Chapter 1071: Luring the Snake Out of its Hole_1

These elders were no fools, they could see the close relationship between Wang Yueru and Yang Chen. However, the smart thing about them was that they played dumb. Seeing Wang Yueru arrive, they assumed she would stay here directly.

“Master Yang, please proceed. We have some important matters to handle, so we will not stay with you!” Several elders respectfully said.

Yang Chen waved his hand, showing a look of impatience.

The elders quickly closed the door for Yang Chen. As soon as the door closed, they heard Wang Yueru’s affectionate and charming voice coming from inside.

This...

These elders felt extremely embarrassed. Even though Yang Chen and Wang Yueru’s relationship was underground, they still acted without any scruples. They should have at least waited until the elders left before revealing their relationship. Now, they were being so blatant in front of them.

It was only after several of them hurried away that they dared to look at each other and start whispering.

“This is simply an open display of lust, an open display of lust. This surnamed Yang has so many women, yet he chose to take someone else’s wife?”

“The key is that Wang Yueru willingly got involved with the surnamed Yang.”

“What should we do about this? Although Elder Lin and us don’t have a good relationship, we still see each other quite often. We can’t just ignore this, can we?”

“I advise you to ignore it as much as possible. What can be done if we get involved? Even if Elder Lin wants to fight, he may not necessarily win against this surnamed Yang kid. If we really tell him about this, it will only harm him!”

“Ah, Elder Lin is right. Even if we expose this, it would be meaningless. If Yang Xilin dares to act so blatantly, he must have a good reason to do so. This kid is really fearless.”

“Let’s just pretend we didn’t see anything.”

After discussing this among themselves, the elders stopped talking about the matter.

As for Yang Chen, he had already connected with Wang Yueru.

Wang Yueru sat on Yang Chen’s lap, her arms wrapped around his neck, seductively asking, “Little treasure, what made you think of looking for me?”

“I miss you. I’ve been going crazy from missing you after just a few days apart!” Yang Chen showed a look of urgency.

Actually, based on Elder Lin’s attitude, there were traces to follow. As long as he slightly mimicked and exaggerated them, deceiving Wang Yueru wouldn’t be difficult.

After all, Wang Yueru didn’t seem to have any concrete method to test whether he was really bewitched.

Seeing Yang Chen’s excited expression, Wang Yueru giggled. Yang Chen was already completely infatuated with her, much better than Elder Lin!

“Aren’t you afraid of being discovered by that surnamed Lin?” Wang Yueru giggled.

“Hmph, even if he finds out, so what? What can he do to me?” Yang Chen coldly said, “I don’t believe that surnamed Lin would dare to confront me. I’m curious, who do you think is more important in your heart, me or him?”

“Hehe, theoretically, of course you are more important. But...” Wang Yueru hesitated to continue.

Following Wang Yueru’s words, Yang Chen urgently asked, “But what?”

“But that surnamed Lin has told me everything about him, all his secrets, and other things. I know him really well because of that. If you hide things from me, maybe I would choose him,” Wang Yueru softly explained.

Yang Chen remained expressionless on the surface, but secretly sneered in his heart.

Wang Yueru was really something. She wasted no time in trying to gather information, did she?

Good, he was afraid that she wouldn’t ask, otherwise, how could he trace the roots?

“How could that be? I promise to tell you everything about me. Yueru, tell me what you want to know, and I’ll tell you everything without any omissions. I love you, I love you more than that surnamed Lin. For you, I’m willing to do anything,” Yang Chen showed a look of madness.

“Little treasure, I like you like this,” Wang Yueru lowered her head, whispering into Yang Chen’s ear with a smile and a hint of seduction.

As she spoke, layers of black gas entered Yang Chen’s ear.

Yang Chen was slightly taken aback. Goodness, Wang Yueru was still not at ease. Before asking him, she used her tricks again in order to completely bewitch him and take no chances.

Yang Chen naturally cooperated with her, pretending to be dazed and waiting for Wang Yueru to discover something.

Wang Yueru asked sweetly, "I want to know about the recent major moves of the Human Alliance, the specifics of their power, and the precautions they've taken against the Prohibition Demon Clan. Tell me everything you know, my treasure?"

In order to avoid being caught out by Wang Yueru, Yang Chen directly told her everything without any omissions: "The Human Alliance has formed an army, with the Donghuang Sect as the Alliance Leader. The head-level forces are the Bai Family and Huangdao Sect, and there are five Emperor-Level strong. However, Bai Yudi is unmatched in strength. With his power alone, he could probably handle three or four Emperor-Level strong. As for the martial artists in the Sky Martial Domain, I've heard that there should be less than two thousand. As for the Earth Martial Domain, there are many more, possibly tens of thousands or even more, but this number is hard to estimate."

"Go on!" Wang Yueru remembered all of this, her excitement growing.

Yang Chen was obviously more useful than Elder Lin. Many things that Elder Lin didn't know about, this kid actually knew in detail.

Yang Chen continued to tell her everything he knew about the Alliance.

Wang Yueru grew even more excited after hearing all this, and was even getting impatient to report this information to her companions.

It was for this reason that she briefly and casually showed affection to Yang Chen, seemingly as a reward for him. She then hurriedly said, "Little treasure, I have some urgent business to take care of, so I'll have to leave. You go back first, just in case that surnamed Lin finds out anything!"

"So soon?" Yang Chen pretended to be disappointed.

Wang Yueru didn't bother to explain, said a few hurried words, and quickly sent Yang Chen away before leaving herself.

Yang Chen could see the direction Wang Yueru left, but no one knew where she had gone.

Yang Chen naturally understood that Wang Yueru must have gone to report the news to her companions. After all, the information he had just shared was all about the Human Alliance's astonishing actions against the Prohibition Demon Clan, and some of it was known only to several Great Emperors.

This woman, having learned all this news, would undoubtedly be in a hurry to convey it to her companions, wouldn't she?

However, the pity was...

Since he had dared to reveal this information, he never thought that Wang Yueru and her companions would be able to deliver it to the Prohibition Demon Clan alive!

Chapter 1072: The Big Cleanup!_1

Just as Yang Chen had expected, Wang Yueru left the Beacon Fire Gate in a hurry after receiving the astonishing news from Yang Chen. No one knew where she went.

One-hour later, Wang Yueru entered an inn.

Three hours later, Wang Yueru came out of the inn.

Five, ten double-hours later, Wang Yueru entered Zongshan Sect of the Top Ten Forces, and came out two days later.

Just like that, in a matter of days, Wang Yueru went to dozens of places, big and small. Only Ten days later, she left the territory of Donghuang Sect and arrived at a desolate area.

This desolate area was full of mountains and not a single soul could be seen. There were no signs of plants, let alone human life.

However, Wang Yueru arrived here, looking to the east and west, sneaky and apparently up to no good.

Wang Yueru seemed to have confirmed that there was no one following her, and only then did she enter the Continuous Mountain Range.

There was clearly a Forbidden Array Formation on the surface of the mountain range. The moment Wang Yueru entered it, she disappeared instantly, leaving no trace.

However, inside this mountain range of restricted formations, there was another hidden world.

Inside this world, there were various beings, whether they were humans or demonic beasts. Among the humans, many were famous in the outside world.

“Yueru is here!”

“Yueru!”

These people or demonic beasts called Wang Yueru by her name in another language. They only referred to her as “Yueru” and it seemed that in their sect, there was no such surname as Wang.

Wang Yueru looked around now that she was here: “Has everyone arrived?”

“Those who should have arrived are here. A few who haven’t probably have other matters to attend to, so there’s no big problem. But Yueru, are you sure no one was tailing you when you came?” someone asked.

“Don’t worry, I’m a hundred percent sure.” Wang Yueru sneered.

Hearing Wang Yueru’s confirmation, someone shouted: “In that case, let’s all show our true colors. It’s so tiring to pretend every day.”

After the words, someone took the lead in revealing their original appearance.

This appearance was none other than the characteristics of the Prohibition Demon Clan!

With dual horns on their heads, varying black and white skin, Giant Strength Demons, Red Shura Demons, and various other Forbidden Demons all appeared one by one.

In the blink of an eye, the mountains, which were previously filled with humans and beasts, suddenly turned into an area of demonic qi filling the sky.

However, it is worth mentioning that there seemed to be many Demon Tribes within this Forbidden Demon Clan that looked very similar to humans. To be more accurate, aside from the dual horns, most of the Forbidden Demons had no difference compared to humans.

“Hmph, the cautious ones live longer. You said you’ve bewitched a human and got shocking secrets from him. Is this news reliable?” a Red Shura Demon asked.

Wang Yueru said confidently: “Do you know who I’ve bewitched? I’ve bewitched the human slaughtering devil hero, Yang Xilin. Hmph, what slaughtering devil hero? As soon as he fell into my hands, his true nature was exposed. He’s just a real lecher.”

“What, Yang Xilin? You’ve bewitched him?”

“If it’s him, it’s indeed possible that he knows a lot of secrets.”

“Yueru, what do you know, tell us quickly!”

Wang Yueru saw that many people were eager and she assumed a proud manner: “No need to worry, I called you here today to make this news public. Once you hear the news, find a way to spread it. Although it’s a bit difficult, with hundreds of us Forbidden Demons here, it’s still easy to send the message back to headquarters. When that happens, we will join forces with the headquarters to fight against humans. Hmph, they’re dreaming.”

“Haha, as long as we occupy Changfeng County, won’t the entire Western Region be under our control?”

Many people got excited.

“Yueru, you tell us quickly.”

Wang Yueru laughed and was about to reveal everything she knew.

But just as she was about to speak, suddenly, an astonishing pressure emerged from high in the sky.

“Hehe, it seems that all the spies of the Forbidden Demon Clan are gathered here. Young friend Yang has done another great deed.”

“Let’s catch them all in one swoop. Little girl, your secret won’t be told before you close your mouth forever!”

At the emergence of the two powerful pressures, two figures suddenly appeared high in the sky.

“What!”

“Yueru, you idiot! You did indeed have a tail!”

Wang Yueru widened her eyes: “How is that possible? This grand formation is the Linghe Grand Array exclusively used by the Forbidden Demon Clan. Even if a powerful person from the Heaven Martial Realm enters, we’ll immediately sense it. How did you manage to enter seamlessly?”

The two exchanged glances and laughed.

Then, the person on the left spoke coldly: “Heaven Martial Realm? This Linghe Great Array is indeed good. I didn’t expect the Forbidden Demon Clan to have such accomplishments in this Forbidden Array Formation. If we were only at the Heaven Martial Realm, we wouldn’t have any means to break through this array unnoticed!”

“You, are you Great Emperors...” someone couldn’t help but ask.

“I’ve seen them before. The one on the left is Emperor Bai Wei, and the one on the right is Emperor Shi Neng!”

“Bai Wei, Shi Neng. How could this be possible? Two Great Emperor-level characters!”

Indeed, the newcomers were none other than Emperor Bai Wei and Emperor Shi Neng.

“Yueru, you ruined us.”

The people of the Forbidden Demon Clan panicked.

Emperor Bai Wei directly released the pressure, and with a rumble, the Emperor’s full-power release felt like the Five Fingers Mountain pressing down, making it extremely difficult even to lift one’s head.

Many people had never experienced the full pressure of a Great Emperor. When they felt it, the only thing left in their bodies was despair.

Only Wang Yueru, unwilling, roared: “Why? Why are you targeting me? It’s impossible! I’ve been hiding so well!”

“Wang Yueru, if you are really curious, let me enlighten you before you die.”

Suddenly, a voice emerged.

Along with the voice, Yang Chen’s figure appeared.

“It’s you, Yang Xilin!” Wang Yueru widened her eyes: “Did you do all of this?”

“Wang Yueru, if you weren’t such a fool, you should have figured that out by now.” Yang Chen said slowly.

Wang Yueru couldn’t believe everything she saw: “How could this be? Weren’t you under my control? I am your master, you are my slave. How could you betray me and resist me?”

Wang Yueru completely lost her mind, unable to accept all this.

“If my mind was really controlled by you, I would be ruined by now. But unfortunately, I wasn’t controlled by you!” Yang Chen said. “Wang Yueru, you are too overconfident. Do you really think you can toy with humans as you please?!”

Chapter 1073: Suppress Them All_1

“Impossible, I have infused demonic qi into you at least five times. How could you not be controlled by me? How is it possible...” Wang Yueru still couldn’t understand.

She absolutely couldn’t accept this fact.

How confident and sure she was that Yang Chen had already become her demonic servant. But reality played a huge joke on her- Yang Chen wasn’t affected at all.

“I’m not obliged to tell you that.” Yang Chen said lazily.

As an enemy, he had nothing good to say.

“Impossible, impossible!” Wang Yueru was now completely out of control. She knew that not only was her own fate uncertain today, but her companions would also be killed here!

Yang Chen had already made plans.

In the beginning, Emperor Bai Wei and Emperor Shi Neng knew that the problem must lie with the tricky woman Yang Chen was with.

So, they had been tracking Yang Chen all the time, and when Yang Chen separated from Wang Yueru, they began to track her.

It has to be said that Wang Yueru's vigilance and tactics were not something ordinary people could compare with. If other Heaven Martial Realm warriors tracked her, they might even be discovered.

However, what was different this time was that both emperors joined forces to ensure success!

"Alright, everything that should be said has been said. It's time to make a move." Emperor Bai Wei said slowly: "Brother Shi Neng, who should handle this?"

"Hehe, I won't embarrass myself in front of Brother Bai." Emperor Shi Neng cupped his hands, his manner very courteous.

Emperor Bai Wei nodded, very satisfied with Emperor Shi Neng's attitude.

This at least showed that Emperor Shi Neng was a smart man.

Many people thought that being in a high position meant they could act arrogantly and recklessly, but that was not the case.

The higher someone's position, the more humble and respectful they should be, even lowering their attitude compared to before. This way, they could maintain their position and prevent others from finding fault with them.

Emperor Shi Neng understood this principle, so even as the Alliance Leader, he placed himself lower, seeming weaker but not only would it not make Bai Wei look down on him, but it would make him more highly regarded.

As the saying goes, courtesy calls for reciprocity. Emperor Bai Wei said slowly, “Brother Shi Neng is joking. You are the Alliance Leader, and now is the time to gain fame and establish success. The task of slaying demons should be entrusted to you. My presence here today is just to accompany you!”

Hearing this, Emperor Shi Neng immediately laughed and repeatedly thanked: “Thank you, Brother Bai Wei, thank you Brother Bai Wei.”

Yang Chen watched the two emperors hand over the credit to each other and found it amusing.

Although the greatest merit should belong to him, he was also a smart man and had no intention of monopolizing it. Because even if he monopolized it, it would be meaningless; both he and the two emperors had something they needed from each other.

If he really took all the credit, what would he gain? Just some fame, at best. But if he let Emperor Shi Neng take the credit, it would be like putting a crown on Emperor Shi Neng’s head, solidifying his position as Alliance Leader, leading to greater unity within the alliance. This would allow the most significant value of the credit to be fully realized.

Emperor Bai Wei knew this as well, so he handed the credit over to Emperor Shi Neng.

That’s why Yang Chen had no reason to look unhappy. There was no meaning in fighting for it, but not fighting for it wouldn’t leave him at a loss either!

Now that Emperor Shi Neng had the opportunity, he attacked eagerly and swiftly.

“Run!”

“Yueru has ruined us!”

“We will not let you go, Yueru!”

“It’s all your fault!”

In an instant, there were curses, people running away, and blaming. The Prohibition Demon Clan's escape was as chaotic as humans, and Yang Chen couldn't help but marvel at their lack of difference in the face of the powerlessness against Emperor-level strength.

Even now, Emperor Shi Neng hadn't even made a move yet.

With a cold snort, Emperor Shi Neng said: "Want to escape? You're delusional!"

He immediately pressed down with one palm, and suddenly, a giant palm appeared in the sky several thousand zhang above. This golden palm quickly descended, directly suppressing the many Forbidden Demons below.

There were many Prohibition Demon Clan members, including some strong Heaven Martial Realm warriors. However, under the Great Emperor, they were all insignificant, whether they were Earth Martial Realm warriors or Heaven Martial Realm warriors, they were all the same!

Boom! The giant palm fell, and in an instant, all the Forbidden Demons were covered within it. None could escape, and they were all suppressed.

Seeing this, Yang Chen couldn't help being astonished and sighed.

No wonder they were Emperor-level powerful beings; with so many Forbidden Demons, if it were anyone else, they would most likely have run away instead of fighting. But when it came to Emperor Shi Neng, it was accomplished with a single effortless palm, completely suppressing all of them.

No one could resist!

"Brother Shi Neng, leave a few Prohibition Demon Clan members alive so we can interrogate them!" Bai Wei reminded.

"Brother Bai Wei makes a reasonable point." Shi Neng knew this too, so he vented his anger on a few useless Prohibition Demons, leaving most of them alive.

And so, all the Prohibition Demons were brought to justice, and the humans returned triumphantly and victoriously!

The news quickly spread, and Emperor Shi Neng became the number one contributor. To show off this achievement, Emperor Shi Neng displayed many Prohibition Demon corpses on the city walls, earning praises and applause from everyone.

Emperor Shi Neng's position as Alliance Leader seemed solidified, and the alliance became more and more stable.

It is worth mentioning that Emperor Shi Neng didn't forget his roots and didn't monopolize the credit. He also publicized Yang Chen's story, letting people know that the woman who suddenly appeared with Yang Chen recently turned out to be a Forbidden Demon.

It was Yang Chen who turned the tables and uncovered the Forbidden Demons lurking in the ranks of Changfeng County's army by exploiting this woman's plot.

For a time, many people praised him; at least Yang Chen's performance was already considered both brave and resourceful!

Those who had misunderstood Yang Chen before, thinking of him as a lecherous person, couldn't help but regret that they had misjudged him and changed their misconceptions!

Similarly, this news quickly reached the ears of the Jinling Holy Girl.

Saintess Jinling's mood had been low these days, and she didn't even feel like doing anything. Upon learning about Yang Chen and Emperor Shi Neng's victory and that Wang Yueru was, in fact, a Forbidden Demon, her mood immediately improved.

"Are you telling the truth? Wang Yueru is actually a Forbidden Demon, and Young Master Yang figured her out early on? He showed intimacy with her just to use her?" Ruan Jinling asked excitedly.

“Yes, young lady, that’s exactly what happened!” Those around Ruan Jinling saw her becoming happy and couldn’t help revealing smiles too.

Chapter 1074: Buddha’s Power_1

Ruan Jinling was genuinely happy, at least, the knot in her heart had been untied. Although she didn’t know if Yang Chen had her in his heart, at least it meant that she had a chance.

At the same time, Yang Chen arrived at the Purple Moon Sacred Mountain of Donghuang Sect.

Purple Moon Sacred Mountain was the residence of Emperor Shi Neng of Donghuang Sect. This time, Yang Chen came to the Purple Moon Sacred Mountain because he had received a personal invitation from Emperor Shi Neng and was led by Ye Xu.

When he arrived at the Purple Moon Sacred Mountain, Yang Chen saw the scenery of the place where Emperor Shi Neng lived.

On the Purple Moon Sacred Mountain, there were many temples built, and many Buddha statues stood in them. It seemed that Emperor Shi Neng had a deep origin with the word ‘Buddha’.

Yang Chen had heard of ‘Buddha’, but this path was very mysterious and involved very few people, so he didn’t know much about it. It now seemed that Emperor Shi Neng had researched this path to the extreme.

The surrounding Buddha statues seemed alive, and as he passed by, it seemed as if the statues were all looking at him.

There were also faint Sanskrit sounds coming from unknown places, making people feel as if they were in a fairyland...

In this way, stepping on the cloud ladder, Yang Chen and Ye Xu came to the top of Purple Moon Sacred Mountain.

Along the way, they could see many spirit birds and flying cranes, as well as some disciples cleaning and tidying up. These disciples respectfully called out when they saw Yang Chen and Ye Xu.

Only when they reached the summit did an envoy come to meet them: "Master Yang, Sect Leader, the Great Emperor has been waiting for you for a long time. I will lead you both there now."

"Thank you." Yang Chen bowed.

The envoy led them to the front, and in a short time, he brought Yang Chen and Ye Xu to the largest temple on the top of the mountain.

Inside the temple, there were two huge cushions, each with a person sitting on them. The two people were Emperor Shi Neng and Emperor Bai Wei.

Yang Chen was a little surprised at this, as it seemed that the relationship between Emperor Shi Neng and Emperor Bai Wei had become much closer since the incident with the Prohibition Demon Clan.

Yang Chen faintly remembered that when Emperor Bai Wei was in his cave mansion, he also sat on a cushion, and so did Emperor Shi Neng. It seemed that the two of them must have had a lot of common topics to discuss.

Nowadays, the two of them were talking very happily, and when they saw Yang Chen and Ye Xu, they stopped talking.

Emperor Shi Neng smiled kindly, "Ye Xu, you can go first. Brother Bai Wei and I want to have a private chat with young friend Yang."

"Yes, Great Emperor!" Ye Xu would have been lying if he said he didn't envy Yang Chen. For someone as young as him to become a favorite in front of powerful emperors was rare.

Of course, although he envied Yang Chen, he also knew that he had the ability, and he would not turn his envy into jealousy.

After Ye Xu left, the expressions of Emperor Shi Neng and Emperor Bai Wei showed faint smiles when they looked at Yang Chen.

“Young friend Yang, please sit down.” Emperor Shi Neng ordered.

Yang Chen wanted to be very formal, but after some thought, he could see that Emperor Shi Neng didn't use a polite tone, so he found a corner on the huge cushion and sat down.

“Young friend Yang, actually, the biggest contributor to finding the Prohibition Demon Clan was you, and I took the credit for your achievements. You don't mind, do you?” Emperor Shi Neng smiled kindly.

Yang Chen shook his head, “Emperor Senior is joking. Where am I, Junior, the biggest contributor? If Emperor Shi Neng had not suppressed those Prohibition Demon Clan members, what could I, as a Junior, have done to gather them? I could only stare, but it's different for Emperor Senior. This link could be done without me, but not without the two emperors.”

Hearing this, Emperor Bai Wei and Emperor Shi Neng both laughed.

Look at how well Yang Chen knew how to behave! He had said this, which was so much more reasonable than what those little guys in their sect said.

Not taking credit, not being arrogant. In fact, the link could not be carried out without Yang Chen either, but Yang Chen just said so. Could the two emperors really do without Yang Chen's benefits?

Emperor Shi Neng laughed, “Young friend Yang, I like you more and more. Don't worry, since we took advantage of you this time, we will never treat you unfairly. Brother Bai Wei and I can each promise you a condition, as long as you dare to ask, we promise to fulfill it for you!”

Yang Chen couldn't help but ask, “Is that really possible?”

“Haha, young friend Yang, there's nothing that is impossible. Just go ahead and ask. I've gotten a lot of benefits from Brother Shi Neng this time, so it's no problem to promise you a condition!” Bai Wei laughed out loud.

He had given the credit to Emperor Shi Neng, and Emperor Shi Neng knew what was going on. He directly gave Bai Wei many treasures, which made up for his loss of credit. This was also the reason why he and Emperor Shi Neng talked so much. People who knew how to behave were more likely to be accepted by others.

Seeing Bai Wei speak like this, Yang Chen knew that it would be pretentious to be polite.

He slowly said, "In that case, then, I, as a Junior, will respectfully comply. Emperor Bai Wei, I sincerely ask you to promise me a condition. I just hope that after the matter of the Prohibition Demon Clan is settled, you can accept Zhou Qing of Luosheng Gate into the Bai Family and let him experience life under your command!"

"Oh? Zhou Qing?" Bai Wei narrowed his eyes.

He had some impressions of this person, who was a descendant of the high-level direct line he had set up in the early years of founding Luosheng Gate.

However, his direct descendants have passed dozens of generations, and he cannot recognize them all. He was too lazy to take care of them, let alone other people's descendants.

"Is this your only condition?" Bai Wei rubbed his eyebrows, "I vaguely remember someone mentioning this matter to me, it seemed that the letter you sent mentioned this matter. It's just that with the Prohibition Demon Clan at hand, I put it to the back of my mind, and I didn't expect you to bring it up again today!"

"I beg for your permission, Great Emperor!" said Yang Chen.

He had promised Zhou Qing, and naturally, he had to help him.

"You kid..."

Bai Wei shook his head helplessly, knowing that Yang Chen was very loyal and kept his word. After all, the matter of the eastern Bai Family branch had been taken care of by Yang Chen.

“I promise you this matter, and I will ensure that Zhou Qing can enter the Heaven Martial Realm and obtain wealth and glory after he follows me!” said Emperor Bai Wei.

If someone else said they would guarantee a person to enter the Heaven Martial Realm, it would be nonsense, but since Emperor Bai Wei said so, where would Yang Chen not believe it and said, “Thank you, Emperor Bai Wei!”

Zhou Qing had been following him all along, loyal and diligent. Now that he had helped him to accomplish this, it would be a belonging for Zhou Qing in the future after he left the Western Region.

“Hehe, young friend Yang, your condition is really easy to satisfy. All right, you’ve talked about Brother Bai Wei’s condition, now tell me what you want me to do for you?” Emperor Shi Neng spoke loudly.

After considering his options, Yang Chen asked in surprise, “Senior, are you cultivating the Buddhist path?”

“Yes, exactly.” Emperor Shi Neng replied.

Hearing this, Yang Chen couldn’t help but say, “Senior Shi Neng, I, as a Junior, have had the good fortune to study the Buddhist path, but unfortunately, there have been few ancient books and cultivation methods related to it, so...”

Chapter 1075: Returning to the Main City!_1

As he said, he was indeed very interested in the Buddha’s cultivation methods.

Where was the interest?

It was mainly in the mystery of the Buddha’s cultivation methods.

It is said that in a very early era, humans were suffering from heavenly disasters and earthly calamities, and it was a group of Buddhist monks who came to save all beings from suffering.

It sounds ridiculous, but since there are rumors, it must not be baseless.

The most critical point is that the mystery of Buddhism makes it hard for people to trace, which also makes the genuine Buddhist cultivation methods even rarer.

In fact, a long time ago, he had encountered Buddhist methods. For example, the Dari Buddha's legal body, and the Reincarnation Vajra Sutra of the Black Dragon Sect. Theoretically, both are Buddhist methods, but in practice, these techniques are only related to Buddhism in form and not in substance.

In plain terms, they are imitations and modified counterfeit goods. They are far from the true meaning of Buddhist cultivation methods.

Of course, the Black Dragon Sect's Reincarnation Vajra Sutra must have some origin, but compared to Emperor Shi Neng's methods, it is still much worse.

Not long ago, he saw Emperor Shi Neng take action, pressing down on the void, and a huge palm print fell from the sky. The power of that pressure must be the true transmission of Buddhist cultivation methods, and that's why he became curious.

Seeing that Yang Chen actually made this request, Emperors Shi Neng and Bai Wei looked at each other and burst into laughter for a moment.

Emperor Bai Wei smiled and said, "Kid, you can understand the mystery of this Buddhist cultivation method, which shows that you are very attentive."

Emperor Shi Neng also smiled and stroked his beard, and then said, "Young friend Yang, do you know that I have never accepted a disciple in my life? Even the people under my Donghuang Sect, I have not imparted my Buddhist cultivation methods to them. In the entire Donghuang Sect, there is not a second person with Buddhist cultivation methods."

"What?" Yang Chen couldn't help but be surprised.

Emperor Shi Neng didn't even pass it down to his own Donghuang Sect, so how precious is this Buddhist cultivation method?

"But young friend Yang, since you mentioned it, I have no reason to refuse. Otherwise, if it gets out, won't people say that I'm just talking big? However, it is impossible for you to learn my true inheritance. This true inheritance was obtained by chance when I was young, and I swore never to pass it on to a second person. But I will pass on another set of scripture cultivation methods to you, which should satisfy your request!"

Upon saying this, Emperor Shi Neng paused for a moment and then said, "This cultivation method is called the 'Reincarnation Future Sutra'. Of course, little guy, you don't have to worry. The Reincarnation Future Sutra I'm giving you is not inferior in value to the cultivation method I practice. This cultivation method is an excellent body refining technique in the early stage, and even more wonderful in the later stage, with a very unusual origin that I don't know much about. How it goes depends on your luck."

After saying this, Emperor Shi Neng waved his sleeve, and an ancient golden scripture book appeared in his hand.

On it, the words "Reincarnation Future Sutra" were prominently written.

Seeing these five words, Yang Chen hesitated for a moment, then respectfully bent down and sincerely received the scripture.

He had no dissatisfaction. Regardless of how the Reincarnation Future Sutra turns out, it is still passed down by Emperor Shi Neng, so how bad could it be? Moreover, the overall Reincarnation Future Sutra is not inferior to the cultivation methods practiced by Emperor Shi Neng, and it's even more mysterious and valuable.

Seeing this, Emperor Bai Wei shook his head, "Kid, you are luckier than me. I had wanted to ask Shi Neng for this item, but he wouldn't give it to me."

Hearing this, Yang Chen became even more shocked and said respectfully, "Thank you, Senior Shini."

“Hehe, no need to thank me. Young friend Yang, you just need to know that as a member of the Alliance, if you contribute to the Alliance, the Alliance will surely reward you. By the way, young friend Yang, do you have any plans for the coming days?” Emperor Shi Neng asked.

He didn't care much about what others were doing, but Yang Chen was different.

Yang Chen thought for a moment and said, “Senior Shini, now that war is imminent, I plan to return to Long Wind Main City. I will finish the Trial Tower and then come back!”

“Oh? You haven't completed the Earth Martial Realm's Trial Tower yet?” Emperor Shi Neng couldn't help but be surprised, and then said, “In that case, it is a must for you to go to the Trial Tower. Once you complete the Trial Tower, you will benefit immensely from the Creation Divine Aura that you will receive. In that case, let me help you. I will lend you this treasure to help you on your way!”

After speaking, Emperor Shi Neng gently waved his hand.

Immediately, a pair of wings appeared in Yang Chen's line of sight. The wings were brightly colored, flapping vividly and energetically.

The wings were emitting a beautiful golden light, showing that they were precious treasures.

“This pair of wings is called Golden Spirit Wings and is an Intermediate Mysterious Heavenly Treasure, best for boosting speed. Put it on, travel as fast as the wind, and I hope it can help you!” laughed Emperor Shi Neng.

“Emperor Senior, this, how can this be?” Yang Chen's eyes widened, not expecting Emperor Shi Neng to be so generous.

“Haha, it can be. Do you think these wings mean anything to me? Alright, take them. They are of no use to me now, but maybe they can shine in your hands. Why not be happy about it?” Emperor Shi Neng laughed heartily.

Emperor Bai Wei also said, "I'll talk to Emperor Jue Ming and tell the people at Long Wind Main City a thing or two!"

"Thank you, both of you seniors." Yang Chen said repeatedly.

So, five days later, Yang Chen set off with the Golden Spirit Wings and headed straight back to Long Wind Main City.

And on this day, in the distant Forbidden Demon Clan area.

Looking closely, one can see that the Forbidden Demon Clan area is desolate and barren, with ancient castles that have not been repaired for who-knows-how-many years. The wild winds howl, and yellow sand fills the air, making the living environment extremely harsh. The spiritual energy environment is even more stringent.

This is the territory of the Forbidden Demon Clan.

In that most remote and colossal ancient castle, guarded by two Giant Strength Demons, there is a large group of Forbidden Demon Clan gathered inside, seemingly discussing some important matters.

"Now that things have happened and can be confirmed, nearly 90% of our kinsmen who had infiltrated the Human Alliance have been exposed. Even those who haven't been exposed yet, staying there now is meaningless, and they won't be able to play much of a role. The humans will undoubtedly be on their guard and won't give any opportunity to the ones we've planted. They might even find out some characteristics of our Forbidden Demon Clan through Soul Search, and in the long run, this situation will be increasingly unfavorable for our Forbidden Demon Clan!" Said one of the Forbidden Demon Clan members.

"Yes, Chief, now the power is in your hands. Whether to act or not depends on your word alone."

The demon who was called the Chief also had dual horns on his head but was neither red like a Red Shura Demon nor as tall and imposing as a Giant Strength Demon.

He looked very strange, and at this moment, after hearing the questions from his clansmen, he twisted his neck and coldly said, "Since that's the case, it seems that our Forbidden Demon Clan has no choice, huh?"

Chapter 1076: The War Begins!_1

"Chief, in our opinion, these humans are just asking for trouble. How dare they mess with the people we've planted there? They're simply courting death."

"Yes, kill them all and leave no trace!"

The corners of the Chief Demon's mouth lifted in a cold sneer, "For so many years, our Forbidden Demon tribe has been lurking in such a small area, and humans were said to have given us this land out of grace. In reality, they just gave us an infertile and undesirable place out of laziness. Our tribe cannot possibly be satisfied with that. Now that our forces have grown, we have every right to take control of this land, and it's time for war."

The Chief Demon calculated, "Now that Bai Chuming is dead, the Human Alliance actually has internal and external problems. The surface harmony is just an illusion. It's most appropriate for us to make a move at this time."

"Chief, you're right. I said it before, there's no need for spies or anything like that – with our strength, we can completely crush them!"

"Yes, the Human Alliance has only five Great Emperors. We have nothing to fear!"

"The original purpose of planting spies was just to be cautious. But now that our cover has been blown, there is no need to hide anything. Announce my order to have all our people prepare, and spread the news. It's time to launch our attack on the first human gathering point and give them a taste of our power!" ordered the Chief Demon.

...

Thus, in a short span of ten days, the Forbidden Demon Tribe gathered a large number of troops and suddenly launched a surprise attack, igniting the war at the first human gathering point.

The start of the war came almost instantly.

The humans were caught completely off guard. They didn't expect the Forbidden Demon Tribe to attack so suddenly, resulting in heavy casualties. It posed a significant problem for the humans.

A few Great Emperors gathered the Alliance to replenish their forces quickly. However, the first gathering point was still devastated and quickly occupied by the Forbidden Demon Tribe. The humans had no choice but to declare their first battle a failure and withdraw to the second battle line.

At the same time, Yang Chen arrived in Long Wind Main City.

Yang Chen didn't know that the war had already started; he didn't expect it to happen so quickly, nor did he expect the sudden onslaught of the Forbidden Demon Tribe.

If he had known, he wouldn't have come to Long Wind Main City at such a critical moment.

However, Yang Chen knew nothing about this, and when he arrived in Long Wind Main City, his mind was focused on the Trial Tower.

"It seems that Long Wind Main City has also sent many people to join the Alliance, constantly guarding the Donghuang Sect. Now, there aren't many powerful individuals left in Long Wind Main City. Most of them are dispensable in the face of war."

With this thought, Yang Chen sighed bitterly.

That's just how war is.

Once a fight breaks out, everyone has to contribute their strength. Currently, only some forces have accepted the invitation of the Dao Discussion Conference to join the Alliance. When the actual battle starts, all the large and small forces in the Western 42 Regions will have to invest in the war to win it.

“I wonder how things are going over there.” Yang Chen muttered, then asked a few questions.

The location for registering for the Trial Tower remained the same. However, Lin Steward, who had previously managed the Trial Tower, had been replaced due to a change of power. Hence, the mansion was renamed from Lin Mansion to Huang Mansion.

Now the manager is obviously a man with the surname Huang.

“What do you want, sir? This area belongs to Huang Mansion; you can’t just wander around!” Several gatekeepers berated him.

Seeing this, Yang Chen casually revealed his Qi, which caused the gatekeepers to shudder in awe and fear.

“Such a powerful Qi...”

The gatekeepers, though somewhat experienced, were pale and terrified by Yang Chen’s Qi. One of them shouted, “I’ve felt the pressure of a True Martial Realm senior before, and it doesn’t even compare to a tenth of what this person has... this person has an extraordinary background! I apologize for my ignorance and any offense I may have caused.”

Yang Chen didn’t trouble the gatekeepers further and said, “I want to meet the master of Huang Mansion to discuss the Trial Tower. I hope you can accommodate my request.”

“We’ll go find Steward Huang right away. Please wait for a moment, sir.” Fearing for their lives, the gatekeepers scrambled to inform their master.

When Steward Huang heard that a powerful individual had arrived at the mansion, he was immediately alarmed. In Long Wind Main City, there were hardly any Earth Martial Realm masters left since most had been invited to the Dao Discussion Conference.

Initially, he thought he would be able to enjoy peaceful days, but unfortunately, it didn't last long before something unexpected happened.

When he came out and saw Yang Chen clearly, the newly-instated Trial Tower deacon was astonished. With a friendly demeanor, he said, "It turns out to be Master Yang. I apologize for not being able to welcome you earlier."

"You recognize me?" Yang Chen smiled.

"I've seen your portrait, Master Yang. You're extraordinarily talented, and I'll never forget the impression you made upon me," Steward Huang flattered, showcasing his skillful ability to ingratiate himself. Even Yang Chen couldn't help but laugh.

"All right, Steward Huang. You don't need to flatter me. I want to use the Trial Tower, and I believe you understand the rules. I have an agreement with the instructing deacon of Long Wind Main City that I can use the Trial Tower for free. You should know this, right?" Yang Chen said.

"I do, of course." Steward Huang readily led Yang Chen to the Trial Tower.

Yang Chen followed Steward Huang to the Trial Tower.

The appearance of the Trial Tower in Long Wind Main City remained the same. This time, Yang Chen planned to start his challenge from the Earth Martial Realm's Trial Tower. As for how many levels he could reach, he was uncertain.

"I'll do my best." Yang Chen thought to himself.

With that thought, he didn't waste any more time and stepped into the Trial Tower.

Watching Yang Chen disappear, Steward Huang muttered, "Rumor has it that Master Yang can conquer the Trial Tower as easily as drinking water. He has even reached the twentieth layer of the True Martial Realm Trial Tower. I wonder how many layers he can reach in the Earth Martial Realm Trial Tower..."

Chapter 1077: Eighth Layer of Earthly Martial Realm!_1

As Yang Chen entered the trial tower, he saw his enemy.

The enemy in the Earth Martial Realm Trial Tower was a shining crystal monster. This crystal monster was quite mysterious, no one knew how it was made or what principle it was formed upon.

During the battle, Yang Chen realized the power of this crystal monster. Not only was its defense formidable, but it was also nearly perfect in all other aspects. This made Yang Chen feel the extreme difficulty of the Earth Martial Realm Trial Tower.

The difficulty of the Earth Martial Realm Trial Tower could not be compared to that of the True Martial Realm Trial Tower.

However, it was still hard to defeat him.

Yang Chen used various methods and quickly passed the first level of the trial tower. Following that, the second, third, and fourth levels did not pose any trouble or damage to him.

It was not until the fifth level that the difficulty began to increase.

However, Yang Chen still had numerous methods, and he managed to break through to the thirteenth level all at once.

By the time he reached the thirteenth level, Yang Chen's strength had increased dramatically from the third stage of the Earth Martial Realm to the sixth stage.

This was not the end, as Yang Chen used all the spiritual talismans he had refined along the way to eventually pass the fourteenth level.

When he reached the fifteenth level, none of his methods were effective, and he eventually had no choice but to use his God-slaying Spear.

With the God-slaying Spear in hand, he was invincible!

With Yang Chen's skills, he could now control the power of the God-slaying Spear more effectively and not be drained of his essence blood by a single shot. He broke through two levels at once, only stopping at the seventeenth level when he was completely exhausted and had no strength to continue. He withdrew the God-slaying Spear and stopped attempting to break through.

Stopping at the seventeenth level, his achievements were quite rich. Amazingly, Yang Chen used the thick Heaven and Earth energy to reach the seventh stage of the Earth Martial Realm all at once!

Happy with his progress, Yang Chen knew the stronger he grew, the better his chances of survival in the upcoming war.

At the same time, the Purple-eyed Demon Monkey, who had felt Yang Chen's strength increase, couldn't help but marvel.

He had once made a bet with Yang Chen, and he never expected Yang Chen to reach the seventh stage of the Earth Martial Realm in such short time. The monkey was familiar with the trial tower, as the Demon Beast Clan had a similar mechanism with the same purpose of cultivating.

However, it was almost impossible for an ordinary person to reach such a high level, and yet Yang Chen did it by starting from the third stage of the Earth Martial Realm and breaking through all the way to the seventeenth level.

Wouldn't Yang Chen be able to reach even higher levels if he reached the peak of the Earth Martial Realm and came back well-prepared?

After completing the trial tower, Yang Chen left the tower.

As he stepped out, he saw a huge crowd that had gathered around, obviously shocked by his conquering seventeen levels.

“The seventeenth level of the Earth Martial Realm Trial Tower, am I seeing this right?”

“If it were the seventeenth level of the Yuan Martial Realm, I would still be able to accept it, but the seventeenth level of the Earth Martial Realm Trial Tower, are you kidding me?”

“Who is this guy?”

“How could you not know him? He is the famous Demon-slaying Hero, Yang Xilin, the head of Luosheng Gate! You really don’t know what you’re missing!”

Seeing the crowded gathering and most of them recognizing him, Yang Chen shook his head helplessly.

He turned to look at Huang, the steward who was nearby, and after a brief thought, called, “Steward Huang, come here.”

After witnessing Yang Chen’s prowess, Huang dared not have any doubts or thoughts about him. He immediately scurried over and said with great courtesy, “Master Yang, what do you need?”

Yang Chen replied, “After completing the trial tower, my strength has improved significantly. I want to seclude myself in Changfeng City for a few days to consolidate my current strength. During this time, if there are any major events, I’ll have to trouble Steward Huang to report them to me in time.” After saying this, Yang Chen took out a storage bag full of spirit stones and handed it to Huang.

Upon hearing this, Huang couldn’t help but open the storage bag and take a look.

As soon as he saw what was inside, Huang immediately became excited. Yang Chen was truly generous!

He said promptly, “No problem, Master Yang, feel free to retreat. If there’s any important news, I’ll report it to you immediately! How about I arrange a suitable residence for you now?”

“Alright, that sounds good.” Huang agreed.

And so, with Huang’s help, Yang Chen settled down temporarily in Changfeng City.

This time of seclusion to consolidate his realm was necessary, as the Earth Martial Realm was different from the True Martial Realm. At this stage, every step forward was extremely difficult, and careless handling could lead to a decline in one’s realm.

Yang Chen dared not be careless and immediately began to consolidate his realm. When his realm was almost stable, he took out the Linglong Dream Mirror and entered the dream to refine his state of mind.

The reason for this was his concern that his state of mind was insufficient. He possessed the Earth Jade Pill, which could help him break through to the eighth stage of the Earth Martial Realm at any time. If his state of mind was not enough, even with the Earth Jade Pill, he wouldn’t dare to consume it!

This round of mind-refining took more than ten days.

During these ten days, the Forbidden Demon Race and the Human Race had been fighting for several days, with heavy casualties on both sides. Even Emperor-level experts had taken action at this point, fighting in the high sky to a point where it was dark and chaotic.

In order to determine the outcome more appropriately, the battlefield was divided into five parts during these ten-plus days. The human race and the Forbidden Demon Race fought in these five battlefields.

Regrettably, it was unknown where they had failed, but after fierce battles, the humans were defeated once again. The second battle line, the Black Stone City, was breached, and the humans had to retreat to the third battle line.

Meanwhile, Yang Chen had already emerged from the Linglong Dream Mirror. After his state of mind had been refined, it was now almost stable, and he could consume the Earth Jade Pill to break through his realm.

“With this Earth Jade Pill, my strength can be increased to the eighth stage of the Earth Martial Realm. At that time, even if I face a Heavenly Martial Realm expert, I may not be able to win, but escaping would not be an issue!” Yang Chen thought, war was imminent, and his strength had to be upgraded.

As soon as this thought settled, he consumed the pill and began to quickly refine it.

Time passed again, and one day later...

Yang Chen spent an entire day refining it. One day later, his realm settled down, and he had progressed steadily from the seventh stage of the Earth Martial Realm to the eighth stage.

A smile appeared on Yang Chen’s face after reaching the eighth stage of the Earth Martial Realm!

He slightly consolidated his realm, completely stabilizing his level as an eighth-stage Earth Martial Realm practitioner, then took out the Reincarnation Future Sutra given to him by the Emperor and began to read it.

Chapter 1078: Rushing to the Battlefield!_1

Upon this glance, Yang Chen’s expression instantly became richer.

“Goodness, this Reincarnation Future Sutra is simply a divine treasure,” Yang Chen exclaimed in amazement, “Just as Emperor RushiNeng said, the first half is a supreme treasure for body cultivation, and the latter half possesses numerous divine uses. It’s just a pity that I can’t comprehend this latter half at the moment. But even the first half alone is enough to bring me great benefits!”

Yang Chen took a deep breath, and there was a reason for his excitement.

It must be known that his Tai Chu Divine Body has always wanted to cultivate to the Divine Body realm but couldn’t. Even though he often uses it and frequently refines it with materials, progressing in body cultivation has always been difficult.

The Tai Chu Divine Body has also remained stuck in front of the Divine Body realm, unable to reach it.

Yang Chen always felt that something was missing, but he didn't know precisely what it was.

Without achieving perfection, his Tai Chu Divine Body couldn't merge with the Indestructible Vajra Bead to cultivate the Primordial Indestructible Divine Body.

Yang Chen had no clue about this and could only move forward gradually, comforting himself not to rush for success.

But now, with the Reincarnation Future Sutra, he felt as if he saw hope.

This was because the Reincarnation Future Sutra was also a body cultivation technique, and its profoundness in body cultivation even surpassed that of the Tai Chu Divine Body. Combined with cultivation, Yang Chen could first accomplish the Tai Chu Divine Body and then contemplate the profound aspects of the Reincarnation Future Sutra.

"It's just a pity that with my current strength, I can't see the profoundness of the latter half of the Reincarnation Future Sutra. How strange," Yang Chen whispered to himself.

Just as he was puzzled, suddenly, there was a knock on the door outside.

Yang Chen couldn't help but be surprised, and when his soul probed out, he found out that the person knocking at the door was Steward Huang.

"I had arranged for Steward Huang earlier, so if there's any significant news, he would immediately inform me. If he doesn't have any matters, he wouldn't knock on the door like this. I think something must have happened, so I'd better go out and check," Yang Chen withdrew the Reincarnation Future Sutra, then pushed open the door.

Seeing Yang Chen come out, Steward Huang's anxious expression calmed down, "Master Yang, you're finally out."

“Steward Huang, I must have told you not to disturb me if there’s nothing important. You coming to find me this time must mean something serious is happening,” Yang Chen said.

How could Steward Huang dare to conceal anything? He quickly replied anxiously, “Master Yang, you really have a keen insight into things. Yes, there indeed is an urgent matter. You... do you know that the Prohibition Demon Clan has already started a war with us humans!”

“What? When did this happen?” Yang Chen’s face suddenly changed.

Steward Huang’s expression was bitter, “Master Yang, after all, there is some distance between us and the frontline battlefield. So when the news came, it had been delayed for several days. The war began at least almost a month ago!”

“What? It’s been that long?” Yang Chen took a deep breath, unexpectedly, the Prohibition Demon Clan attacked so suddenly. Yang Chen couldn’t help but ask, “How is the war on the frontline now, Steward Huang? Tell me everything.”

Steward Huang didn’t dare to delay any longer and hurriedly said, “Master Yang, to be honest, our alliance’s situation doesn’t look good. Firstly, the sudden attack from the Prohibition Demon Clan caught our alliance off guard, forcing us to retreat to the second line. Who would have thought that the overall strength of this Prohibition Demon Clan was even stronger than our human race? After the great war, our alliance suffered heavy losses and has already retreated to the third battle line.”

“What about the Great Emperor powerhouses? Didn’t they take action?” Yang Chen frowned.

“That... Master Yang, it’s not that the Great Emperor powerhouses didn’t take action. In fact, several emperors had already made their moves, but it was useless. The Prohibition Demon Clan also has Emperor-level strong, and after a great battle, it’s said that Emperor Bai Wei and Emperor Bai Zang were both injured due to a conspiracy, and they’re currently injured.”

Yang Chen’s heart sank.

Both emperors injured?

It's undeniable that these emperors were the calming force for the alliance. As long as there were several Great Emperors present, they could still manage even if they lost in the battle. But now that even the Emperor-level powerhouses were injured, the situation looked grim.

"Continue," Yang Chen's expression turned cold.

Steward Huang bitterly smiled and said, "Now the alliance is recruiting soldiers on a large scale, and all forces are sending troops to the frontline, hoping to block the Prohibition Demon Clan's offense. At present, there's an unwritten rule between the Demon Tribe and humans in their battles."

"What rule?" Yang Chen asked.

"As both parties considered that it would do no good for higher-ranking individuals to indiscriminately kill lower-ranking enemies, they divided the battlefield into five. There is one battlefield for the Origin Martial Realm, one for the True Martial Realm, one for the Earth Martial Realm, and so on. As for the emperor level, there is a separate battlefield."

"And the Prohibition Demon Clan, with their cunning and insidious nature, don't plan to break the rules?" Yang Chen curiously asked.

Steward Huang laughed painfully, "That shouldn't happen. I think the Prohibition Demon Clan wouldn't dare to break the rules so easily. If their higher-ranking members of the Demon Tribe kill our lower-ranked martial artists and indiscriminately enter the battlefield that doesn't match their strength, then our human martial artists can do the same. At that time, when all the lower-ranking members are dead, it would not benefit either of the two sides. So everyone actively abides by the rules."

"So, how is the situation on the five battlefields?" Yang Chen asked.

Steward Huang said bitterly, "Actually, comparing purely, our humans are slightly losing in the Origin Martial Realm battlefield. However, overall, we can still hold on. As for the True Martial Realm, we started evenly matched, but as more and more reinforcements arrived from the rear, it's estimated that we've already gained an advantage. As for the Sky Martial realm powerhouses, you know, at this level, it's temporarily impossible to tell who's winning or losing. As for the realms above it, it's the same with the several emperors coming and going. The problem lies in the Earth Martial Realm battlefield..."

Yang Chen listened to Steward Huang's opinions without interrupting.

Although Steward Huang's strength wasn't that strong, his insight was quite good. Indeed, it was almost impossible to tell the outcome of the battles in the Sky Martial Realm and at the Emperor level in a short period.

It's just the Earth Martial Realm battlefield.

"What's wrong with the Earth Martial Realm battlefield?" Yang Chen asked.

"In the Earth Martial Realm battlefield, we humans have been in a one-sided losing situation. We don't know what method the Prohibition Demon Clan used to cause our human Earth Martial Realm warriors to collapse one after another. The loss of the second battle line is directly related to this. The Earth Martial Realm battlefield has been completely breached, rendering it impossible to fight. The situation is just unknown since the reinforcements from all sides have arrived. If the third battle line is also lost, then it will be terrible," Steward Huang paced back and forth anxiously.

He didn't have any thoughts of joining the battlefield, but he was afraid that the Prohibition Demon Clan would come here, and he would be in trouble.

Yang Chen listened to Steward Huang's words in his ears, nodded, and said, "Steward Huang, there's no time to lose. I'll take my leave first."

"Master Yang, what are you..." Steward Huang didn't know Yang Chen's intentions.

"To the battlefield!" Yang Chen's voice was cold, saying lightly.

Chapter 1079: Tasting Hardship_1

As a member of the human race, it was only right for him to return now that the alliance was in trouble.

Moreover, with his improved strength, he could better contribute to the alliance, which made it even more necessary for him to go back.

So, along the way, Yang Chen fully spread his wings and hurriedly headed back, arriving in the territory of the Donghuang Sect in less than half a month.

By the time he returned to the Donghuang Sect, the trading fair had already disappeared, and there were fewer people around. It was clear that the martial artists from all directions had already gone to the battlefield.

Yang Chen took a deep breath, let out his soul, and found that there were hardly any Heaven Martial Realm or Earth Martial Realm strong people in the rear, as most of them had already left. Even if there were some left, it was probably not many.

“I need to go to the battlefield, but first, I have to return to the Donghuang Sect.” Yang Chen’s figure descended, showed his identity, and entered the Donghuang Sect.

Once inside, Yang Chen’s soul spread out to find some old acquaintances. In doing so, his soul immediately locked onto the Jinling Saintess.

“Miss Ruan is still in the Donghuang Sect,” Yang Chen exclaimed in surprise.

It made sense. Ruan Jinling was just a woman with weak strength, so her presence on the battlefield would be meaningless. Most likely, she was left behind to help with auxiliary duties by the alliance.

If he wanted to go to the battlefield, finding Ruan Jinling was the most appropriate choice.

With this thought, Yang Chen immediately flew to the mountain peak where Ruan Jinling was.

“Who is ahead? This is the Golden Crow Peak where the Holy Maiden stays. She is very busy, so idle people leave quickly. Otherwise, don’t blame us for being impolite!” A few female attendants scolded.

Yang Chen heard this and said loudly, “My name is Yang Xilin. I just returned from Long Wind Main City and would like to see Miss Ruan!”

“Master Yang?”

“It turns out it’s Master Yang. The Holy Maiden values Master Yang greatly...hurry, hurry and report this.”

Yang Chen was quite familiar with these female disciples and knew Ruan Jinling’s feelings for him. They did not dare to hesitate and quickly went back to report.

Although Ruan Jinling was working on security matters at the rear, she was far from idle. She was busy handling a wide range of tasks herself.

Now, several disciples rushed in with impatience, which puzzled Ruan Jinling, “What’s the meaning of your panic?”

“Holy Maiden, Master Yang...he’s back from Long Wind Main City...” the female disciples said.

“What? Young Master Yang!” The usually calm heart of the Jinling Saintess suddenly rippled.

Her pretty face changed color, and she said, “Why haven’t you invited Young Master Yang in yet? He is an honored guest!”

Hearing Ruan Jinling’s instruction, the female disciples immediately invited Yang Chen to enter the peak and brought him in front of Ruan Jinling.

Ruan Jinling had not seen Yang Chen for a while. When she saw him, she couldn’t help but choke up, with ten thousand words wanting to burst out. She wanted to talk about her grievances and the sadness in her heart...

But after thinking about it, she realized that he wouldn’t know about her troubles.

He was unaware of her jealousy over Wang Yueru or her crying tears. And now, if she were to blabber, she might scare Yang Chen. Fortunately, the Wang Yueru incident had been resolved, and considering that Yang Chen had done everything to actually use Wang Yueru against her, Ruan Jinling felt both happy and worried, not even understanding her own emotions anymore.

To cover up her feelings, she quickly adjusted her emotions and said, "Young Master Yang, it's been a long time!"

"Miss Ruan, it's been a long time!" Yang Chen said amiably. "When I heard the war had started, I rushed back from Long Wind Main City. I wonder how the battle has been during this time? I hope Miss Ruan can give me a detailed explanation."

Hearing Yang Chen's question, Ruan Jinling naturally had no reason to conceal it. She took a light breath, her mood not very good, and said, "Young Master Yang, the current situation in the war is extremely unfavorable for us."

"How so?" Yang Chen's heart clenched, and he continued to ask.

With this question, he learned a lot.

Actually, the current situation in the war was not much different from what Steward Huang had said.

There was not much difference between the battlefields of Origin Martial Realm and True Martial Realm. Even if there was a problem, it would not hurt the bones and muscles in an instant. That's because even if one side truly defeated the other and penetrated deep into enemy territory, what could they do? As long as they left a few masters at home, they could easily resolve the situation.

Therefore, almost no one paid attention to the battlefields of the Origin Martial Realm and the True Martial Realm.

The key lay in the battlefields above Earth Martial Realm.

Once a side loses in one of these battlefields, the loss would be disastrous.

Thus, both the human race and the Prohibition Demon Clan focused most of their efforts on the Heaven Martial Realm and Earth Martial Realm battlefields.

As for the Emperor-Level battlefield, it was actually just a battle between the five human Great Emperors and the seven Demon Emperors of the Prohibition Demon Clan.

When Yang Chen learned that there were seven Demon Emperors in the Prohibition Demon Clan, he was equally astonished. He had no idea that the Prohibition Demon Clan had such formidable strength.

What's more, before that, there were reportedly eight Demon Emperors in the Prohibition Demon Clan.

After a fierce battle, Bai Wei and Emperor Bai Zang were both injured, causing the morale of the people to fall into a trough, and no one could muster any enthusiasm in any of the battlefields. At this critical moment, Bai Yudi personally took action and actually killed a Demon Emperor directly, raising the morale of the humans to its peak.

As a result, the number of Demon Emperors in the Prohibition Demon Clan was reduced from eight to seven.

It must be said that the invincible reputation of Bai Yudi was not undeserved. Among the five emperors, Emperor Shi Neng had Buddha-like powers, so he could gain an upper hand in dealing with Demon Emperors, but only slightly, and could not manage to fight two opponents alone.

Meanwhile, Emperor Jue Ming, Bai Wei, and Bai Zang were slightly inferior in single combat against Demon Emperor-level strong people.

Only Bai Yudi could fight against three Demon Emperors with his own power, which allowed humans to never fall short in the competition between Emperor-level strong people.

As for the Sky Martial Realm battlefield, although both sides had invested a lot of efforts, they knew that a real big fight would mean a complete defeat for the losing side. So both sides were just skirmishing and mutually probing on this battlefield, not taking it seriously.

So the fiercest fight took place on the Earth Martial Realm battlefield.

If one side failed in the Earth Martial Realm battlefield, it would result in heavy losses, but it would not be a complete disaster. Unfortunately, the light of victory did not favor the humans, as they had been in a state of constant collapse in the Earth Martial Realm battlefield, already retreating to the third battle line and still not improving.

Yang Chen originally thought that the reinforcements from many Earth Martial Realms in the rear would improve the situation, but after asking Jinling Saintess, he found that the situation had hardly changed. Moreover, if there were no changes soon, they might lose the third battle line as well.

“That’s how it is. The Giant Strength Demons cultivated by the Prohibition Demon Clan don’t have much effect in the Sky Martial Realm stage, but they can firmly suppress the martial artists of the Earth Martial Realm stage. This has caused great suffering for the human race!” Jinling Saintess clenched her shell teeth.

Chapter 1080: Squad Leader Position_1

“Giant Strength Demon...” Upon hearing this, Yang Chen couldn’t help but feel relieved.

It was true that he had once fought against the Giant Strength Demon and knew how powerful it was. If placed in the Heaven Martial Realm, with their understanding of the principles of space, they could completely dissolve the Giant Strength Demon’s divine powers. They could even gain an upper hand against the Giant Strength Demon because it had endless strength, but they couldn’t touch the powerful ones of the Heaven Martial Realm.

However, when placed in the Earth Martial Realm, the situation was completely different.

“Moreover, beyond the Giant Strength Demon, the Prohibition Demon Clan is clearly prepared. On the Earth Martial Realm battlefield, they have dominated over our humans, causing humans to suffer greatly. Although emergency measures have been taken, the Prohibition Demon Clan has prepared more, and our humans have not gained any advantage!” Jinling Saintess sighed and lamented when talking about the frontline war situation.

Upon hearing this, Yang Chen frowned and said, “Miss Ruan, I came here to see you today, to go to the battlefield and make a contribution to our alliance.”

Ruan Jinling was stunned by these words.

She had no objection to others participating in the battlefield, and would only admire their courage. But now Yang Chen was going to the battlefield, and she had more concerns and worries in her heart!

She worried about Yang Chen's safety and life.

With this in mind, Ruan Jinling couldn't help but say, "Young Master Yang, you've just returned from a long journey, why not rest for a few days? After all, everything is already predetermined, and it doesn't make a difference taking a few more days..."

"Miss Ruan, why do you say that? I am also a member of mankind. Even if the alliance has one more or one less of me, it doesn't matter, I still want to fight." Yang Chen said solemnly.

He understood Ruan Jinling's intentions.

But if everyone thought like that, the battle with the Prohibition Demon Tribe would be lost without even fighting.

It is the responsibility of every individual to contribute to the prosperity of their race, and no one should harbor a lucky mindset.

Seeing Yang Chen like this, Ruan Jinling realized that she was wrong. She sighed softly and said, "Young Master Yang, it was my shortsightedness. Since you want to go, I will take you to the battlefield now. With your strength, I believe that you will be a great asset on the Earth Martial Realm battlefield."

"It's not about being an asset, but rather about contributing more strength to the alliance." Yang Chen sighed softly.

Without much negotiation, Ruan Jinling, accompanied by several maidservants, personally led Yang Chen to the frontline battlefield.

Although it was called the frontline, it was actually not far from the Donghuang Sect area.

Humans were now firmly defending the third battle line, followed by the fourth battle line. If they retreated any further, it would reach the area of the Donghuang Sect. Therefore, the third battle line must not be further retreated, as advancing even a single step further would threaten the main camp of the Donghuang Sect.

If the Donghuang Sect falls, regardless of the casualties, humans would have been defeated and their morale severely damaged. On the other hand, the Prohibition Demon Clan's fighting spirit would become increasingly stronger after each battle.

It was just two days from the Donghuang Sect to the third battle line.

When they arrived at the third battle line, Yang Chen could clearly see the situation. The battle was intense, with countless fires and conflicts. Every moment, humans and demons died, and the Prohibition Demon Tribe fought fiercely with the humans. The scene was extremely shocking.

Even Yang Chen took a deep breath when he saw this.

He could imagine the war, but he didn't expect that such a level of war would be like this. And in ancient times, what was it like when humans and demonic beasts fought on a large scale covering several regions without being spared?

The battle between the Prohibition Demon Clan and humans now only involved the Donghuang Sect area. What about the overall battle between demonic beasts and humans back then?

It was hard to imagine.

The more Yang Chen felt this way, the more he wanted to find out what the Fire Essence Beast Clan had done exactly. He had to find a way to stop it. It was a pity that his strength wasn't enough for now...

“Young Master Yang, let me take you to the Earth Martial Realm battlefield to find the Commander there!” Ruan Jinling said softly.

“Thank you, Miss Ruan.” Yang Chen replied.

He joined the battlefield late, and there were no reinforcements in the past two days, so he couldn't join as well. So he needed Jinling Saintess' help to get on the battlefield.

Under Ruan Jinling's guidance, Yang Chen arrived at the main camp of the Earth Martial Realm battlefield.

The commanders of the entire Earth Martial Realm battlefield were gathered in the main camp. Each of their strengths reached the Half-step Heavenly Martial Realm. They were the best under the Heavenly Martial Realm, and it wasn't an exaggeration to say they were second to none!

Now, in the main camp, these people were discussing earnestly.

Suddenly.

“Dragon Commander, Jinling Saintess brings Yang Xilin to see you!” An Earth Martial Realm warrior reported.

Dragon Commander was a tall, burly man dressed in armor, having a great background in the Huangdao Sect and extraordinary strength. He was the one responsible for managing the Earth Martial Realm battlefield, as the commander of thousands of troops, with the whole Earth Martial Realm battlefield under his command.

At this moment, when Dragon Commander heard that Jinling Saintess was coming, he raised his eyebrows and said, “Oh? Saintess and Master Yang, please let them in quickly.”

After getting permission, Ruan Jinling and Yang Chen entered the main camp.

Upon entering, Yang Chen first looked around, seeing the people in this area all at the strength level of Half-step Heavenly Martial Realm. However, he couldn't evaluate anything because their abilities might not be the same. They probably couldn't be compared with ordinary Half-step Heavenly Martial Realm warriors.

Otherwise, how could they take charge of a section of the battlefield?

Next, Yang Chen turned his gaze to the burly man sitting in the center, knowing that he was the commander of the entire battlefield.

"Donghuang Sect's Saintess pays her respects to Dragon Commander." Ruan Jinling said softly.

Yang Chen, seeing this, naturally didn't neglect it. He said, "Greetings, Dragon Commander!"

Upon careful observation, it could be seen that Dragon Commander's expression was friendly when he looked at Ruan Jinling, but it changed to another look when he saw Yang Chen.

However, Dragon Commander quickly regained his composure, and slowly said, "Saintess, don't be polite. What is your intention in bringing Yang Xilin with you to the battlefield?"

"It's like this, Young Master Yang just returned from Long Wind Main City, and when he heard about the tense battle situation, he rushed over to contribute his strength. Dragon Commander, I hope you can arrange a position for Young Master Yang, and give him a great opportunity to perform!" Ruan Jinling laughed.

Hearing this, Dragon Commander glanced at Yang Chen, full of disdain in his heart. Then, he turned his eyes and said coldly, "Well, since you've asked, I'll give Master Yang a chance and let him take up the position of Squad Leader, in charge of ten Earth Martial Realm warriors, patrolling the southeast area!"

Hearing these words, Yang Chen's expression became somewhat strange. It wasn't that he looked down on the position of Squad Leader, but he felt that Dragon Commander seemed to be deliberately targeting him.
