Chapter 1101: How to Go to the Frontline_1

Yang Chen made a comparison between the builds of his nine companions and the different races of the Forbidden Demon Clan. He quickly formed a plan. First, he used a Face Changing Technique to help the nine of them disguise themselves as different members of the Forbidden Demon Clan, followed by adding the corresponding dual horns, and Demon Qi Pills...

In just half a day, ten people, including Yang Chen, had transformed into members of the Forbidden Demon Clan.

“Haha, even I can’t recognize myself now,” Han Cai laughed heartily.

“Captain, your skills are amazing. Even my own brothers might not recognize me if they stood beside me,” said one of the team members.

“Heh heh, not maybe? They definitely wouldn’t recognize you!”

The group chuckled and looked at each other, pleased with their transformation.

“Captain, what should we do next?” Han Cai asked curiously. He had become accustomed to following Yang Chen’s lead, believing that Yang Chen’s choices, even if they weren’t always right, wouldn’t be wrong.

Yang Chen crossed his arms, saying, “I want to pick one of you to lead the way and take us to the frontline. Who among you is willing to volunteer?”

Hearing Yang Chen’s words, the Forbidden Demon Clan members all raised their hands after some hesitation, showing their willingness to help Yang Chen.

They had learned their lesson by now. Leaving aside everything else, the elixir Yang Chen gave them was priceless to their clan. If they helped him with his tasks, they would undoubtedly be rewarded. Since they couldn’t remove their servitude prohibition, they figured it was better to show loyalty.

Seeing that everyone was willing, Yang Chen began to ponder.

Among these Forbidden Demons, the two Red Shura Demons were the most intelligent and quick-witted. The others were not very strong in battle, nor were they particularly sharp.

As for the two Red Shura Demons...

Yang Chen said, "Eternal Ash, you come with us and lead the way. And don't worry, you'll be rewarded."

The Red Shura Demon called Eternal Ash's eyes gleamed with excitement as he was chosen. He eagerly agreed, "Master, I will do my best to help you and share your worries."

"Good. In that case, prepare yourself, and we'll set off tomorrow," Yang Chen said coldly.

And so, the next day, Yang Chen and his group, led by the Red Shura Demon Eternal Ash, embarked on their journey to the frontline.

Yang Chen had thought there would be some trouble along the way, but everything went smoothly.

Under Eternal Ash's guidance, they met many other Forbidden Demons along the way. But as Eternal Ash had said, their clan's focus was on attacking the human eastern war zone. So their internal defense was lax.

In less than half a day, they arrived at the core area of the Forbidden Demon Clan's battlefield.

"Master, if this were a normal time, there would be some level of security and inspection on the way to the frontline, but now, there's none at all. Seems the battle at the frontline has truly begun," Eternal Ash said.

Yang Chen and his team members looked around, agreeing with him.

“Captain, it seems the fight with the Forbidden Demon Clan really has started,” one of the team members commented.

It wasn't that the Forbidden Demon Clan didn't manage their internal affairs; it's just that they were currently fighting, and there was simply no energy to spare for internal matters. Moreover, they probably never expected any problems within their own ranks.

“No matter what, we must be cautious. Now that we're halfway there, it's time to push on,” Yang Chen ordered.

In the blink of an eye, one day and one night passed.

After one day and one night, Yang Chen and his group arrived at the checkpoint leading to the frontline. As long as they passed this checkpoint, they could officially enter the frontline.

Many people guarded the checkpoint, and though it was not incredibly strict, it was much more rigorous than the previous lax checkpoints.

When Yang Chen and his group arrived, they hesitated to cross the checkpoint easily. The reason was that there were many Forbidden Demons gathering there, and it seemed that they had to fulfill certain requirements before entering the frontline. These requirements forced Yang Chen and the others to make alternative plans.

“We're under the command of the Devil King of the South Town and have come to reinforce the frontline!”

“Hmph, it's said that the surprise attack has gained the upper hand. We're here to fan the flames and wipe out the arrogant humans. Hahaha!”

“We've been invited to the frontline as reinforcements. This is our military plaque. You can check it.”

The two Giant Strength Demons manning the checkpoint looked at the military plaques one by one. At the moment, they nodded and said, "Yes, that's right. As reinforcements, you must enter the frontline and kill as many enemies as possible. Go ahead."

"No problem!"

A group of Forbidden Demons entered the frontline.

Then, another large group of Forbidden Demons, belonging to an unknown team, handed over their military plaques and entered the frontline.

Seeing this, Yang Chen and his group furrowed their brows. They didn't rush to pass the checkpoint because they didn't have the military plaques earned by these people.

And they...

"Captain, what's this military plaque and why hasn't Eternal Ash mentioned it?" a team member asked.

Yang Chen was also puzzled. He asked Eternal Ash curiously, "What's going on? Do we have military plaques?"

"Master, the military plaque is something each team in our clan is assigned. It represents which team we belong to. Our plaque is with Captain Hei Yong..." Eternal Ash said, his face stiff.

Hearing this, everyone widened their eyes.

Han Cai immediately snapped angrily, "You Red Shura Demon! You knew that we needed a military plaque to pass the checkpoint, but you deliberately didn't remind us."

Yang Chen held up a hand to calm Han Cai, saying, "Eternal Ash might not have known either!"

Sporting a bitter expression, Eternal Ash said, "Master, I've been wronged. In fact, I didn't know about this either. And considering the current situation, even if we had Captain Hei Yong's military plaques, it would be meaningless."

"What do you mean?" Yang Chen asked.

"My clan assigns specific tasks to each team. For example, this team is responsible for fighting at the front, while another team is in charge of reinforcements, and so on. Which teams qualify for battle and which don't is also set in rules. Showing our military plaque would be pointless because, as Hei Yong's subordinates, we were assigned to guard the border and are lucky to not have been forgotten. We don't have the qualifications to fight on the frontline," Eternal Ash explained, feeling wronged.

Fearing that Yang Chen might have misunderstandings, he continued, "Master, it's something I just discovered; I wasn't intentionally hiding it from you. Please don't misunderstand."

Yang Chen nodded, "Don't worry, I'm not blaming you. But now that we don't have a military plaque, how can we go to the frontline?"

Chapter 1102: Demon King!_1

Eternal Ash was so frightened by Han Cai's shout that his whole body trembled. Now, hearing Yang Chen speak, he naturally wanted to make a good impression by showing off his abilities.

He quickly said, "Master, I have a plan..."

"Oh? Let's hear it." Yang Chen raised his eyebrows.

Eternal Ash continued, "Master, we don't have a military plaque, but we can use the plaques from other teams. I have some tricks to lure the leaders of those teams elsewhere. When the time comes, with your divine powers, we can quickly take action..."

Han Cai glared at Eternal Ash and became furious, "Captain, this kid is obviously trying to harm you! If we take action now and get discovered, won't we be trapped in a dead-end?"

“Yes, if we take action now and their team loses members, sooner or later, they will come looking for us. We killed members of the Prohibition Demon Clan; we’ll be discovered eventually.”

Yang Chen fell into contemplation.

It was normal for his team members not to trust Red Shura Demon, as he was not one of them. Even if what Eternal Ash said was valuable advice, it would still be a different story in their eyes.

However, Yang Chen was different. He knew that the possibility of Eternal Ash betraying him was extremely slim, so he considered things more comprehensively.

Soon, Yang Chen asked, “Eternal Ash, are you sure you can lure the Prohibition Demon Clan members to an uninhabited place? What method will you use?”

Eternal Ash replied respectfully, “Master, I’ve heard that humans have their own hobbies, such as lust, gambling, etc. Our Prohibition Demon Clan naturally has our own too...”

Yang Chen’s lips curled up, and he glanced at Eternal Ash. Through the Servitude Restriction, he determined that Eternal Ash was not lying and said, “Well, I’ll follow your plan. If it succeeds, I’ll definitely reward you handsomely!” Yang Chen said.

Upon hearing about the reward, Eternal Ash’s eyes lit up, and he eagerly went to find the target he had already locked onto.

“Captain, do you really trust this Red Shura Demon? I’m afraid this kid has ulterior motives and intends to harm you.” A few team members voiced their concerns.

“Yeah, Captain, if we take action and get exposed, what should we do?”

Yang Chen grinned, “There’s not much to worry about, actually. You see, all we want is to enter the battlefield. What’s the purpose of us entering the battlefield? To stir up chaos. We might kill a Prohibition Demon outside, and they might make a fuss, but once we’re inside the battlefield, they can’t come in and investigate, can they?”

Having said that, Yang Chen continued, "Determining whether Eternal Ash is trying to harm me or not is simple. Just look at whether the target he chose is a tough nut to crack or easy prey."

The team members couldn't help but cast their gaze to see that Eternal Ash had chosen a Red Flame Demon at the peak of the Earth Martial Realm.

They didn't know what Eternal Ash had said to the Red Flame Demon, but the Red Flame Demon immediately followed Eternal Ash away with a big grin.

Seeing this, Yang Chen said, "Let's go!"

The Red Flame Demon followed Eternal Ash to an uninhabited area without anyone noticing. Instead, the Red Flame Demon was still grinning, saying, "Brother, are you serious? As long as I give you 300 top-grade Demon Crystals, you'll have a White Lotus Demon to please me for a night?"

"Of course, brother. I specialize in this business; why would I lie to you?" Eternal Ash chuckled.

The Red Flame Demon immediately got excited, "Brother, then call the White Lotus Demon out quickly! I haven't enjoyed that exquisite body in days since the White Lotus Demon is not on the battlefield."

"Don't be so impatient, brother. The White Lotus Demon is on her way. Look at you, so anxious." Eternal Ash's eyes darted around, then he said, "Look, she's here, right behind you."

Without giving it much thought, the Red Flame Demon couldn't think of a reason for Eternal Ash to harm him, so he turned his head around without worry.

But the moment he turned around, magma-like flames surged up from the ground in an instant, engulfing the Red Flame Demon.

The Red Flame Demon was still vigilant and tried to fight back quickly, attempting to use the Red Flame Demon Fire against the Blazing Sky Sacred Fire. However, once he truly began to resist, he realized what a grave mistake he had made.

“Ah!” His Red Flame Demon Fire was like an egg striking a rock, and his body was burnt to ashes.

Yang Chen and the others appeared.

“Captain, I’ve got the Red Flame Demon’s storage bag and military plaque.” Han Cai picked up both items and excitedly shouted.

The other team members looked at the Red Flame Demon’s burned ashes and said, “Captain, you’ve used True Qi, but the Demonic Qi in your body hasn’t dissipated.”

“That’s because you’re different from me. This Demon Qi Pill was created by me. I have a way to prevent the Demonic Qi from dissipating, even when I use True Qi. But it’s different for you; if you forcefully dissipate the Demonic Qi, it will harm your body.” Yang Chen explained.

“So that’s how it is...” The team members understood.

Yang Chen immediately looked at Eternal Ash and said, “Eternal Ash, you did a great job.”

Eternal Ash knew how to choose targets. Knowing that Yang Chen could easily deal with a Red Flame Demon, he directly chose a Red Flame Demon for him to handle. As soon as Yang Chen’s Blazing Sky Sacred Fire was released, the Red Flame Demon had no chance of fighting back.

“Thank you, Master. This is what I should be doing. Speaking of which, I just learned that this Red Flame Demon belongs to the Lone Moon Demon King’s subordinates. When we enter the battlefield later, we can claim to be the reinforcement army under the Lone Moon Demon King. But we must be careful not to let the people led by this Red Flame Demon hear about this; otherwise, there might be discrepancies.” Eternal Ash said.

Upon hearing this, Yang Chen waved his hand and took out more than ten Elixirs, handing them to Eternal Ash.

“These Elixirs are a reward for you.” Yang Chen said.

Eternal Ash’s face immediately lit up with joy, and he was extremely happy. He knew the importance of these Elixirs, and each one meant an extra lifesaving magic treasure.

“Thank you, Master.” Eternal Ash repeatedly expressed his gratitude, brimming with excitement.

Yang Chen leaned back, “Do a good job for me, and you’ll be well-rewarded. Now tell me, what realm are these Demon Kings at?”

“These Demon Kings are at least at the peak of the Earth Martial Realm, but Master, don’t underestimate them. Even those at the peak of the Earth Martial Realm have combat power far stronger than ordinary Half-step Heavenly Martial Realm people. As for the Demon Kings who have reached the Half-step Heavenly Martial Realm, they have the ability to fight several Half-step Heavenly Martial Realm opponents alone. Only at this realm can they be called Demon Kings. Every Demon King is an incredibly terrifying existence...” Eternal Ash said, a hint of fear in his voice.

Upon hearing this, Yang Chen understood.

This was similar to the reasoning behind having a Chief Team Leader and General among the numerous human teams; it was just that the Prohibition Demon Clan called them Demon Kings.

Chapter 1103: Infiltrating Behind Enemy Lines!_1

Yang Chen’s interest was piqued, and he immediately asked, “So, what are the outstanding individuals in the Heaven Martial Realm called?”

“When it comes to the Heaven Martial Realm, I’ve heard that they are called Demon Lords. Reaching the level of Demon Lord means being second only to a very few Demon Emperors, making them the highest-ranking beings,” Eternal Ash said with admiration.

Upon hearing this, Yang Chen nodded.

As he hurried back, he continued to ask Eternal Ash about the situation on the battlefield. Unconsciously, they had already reached the frontline checkpoint.

With the military plaque this time, Yang Chen had much more confidence. After the queue in front of him was over, he led his team straight towards the checkpoint.

They could see the team that had killed the Red Flame Demon waiting for the return of their captain. The Prohibition Demon clan members in these teams did not raise any suspicion since the Red Flame Demon had not been gone for long.

Yang Chen breathed a sigh of relief at this scene, walking to the front and coming to the two Giant Strength Demon gatekeepers.

The two Giant Strength Demons spoke as soon as they took action; "Which team are you from? Where's your military plaque?"

"The military plaque is here..." Yang Chen handed over the military plaque with a smile, but did not answer the question about which team he belonged to.

Seeing that the military plaque was genuine, the Giant Strength Demon did not press Yang Chen on the matter, but muttered, "Why are there so few people in your team?"

Yang Chen and his team members felt a sudden chill in their hearts, as they hadn't thought about how to explain the situation. Fortunately, the two Giant Strength Demons did not suspect anything, they just asked and then said, "Alright, you can go now. Remember to kill more enemies on the front line."

Only then did Yang Chen and his team members breathe a sigh of relief and entered the frontline.

About three hours after Yang Chen entered the frontline, the team to which the Red Flame Demon killed by Yang Chen belonged, finally became suspicious when their Red Flame Demon captain did not return after a long time and hastily began searching for him.

After searching, the Prohibition Demon Clan found clues and confirmed that their captain was already dead.

This caused a huge commotion at the checkpoint, as killing someone right in front of the battlefield checkpoint was no small matter. The Lone Moon Demon King's team could not accept the fact and vowed to catch the murderer.

However, by this time, Yang Chen and his team had already infiltrated deep into the frontline and entered the interior of the battlefield.

"Haha, Captain, we have already been in the frontline for three hours now. We should be safe now, right? My goodness, I can finally breathe a sigh of relief," Han Cai exclaimed with emotion.

He had been on tenterhooks during the journey into the frontline.

"We should be safe now," Yang Chen said slowly.

As they entered the frontline, they galloped straight into the depths of the battlefield. It was inevitable, as they were not real members of the Prohibition Demon clan, and also had killed a Red Flame Demon at the checkpoint.

But their situation was now much safer.

Only now did Yang Chen have the opportunity to take a good look at his surroundings, noticing that the area was filled with Demonic Qi and members of the Prohibition Demon clan. There were Giant Strength Demons, Red Shura Demons, and Red Flame Demons that Yang Chen was familiar with, as well as Prohibition Demon clan members he did not recognize, with bizarre appearances that were not even recorded in human ancient books. Yang Chen had not even found them in the memories of the Red Shura Demon he had investigated before.

What was most noteworthy was that there were dead Prohibition Demon clan members everywhere, as well as many wounded Prohibition Demon clan members among them. Moreover, their fellow Prohibition Demon clan members did not even have the intention to save them, nor did they even glance at them.

“Captain, look... there are also many human corpses,” Han Cai whispered cautiously.

“Mmm,” Yang Chen nodded, clearly seeing the situation.

As long as their minds weren't dull, they could guess that this place must have been a battlefield between humans and the Prohibition Demon clan not long ago. The Prohibition Demon clan had just won and occupied this area.

With this in mind, Yang Chen, wanting to confirm his suspicions, grabbed a Prohibition Demon clan member who was about to rush to the core of the battlefield and asked, “Brother, do you know where we are?”

“You don't even know that? This is Vulture Ridge!” The Prohibition Demon clan member didn't bother explaining further, leaving just one sentence before departing.

“Vulture Ridge? What's that?” Yang Chen asked again.

Only Eternal Ash gritted his teeth and said, “Master, Vulture Ridge used to be a border area of the human Eastern War Zone... However, although it was a border, humans attached great importance to this area. Our Prohibition Demon clan has been trying hard to eradicate this area, but has never been successful.”

“What?” Yang Chen narrowed his eyes.

It seemed that his guess was correct.

Vulture Ridge used to be a human territory, and now they were in this territory with countless Prohibition Demon clan members around them. Wasn't the situation quite clear?

Vulture Ridge had been occupied by the Prohibition Demon clan, and they were still attacking the human territory.

Yang Chen had never fought a war himself, but he had seen the world and knew that once they retreated, they would have to keep retreating. The situation was not good for humans.

With this in mind, Yang Chen waved his hand: "We must not delay. Let's move forward and see how far the Prohibition Demon Clan has advanced and also check the core of the battlefield."

"Yes, Captain," the team members responded in unison.

Yang Chen led the way, moving forward without arousing any suspicion. In this chaotic battlefield, no one paid any attention to the strangeness of Yang Chen's team members. Thus, they reached the core of the battlefield.

The core of the battlefield was where the Prohibition Demon clan was now fighting humans.

From a distance, Yang Chen could feel the overwhelming Demonic Qi, the clash of True Qi, and the cries and battle sounds. The deafening sounds of collision coming from afar made the cruelty and heroism of the battlefield palpable even without seeing it with the naked eye.

Yang Chen's soul spread out, sensing everything clearly.

He was shocked in an instant.

Thousands of Prohibition Demon clan members and humans fought together, and this was not a fight between Spirit Sect Realm or Origin Martial Realm warriors. Instead, it was a genuine battle between Earth Martial Realm warriors, which could be considered a high-level conflict between the two sides.

When they fought, it was naturally earth-shattering, spanning millions of miles and even longer distances without any problem.

Every moment, a large number of Prohibition Demon clan members fell.

Every moment, a large number of humans also fell.

Not only Yang Chen, but his team members were also shocked.

They stopped, not knowing what to do.

“Captain, let’s go up there and fight with these Prohibition Demon clan members!” Han Cai was filled with passion, wanting to fight a life-and-death battle with the Prohibition Demon clan members.

“If we really go and fight with these Prohibition Demon clan members to the death, it would be quite simple. But doing so, what would be the difference between us and other humans? What’s the point of us painstakingly disguising ourselves and sneaking into the enemy’s rear?” Yang Chen asked, his tone serious.

Chapter 1104: Undying Demon!_1

Yes, if they just rushed in and attacked, what would be the point of disguising themselves as the Prohibition Demon Clan and infiltrating the enemy’s rear? Standing here now, they had the advantage of time, place, and people. If they charged out like this, they would be wasting the perfect opportunity they had fought for themselves.

Han Cai took a deep breath: “Captain is right, we must remain calm at this moment. We must not take any reckless measures. With our current status, there are many things we can do, and each of them would be more meaningful than simply rushing forward in such a hurry. From now on, we will follow the Captain’s orders and not act impulsively.”

“Don’t worry, we’ll observe the situation thoroughly first,” Yang Chen remained as calm as ever.

At present, observing the situation was the most important thing, and that was the advantage of their current position.

The war couldn’t be won in a short time, so Yang Chen observed everything within his field of vision.

“The Prohibition Demon Clan has a strong lineup, with hundreds of Giant Strength Demons. Most of them are at the half-step Heavenly Martial Realm and peak of the Earth Martial Realm, making them very powerful.”

Yang Chen thought to himself, “But our human combat power is not bad either; compared to the Prohibition Demon Clan, we have other means. We can still barely resist the Prohibition Demon Clan...”

Humans and the Prohibition Demon Clan fought intensely, and it was hard to determine the outcome.

“Hmm? Yu Gang and Ma Youwei are also here.” Yang Chen’s expression turned cold as he spotted two familiar figures among the human forces.

Weren’t these two familiar figures none other than Yu Gang and Ma Youwei?

Ma Youwei’s rank was obviously lower, and he was flattering Yu Gang. However, Yu Gang’s position on the battlefield was not the highest either. He sat on a chair discussing strategies with a middle-aged man, attentively absorbing the man’s thoughts.

The man in purple clothes, looking quite solemn. He was obviously the one commanding the human forces and controlling the overall situation.

“Do you know who that man in purple is?” Yang Chen asked curiously.

None of the team members knew, and they all shook their heads. After a moment, Eternal Ash hesitantly spoke up: “Master, I know something about this person.”

Yang Chen couldn't help but chuckle: "Go ahead and tell us!"

"The man in purple is one of the four deputy leaders of the human forces, commanding the East District. His name is Zhang Zhongyi. He has a stubborn personality and is a very tough character. Rumor has it that he has caused a lot of trouble for our Prohibition Demon Clan. During our sneak attack this time, he was the most difficult target to deal with. Also, he is a key target for us to kill, a thorn in the side of the Prohibition Demon Clan! Zhang Zhongyi is indeed talented. Although he's stubborn, he's not stupid. His strength is astonishing, said to be capable of single-handedly fighting a half-step Heavenly Martial Realm Giant Strength Demon of our Prohibition Demon Clan without any problems." Eternal Ash provided a detailed explanation.

As he was able to understand this so well from his position on the border of the Prohibition Demon Clan battlefield, it wasn't hard to determine that Zhang Zhongyi was talented and had made a name for himself.

Yang Chen couldn't help but feel helpless in his heart. Sometimes, he couldn't blame the Prohibition Demon Clan for having the upper hand on the battlefield. Their humans' overall system had problems. Not only did they have a detailed understanding of their enemies, but they also knew a lot about their own people.

Yet the team members under his command knew nothing about their enemies or their own people. On the other hand, the Prohibition Demon Clan members had a very detailed understanding of the human side.

As Yang Chen sighed in his heart, he continued to observe the situation. Zhang Zhongyi was controlling the overall battlefield, leading the numerous humans on the battlefield with unceasing morale and counterattacking the Prohibition Demon Clan.

The Prohibition Demon Clan seemed to be growing impatient, as they couldn't break through after a long attack. Many of them had already reported the situation to their superiors.

“Leader, it’s that Zhang Zhongyi guy again. This place is hard to capture without getting rid of him. Last time we launched a sneak attack on Vulture Ridge, we barely managed to capture it when we had the upper hand. But now that Zhang Zhongyi has secured his footing, he’s well-versed in the Way of Array Formations and the Way of Forbidden Methods, making him a master tactician. If we don’t take action now, we won’t stand a chance in this battle against the Prohibition Demon Clan.”

The Chief Demon, known as the leader, looked very different from the other members of the Prohibition Demon Clan. He was tall and had a distinctive appearance.

At this moment, he was sitting in his chair, hands behind his back, listening to his subordinates’ reports with an indifferent expression: “Humph, it’s that Zhang guy again, ruining our plans.”

“Leader, what should we do?”

“Yes, leader, we must strike hard now. If we fail at this stage, it will be difficult to win later.”

“What’s there to worry about?” The Chief Demon sneered. “As long as I’m in charge here, I won’t let this Zhang Zhongyi take advantage. You all step back and let me handle it personally!”

With that, the Chief Demon, stood up, swung his sleeves, and demonic qi covered the sky like rolling wolf smoke, spreading out in all directions. Wherever this demonic qi went, there were screams, countless human martial artists died, and even many half-step Sky Martial elite warriors perished under this demonic qi, showing the power of this Chief Demon.

“Who is this demon? He’s so powerful!” Yang Chen was shocked as he watched the Chief Demon in action.

Eternal Ash shuddered as he watched the Chief Demon. “Master, this is the Undying Demon, a royal demon of our clan, also known as the Leader Demon!”

He had never heard of the Undying Demon before.

“The Undying Demon possesses the noblest bloodline of our clan, and they are born leaders of the Prohibition Demon Clan, hence the name Leader Demon. They are rare; even with tens of thousands of members in our clan, it’s rare to see an Undying Demon. And their battle power is extremely strong from birth. They are the leaders of our Prohibition Demon Clan! I...I only heard about their appearance, and it’s my first time seeing an Undying Demon!” Eternal Ash trembled, demonstrating a deep-rooted fear when facing the royal demon.

Watching the Undying Demon wreak havoc on the battlefield, he was like a walking bomb, posing a much greater threat to humans than the Giant Strength Demons.

The Undying Demon’s actions caused the situation on the battlefield to change drastically.

Seeing this, Zhang Zhongyi’s face changed and he shouted, “Whoever is willing to fight, kill this Undying Demon’s arrogance!”

Chapter 1105: Battle of the Leaders_1

Seeing the Immortal Demon’s incredible power, all the talented individuals under Zhang Zhongyi’s command felt disheartened. It wasn’t that they didn’t want to step up, but they had witnessed the frightening ability of the Immortal Demon. Carelessly challenging him would be akin to seeking death.

However, to everyone’s surprise, a remarkable scene soon took place.

No one could have expected Yu Gang to suddenly step forward with a spring in his step and then laugh, saying, “Leader Zhang, this Leader Demon is indeed formidable, but I happen to have a method to deal with him. How about you let me give it a try?”

“Oh? Yu Gang, if you are confident, then go ahead and face the Immortal Demon. I hope you can crush his arrogance!” Zhang Zhongyi said.

Upon hearing this, Yu Gang’s eyes gleamed, and he hurried forward.

If it had been before, there was no way he could challenge the Immortal Demon, as he was no match for him with his abilities. However, he had recently obtained a treasure that was perfect for restraining the Prohibition Demon Clan.

With this treasure, he didn't believe he could not defeat the Immortal Demon.

Now, it was time for the Immortal Demon to taste his power. If he could suppress the Immortal Demon's prestige today, even Zhang Zhongyi would have to hold him in high regard. Wouldn't it be easy for him to be promoted by one level?

It was known that several Great Emperors had said that anyone who could perform excellently in this war would be rewarded heavily after the war was over!

The more Yu Gang thought about it, the more excited he became. He stepped forward and shouted, "Immortal Demon, let me test your skills."

"Yu Gang?" Yang Chen was surprised and intrigued when he saw that it was Yu Gang who had stepped forward.

He did not believe that the matter with Ma Youwei had nothing to do with Yu Gang. There must be Yu Gang's shadow behind it. Knowing that Yu Gang had caused him no small amount of trouble, how could Yang Chen have any good feelings for Yu Gang?

Seeing that someone in the human race dared to come forward, the Immortal Demon immediately laughed: "Who are you? I do not kill nameless people. You humans are truly cowardly, none of those with any reputation have come forward, leaving only someone as incompetent as you to come and die."

Hearing the Immortal Demon ridicule him like this, Yu Gang's face turned red. Compared to the fierce generals under Zhang Zhongyi's command, he was indeed unknown.

When he finished speaking, Yu Gang instantly launched an attack and faced off against the Immortal Demon.

Yang Chen was curious about Yu Gang's moves.

If Yu Gang could really defeat the Immortal Demon, that would be a good thing, even if he had a grudge against Yu Gang, he would have nothing to say. However, it was clear that although Yu Gang seemed fierce, he was instantly overshadowed when he faced off against the Immortal Demon.

The Immortal Demon's Demonic Qi unfolded, enveloping Yu Gang in an instant. Waves of Demonic Qi attacked, and Yu Gang used four or five techniques in a row, but he couldn't overcome the majestic Demonic Qi deployed by the Immortal Demon.

This Demonic Qi was like an ocean, rolling forth with ferocious wolf smoke, making it nearly impossible to break through.

Yu Gang had exhausted all his techniques and was running out of ideas.

This caused Yu Gang to feel a chill down his spine, and he yelled, "Immortal Demon, let me show you my treasure."

As soon as he finished speaking, Yu Gang suddenly took out a giant axe. This axe was different from other axes, it was actually a dazzling, seven-colored giant axe. The axe head was at least the size of four or five people, held tightly in Yu Gang's hands, emitting a strange color.

This was Yu Gang's trump card, the Seven-Colored Giant Axe!

It was by chance that Yu Gang had recently acquired this treasure. At first, he did not pay much attention to its usefulness. However, later on the battlefield, he discovered that this giant axe had a peculiar restraining effect against the Prohibition Demon Clan. Therefore, with this giant axe in hand, he had achieved significant merit points and been promoted to the position of a general.

Now that he was well-versed with this giant axe, his confidence was sky-high. As soon as the giant axe appeared, he suddenly swung it, and a wave of seven-colored light surged forth.

“Immortal Demon, if you dare, take my axe!” Yu Gang shouted, trying to attack the opponent’s morale.

The seven-colored light charged towards the Immortal Demon, who snorted in disdain and actually caught the light with his bare hands.

The seven-colored light directly entered the Immortal Demon’s body, causing his body to tremble slightly.

Yu Gang’s face lit up with delight, and he thought the Immortal Demon was an idiot for daring to catch the power of his Seven-Colored Giant Axe with his bare hands. Now it was time for him to suffer.

However, just as this thought crossed his mind, the Immortal Demon’s Demonic Qi suddenly surged, and he laughed coldly.

“Hahaha!”

“How could it be? How could he be completely unharmed?” Yu Gang’s face suddenly turned pale.

The Immortal Demon said coldly, “Hmph, this axe does have some peculiar effects, and it seems that it is quite effective in restraining our Prohibition Demons, but unfortunately, you’ve met me. I, the Immortal Demon, am a royal Prohibition Demon, and my body is far superior to ordinary Prohibition Demons. However, since you have this axe, leaving you alive would be a disaster, so die!”

As soon as he finished speaking, his Demonic Qi suddenly transformed into countless fierce tigers and giant beasts, attacking Yu Gang in various forms and poses.

Seeing that the Seven-Colored Giant Axe had lost its effect, Yu Gang trembled in fear and screamed as he tried to turn and flee.

His True Qi was completely exhausted, so how could he have any other means? Thinking that his life was in danger, he didn't even care about his image anymore.

"Hmph, where do you think you're going!" the Immortal Demon shouted.

"Save me, save me!" Yu Gang yelled.

As Yu Gang showed himself in this manner, many people sighed. They didn't have much contact with Yu Gang, and as his personality was not very likable, no one intended to rescue him.

However, Zhang Zhongyi couldn't just sit idly by. Seeing Yu Gang's condition, and that no one else dared to make a move, he immediately slapped his chair, and in an instant, he stepped forward.

"Hmph!"

In the cold snort, thunder rolled, and an enormous golden Dharma body appeared, along with his own body appearing.

This Dharma Manifestation was a golden giant, tens of meters tall. Upon its emergence, it threw a punch, breaking through the Immortal Demon's attacks and saving Yu Gang in the process.

"Yu Gang, you go back first," said Zhang Zhongyi in a cold voice after saving Yu Gang.

"Yes, yes, commander..." Yu Gang was already shivering with fear.

Zhang Zhongyi also regarded the Immortal Demon as a great enemy at this moment, and said coldly, "Immortal Demon, let this seat experience your skills! Since we are both commanders, it's only fair that we fight each other!"

"Hehe, Zhang Zhongyi, I've been waiting for you for a long time. I'll defeat you and see how you humans can win!" The Immortal Demon arrogantly threw down a remark and then unleashed his Demonic Qi.

As the two leaders suddenly began to fight, everyone's attention was focused on them.

Chapter 1106: Fire in the Backyard? _1

Their battle became the focus of both sides, and it could be said that their victory or defeat was linked to the outcome of this fight. Whoever won would significantly boost morale for their side, breaking the stalemate and creating an opportunity for a breakthrough.

Zhang Zhongyi did not want to step forward initially, not because he was unwilling to. If it were not for his position as deputy leader, he would really like to challenge this Immortal Demon. However, his status made it impossible for him to accept failure.

If he lost alone, the whole team would be defeated.

But now he had no choice but to step forward and fight this Immortal Demon!

He could only hope for divine help on the humans' side, allowing him to defeat the Immortal Demon.

It must be said that Zhang Zhongyi still had great abilities. The moment he made his move, his Giant Dharma body threw a series of powerful punches. Unlike Yu Gang, who was suppressed instantly, Zhang Zhongyi actually seemed to be on par with the Immortal Demon.

"Leader Zhang is indeed amazing, he can actually fight on equal terms with the Immortal Demon." On Yang Chen's side, several team members exclaimed.

Yang Chen also watched this fight, his hands involuntarily sweating.

"Captain, who do you think has a better chance of winning between Leader Zhang and the Immortal Demon?" Han Cai asked curiously, unconsciously believing that Yang Chen's answer would be the correct one.

Yang Chen shook his head and said, "It's still too early to tell."

He said so, but in his heart, he sighed heavily. If possible, he really hoped Zhang Zhongyi would win. But if Zhang Zhongyi really had a chance of winning, why would he have waited for Yu Gang to make the first move?

His choice to act later was a sign of a lack of confidence.

Although it seemed that Zhang Zhongyi was evenly matched with the Immortal Demon, a closer look would reveal that Zhang Zhongyi was giving it his all, but the Immortal Demon was still playing it cool.

As expected, after just half an hour of fighting and hundreds of rounds between the two, Zhang Zhongyi was clearly unable to maintain a draw and began to fall behind.

At this point, the Immortal Demon and Zhang Zhongyi had already reached a climax in their fight, with both sides exhausting their skills, and the chances of victory and defeat were starting to become apparent.

The Immortal Demon grew stronger as the battle progressed, while Zhang Zhongyi's injuries began to accumulate. Although he seemed unbeatable, failure was only a matter of time.

As the battle went on, the Immortal Demon became more excited and laughed heartily, "Zhang Zhongyi, you can't hold on anymore. Your Giant Dharma body is indeed powerful, but you are still lacking in front of my Yin-Yang Twin Lizards."

At this moment, two giant lizards were floating beside the Immortal Demon, one gold and one black, representing yin and yang.

Everyone watching the battle found out that it was these two giant lizards that caused great difficulties for Zhang Zhongyi. The two lizards, one Yang and one Yin, both had very unique effects. On their own, Zhang Zhongyi could have held a draw, but the appearance of the two lizards allowed the Immortal Demon to make several moves that left Zhang Zhongyi unable to turn the tide.

Considering the current situation, Zhang Zhongyi clenched his teeth and did not back down even though he was injured. He knew that if he retreated now, the human side would surely be defeated like a landslide!

The Immortal Demon sneered, “Zhang Zhongyi, I didn’t expect you to be so stubborn. Even now, you still refuse to back down. If that’s the case, you might as well die here!”

As his words ended, his Yin-Yang Twin Lizards attacked again.

Zhang Zhongyi roared, “Immortal Demon, do you really think you’ve won?”

As his words fell, Zhang Zhongyi threw a punch; it turned into a brilliant golden giant fist. This fist bombarded and collided with the True Qi spit out by the Yin-Yang Twin Lizards.

However, soon, an astonishing thing happened: the Yin-Yang Twin Lizards effortlessly corroded the golden fist, and Zhang Zhongyi’s final move was easily dissolved.

Zhang Zhongyi’s face turned pale, and even now, he still couldn’t figure out what the Yin-Yang Twin Lizards were.

“Leader, be careful!” Several of Zhang Zhongyi’s subordinates quickly moved into action when they saw he was in trouble. They attacked together, barely holding off the Yin-Yang Twin Lizards’ moves and saving Zhang Zhongyi.

They quickly retreated with Zhang Zhongyi. Although Zhang Zhongyi was unharmed, the situation clearly indicated that he had lost.

Seeing this, the Immortal Demon laughed even louder, his voice echoing like thunder, “Zhang Zhongyi, what’s the point of sparing your life? A defeated general is insignificant.”

“This is bad. This is really bad.” Zhang Zhongyi’s heart was in turmoil as he said, “My defeat is a small matter, but the collapse of the army’s morale is a big deal. You guys need to go down quickly and find a way to steady the army’s morale. Don’t let my defeat have an impact on the outcome of this battle!”

Several of Leader Zhang's subordinates did not hesitate and went down one after another.

At the same time, on Yang Chen's side...

"Captain, what can we do now? Han Cai and the others were worried when they saw Leader Zhang's defeat.

Yang Chen looked at the soldiers below and saw that they were already affected by the defeat. The Immortal Demon purposely made his voice louder when he spoke, and Zhang Zhongyi's defeat was a fact that brought the morale down in an instant.

On the other hand, the morale of the Prohibition Demon Clan soared, and they were unstoppable.

Seeing that the situation was extremely unfavorable for the humans, Yang Chen clenched his teeth and said, "You wait here, I'll think of something."

The others didn't know what Yang Chen meant, but when they saw him leave, they couldn't help but feel anxious and didn't dare to act rashly.

Yang Chen calculated in his heart that the Immortal Demon was now victorious and was at the height of his arrogance. The other party had no guard at the moment, so he went straight up, aiming at the Immortal Demon.

Even Zhang Zhongyi had lost, so he had no reason not to take action. Although facing the Immortal Demon, even he didn't have much confidence, he didn't have time to worry about that. He had to act whether he was ready or not.

Now that the morale was high, the road to find the Immortal Demon was quite stable, without encountering any obstacles. It wasn't until he approached the Immortal Demon that two Half-step Heavenly Martial Realm Prohibition Demon Clan members blocked Yang Chen's way.

"Who are you?" Several members of the Prohibition Demon Clan asked.

"It's like this. I have an urgent matter to see the leader. This matter is of great importance. I hope you brothers can report it." Yang Chen pretended to be anxious.

"Oh? What's the matter?" The Immortal Demon inside heard the conversation and responded politely, being in a good mood after hearing Yang Chen's question.

Yang Chen, in a rush, shouted, "Leader, there's a big problem. We don't know what methods the humans have come up with, but they suddenly appeared behind us. Our rear is now in chaos, you need to hurry over and see."

Chapter 1107: Yang Chen's Means_1

"What? This is happening too?" The Undying Demon's eyes widened.

It's better to believe it and not be careless, especially at this crucial moment of victory.

"Yes, I hurried here to report this news to you, leader." Yang Chen said.

"Hmph, you know what will happen if you deceive me!" The Undying Demon took a step forward, staring intently at Yang Chen, trying to discern if he was lying or telling the truth.

Yang Chen remained calm under the Undying Demon's gaze, but halfway through, he suddenly waved his hand. A large amount of Blazing Sky Sacred Fire instantly wrapped around the Shapeshifting Liquid Fire and Starfire, heading straight towards the Undying Demon.

With the triple flames, Yang Chen couldn't even imagine what method the Undying Demon would use to break through.

Everything went smoothly, and the two layers of flames directly enveloped the Undying Demon. It was apparent that the Undying Demon's vigilance was not very obvious.

However, at the critical moment when the flames were burning, suddenly, his triple flames were instantly broken into a large hole. Immediately after, Yang Chen felt his triple flames rapidly depleting, and his heart was filled with alarm.

The Undying Demon snorted coldly, and then Yang Chen’s chosen surprise attack, the triple flames, completely dissipated.

At this moment, the Yin-Yang Twin Lizards reappeared beside the Undying Demon. It was not difficult to deduce that the method that made Yang Chen’s techniques dissipate was indeed these Yin-Yang Twin Lizards.

Yang Chen’s expression was cold, and he gritted his teeth. Based on his earlier observation of the battle, these Yin-Yang Twin Lizards were very strange. Now that he had experienced it personally, Yang Chen had a deeper understanding of the Undying Demon’s means.

The Yang Lizard of the Yin-Yang Twin Lizards seemed to be able to devour all moves related to True Qi. Otherwise, his triple flames would not have been devoured like that. Although both Starfire and Blazing Sky Sacred Fire were Strange Fires, they were both launched with the help of True Qi and would be devoured by the Yang Lizard all the same.

As for the Yin Lizard, the gas it spews out seemed to be able to decay True Qi...

In other words, when facing the Undying Demon, any techniques related to True Qi would be easily countered by the Undying Demon.

The Undying Demon had indeed cultivated an excellent countermeasure against humans.

At this thought, Yang Chen couldn’t help but sigh. After all, if humans have a means to counter the Forbidden Demon Clan, then the Forbidden Demon Clan naturally also has a means to counter humans.

“How dare you hurt our leader!” Several of the Undying Demon’s subordinates were about to take action.

At this moment, the Undying Demon coldly stared at Yang Chen and waved his hand to stop his subordinates. He then looked at Yang Chen coldly, "You are not from the Forbidden Demon Clan. Your Demonic Qi just now was a bit strange. Who are you? Show your true form quickly."

Yang Chen heard this, and the corners of his mouth lifted slightly. He then used the Silver Needle to prick his face a few times, and his face returned to its human form. After that, he threw away the dual horns, and his Demonic Qi returned to normal.

He was back to his original self, Yang Chen.

"What? This kid is human?" Several members of the Forbidden Demon Clan were taken aback, completely caught off guard.

The Undying Demon was equally shocked, "You are actually human, good, good! Human, you are quite capable, to be able to disguise yourself as a Forbidden Demon and sneak in here. Tell me, how many more are there like you?"

The Undying Demon was worried. If there were not many like Yang Chen, it would be fine. But if there were hundreds or thousands of them waiting for the opportunity to strike, it would be disastrous.

Now that Yang Chen had revealed his true appearance, he intended to make the Forbidden Demon Clan feel uneasy. At this moment, he didn't mind adding fuel to the fire, shouting, "Hahaha, Undying Demon, you're scared, aren't you? Let me tell you, I have at least a thousand humans disguised as Forbidden Demon Clan members lurking behind you. These humans are ready to take action at any time. You just wait!"

Yang Chen's words, mixed with True Qi, made his voice thunderous and thoroughly spread throughout every corner of the battlefield.

Many Human Martial Artists heard this, and their originally plummeting morale suddenly rose. It turned out that the humans had already made arrangements and even arranged for thousands of disguised Martial Artists in the rear?

However, this news surprised Zhang Zhongyi, who was previously completely unaware of these disguised Martial Artists.

“Commander, I think there might be something fishy about this. Although it seems to be very beneficial for us, we should not jump to conclusions!” Yu Gang stepped out and said at this moment.

Zhang Zhongyi couldn’t help but frown.

“Commander, look over there. There seems to be a person standing next to the Undying Demon. A fellow Martial Artist of ours.”

“Who is he?!”

“He dares to confront the Undying Demon!”

“Who is this person, able to get so close to the Undying Demon?”

All the Martial Artists were extremely surprised.

At the same time, Yang Chen’s shout had completely enraged the Undying Demon.

“Kid, I want you dead.” The Undying Demon didn’t know if there were really any Human Martial Artists lurking behind him, but now he just wanted to kill Yang Chen.

When the conversation ended, his Yin Lizard suddenly spewed out a strange Acid Water, which went straight towards Yang Chen.

Seeing this, Yang Chen immediately used the Blazing Sky Sacred Fire, but an astonishing scene quickly unfolded. When the Acid Water collided with the Blazing Sky Sacred Fire, Yang Chen's Blazing Sky Sacred Fire instantly decayed.

"Good thing, even the Strange Fire has decayed?" Yang Chen was shocked.

Just as he suspected, the Yin Lizard's technique was able to decay any moves related to True Qi.

No wonder Zhang Zhongyi's numerous moves were of no use against these Yin-Yang Twin Lizards. Having a variety of techniques was useless against them.

The Undying Demon snorted and said, "Kid, I'm very impressed that you've made it this far. I'll let you die knowing the truth. My Yin-Yang Twin Lizards are holy relics that I cultivated using my Essence Blood and various resources. The Yang Lizard can refine your techniques, and just now, two of the three layers of your flames were Strange Fires. But even then, they were still refined by my Yang Lizard. Once refined, the Yang Lizard will transfer the refined product to the Yin Lizard."

"At that point, the Yin Lizard will transform the refined substance into Acid Water. This Acid Water is refined from your Strange Fire, so naturally, it can break through your Strange Fire!"

At this moment, Yang Chen suddenly realized why his Strange Fire could be broken through. It turned out that the Undying Demon had converted his Strange Fire into Acid Water to deal with him.

"Hmph, Undying Demon. In that case, taste this technique that you can't refine." Yang Chen suddenly shouted.

"Twenty-four Thunder Annihilation!"

Boom.

Crackling sounds filled the air, and in an instant, a large amount of Heavenly Thunder descended from the sky. The Sky Thunder Pool was controlled by Yang Chen. Twenty-four Heavenly Thunders, one followed by another, fell at an incredibly fast speed, striking the Undying Demon's body without giving him any chance to use the Yang Lizard to absorb them.

Chapter 1108: The Power of the Collapse Mountain Cannon!_1

Boom boom boom...

Twenty-four thunderbolts struck Immortal Demon's body.

This scene left everyone in the human camp astonished. They knew that Zhang Zhongyi had tried his best but failed to gain any advantage over Immortal Demon, yet a mysterious youngster seemed to have the upper hand with his thunderous methods.

"Who is he?" Zhang Zhongyi looked at Yang Chen's back, his heart filled with excitement.

Regardless of who Yang Chen was, his appearance here boosted morale, as he could go toe to toe with Immortal Demon, which was a rare feat.

"How come I had no knowledge of such a talent in our camp?" Zhang Zhongyi sighed secretly, considering it a great sin.

"Commander, it's impressive for him to fight against Immortal Demon to this extent considering he's only at Earth Martial Realm Tier 8. If he reaches the Half-step Heavenly Martial Realm, perhaps he could even get the upper hand in their fight," someone said.

Zhang Zhongyi immediately gave the order: "You all pay attention. Don't interfere for now. Even if you do, you won't be much help. Just slow them down. When necessary, make sure this comrade doesn't get hurt."

"Yes, Commander!"

Everyone agreed.

Only Yu Gang spoke with an unclear motive, "Commander, I think something is odd about the issue. Just think about it, the boy appeared too abruptly. Why did he appear just when we needed him the most? Maybe it's a plot set by the Forbidden Demon Race; we should be prepared!"

"Hmph, Yu Gang, are you telling me that the Forbidden Demon Race is willing to give us the morale they gained so hard to cheat us? What do you think their purpose is? It seems to me that you have a big problem with this fellow. Do you happen to know him?" Someone with a keen sense smelled something fishy and questioned Yu Gang directly.

Yu Gang targeted Yang Chen because he had identified him as the one fighting against Immortal Demon using his Divine Soul earlier than others.

He remembered Ma Youwei telling him that Yang Chen had fled with the team out of guilt. But who could have thought that this boy would reappear from behind the Forbidden Demon Race and help the Eastern District Army a great deal.

This completely ruined his plan against Yang Chen. With no merits in this battle, he just wanted to get rid of Yang Chen to gain some achievements by reporting it to Dragon Commander. At the very least, he couldn't allow Yang Chen to overshadow his own merits.

That's why he tried to target Yang Chen verbally, but Zhang Zhongyi and others caught on quickly.

Yu Gang hurriedly said, "I don't know him. I just think the situation is strange. That's all."

Meanwhile, Yang Chen had executed the Twenty-four Thunder Extinction move fully, observing from the side to see the results after the twenty-four thunderbolts landed. However, he was shocked to see that Immortal Demon merely suffered some minor wounds on his body.

It was just a slight injury.

Immortal Demon shook his body, and his face was filled with extreme rage. He growled, "Kid, I've rarely been hurt. Even Zhang Zhongyi himself couldn't do anything to me, yet you managed to wound me. Good, you've angered me. I will kill you!"

With that, the Yin Lizard opened its mouth abruptly and spat out a large amount of acidic water.

The corrosive water was transformed by Yang Chen's Mysterious Flame and further refined by the Yin Lizard. Its corrosive ability was significantly increased.

Seeing the acidic water approaching, Yang Chen gritted his teeth, then quickly retreated and threw out several dozen feet of talismans.

Layers of these talismans manifested, covering the sky, but soon they were swallowed by the Yang Lizard.

"Well... It's true that talismans are formed from True Qi, and it's normal for the Yang Lizard to swallow them. Using other moves would only feed the Yang Lizard and make it more violent," Yang Chen's face tightened.

"Kid, your human moves are useless against my Yin and Yang Twin Lizards. Hehe, you better give up now!" Immortal Demon boasted.

Yang Chen fell into deep thought.

To be honest, with the presence of the Yin and Yang Lizards, most of his moves had become useless.

Although the Twenty-four Thunder was fast, the power didn't seem to be enough to destroy Immortal Demon. As for the Mountain-Breaking Style, its range was enormous, and it would only serve as a delicious meal for the Yang Lizard.

At this point, Yang Chen clenched his fists, thinking of the Mountain Breaking Cannon.

The Mountain Breaking Cannon targeted a single point, and after finding the point, it dispersed the gathered True Qi completely and detonated it. Unless Immortal Demon could use the Yang Lizard to fend off the attack quickly in a blink of an eye, he would have no chance of breaking the Mountain Breaking Cannon.

Even if Immortal Demon used the Yang Lizard to block the attack, Yang Chen estimated that the lizard wouldn't be able to quickly absorb the vast amount of True Qi dispersing at such a rapid pace. If he couldn't kill Immortal Demon, killing the Yang Lizard would be acceptable too.

With this in mind, he immediately shouted, "Immortal Demon, don't be too smug! If moves with True Qi are ineffective against you, then let's try something unrelated to True Qi!"

Of course, the Mountain Breaking Cannon couldn't be unrelated to True Qi; it was just Yang Chen's strategy to confuse Immortal Demon.

Yang Chen held the Hong Yan Spear, and in a flash, he charged toward Immortal Demon.

Seeing Yang Chen approaching with bare hands and no sign of True Qi, Immortal Demon was equally surprised. Then he laughed arrogantly, "Kid, you're courting death."

As he finished speaking, Immortal Demon went on the offensive, determined to defeat Yang Chen.

However, at this moment, Yang Chen suddenly poured his True Qi into the Long Spear, and the next instant, he targeted Immortal Demon with it.

"Mountain Breaking Cannon!" Yang Chen shouted fiercely.

Instantly, the True Qi exploded like a cannon, and though Immortal Demon noticed it, he had no time to use the Yang Lizard to resist. His face changed rapidly, and he retreated instinctively.

But by the time he chose to retreat, it was already too late.

“Not good!”

The power exploded at a single point and then expanded to a range of ten, twenty, and even more feet.

Both Immortal Demon and Yang Chen were enveloped in it!

“Did it succeed?”

“This move might actually severely injure Immortal Demon!” On Zhang Zhongyi’s side, everyone was boiling with excitement.

“Let’s go and help them immediately! We must not let this man be at a disadvantage!” Zhang Zhongyi shouted.

Chapter 1109: Capturing the Yin-Yang Twin Lizards_1

He shouted in this manner for a reason, because it was evident that their Chief Demon was in danger. Many of the Prohibition Demon Clan members couldn’t sit still and rushed to the sky, intending to save their chief from the water and fire.

How could the humans sit still on their side? They hurriedly rushed forward to save Yang Chen, their only thought being that they must not let such a talent be persecuted by the Prohibition Demon Clan.

That was a combat power that could threaten the Undying Demon, after all.

However, just when Zhang Zhongyi finished speaking, Yu Gang inappropriately stood up again, anxiously saying, “Commander, you must think twice. What if this kid is playing along with the Undying Demon? If we go now, it might seem like we’re saving him, but in reality, we’ll be putting ourselves in danger.”

How could Yu Gang let Zhang Zhongyi rescue Yang Chen? Both he and his lackey Ma Youwei were anxious, repeatedly saying, “Yes, Commander, think about it carefully. From the beginning to the end, this kid’s appearance has been completely unexpected. There was no sign of it at all. This must be the scheming plan of the treacherous Prohibition Demon Clan who want to harm us and catch us all in one swoop.”

Now the two of them are resorting to any means necessary to make Yang Chen disappear from the world, not thinking too much about it. As for Yang Chen's ability to resist the Prohibition Demon Clan and other merits, they've completely put them at the back of their minds. What does this have to do with them?

Saying all this made Zhang Zhongyi fall into deep thought.

Strangely enough, Yang Chen's sudden emergence was indeed worth pondering. Originally, Zhang Zhongyi hadn't planned to think so much, but with Ma Youwei and Yu Gang's words, it became difficult for him not to think about it.

It was this kind of hesitation that caused the wolf smoke to disperse in front of them, and the Prohibition Demon Clan members coming to support the Undying Demon were obviously faster than them.

"Commander, make up your mind quickly. That friend of ours is about to be surrounded by other Prohibition Demon Clan members. If we don't go now, he will be besieged and it will be difficult to handle!" someone said.

Zhang Zhongyi fell into a brief inner struggle before making a decision in a moment, shouting, "Save him!"

In an instant, a large number of martial artists directly rushed towards Yang Chen.

Yang Chen didn't pay attention to his surroundings. After the Collapse Mountain Cannon attack ended, he focused all his attention on the Undying Demon. The power of the Collapse Mountain Cannon did not disappoint him, and when he looked at the Undying Demon again, it was already severely injured and on the brink of death.

Now, as the Undying Demon looked into Yang Chen's eyes, the demon no longer dared to confront Yang Chen and started running.

"Hmph, where do you think you're going!" Yang Chen couldn't let the Undying Demon escape. He would never let the tiger return to the mountain.

With that in mind, Yang Chen took a step forward and instantly used Thunder Rush, surrounding the Undying Demon like layers of dragons and snakes.

The Undying Demon's face changed dramatically, yelling, "Kid, you dare to kill me!"

"Undying Demon, you're dead today." Yang Chen coldly said.

As soon as the words were spoken, Yang Chen waved his hand, sending out layers of thunderbolt power. Just as this thunderbolt power was pressing down, the Undying Demon's Yin-Yang Twin Lizards sprang into action. The Yin Lizard spat out Acid Water, breaking through Yang Chen's thunderbolt power.

This made Yang Chen frown.

Although the Undying Demon was injured, his Yin-Yang Twin Lizards were independent beings and had not been seriously injured in the Collapse Mountain Cannon attack. Yang Chen suddenly came up with another idea, looking intently at the Undying Demon until fear crept all over his body.

The Undying Demon was indeed afraid now, not knowing when his subordinates would arrive. He was terrified that before his subordinates arrived, Yang Chen would have already put him in a desperate situation.

"Five Thunder Righteous Method!" In a short time, Yang Chen used his technique again, and layers of Thunder Technique fell instantaneously.

Although the Five Thunder is incomparable to the Twenty-four Thunder Annihilation, it is still enough to cost the Undying Demon half his life.

"Ah!" the Undying Demon screamed.

Seeing this, Yang Chen instantly grabbed and seized the True Qi that surrounded the Yin-Yang Twin Lizards. Now that the Yin-Yang Twin Lizards were no longer under the control of the Undying Demon, they were no longer as difficult as before.

It was obvious that Yang Chen's goal was to capture these Yin-Yang Twin Lizards. But as these Yin-Yang Twin Lizards were slippery, and both were living creatures, it wasn't easy for him to catch both at once, so he concentrated on dealing with one first.

"Come here." Yang Chen reached out and grabbed, successfully capturing the Yin Lizard and threw it into the Eight Extremities Flowing River Space.

However, when he tried to capture the Yang Lizard and completely eliminate the Undying Demon's life, Yang Chen suddenly felt a cold wind coming from behind.

"Human calamity, die!" Several Prohibition Demon Clan members suddenly appeared, each using their techniques to surround Yang Chen layer by layer.

Yang Chen's face changed dramatically, not expecting the Undying Demon's minions to arrive so quickly. His True Qi had been consumed a lot, and he could handle three to five Prohibition Demon Clan members, but facing dozens or even more, he felt somewhat helpless.

"Break!" At this moment, waves of power suddenly came from the periphery of the Prohibition Demon Clan's encirclement.

Yang Chen looked and found that his fellow humans had indeed come to help. He was overjoyed, then sighed, "What a pity, if these humans had come a little earlier, I would have secured the life of this Undying Demon."

Yang Chen couldn't help but sigh.

The Prohibition Demon Clan members panicked and screamed, "Other humans are here!"

"Young friend, come quick!" Zhang Zhongyi and the others helped Yang Chen kill a gap, using their True Qi to protect him.

Yang Chen saw the situation clearly, instantly broke free through the gap, and joined the human camp, staring at the hundreds of Prohibition Demon Clan members on both sides, neither daring to take the initiative to attack lightly.

Zhang Zhongyi laughed loudly, "Young friend, well done! And you Prohibition Demon Clan members, your Chief Demon is already seriously injured. What can you do to fight against us humans today!"

"Hmph, do you humans really think you've won? We still have hundreds of elite Giant Strength Demons who haven't made a move, and they are more than enough to trample your territories. When our chief recovers, it will be your day of doom!" The hundreds of Prohibition Demon Clan members were not at all weak in atmosphere and were not scared by Zhang Zhongyi, but rather startled him.

What these Prohibition Demon Clan members said was true. On their side, there were still hundreds of Giant Strength Demons who had not made a move. Every one of these Giant Strength Demons was very difficult to deal with, and it was hard for humans to do anything to them in the battlefield. The power and results of the hundreds of them together were still uncertain.

Seeing Zhang Zhongyi's dilemma, Yang Chen looked at the situation and frowned.

Indeed, compared to the humans, the Prohibition Demon Clan was the proactive attacking and ambushing side, and they were too prepared. It was far beyond what the humans could compare with.

It was because they were well-prepared that the Prohibition Demon Clan had a lot of support, and although the Undying Demon was strong, it was ultimately an individual. Even if he lost, the Giant Strength Demons did not collapse.

With these Giant Strength Demons rampaging on the battlefield, the situation on the battlefield was still not promising.

Chapter 1110: A Massive Retreat!_1

It can be said that the Prohibition Demon Clan has presented many difficult problems, and they have now solved the first one, but the second and third ones have not been resolved yet.

Zhang Zhongyi, although having a headache, was obviously not a soft bone, and his tone was ice-cold: "Hmph, if that's the case, then take action. Your leader has already been defeated by our heroes. Now, you Prohibition Demon Clan are leaderless, so what if you have hundreds of Giant Strength Demons? We humans will still force you to retreat today!”

Having said that, Zhang Zhongyi was about to order people to take action, but at this moment, Yang Chen suddenly said, “Commander, wait!”

Zhang Zhongyi couldn’t help but be surprised, and when he saw that the person stopping him was actually Yang Chen, he said with a puzzled heart, “Young friend, what is this...?”

“Commander, I recognize him, he is Yang Xilin!”

“Oh, Yang Xilin? Now that you mention it, I recognize him too, isn’t he that Slaughtering Devil Hero, who defeated the Giant Strength Demon at the Dao Discussion Conference a while ago? It is said that he is the Sect Leader of the Donghuang Sect’s subsidiary sect, Luosheng Gate!”

“So it’s him.”

Many people spoke up with great relief.

The Prohibition Demon Clan, seeing that Yang Chen’s side suddenly stopped fighting, were puzzled. But as strange as it was, they would not take the initiative to fight Zhang Zhongyi and the others.

As Zhang Zhongyi said, they were now leaderless.

“Quickly, take the leader down!” Several members of the Prohibition Demon Clan ordered.

The Undying Demon was quickly taken away, and then, the groups of Prohibition Demon Clan, with their eyes fixed on Yang Chen and the others, were very curious about what kind of conspiracy and tricks Yang Chen and the others would use.

Seeing that quite a few people actually recognized him, Yang Chen was very surprised and smiled gently, "I'm flattered by my humble reputation. I didn't expect so many people to recognize me."

Having said this, Yang Chen cupped his hands all around in a show of respect.

Soon, he saw Ma Youwei and Yu Gang, and upon seeing the two, Yang Chen narrowed his eyes: "It turned out to be General Yu and General Ma!"

"Yu Gang? Ma Youwei, didn't you say you didn't know this young friend Yang?" Zhang Zhongyi frowned.

Yu Gang said awkwardly, "Well, I wasn't sure when I first used my Divine Soul Detection. If I had known it was Young friend Yang, how could I have stayed calm?"

"Hmph, it's a good thing that the commander didn't listen to you, otherwise, if we really avoided helping, with the loss we could have suffered, you guys would not have been able to make up for it even with several lives!"

Upon hearing this, Yang Chen roughly analyzed the situation. It seemed that Yu Gang and Ma Youwei had known about Yang Chen fighting the Undying Demon. However, they might have been misled by someone behind the scenes. Otherwise, how could the army on their side have arrived so slowly?

It should be known that if they had been a step faster and stopped the people from the Prohibition Demon Clan, Yang Chen would have been able to kill the Undying Demon. At that time, with the head of the Undying Demon, the overall situation in the Eastern District would have been settled.

With this in mind, Yang Chen coldly glanced at Ma Youwei and Yu Gang, not intending to settle accounts with the two for the time being. However, the two would slowly pay for their actions.

"Young friend Yang, I have heard about you for a long time. I didn't expect that you could sneak up next to the Undying Demon and give him a severe blow. Haha, you have really made a great contribution this time. Originally, we were very anxious in this battle, and it was difficult to break through. But because of you, the situation is very favorable to us now." Zhang Zhongyi laughed heartily, already thinking about how to reward Yang Chen afterwards.

Yang Chen smiled amiably and said, "It's nothing, it's my duty to contribute to humanity. However, now that the situation is like this, what does Commander Zhang plan to do?"

Zhang Zhongyi thought for a moment and then said, "Although the Prohibition Demon Clan's Undying Demon was defeated by young friend Yang, the situation is still not advantageous for us humans. The Prohibition Demon Clan still has hundreds of Giant Strength Demons as their trump card. It's hard to say how the situation would be if we truly fought. However, humans and the Prohibition Demon Clan are naturally incompatible like water and fire. In this battle, the outcome depends entirely on fate."

"Commander, in fact, we don't have to take risks, I have a strategy!" Yang Chen smiled.

"What kind of strategy..." Zhang Zhongyi asked.

Before his words fell, suddenly, someone shouted, "Who are you!"

"It's us, we are humans!" Several Prohibition Demon Clan-looking creatures spoke in human language, emitting True Qi.

"What humans? I think you guys are sent by the Prohibition Demon Clan to eavesdrop!" Zhang Zhongyi's subordinates immediately wanted to take action.

Yang Chen quickly stopped them, "Brothers, stop. They are indeed humans. They are my team members!"

"Captain!"

"Captain!"

Several people with the appearance of the Prohibition Demon Clan all shouted in unison when they saw Yang Chen.

When Yang Chen had just escaped from danger earlier, he had already called several people back from the Prohibition Demon Clan's side. As for Eternal Ash, he had arranged for him to stay in the Prohibition Demon Clan and not move recklessly.

"Young friend Yang, what's going on..." All the people looked at these few people who looked like the Prohibition Demon Clan and were all puzzled.

They didn't know the specific details, and Yang Chen smiled. Silver Needle used the Face Changing Technique, and in a short half an hour, several people all returned to their original appearance. When the dual horns left, they changed from Prohibition Demons to humans again.

"This..."

"This, this, young friend Yang, was this all because of your skill?"

Yang Chen said, "Well, I learned a few techniques of Face Changing Technique, so I changed myself and my team members into the appearance of the Prohibition Demon Clan. It's just a little contribution that I can make to the battlefield of the Eastern District!"

Speaking of the contribution, a few team members couldn't help but feel embarrassed. They didn't contribute any effort at all; this was clearly all thanks to Yang Chen.

"Young friend Yang, what is your current position?" Zhang Zhongyi asked curiously.

Upon hearing this, Yu Gang and Ma Youwei both paused.

Yang Chen replied honestly, "Just a small squad leader, not worth mentioning!"

"What? It's ridiculous! With Young friend Yang's talent, who arranged for you to be just a small squad leader?" Zhang Zhongyi was furious.

It's not to mention that Yang Chen's skill in defeating the Undying Demon and being able to disguise humans as the Prohibition Demon Clan with his Face Changing Technique. That's more than being just a squad leader. Even being a general would be sufficient!

If Yang Chen had this position, the current situation might be different.

Zhang Zhongyi was filled with anger, but he didn't know who was blind enough to miss such a talent and didn't realize that it was a good time to need talents now.

However, despite his anger, he also knew that he should focus on the overall situation for now.

Zhang Zhongyi asked doubtfully, "Young friend Yang, you just said that you have a plan. What is it?"

Yang Chen said, "Commander, here's the thing, I have a method that can completely disrupt the Prohibition Demon Clan's army. However, this method may have a wide range, so I need the commander to have all soldiers withdraw a great distance."
