Chapter 301 The Ring... Moved

"Teacher! Teacher!"

Luo Xinning covered her face, ignoring the gazes of the people around her as she hurriedly followed Elder Qu's departing footsteps.

She could not afford to lose Elder Qu's support, especially now when she had already lost all face in Fenglin City.

Luo Qingtong came to the door, first smashing the plaque of Luo Residence, then sending a derogatory sign, and finally using the account books to thoroughly raid her Luo Residence.

Luo Xinning had no dignity left to speak of!

In such a situation, losing Elder Qu's support would truly turn her into a laughingstock in Fenglin City!

By then, anyone could mock her with today's events.

Anyone could belittle her with Luo Qingtong's words!

Luo Xinning could not let herself fall into such a situation.

No matter what, she had to retain Elder Qu's support for her.

She intended to enter the Tianyu Branch, rise like a soaring dragon, and make Luo Qingtong regret today's humiliation!

Luckily, Luo Qingtong was too arrogant, humiliating her while also offending Elder Qu!

Luo Xinning was fairly certain she could shift the blame onto Luo Qingtong, redirecting Elder Qu's anger.

With her strong qualifications and being Elder Qu's Closed-door Disciple, he would not give up on her so quickly.

Thus, Luo Xinning chased after Elder Qu without a second thought.

With Luo Xinning's departure, today's drama between the Luo Family and Luo Residence finally came to an end.

The surrounding spectators enjoyed the show immensely.

They never expected Luo Xinning to be such a person; many in the audience were deceived by her gentle and frail appearance!

Who would have thought the second branch of Luo Family harbored such dark intentions!

But this Lady Luo is indeed a fierce character!

To act so arrogantly and recklessly, showing no regard even for the instructor from Tianyu Branch, blatantly crushing Luo Xinning in public, causing her to lose all face and wish for death!

But this must have been because she was driven to the edge by the second branch of Luo Family, pushed beyond her limits, right?

The legendary Lady Luo is said to be like a Heavenly Immortal, not only outwardly ethereal but also of a very gentle and kind nature.

Now, it seems she was pushed into displaying a defiant and unrestrained nature by the second branch of Luo Family!

Yet, such a Lady Luo, her grace truly unmatched!

Clothed in stunning red, seated majestically on a dark-red large horse, her beauty radiant, delicate as flowers, yet with an air of proud and playful defiance, displaying her elegance fully!

Such a mighty and commanding presence, her glances contemptuous, far surpassing Luo Xinning!

Truly the number one beauty of Dongli!

Such elegance, such aura... calling her the world's number one beauty wouldn't be an exaggeration!

And at this moment, Luo Qingtong, hailed as the world's number one beauty, was troubled by the Nine Phoenix Flying ring on her left ring finger.

Just now, she suddenly felt a pulling fluctuation originating from that very Jiuyou Phoenix Ring.

How else could she have left so quickly!

She would have at least stayed to delight in observing Luo Xinning's hateful expression and disgraceful appearance!

But it was that fluctuation that caused her a terribly uneasy heart, prompting her to quickly return...

This ring, ever since it was placed on her finger, had been quiet.

Luo Qingtong almost forgot that the man had placed a tracker on her!

This sudden movement from the ring today, could it be that man has made another move?

Chapter 302 The Lord Returns

Thinking of Luo Qingtong truly sent shivers down her spine.

You see, among so many people in this world, she just threatened and coerced that man once, right? She also repaid him with a life-saving debt! Why does that man keep holding onto her relentlessly?

Alright! It was indeed her fault that the man ended up in danger...

But hasn't she been compensating all along?

She even disclosed to him the three most crucial flaws in his body!

Her consultation fees are incredibly expensive, you know!

Back in the 24th century, when a country's president sought her treatment, she'd even consider her mood and whether she had the time to attend!

She has already offered that man free medical consultations so many times!

Isn't that enough to make up for the previous disastrous mess?

That man, the imposing Netherworld Venerable, must he be so petty?

Really now?!

Could it be that his vast Black Domain was all saved up through being stingy?!

Just as Luo Qingtong was staring dejectedly at the ring on her left ring finger, feeling utterly despondent,

Before even approaching, a multitude of figures had already materialized atop Fukong City.

"Welcome back, Lord!"

The people of Black Domain Main City, having received the news of Ye Qianming's return, all lined up to greet him.

All nine gates of the Fukong City opened at once, and the gates of Mingzun Palace were flung wide, to welcome the return of their Master.

"This Young Master Ye, making such a fuss with his return... couldn't he be more low-key..."

Elder Yue watched the bustling scene in Black Domain Main City and mumbled to himself.

Although he knew that this commotion was a spontaneous gesture from the people of Black Domain, not Ye Qianming's own intention, he still felt that twinge of envy.

Hmph! Back in the day, he was also pursued and adored wherever he went!

His events were much grander than Young Master Ye's!

But now... well...

Thinking of those who were chasing after him, Elder Yue felt a headache coming on.

With his status, if he were to reveal it, he could scare a bunch of people witless, I guarantee they'd treat him like an ancestral deity every day!

But the moment he thought of the consequences that the revelation of his identity would bring, Elder Yue promptly got a cold shiver and resolutely crossed that idea out!

He had come to Ye Qianming's place partly out of curiosity about his meridians and also to find a place to lie low!

The way things are now is just fine! He definitely doesn't want his identity exposed!

Low profile, he needs to keep a low profile!

"Lord."

A group of people from Black Domain excitedly watched Ye Qianming descend from the Qingtian Flying Boat.

Upon his return, he immediately purged the Supreme Assassin Pavilion branches from various countries with thunderous methods, his aggressive and commanding approach truly awe-inspiring!

What's more, with such a big move, the Supreme Assassin Pavilion had almost no resistance.

You should know, others think the Supreme Assassin Pavilion is a coalition of many Saint Realm powerhouses on the Zhenyan Continent.

But only those high-ranking people in the Black Domain know that there's nothing simple about the Supreme Assassin Pavilion's backing!

Yet this recently domineering and arrogant Assassin organization was completely destroyed by a casual move from the Lord.

The remaining forces also completely went underground—a truly shocking development!

The strength and force behind their own Lord are truly unfathomable.

"Hmm."

Ye Qianming responded indifferently with a sound and casually waved his hand, instructing everyone to disperse.

Just then, Elder Yue came up with a chuckle.

"Yo, you've been gone for so long, where did you go... huh?"

Chapter 303 Who Says It's Because of That Woman?

"You've returned? To there?"

He looked at the Ten Directions Dragon Ring in Ye Qianming's hand.

"And you even brought this thing out? Didn't you say before that you didn't want it?" Elder Yue was full of surprise.

"Tsk ts, seems like someone's going to cry themselves to death! How did you suddenly change your mind?" His face was all about the gossip.

It had been many years since Ye Qianming had set foot there, and unexpectedly, he went back there this time and even brought out the Ten Directions Dragon Ring.

Elder Yue could already imagine some people fainting in the washroom from crying.

It's just too hilarious!

But why did Ye Qianming suddenly change his mind?

The man glanced at him faintly and didn't speak.

However, Beiqing, who had been cheerful since he returned, immediately replied joyously upon hearing this, "It's all thanks to Evil Doctor! It's all her merit..."

This was the only reason the master was willing to go back there!

Oh boy! He doesn't know just how satisfying this trip was!

He fought several battles, made those bastards cry for their mothers! It felt so good to loosen his bones and joints!

Beiqing was happily muttering away, while on the other side, Feng Yu was already covering his eyes with his hand.

Beiqing, this dumbass! Didn't he see the master's gaze already sweeping over?

The master was already struggling with his own feelings for Evil Doctor, and this idiot was saying in front of the master that it was because of Evil Doctor he went back to deal with those people...

Even if it's true, you blockhead shouldn't blurt it out right in front of the master!

So stupid!

Feng Yu couldn't bear to watch.

"Who told you that I went back because of her?"

Ye Qianming coldly looked at Beiqing, who was ecstatic for no good reason, finding his expression particularly annoying.

How could he possibly have returned because of that woman?

It was clearly those people trying to kill him, angering him to the core!

Moreover, even if I did go back because of that woman, why is Beiqing so happy? Does he have feelings for her?

Thinking this, Ye Qianming's expression instantly turned colder.

"My return to retrieve what rightfully belongs to me has nothing to do with that woman."

Although, he indeed went back because he wanted to find that woman as soon as possible.

But, he would absolutely never admit this.

"Eh? Isn't it?" Beiqing's eyes widened, could he have misunderstood?

"But master, when you returned..." still fondling the Ten Directions Dragon Ring in his hand, wasn't it because you wanted to find Evil Doctor quickly?

Beiqing had only gotten this far in his speech when suddenly—

"Ouch!"

He was harshly stepped on by Feng Yu, and before he could glare in response, the latter had already hurriedly pulled him to apologize to Ye Qianming.

"Master, I just remembered that Beiqing and I need to deal with some matters, we will take our leave first!"

Saying this, he ran off dragging Beiqing, who hadn't yet reacted.

This idiot, staying here any longer, master would send him to Spy Color Workshop to "experience life"!

Ye Qianming snorted coldly, letting them go without calling them back.

Just then, Elder Yue, full of interest, leaned in and said, "Evil Doctor? Could it be that girl who can heal the meridians in your body? Where is she? Bring her to see!"

Elder Yue was also eager to meet such a prodigious talent.

And to check whether she really could heal the injuries in Ye Qianming's body, or if it was just a coincidence.

"No one!"

Ye Qianming's voice was cold.

Elder Yue's words had hit where it hurt the most.

That woman really knew how to run!

But this time, let's see where she can run off to!

Ye Qianming thought, lowering his head to look at the Ten Directions Dragon Ring in his hand.

Just then—

Chapter 304 Woman, You Can't Escape

"Hmm? Why does the energy within you seem a bit off?"

Elder Yue suddenly noticed that something was amiss with Ye Qianming's internal energy.

Last time Ye Qianming returned, Elder Yue was not around, so he did not discover the condition inside Ye Qianming's body.

This time, upon seeing him, Elder Yue suddenly realized that the energy inside Ye Qianming was much stronger than before.

This...

"Have some of the injuries in your meridians healed?" He found it somewhat inconceivable as he reached out and took the man's pulse.

Ye Qianming did not move, allowing him to check his internal energy.

He had returned this time also to ask Elder Yue to examine the condition of his injuries.

Ever since that woman taught him another method of channeling his internal strength, he felt that the intervals between breaking of his meridians were getting longer.

It must be because the burden had been reduced.

The method that woman taught him specifically avoided the three most fragile meridians in his body.

This method was something even Elder Yue had not thought of.

"How odd and mysterious! Your meridians are still the same, so how has your energy become so much more formidable?" Elder Yue looked utterly astonished.

"Was it that girl who did this?"

Apart from the Evil Doctor mentioned by Beiqing, Elder Yue could not think of anyone else.

"Hmm." Ye Qianming nodded, "She taught me another method of channeling strength, which avoids the three most fragile meridians in my body."

Ye Qianming relayed Luo Qingtong's exact words and Elder Yue looked utterly shocked.

"Alter the pathway of meridian circulation? She can actually accomplish such a feat?"

Even he would not dare to do this lightly!

After all, it's not simple – one must be familiar with the other's Cultivation Technique, and also must understand the condition of the other's meridians thoroughly!

Moreover, one needs to have enough comprehension and strength to alter another's cultivation route without causing backlash!

These things... only an unmatched powerhouse who is both a medical master and a Martial Arts master could possibly make such changes!

Elder Yue, although a Saint of Alchemy, did not have such talent in Martial Arts!

Not to mention, the Cultivation Technique that Ye Qianming practices, no ordinary person could cultivate it!

Luo Qingtong was actually able to alter the route of power circulation in his Cultivation Technique? That's even more unbelievable than a fairytale!

But the facts are right before his eyes, leaving him no choice but to believe.

"Indeed, she is extraordinary." Hearing the shock in Elder Yue's voice, Ye Qianming spoke indifferently with a trace of pride.

The woman he fancied was naturally extraordinary.

Otherwise, she wouldn't be able to escape from his hands time and time again.

Hey, hey, hey! What's with this inexplicable tone of pride?

Elder Yue gave him an unamused look.

"You're really audacious, not fearing that she was just deceiving you to make her escape and fix a potential problem for good!"

To alter the route of power circulation... At the least, one could go mad from internal energy deviation, losing all power and, at worst, suffer serious injuries leading to death.

This young man is truly guardless.

Has he forgotten that he was on a mission to capture someone?

And yet he listens to her so readily!

"She won't." Ye Qianming listened and his eyes slightly narrowed.

That woman, if she truly wanted to harm him, had numerous opportunities before...

With such thoughts, Ye Qianming's mood suddenly improved greatly.

Hmph!

That woman indeed likes him but is too stubborn to admit it with a heart that says the opposite!

Cunning!

The coldness in the man's eyes diminished slightly as a gentle curve formed on his lips.

"Woman, you cannot escape."

He murmured softly.

Chapter 305 Not Reliable at All

Fenglin City.

Ever since she noticed the fluctuations from the Jiuyou Phoenix Ring, Luo Qingtong had been anxious and on edge.

She always felt like that man seemed to have done something, and he would find her soon!

Luo Qingtong was truly fretting to death.

The current situation of the Luo Family simply couldn't do without people.

She couldn't possibly leave the Luo Family at this time either.

So the question arose, what should she do if that man came to her doorstep!

"Ugh, so annoying! Heng Ji, do you have any solutions? This mess is mostly your fault! You need to fix it!"

Luo Qingtong threatened as she stared at the Little Fragrant Pig.

"..." The Little Fragrant Pig felt it was being unjustly blamed.

Although it was indeed its fault at the beginning, it was clearly this woman who kept provoking that man later on, which led to the big trouble, okay?

Why was it its fault again?

It had long been reformed!

"If he comes for you, just go, seduce him with your charm! Guaranteed to work," it seriously suggested.

"Scram!"

Before she could finish speaking, a potsticker hit her right on the head.

"I'm talking serious here! You're trying to fool me with that kind of talk!" Luo Qingtong fumed.

If it weren't for this pig, how could she have gotten involved with that man and now can't shake him off!

"I'm being serious too!" Little Fragrant Pig looked pitiful.

Why does nobody believe it when it tells the truth?

Given that man's feelings toward this woman, she really didn't need to hide at all; she could just play the beauty card right away!

Luo Qingtong ignored it, just knitted her brows and looked at the Jiuyou Phoenix Ring in her hand.

The fluctuations on it were clear, even with those fake Jiuyou Phoenix Rings as a cover, that man would probably find her soon.

She hoped that the arrangements she had made could delay things a little, at least until the Luo Family matters were resolved.

"Ugh, this darn thing, can't block it and can't take it off; does that man really want to catch me just to teach me a lesson?" Luo Qingtong looked depressed, her brows nearly twisted into a 'JII' character.

As the Little Fragrant Pig listened by her side, it rolled over, thinking to itself: It's true he wants to catch you, and true he wants to teach you a lesson, just unclear on what kind of lesson it would be...

Looking back, that man's intentions were so obvious, even it could see through them.

Why is this woman so slow on the uptake?

"Have you ever thought that he might want to catch you because he likes you?" the Little Fragrant Pig tried to comfort her.

"Think about it, this ring looks so valuable! It must be something very important, would an ordinary tracker be so luxurious?" it coaxed.

"You don't have to comfort me!" Luo Qingtong shot it a glance, "With his status, what's so strange about using a nice ring as a tracker? Is Black Domain short on money? And since when do you capture someone because you like them?"

Was she being mocked for not having fallen in love before?

That reasoning didn't hold water at all!

Little Fragrant Pig looked up to the sky with its eyes.

If it liked someone, of course it wouldn't use capture.

But this woman, she just didn't realize how good she was at running away.

That man was also driven to desperation, right?

As Little Fragrant Pig was speechless, Luo Qingtong seemed to have an epiphany, and a smile spread across her lips.

"You actually woke me up. This isn't just an ordinary ring..."

That man had made a hasty decision to put this ring on her, so this ring must be something he carried around with him, something precious!

In that case...

As Luo Qingtong was pondering, she suddenly heard a series of loud noises coming from outside.

Her eyes flashed with a bloody light, and she swiftly left the main courtyard.

Chapter 306 I Don't Mind Turning This Into a Bai Gu Pit of Ten Thousand Corpses!

"What's going on?"

She asked in a deep voice.

Her gaze fixed on the wall ahead.

There, a mess of corpses lay scattered.

"Master, someone trespassed."

A War Slave tasked with guarding the place spoke from the shadows.

They had just intruded into the Luo Family's premises when they were discovered.

Before they could act, these intruders, filled with murderous intent, were directly killed by the Array that Luo Qingtong had set up within the Luo Family.

"Hmm."

Luo Qingtong responded softly, her empty, dark gaze sweeping over the pile of corpses, "Just throw them out and hang them up front; let everyone know the consequences of trespassing into my Luo Family!"

All these intruders had their faces covered with black scarves and cloths, making it impossible to discern their origins.

However, Luo Qingtong didn't need to know where they came from.

Today, after Luo Xinning had publicly revealed Old Master Luo's Dissipate Technique, she knew that it was only a matter of time before something like this happened.

However, she didn't expect those with ulterior motives to be so impatient that they immediately sent people to probe them.

"Bang, bang, bang!"

As Luo Qingtong's voice resounded, the courtyard of Old Master Luo suddenly burst into sounds of battle.

A scream filled with agony and shock followed soon after, and then there was silence.

Luo Qingtong's eyes narrowed slightly, her figure dashed into the courtyard of Old Master Luo.

"Master."

In the courtyard, several bodies lay around, each possessing considerable strength, all at the Great General Realm, quite respected strength in Dongli Country.

Among them, there was even a newly advanced Martial Marquis Realm powerhouse.

However, up against the Martial Marquis Realm War Slaves arranged by Luo Qingtong in the Luo family, they stood no chance and were directly killed.

"Master, they are people from the Dongli Royal Family."

Someone from Luo Family's Iron Guard stepped forward to investigate and soon came to a conclusion.

It can't be helped; there are only so many experts in Dongli Country, even fewer noteworthy ones.

Moreover, among them was a newly advanced Martial Marquis Realm powerhouse, which was more identifiable compared to those who died outside.

The Luo Family's Iron Guards casually sifted through the clues and discovered the origins of the intruders.

These people were too careless, thinking this operation was foolproof and didn't disguise themselves carefully.

"Dongli Royal Family..."

Luo Qingtong's eyes narrowed slightly.

She hadn't forgotten that upon her return, she heard a noisy servant saying that the Dongli Royal Family had stripped her grandfather, the Commander of the Three Armies, of his duties.

Plus the criticisms of Old Master Luo she heard along the way from the Dongli Royal Family.

Clearly, the Dongli Royal Family was aligning with the Tianyu Imperial Family in this action against the Luo Family.

And they were extremely impatient!

What... did they think her Luo Family was about to lose power, and she, the future Fifth Prince Consort, would also fall out of favor, so they hurried to strike at the Luo Family?

Now that they knew Grandfather had used the Dissipate Technique, did they want to kidnap him to better consolidate their military control, and also to better threaten her, currying favor with the Tianyu Imperial Family?

A wave of a blood-red smile spread across the lips of Luo Qingtong.

"Luo Xinning, this act of yours was well played! You've drawn out all sorts of demons and beasts, which actually saved me the trouble!"

"Hang them outside the Luo Family's main gate along with the earlier group! If there are any more trespassers in the future, handle them all together!"

She didn't mind turning the plaza outside the Luo Family's main gate into a graveyard of thousands!

The more people they sent, the more she would kill!

Chapter 307 A Visitor from the Royal Family

The next morning, many people were frightened by the scene outside the Luo Family's main gate.

Looking at the line of hanging corpses, the dripping blood was almost dyeing the square in front of the Luo Family's gate red.

The crowd of onlookers was terrified.

"What happened? Was the Luo Family attacked last night?"

"Didn't hear any noise though! But these corpses were hung up early in the morning!"

Some people whispered among themselves.

A group of people looked at the string of hanging bodies, all with faces of horror.

Once the Luo Family takes action, it is indeed shocking!

They had just smashed the Luo Residence before, and now they have killed so many people...

However, wasn't it said that Old Master Luo had already used the Dissipate Technique?

How come the Luo Family is still so arrogant?

"Alas! The rigid are easily broken! Old Master Luo has dissipated his power, they should be keeping a low profile... These people came to probe the reality! If Old Master Luo was fine, he should have appeared already! Now this situation... sigh!"

"Yes!"

Someone responded accordingly.

"Looks like Old Master Luo really is in trouble! But the Luo Family is really fierce, unwilling to suffer even the slightest grievance! By killing those who came knocking, although they achieved a deterrent effect, the forces behind those people will surely not let this go..."

The person had not finished speaking when suddenly, clatter, clatter, clatter...

A rapid sound of horse hooves suddenly came from afar.

Immediately after, a harsh shouting voice erupted.

"Move aside, everyone move aside!"

A troop of fully armed soldiers clad in armor galloped from the front.

The two people at the front caused a burst of exclamations from the crowd.

"It's the Imperial Guard!"

"That person at the front, is it Old Master Chu?"

The crowd watched as a large troop of horses rushed and stopped in front of the Luo Family's main gate.

Looking at the bloody scene on the square, Old Master Chu who accompanied the Imperial Guard showed a meaningful expression on his face.

Old Man Luo indeed has someone to follow him, although his remaining sons are incompetent, fortunately, his granddaughter is commendable, able to stand up!

This tactic is ruthless enough!

Unlike Old Master Chu's calmness, the personal attendant who came with him was quite frightened by the scene before him.

The Luo Family is too cruel!

Looking at the bloody corpses hanging all over the square, especially a few familiar faces, the Imperial Attendant swallowed heavily.

But soon, thinking of the purpose of his visit this time and the current situation of the Luo Family, he straightened his chest and regained his composure.

"Someone! Go and knock on the door! Tell the people of the Luo Family, the King has a decree! Let them open the door to receive the decree!"

Hearing this eunuch's words, Old Master Chu's eyes showed a hint of sarcasm.

Back when the Luo Family was flourishing, which visit of these attendants to deliver the decree wasn't done softly and obsequiously?

Now that the Luo Family has fallen, they are arrogant.

Although this is human nature, Old Master Chu, who had spent his life being upright, had once become opposed to the powerful Old Master Luo because of political views, naturally disliked these people's attitude of kicking someone when they're down.

Even if this attitude is tolerated by the Royal Family!

"Hold on, go invite him!" he signaled one of his own guards.

Although he and Old Man Luo did not get along, Old Man Luo had lived with integrity and never did anything to let down Dongli Country; the Luo Family should not be treated with such disdain due to private grievances with the Tianyu Imperial Family.

"Yes."

The guard obeyed the command and went forward.

Just at that moment, the main gate of the Luo Family creaked open.

Chapter 308 Throw Them Out!

"Inviting Old Master Chu and his party to come inside for a chat, the Luo Family welcomes guests, but not those who come to stir up trouble!"

The clear voice of Luo Qingtong came from inside.

As she spoke, a line of fierce and iron-blooded Luo Family Iron Guards marched out one after another, lining up in a row at the front gate of the Luo residence.

The iron-blooded and awe-inspiring aura they carried overwhelmed the group of Imperial Guards opposite them.

"Marquis Chu, please come in. Our Lady Luo has prepared fine tea and wine, awaiting the guests. As for the others..."

A Luo Family Iron Guard Commander glanced over the Imperial Guards and that Imperial Attendant beside Old Master Chu, and said indifferently, "You are not permitted to enter!"

"How dare you!"

The voice of the Imperial Attendant rose to a shriek.

"We are here to deliver an imperial edict! How dare you refuse us entry? Is the Luo Family planning to rebel? To disobey an order and show disrespect?"

That Imperial Attendant, with his head held high and chest puffed out, looked at the Luo Family Iron Guards opposite him with an extremely arrogant expression.

The Luo Family by now is but a tiger without teeth. No matter how ruthless and iron-blooded their methods seem at present, they are but grasshoppers after the autumn, unable to leap for much longer!

They merely wish to use fierce tactics to deter others, to prevent them from acting rashly!

But the more they do this, the more it proves their outward strength hides an inward frailty, blustering but hollow on the inside!

Something must have happened to Old Master Luo!

Without this golden signboard, the Royal Family has even more legitimacy in taking back military power!

What use is there in Luo Qingtong's assertiveness?

After all, her status as the future Fifth Prince Consort is nothing more than a title!

She's a Fifth Prince Consort not favored by the Tianyu Imperial Family; it would be good enough if she can protect herself!

How could she possibly safeguard the entire Luo Family?

Thinking this, the Imperial Attendant's face displayed even greater arrogance.

"Attend me! Let us enter together!"

He didn't believe that the people of the Luo Family would really dare to stop him.

However, as soon as he urged his horse near the Luo residence's gate, the voice of Luo Qingtong coldly reached him.

"Drive them out!"

As she ordered, with a boom, the Luo Family Iron Guards suddenly made their move!

"Ah!"

The Imperial Attendant was instantly blasted away, sprawling on the ground, unable to get up for a long time. The Imperial Guards who had accompanied him were even more disordered, thrown into complete disarray!

Instantly, outside the gate of the Luo residence, the scene became utterly chaotic.

In contrast to the well-trained Luo Family Iron Guards, the Imperial Guards brought by the Attendant were like a ragtag militia, no match at all!

"Ouch!" the Imperial Attendant wailed as he cried out, "We came to deliver an edict, yet you, Lady Luo, dare to order an attack on us! Your Luo Family is rebelling! This is treason!"

"Hmph! You were disrespectful to me; I am merely teaching you a lesson, what has it to do with the Royal Family?"

Luo Qingtong's voice came out coldly from inside.

"My grandfather was granted special permission by the Royal Family, his status equal to that of the King; how can we tolerate your insolence at our Luo household?"

"Moreover, as the future Fifth Prince Consort of the Tianyu Empire, the Luo Family is the Imperial Family's in-laws. Who are you to act presumptuously here? Or perhaps the Royal Family has become too arrogant, thinking they can overpower the Tianyu Imperial Family?"

Upon hearing Luo Qingtong's words, the Imperial Attendant shuddered instantly, no longer daring to speak.

He had only considered the possibility of Luo Qingtong, the future Fifth Prince Consort, being out of favor, and Old Master Luo having dissipated his technique, leaving the Luo Family in decline, forgetting that the Luo Family also held the identity of in-laws to the Tianyu Imperial Family.

It's one thing to plot against them in secret, but outright presumption would be an affront to the Tianyu Imperial Family!

Luo Qingtong could deal with them as she saw fit; between the Dongli Royal Family and the Tianyu Imperial Family, which holds more honor?

Thinking so, the Imperial Attendant almost fainted then and there.

And at that moment...

Chapter 309 Formidable Methods

"Luo Family girl, didn't you say you were going to invite me in for tea?"

Old Master Chu's voice rang out.

He came with that personal attendant and certainly couldn't just watch a member of the Royal Family be insulted.

After all, this concerns the dignity of the Royal Family. He might have overlooked it if he wasn't there, but now at the scene, if he ignored it, the Dongli Royal Family could later direct their anger at him.

Thinking about how Old Master Luo devoted his life to the country, only to end up being targeted by the Dongli Royal Family, he felt quite distressed.

Old Master Luo had done countless things for Dongli Country, and although Old Master Chu and Old Man Luo often disagreed politically, he did not deny the other's contributions.

The current behavior of the Royal Family is truly disheartening.

If this is how they treat the Luo Family, what about those even lesser than the Luo Family?

The Royal Family is really too cold and heartless!

A chill settled in Old Master Chu's heart.

At this moment, Luo Qingtong's voice emerged.

"Grandpa Chu, please come into the mansion! As for these people, throw them all out! If they want to deliver a decree, they should enter with three bows and nine prostrations! Any further insolence, and the Blood Plaza outside the Luo Family's gates will become your resting place!"

At these words, the eunuch's face turned white with fear, and he hurriedly began kowtowing outside.

He came bearing a very important imperial decree. Should it fail to be delivered because of him, going back would mean death!

Surrounding him was a field of wailing Imperial Guards.

A group of fiercely imposing figures arrived; aside from Old Master Chu and a few others, everyone lay on the ground, dead or injured.

The previously arrogant Imperial Attendant was now desperately kowtowing nearby, prompting awe from the assembled onlookers.

"Lady Luo truly has formidable means!"

"Goodness gracious! I thought the Luo Family had no choice but to bow down! I didn't expect Lady Luo's presence to be so domineering!"

"This is truly the deportment of an aristocratic family! In both favorable and adverse circumstances, they maintain their proud integrity! Tolerating no disparagement!"

"Yes! Alas! It's a pity that Old Master Luo met with trouble too early, otherwise with Lady Luo in the Luo Family, it would certainly not have fallen!"

"Alas! This imperial decree from the Royal Family is probably not a good thing! Lady Luo's strength... is really too weak."

"Yes!"

A group of people sighed in unison.

If Luo Qingtong's strength were more formidable, perhaps no one could shake the Luo Family.

Yet, they are ignorant of Luo Qingtong's true strength, otherwise, they would be utterly astonished.

If Luo Qingtong is in the Luo Family, it will surely be as stable as Mount Tai!

"Grandpa Chu."

After welcoming Old Master Chu into the Luo Family Main Residence's hall, Luo Qingtong personally brewed the tea and served it to him.

"Please have some tea."

At this time, anyone who shows kindness towards the Luo Family is worthy of Luo Qingtong's respect.

Even though Old Master Chu and Old Master Luo did not have a good relationship in the past.

But it is exactly for this reason that his character appears even more valuable.

After all, in this world, there are always more to add flowers to the brocade, but hardly anyone to send coal in snowy weather.

"Ah, Old Man Luo has a good granddaughter! In this regard, I am no match for him!"

Old Master Chu watched Luo Qingtong's graceful composure and fluid movements, steady and unpretentious, and couldn't help but express his admiration.

Luck really favored that Old Man Luo.

"Grandpa Chu flatters me." Upon hearing this, Luo Qingtong smiled slightly.

"Grandpa Chu has a discerning eye, fair and upright. The foundation of the Chu Family will surely thrive without disaster or misfortune in the coming days."

Those words were Luo Qingtong's response to Old Master Chu's compliments as well as a promise to the Chu Family for the future.

Old Master Chu offered help in the time of need, and Luo Qingtong remembered this kindness.

As long as the Luo Family exists one more day, the Chu Family will face no major difficulties.

This is Luo Qingtong's way of reciprocating the kindness shown by Old Master Chu today.

Chapter 310: She Has No Idea How to Spell Compromise or Restraint!

"Ah, you girl can truly speak well. Unfortunately, I'm well aware of the Chu Family's situation, and it's really unclear what the future holds. However, I accept what you've just said."

"You are a fortunate girl, to be able to uphold the Luo Family in such a situation today..."

Old Master Chu didn't catch the deeper meaning in Luo Qingtong's words, only sighing, "What a pity, you are now unsupported by others..."

Old Master Chu paused, then asked, "Your grandfather, has he really encountered trouble?"

This was the first time someone had asked Luo Qingtong about Old Master Luo's situation in her presence.

Luo Qingtong's expression remained unchanged, her eyes slightly narrowed as she looked at the sighs and worries in Old Master Chu's eyes, nodding her head, "Yes."

This matter wasn't something to be concealed, as Xinning had already spread the word, and presumably, all the aristocratic families and the Royal Family had already received the news, just waiting for the final confirmation.

Old Master Luo not showing up for a long time, they probably had already confirmed it in their minds.

Yet they do not know, Old Master Luo's Dissipate Technique is a blessing, not a curse.

Once Luo Qingtong successfully nurses him back to health, Old Master Luo's talents will leap forward to an extent that will provoke their immense jealousy.

The future prospects in Martial Arts, cannot be spoken of in the same breath.

This is an opportunity others cannot even beg for.

"Ah, I have been competing with that old man for most of my life, yet I didn't expect him to encounter such a misfortune at this time," Old Master Chu sighed deeply.

"Luo girl, although it's not appropriate for me to say this, and it might even seem like I'm kicking you when you're down or taking pleasure in your misfortune. But having competed with that old man for most of my life, even if we don't get along, I don't wish to see the Luo Family fall."

"This time, you must also be aware, it's the Tianyu Imperial Family that's targeting you."

"Once they spoke, all the aristocratic families in Dongli Country including the Royal Family, all moved at their command."

"If you keep quiet and bear it, perhaps the Luo Family can still be preserved. But if you confront them, then the entire Luo Family might be uprooted."

"They just want you to lose your supporter, as retaliation for Old Man Luo's stubborn cancellation of the marriage alliance!"

"If you are willing to listen to my advice, just endure for now, let them have their way. The Luo Family might suffer humiliation, but it's better than being destroyed, don't you think?"

As he spoke, he sighed lightly and looked at Luo Qingtong, "I know these words must be difficult for you. But Luo girl... step back..."

Old Master Chu hadn't finished speaking when Luo Qingtong's voice faintly continued.

"Step back, and others will press forward step by step, oppressing you to death! Grandpa Chu, no need to say more, I know your intentions, but my Luo Family has never stepped back in the face of oppression!"

"My grandfather did not when he was here, and now that I'm in charge of the Luo Family, I definitely won't!"

In her entire life, she never knew how to spell retreat or concession!

Luo Qingtong has been arrogant and unrestrained all her life, both in her prime and in her weaker moments. Anyone who tried to deal with her had to prepare to be severely dealt with!

Bow to the Tianyu Imperial Family?

Then what was Old Master Luo's sacrificing all his proud defiance for, going to the Tianyu Empire to cancel the marriage?

If she bowed now, where would she place Old Master Luo's loving protection?

The pressure he faced when he went to the Tianyu Empire to cancel the marriage, the oppression he suffered, was all for whom?

It was all for her!

If she bowed now, that would be like tearing down Old Master Luo's dignity and trampling it on the ground!

Luo Qingtong could never do such a thing!

Not only would she not do that, but she also wants to loudly tell the world that Old Master Luo's actions back then were not wrong!

The Luo Family will absolutely not fall!

Whoever dares to touch the Luo Family, she will make them suffer the consequences!

Old Master Chu wanted to say something more, but a eunuch came in, kneeling with every step.
