Chapter 71 She Wants to Break Off the Engagement Entering the Tianyu Branch of the Holy Institute, Luo Xinning would have truly soared to the heavens, right?

In that case, she wouldn't need to fear even offending the Old Master Luo!

As for the benefits that the original host brought her, how could they compare to the advantages of entering the Tianyu Branch?

Luo Xinning's ambition is indeed not small at all!

Luo Qingtong searched through her mind and discovered that the quota for the Daqin Saint Institute's Tianyu Branch was not something ordinary people could obtain!

It was a special reward from the institute after the Fifth Prince was selected as a Heavenly Level freshman at the Daqin Saint Institute.

Because Luo Qingtong was his fiancée, the future Fifth Prince Consort, the institute allocated the last admission quota to her!

Luo Qingtong didn't know what kind of maneuvering was done behind the scenes, but there's no doubt that she ended up with this benefit!

And this, obviously made Luo Xinning green with envy!

This admission quota for the Tianyu Branch would allow Luo Qingtong to enter even if she temporarily did not meet the admission requirements for the Tianyu Branch.

This was equivalent to the special enrollment slots of the high-level academies in the 24th century, possessing certain exemption privileges!

This is getting interesting!

Luo Qingtong smiled with a deep and meaningful expression on her face.

The original host was neither favored by the Fifth Prince nor the Tianyu Royal Family and was not his legitimate wife, just a fiancée!

How could such a quota fall on her head?

Could it really be that someone deliberately orchestrated this?

And the people who were sent to deal with the original host were extremely crude in their methods; at a glance, they did not seem like they were used to this sort of thing!

As part of the Imperial Family of the Empire, how could the Tianyu Royal Family only have such petty tricks?

Clearly, it was just someone acting on their own accord.

With a casual guess, Luo Qingtong had already roughly figured out the truth of the matter.

She said with a playful smile, "Grandfather, those things, if Luo Xinning wants them, let her have them!"

Some people, if they don't climb higher, how can they fall harder, right?"

She already had a plan in her mind.

She most definitely did not want that Tianyu Branch quota!

If she, Luo Qingtong, were to enter the Tianyu Branch, it would be by relying on her own abilities!

What does the Fifth Prince count for?

Is he also qualified to provide me with protection?

If the person behind this really wants to get me into the Tianyu Branch, wouldn't my refusal disappoint them?

However, when to go and how to go, that must be decided by me!

And that admission quota for the Tianyu Branch, even if I don't want it, I will not let it benefit Luo Xinning!

I will let Luo Xinning understand that taking what doesn't belong to her can really burn!

The more complacent and arrogant she is, the more spectacular her expression will be when what doesn't belong to her flies away!

"Qingtong?"

"Are you thinking..."

"Grandfather, you don't need to worry about this."

"After all, I'm blind now, and if this quota will benefit someone else, it might as well benefit my own sister, don't you think?"

"I believe that most people within the Luo Family would think the same!"

"It would be remiss of me not to follow public opinion!"

Luo Qingtong smiled with a captivating and wanton charm.

Her face was already stunningly beautiful, and when she smiled with such wickedness, it was like poison coated with sugar, a sweet appearance with an intoxicatingly dark allure.

"Grandfather, you don't need to concern yourself with this matter, I have my own plans.

Right now, what I want to discuss with you is another matter."

"I want to call off the engagement."

With a calm expression, Luo Qingtong dropped the bombshell that she intended to break off the engagement.

"Pfft!"

Old Master Luo was sitting nearby drinking tea, noting that his granddaughter had changed a lot.

Having narrowly escaped death, she was no longer as weak and vulnerable as before.

But even with his mental preparation for Luo Qingtong's transformation, he still spat out a mouthful of tea upon hearing such a statement.

Chapter 72: Dig a Hole, Wait to Bury Someone!

"What did you say?" Old Master Luo looked at Luo Qingtong, who was sitting calmly in front of him, so shocked that he almost doubted his own ears.

"Why suddenly call off the engagement when things were fine?

Didn't you used to like the Fifth Prince a lot?"

Not just a lot!

It was an extreme liking!

Because of this, when she found out that people from the Tianyu Imperial Family colluded with Luo Xinning to harm her, the original character was utterly devastated and heartbroken!

Even the hurt brought by Luo Xinning was not as severe!

Luo Qingtong scoffed in her heart.

"But I don't like him anymore." Luo Qingtong looked at Old Master Luo, saw his face still filled with disbelief, sighed, and then threw her trump card.

"Grandfather, this is the Dark Guard Token of the Tianyu Imperial Family.

It was found on the person who was trying to assassinate me.

Oh, by the way, they were ambushed right behind the people brought by Luo Xinning, watching me being crippled in my cultivation and blinded by poison, ready to be violated."

Luo Qingtong said it lightly.

"After I escaped, they rushed out, trying to kill me.

Instead, I killed them."

As she spoke, she glanced at Old Master Luo, whose face was flushing red with anger, and softly said, "Grandfather, Luo Xinning told me I was too lucky, hindering others.

I think, perhaps I am obstructing the Fifth Prince's smooth sailing ambitions!"

Only such a reason would be worth the Tianyu Imperial Family making such a ruthless move!

Old Master Luo took that token, his hands trembling all over!

"Smash!" He fiercely threw the Dark Guard Token onto the ground, veins bulging on his forehead, filled with murderous aura.

"Scoundrels!

Scoundrels!"

He cursed angrily, gritting his teeth, not knowing whether he was cursing Luo Xinning or the people from the Tianyu Imperial Family!

Before this, Old Master Luo had thought of many reasons for the troubles facing Luo Qingtong, including Luo Xinning's actions, but he never thought that the Tianyu Imperial Family would be involved.

To him, even if the Tianyu Imperial Family wanted to call off the engagement, they wouldn't stoop so low!

But now he realized that he was wrong!

They did not just stoop low; they employed even more despicable and infuriating tactics!

Crippling cultivation, blinding eyes, throwing his granddaughter to a bunch of men to be violated...

Just imagining these scenarios turned Old Master Luo's face deep purple-red, his eyes bloodshot.

"We must break off the engagement!

Not only that!

I also want everyone to know what the Tianyu Imperial Family is truly like!

The Fifth Prince does not deserve my granddaughter!"

Old Master Luo was furious to the core!

He didn't care whether this had anything to do with the Fifth Prince or not, the Tianyu Imperial Family had been displeased with Luo Qingtong for not just a day or two!

Didn't the Fifth Prince know about it?

No!

He knew!

But he never intervened!

He himself also thought about calling off the engagement, but the Fifth Prince firmly opposed it, insisting on marrying Luo Qingtong!

Since his granddaughter liked it, Old Master Luo didn't persist any further!

But now...

"I will set off immediately tomorrow!

Heading to Tianyu Empire to call off the engagement!"

They have already done such shameless deeds; they probably won't cling to this marriage arrangement anymore!

Indeed, the Luo Family wasn't keen on climbing up through this marriage!

We have to break the engagement!

Luo Qingtong watched as Old Master Luo, like a lion protecting his calf, burst out in rage, wishing he could charge to the Tianyu Empire right now to confront the Yuwen Family, and she couldn't help smiling with joy.

Having a grandfather to protect her was truly wonderful!

"Grandfather, you can't go about it this way.

The people of the Yuwen Family will not easily agree to call off the engagement.

We should do it this way..." She gave a mischievous smile, beckoned Old Master Luo with her finger, and whispered in his ear.

Chapter 73: Set a Trap for the Gentleman!

"Third Lady!

Third Lady!

Disaster has struck!"

Early the next morning, Luo Xinning had just managed to fall asleep after much tossing and turning, when she heard a clamorous uproar outside.

"What's the matter?"

So much commotion so early in the morning!"

She rubbed her forehead, a look of displeasure on her face.

Luo Xinning had spent the whole night pondering the changes in Luo Qingtong after her return, as well as how to preserve the two items she had acquired, only falling asleep when dawn was about to break.

Naturally, her mood turned sour when she was suddenly awakened by the ruckus.

"No, no, Third Lady!

It's Lady Luo!

No, that's not it!

A hanged woman's corpse has appeared at the city gates!

A wailing old woman claims it's our family's Lady Luo!

And now she's been arrested!"

"She said it was you!

You ordered her to go there!

As long as there's a naked corpse hanging at the city gates, alive or dead, just wailing that it's the Luo Family's Lady Luo would suffice!"

The maid who came to report was utterly panic-stricken, took a good while to blurt out coherently what had happened.

"What?!"

Luo Xinning's face showed shock, and all traces of drowsiness vanished in an instant.

She felt as if she had been doused with ice water from head to toe!

She had indeed made such arrangements before, but after the drastic events on Jiuyu Mountain, she thought Luo Qingtong was a goner, and since she had already obtained the two items of the Luo Family, she let the matter drop!

How could a woman's corpse suddenly appear, and an old woman crying out Luo Qingtong's name?

Luo Qingtong had clearly already returned to the Luo Residence!

Wait a minute!

Not many people knew about Luo Qingtong's return to the Luo Residence!

Could it be someone else...?

As Luo Xinning thought this, a name suddenly appeared in her mind—Yu Wenxue!

The Tianyu Royal Family's Seventh Princess Yu Wenxue!

To have Luo Qingtong hanged at the city gates, abused and then exposed for everyone to see, falling from grace—this was what the Seventh Princess had proposed before!

Could this charade be her doing?

While Luo Xinning considered this, she felt both urgency and anger.

"That foolish woman!"

Luo Xinning almost wrung her handkerchief to shreds!

This Yu Wenxue, was truly too spoiled and willful!

Doesn't she know how to read the situation at all?!

Such a major incident, why would she act without consulting me first?!

She really is about to get me killed!

Luo Xinning was fuming with anger.

Just as she was considering how to disassociate herself and extract herself from this situation, a Token suddenly shot in from outside, landing on her dressing table with a clang!

"Plan failed, come immediately!"

Seeing the Handkerchief tied to the Dark Guard Token, Luo Xinning nearly broke her own fingernails in frustration.

"Now you remember to think of me at this time!"

She gritted her teeth with resentment, yet she couldn't afford to ignore it.

Now, she could only rely on Yu Wenxue.

Ever since Luo Qingtong returned, she had changed dramatically; if she caught wind of Luo Xinning's vulnerability, the two items she had managed to gain would definitely not be secured!

But it would be different if she aligned with Yu Wenxue!

The people of the Yuwen Royal Family would certainly help cover up such an unsavory incident!

Luo Qingtong was blind, so by all logic and emotion, she was the only possible successor to the Marquis Mansion!

The two items should rightfully belong to her!

Thinking this, Luo Xinning's face contorted with malevolent resolve.

She quickly got ready and stealthily left her room, concealing her tracks as she exited the Luo Residence.

"Send the signal, inform Marquis that Luo Xinning has left the house!"

Outside the Luo Residence, a team lay in hiding; upon seeing Luo Xinning leaving the house, they immediately sent out a signal!

Chapter 74: Catching a Turtle in a Jar!

Zuihong Building.

Old Master Luo invited a group of imperial relatives and aristocratic family heads from Dongli Country to drink here, celebrating Luo Qingtong's safe return.

Everyone knew about Luo Qingtong's marriage arrangement with the Fifth Prince of the Tianyu Empire; originally, they thought that if something happened to Luo Qingtong, the marriage would be called off!

Unexpectedly, Luo Qingtong, blessed with good fortune, returned alive.

At this time, it was only natural to pay respects to Old Master Luo.

A group of people all accepted the invitation and came.

What Old Master Luo booked was the best private room in the entire Zuihong Building.

Since it was a private banquet, the invited guests were not many, but each one was a person of significant influence in Dongli Country!

Just then, a report about the city gate incident came, and Old Master Luo was furious!

At a moment when everyone was quiet, the door of the adjacent room was suddenly flung open from the outside.

Old Master Luo and other guests were separated from the adjacent room by a gigantic screen, dividing it into the inner and the outer room.

When the inside is silent, those outside do not know there are people inside.

While everyone was wondering who had come in, they suddenly heard an agitated female voice from outside.

"Seventh Princess!

Didn't I tell you before?

That I would handle everything!

Why are you intervening so abruptly?

Is that female corpse at the city gate your doing?

How do you expect me to clean up this mess now?!"

Luo Xinning, furious, pushed the door open and upon seeing a young girl sitting with her head down beside the screen, immediately confronted her!

Luo Qingtong was sitting in the outer room beside the screen, her head slightly bowed, concealing most of her face.

Hearing Luo Xinning's voice, the corners of her lips curled slightly.

The fish has taken the bait.

Seventh Princess?

A female corpse at the city gate?

The people at the banquet were about to scold the one who entered the private room, but when they suddenly heard her blurt out such information, they were taken aback.

They glanced at Old Master Luo quietly and looked at each other in confusion, not knowing what was going on.

At that moment, another lower-pitched female voice came from outside.

"What did you handle properly?

Luo Xinning, I really don't know what you're talking about."

Surprised by the voice, everyone was shocked, is someone else outside?

But soon they realized.

The person outside was none other than Luo Qingtong.

Just now someone came to report an issue concerning the Luo family, and Luo Qingtong, feeling miserable and awkward at the banquet, said she wanted to go outside to calm down!

Was this her disguised voice?

Was she trying to draw words out of Luo Xinning?

With that thought, everyone's eyes suddenly lit up!

There was definitely something going on!

The guests' interest was completely piqued.

The banquet room fell silent as everyone wanted to see what kind of explosive information would emerge from this drama within the Luo family!

What followed from Luo Xinning, though, was something they had never anticipated!

"You don't know anything?"

Hah!

Yu Wenxue, are you planning to cross the river and tear down the bridge?"

Luo Xinning was almost driven to laughter by rage!

She was so disturbed by the previous incidents that she didn't notice the difference in the voice of the person across from her.

Moreover, she had never raised her head from the beginning to the end.

Hearing the other party seemingly wanting to push all the blame onto her and ignoring it, Luo Xinning lost her rationale completely.

"You really don't know what I did?!"

I lured Luo Qingtong to Jiuyu Mountain for her breakthrough, destroyed her cultivation, blinded her eyes with poison, and left her to be ravaged by a bunch of men!"

"If it wasn't for the sudden upheaval at Jiuyu Mountain, I would never have failed!"

Moreover, it's not just my responsibility!

Didn't you also say you sent someone to oversee it?

Where are they?!

How did Luo Qingtong come back unharmed!"

Chapter 75: Spitting Blood in Anger, Heaven Will Punish the Despicable One!

"Bang!"

Luo Xinning's words had barely finished when the screen in front of her was forcefully blasted open!

Old Master Luo stood behind it like an enraged lion, his eyes bloodshot with anger as he glared at her.

Behind him was a group of aristocratic family members and distinguished nobles, utterly astounded!

Everyone was thoroughly shocked by the explosive reveal from Luo Xinning!

Good heavens!

What did they just hear?

Members of the Tianyu Royal Family were conspiring with the daughter from the second branch of the Luo Family to kill Lady Luo?

And with such malicious schemes?

The crowd could hardly believe their ears.

However, seeing the shocked expression on Luo Xinning's face, they knew that what they had heard was true!

Just as everyone was in shock, Luo Xinning was also startled by the sudden appearance of a large group of people behind the screen.

These were all influential figures of Dongli Country, all gathered here unexpectedly!

And among them was Old Master Luo!

How could this be?!

How could they appear in the private room she and the Seventh Princess had agreed on?!

Luo Xinning's face was full of disbelief.

At that moment, she heard Luo Qingtong's voice.

"Little sister...

Luo Xinning, you really are my good sister!" Luo Qingtong said, her gaze slightly narrowed as she looked at the incredulous expression on Luo Xinning's face.

The unbelievable was still to come!

She would reclaim everything they owed to the original owner, bit by bit!

"You...

Luo Qingtong?!" Luo Xinning now clearly saw that the person sitting outside the screen was none other than Luo Qingtong!

Had she gone to the wrong place, mistaking Luo Qingtong for the Seventh Princess?!

But the note attached to the token clearly directed her here!

Luo Xinning's mind buzzed, utterly chaotic.

Before she could sort things out, with a loud bang, Old Master Luo stepped forward from behind the screen and ferociously kicked her.

"Wicked obstacle!"

Luo Qingtong had not elaborated on her persecution before, and only today did Old Master Luo learn just how vicious the methods involved were!

No wonder his Qingtong had such a drastic change in temperament!

After experiencing all this, how could she not change drastically?!

Furious to the extreme, Old Master Luo's kick, filled with the force of the Peak Martial Marquis, sent Luo Xinning flying from the second-floor private room down to the lobby below!

"Bang!"

Luo Xinning smashed heavily onto the ground, rolling twice, unable to get back up for a long while.

"Grandfather..."

She looked at Old Master Luo, who was furiously storming down from the second floor, with her mind in a whirl.

Even at this moment, she did not understand how things had turned out this way!

She had clearly received the Hidden Guard Token from the Seventh Princess, so how did she end up intruding into Old Master Luo's gathering?!

Just then, she saw Luo Qingtong.

The latter, in a simple green attire, had the aura of a fairy, stunningly beautiful, enough to overthrow cities and countries.

The simple green attire transformed her into a fairy from the woods.

The young girl calmly walked out from behind Old Master Luo, her gaze lightly resting on Luo Xinning.

"The plot has failed; come quickly." Luo Xinning saw her lips move slightly, silently speaking.

Those were the exact words she had seen on the note!

Was it her?!

Was all of this orchestrated by Luo Qingtong?!

She set up the trap, making her own confession about conspiring with the Seventh Princess?

Luo Xinning realized, instantly furious and overwhelmed, and suddenly, a mouthful of blood spurted out!

She had played Luo Qingtong for a fool for over a decade, yet in the end, she had been precisely schemed against!

How could she accept this?

Immediately, Luo Xinning fainted!

"Such disgrace!"

Old Master Luo, still not over his anger, waved his hand forcefully, ordering people to carry Luo Xinning back!

He looked up at the still dazed crowd and thundered: "What occurred today has been witnessed by all!

Our Luo Family cannot afford to climb high with this marriage to the Tianyu Royal Family!

The marriage will be annulled immediately!

I request everyone here to bear witness!"

As he spoke, he bowed to the crowd with a fist and promptly left with his people.

Leaving the crowd behind, each looking at each other, still shaken in their hearts.

Chapter 76 Cultivating Soul Skill The Luo Residence is seeking to annul a marriage, and it's the marital commitment to the Imperial Family of the Tianyu Empire!

The other party is none other than the Fifth Prince, Heaven's Chosen Son!

In an instant, the gossip spread throughout Fenglin City and onto even more distant cities!

Among them, those who didn't understand the true situation supported Old Master Luo's decision once they knew the ins and outs of the whole affair.

They said he was a man of fiery blood, unwilling to compromise his granddaughter for the influence of the Tianyu Royal Family.

Others criticized Old Master Luo for being foolish, saying a prospective son-in-law like the Fifth Prince was impossible to find even with a lantern in hand, yet Old Master Luo was pushing him away!

Right then, someone retorted that with the Tianyu Royal Family treating Luo Qingtong so maliciously, who knows whether she could even survive until the wedding day?

It would be better to call off the marriage earlier!

This would spare a granddaughter of peerless beauty and charm!

Regardless of the rumors outside, Old Master Luo left for the Tianyu Empire immediately to annul the marriage, taking with him personal testimonials from various family heads and nobles, without any delay.

After returning to the Luo Family, Luo Qingtong locked herself into Old Master Luo's secret chamber, skimming through all the Soul Technique Secret Manuals there.

She was very clear about the Luo Family's situation.

Although the Duchess Manor seemed to be second only to one above all in Dongli Country, with even the Dongli Royal Family seeking their favor.

But that was all because of the engagement between Luo Qingtong and Yuwen Mo!

Once the marriage between the two families was annulled, there would be countless people with delusions of replacing the Luo Family!

Even the attitude of the Dongli Royal Family towards the Luo Family would likely change!

These matters, Old Master Luo, who adores his granddaughter, never mentioned in front of her.

Let alone the impact on the Luo Family after the annulment; he probably wanted to bear it all himself!

But how could Luo Qingtong really pretend to be unaware?

It was she who wanted the marriage annulled, and naturally, she should be the one to take on the responsibility behind it!

Luo Qingtong tapped lightly on the desk as she placed the last of the Soul Technique Secret Manuals back on the bookshelf.

Luo Qingtong, with her Pupil Skill, had an eidetic memory; once she read something, she could remember it completely.

The next time she wanted to review, she just needed to recall the content a bit.

In just a few days, Luo Qingtong had basically read all the Soul Technique Secret Manuals in the secret chamber.

She also gained a certain understanding of Soul Masters.

Soul Masters are strong individuals born with a Soul Seal.

Legend has it that the Soul is spiritual and possesses innateness since birth.

However, this kind of Spiritual nature is hidden within the human Soul and is extremely difficult to discover and unlock.

And a Soul Seal is the symbol of a Spiritual Soul!

Those with a Soul Seal possess the talent to cultivate and become Soul Masters!

Different Soul Seals mean Soul Masters' cultivation focuses also vary.

Some people are born with a Fire Soul Mark, making their Soul highly compatible with the Fire Element, and they find cultivating Fire Attribute Techniques especially efficient.

Those with a Soul Seal, once they unlock it and are successful in their cultivation, are much more formidable than Martial Artists!

After all, only after advancing to the Innate stage, or the Martial King Realm, can Martial Artists cultivate a tangible Energy.

But once a Soul Master succeeds in cultivation, they possess the ability to wield Attribute Power, which Martial Artists cannot compare with!

In just three days, Luo Qingtong sensed the key to the entrance of a Soul Master's gateway within her.

What Luo Qingtong possesses is the Pupil Soul Mark, which is a special kind of Soul Seal.

Luo Qingtong was unaware of how powerful this Soul Seal truly was!

But since Old Master Luo said their ancestor from the Luo Family was formidable enough not to regard even the Four Great Holy Dynasties, it must be quite impressive, right?

Chapter 77 Little Snowball At this moment, Luo Qingtong realized the benefits of the academy.

There are many things that even with inheritance one might not know, and one must go to the academy to receive systematic instruction.

After all, only a place like the academy could teach one so much unknown knowledge!

It seemed that a trip to the Tianyu Branch was absolutely necessary.

Luo Qingtong thought, closing her eyes and concentrating on feeling the flow of Soul Power within her body.

"Boom!"

Seven days later, a muffled sound suddenly erupted from the secret chamber she was in.

Luo Qingtong opened her eyes, and in a flash, a blood-red sword light seemed to sweep across the bottom of her hollow and vacant eyes.

Pupil Light Transformation Sword!

This sword light, as if tangible, swept across from the depths of Luo Qingtong's eyes.

But only Luo Qingtong knew, this streak of sword light could penetrate the opponent's consciousness, causing them to die under the Illusion Sword!

This is probably what the legends refer to when they say, a glance can kill?

Just having entered the threshold of being a Soul Master, and already possessing such tremendous power, truly formidable!

To think that only Martial Kings could externalize their energy to form what seems like tangible protective winds, killing invisibly!

At this moment, Luo Qingtong was merely a Three-star Soul Master!

According to the Soul Master's advancement divisions, she was still at the entry stage!

The Luo Family couldn't compare with her in the use of Pupil Skill, but in the development of this Soul Skill cultivation method, Luo Qingtong found it quite extraordinary.

Feeling her strength at this moment, already a Three-star Soul Master, Luo Qingtong smiled.

To directly break through to Soul Master on the first cultivation was quite unexpected for her.

However, thinking about her constitution improved by two treasures of the Slaughter Immortal Palace, plus her being a person of two lives, having stronger Soul Power and faster advancement in cultivation was reasonable.

Moreover, her superpower was Pupil Skill itself, and the cultivation of this Soul Skill using Pupil Skill was truly as simple as eating and drinking to her!

Completely lacking the unfamiliar and hard-to-grasp feelings others might experience when starting.

"Alright!

Time to go out!"

Luo Qingtong prepared to leave the Luo Family for a while; how could she not enhance her strength a bit?

This time, her goal was to find the medicinal ingredients to treat the poison damage in her eyes.

Although she possessed Pupil Skill, being blind in her eyes was always inconvenient.

Moreover, the Soul Skills cultivated by the Luo Family had completely different power between having intact versus blind eyes.

Currently, only superficial techniques are practiced, and Luo Qingtong's cultivation doesn't show apparent signs.

But as it progresses further, the demands on one's eyes become higher.

With Luo Qingtong's innate Blood Eyes, once recovered, could bring the Luo Family's Soul Skills to their greatest potential!

In such circumstances, she naturally wanted to heal her eyes as soon as possible!

Just as she was about to step out of the secret chamber, suddenly, Luo Qingtong remembered something.

She immersed her mind into her body and looked towards the Nine-layered Exquisite Tower.

The Little Fragrant Pig was still inside being scorched and howling, Luo Qingtong ignored it and instead looked towards the Little Jietian Divine Beast.

After forming a contract, she had sent it into the Nine-layered Exquisite Tower for nurturing.

This Demon Suppressing Tower had a punishment function only for Little Fragrant Pig, moving according to Luo Qingtong's will.

The essence inside greatly benefited the Demon Beasts.

Having been nurtured inside for just these few days, the Little Jietian Divine Beast had already changed dramatically.

Luo Qingtong looked at the white fur that had grown on its body, which made it look just like a foxhound.

A fluffy long tail curled behind it, sweeping softly, looking very cute and adorable.

Seeing Luo Qingtong's consciousness enter, the small beast opened its eyes with a whine and moved towards her.

Luo Qingtong smiled and stroked its fur, saying, "From now on, your name will be Little Snowball."

The existence of Little Snowball completely filled the displeasure from the contract with Little Fragrant Pig.

This is what a Contracted Beast should be like!

And its strength after growing up is formidable!

Not like that stupid pig, only causing her trouble!

The Little Jietian Divine Beast was still young, and Luo Qingtong did not take it out but continued to keep it in the Nine-layered Exquisite Tower for nurturing.

Luo Qingtong's figure appeared in the study, and immediately, the guard standing outside respectfully reported.

"Miss, Third Lady is missing."

Chapter 78: The Tianyu Royal Family Takes Action Gone?

Luo Qingtong laughed.

"When did this happen?" she asked indifferently, her face showing not the slightest hint of surprise.

"It was the day when the incident at Zuihong Building occurred, right after the Marquis left and you, Miss, entered the secret chamber."

The guard half-knelt before Luo Qingtong, reporting respectfully.

This was one of Old Master Luo's personal Iron Guards, staunchly loyal and heeding only the commands of Old Master Luo himself.

Of course, now Luo Qingtong was also included.

"We are incompetent, Third Lady was abducted en route.

We have searched the entire Fenglin City to no avail, finding not a single trace related to the Third Lady!

Please punish us, Miss!"

Guilt was written all over the Iron Guard's face.

Luo Xinning was abducted on his watch, and he was gravely uneasy for failing to fulfill the orders of the Marquis and Miss.

He had been standing guard outside the study all these days, waiting for Luo Qingtong to emerge so he could report to her immediately.

"No matter, this isn't your fault.

There are some forces you simply can't withstand!"

Luo Qingtong knew all too well what was going on!

The Tianyu Royal Family acted swiftly, didn't they?

Did they kidnap the person the moment they received the news?

It wasn't in vain that she had people carry the unconscious and blood-vomiting Luo Xinning ostentatiously through half the city from Zuihong Building back to the mansion, making sure the incident was known throughout the city!

Now it seems that they truly acted to clean up Yu Wenxue's mess!

Luo Qingtong sneered coldly.

This also confirmed that there have always been elements of the Tianyu Royal Family lurking within Fenglin City!

Yet knowing Yu Wenxue's intentions to deal with the original owner and Luo Xinning's bribery and instigation, they did nothing to stop it!

They might have even promoted the development of events from behind the scenes!

Otherwise, how could Old Master Luo, with his overwhelming power in the Marquis Mansion of Dongli Country, not have received even a hint of information, and allowed the original owner to be completely outmaneuvered?

In the end, they almost didn't find a body!

"Very good," Luo Qingtong's smile was bold and enchanting.

She had just about gathered all the information she needed to know!

So then...

all grudges have their culprits and all debts have their debtors!

Tianyu Imperial Family, let's play this slow and steady!

Neither they nor Luo Xinning will escape!

Her blinded eyes must be avenged with blood to be truly settled!

"Alright, leave this matter alone," Luo Qingtong's voice was indifferent.

"You all take charge and manage the mansion's authority.

I need to step out for a while; when grandfather returns, tell him not to worry, I will be back soon!"

"Furthermore, during my absence, if anyone dares to cause trouble in the Luo Family, no matter who it is, show no mercy in killing them!"

Her words carried a resolute intent to kill.

The betrothal dissolution between the Luo and Yuwen Families will happen very soon!

It's inevitable that some might seize the opportunity to stir up trouble!

Especially those from the various branches of the Luo Family, not one of them is trouble-free!

Out of respect for Old Master Luo, Luo Qingtong would not treat them harshly.

But if anyone dares to collude with outsiders to stir up trouble within the Luo Family, then don't blame her for being impolite!

By then, regardless of who, they all must die!

Luo Qingtong wouldn't allow anything to go awry with the Luo Family on her watch!

"Yes!"

A chorus of Iron Guards accepted the order in unison.

Luo Qingtong nodded and strode out of the Luo Family's main gate.

She took a turn around the vicinity, swiftly setting up a highly concealed offensive and defensive formation!

If no one stirred up trouble in the Luo Family, all would be well!

But should anyone dare, she guaranteed a miserable death for them!

This was also Luo Qingtong's strategic defense, specifically arranged against the people of the Tianyu Imperial Family!

Who knows whether they would act against the Luo Family after being jilted in the betrothal?

Luo Qingtong had to make sure everything was in order before she could leave with peace of mind.

Having accomplished all this, she then nonchalantly left Fenglin City!

Chapter 79: Black Domain City, Netherworld Path!

Half a month later, at the Black Domain Suburb to the north of Dongli Country.

Clad in a black robe with a cloak shrouding most of her face, Luo Qingtong revealed only an evil-looking Rashamon mask, appearing on the outskirts of this dark city.

"This place, is it the Black Domain Suburb?"

The Black Domain is a very special existence on the Zhenyan Continent.

It exists within all the major nations, yet it stands independently from them.

In every country, whether it's an Upper-class Country, a Lower-class Country, or an Emperor-level Super Country like the Tianyu Empire, there exists a suburb of the Black Domain.

Within the Black Domain, you can do anything, buy anything you desire, assassinate any person you wish!

As long as it's a transaction, as long as you can pay the price, there's nothing the Black Domain dares not do!

This is a place of darkness, also known as the Dark Holy Land to the cultivators of Zhenyan Continent.

The Four Great Holy Dynasties are powerless against it.

No one knows the person behind the Black Domain, only that his title is Netherworld, self-proclaimed as the Netherworld Venerable.

In the Black Domain, he is the sole ruler and law!

To have the major Holy Dynasties at a loss, allowing such an independent city that does not heed commands to exist within their territories, the strength of the Netherworld Venerable must be earth-shatteringly immense.

And now, Luo Qingtong is entering this Black Domain Suburb located within Dongli Country, to search for the Detoxification Herbs she needs.

After returning from Jiuyu Mountain with nothing to show for it, she knew that to find all the Detoxification Herbs she needed, she had only the Black Domain – a place fearless of the Holy Dynasties' strength, with tendrils spread across the entire continent – as a possibility!

But the Black Domain is not so easy to enter.

Whoosh!

Luo Qingtong's figure vaulted forward, her robe sleeves billowing, like an agile goshawk, swooping towards the vast Main City that loomed within the shadows ahead.

The rustling sound of water!

Outside the Black Domain Suburb, a gargantuan moat appeared in Luo Qingtong's view.

This moat was filled with chilling white bones, with some cultivators' bodies not yet fully corroded, drifting along with the ripples of the moat.

Countless weapons and treasures were submerged within, but no one dared to venture and fish them out.

This moat is also known as the Netherworld Path!

If one falls into it, even Martial King Level powerhouses would be corroded in a second and turned into one of the white bones!

It is said that there are countless Black Domain Suburbs, and the power of the moat outside of each suburb is closely related to the country where it is located.

The power of the moat on the outskirts of this Black Domain Suburb in Dongli Country can only corrode Martial Kings.

However, in Emperor-level Super Countries or even Holy Dynasties, the power of the moat rises even further!

It is rumored that the moats surrounding the Black Domain Main City could even doom Saint Realm strong ones who fall into them!

This attests to the formidable strength of the Black Domain!

To enter the Black Domain, one must have the strength to cross the Netherworld Path.

At this moment, above the Netherworld Path, there were only bare chains.

There was nothing on the chains for one to leverage or rely on, and as the wind blew, the chains swung wildly, clanging constantly.

When Luo Qingtong reached the bank, she heard a series of screams.

Some people were unable to maintain their balance and fell into the Netherworld Path, instantly engulfed by the corrosive river water!

To get through this Netherworld Path, it requires strength, luck, and keen vision!

A flash of blood in Luo Qingtong's eyes, with just a glance over the Netherworld Path, she prepared to vault forward.

Just then, suddenly, a buzzing sound came from above the sky.

Chapter 80 Air Spirit Boat "Boom!"

A massive airstream and wind wave swept over from above Luo Qingtong's head from behind her.

At the same time, a series of exclamations followed.

"An airship in the sky!"

"Wow!"

So huge!

I wonder what Grade of Magical Treasure it is!

So powerful!"

The sounds of amazement entered her ears, Luo Qingtong raised her eyebrows slightly and looked up into the sky.

She saw a huge and splendid Spirit Boat sweeping over above her head.

As the Spirit Boat flew, it stirred up enormous wind waves, each current of which carried great impact.

Those gathered on the shore waiting to cross the Netherworld Path were all pushed aside by the mighty wind waves from the Spirit Boat.

Only Luo Qingtong remained standing in place, unmoved; she casually deflected the oncoming wind waves directed at her.

The Spirit Boat generated huge wind waves as it sped over the Netherworld Path and directly entered Black Domain City in front.

The vast Main City situated in the darkness completely opened its gates to welcome the Spirit Boat as it approached.

"Ah!

It must be nice to have a Black Domain Token!" came an envious voice from the side.

"Indeed!

Judging by the Grade of this Spirit Boat, it must be at least an Earth-grade Spiritual Artifact!

Even Martial Emperors might not have one!

I wonder who is seated inside, what kind of person they are!"

"Ah!

Having strength is wonderful!

Come on, let's also enter the Black Domain and make a good run of it!

It's said that people in Black Domain don't care about your background; as long as you have the corresponding strength, they will readily take you in!"

Hearing the conversations of the people around her, Luo Qingtong realized that within Black Domain City, there was also such a thing as the Black Domain Token.

Having a Black Domain Token means you can enter Black Domain City directly without passing through the outer Netherworld Path?

No wonder the person on the Spirit Boat didn't need to come down to pass through the Netherworld Path!

In that case, this Black Domain Token really is a good thing!

With it, it will be much less trouble to come and go from the Black Domain in the future!

That Spirit Boat is quite nice too; I wonder where one can buy it.

Luo Qingtong knew that this kind of Spirit Boat was specifically used by various countries to transport their armies.

At the same time, it was also the exclusive mode of travel for the nobility of aristocratic families and the strong!

It really looked very impressive!

In her previous life in the 24th century, Luo Qingtong had the best of everything, including countless luxury cars; now, looking at that Spirit Boat, she once again felt the itch!

If given the chance, she would definitely get one!

Travel would be so much more convenient with it!

However, such Air Spirit Boats are typically forbidden in the military; to own one, having strength alone is not enough!

One also needs a certain status and position.

Otherwise, the nations will not allow you to pass through!

They won't even let you purchase it!

I wonder if the Black Domain Token of Black Domain has this kind of privilege.

If it does, Luo Qingtong must get her hands on one no matter what!

Whoosh!

Her figure dashed forward, following the Spirit Boat's passage, she directly charged towards the protective moat in front.

With a few leaps, guided by Pupil Vision, she easily overcame the chains ahead that even Martial Kings would take seriously, completely unaffected by the waves stirred by the Spirit Boat's passage.

Watching her silhouette, a series of shocked exclamations erupted from behind once again.

Isn't this black-robed person too formidable?

She passed this section of the Netherworld Path so effortlessly?

Since when has the Netherworld Path outside Black Domain City been so easy to cross?

Was it the windfall of following after that Spirit Boat?

Some people thought this and followed in the surge upward, but halfway through they screamed as they fell back down!

Only then did they understand it wasn't that the Netherworld Path had become easier to traverse, but rather Luo Qingtong was too formidable!

Just watching Luo Qingtong's movements, no one could have guessed that she was only at the Martial Master Realm!

And she had just advanced and broken through recently!

After Luo Qingtong entered the city, a group of people emerged from the place where the Spirit Boat had descended.
