

Supreme MK 58

Chapter 58: I Have an Opinion

“That’s good, let’s be open about it. Anyway, we’re all young people. Even if we make a fuss, at most, the Wang family will find our Yang family elders to vent their anger. They won’t dare to do anything to our Yang family,” Yang Wu said confidently.

Although middle-ranking tribes are not as powerful as great tribes, the great tribes are not supposed to bully them casually. The quarrels between these young people, when taken seriously, are just bickering, as long as no lives are lost and nothing major goes wrong, they could be considered kids’ play.

The Yang family can handle this line.

Furthermore, since Elder Yang was there holding the line, what did they have to be afraid of?

Yang Wu, acting as the commander of the group of youngsters, started by saying, “Now, let’s first see what Brother Chen has to say.”

Yang Chen stood in the front, hands behind his back, and calmly said, “Well, speaking of which. I remember the Wang family has a genius named Wang Yun Kai. He and I have quite a lot of connections. Why isn’t he here?” He didn’t find it strange that Wang Yun Kai was not present today.

“Yang Chen, victory or defeat is a common occurrence in battle. I admit that your martial arts cultivation is beyond our expectations, but if you really think that we are as useless as Wang Yun Kai, then you are profoundly mistaken,” Wang De, Wang Rents older brother, sneered.

He did have the right to say so, because Wang Yun Kai indeed wasn’t the top genius in the Wang family. The Wang family’s signature members were Wang Ren and Wang De. The two brothers were prominent figures. Wang De, the elder brother, was a top martial arts genius. At only fifteen years old, he had already reached the peak of the Fifth Level of Body Refining Realm in strength and skill.

Wang De's younger brother Wang Ren, however, was an alchemy genius. It was rumored that not long ago, Wang Ren had successfully refined a furnace of "Essence Rising Pill" and become a genuine First-Rank Perfect Alchemist.

'Upgrade Essence' is a type of elixir that can refine the body's strength in the Body Refining Realm and can improve a martial artist's martial arts cultivation to some extent. Hence, it is called a First Grade Perfect Elixir. Once refined successfully, it is a genuinely perfect first-rank alchemist.

This pair of brothers, Wang Ren and Wang De, one specialized in alchemy while the other in martial arts, made them quite a sensation among the nearby tribes.

Yang Chen of the past was too far behind Wang Ren in terms of alchemy, and the gap was vast.

At this point, Wang Ren added, "Yang Chen, I am not trying to belittle you. Aside from Elder Yang, no one in your Yang family can compare to my alchemy prowess. You all are just amateurs in my eyes!"

His words immediately enraged the young members of the Yang family.

Yang Wu couldn't sit still anymore and angrily shouted, "Who are you calling garbage?"

"You, Yang Wu! With a broken arm, why don't you just stay at home and not come out to make a fool of yourself?" Wang Ren sneered mockingly.

In his eyes, middle-ranking tribes were born to be played with and bullied by those from great tribes.

No one from the Yang family could continue to tolerate such ridicule.

Especially Yang Yi Ming, who had solemnly promised not to intervene, angrily shouted, "Wang Ren, do you really think you're a genius? Shut your damn mouth!"

"Kid, watch your language!" The Wang family members all stood up.

Yang Yi Ming, full of righteousness and resentment, was not the least bit afraid at this moment. He sneered, "What's the matter? Are you upset? Keep your mouth clean? Hmph! I am a foul-mouthed person, but I like to talk to people with foul mouths! Go back and smell your own breath! It's like you just jumped out of a latrine! And you, Wang Ren and Wang De, did your parents teach you to have such rotten mouths, or is it inherited from your ancestors? Did all of your ancestors also come out of latrines, narcissistic, and have deadly foul mouths like you?"

Yang Yi Ming's mouth was like a cannon, with a continuous string of unfathomable words that stunned everyone present.

"Nice!" Yang Wu clapped his hands in approval.

Yang Yi Ming was indeed very good at digging up people's ancestral graves.

Wang family members were at a loss for words to refute Yang Yi Ming.

Indeed, they were not used to arguing with people like this. As members of a great tribe, they had received high-quality education since childhood. When faced with such a situation, they didn't even know how to fight back.

With Yang Yi Ming not ready to give up just yet, he wiped his mouth and was ready to go for another round of cursing.

Yang Wu quickly coughed twice, "Yi Ming, that's enough."

At this point, the Wang family elders stood up one after another, looking embarrassed at Elder Yang, "Yang Song De, are all of you from the Yang family so uncultured? Or can you only show off with your tongues?"

Elder Yang seemingly amiably said, "Well, Brother Wang, my fault for not teaching them well. But sometimes, verbal confrontation can also reveal a person's true aptitude, can it not?"

As he spoke with the Wang family elders, Elder Yang did not shy away from any rhetoric.

“But do remember why your Yang family came here today. If all you want to do is play such childish games, then we Wang family will not join in. You Yang family might not care if you lose face, but we Wang family do mind!” The Wang family elder spoke with a straight face.

Elder Yang knew it was time for action and calmly said, “In that case, let’s not waste any more time and start the alchemy competition.”

“Humph, good. Now that we have talked about it, shouldn’t we set the rules?” Wang Yong said coldly.

“Both of us will act as referees for the younger generation’s competition, which will make it fairer. During the competition, the furnace must be the most ordinary pill furnace,” Elder Yang said, looking at Wang Yong, “In the end, the victory will be determined by the pill quality, appearance and quantity, as well as the process. I hope Brother Wang can ensure fairness and justice.”

“You should be the one to keep that in mind,” Wang Yong snorted coldly.

Elder Yang did not say anything more, as Wang Yong was also an alchemist, and like Elder Yang, a pillar of the Wang family.

Now, Wang Yong was backing off with his hands behind him, “Alright, Yang Chen, Wang Ren, do you two have any objections?”

“I have none,” Wang Ren said coldly.

“I do!” Yang Chen suddenly stood up.

“Kid, what else do you want to say?” Wang Yong looked impatiently at Yang Chen.

Yang Chen spoke with his hands behind his back, “Simply competing is not very interesting. In my opinion, it’s better to have some stakes. Otherwise, this competition would be too boring, and it wouldn’t be fun for the audience to watch either. I don’t know if everyone else thinks what I said makes sense?”

Apart from supporting Yang Chen, he preferred to add some stakes to the competition.

Otherwise, it would be unworthy of his rare alchemy appearance..
