Chapter 86: Ring Battle

Shortly thereafter, the Yang family's team set off in high spirits, heading towards the venue for the Hundred Clans Trial Battle.

The venue for the Hundred Clans Trial Battle was at the foot of the Great Desolate Dragon Tiger Mountain, which was located in a remote area near Monster Beast Mountain, making it an ideal place for combat.

The Yang family's team arrived neither early nor late, but their timing seemed a bit off, as they ran into the Wang family's team as soon as they arrived.

As the saying goes, enemies are bound to cross paths. Upon encountering each other, Yang Chen, Yang Wu, and the others saw Wang Ren and Wang De, the Wang brothers.

Yang Chen had quite a few grievances with Wang Ren and Wang De, especially Wang Ren, who had lost to Yang Chen in the field of alchemy in their last encounter. With a bitter heart, he gritted his teeth and said, "Brother, Yang Chen is also participating in the Trial Battle."

Wang De raised his eyebrows and glanced at Yang Chen disdainfully.

"What are you looking at?" Yang Yiming didn't like it and shouted.

Yang Chen also noticed Wang De's malicious gaze but did not hurry to speak.

Wang De slowly said, "Yang Chen, your Yang family's departure is quite grand. I just wonder if you'll be as spirited on your way back. I hope that when your team returns, it won't be too disgraceful."

“You don’t need to worry about that. What I hope for your Wang family is not to forget your past failures and avoid falling down at the same old place.” Yang Chen yawned lazily.

“Hmph, you’ll only know fear when you’re up on the stage.” Wang De snorted.

“Oh? We’re only good at talking? Wang De, if you dare, roll up your sleeves and have a few rounds with me right here. Believe it or not, I can make your parents not even recognize you.” Yang Yiming rolled up his sleeves, ready to start a fight.

Remembering Yang Yiming’s sharp tongue that only hurt others without benefit to himself, Wang De shivered a bit, showing some fear.

However, he couldn’t just let it go, but neither side wanted to cause trouble at this place. Before they could start fighting, they were quickly pulled back by the elders of their respective clans.

Wang Ren gritted his teeth and said, “Brother, we must not let the Yang family look good.”

Wang De sneered, “Don’t worry, my martial arts cultivation had already reached the peak of the Fifth Level of the Body Refining Realm. With the Gravity Pill given to me by our ancestor, my martial arts cultivation has now leaped directly to the Sixth Stage of Body Refining Realm. Hmph, the championship of this Trial Battle is practically already mine. As for those pieces of trash, Yang Chen and Yang Yiming, I will deal with them slowly.”

On the Yang family’s side, a small ripple was raised due to the previous altercation.

Although Yang Wu did not participate in the battle, he did his homework. With an awkward expression, he said, “Yang Chen, how much research do you have on the geniuses of the various clans?”

“I know nothing.” Yang Chen scratched his head, embarrassed.

Probably no one else was like him, participating in the Hundred Clans Trial Battle without knowing anything about the geniuses of the major tribes. If word got out, it would be a laughingstock.

“Well...” Yang Wu said helplessly, “To be honest, there isn’t much difference between this Hundred Clans Trial Battle and previous ones. The most powerful group of geniuses from the major tribes already have martial arts cultivation at the early stage of the Sixth Level of the Body Refining Realm. Some even reached the mid-stage of the Sixth Level of the Body Refining Realm. But the real trump card lies with Wang De.”

“What happened to Wang De?” Yang Yiming asked curiously.

Yang Wu sighed, “As you all know, our Yang family auctioned off that Gravity Pill, which ended up in the Wang family’s hands. Wang Dachui then gave that unique Gravity Pill to Wang De. Wang De’s martial arts cultivation originally reached the fifth level peak of the Body Refining Realm. After taking the Gravity Pill, he directly leaped past the bottleneck of the fifth level and reached the peak of the Sixth Level of the Body Refining Realm.”

“What, he reached the peak of the Sixth Level of the Body Refining Realm!” Yang Yiming was shocked. This...

Such martial arts cultivation directly causes other geniuses to despair.

“Yes, the key point is here. That Wang De was complacent, using the Gravity Pill refined by Yang Chen to make a breakthrough in his martial arts cultivation. Now it can be said that he has become a big trouble.” Yang Wu said gloomily, “The martial arts cultivation at the peak of the sixth stage of the Body Refining Realm is really disturbing.”

“Then, Brother Chen, what is your martial arts cultivation now.” Yang Yiming thought about his confrontation with Wang De, suddenly thought of Yang Chen, and wanted to find some sense of security.

Yang Chen smiled slightly without speaking.

Yang Wu was also curious, “Yeah, Yang Chen, what is your martial arts cultivation now?”

Seeing that he can’t hide it, Yang Chen glanced around and whispered a few words.

“What!”

Yang Wu and Yang Yiming looked at each other in amazement, and then both were stunned on the spot.

“Brother Chen, you have actually reached the seventh level of Body Refining Realm...”

“Shh...” Yang Chen raised his finger and placed it on his lips, speaking slowly.

Yang Wu quickly covered Yang Yiming’s mouth: “Keep your voice down, don’t let the people from other clans hear it.”

“I was just so happy. It was so refreshing to see Wang De being so arrogant just now, thinking that he had won for sure, but who knew Brother Chen... Uh, hehe, I won’t say anymore.” Yang Yiming said with self-satisfaction.

Yang Wu rolled his eyes and said displeasely: “Don’t just rely on Yang Chen. In this trial battle, you also represent the Yang family. You can’t lose too miserably.”

“Don’t worry, the Clan Leader trained me a lot to avoid losing face. There’s still bruise on my body now.” Yang Yiming gritted his teeth and grinned.

In such conversations, the Yang family had already found their own position.

After waiting for about one incense stick’s time, the people from the Great Wild Hundred Clans had gathered at the foot of Dragon Tiger Mountain. A large group of people crowded around the foot of the mountain, creating a magnificent scene.

The Hundred Clans Trial Battle was co-organized by the Twelve Great Tribes.

Now that everyone was here, representatives from the Twelve Great Tribes stepped forward.

Feng family, Wang family, Wen family, and other tribes. Among them, Feng Changkong, the current leader of the Feng family, and the Murong family acted as representatives of the major tribes. Feng Changkong spoke loudly, "Since everyone is here, then there's not much to say. I believe everyone is clear about the rules of the trial battle."

"Here, there are a total of sixty rings. In one incense stick's time, those who can stand on these sixty rings will directly enter the next round of competition. If they cannot stand on these rings, they will be eliminated!"

Sixty rings are not too many. The Great Wild Hundred Clans are said to be a hundred clans, but that is just an overview. The actual number is far beyond one hundred.

Today, there are at least five hundred participating geniuses, and the competition for the sixty rings is extremely brutal.

However, at the same time, this also ignited the blood of many young people. They all looked eagerly at the rings, waiting for the start of the competition..
