing with murderous intent.

"Kill!"

Chapter 214 Poking a Hornets' Nest

"Master!"

Beiqing Fengyu arrived just in time, positioning themselves in front of Ye Qianming.

"How are you, Master?"

Beiqing charged into battle with the assassins from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion who were rushing to attack, while Fengyu quickly moved to Ye Qianming's side at this moment.

"I can't move." Ye Qianming's gaze was icy cold.

He had been hit in a vital acupoint by that woman.

He didn't know how she did it, but despite all his efforts, he couldn't break free and could only wait for an hour to pass.

Watching the fight within the room, Ye Qianming narrowed his eyes.

The strength of these people was not weak.

On a normal day, he would've killed them all within minutes, but today...

"Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh!"

Luo Qingtong's figure moved rapidly, but just as she had just left the Royal Treasury, she suddenly felt something was wrong.

Wait, why was she being so foolish?

Saving that man did not conflict with her plan to rob the Tianyu Royal Family's treasure!

She had been led astray by the urgency of that man's situation!

She could have just looted the Royal Treasury and then made her escape!

She could even cause a distraction, leading the Tianyu Royal Family to deal with that man's enemies!

Such a good opportunity, and she was acting like some lone hero!

Really!

It was all that man's fault!

His predicament had muddled her mind.

Luo Qingtong hurried back as she thought about it.

By this time, the Little Fragrant Pig had already cleaned out the entire Royal Treasury.

Seeing Luo Qingtong run out and then back in, it instantly dug in with its four hooves and jumped onto Luo Qingtong's shoulder, tugging at her clothes with its small hooves and asking, "Where are you going?"

"To plunder the Royal Treasury's secret chamber."

Luo Qingtong said, looking up to see the polished, gleaming surroundings where a gust of wind could twirl, her lips twitched fiercely.

"You're quite capable, aren't you!"

In the entire Royal Treasury, there wasn't a thing left, not even a column for the Tianyu Royal Family!

This pig's plucking technique was impressive!

"Of course, Grandpa Pig here used to...what the heck, are you insane?!"

The Little Fragrant Pig's eyes bulged, watching as Luo Qingtong sprinted to the secret chamber of the Royal Treasury and threw a punch straight towards it!

Oh my lord!

What got into this woman? Did she eat explosives?

After that punch, would they still be okay?

Within minutes, the whole Tianyu Royal Family would be in uproar!

Why on earth did she decide to be so reckless?!

The Little Fragrant Pig felt that being with Luo Qingtong, it could never grasp this woman's train of thought!

No wonder that man kept getting tricked again and again!

You can't blame him for being too dumb, this woman is just too difficult to handle!

Thinking this, the Little Fragrant Pig felt a sudden sympathy for Ye Qianming.

"Of course, I'm not crazy."

Luo Qingtong snorted coldly, glanced at it, and then emptied the secret chamber completely with a sweep of her hand.

The punch she had just thrown landed precisely on a vulnerable point in the chamber's defenses, breaking through in the most efficient and powerful way.

But the cost was great—

Buzz!

Almost at the instant Luo Qingtong breached the secret chamber door of the Tianyu Royal Treasure Vault, a piercing alarm sounded.

In a flash, everyone in the Tianyu Palace was startled!

"The Royal Treasury! There's a breach in the Royal Treasury!"

"Someone has broken into the palace at night and entered the Royal Treasury!"

"Quick! Mobilize the troops, lockdown the whole palace!"

"Everyone, surround and kill the thief!"

Orders were issued one after another, throwing the entire Tianyu Palace into chaos.

At the same time, the powerhouses stationed in the Imperial Palace and the Royal Treasury also burst forth with their energy, rushing over here in an instant.

Chapter 215 Playing a Bit Too Big

Little Fragrant Pig watched, dumbfounded, as the entire Tianyu Imperial Palace boiled over like a disturbed wasps' nest. The next second, it screeched at the top of its lungs.

"Run for it!"

This woman used to blame it for causing too much trouble!

Clearly, she's the biggest troublemaker!

She's alerted the whole Tianyu Royal Family!

What happened to "sneaking into the village quietly, not firing a shot"?!

This woman is going to be the death of me!

"No need to tell me." Luo Qingtong had already dashed out of the treasure vault the moment she broke through the secret chamber's door.

The royal guards tasked with surveillance were all rushing towards her.

As soon as Luo Qingtong stepped out, she faced a dense crowd.

Seeing the figures darting about and the gathering heads, Luo Qingtong's mouth twitched violently.

This time, the play might be a bit too big!

But the bigger the better!

If it's not big enough, I'll worry I may not be able to save that man!

Leave the scapegoating to me, and you can go off and get yourself killed!

The people of the Tianyu Royal Family would sacrifice themselves for others, and she would be deeply grateful in her heart!

"You woman are insane, and you won't believe it! With this situation, how are we supposed to run?!" Little Fragrant Pig was already sprawled with all limbs flat, ready to play dead on her shoulders!

Are we done for or what?

I must have bad karma to have such an owner!

Little Fragrant Pig's heart was weeping tears!

"Get a grip! Who told you we're definitely done for?" Luo Qingtong rolled her eyes at it impatiently.

She lightly licked the corner of her lips, the smile on her lips was wild and charming.

"Let me show you what a real show-off looks like!"

It's just a bunch of experts from the Tianyu Royal Family, right?

I've been wanted globally before, with bigger scenes and more experts than this! Didn't I still manage to escape successfully in the end?

However, although she said this, Luo Qingtong's expression was very serious.

With her current strength, directly confronting the Tianyu Royal Family was still a bit of a stretch!

Luckily, her only goal was to escape!

When it comes to escaping, she'd claim to be second to none!

As long as she's careful, there should be no problem!

With that thought, a sudden burst of blood flashed in Luo Qingtong's eyes.

In a flash, a gust of wind sprung under her feet, and with a light tap, she floated up.

Whoosh!

She dashed towards the Martial King Realm experts who had arrived first and were coming at her in a pincer attack.

The latter group, seeing her daring to charge directly towards them, were instantly enraged!

"Stop right there, you thief!"

With a "boom", several of them attacked at the same time!

The vast and mighty power almost instantaneously surged forth, roaring towards Luo Qingtong.

The young figure, draped in red robes, concealed behind a piece of hastily torn red fabric, was enigmatic and beguiling like a demon!

"Whoosh!"

Almost no one saw how she moved, as she easily dodged those attacks!

Most importantly, from beginning to end, her figure only swayed slightly!

"This! Unity of Heaven and Man?!"

Seeing Luo Qingtong's mere sidestep niftily dodging the attack from them, a Martial King Realm royal expert exclaimed in shock.

Unity of Heaven and Man, a legend that Emperor-level experts who have refined their abilities to the Reverting to One's True Nature Realm, can completely merge their aura with the world around them. Thus, they can move effortlessly as desired with their heart leading the way!

This young woman could actually perform such movement techniques?!

But her strength, clearly isn't that powerful!

Before these people could recover from their shock, Luo Qingtong's figure flickered and dashed past them towards the outside.

Chapter 216 Chase Me if You Can!

"Swoosh swoosh swoosh!"

Just like Luo Qingtong said, this is a display of extreme flair.

More and more people rushed towards the treasury, yet Luo Qingtong remained calm and composed.

Countless attacks bombarded her.

"Catch her!"

In the midst of heaven-shaking shouts, Luo Qingtong was indescribably calm.

Her figure seemed particularly graceful and effortless amongst the barrage of attacks and the crowd's sniping.

All the attacks and interceptions were swiftly dodged by Luo Qingtong's movements in an instant.

"Swoosh swoosh swoosh!"

One attack after another whizzed past Luo Qingtong, just missing her.

Even those who rushed up to seize her were deftly evaded.

She pushed her Pupil Skill to the limit, ingeniously finding the connecting point amidst the dense net-like onslaught; with just a flicker, she continuously avoided the relentless attacks and captures!

From beginning to end, her speed never waned!

Operating the Pupil Skill at such high speed caused a piercing pain in Luo Qingtong's brain!

But such pain was rewarding!

Looking at the experts from the Tianyu Royal Family chasing after her being left behind, a surge of blood-light burst in Luo Qingtong's eyes and she leapt onto the city wall in a flash.

"Whoosh!"

The figure of the youth looked like a butterfly, graceful to the utmost, pausing slightly on the Imperial Palace wall before swiftly flying off into the distance!

Countless attacks landed behind her, all becoming nothing more than a backdrop to her escape!

"Trash of the Tianyu Royal Family! What if I've raided your treasury, so what? If you dare, come and chase after me!"

The moment Luo Qingtong landed, she rolled on the ground, looked up at the Tianyu Royal Family's strong ones on the city wall with a smile, and flipped them off with two thumbs down gestures!

That smile on her face was the epitome of contempt! Sinister and wildly arrogant!

"Goddammit! Catch her!"

"At all costs, we must catch her!"

The members of the Tianyu Royal Family who had been trying to encircle and block her were instantly enraged by this scene.

It was bad enough that this little thief broke into the treasury, but she even dared to mock them!

Even without understanding the meaning of the gesture, they could feel the thick contempt and scorn from Luo Qingtong's smile!

"Boom boom boom!"

A group of people, furious, charged down from the Imperial Palace's inner courtyard wall!

"Oh my! Tighten the sails!"

Luo Qingtong stuck out her tongue at the sight of the crowd, infuriated like bulls by her provocation, and she took off running wildly!

Hang in there, you damn man! I'm coming to save you!

To die for others, a virtue forever enshrined in the Tianyu Royal Family!

Little Fragrant Pig perched on Luo Qingtong's shoulder, its four little hooves clutching her clothes, utterly disheveled in the wind!

It just looked on as this woman played her games, wondering when she would finally play herself to death!

"Boom boom boom!"

The entire Tianyu Imperial City could hear the commotion from this direction.

Luo Qingtong, leading a crowd of Tianyu Royal Family members, was on a mad dash towards the direction of Yingchun Building.

Meanwhile, Beiqing had been injured during his battle with the assassins from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion!

Feng Yu, tasked with protecting Ye Qianming, who couldn't move at all, was too preoccupied to help him.

The three were surrounded in the middle with each step of the encroaching assassins from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion.

Ye Qianming watched them with a cold focus, the aura of his power surging wildly within him.

He was on the verge of finding a way to break the woman's bindings!

Just then, boom! A deafening explosion, like the sky collapsing and the earth splitting, roared from outside.

Chapter 217: Sorry, Can't Roll Away!

"Boom boom boom!"

The sound grew from distant to near, soon reaching the vicinity of Yingchun Building.

The people in the courtyard hadn't reacted yet when a red figure suddenly flipped over the outer courtyard wall and into the yard.

"Hey!"

She raised her hand and greeted the two confronting groups in the courtyard.

Seeing Ye Qianming being protected by Beiqing Fengyu in the middle, her body stiff but apparently unharmed, Luo Qingtong breathed a sigh of relief.

Good, good! This man is still okay!

"You!"

The sudden appearance of Luo Qingtong startled Ye Qianming, Beiqing, and Fengyu alike.

Especially Ye Qianming, his cold eyebrows instantly furrowed upon seeing her.

"Scram!"

His voice was icy cold, almost mercilessly shouted out the moment Luo Qingtong appeared.

He hadn't said a word when those killers from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion showed up, but now, because of Luo Qingtong's arrival, he directly yelled loudly.

What is this woman doing here causing a scene?!

These killers from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion are here for him!

Inside, there is one from the Nine Blade Level of Saint Realm, and several Eight Blade Killers whose strength is comparable to the Saint Realm!

These two that had been personally trained and improved by Beiqing Fengyu couldn't even handle them! What is she doing here?!

Ye Qianming's cold eyebrows stood harshly as he thought, the moment he saw Luo Qingtong, his first instinct was to drive her away to avoid involving her in this mess!

"Hey! You're being ungrateful, man! We came here specifically to help you! And this is the attitude you give us?!"

Little Fragrant Pig was visibly angry.

It had followed Luo Qingtong bursting in here before it realized why this woman had recklessly stirred up the hornet's nest of the Tianyu Royal Family!

So it was to save this man!

But this man seemed utterly ungrateful.

In an instant, Little Fragrant Pig was irked!

What, being powerful makes one great?! Does that allow one to look down on others?!

Meanwhile, Luo Qingtong, upon hearing Ye Qianming's harsh "Scram!", merely raised her eyebrows.

She could sense that the man's voice wasn't completely cold and heartless.

Was he trying to get her out of this situation? To keep her from getting involved?

The blood light momentarily flickered in Luo Qingtong's eyes.

Credit to this man for having a conscience, knowing to tell her, this "weak woman", to stay away!

It was worth her coming back to save him after all!

As Luo Qingtong's Pupil Vision swept across the group confronting the trio including Ye Qianming, her lips twitched.

My goodness! Rows after rows of towering values!

Does this man need such powerful enemies?!

Lucky she was prepared!

Or else just randomly running back here would've been like offering herself up on a platter!

Even unsealing this man would need some time, right?!

"No need! Scram!" Ye Qianming's voice was frosty.

But Luo Qingtong was not affected at all.

"Sorry, seems like I can't scam!"

Omg! The outside area was swarming with people!

She had dashed out from the Royal Treasury and deliberately wandered around the Tianyu Imperial City, attracting a bunch of people here! It was to make this man's enemies take the blame!

Now he tells her to scram? Is he kidding?!

Even if she grew eyes all over her body, she couldn't escape!

Luo Qingtong rolled her eyes at him.

The next second, she fiercely stood up.

Chapter 218 Giving You Guys a Nice Gift!

Luo Qingtong was originally perched on that courtyard wall.

At this moment, she suddenly stood up, her red garments fluttering in the dark night sky, dazzling like the brilliant glow of flames.

With a snap of her fingers, her alluring eyes shone beneath the night sky, her radiant smile blooming like a flower.

"Hey! I've got a little gift for you!"

As she spoke, she threw something at those from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion.

Watching her throw it, Ye Qianming, Beiqing Fengyu, and their companion felt a wave of oddness in their hearts, clueless about what she was up to.

Only Little Fragrant Pig knew that this woman was about to trick someone again! She was definitely up to her tricks!

What she threw out was none other than the key to the Tianyu Royal Family's Royal Treasury!

Moreover, before leaving, Luo Qingtong had smeared her scent around the secret chamber door of the Royal Treasury!

That is to say, the aura of the protective measures within the secret chamber of the Royal Treasury—the reliance upon which the strong members of the Tianyu Royal Family pursued Luo Qingtong—was all on that key!

Now Luo Qingtong had thrown it to the enemies of that man!

Naturally, the objects of the Imperial Family's hatred had become them!

Wicked!

So wicked!

Cunning!

Too cunning!

Little Fragrant Pig didn't even know what to say about Luo Qingtong anymore!

This woman truly had a belly full of bad water and tricks!

Incredible!

Whoever messes with her is doomed!

"What kind of trash is this!"

At this moment, the people from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion, full of murderous intent, were closing in on Ye Qianming and the others, not sparing an additional glance at the intruding Luo Qingtong.

With their strength, Luo Qingtong's cultivation at the Military General Realm was less significant than an ant!

However, no one had anticipated that such an insignificant ant would throw something at them!

The leading Nine-blade Killer instantly cleaved the thrown key in half; his gaze then turned coldly towards Luo Qingtong.

"Kill her!"

This youngster is courting death!

However, no sooner had his words left his mouth than the silver key he had split in two exploded into powder in the air with a bang.

In an instant, the silver fragments, like a shower of stars, scattered down, accurately enshrouding all the assassins from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion within!

Each assassin from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion was coated with a layer of powder from that silver key!

At the same time, the aura from the silver key was transferred onto them!

"Job done!"

The blood-light in Luo Qingtong's eyes suddenly flashed.

The next second, she soared into the air, rushing towards where Ye Qianming and the others were in the courtyard below!

"Whoosh!"

In the moment of her descent, Luo Qingtong emitted a shrill whistle from her mouth, instantly drawing the attention of the Tianyu Royal Family members who were scouring the area in search of her.

"Brothers! We've got the loot! Time to bail—see you at the usual spot!"

"Oh, and don't let the Tianyu Royal Family's folks catch you!"

Luo Qingtong winked at the assassins from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion surrounding Ye Qianming and the others, her face playful and unrestrained.

Her mischievous charm mixed with her lively cunning made her seem like an elf in the dark night.

So brazen in her mischief, utterly wicked!

It made one's heart skip a beat just looking at her!

This woman truly was a demon!

Watching that figure blazing towards him like a flame, Ye Qianming didn't know why, but a very strong desire suddenly surged from the bottom of his heart.

Chapter 219 Killing Someone by Borrowing a Knife

He wanted to pull this figure into his embrace!

He wanted to hold onto this figure, elusive like the wind, slipping through his fingers every time, to keep her by his side forever!

Grasping her tightly, so she could never escape again!

In Ye Qianming's eyes reflected the image of Luo Qingtong leaping down.

That blaze-like radiance flickering in his eyes, was like a fervent flame suddenly igniting in a cold, lifeless water!

It almost turned the stagnant water, which had been still for thousands of years, into a flame-like color, just like Ye Qianming's beating heart at that moment.

Watching Luo Qingtong jumping towards him, his fingers hidden under his sleeves suddenly twitched.

"Bang!"

As Luo Qingtong landed, she immediately pressed her hand on the ground!

"Arise!"

The youth's voice was clear, his smile unbridled.

After the Supreme Assassin Pavilion cleared away those layers of silver dust, what they faced was precisely this scene.

The youth, dressed in red as blood, knelt on the ground, slamming his palm on the surface.

"Rumble!"

The Array Formation around them, previously shattered by the Supreme Assassin Pavilion's assassins, started operating once again!

This time, it instantly changed into another type of Array!

In an instant, countless silver lights enveloped Luo Qingtong and Ye Qianming within them.

Instant formation!

Even on an already shattered Array!

Nobody knew how Luo Qingtong managed to do it!

The previous Array was clearly shattered!

Yet, she managed to restart it and create another formation!

Obviously, the one she initially set up was an Array within an Array!

And it was a profoundly complex one at that.

It is extremely rare for any Array Formation to restart and form anew with most of its nodes destroyed!

"Array Formation Master!"

Watching Luo Qingtong's actions, the pupils of the leading Nine-blade Killer suddenly tightened, bursting with an unbelievable glow.

This youth, appearing no more than fourteen or fifteen years old, was actually an Array Formation Master?!

How is that possible?!

Before he could even continue his astonishment, suddenly, voices from outside called out, attracting the Imperial Family's warriors led by Luo Qingtong's voice, who broke through from all directions.

"Over here!"

"That little thief's accomplice is here!"

"Star Shattered Silver! It's the key fragment from our Royal Treasury!"

"Dammit! Seize them! Rend their bodies into pieces!"

Driven mad by fury, the strong members of the Tianyu Imperial Family, who had been led around Tianyu Imperial City by Luo Qingtong from the Royal Treasury, were boiling with rage.

Their eyes, red with fury, did not even notice the strength of the Supreme Assassin Pavilion fighters and charged with weapons raised!

Daring to act against the Tianyu Imperial Family!

They would show these offenders the severity of their power!

Such arrogant thieves!

"Rumble!"

Blinded by anger, the warriors of the Tianyu Imperial Family unleashed a barrage of attacks on the assassins of the Supreme Assassin Pavilion.

"Seeking death!"

Being Saint Realm and Semi-Saint Realm warriors, these assassins from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion had never been so insulted by mere Martial Artists!

Seeing such an attack from the warriors of the Tianyu Empire, they instantly surged with energy, obliterating the incoming attacks completely!

Not just that, a furious shout from one of the Nine Blade Level killers burst forth, blasting the foremost attackers of the Tianyu Imperial Family, making them spew blood and fly backward!

Chapter 220 I Don't Want Them, Only You!

Oh my god!

Within the Array, Luo Qingtong was leading Ye Qianming and the others in an escape. Glancing back at this scene, the corners of her lips twitched uncontrollably!

The Tianyu Imperial Family's trash!

Always so high and mighty!

Aren't they supposed to be powerhouses from an Emperor-level country?

A pile of Martial Kings and Martial Emperors!

How come they got knocked away in just a few moves!

Do they live up to their usual arrogant appearances?!

Utterly pathetic!

What use are they!

She even pulled together a group of people to help, but I bet they're not even enough for a few hits!

And this man!

What kind of enemies has he provoked!

"What kind of people have you provoked?! They're so strong!" Luo Qingtong glared resentfully at the man who was being half supported by Feng Yubeiqing, asking with irritation.

"People from the Supreme Assassin Pavilion." Ye Qianming's voice was calm, seemingly unconcerned.

His gaze was icy as he looked at Luo Qingtong, extending a hand towards her.

"Come here." His command was indisputable.

"But!" Luo Qingtong watched him warily.

She might be rescuing him, but she absolutely couldn't get close to this man – who knows what he would do to her!

She had just tricked him not so long ago!

Right now, he might be immobile, but he still had two servants by his side!

Luo Qingtong wisely kept a good distance from the three of them.

"..." Ye Qianming looked at her helplessly for quite a while.

The veins on his forehead bulged.

"How are you going to unseal me when you're so far away? The Tianyu Imperial Family won't be able to hold those people off for long!" Ye Qianming bit his teeth as he spoke word by word.

Does this woman really not want to come close to him?

Is she really that scared of him?

"Oh!" Luo Qingtong snapped back to reality, realizing he was talking about unsealing his points.

"It's fine, let them do it for you! I'll give the order, and they'll perform the unsealing." She pointed to Beiqing and Feng Yu.

"Which one of you will do it?"

"I don't want them!"

Before Beiqing and Feng Yu could even finish, Ye Qianming's cold voice interrupted.

"You sealed my points! You come unseal them!"

Trying to push him off onto someone else!

Does this woman feel so impatient to get close to him that she doesn't even want to touch him?

It's like she's guarding against him as if he were a plague!

Who was it before that was all hands on him!

Or is it that this woman is fickle and easily gets tired of the old for the sake of the new?

Thinking this, an inexplicable irritation surged in Ye Qianming's heart, and he rejected Luo Qingtong's offer to unseal him without a second thought!

Beiqing and Feng Yu on the side were utterly stunned.

Their Master?!

Is this really their Master?!

Since when did their Master become so capricious?

Looking at Ye Qianming, the more they looked, the stranger it felt.

For some reason, although it felt awkward, it seemed like their Master was acting like a child who couldn't get candy, sulking...

The thought popped into their minds and they shuddered at once!

It must be an illusion!

Absolutely an illusion!

How could their Master possibly act like that!

Yet, their thoughts couldn't help but drift in that direction.

Meanwhile, Luo Qingtong looked at Ye Qianming, completely baffled by his behavior.

What's wrong with this man?

He's not even happy to be unsealed?

Why does she specifically have to unseal him?

It's a trap!

Thinking this, Luo Qingtong's guard went up instantly.

Actually, it's not that Luo Qingtong wouldn't help Ye Qianming unseal, but right now, with her strength, it would take too much time to undo his sealing; it would be faster for Beiqing and Feng Yu to do it.

"They can unseal you faster!" Luo Qingtong looked frustrated, "Can't you stop thinking about how to catch me for a second? We should deal with the enemies first!"

Meanwhile, within the courtyard, the members of the Supreme Assassin Pavilion, who have been held back by the Tianyu Imperial Family, have already noticed the absence of Ye Qianming's presence inside the Array.
