Supreme Doctor son-in-law Dad - Chapter 471 Grand Finale_1[757 words]

"All the forces of the Great Xia, heed my words," Ye Fei's face suddenly darkened as he stood tall, holding Little Ye and leading Su Yueru by the hand. "I may ascend, but I shall still guard over Great Xia!"

"Should any of you dare to oppress the people and destroy the world, I will annihilate your families if you have them; if not, I will eradicate your sects!"

Having said that, he suddenly pointed towards the sky.

In an instant, the sky enveloped in purple qi suddenly tore open, revealing an eye of golden light.

"Ye Fei!"

Just then, from within the Mu Family's old residence, a woman suddenly started shrieking hysterically.

"What will I do if you leave?"

"I have no kin left, could it be—"

"It's Si Mama," Little Ye exclaimed in surprise. "Dad, take Si Mama with us!"

"Take her with us," Su Yueru said urgently. "Otherwise, Little Ye will—"

"Of course," Ye Fei nodded slightly. "Not just her, she's also our servant."

With that, he shuddered slightly.

In a flash, two beams of purple light hit the ground, instantly sweeping up Si and the dumbfounded Yao Yue, and they soared into the sky together.

"Wow!" Si exclaimed in amazement. "This is so magical."

"Shut up," Ye Fei glanced at her. "Once you're in the immortal realm, you need to go to the Hall of Immortal Fate first to exchange for an immortal disc before you can obtain your immortal registry."

"But you are my people, and need not be bound by the laws of the immortal realm. You can come back anytime to visit, but you must not affect any of the mundane realm's order."

After hearing this, Si nodded eagerly.

"Daddy, who is she?" Little Ye suddenly pointed at Yao Yue.

With a grunt, Ye Fei smiled faintly: "She is our servant, and from now on, she will also be our housekeeper."

Yao Yue: "..."

A servant, huh?

Becoming a servant and ascending to the immortal realm together was also not a bad choice.

At that moment, the pride and dignity of the capital's foremost beauty shattered completely.

"My old friends!" Ye Fei, with his family floating midair, smiled lightly as he swept over all the people on the ground: "I thank you all for the opportunities given!"

"Allowing me, Ye Fei, to reascend to the immortal realm and return to the Great Dao with my wife and daughter."

"As repayment, I shall open the Eye of Heaven's Gate for Great Xia."

"Those who have achieved the Great Dao may pass through the Eye of Heaven's Gate and enter the immortal realm directly."

"From now on, in Great Xia, there will no longer be half-human, half-immortal beings—only the distinction between mortals and immortals."

With those words, he released Su Yueru, and a stream of purple light struck the Mu Family's old residence.

As the purple light enveloped them, everyone within the Mu Family's old residence felt a tremor throughout their bodies.

Then, as if an infinite force was sweeping through them, each one widened their eyes in astonishment.

"The Heart Method of Immortal Destiny!" Mu Changchun suddenly exclaimed. "Mr. Ye, this Heart Method of Immortal Destiny should—"

"Seek not the true scriptures in cultivation; understand the Great Dao within oneself."

Ye Fei said each word deliberately: "What I had to pass on to you has been given; the rest is for you to comprehend on your own, your own fate."

"At least, the friends I have in this realm are all cultivators of the Heaven Origin level now, capable of protecting themselves in any situation."

"My friends, the Great Dao is boundless, the Dao follows nature—until we meet again."

With those words left behind, Ye Fei, along with the group of people by his side, turned and drifted towards the Eye of Heaven that had opened in the sky.

Watching this scene, everyone on the ground knelt down and began to worship devoutly.

The experts surrounding the Great Xia Empire, the spiritual warriors, the half-human, half-immortal cultivators, at this moment, all worshipped devoutly as well.

For, they all felt an immense Spiritual Energy descending, pervading the entirety of Great Xia.

In an instant, the cultivation levels of all the cultivators in the Great Xia realm improved by one to ten levels.

This mainly depended on one’s own talent and opportunity, as well as one’s comprehension.

Ye Fei departed with his family.

But what they left for Great Xia was a vast cultivation platform and more abundant cultivation resources than anywhere else.
