Supreme Doctor son-in-law Dad - Chapter 470: Purple Aura Fills the Sky_1[998 words]

"Purple Qi... is this... is this ascension to immortality?"

From the crowd behind Mu Changchun, another knowledgeable old man urgently exclaimed in shock.

"Purple Qi is the Qi of Chaos," another old man in a silver robe and white hair said tremblingly, "It has nothing to do with ascension to immortality."

"Three Lights, look quickly!" Mu Kongwu suddenly screamed in shock, "He has broken through the half-human, half-immortal realm and ascended!"

Boom!

In the sky, suddenly clouds turned dense red, and nine bolts of lightning completely enveloped Ye Fei, who was sitting cross-legged in the air.

"God, that’s the heavenly tribulation!"

"He’s ascending to immortality, and he has actually attracted the heavenly tribulation!"

"Inconceivable, truly inconceivable!"

"What an honor, what an honor to witness someone ascend to immortality in this lifetime—it’s simply marvelous."

"A celestial being, that is a celestial being!"

Following a series of exclamations from the crowd, led by Mu Kongwu, they couldn’t help but kneel down, looking up with immense adoration in their eyes, full of ecstasy.

Mu Changchun was also completely stunned by this scene.

He had never imagined that one day someone would ascend to immortality from his Mu Family’s old residence.

"Could this be the power of the Feathered Ascension Treasure Box?"

"This Mr. Ye, has he really opened the Feathered Ascension Treasure Box?"

At this, Mu Changchun also immediately fell to his knees with a thud, worshipping devoutly!

In mid-air, enveloped by the Nine Tribulation Thunder, Ye Fei appeared exceptionally calm.

With each crackling strike of lightning, it seemed as though each bolt brought him endless power, which he completely absorbed.

Just then, across the sky, accompanied by three flashes of sword light, three mysterious figures clad in black capes came rushing over.

When they flew close to Ye Fei’s left and right, they, too, were completely stunned by this scene.

"This... ascension to immortality?"

"We cannot let him ascend to immortality, or we will all die."

"Strike now, while the Nine Tribulation Thunder is upon him, we must take his life."

After the three mysterious figures in black capes spoke, they rapidly started revolving around Ye Fei in a triangular formation.

At the same time, their swords flickered with light as they furiously assaulted Ye Fei.

However, no matter how fiercely their sword lights lunged, they could never penetrate the Nine Tribulation Thunder around Ye Fei, and like stones sinking into the ocean, they disappeared without a trace.

"Senior brother, what do we do?" an old man suddenly cried out in shock, "We of the Dragon Protection Clan cannot let this youngster break through us."

As his words just fell, Ye Fei, enveloped by the Nine Tribulation Thunder, slowly began to rotate.

Then, with a thunderous rumble, the slowly spinning Nine Tribulation Thunder suddenly whipped up a strong gale.

Under the spread of this fierce wind, all three mysterious figures in black robes were drawn into it.

"Ah!"

"Ah!"

"Ah!"

Three screams echoed as the three mysterious figures in black were simultaneously devoured, directly consumed.

The next second!

Ye Fei’s body emitted a more dazzling purple light.

As the purple Qi rapidly spun in mid-air, it spread out in all directions with him at the center, soon covering the entire Mu Family old residence...

It then extended in all directions, and within just a few moments, the entire sky of Canglang Prefecture was covered by the purple Qi, and then it expanded to the three southeastern provinces.

In just half an hour, it had spread across the entire sky of the Great Xia Empire.

As a result, numerous exceptional experts who had long been hidden throughout Great Xia all looked up in awe, each with a drastically changed expression, utterly astonished.

Under the enveloping of this sacred purple Qi, even those as strong as they involuntarily knelt down, sweating profusely.

Within the Great Xia Empire, all sects and groups, ancient martial families, and any objects or weapons with Spiritual Energy were almost all pulled into the sky,

The entirety of Great Xia’s Spiritual Energy, at that instant, began converging toward Canglang Prefecture, continuously gathering above the Mu Family old residence and onto Ye Fei.

The overwhelming Spiritual Energy surged in from all directions, causing Ye Fei, within the Nine Tribulation Thunder, to suddenly let out a long howl.

Right after, with a thunderous boom, the Nine Tribulation Thunder instantly dissipated.

Now looking at Ye Fei, his hair had turned purple and was floating elegantly, his entire body radiating a clear purple light.

Upon opening his eyes, beams of purple light shot out, overlooking the entire Mu Family old residence.

After a while, he suddenly waved his hand.

In an instant, the purple light lifted Su Yueru and Little Ye, who were among the crowd, up into the air.

"Daddy, have you become a god?"

Little Ye, held in Ye Fei’s arms, asked with a face full of joy.

"Do you want to become a god?" Ye Fei’s voice resonated as if it came from the void, sacred and majestic.

He was no longer the Divine Doctor Ye Fei, but the Ye Fei who had ascended to immortality, returning to his noble status in the Immortal Realm.

"Little Ye doesn’t want to become a god," Little Ye shook his head, mumbling with pouted lips, "Little Ye just wants to stay with mommy and daddy."

"Good, good!" Ye Fei laughed heartily and nodded, "If Little Ye doesn’t want to become a god, then daddy doesn’t want to either."

Saying this, he took the hand of the stunned Su Yueru next to him.

"You don’t have the fate of an immortal, nor do you possess an immortal physique."

"However, going to the Immortal Realm to see what’s out there might bring unexpected encounters."

"Will you go?" Su Yueru asked with a face full of concern.

"We’ll go," Ye Fei said with a smile, "Wherever you go, that’s where we’ll go!"

Upon hearing this, Su Yueru laughed, a laugh filled with joy and sweetness.
