Chapter 1091: Yang Chen's Display of Power!_1

"Human, what kind of techniques are you using?" The Giant Strength Demon roared.

Yang Chen heard the words and sneered, "Techniques that can subdue you!"

As soon as the words fell, Yang Chen controlled the Blazing Sky Sacred Fire again. The Giant Strength Demon was completely enraged, and when it roared out, it faced Yang Chen's Blazing Sky Sacred Fire, shouting, "Human, you've angered me, go to hell!"

Of course, the Giant Strength Demon's techniques couldn't simply be swinging fists and kicks. When Yang Chen's Blazing Sky Sacred Fire came again, the Giant Strength Demon immediately punched the air.

In an instant, a storm swept up. It directly formed a storm connecting dozens of feet, and in a flash, the original Blazing Sky Sacred Fire aimed at the Giant Strength Demon was gathered together.

This is the Giant Strength Demon's usual method: using brute force to strike the air, causing a storm to be born. To achieve this, only the infinitely powerful Forbidden Demon Clan of Giant Strength Demons could do it.

Next, the Giant Strength Demon stomped fiercely, and in an instant, the ground shook. Its power was even stronger than Yang Chen's Mountain Breaking Style, directly spreading out and causing Yang Chen to retreat dozens of steps, to get away from the center of the power.

The Giant Strength Demon grew more intense as it fought, using the storm technique to suppress Yang Chen's Blazing Sky Sacred Fire, and with one step forced Yang Chen back. It immediately rushed over, "Human, die for me."

"Hmph, Giant Strength Demon, do you think my flames are just that weak? As for me, as long as my True Qi doesn't disappear, the Strange Fire is endless!" Yang Chen waved his hand in an instant.

Following that, the Blazing Fire Spirit Brush was born.

As soon as the brush appeared, the ink naturally descended quickly.

With the brush and ink coming out together, a large amount of Blazing Sky Sacred Fire was quickly ignited and sent out. This time, both power and speed were much faster than at the beginning. The Giant Strength Demon stared in shock.

The initial Blazing Sky Sacred Fire was in a wide range of formations; now, it was clustered densely in a small range, filled with astonishing numbers.

It was even more terrifying because the smaller range made the Blazing Sky Sacred Fire stronger, and with the increased number, the Giant Strength Demon simply didn't know what to do.

Crackle...

Pop, pop, pop.

The large amount of Blazing Sky Sacred Fire struck the Giant Strength Demon's body, causing it to roar in pain, and its arms flailed aimlessly, trying to get rid of the pain.

Yang Chen seized the opportunity of the Giant Strength Demon's immense pain, waved his hand, and shouted, "Twenty-four Thunder Annihilation."

As the words fell, a series of Heavenly Thunders fell at an extremely fast speed, striking the Giant Strength Demon's dual horns!

His target was the Giant Strength Demon's dual horns.

Undoubtedly, the Twenty-four Thunder Annihilation was a force of Sky Thunder, descending from the sky, which was most suitable for dealing with the Giant Strength Demon's dual horns.

Twenty-four thunders fell instantly, each representing extremely great power. When all the twenty-four thunders had fallen, the dual horns of the Giant Strength Demon broke with a series of cracks!

“Good guy.” When Yang Chen saw the Giant Strength Demon’s dual horns break, he wasn’t surprised. However, he was amazed that the Giant Strength Demon had taken a full Twenty-four Thunder Annihilation without sustaining any damage to its body.

Indeed, to deal with this Giant Strength Demon, one must start with its dual horns.

Bang!

Boom...

The Giant Strength Demon’s body heavily fell to the ground, a side effect of its horns breaking off. It had no more strength to fight, it fell to the ground and fainted. Of course, the dual horns of this Forbidden Demon would definitely grow back, but the time it took for them to grow would be enough for him to make some moves.

“Now I can go help the others.” Yang Chen clapped his hands, having dealt with the Giant Strength Demon, he planned to help the other team members.

No one had noticed him dealing with the Giant Strength Demon, mainly because neither the humans nor the Prohibition Demon Clan thought about it. Nobody believed Yang Chen could handle the Giant Strength Demon alone, let alone so quickly!

And so swiftly.

At this very moment, the situation of the ten team members was extremely dire. They were on the losing side as a whole, some even gravely injured, at risk of being defeated and killed at any moment.

However, Yang Chen didn’t rush to help just yet; he knew it wasn’t the time. He could save his teammate at any moment, but he was waiting until they were truly in a life-threatening situation.

Now, it was imperative to take care of the last remaining Forbidden Demon at the peak of the Earth Martial Realm.

Once this Forbidden Demon at the peak of the Earth Martial Realm was killed, things would become much simpler.

“This peak Earth Martial Realm Forbidden Demon is the Red Flame Demon, renowned for using fire. Its main technique is the Red Flame Demon Fire. Unlike human’s Three True Flames, it even somewhat restrains human’s Three True Flames. Since that’s the case, taste my Blazing Sky Sacred Fire!”

With this in mind, Yang Chen quickly took aim and launched a sneak attack on the Red Flame Demon.

The opponent of the Red Flame Demon was Han Cai, the highest realm member of Yang Chen’s team. Han Cai had already been struggling against the Red Flame Demon, and his defeat was only a matter of time. He was barely hanging on by his willpower alone.

He didn’t even know what the outcome would be and was even prepared to die. However, at this very moment, the Red Flame Demon suddenly turned around like a frightened bird and hastily summoned the Red Flame Demon Fire!

Han Cai couldn’t help but feel terrified as he was rendered powerless by this very Red Flame Demon Fire. However, it seemed the Red Flame Demon Fire had met its match. When it faced the strange flames that suddenly attacked it, it didn’t have the upper hand at all.

Furthermore, the Red Flame Demon Fire was quickly devoured as if it were food for these strange flames, disappearing without a trace.

“No, this can’t be. How could our captain lose to you? What kind of fire is this!” The Red Flame Demon screamed in fear.

The one who initiated the sneak attack was indeed Yang Chen. At this moment, he didn’t pay any heed to it; he spread out his Blazing Sky Sacred Fire, enveloping the already powerless Red Flame Demon.

It was a tragedy for the Red Flame Demon to meet him!

His Blazing Sky Sacred Fire could restrain the Forbidden Demons, but it wasn't an absolute hard counter. However, when it came to restraining the Red Flame Demon, it was an absolute hard counter. With this fire present, even if there were ten Red Flame Demons bordering the Heavenly Martial Realm, he could take care of them all at once.

"Die!" Yang Chen shouted.

The Red Flame Demon still tried to struggle and resist, but in front of the Blazing Sky Sacred Fire, it was quickly burned to ashes...

With his mouth agape, Han Cai watched everything in astonishment, his sweat dripping profusely. He looked at Yang Chen and said incredulously, "Captain, have you already dealt with the Giant Strength Demon?"

Yang Chen grinned, "You could say that!"

Han Cai's heart skipped a beat.

This...

Yang Chen had actually defeated the Half-step Heavenly Martial Realm Giant Strength Demon all by himself?

It is important to know that the Demon Tribe had relied on the Giant Strength Demon to gain the upper hand in the Earth Martial Realm battlefield, and no single martial artist had ever managed to defeat a Giant Strength Demon. But Yang Chen, with his Eighth Layer of Earthly Martial Realm strength, had actually done it?

Chapter 1092: One Thing Suppresses Another_1

"Alright, now that we have dealt with all the Forbidden Demons at the peak of the Earth Martial Realm, the next steps will be much easier. Let's quickly help the others by cutting off all the horns of these Forbidden Demons and controlling them!" said Yang Chen.

“Yes, Captain.” Han Cai was now completely speechless and admired Yang Chen to the core. Seeing the Red Flame Demon defeated, he immediately joined forces with Yang Chen to assist the others.

With the real troublemakers dealt with by Yang Chen, the remaining ones were just small minions. Even if they caused some trouble, it wouldn’t amount to much. With Yang Chen’s methods and assistance from Han Cai, it didn’t take long for them to capture all these remaining Forbidden Demons.

By the time they snapped back to reality, all fifteen Forbidden Demons, without exception, had their dual horns chopped off. Only the Red Flame Demon suffered a slightly tragic fate, being burned alive by Yang Chen’s Blazing Sky Sacred Fire.

Yang Chen had no choice but to kill the Red Flame Demon. He wanted to see how advantageous his Blazing Sky Sacred Fire was against the Red Flame Demon. However, he didn’t expect the advantage to be so great that he didn’t even have a chance to withdraw. The Red Flame Demon was burned to ashes by his Blazing Sky Sacred Fire.

Of course, this didn’t change his plans much.

At this moment, Yang Chen and his team members surrounded the remaining fourteen Forbidden Demons with unfriendly expressions, causing the Forbidden Demons to become nervous and worried.

“Captain, your divine powers are unparalleled, and we are truly impressed,” the team members said, genuinely admiring Yang Chen.

Leaving other things aside, anyone with functioning eyes could see that their victory was closely tied to Yang Chen. It could even be said that the top Forbidden Demons were all dealt with by Yang Chen individually. Without him, they might not have achieved such results even if their strength was multiplied by two or three.

It was hard for them to imagine how someone at the Eighth Layer of the Earthly Martial Realm could achieve such feats. However, Yang Chen had indeed done it, defeating even the Giant Strength Demon, who was considered invincible in the Earth Martial Realm Battlefield, with ease!

“Captain, we will definitely follow you wholeheartedly from now on. We only admire you!” A few team members firmly declared, already making up their minds that neither General Yu nor any other commander could sway them.

Yang Chen smiled amiably, “Thank you for your compliments. However, let’s deal with these Forbidden Demons first.”

“Haha, seeing these Forbidden Demons being beaten down without any resistance makes me feel so good. Damn, I can finally have some fun today. I never thought I would have the chance to catch these Forbidden Demons myself.”

“So satisfying, truly satisfying.”

“After this battle, I can die without regrets.”

“Hmph, what are you guys laughing at? We were defeated by this little guy, what does it have to do with you?” Demonic Giant Black Bravery sneered, still showing a sense of defiance.

The “little guy” naturally referred to Yang Chen.

However, Yang Chen’s team members didn’t care about what Hei Yong had to say, as it was the truth.

At this moment, Hei Yong did not give up and said, “Human Kid, just tell us, since you are their captain, this surprise attack should also be your order. What is your intention? Hurry up and speak, our Prohibition Demon Clan will not submit so easily!”

“That’s right!”

“Don’t think that our Forbidden Demons are a cowardly sect. Kill or plunder, do whatever you want!”

Yang Chen watched the Forbidden Demons react this way, but did not speak yet. The eyes of the team members were also on him. It was obvious that they were also curious about what Yang Chen intended to do.

Yang Chen crossed his arms behind his back and slowly said, "It's simple, I want you all to submit to me."

"Submit to you, how?" The Red Shura Demon at the peak of the Earth Martial Realm was the first to speak up. He had a malicious gleam in his rolling eyes, clearly harboring ill intentions.

Yang Chen knew exactly what the Red Shura Demon had in mind and sneered, "How? Simple. As long as you are willing to be subjected to my Servitude Restriction and follow my orders, that'll be enough."

"What, Servitude Restriction?"

"What is that?"

"With this Servitude Restriction, we would have to follow this kid's orders for the rest of our lives. If he controls us, we won't even have a chance to resist." An experienced Forbidden Demons spoke up, causing the rest of them to be even more terrified.

The Red Shura Demon, who was at the peak of the Earth Martial Realm, initially intended to compromise for the time being. But he didn't expect that Yang Chen wouldn't be fooled and actually demanded to place Servitude Restrictions on them.

These Forbidden Demons would never submit willingly. They immediately shouted, "Kid, if you want to put Servitude Restrictions on us, you won't even get through the door!"

"That's right, you're delusional!"

A few Forbidden Demons roared immediately, completely unwilling.

Yang Chen naturally didn't intend to let these Forbidden Demons readily accept his terms, but just waved his hand and then opened the Eight Extremities Flowing River Space, calling out the two Black Mountain Bears, who had not been summoned for a long time.

With his current strength, Yang Chen no longer needed to worry about the burden these two Black Mountain Bears would bring to him, and he could still summon them without any problems.

Upon appearing, the two Black Mountain Bears looked bewildered, glancing around.

"Eldest Brother, what do you mean by this? Where is this? We were suddenly brought out while we were enjoying our food," Bear Elder One said.

Seeing the Black Mountain Bears in such a state, Yang Chen couldn't help but smile, "You two, look at these Forbidden Demons."

"Huh... Delicious food!" The two Black Mountain Bears' eyes sparkled instantly, looking at the Forbidden Demons as if they were seeing a delicious feast.

The several Forbidden Demons felt an inexplicable fear when they were stared at by the Black Mountain Bears. Although the two Black Mountain Bears were not very powerful, the Forbidden Demons felt a dread that came from deep within their hearts and even their bones.

"What are they? What do you want to do!" Hei Yong was also a mix of panic and shock.

"What do I want to do?" Yang Chen shouted sharply, and with a flick of his finger, a large amount of Blazing Sky Sacred Fire emerged in an instant, directly enveloping a Forbidden Demon at the Earth Martial Realm Seventh Level.

With the large amount of Blazing Sky Sacred Fire, the Earth Martial Realm Seventh Level Forbidden Demon was eliminated amidst screams.

Non-clan members have different hearts, and while Yang Chen kept these Forbidden Demons, it didn't mean he would be lenient.

“Bear Elder One, Bear Elder Two, go!” Yang Chen said.

It’s true that one thing can overcome another, and one thing can subdue another. Although the Giant Strength Demon was invincible in the Earth Martial Realm Battlefield, the Black Mountain Bears dared to take these Forbidden Demons as their prey.

Upon seeing the food, the two silly bears hesitated for a moment before they pounced and started to share the food.

As they released a suppressive aura from their bloodlines, the sight of these Forbidden Demons filled with dread was impossible for them to ignore!

Chapter 1093: The Submissive Prohibition Demon Clan_1

This was a very strange situation that even the Prohibition Demon Clan members couldn’t understand, but the fact was just as such. When they saw the Black Mountain Black Bear Brothers, they felt an unusual fear, as if something more terrifying than death was happening to them!

Death, they had seen it, so they could accept it.

But after death, being eaten by the Black Mountain Black Bear Brothers...

These Prohibition Demon Clan members couldn’t help swallowing their saliva, their eyes filled with more fear.

The Black Mountain Black Bear Brothers only took a short time to eat the corpse of this Prohibition Demon, and after a while, both of them experienced a completely different change in strength. In fact, their strength had become much stronger than before.

This made the two Black Mountain Black Bears extremely excited, roaring out loud, “Boss, are all these ours?”

Yang Chen couldn’t help feeling shocked when he sensed the changes in the two Black Mountain Black Bears, and he was even more amazed in his heart. It seemed that the Black Mountain Black Bears were indeed the natural enemies of the Prohibition Demon Clan, not just their bloodline being able to suppress the Prohibition Demon Clan, but also their ability to consume the Prohibition Demon Clan and increase their strength, which was incredible!

Nowadays, as Yang Chen listened to the Black Mountain Black Bears, he smiled slightly, and these two silly bears were really unintentionally cooperating with him. At least, when they looked at the Prohibition Demon Clan members, they heard that the Black Mountain Black Bears were not satisfied with eating just one of their companions, and they also wanted to attack them. All of them showed fear on their faces.

Yang Chen seized the opportunity and said coldly, "That depends on their attitude. My friends of the Prohibition Demon Clan, what do you think? You've seen it too, my two bear brothers are very interested in your Prohibition Demon Clan bodies. Once they devour them, their strength will immediately increase greatly. Moreover, both of them are gluttonous, and I think just one is not enough to satisfy their appetite."

"Not enough, not enough, Boss, in my opinion, let's just give all of these dozen or so to us. We can eat our fill. Especially the biggest one!" The two Black Mountain Black Bears shouted dumbly.

The more they did this, the more fearful the few Prohibition Demon Clan members became.

Especially Giant Power Demon Captain Hei Yong, who seemed to have a firm personality but was actually the first to show signs of surrender, shouting, "What's your name?"

"My name is Yang Xilin!" Yang Chen answered with his hands behind his back.

"Yang Xilin, change your condition. Letting us choose servitude is absolutely impossible," Hei Yong said coldly.

"Change the condition? Hahaha, Giant Strength Demon, are you out of your mind? By enslaving you, I can get everything from you. What else can I get from you by changing the conditions? Besides, you should remember that you have no room to negotiate with me. Either you choose servitude, or you'll be eaten by my two brothers here. As you just heard, my two brothers are very interested in you," Yang Chen chastised in a deep voice.

After being scolded by Yang Chen, Giant Strength Demon Hei Yong was completely frightened.

He was inherently timid, and with the scene of the two Black Mountain Black Bears devouring the Prohibition Demon still fresh in his mind, he shivered at the thought of his huge body being refined and eaten by the two Black Mountain Black Bears.

“I... I choose submission. I am willing to be enslaved!” Hei Yong yielded and knelt down.

No one expected this big man, who was invincible on the battlefield as a Giant Strength Demon, to be the first to choose submission. Even the other Prohibition Demon Clan members didn't expect this.

“Captain, you!”

“Captain, how could you choose to surrender!”

“It's wise to know when to give in, Giant Strength Demon. You've done a good job. Now, don't resist, and I'll plant a Servitude Restriction in your mind. As long as you obey me, I won't necessarily take your life,” Yang Chen said solemnly.

“I am willing to submit to you, Master!” Hei Yong lowered his head.

Yang Chen took out the Servitude Restriction and directly waved it towards the Giant Power Demon.

The Giant Power Demon trembled slightly, indeed choosing to surrender to Yang Chen without any resistance. The Servitude Restriction was planted in his mind, and the Giant Power Demon became Yang Chen's slave.

“Greetings, Master!” The Giant Power Demon spoke.

Seeing the successful enslavement, Yang Chen nodded in satisfaction, “How long does it usually take for your Prohibition Demon Clan's horns to regenerate?”

“Almost ten days or so. The time won’t be too long, but during these ten days, we won’t have any fighting strength,” the Giant Power Demon said respectfully.

“Very well, what’s your name?”

“Hei Yong.”

Yang Chen said with satisfaction, “I’ll keep my word. Since you’ve chosen to compromise and submit to me, I’ll spare your life. Stand aside.”

“Yes, Master,” the Giant Power Demon replied.

Seeing the Giant Power Demon choose to surrender and even being spared by Yang Chen, the remaining Prohibition Demon Clan members’ faces changed drastically, and for a time, they were caught in hesitation. They couldn’t say they weren’t moved. At least, compared to servitude and being eaten by the Black Mountain Black Bears, they’d rather be enslaved.

Now that Hei Yong had set an example, their only resistance was gone.

“I am willing to submit!”

“I am also willing to submit...”

All of these Prohibition Demon Clan members were willing to pledge their allegiance to Yang Chen in succession, which secretly pleased Yang Chen. It seemed that these Prohibition Demon Clan members might not necessarily be as resolute as humans.

However, the difference was that these Prohibition Demon Clan members were the aggressors and didn’t have any real hatred towards humans, so the probability of choosing death instead of surrendering was much lower.

Just like that, Yang Chen quickly planted more Servitude Restrictions, enslaving all the remaining Prohibition Demon Clan members in less than one hour.

“Master!”

All the remaining Prohibition Demon Clan members respectfully shouted towards Yang Chen, being controlled by his mind and following his lead. If they had any intention of defying Yang Chen, they would be hunted down by the Servitude Restriction.

Yang Chen still had great faith in the Restriction, knowing that this was something created by Yu Ban.

Now, seeing several Prohibition Demon Clan members being so respectful to Yang Chen, Yang Chen’s team members were completely dumbfounded. This was really a divine power! Yang Chen had actually enslaved these Prohibition Demon Clan members, something they couldn’t even think of before.

“Master, what do you want us to do?” Hei Yong asked obsequiously.

“I don’t need you to do anything. You just need to stay here and be as obedient as always. If other Prohibition Demon Clan members come, I believe you’ll know what to do,” Yang Chen said coldly.

Hei Yong tilted his head, not quite understanding Yang Chen’s meaning.

But the Red Shura Demon beside him was extremely clever and instantly said, “Master, we understand. If other Prohibition Demon Clan members come to inquire, we’ll say that we encountered an unprecedented Heavenly Calamity while patrolling, which severed all our horns. We were lucky to survive, but some Prohibition Demon Clan members unfortunately perished...”

Chapter 1094: The Fire of Rage_1

Yang Chen’s mouth curled up; compared to Hei Yong, this peak of the Earth Martial Realm’s Red Shura Demon was much more intelligent.

He had originally planned to find an excuse for the Prohibition Demon Clan, but after a few words from the Red Shura Demon, he didn’t need to. Using the Heavenly Calamity as an excuse was perfect and appropriate.

When the time came, even if anyone investigated, they wouldn't suspect anything and would just think that it was really due to a natural disaster causing unrest.

To demonstrate his sincerity, the Red Shura Demon continued, "Once we have recovered our strength, we will immediately set off to gather information for Master so that you can take care of other matters."

He said slowly, "Eternal Ash, you are very clever!"

The Red Shura Demon, addressed as Eternal Ash, was delighted to hear Yang Chen's praise and replied, "Thank you for the compliment, Master!"

Just now, he had actually tried to struggle to see if he could break free from the Servitude Restriction, but when he tried, he realized how terrifying the restriction was.

He knew that he could never betray Yang Chen; if he did, he would face a fate worse than death!

Yang Chen said slowly, "Let's follow Eternal Ash's method; you all should be prepared and don't give away any clues. I will return home to make some preparations in the next few days. When I come back, I hope that you all will have fulfilled your responsibilities nicely."

"Yes, Master!" The dozen or so members of the Prohibition Demon Clan heartily agreed; they didn't dare to have even a single rebellious thought.

Yang Chen was quite satisfied with their response. He initially planned to return just like that, but after careful consideration, he felt that it might not be appropriate. So, he said, "Giant Strength Demon, you come back with me!"

"Captain, how can we explain bringing a Giant Strength Demon back?" Han Cai asked in surprise, "If we're discovered by others, we won't be able to clear our names even if we jump into the Yellow River."

"It's alright, just let this demon stay far away. I want to have it close by in case anything goes wrong on our way back. With the demon's presence, things will be much easier for us," Yang Chen said.

“But, the Giant Strength Demon’s dual horns are broken now. Won’t it take some time for them to recover?” Han Cai asked puzzled.

Yang Chen smiled slightly and said, “No need, I have my ways.”

And so, the team took the Giant Strength Demon with them and headed back to the human territories. On the way back, Yang Chen decided to help the Giant Strength Demon recover the injuries to his dual horns.

He tried using human elixirs to replenish the Giant Strength Demon’s true qi, but they had no effect. Yang Chen was not surprised by this, so he prepared a few special elixirs according to the Giant Strength Demon’s constitution but still found them ineffective.

Finally, after much thought, Yang Chen found a solution: He infused the elixir with some of the recovered Demonic Qi from the Giant Strength Demon, creating a new kind of ‘Demon Elixir’.

With this, after administering the elixir to the Giant Strength Demon, it took only half a day for its dual horns to regrow. The strength within its body was restored to its original state, making it as vigorous as ever, almost comparable to its peak strength in its heyday.

Hei Yong was greatly surprised, never expecting that Yang Chen would have such a technique.

It should be known that the Prohibition Demon Clan didn’t have elixirs. When they were injured, most of them took a long time to recover by relying on their powerful physique. But with Yang Chen’s simple method, he quickly healed the injuries.

The Prohibition Demon Clan couldn’t help but admire Yang Chen even more, and the regretful thoughts about following him faded significantly.

In this way, they returned smoothly without encountering any trouble related to the Heavenly Calamity. They safely returned to the human territories.

When they arrived, Yang Chen ordered the Giant Strength Demon to stay away and not to approach. Then, he and the team members returned to their patrol area.

However, just as they approached, Yang Chen's soul scattered, and he frowned, "There's someone!"

"What's going on?" Han Cai was puzzled.

"There are people surrounding our patrol area, probably more than two hundred of them," Yang Chen said with his hands behind his back.

"Captain, is it possible that our unauthorized departure was discovered by the higher-ups, and now we'll be severely punished?" a team member worried.

"Nonsense! Is unauthorized departure such a big crime that it's worth having more than two hundred people hunt us down? Since when has the power of the Earth Martial Realm become so worthless?"

Han Cai calmly said, "Don't worry, we've accomplished a lot, so even if there is a misunderstanding, we can clear it up. Unauthorized departure is not that serious a crime!"

However, Yang Chen didn't think the situation was that simple. Indeed, unauthorized departure was not a major crime, but was it worth leaving more than two hundred people to wait and ambush them upon their return?

There must be some hidden intentions.

Even if he knew that these two hundred people had extraordinary intentions, they must return. After all, misunderstandings can be resolved, but if they truly don't go back, they'll be labeled as deserters, which would be even more troublesome.

With this in mind, the group headed back to their base without discussing any further.

As soon as they arrived and stepped inside, it only took a moment for Yang Chen and his teammates to be surrounded by the two hundred soldiers that appeared in succession.

The more than two hundred people all had murderous expressions and imposing auras. The moment they surrounded Yang Chen and his team, they seemed to have come with the intent- to question their actions.

“You!” A few team members looked at themselves being surrounded and gritted their teeth, “What are you doing?”

They had risked their lives to complete their mission, and now that they had finally returned with great achievements, they had received no praise. Instead, they were being treated like this by their fellow soldiers.

Among the two hundred people, the leader was a burly man with thick eyebrows. With a fierce smile on his face, he stepped forward and said coldly, “You have the nerve to ask what we’re doing? With just a few of you, you left your posts, especially you, surnamed Yang. You’ve only been in charge for a few days before you dared to lead the whole team away from your post. Do you know the kind of crime you’ve committed? Today, I, Ma Youwei, as Deputy General under General Yu Gang, am in charge of these two hundred soldiers to apprehend you!”

As he spoke, Ma Youwei sneered, having already received General Yu Gang’s orders. Without hesitation, he slapped a hat of accusation on Yang Chen to start with.

Once the hat was secured, Ma Youwei didn’t believe that Yang Chen would have any chance to turn things around.

Yang Chen listened to Ma Youwei’s words, his expression turning darker and colder as he looked at the more than two hundred people surrounding him. His demeanor was indifferent, emanating a chilling aura.

At this point, how could he not guess that it was Yu Gang who had targeted him?

Most likely, this matter was related to Dragon Commander.

After all, he didn't think that his little absence from his post for just a few days would be discovered and would be met with such a large task force, specifically waiting to ambush them. Moreover, they first placed the blame on him before anything else.

"Well done, Dragon Commander! Well done, Yu Gang!" Yang Chen's heart was burning with rage. He was genuinely furious.

Chapter 1095: Breaking Through the Bloody Path!_1

I can tolerate you assigning me to this godforsaken place.

You deprive me of the path to earn merit, I can find my own way.

As a result, he led a group of people, risking their lives to fight against the Forbidden Demon Clan. After a round of fighting, they finally paved a path to achieve a surprising victory. If things went according to his plan, they could definitely deal a heavy blow to the Forbidden Demon Clan.

But who knew, when he returned, he would be surrounded by his own people.

Not just him, Han Cai and the others were also furious.

"What, you dare to leave your post without permission, and now you refuse to accept the consequences? What do you have to say for yourselves? Let me tell you, even if you have the biggest excuses, leaving your post is a serious crime. Especially you, Surnamed Yang, you are the captain, leading the entire team to leave. You are the one with the most responsibility. You cannot avoid this!" Ma Youwei pointed at Yang Chen's nose and scolded him.

Han Cai couldn't take it anymore, he rebuked, "General Ma, we indeed committed the crime of leaving our posts without permission, but according to the military records, if there are special circumstances that violate discipline, the punishment can be adjusted accordingly. If we manage to achieve merits in the process, the past will be forgiven, and merits and demerits will be offset. If the merit is significant, it will be used to compensate for the demerit! You only accused us of leaving without permission, but have you asked why we did so?"

Ma Youwei didn't expect Han Cai to be so meticulous and well-versed in military discipline. He squinted his eyes and scolded, "Fine, Han Cai, tell me what happened. What special circumstances occurred? If you dare to lie, I will arrest all of you right now!"

Han Cai snorted coldly, exchanged glances with Yang Chen, and asked for Yang Chen's opinion.

Yang Chen did not stop him, allowing Han Cai to relax and explain the situation clearly.

From the beginning of their arduous journey through the mountains and ridges, to crossing into the Forbidden Demon Clan's territories, to subduing the Forbidden Demon Clan and making them submit, everything was explained.

When these words fell, they did not gain the forgiveness of everyone, instead, Ma Youwei and the others laughed uproariously.

"Hahaha, that's hilarious."

"Make up some more."

"These people's brains must be filled with water. They're fabricating a story with a straight face. Crossing mountains and ridges, what a load of crap! How did they get through the Black Fog Dragon Wind? And they defeated the Giant Strength Demon? What did this surnamed Yang use to defeat the Giant Strength Demon?!"

"Hmph, Captain Yang Xilin, back when he was at the Second Level of Earth Martial Realm, single-handedly defeated the Giant Strength Demon, making his name known across the world. Haven't you heard of it?" Han Cai retorted.

When these words fell, many people closed their mouths, unable to deny Yang Chen's victory over the Giant Strength Demon. After all, Yang Chen had crushed the Giant Strength Demon in front of everyone back when he was at the Second Level of Earth Martial Realm.

Seeing the wind change, Ma Youwei immediately scolded, "Hmph, don't even try to make excuses anymore. You came up with quite good fabricated excuses. But where's the evidence? Without evidence, I could say that you were colluding with the Forbidden Demon Clan."

As the word "collusion" was uttered, several team members gritted their teeth, wishing they could kill Ma Youwei on the spot. Ma Youwei was infuriating, completely depriving them of the opportunity to explain.

Yang Chen sighed softly, watching the scene unfold, "General Ma, you want evidence? Fine, I'll give you evidence!"

Fortunately, he had kept the Giant Strength Demon as evidence, making it the perfect proof.

With this thought, Yang Chen summoned the Giant Strength Demon through the Servitude Restriction communication.

The Giant Strength Demon was huge but agile, and in just a short time, it rushed over from a distance.

When it arrived, ignoring the surprise of the onlookers, the Giant Strength Demon respectfully addressed Yang Chen, "Master."

Yang Chen said coldly, "Now you see? This is the Giant Strength Demon that I enslaved, as I just said. If you still need other evidence, I can provide them one by one!"

This caused many people's expressions to change slightly, mostly believing Yang Chen's words. After all, the Giant Strength Demon's respect for Yang Chen was evidently genuine, not something that could be faked.

Ma Youwei saw that the situation was not good, and he panicked internally.

He was ordered by Yu Gang to take Yang Chen's life. He didn't care whether Yang Chen had accomplished anything or not. To be honest, he really didn't care about the outcome of the battle between humans and the Forbidden Demon Clan, how many humans died, or whether they could defeat the Forbidden Demon Clan. As long as he himself was safe and sound, even if the Forbidden Demon Clan won, as long as he could be spared by submitting to them, he wouldn't hesitate to do so.

If he couldn't take Yang Chen's life today, what would he use to ask Yu Gang for a reward?

He must bring down Yang Chen today and put a label on him. That way, he can ask Yu Gang for a reward.

With this in mind, he looked at Yang Chen and the Giant Strength Demon, quickly thinking of a plan and immediately said, "Well done, surnamed Yang, you dare to collude with the Forbidden Demon Clan and even bring one back to help cover up the truth? Don't think I can't see through your scheming tactics!"

He knew very well that if Yang Chen could control even the Giant Strength Demon, he must have truly enslaved it. If he let Yang Chen explain further, Yang Chen would have a clear conscience and would be able to clear his name completely.

So he didn't give Yang Chen any chance at all, and shouted, "All of you, get him! This surnamed Yang is colluding with the Forbidden Demon Clan! Arrest these human traitors and wait for your punishment!"

They still dared not disobey Ma Youwei's words. At first, everyone was observing and gradually beginning to believe Yang Chen.

But they hadn't fully believed Yang Chen when they were woken up by Ma Youwei's shouting, forcing them to hurriedly take action against Yang Chen.

"Captain, it's not good, this!" Han Cai and several others sighed.

Yang Chen felt helpless as well, watching as more than two hundred Earth Martial Realm powerhouses didn't use their blade against the Forbidden Demon Clan but instead turned against them, infuriated.

If Dragon Commander, Yu Gang, and Ma Youwei had even a shred of common hatred, they would have thoroughly investigated the truth of Yang Chen's words. But these people chose to attack him solely for their own benefit.

No wonder the human race on the Earth Martial Realm Battlefield was constantly losing to the Forbidden Demon Clan.

Even at this critical juncture, these people still prioritized their interests, completely disregarding the greater good. How could they possibly achieve victory!

“Fine, what a betrayal of the human race I committed. Whether I have betrayed the human race or not is not for you to decide.” Yang Chen roared in anger, and then the Blazing Sky Sacred Fire burst out, blocking the path of these more than two hundred people.

“Everyone, we are clearly being framed by villains. If we stay, we will face trouble. Today, those who believe in me, Yang Mou, follow me to break through!” Yang Chen said.

“I believe in the captain,” Han Cai was the first to speak up.

“I also believe in the captain...”

Seeing this, Yang Chen nodded, “Alright, since that’s the case, Hei Yong, you go around and support them. These two hundred people are delusional if they think they can get the better of me!”

Chapter 1096: Stabbing in the Back!_1

These more than two hundred martial artists were blocked by Yang Chen’s Blazing Sky Sacred Fire in an instant, unable to get close to Yang Chen. When they saw Hei Yong’s huge body, most of the martial artists were shocked. After all, a Half-step Heavenly Martial Realm Giant Strength Demon standing there was still quite terrifying to human martial artists.

The Giant Strength Demon tribe was rare in numbers; there might not be one among ten other Prohibition Demon Clan types. However, this was precisely what made the Giant Strength Demon so frightening – they were invincible in the Earth Martial Realm Battlefield. It’s no exaggeration to say that they swept across the battlefield.

However, it was not easy for Ma Youwei to give up just like that.

At this moment, Ma Youwei roared loudly, "What are you afraid of? Let's go together and capture this Yang Chen. He openly defies military orders, colludes with the Forbidden Demons of the Giant Strength Mo tribe, and even wants to kill our compatriots. His crimes are unforgivable. Capture him!"

In the blink of an eye, Ma Youwei had put another hat on Yang Chen's head.

These martial artists might have eyes, but they couldn't stop Ma Youwei's behind-the-scenes manipulation. After a few words, they truly believed that Yang Chen was collaborating with the Forbidden Demons.

Some martial artists, filled with righteous indignation, took the lead and charged forward.

With one martial artist leading the charge, other martial artists followed suit, and more than two hundred martial artists attacked again, making a huge and astonishing momentum.

Yang Chen's Blazing Sky Sacred Fire was indeed powerful, but facing the joint attack of more than two hundred martial artists, it still fell short. However, after sustaining for two breaths, the Blazing Sky Sacred Fire was broken open in several places, and more than two hundred martial artists surrounded and attacked Yang Chen.

Seeing the Blazing Sky Sacred Fire being broken, Ma Youwei laughed.

Now he wanted to see what Yang Chen would do. Yang Chen definitely couldn't escape today. As long as the opponent dared to kill someone, it would be a crime of killing compatriots. By then, adding the crime of colluding with the Forbidden Demons, Yang Chen wouldn't be able to overturn the case. Even the Donghuang Sect couldn't protect Yang Chen, and he would undoubtedly die!

Seeing this, Yang Chen couldn't help grinding his teeth.

This Ma Youwei really outwitted him. If these people were all from the Forbidden Demon Clan, he wouldn't have to be merciful, and it wouldn't be as troublesome as dealing with it now.

But he couldn't kill anyone. If he really killed someone, then Ma Youwei would immediately have an excuse to put him in a desperate situation.

Not only could he not kill anyone, but he also had to save his strength so these people wouldn't die. As a result, he couldn't display more than half of his strength and was naturally at a disadvantage against these two hundred people.

With these thoughts in mind, Yang Chen had no choice but to force the Giant Strength Demon to take action.

"Hei Yong, go ahead, but remember, don't kill," Yang Chen ordered.

Hei Yong now completely obeyed Yang Chen. When Yang Chen finished speaking, Hei Yong immediately took action, smashing his fist down and scaring many of the martial artists into retreating, their eyes filled with fear when they looked at the Giant Strength Demon.

Yang Chen also suddenly took action, dispersing the Blazing Sky Sacred Fire and Shapeshifting Liquid Fire, merging the two flames into a solid barrier before cooperating with Hei Yong to keep these martial artists from approaching them easily.

"You all stand behind me, be careful," Yang Chen commanded the team members behind him.

These team members naturally didn't dare not to obey Yang Chen's words. They knew very well that whether they could survive today depended on Yang Chen's abilities.

At this point, they were also very surprised. After all, it was not an easy feat for Yang Chen to keep more than two hundred martial artists from approaching him with all his strength.

Seeing that they were at a stalemate, Ma Youwei's expression became awkward. He never expected that more than two hundred martial artists couldn't capture Yang Chen in an instant.

With this thought, Ma Youwei's eyes rolled and a plan emerged in his mind. He shouted, "I'm telling you, if you follow this Yang Chen, you'll walk down a dark path. Aren't you going to get away from him?"

Today, General Ma guarantees your safety if you admit your guilt and leave this Surnamed Yang. I can understand your situation. Who would want to mingle with someone like Yang Chen? You were all forced.”

Upon hearing these words, Yang Chen’s face instantly stiffened.

Yang Chen didn’t speak. He was also curious about what the team members behind him would think.

He had originally thought that his actions would convince the people behind him to trust him. At the very least, he didn’t forget about the team members behind him in everything he did. They had no reason to betray him.

However, to Yang Chen’s disappointment, his thinking was completely wrong.

Ma Youwei’s words had only passed a short while when a middle-aged man walked out of the team behind Yang Chen. As soon as he stepped out, he looked at Yang Chen fearfully and then immediately rushed towards Ma Youwei.

“General Ma, General Ma!” The middle-aged man hurriedly said, “My name is Wang Long, and I’m willing to leave the darkness and turn towards the light. I hope you can shelter me and protect me. In fact, we were all following Yang’s orders, and he was the mastermind. We were just team members, following the captain instinctively, without realizing that we had made such a big mistake.”

Seeing Wang Long like this, Han Cai and the others’ faces changed drastically.

Especially Han Cai, who roared with righteous indignation, “Wang Long, you treacherous, ungrateful bastard! The captain has treated us well, always considering our contributions and saving our lives. Yet you betray the captain at this time!”

Wang Long was indeed feeling guilty, but thinking about his life being in danger today if he followed Yang Chen, he wouldn’t hesitate any further. He immediately retorted, “Humph, Han Cai, if you want to keep up with this Surnamed Yang, I won’t stop you.”

“You, you!” Han Cai clenched his teeth in anger, never imagining that there could be such a shameless person in the world.

Yang Chen stared straight at Wang Long and remembered.

The last time they encountered Black Fog Dragon Wind, it was this Wang Long who had scolded him during their moment of despair. He had thought about repaying their grudge with kindness, but now it seemed that some people were too set in their ways to change.

When they were in dire straits, their usual practice was to betray their own kind and choose self-preservation.

With these thoughts, Yang Chen sighed softly and said coldly, “Wang Long, I hope that your choice to betray me today is correct.”

Ma Youwei said, “Capture him for me.”

Yang Chen saw that the two hundred martial artists were organizing another wave of attacks and couldn't help shaking his head. No matter how strong he was, he couldn't possibly fight two hundred martial artists alone. The only way was to use the Black Fog Dragon Wind technique.

However, this technique was meant to deal with the Forbidden Demons, and he couldn't use it to harm his compatriots.

With this in mind, Yang Chen clenched his fists fiercely and said, “Everyone, follow me. If you're willing to trust me, Yang Chen, come with me and escape. If you don't trust me, leave now, and I won't stop you!”

Chapter 1097: Harassing Fellow Clan Members!_1

This time, the selection of team members under Yang Chen's command made him quite relieved. Only Wang Long chose betrayal, while the others all chose to follow Yang Chen and leave without any intention of defecting.

“Captain, we'll follow you.”

“Captain, you saved our lives and led us to kill the Prohibition Demon Clan. Hmph, even if we were to compromise, it’s better than being trapped in this desolated place with nothing to do. We’d rather follow you.” Han Cai shouted loudly.

“Good, good, good. In the future, I, Yang Chen, will let you all know that your choices today were absolutely correct,” Yang Chen affirmed. “Although they have surrounded us, making it seem impenetrable, as long as we find a weak point to break through, it won’t be difficult to escape!”

There were indeed more than two hundred people, but if they could find a point to break through, they would only need to defeat more than a dozen martial artists.

At first, he did not want to escape, hoping that there might be another turnaround.

However, it seemed that his thinking was too naive. He had fallen for the enemy’s plot, and there was no turning back. Now, all he could do was to break out and make plans afterward.

Yang Chen enveloped himself and his team in the Blazing Sky Sacred Fire while Hei Yong led the charge at the front, heading straight for the identified weak point and cutting through.

Although the more than two hundred people appeared formidable, these martial artists had no intention of fighting to the death. Hei Yong’s charge displayed his amazing power as a Giant Strength Demon, breaking through the barriers of those in their path.

In just a flash, Hei Yong had carved out a path.

Seeing this, Yang Chen wasted no time turning to flee, leading his team members to swiftly escape through the breach, away from here, heading straight for the Prohibition Demon Clan’s territories.

Watching Yang Chen and the others successfully break through and escape, Ma Youwei became furious, yelling: “Trash, a bunch of trash! You more than two hundred people failed to stop the thirteen or so people with surnamed Yang. What use are you?”

“General... what should we do now? Should we pursue them?” Someone asked.

“Pursue? With what? Just stay put!” Ma Youwei coldly snapped, “Hmph, this Yang betrayer escaped out of guilt; his crime is already settled. I believe everyone should see it clearly. The fact that he ran towards the Demon Tribe’s direction only shows his guilt!”

Upon hearing Ma Youwei, these martial artists weren’t able to make any accurate judgments. They had unconsciously accepted that Yang Chen had indeed betrayed the Human Race.

Noticing this, Wang Long, who had betrayed Yang Chen and chosen to compromise, couldn’t help but chuckle. “General Ma, you don’t need to worry. I know some things about these people’s identities and backgrounds. I can reveal all their information to you. In the future, if they dare to return, they will be guilty of death!”

“Oh?” Ma Youwei finally remembered that there was a Wang Long beside him.

Thinking that Wang Long, who had betrayed Yang Chen, might know many secrets about him, he sneered and waved his hands around: “You all go away. I have important matters to discuss with Brother Wang Long!”

More than two hundred martial artists dispersed.

Wang Long was delighted, feeling ecstatic that General Ma was elevating him so highly, even calling him “Brother Wang Long.” He was looking forward to later when Ma Youwei would ask him questions, and he would reveal everything, expecting to receive rewards.

It seemed that betraying Yang Chen was the best choice. Otherwise, like those other fools following Yang Chen, he would’ve been wandering outside with a treasonous connection to the Forbidden Demon Tribe and a hopeless life, barely maintaining his existence.

After everyone left, Ma Youwei patted Wang Long’s shoulder courteously, “Brother Wang Long, you should know Yang Chen closely. Speak honestly; did he really collude with the Forbidden Demon Tribe or not?”

“General Ma, do you want to hear the truth?” Wang Long hesitated, his eyes rolling.

“Don’t worry, no matter whether what he did was betraying the Human Race or not, I have my own judgment!” Ma Youwei laughed, knowing full well what Wang Long was worried about.

Seeing this, Wang Long realized that Ma Youwei intended to discredit Yang Chen. He felt that Ma Youwei’s opinion of Yang Chen would not change regardless of whether or not he colluded with the Forbidden Demon Tribe. With that, Wang Long proceeded to recount every detail about Yang Chen without any omissions.

Upon hearing that Yang Chen had actually controlled the Forbidden Demon Clan and even had a chance to earn great merit, Ma Youwei narrowed his eyes and his face darkened. Fortunately, he made a decisive move; otherwise, Yang Chen would’ve achieved such great merit. How capable was this Yang!

Unfortunately, no matter how capable Yang Chen was, he would be destroyed by Ma Youwei.

Next, Ma Youwei listened silently as Wang Long recounted the entire story. In less than half an hour, he understood everything Yang Chen had done.

Wang Long, out of loyalty, indeed revealed everything without any reservations.

Ma Youwei sincerely said, “Wang Long, I’m grateful for all the information you have shared with me. I must thank you properly.”

“There is no need for thanks, General Ma. Just allowing me to do a small favor under your command would suffice,” Wang Long hurriedly replied, a fawning smile on his face.

He was indeed clever, knowing when to ask and what to ask for.

Unfortunately, he wasn’t clever enough!

Ma Youwei burst into laughter, "Wang Long, you are a smart man, but it's a pity that you have nothing to offer under my command. How are you qualified with your Earth Martial Realm Fourth Layer's strength?"

"General Ma, what do you mean by that?" Wang Long was puzzled.

Ma Youwei had no intention of explaining and waved his hand as he slapped Wang Long on the forehead.

Wang Long's strength was no match for Ma Youwei's. As Ma Youwei's Half-step Heavenly Martial Realm strength was displayed, Wang Long had no resistance and was slapped to the ground with a single blow. Using his full strength, the slap sent Wang Long's blood spurting, taking his life.

Wang Long probably never understood why Ma Youwei killed him, even at the bitter end.

At this moment, Ma Youwei sneered and wiped his palm as he looked at Wang Long's corpse, muttering to himself, "Wang Long, Wang Long, you are clever, but your cleverness is limited. Yang Xilin's deeds could still make a comeback. How can there be one more person in this world who knows about this matter? Moreover, how could Yang Chen's crime of harming his compatriots be established if you are still alive?"

Chapter 1098: Lifeline! _1

After saying this, Ma Youwei burst into laughter.

He had already devised his plan when Wang Long betrayed them, it's just that if Wang Long hadn't betrayed them, he would've chosen a weaker martial artist to kill. However, with Wang Long's betrayal, he simply chose Wang Long.

After all, as long as Wang Long was alive, Ma Youwei would never feel at ease.

Only with Wang Long's death could he finally relax.

"Yang Xilin, Yang Xilin, all you did was good, but unfortunately, this order came from General Yu. I'm just a mere deputy general, caught up in this whirlpool to play a small role. Blame yourself for being too high-profile. If you went to the Jinmo Clan, you should not have come back, because even if you did, you would have no chance to clear your name.”

With that, Ma Youwei laughed out loud, feeling that he had completely wiped out any possibility of Yang Chen clearing his name. Even if Yang Chen had ten mouths, it would still be utterly impossible for him to explain himself.

At this thought, Ma Youwei quickly dealt with Wang Long’s body and turned to leave, having already thought of how to frame Yang Chen for Wang Long’s murder.

However, he didn’t know that as he left, a transparent Spirit Talisman suddenly appeared in the air, disappearing after a brief fluctuation. Even if Ma Youwei had a sharp sense of smell, he couldn’t detect this.

About the time it takes for a cup of tea after the Spirit Talisman disappeared, Yang Chen, who was heading towards the Jinmo Clan’s territory, paused slightly.

Immediately, a transparent Spirit Talisman appeared in his hand. As Yang Chen injected his True Qi, the Spirit Talisman took on color and shape, making the others around him stare in astonishment, not knowing what had happened.

Yang Chen smiled faintly: “Wang Long is dead.”

“What, Wang Long is dead?”

“What happened?”

“Captain, how did you know?”

These people couldn’t help but ask, and Yang Chen kindly said: “Ma Youwei didn’t have good intentions, so I deliberately left a trick. You must have noticed the Spirit Talisman in my hand, which is called ‘Recording Talisman’. As long as this talisman exists, before the True Qi consumption is complete, it can copy all the surrounding scenes and sounds onto the talisman. There are many talismans...

"I see, I've heard and seen spirit talismans that can replicate scenes before, but I haven't seen many as transparent as this one. Captain, did you find out about the situation over there with this little thing?" Han Cai asked in surprise.

They had been away for at least half an hour's journey now.

Yang Chen grinned: "Exactly, just listen to me."

And so, Yang Chen recounted what had happened.

Hearing Yang Chen's words, everyone clapped their hands in approval.

"Wang Long deserved to die!"

"He should have died!"

"It's better that he's dead!"

"Hmph, he really thought that betraying the captain would bring good results for him, how could Ma Youwei spare his life? He could betray someone as understanding as the captain, what could he gain from following Ma Youwei?"

"He deserved it!"

No one felt pity for Wang Long's death; on the contrary, they felt relieved and breathed a sigh of evil satisfaction.

Han Cai was even more considerate; he said at this moment: "Captain, speaking of which, you used the Recording Talisman to record Wang Long's death and Ma Youwei's crime at the same time. This is completely evidence that you can rely on to make Ma Youwei pay for his evil deeds. Just thinking of his face makes me angry, so it couldn't be better if we could use this to make him pay."

“Yeah, captain, why don’t we go back now and teach Ma Youwei a lesson?”

Yang Chen knew that these people were eager to take revenge, and with the Recording Talisman in his hand, he was in control of Ma Youwei’s life and death.

However, after some thought, Yang Chen dismissed the idea.

He said, “Theoretically, it wouldn’t be a problem for us to expose Ma Youwei’s crimes, but now he has many people and power. He may not give us a complete chance to expose his crimes. Even if we manage to expose him by force, his subordinates may not necessarily turn around and help us, and besides, what can we do after taking down Ma Youwei? He’s just a pawn, not the real person who wants to kill me.”

“If it’s not him, then who is it?” Several people were curious.

Yang Chen shook his head: “I can’t say for sure yet.”

He had a hunch, but this was his own business, and these team members had already helped him so much that he didn’t want to drag them into his muddy waters.

“But Captain, are we just going to let Ma Youwei escape punishment? If we leave, he must be trying his best to frame us. I’m afraid we’ll suffer in public opinion. When we return, everyone will think we’re traitors. What should we do then?” Han Cai sighed.

“Haha, Brother Han, you don’t need to worry about that, the innocent will remain innocent. We haven’t done anything wrong, so naturally, we’re not afraid of being framed. Everything will be revealed in due course, why bother rushing?” Yang Chen said gently.

“So what does the captain mean...” Han Cai asked in surprise.

After some thought, Yang Chen said: “First, let’s go to the Jinmo Clan and see what’s going on. I’ve already controlled several of their members, so they must have gathered some information in these few days. We’ll start with the Jinmo Clan and then make other plans.”

“Yes, Captain.” The few people had no objections and followed Yang Chen closely.

Yang Chen quickened his pace and, together with his team, rushed towards the border region of the Jinmo Clan.

This time, the journey back was safe, without encountering any heavenly disasters or catastrophes. They arrived at the Jinmo Clan’s territory, all unharmed and uninjured.

As Yang Chen had a Servitude Restriction in place, he saw the members of the Jinmo Clan, who had been enslaved by him, lazily resting when he arrived.

The Jinmo Clan had varying body sizes, so there were no fixed houses, and each member had dug up temporary caves for themselves, which was quite convenient.

When the enslaved members of the Jinmo Clan saw Yang Chen arriving, they quickly bowed and saluted: “Greetings, Master.”

“Greetings, Master...”

Yang Chen nodded calmly: “It seems that two demons are missing, huh? It’s the two peak Earth Martial Realm Red Shura Demons who are missing. Where did they go?”

“Master, every once in a while, we have to go to the frontlines to report the situation here. By that time, they should be coming back shortly. If they haven’t come back yet, it could be because they’re following your instructions to gather information.” A Jinmo Clan team member said respectfully.

“Oh? In that case, I’m really looking forward to the information they’ve gathered.” Yang Chen said slowly.

Chapter 1099: Converting the Prohibition Demon Clan!_1

No sooner said than done, Yang Chen quickly observed the Red Shura Demons in his Sea of Consciousness right after finishing his words.

The two Red Shura Demons seemed to have realized that Yang Chen had arrived and quickly picked up their pace, as if they were afraid to be punished by him. When they hurried over, they said fearfully, "We didn't know Master was here, so we were late in meeting Master. We hope Master won't punish us."

Seeing the two Red Shura Demons like this, Yang Chen was quite at ease. He was very confident in his Servitude Restriction, and even though these two Red Shura Demons had the intention to betray him, they had no ability to do so. Otherwise, he didn't think that the two would be so polite to him.

Yang Chen spoke coldly, "You both can stand up."

As he spoke, Yang Chen looked at the dual horns of the two Red Shura Demons and found that their dual horns had recovered more than half. Although their strength had not fully recovered, their dual horns looked fine on the surface.

"Thank you, Master." The two Red Shura Demons were extremely nervous.

Yang Chen didn't waste time on small talk. He asked, "Have you been to the front lines?"

"Yes, we have." The two Red Shura Demons answered truthfully.

Yang Chen calmly said, "Well, in that case, I'll ask you, have you found out any information on the front lines? If you have, I will reward you heavily!"

The two Red Shura Demons weren't really concerned about the rewards; they were just worried about Yang Chen's punishment. They even lost the courage to lie and hurriedly said, "Master, you're right. The information we got this time is all of great value, and it should be of great use to you."

Yang Chen said, "Oh? Tell me!"

The left Red Shura Demon started, "It's like this: when we went to the front lines, we did some investigation. Well, it can't really be called an investigation because it's already common knowledge among our Prohibition Demon Clan. They are planning a sneak attack on the entire Eastern District of the Earth Martial Realm battlefield tomorrow. This sneak attack is unprecedented, and our clan has intentions to swallow the whole Eastern District.”

“What?” Yang Chen narrowed his eyes, not expecting the Prohibition Demon Clan to be so ambitious as to want to swallow an entire Eastern District directly.

If they did manage to do so, the entire Earth Martial Realm battlefield would be in great danger.

He hadn’t expected to get this information so easily, but then again, where would these Prohibition Demons think that the humans would plant spies among them?

After all, humans’ disguise skills were far inferior to those of the Prohibition Demons.

“Captain, what should we do? The Prohibition Demon Clan has this plan. I’m afraid it’s not something they’ve planned for just one or two days. They must have some confidence to carry it out. Should we take some action?” Several team members began to panic.

Yang Chen sighed. In the past, if he had received this information, he would have rushed back to report it, so that his own clan would be on guard. The Prohibition Demon Clan’s sneak attack would naturally fail. They might even be able to turn the tables and kill the Prohibition Demon Clan, diminishing their prestige.

But now the problem was, with what means could they convey this information back? Even if they did, would anyone listen?

Thinking of this, Yang Chen helplessly said, “With just the power of a few of us, there is absolutely no way to solve this sneak attack problem. Moreover, with our current status, we can’t even get the message back.”

“Yes, it’s all that hateful Ma Youwei.” Han Cai was furious.

“Captain, what should we do now?” Now, several people were quite dependent on Yang Chen.

Yang Chen smiled, "The entire Eastern District is so big that it won't be easily broken. Even our Southeast War Zone is part of the Eastern District. The entire Eastern District, even if it is sneak attacked, cannot be broken in just one or two days. The best thing we can do now is to infiltrate the front lines and see exactly how the Prohibition Demon Clan is planning their sneak attack. We can then make on-site adjustments and decisions, which is much better than being helpless here."

"Captain, you're right. We'll follow you now..."

"But..." Han Cai immediately raised a doubt, "But the problem now is that the Prohibition Demons and we humans have completely different appearances and qi. It would be difficult for us to even go to the front lines of the Prohibition Demon Clan. I'm afraid we wouldn't even reach the central area before being discovered by the Prohibition Demons and killed with nowhere to escape."

Yang Chen didn't show any panic at all. "It's not a big deal. I have a way to deal with this problem. As long as you follow my method, it's not difficult to disguise ourselves as Prohibition Demons."

"Captain, do you have a solution?" The team members were all stunned.

Yang Chen pondered for a moment, then raised the corners of his mouth, took out a few silver needles, and pricked several acupuncture points on his face. In just a short time, his appearance changed, looking neither human nor ghostly, and quite horrible.

When compared to the Prohibition Demons, even they were dumbfounded.

"Captain, is this the famous Face Changing Technique used by Dan doctors? I didn't expect you to have this skill. This Face Changing Technique is really amazing in your hands." Han Cai was amazed, having seen many things.

Yang Chen laughed, "It's nothing, just a small trick. Actually, my current appearance is only similar to that of a Prohibition Demon, and there are still many areas that haven't been improved."

"In my opinion, Captain, the only two points that distinguish you from the Prohibition Demons are the demonic qi all over your body and the two horns on top of your head..." Han Cai said.

Yang Chen nodded, "That's not difficult. I've done separate research on Hei Yong, and I can specially make a pill that will temporarily convert a person's True Qi into Demonic Qi after consumption. It won't be hard to slip through their defenses and deceive them."

With his alchemy level, it was extremely simple to casually research a pill according to the situation. This was the realm an alchemist like him should have.

"Captain, at such a young age, not only is your martial arts talent unmatched, but you also show incredible achievements in alchemy. We really admire you." Several team members said with bitter smiles.

Compared with Yang Chen, they felt somewhat ashamed.

Yang Chen didn't show any arrogance. He kindly said, "You all are overpraising me. It's just a little trick, not worth mentioning. The key now is the issue of the dual horns. They are very difficult to imitate, as they are the lifeblood of the Prohibition Demons, and we can't imitate them at all. The only way is to use ready-made ones..."

When they heard "ready-made", several Prohibition Demons shuddered in fear.

"You guys can grow new horns, right?" Yang Chen looked at the several Prohibition Demon Clansmen.

These Prohibition Demon Clansmen were so frightened that they trembled all over at the thought of their horns being broken. But when they thought of the fear of being controlled by the Servitude Restriction, they felt even more powerless and scared.

The two Red Shura Demons were the only ones who were smarter and knew that resisting was futile. They said in unison, "Master, yes, it's like that!"

"Very well. In that case, you guys lend us your horns to use, please." Yang Chen said.

Chapter 1100: A Sudden Transformation_1

A few Forbidden Demons were so frightened that their entire bodies trembled. Of course, they didn't want to give up their dual horns, which they had only just managed to regrow. However, with the servitude restriction, they had no choice but to obey and said, "Yes, Master!"

Yang Chen did not show any mercy toward these Prohibition Demon Clan members, and took away their dual horns one after another.

Of course, the Giant Strength Demon's were left out, because its body was huge and its dual horns were also astonishingly large, so they couldn't possibly be used by Yang Chen and others.

After collecting these dual horns, Yang Chen made some calculations and then took out the Red Shura Demon's dual horns, placing them on top of his own head.

Naturally, he couldn't grow real horns like the Prohibition Demon Clan members, but it wasn't difficult for him to disguise himself by creating an outward appearance of having horns on his head.

It would be very difficult for anyone to distinguish the details of these disguises with the naked eye, so Yang Chen was confident that they would be able to fool others easily.

"Next, I'll refine the Demon Qi Pills!" Yang Chen murmured, "Hei Yong, contribute some of your demonic qi, I need to use a bit."

"Yes, Master." The Giant Strength Demon continuously contributed its demonic qi.

Yang Chen used the Pill Furnace as a container to collect these demonic qi, allowing the demonic qi to hover inside the furnace and become the best materials for refining Demon Qi Pills.

All the team members were curious about how Yang Chen would proceed, as disguising themselves as members of the Prohibition Demon Clan seemed almost impossible in their eyes. Yet, when Yang Chen took up the task, it seemed to become a completely possible miracle.

Yang Chen was meticulous and focused, fully immersing himself in the process of elixir refining.

According to his idea, the Demon Qi Pill was neither complicated nor difficult to make, and its value as an elixir was about that of a Rank 5 Elixir. This was naturally not too difficult for Yang Chen, who easily refined the Demon Qi Pills by preparing some materials and combining them with the demonic qi.

Once the pills were out of the furnace, he had ten pills, just enough for the ten members of the team excluding the deceased Wang Long.

“Captain, can this Demon Qi Pill really integrate with our true Qi and temporarily grant us demonic Qi?” A few team members excitedly asked, looking at the black pill in Yang Chen’s hand with curiosity.

What Yang Chen was holding was indeed the Demon Qi Pill; it wasn’t strange for the team members to be curious about it, as it emitted a shocking amount of demonic Qi, making it hard to believe that it was an elixir suitable for humans to consume.

Yang Chen laughed heartily and said, “Of course, but you’ll also need to cooperate. When the Demon Qi Pill enters your body, you must restrain your true Qi to make sure it’s not exposed. That way, when the demonic Qi from the pill spreads out, it will cover your body’s surface, effectively concealing your true Qi from others.”

“So that’s how it works! Isn’t this a perfect elixir? Captain, you are truly a genius!”

“Haha, as expected, our captain is amazing.”

“I wouldn’t call it a perfect elixir, as it does have its drawbacks,” Yang Chen shook his head.

“Drawbacks? What drawbacks?” The members asked.

Since he had a short time to create the elixir, it couldn’t be flawless. Yang Chen explained, “If you want to dispel the demonic Qi in your body, simply release your true Qi. The demonic Qi in the pill is not much and can be easily dissolved with your true Qi. However, as you use your true Qi while fighting, the demonic Qi will dissipate quickly, revealing your identity. So, after taking this Demon Qi Pill, you should not use your true Qi recklessly!”

“I see, Captain. We’re prepared for that. This can hardly be considered a drawback, as even if we want to use demonic Qi to fight the Prohibition Demon Clan, we don’t have that kind of capability, haha.”

“Captain, you’ve already done enough by using the elixir to achieve this.”

Seeing this, Yang Chen kindly nodded, “In that case, you all can watch me take the Demon Qi Pill and see the results.”

As he finished speaking, Yang Chen took the Demon Qi Pill, and it spread throughout his body. Just as he had expected, as long as he retracted his true Qi, the demonic Qi would cover the surface of his body.

With dual horns on top of his head, the Face Changing Technique altering his appearance, and the demonic Qi in his body, Yang Chen now looked exactly like a Red Shura Demon.

If there was any slight difference, it was that he was only slightly shorter than a typical Red Shura Demon, but no one would pay attention to that.

This scene left all the team members, and even some members of the Forbidden Demon Clan, dumbfounded.

If they hadn’t seen Yang Chen’s transformation with their own eyes, they might have even believed he was truly a Red Shura Demon. His disguise was seamless!

“What do you think?” Yang Chen asked.

“Captain, it’s brilliant, absolutely brilliant!” The team members praised him nonstop.

Yang Chen then turned to the Forbidden Demon Clan members and asked, “What do you think?”

“Master, your skills are truly amazing. We are completely convinced,” the Forbidden Demons could say nothing else. They looked at Yang Chen as if he was one of their own.

“Master, your disguise is flawless,” a few Forbidden Demons tried to flatter him.

With a smile on his lips, Yang Chen looked at the Forbidden Demons without their dual horns and took out dozens of elixirs from his pocket, throwing them directly out.

“Take these elixirs. They can quickly restore your demonic Qi and rapidly regenerate your dual horns. These are elixirs I have developed based on my research on Hei Yong, and I believe they will be useful for you as well. Try them out and see what you think,” Yang Chen said.

How could the few Forbidden Demons hesitate? The understanding of Yang Chen’s elixir refining was evident to them, and they had never heard of the Demon Qi Pill before. When they saw the elixir he had refined, they knew it must be a treasure, and they took it without any reluctance.

After they took it, they felt their dual horns growing rapidly back on their heads, even visible to the naked eye.

“This is amazing!”

“Is this for real?” The Forbidden Demons were completely dumbfounded.

It would normally take at least ten days for their dual horns to grow back slowly, but after taking the elixir Yang Chen gave them, the horns were completely restored within mere moments.

“Master, what about the remaining elixirs?” A few Forbidden Demons swallowed their saliva, seeing the elixirs as valuable treasures.

“You can keep the rest,” Yang Chen waved his hand.

He understood the principle of giving rewards after punishment.

A few Forbidden Demons had just contributed their dual horns, and if he didn't give them something in return, it would likely disappoint them. Although there were restrictions on their servitude, those restrictions were not everything.

At the moment, giving the remaining elixirs to these Forbidden Demons as a reward would ensure that they would work wholeheartedly for him next time, sparing no effort.

Next, it was time to help the team members disguise themselves as Forbidden Demon Clan members. Once they had all transformed, they would head to the frontline.
