Chapter 16: Retrieving One by One_1

A string of words, filled with reverence.

Each and every sentence struck at the hearts of Su Yueru and Su Meixue.

Only Ye Fei himself remained expressionless.

"It’s alright, this has nothing to do with you," he said.

At the sound of his voice, the leading soldier finally caught his breath.

"Ah, that’s right, Mr. Ye, in addition to expressing our gratitude, there’s another matter," he said.

"Not long after you left, our captain woke up."

"He said that his life was entirely depending on you!"

"He hopes to meet you after he’s discharged from the hospital, to make friends."

"Look, the banquet in a few days, could you possibly..."

His implication was quite clear at this point.

The help that Ye Fei had asked for earlier, their captain would personally attend to!

Ye Fei wasn’t surprised in the slightest; he simply nodded slightly.

But when Su Meixue and Su Yueru heard his words, it was like a thunderclap!

What, what?!

A personality from the military wants to be friends with Ye Fei!

And it sounded like, at the birthday banquet in a few days, they were even going to support Ye Fei publicly!

In that case, not to mention Su Qingyu, even the entire Su Family would have to show him, Ye Fei, some courtesy!

Su Yueru had somewhat recovered her composure, after all, Ye Fei had brought her many surprises over the past few days.

Her capacity for acceptance had naturally increased quite a bit.

But Su Meixue was in complete disarray.

Without much thought, she instinctively began to explain, "Ye, Ye Fei, I was just anxious earlier and said things I shouldn’t have, you you mustn’t take offense!"

"We’re still family, right..."

However, before she could finish, Ye Fei coldly interrupted, "From the moment the Su Family expelled us, we were no longer part of the Su Family."

"We will claim back what the Su Family owes us, one by one."

"And we don’t have to rely on you, an outsider!"

"The reason you’re still standing here is merely because I gave you that allowance on account of our blood relation."

Boom!

His words fell like a decree!

"Given to me..." Su Meixue’s cold sweat instantly soaked through her entire body!

She suddenly understood everything.

Ye Fei actually possessed supreme medical expertise!

Without calling attention to it, he was incredibly impressive!

The appearance of Divine Doctor Li, the military, all these people or forces emerged because of it.

Ye Fei’s tolerance of her was a favor; treating her as an outsider was proper!

Thinking this, a strong sense of regret surged in Su Meixue’s heart.

She was about to seek mercy again through her niece, the good Su Yueru.

But at that moment.

Ye Fei’s phone rang again.

This time, it was Divine Doctor Li calling.

"Mr. Ye, I’m sorry to disturb you again!"

"I suddenly have a patient in critical condition!"

"At present, I can only suppress the symptoms, but can’t eradicate the root cause!"

"I hope you can hurry to help!"

Hearing this, Ye Fei’s eyebrows raised.

It was a good opportunity to no longer engage in a discussion with that shrew, Li Xuemei.

Thus, after making arrangements for Su Yueru and Little Ye, he took a ride with the soldiers and hurried to the destination.

Upon arrival, Ye Fei briefly said goodbye and then examined the villa in front of him.

It was meticulously crafted, full of a sense of design.

The one who lived here must be rich or noble.

Ye Fei glanced around nonchalantly for a moment, then walked on with his hands clasped behind his back.

Suddenly, a butler-looking figure called out to stop Ye Fei.

"Halt! Who are you?"

"Do you think you are fit to barge into our master’s residence?!"

While speaking, the butler pointed at a plaque next to the gate.

"Tianhe Group!"

"This is the residence of our group’s chairman!"

"If you cause any trouble and disturb our chairman’s peace, can you bear that responsibility?!"

Upon hearing this, Ye Fei frowned.

"I am the assistant invited by Divine Doctor Li."

With these words, the butler's countenance relaxed slightly.

However, he really couldn't find any feature on Ye Fei that would link him to Divine Doctor Li, so his attitude remained poor.

If just a mere butler were so insolent, it went without saying that when Ye Fei finally encountered the chairman, he wasn't well received.

"Mr. Li! What do you mean by this?"

"I feel fine myself! Yet you insist on saying I have some terminal illness, that my life is near its end?!"

"Were it not for the medical association's face, I would have had you thrown out long ago!"

"And now, to make matters worse, you've invited some greenhorn to treat me! And a notorious Tianhe good-for-nothing son-in-law at that!"

"Oh, that's just great!"

The speaker was none other than Xiao Mingyuan, Tianhe Group's chairman.

He looked at Ye Fei while berating Divine Doctor Li!

Upon seeing this, Divine Doctor Li's complexion turned unpleasant.

He always respected those with superior medical skills, regardless of their background or age.

Not to mention someone like Ye Fei, who excelled both in ability and character.

Immediately, Divine Doctor Li's expression became serious as he earnestly rebutted, "Mr. Xiao! Ye Fei is the assistant I invited. Without him, your condition will grow increasingly serious!"
