Chapter 17 Giving You Face_1

When these words were spoken, Xiao Mingyuan was at first stunned.

Then, he burst out laughing in anger!

"Ha, hahaha! Are you senile or just pretending to be crazy and stupid in front of me?"

"According to you, this number one good-for-nothing son-in-law in Tianhe City understands medicine?"

Having said that, he abruptly stood up from his chair.

"Even if this kid really knows anything about medicine, the disease that even you, Divine Doctor Li, can’t cure, am I, Xiao someone, supposed to let a good-for-nothing son-in-law diagnose and evaluate me?"

"Utterly ridiculous!"

Upon hearing this, Divine Doctor Li immediately became furious.

Although Ye Fei looked young, his medical skills were undoubtedly outstanding, extremely well-honed!

If Xiao Mingyuan had seen Ye Fei in action before, he probably would have been shocked speechless!

But even so, given his responsibility to the patient, Divine Doctor Li had no choice but to suppress his anger and said firmly, "I’m afraid, we really do need Mr. Ye to give it a try..."

"Nonsense!"

Before he could finish, Xiao Mingyuan had already burst into rage!

"I’m already giving you face by not having my bodyguards throw you out right now!"

"Now you’re not retreating but advancing instead, taking an inch and wanting a mile! Clearly, you don’t want to eat a toast and must be forced to drink a penalty!"

"Someone, throw these two swindlers out of here!"

"And you, next time don’t let any Tom, Dick, or Harry in to see me!"

"Hold on."

Just at that moment, Ye Fei suddenly spoke up.

His voice was not loud, and his words were brief.

But when they fell upon the crowd, they could calm the mind and steady the heart.

Even Xiao Mingyuan involuntarily fell silent.

"I’m standing here, not because of your face."

"But because I’m giving Divine Doctor Li, some face."

"Since you’re not grateful now, then go find someone else to treat the hidden pain in your abdomen and the weakness in your limbs!"

Having said this, Ye Fei didn’t even glance back, and turned to leave.

Upon hearing this, Xiao Mingyuan’s body began to tremble!

It is known that as the chairman of the Tianhe Group, he is the top figure in Tianhe City!

Ordinarily, even if he had any ailments, he dared not casually mention them, to prevent the malicious from hearing and causing unrest within the entire group!

Even Divine Doctor Li was not told.

But now, this Ye Fei, with just a glance, had made such an accurate diagnosis. It surely couldn’t just be a coincidence!

"Wait a second! How did you know about these?"

Startled, Xiao Mingyuan quickly stopped Ye Fei.

Divine Doctor Li, holding the same doubts, did as well.

You should know that he had conducted a thorough examination for Xiao Mingyuan, yet hadn’t been able to deduce the manifestations of the illness so accurately!

Now that Ye Fei had effortlessly unraveled the mystery, the profoundness of it was indescribable!

"Mr. Ye, please stay!"

"Since you can do what I cannot, deduce the illness so precisely, it also shows that you can cure it completely!"

"I hope you will act out of your benevolent heart as a healer and also give me, an old man, some respect. Please don't hesitate to act!"

Divine Doctor Li's face was full of respect.

It was also evident how much he yearned for the medical knowledge that Ye Fei possessed!

However, despite this, Divine Doctor Li still prioritized the patient's life above all else.

This moved Ye Fei slightly.

After all, in today's profit-driven world, a person like Divine Doctor Li who was dedicated to helping others was extremely rare.

He decided to demonstrate a couple more methods for Divine Doctor Li. As for how much the doctor would comprehend, that would depend entirely on his own skill and fortune.

On the other hand, he did it as a favor to Divine Doctor Li, so as not to cause too much tension with the Tianhe Group.

This was not because Ye Fei feared Xiao Mingyuan but because he had a wife and children to consider.

Better to avoid trouble when possible.

Thus, Ye Fei stopped in his tracks, took a silver needle from Divine Doctor Li's hand,

"I will only make one move, watch closely!"

After saying this, Ye Fei didn't even ask if Xiao Mingyuan agreed and directly pushed him back into the chair.

His speed was swift, yet the force he applied was just right.

Xiao Mingyuan had no time to react; Ye Fei had already inserted the needles!

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh!

The silver needles actually created a faint sound of air explosion as they were inserted.

Ye Fei’s hands turned into a series of afterimages, blending with the air.

The process seemed slow to describe, but from beginning to end, it took only a few moments.

Once finished, Ye Fei didn’t take another look and immediately turned to Divine Doctor Li.

"I’ve done it. How much did you understand?"

Upon hearing this, not only was Divine Doctor Li stunned, but so was everyone else in the room!

That was it? Are you sure it was actual treatment and not some acrobatics show?

That was way too fast!

Almost everyone instinctively wanted to question it.

The voices that were about to question it were stifled before they could come out.

"The student is ignorant and only understood twenty percent."

"Twenty percent?"

"Yes, I thought you would understand only ten percent. It seems you have a high aptitude."
