Chapter 321 Just Wait Until You Make Me Regret It!

The Luo Family's Iron Guard and others were incredibly fast.

Within a short while, the martial arts arena, which was spacious, was littered with a pile of armor, weapons and elixirs, all stripped from the Three Armies Soldiers, and stacked like a mountain beside them.

Sixth Prince Cheng's complexion turned purple with anger as he watched everything unfold, with veins on his forehead throbbing violently.

However, he had no grounds to stop Luo Qingtong's actions.

She did not say that she wouldn't give him the Tiger Talisman; she merely wished to retrieve what belonged to the Luo Family.

Could he shamelessly claim that the supplies the Luo Family prepared for the Three Armies were theirs to seize?

Was Luo Qingtong not entitled to take them back?

Absolutely not!

Therefore, he could only watch with a red-faced fury as the Luo Family's Iron Guard and the soldiers who sided with the Luo Family went about their business, feeling an indescribable blockage in his heart that he simply could not suppress!

Luo Qingtong!

The eyes of Sixth Prince Cheng were bloodshot with rage.

Today, the Royal Family had been thoroughly humiliated by Luo Qingtong.

Lusting after the control of the Three Armies, yet Luo Qingtong had pulled the carpet from under their feet, leaving them with nothing but an empty shell and trash!

Once this story gets out, it will be enough for the nearby minor nations and aristocratic families to laugh about for a year!

This matter cannot end like this!

Luo Qingtong is truly too arrogant!

Relying on her future status as the Fifth Prince Consort, she insists on carrying the banner for the Luo Family.

Do they really think they have no way to deal with her?

Without that status, what is she?

Sixth Prince Cheng gritted his teeth in vexation, while Luo Qingtong appeared indescribably calm and composed.

She ordered the Luo Family's Iron Guard to haul all these items back to the Luo Family, including the entire Three Armies Camp's storehouse!

Everything inside was to be taken!

Aside from dust, the people of the Dongli Royal Family should expect nothing!

Thus, the curious onlookers who had come and waited outside the Three Armies Camp to be spectators saw the Luo Family's people driving a procession of carriages into the camp, and then leaving fully loaded...

The crowd was completely baffled, unsure of what was happening.

Why did the Three Armies Camp seem like a marketplace?

And what exactly was the Luo Family hauling out from there?

Could it be some form of compensation from the Royal Family?

But isn't that way too much?

The crowd watched as the carriages went back and forth, their expressions filled with confusion.

They would never have guessed that Luo Qingtong was going to take the whole Three Armies Camp in one fell swoop!

Who could have foreseen such an outrageously bold move?

Yet, Luo Qingtong did just that!

"Luo Qingtong, you will definitely regret what happened today!"

Sixth Prince Cheng stood on a high viewing platform, glaring towards Luo Qingtong's direction with a face full of seething anger.

Watching all the fine weapons, armor and various resources being taken away, his heart ached as if being carved with each loss.

But, without a legitimate reason, he simply couldn't lay a hand on Luo Qingtong!

This only fueled his rage even more, and he clenched the railing so hard that the jade railing crumbled into fragments.

"Heh."

Luo Qingtong chuckled softly.

"Is that so? Then I'll wait for you to make me regret it." Afraid you don't have the strength to do so!

Luo Qingtong simply didn't take the people of the Dongli Royal Family seriously.

She didn't act against them only because she did not want to reveal her own strength.

If they insisted on courting death, Luo Qingtong wouldn't mind sending their entire clan on a journey!

After all, it's not so difficult for another aristocratic family to replace the current Royal Family in Dongli Country!

Sixth Prince Cheng had no idea about the thoughts in Luo Qingtong's mind, or else he would have been scared out of his wits!

He would never know the terrifying enemy the Dongli Royal Family had provoked!

Chapter 322 Formation of the Luo Family Iron Army

"You!"

His face flushed with anger, he wanted to say more, but on the other side, Luo Qingtong, watching the last carriage of the Luo Family leave, suddenly raised her hand.

"Send up the Tiger Talisman!"

"Sixth Prince Cheng, I'm here to wish you, the newly appointed Commander of the Three Armies, a smooth inauguration and swift success! May you unfold your grand visions and have a future as splendid as brocade!"

"And you too, naturally it's better to follow the Royal Family than to stay with our Luo Family, which is bound to fall! I also wish you a future as bright as brocade, with boundless prospects ahead!"

As Luo Qingtong spoke, she looked at the Three Armies Soldiers lying on the ground, clad only in their undergarments.

In the past, those spirited and self-proclaimed strongest soldiers of the Three Armies were now in utter disarray.

The words of Luo Qingtong were like a fierce slap across their faces.

These people, for their own glory and riches, chose to betray the Luo Family, to turn their backs on the nurturing they had received from Old Master Luo.

They even intended to confront the Luo Family's Iron Guard.

And now, those who dissipated their techniques were as such; without the Luo Family's resources, even if the Royal Family provided them with new weapons, armor, and various other resources, how could they compare to the fine quality provided by Old Master Luo from the Tianyu Empire?

Moreover, how could the Royal Family treat these soldiers of the Three Armies equally when they themselves have the direct lineage of the Imperial Guard?

It's even more likely that because of Luo Qingtong's actions today, they will take out the humiliation they received on them!

By then, they will realize how difficult their days will be!

All of this is the price for betraying the Luo Family!

Luo Qingtong did not kill them, but she made their lives worse than death!

These people, in pursuit of future glory and riches, have turned against the Luo Family, but now they have lost everything!

And those who did not forget the kindness shown to them, willing to follow the "turbulent" Luo Family, now possessed everything.

One could easily deduce that the resources Luo Qingtong took from the Three Armies Camp would ultimately be put to use for those very people!

Thinking of this, these people were full of unspeakable remorse.

That regret gnawed at their hearts like ants, ruthlessly biting at their core.

They could have had a chance too, but they gave it up!

Now they can only fall from the pinnacle to the abyss, looking up at those they used to scorn and mock.

And what Luo Qingtong said next pushed their remorse to its peak.

"Oh right, I forgot to mention, the Luo Family has been loyal for generations, my grandfather has spent his life in military service, devoted to his country and people without a hint of selfishness! Now he can finally retire with honor! Thanks to the Royal Family for their sympathy!"

"Those items transported back from the Three Armies Camp will be put to good use by me! Among the many aristocratic families, only the Luo Family does not have a private army! Now with these resources, I can finally establish the Luo Family Iron Army!"

"Here, I must thank the Royal Family for fulfilling this! Thank you for willingly removing the burden from my grandfather and the Luo Family, allowing us to feel at ease!"

As Luo Qingtong said this, a wicked smile appeared at the corners of her lips.

The next second, she suddenly spurred her horse forward, and the chestnut steed beneath her leapt into the air, racing out of the camp.

"Luo Family Iron Army, follow me back to the estate!"

"Yes!"

The many soldiers who chose to follow the Luo Family were unspeakably excited.

Luo Family Iron Army!

From now on, they would be the Luo Family's direct lineage Iron Army, able to follow their Commander openly and proudly!

"Haha! Let's go! Let's return home!"

A group of people excitedly mounted their horses, following Luo Qingtong's lead as they departed.

Left in the Martial Arts Arena were only Sixth Prince Cheng and others with ashen faces, as well as those Three Armies Soldiers with expressions of utter defeat!

Chapter 323 A Personal Visit

"Boom Boom Boom!"

The rumbling of horse hooves from a line of riders echoed as the onlooking crowd who had just seen the Luo Family's convoy pass by, now watched Luo Qingtong leading a large troop of soldiers, rushing out from the Three Armies Camp.

My goodness!

The crowd was stunned, gazing at the long procession and unsure of what to say.

These people were clearly still clad in the elite armor of the Three Armies Soldiers, so why were they following Lady Luo out of the camp?

Could it be that the Luo Family refused to accept the removal of their command over the Three Armies and had risen in rebellion?

But then the crowd reconsidered and thought that couldn't be right.

If that were the case, the Royal Family would have turned the world upside down!

And up to now, they had heard neither tumult nor rumors!

Moreover, with so many people rushing out of the Three Armies Camp, why was no one pursuing them?

No matter how one looked at it... it didn't seem like a rebellion at all!

The crowd was instantly confused again!

What on earth was the Luo Family up to?

That Tiger Talisman, was it given back or not?

A wave of confusion surged through the hearts of the onlookers.

Meanwhile, Luo Qingtong had already led a group of Luo Family Iron Army back to the Luo residence.

Calling them the Luo Family Iron Army was really because Luo Qingtong couldn't bother to think of a new name; she simply appropriated the name of Old Master Luo's close Guards, the Luo Family's Iron Guard, and directly established the Luo Family Iron Army.

Anyway, the name was bloody and iron-clad enough; the Old Master would surely like it!

"Boom Boom Boom!"

When Luo Qingtong returned to the Luo Family with a group of Luo Family Iron Army, it caused a significant stir throughout Fenglin City.

Especially for the Chu Family.

Old Master Chu had not followed Luo Qingtong and those Imperial Guards when they went to the Three Armies Camp before.

His status was special, and he could only advise Luo Qingtong to a certain extent; saying too much would not be proper.

Although he felt that Luo Qingtong wouldn't let things rest easily during her visit, he hadn't expected her to cause such a big commotion!

— She actually brought back nearly a third of the Three Armies Soldiers!

Had she fallen out with the Royal Family and rebelled against them?

Subconsciously, that's what Old Master Chu thought as well.

He immediately sent people to gather information.

But when the information was obtained, Old Master Chu was completely dumbfounded!

What Luo Qingtong did was far more substantial than he had imagined!

She took over the Three Armies Camp and directly pulled back nearly half of the Three Armies Soldiers to the Luo Family, establishing the Luo Family Iron Army!

These actions, how could a fourteen or fifteen-year-old girl who had never experienced major trials and tribulations be capable of such a feat?

These methods were even more ruthless and resolute than both he and Old Man Luo combined!

Such a granddaughter, how on earth did Old Man Luo raise her?

With her around, how could the Luo Family fall?

Unless the marriage agreement between the Tianyu Imperial Family and the Luo Family was completely annulled! Or the Tianyu Imperial Family took personal action, otherwise, it would be impossible!

Old Master Chu, despite his advanced age, was keen-sighted and almost immediately saw through the key elements involved.

He took a deep breath and immediately summoned his subordinates.

"Prepare a generous gift right away! I shall personally visit the Luo Family!"

The previous visit did not count as formal; he was just worrying about the situation of the Luo Family, tagging along with the Imperial Attendant to deliver the imperial edict.

This time, Old Master Chu, in his capacity as the Chu Family Patriarch and Duke Dingguo, intended to personally visit Luo Qingtong at the Luo residence!

That old rival's granddaughter is not simple at all!

And just as Luo Qingtong stirred up Fenglin City, at a certain location of the Tianyu Empire, Beiqing and Feng Yu arrived on a Qingtian Flying Boat, silently landing.

Chapter 324 We Must Help the Master Confess

"Bang!"

A puff of smoke exploded in front of Beiqing and Feng Yu.

A certain ring in their hands shattered, forming a bizarre ghost face image in mid-air.

"La la la! Can't catch me! You can't, can you?"

"..."

The two watched as the dissipating smoke twitched the corners of their mouths incessantly.

"Good thing the master didn't come..." Beiqing said to Feng Yu.

Otherwise, he would have been infuriated to death!

The Evil Doctor really knew how to play too much.

The locations for hiding the rings were bizarre enough, but to leave such a message...

If the master saw this, he would explode in minutes!

And the places before! They had searched several spots in a row, all of which were those indescribably special locations.

Just thinking about how they just entered a brothel and almost got thoroughly groped, Beiqing's face was still green.

Who knows what strange ideas are in the Evil Doctor's head...

No wonder the master could never catch her each time!

"Let's go, continue to the next one." Feng Yu also twitched the corner of his lips.

He had his fill with the Evil Doctor's ability to escape.

It's no wonder the master hadn't set foot in that place for so many years, yet he had to make a trip back to obtain the Ten Directions Dragon Ring.

It turns out the Evil Doctor had come up with so many tricks.

The Jiuyou Phoenix Ring had so many fake and inferior products conjured up; how capable she was!

This really was, apart from his own master, the most unfathomable person Feng Yu had ever seen.

"Let's go." Beiqing wore a look of utter resignation.

"Hope this time we can find the Evil Doctor!"

"I don't think it's going to be easy..."

Feng Yu opened the sensing marker the master had given them, and truly, it gave him a headache beyond words.

There were several dozen dense locations on it, all the precise spots where Ye Qianming had sensed the waves of the Jiuyou Phoenix Ring through the Ten Directions Dragon Ring.

Extending from the Tianyu Empire all the way out to its surroundings...

It's really giving me a headache!

"After we find the Evil Doctor this time, we must tell her not to run away again, our master likes her, he won't hurt her! Otherwise, we don't know what kind of torment we're going to suffer." Feng Yu muttered in his heart.

"We must help our master confess!"

Otherwise, we really can't endure this torment!

The Evil Doctor is indeed extraordinary!

Even the Jiuyou Phoenix Ring can't hold her!

"Yeah, we must ensure the master successfully confesses! Sigh, why is our master so obstinate? Isn't it just liking the Evil Doctor? But he would rather die than admit it."

Beiqing clutched his chest with a look of lingering fear.

Just a bit more, and he would have been sent to that bastard Zuo Fei for 'training' again! It scared him to death!

"...Perhaps it's because the master has never liked anyone before, so he doesn't know what to do?" Feng Yu said, furrowing his brow.

The eager Evil Doctor really could run. The master hadn't even caught her yet, how could he possibly admit his feelings?

That would be too much of a blow to his pride.

Feng Yu vaguely guessed his master's thoughts.

"...That's profound, I don't understand." Beiqing shook his head.

"But what exactly is this feeling of liking someone? Even someone as wise and valiant as our master is caught up in it?"

"Perhaps it's a feeling of unrequited affection?" Feng Yu pondered: "Like when you pay a lot of attention to someone, always want to be by her side, to share her burdens, to protect her... Hey, what's that expression for?"

Feng Yu glared at Beiqing with a dark face.

Looking terrified, the latter said: "What you described, isn't that us and the master?"

They were always attentive to the master, wanting to follow and protect him!

"...Scram!"

Feng Yu couldn't hold back and kicked him!

Chapter 325 Have Them Abolish Their Power!

When the two of them arrived, it was at Dongli Country, Fenglin City.

Luo Qingtong stood in front of a group of Three Armies Soldiers who had followed her back to the Luo Family, no, it should now be said the Luo Family Iron Army.

Her gaze swept over these soldiers, their faces alight with excitement and agitation, as she spoke solemnly.

"Today marks the establishment of the private army of the Luo Family! From now on, you are the unrivaled Iron Army of the Luo Family!"

"In the future, you will also be the greatest pride of the Luo Family!"

"Here and now, I ask you once more, do you have any regrets about choosing to side with and follow the Luo Family at this moment?"

"If there are any regrets, you can stand out now, it's not too late! I permit you to leave!"

Luo Qingtong's voice was cool and detached.

"Everyone has to have their own considerations. If you wish to withdraw now, I will not stop you!"

"Furthermore, as a reward for standing behind the Luo Family in times of peril, you may take your pick of the items you brought from the Three Armies Camp..."

"Miss! Please stop! When we stood out in the Three Armies Camp before, we never thought of leaving the Luo Family! Now that the Iron Army has been established, we are even more thrilled!"

"Miss, we are deeply grateful for the commander's kindness. Without him, there would be no us today!"

"No matter what happens to the Luo Family, we will absolutely not leave!"

"Yes! Miss! Since we have chosen to stand by the Luo Family, we have already decided to share both life and death with the Luo Family! You don't need to say these things anymore! We will definitely not go!"

"Exactly! With the commander's cultivation, how could we possibly abandon the Luo Family in such a tumultuous moment! Miss, you don't need to say anything more! Now, in life we are people of the Luo Family, in death our souls belong to the Luo Family!"

"Yes!"

A crowd of people roared with passion.

Luo Qingtong looked at them, her heart slightly stirred.

These people allowed her to see once again that in this world, there are still hearts that can be trusted.

"Good." She nodded at them, "Since you have chosen the Luo Family, I shall not let you down!"

"Those with loyalty and righteousness in their hearts, shall never be let down! I promise you here, as long as the Luo Family exists, you will all enjoy the same glory! In the future, when dragons soar for thousands of miles, no one will be able to stop you!"

"Now, I need all of you to disable your own power!"

Luo Qingtong's eyes flashed with a blood-red light as she looked at them.

"What?"

The soldiers thought Luo Qingtong was asking for a declaration of loyalty to the Luo Family, and were ready to make it.

But they did not expect Luo Qingtong to utter such words.

Disable their own power?

Everyone almost thought they had heard wrong.

Yet at this moment, Luo Qingtong nodded indifferently and repeated once more: "That's right, disable your own power."

Her voice was indifferent, and she offered no explanation for why she wanted them to do this.

What these people decide to do now will determine their future.

If they are willing to disable their own power for the Luo Family, then Luo Qingtong can completely trust them!

Luo Qingtong won't insult these soldiers who stood beside the Luo Family in troubled times with oaths and poison, but she must also ensure their absolute loyalty!

She is now offering them a Dao to the heavens, it's up to them whether they wish to tread upon it!

"Miss?"

A throng of Three Armies Soldiers looked at Luo Qingtong standing before them, their faces full of bewilderment.

Chapter 326 Her Orders Are to Be Obeyed, Not Questioned!

Self-abolishing their power meant that for Martial Artists, years of effort would vanish into thin air, relegating them to ordinary people incapable of cultivation in the future!

These people did not understand why Luo Qingtong would ask them to do so.

Wasn't the young miss bringing them back to serve as a military force that deters those who harbored ill intentions towards the Luo Family?

The crowd was utterly perplexed and struggled with their thoughts.

Little did they know that the War Slave powerhouses lurking in the shadows were almost suffering from internal injuries out of envy and jealousy.

Their master's words clearly indicated she would personally take action, to regulate their bodies and enhance their talents!

To others, self-abolishing power might mean becoming a cripple.

But in the hands of their master, it meant turning decay into a miracle, a chance for rebirth!

One need only look at the changes in Old Master Luo, who had been sleeping in the main house, to understand!

As the ones responsible for guarding Old Master Luo, they were naturally well aware of his changes.

Old Master Luo's physical qualities in all aspects were now far superior to those of ordinary people!

Once talent is improved, how long would it take to return to the original level of strength through cultivation?

That would be a piece of cake!

These people were indeed in luck to receive the aid of their master!

"You all may think it over. Those unwilling, I won't compel you; you may leave the Luo Family right now! My previous promise still stands."

Luo Qingtong quietly "watched" their struggle.

In the eyes of the Three Armies Soldiers, she was blind, so their expressions were all the more genuine.

Luo Qingtong took note of every emotion on their faces, waiting for their decision.

"Young Miss, may we ask why?" Dong Yu and several other officers asked hesitantly.

Their strength was the greatest, so naturally, their concerns were the most significant.

"No," Luo Qingtong replied indifferently, "Remember this in the future. My orders only require obedience, not questions!"

Her secrets were too numerous, she could not explain every single thing to them.

Those who were unwilling to follow orders did not deserve to follow her.

"Yes." Dong Yu and the others bowed their heads, filled with turmoil.

Just then, someone couldn't hold back any longer.

"Damn it, what's losing strength? At worst, we can cultivate again! My entire strength was given by the Commander! Returning it to the Luo Family, what's the harm?"

Saying this, he abruptly turned the action upon himself!

Following him, other soldiers, as if triggered, also began to act.

The man was right!

Their strength was all given by the Luo Family, so what's the harm in returning it?

Moreover, the implication in Luo Qingtong's words seemed to suggest that having them abandon their powers was for their good.

Although the crowd harbored doubts about this, having given up the perks of the Three Armies Camp to come to the Luo Family during the most critical times, they naturally wouldn't easily disobey Luo Qingtong's command.

The sacred duty of a soldier is to obey orders!

They had sworn that alive they belong to the Luo Family, and in death, they are the Luo Family's souls!

How could they contradict themselves at the first opportunity?

Those who dared to follow Luo Qingtong back home, standing against the Royal Family, were all men of the Three Armies Camp filled with valor.

One person taking the lead, the rest quickly followed suit and abolished their power!

In the end, not a single person in the field could stand steady.

"Good!" Luo Qingtong looked at their actions, and with a fierce raise of her hand.

"Get them all up, take them back to their rooms, and take good care of them! In three months' time, I want a brand new, exceptionally formidable Luo Family Iron Army!"

"Yes!"

The Luo Family Iron Army members were still puzzled as to whom Luo Qingtong was speaking with when, from the shadows, a troop of War Slave powerhouses leaped out and lifted them up to leave.

Chapter 327 The Best Reward for Them!

Shock!

Utmost shock!

The Luo Family Iron Army, who had just willingly crippled their own power, leaving them weaker than ordinary people, were now staring dumbfounded at these War Slave powerhouses who had suddenly leaped out from the shadows.

It was hard not to be dumbfounded!

Although they no longer had strength, their eyesight was still there!

These people, even if not at the Great General Realm of strength!

What's more, some were even at the Marquis Realm!

My heavens!

There were even Peak Martial Marquis among them!

A group of the Luo Family Iron Army, who had just passed Luo Qingtong's test, were now looking at the emerging group of War Slave powerhouses at the Martial Marquis Realm with completely stunned faces!

This, this, this...

Aren't they dreaming?

Peak Martial Marquis!

That's on par with the strength and cultivation of our commander!

In a Lower-class Country like Dongli, that's a power that would be considered a mainstay, worthy of ennoblement and high office!

In the entire Dongli Country, a Peak Martial Marquis is already considered top-level battle force!

It's said that the Royal Family has Secret Techniques to hastily produce Martial King powerhouses, but no one has ever seen it, no one knows!

And now...

Everyone was shocked as they watched these powerhouses, whom they could only look up to on a normal day, walking up to Luo Qingtong and respectfully calling her "master."

"Oh my goodness!"

Someone pinched their own thigh hard, and then cried out in pain from the uncontrollable strength of their own grip.

Oh my gosh!

This is real, it's not a dream!

O my word!

People were babbling in disbelief, their eyes filled with shock, they already didn't know what to say!

They could only stand there, expressionless, letting the group of War Slave powerhouses help them back to their rooms.

They had never received such treatment in their lives, not even in dreams.

Dong Yu and the other generals looked at each other with utmost astonishment.

Their strength in Dongli Country was already significant enough to be noteworthy, but the strength of these War Slave powerhouses in front of them was almost on par with their own!

Not to mention the Marquis powerhouses!

Who said the Luo Family was about to fall?

What a load of crap!

Just any one of these people brought out would be enough to deter the crowd!

Let alone that there were several of them!

To put it bluntly, with the forces under Luo Qingtong's command, in Dongli Country, she could annihilate any aristocratic family she chose to!

Probably only the Royal Family could barely contend with them!

And that's assuming they deploy a Martial King powerhouse.

If not, the Royal Family would have a hard time withstanding an attack from the Luo family!

The Luo Family actually has such strength?

Everyone outside had completely misjudged them!

Everyone was inwardly shocked.

But they do not know, the power under Luo Qingtong's command, is far more than this.

The several Martial King powerhouses from Jiuyu Mountain have not yet made an appearance!

If they appear, Dong Yu and the others will probably faint from fright.

What does the appearance of a group of Martial King Realm powerhouses represent?

It means that as long as Luo Qingtong wishes, she could easily flatten any Low-class Small Country!

Even a slightly weaker Middle-class Small Country would not be able to contend with her.

Dong Yu and the rest stood there agape, with only one thought in their minds – anyone who truly thinks the Luo Family is done for, and rushes to bully them, is the one who's really finished!

The group was helped to leave.

As they were leaving, they got yet another scare from Luo Qingtong's words.

"Also, strip off all that junk on them, don't wear it anymore."

Luo Qingtong had emptied the treasury of the Tianyu Empire's Imperial Family; would she be afraid of not having good items in her possession?

The Luo Family Iron Army was loyal to her, and in times of crisis, they stood unwaveringly by the Luo family; naturally, she would give them the best reward!

Crippling their cultivation to rebuild is merely the first step!

Chapter 328 She Is the Evil Doctor Ghost Eyes

"Yes."

A group of war slaves responded.

However, the Luo Family Iron Army soldiers nearly stumbled, about to fall even with support.

Oh my god!

The equipment they wore was the most elite gear of the entire Dongli's Three Armies.

Seeing Luo Qingtong take down the entire Three Armies Camp in one fell swoop, one could understand how painful it was for Sixth Prince Cheng and how ashen the remaining soldiers looked, indicating the high quality of the armors.

Luo Qingtong actually called these top-notch armors junk?

Could it be that the young lady has even better equipment in her possession?

A group of people thought about this, and just as their senses were finally recovering, they were shocked beyond belief by this revelation, taking a long time to come back to their senses.

By the time they reacted, they had already been helped back to their rooms.

"You lot have really struck it lucky! The master doesn't usually take action so easily! Do you know who your master really is?" the group of war slaves said with a mix of envy, jealousy, and hatred.

"What?"

Some soldiers asked, stupidly.

"Evil Doctor Ghost Eyes."

"Thump, thump!"

In an instant, several soldiers who had just climbed onto their bed lost their footing and fell right off.

If it weren't for the war slaves being there, who knows how badly they would have been injured.

"You said wh-wh-wh... what?"

Everyone was completely stunned.

This revelation was even more shocking than the Luo Family secretly having such formidable power!

Luo Qingtong is actually Evil Doctor Ghost Eyes?!

The Black Domain's Evil Doctor... whom even the Yanyue Family had to personally present a Purple Level invitation and whom the Bloody Battle Arena went to great lengths to protect... that Evil Doctor Ghost Eyes?!

That's not even the main point!

It's the fact that Evil Doctor Ghost Eyes, who made an Earth Rank Alchemist from the Black Domain Auction House live a life worse than death, instantly became famous, and became the VIP of the Black Domain Suburb in Dongli Country!

What does it mean to be someone who can suppress an Earth Rank Alchemist to such a degree?

Especially when the young lady isn't even of old age!

Oh my heavens!

A group of people widened their eyes, clutching their chests, almost having a heart attack.

Damn, this happiness has come too suddenly, they couldn't bear it!

"Does this mean our strength is expected to recover?" a soldier asked with a trembling voice.

"Recover? You wait and see, in the future you'll be soaring high!" another war slave said with envy:
"Who knows what good deeds you did in your past life to have such fortune!"

"Just wait! In three months, you will be transformed and reborn!"

Just as a group of Luo Family Iron Army were about to faint from the shocking news, in the Dongli Palace, Eastern Fence King, upon hearing the news from the Three Armies Camp, was furious, slamming down and shattering the Luminous Pearl he was playing with in his hand.

"Scoundrels! Luo Qing is too audacious!"

"And you, a bunch of incompetents! Played like fools by a teenage girl! You still have the face to come back and see me! If I were you, I would have already smashed my head and died!"

He furiously scolded Sixth Prince Cheng and others.

This bunch of incompetents, he sent them to take over the Three Armies Camp, and this is the news they bring back to him!

The Three Armies Camp that was within reach became worthless, and now he had to find a way to accommodate the soldiers who had been stripped of their equipment!

If not for the fact that these people still had some fighting capabilities, Eastern Fence King would have wished he could just leave them to fend for themselves!

Forget it, better something than nothing! Having them is better than not!

At least these people had been trained by the Marquis.

Both in terms of combat capability and experience, they are far superior to the Imperial Guards. If well reorganized, they could still be of use!

Thinking about this, Eastern Fence King's fury slightly subsided. He waved his hand, ready to let Sixth Prince Cheng and others go down first, and to allocate some of the Imperial Guard's resources to the Three Armies Camp.

However, before he could speak, the words of Sixth Prince Cheng and others below almost made him spit out a mouthful of old blood.

Chapter 329 All Three Armies Crippled!

"Your Majesty, it's not that we are incompetent, it's that Luo Qingtong is too arrogant! Relying on her status as the future Fifth Prince Consort of the Tianyu Empire, we dare not touch her!"

Sixth Prince Cheng and his entourage prostrated on the ground, weeping and wailing, "She not only took away all the supplies from the Three Armies Camp, leaving us with an empty shell, but she also crippled all the soldiers in the army!"

Sixth Prince Cheng's face was the picture of defeat.

He never imagined Luo Qingtong would be so ruthless.

At the time, after Luo Qingtong had left, he didn't think much of it and immediately scolded the soldiers stripped of their clothes to get up.

However, when some of them got up trembling with fear, while others lay on the ground like dead fish, Sixth Prince Cheng sensed something was wrong.

It was only after inquiring that he learned those who the Luo Family's Iron Guard had struck when Luo Qingtong gave the order, these men were ready to resist.

But before they could act, they were all paralyzed!

Not only that, but the strength within their bodies was disappearing, little by little.

A crowd of them wept and begged Sixth Prince Cheng not to abandon them, or else they would be completely helpless!

Sixth Prince Cheng was shocked to his core.

Just then, a soldier who had just tried to channel his strength cried out in despair, "My strength! My strength is slowly fading away!"

It turned out that even those soldiers who had not resisted at that time were suffering the same fate when they attempted to use their strength afterward!

Apparently, what Luo Qingtong meant by "I advise you not to act rashly, or bear the consequences," was not that they should refrain from clashing with the Luo Family, but that from then on, they shouldn't recklessly use their powers at all!

Otherwise, their abilities would dissipate!

These men, having switched allegiance to the Dongli Royal Family due to Old Master Luo's strength being drained, Luo Qingtong naturally wanted them to experience the accompanying pain!

Want glory and riches? Want to be used by the Dongli Royal Family to confront the Luo Family?

They didn't see if she would give them that chance!

Everything the Luo Family had given them, she was taking back!

Including their strength!

With this, the three armies that the Dongli Royal Family had painstakingly controlled were rendered useless, a pile of mud and waste!

Since the Dongli Royal Family wanted to follow the adage 'when the hare is dead, the hound is cooked,' then let's pretend Old Master Luo never trained those three armies!

Luo Qingtong was such a vindictive and ruthless character.

Those who show her kindness, she repays tenfold; those who are her enemies, she returns the favor a hundred times over!

She believes in gratitude and righteousness, but if others do not, they cannot blame her for being cruel and ruthless!

She does not share Old Master Luo's loyalty and affection for Dongli Country and its Royal Family.

Nor does she care what happens to them without their three armies.

Since no one helped the Luo Family in times of trouble, and some even added insult to injury!

She would let them know that without the Luo Family, without Old Master Luo's efforts, they are nothing!

Some people, after living comfortably for a long time, forget who brought them these good days!

"What?"

The Eastern Fence King was shocked to hear such news, almost thinking he had heard wrong.

"What did you say? The entire army is crippled?!"

His voice rose an octave in pitch.

After receiving an anxious and frightened nod from Sixth Prince Cheng, the Eastern Fence King felt dizzy and nearly collapsed to the ground.

"Send a message to the Tianyu Imperial Family!" he roared.

"Let them see how they should deal with Luo Qingtong! With her around, we can't touch the Luo Family openly and aboveboard!"

The Eastern Fence King was infuriated!

And just as he sent a message to the Tianyu Empire, Ye Qianming, freshly bathed in the Black Domain Main City, sat upon the large bed in her palace chamber, gently rubbing the Ten Directions Dragon Ring in her hand.

The next second—

Chapter 330 Meeting in a Dream

A surge of spiritual power suddenly emanated from him, wrapping around the Ten Directions Dragon Ring he was holding in his hand.

This time, Ye Qianming was originally planning to personally search for Luo Qingtong.

However, Elder Yue seemed to glean something from the changes within his body and hastily left a message advising him not to leave the Black Domain Main City during this time, then he went back to the Medicine Hall to begin his seclusion.

Concerning the injury within his body, Ye Qianming had no choice but to stay, and he sent Beiqing Fengyu out in his stead.

Even though he could not go in person, he was determined to meet that woman!

To see if that carefree and heartless woman had completely forgotten about him.

As he thought about it, a dark gleam flickered faintly in Ye Qianming's eyes. With a whoosh, his mind followed the strand of his spiritual power into the Ten Directions Dragon Ring.

The black ring on his left ring finger suddenly glimmered, radiating a soft, bright light.

Meanwhile, in Dongli Country, Fenglin City.

Luo Qingtong had finished refining all the medicine liquid required by the Luo Family Iron Army and felt indescribably exhausted. She went back and fell asleep as soon as her head hit the pillow.

She tossed Little Fragrant Pig out from her sleeve, where it heng ji('d) twice and then snuggled up and fell asleep beside her.

While Luo Qingtong was busy with alchemy, it had already been sleeping like the dead.

Now that it was on the bed, it was even snoring loudly in its sleep.

Both the master and the pet slept sweetly, unaware that the Jiuyou Phoenix Ring on Luo Qingtong's hand suddenly flickered slightly.

A faint, fiery-red light flashed by and was gone in an instant.

"Hm? Where is this?"

Luo Qingtong, groggy, found herself in a strange space.

All around was an expanse of white, and beneath her feet, it felt as though she was stepping on air, so unreal.

Where is this? In a dream?

But why am I having such a bizarre dream?

Shouldn't I be having a more pleasant one? Like one with delicious food, or a gorgeous man...

Just as Luo Qingtong thought this, the mist in front of her suddenly cleared, revealing a dark figure.

The man wore a pure black robe with gold trim, his outer garment loosely draped over his body, revealing the pure white inner garment and partially exposed chest.

His hair, long as a waterfall and seemingly still wet, dripped down, spreading out behind him down to his ankles.

The water dampened his thick robe, which clung tightly to his body, accentuating his lean and muscular figure, skin fair as jade.

The face before her, infuriatingly perfect, was now looking calmly in Luo Qingtong's direction.

"Woman."

Ye Qianming's eyes narrowed slightly, his voice deep.

My goodness!

Seeing the man who appeared before her, Luo Qingtong almost reflexively turned around to run.

Seeing her action, Ye Qianming, whose heart had risen with joy upon seeing her, suddenly had his expression darken, and in an instant, he was at her side, reaching out to grab her.

This woman, she's even avoiding him in a dream!

Was he so dreadful that she was desperate to stay away from him?

With that thought, Ye Qianming gritted his teeth inwardly.

However, before he could catch Luo Qingtong, she suddenly slapped her forehead and stopped herself from running away.

"Ah! Why am I running? This isn't real; it's just a dream!"

With that realization, she turned around and faced Ye Qianming.

"Ye Qianming?"

Her eyes glittering, she looked at the man with the darkened face before her, and the next second, she lunged towards him.
