#Chapter 31 - 31 - 31 31 Poison Upon Poison - Read Supreme Pupillary Master: Peerless Eldest Miss Chapter 31 - 31 - 31 31 Poison Upon Poison

31: Chapter 31: Poison Upon Poison 31: Chapter 31: Poison Upon Poison Editor: Henyee Translations Luo Qingtong spoke, but her hands didn't stop; she directly grasped the youth's slender wrist and began diagnosing his pulse.

She needed to determine the components of the toxins in his body to properly treat him.

Others diagnose the pulse to observe its condition.

But only Luo Qingtong diagnoses the pulse to see how many types of toxins exist in a person's body!

As long as there's a thread of life left in the person, even if they've reached the Yama Hall, she can pull them back!

Besides Evil Glare, Luo Qingtong also has the alias Evil Doctor Ghost Eyes.

However, once she finished investigating the youth's condition, her exquisite and beautiful features instantly turned cold.

Just how unlucky is this young man!

His body is in such a miserable state it's like a sieve!

Besides the synthesized poison of the Demon Python, there is actually a chronic poison in his body!

Extremely sinister!

The poison clogs the boy's meridians, almost melting them into a mass and causing them to close up, making his body look like that of a wastrel!

How did he get poisoned like this!

No wonder he looks so noble, with so many Spiritual Artifacts on him, yet has no strength at all.

For a child with this kind of family background, their strength shouldn't be so low!

Yet, the boy, carrying a body full of Spiritual Artifacts, was chased by a group of Third-level Demon Pythons, nearly losing his life.

Luo Qingtong frowned at the youth for a moment, then sighed, "Well, you got lucky meeting me."

She released the boy's wrist and scanned the surroundings, quickly locking onto several medicinal herbs that could dispel the mixed python poison.

This is the advantage of being deep in Jiuyu Mountain.

Spiritual flowers and herbs are everywhere, it's just a matter of whether you can find them.

"Swoosh!"

Luo Qingtong swiftly pulled out those herbs, enveloped them with her own energy, and kneaded them.

A mass of luminous green medicine liquid appeared in her hand.

This is Luo Qingtong's exclusive Alchemy Skill.

Because she possesses Pupil Skill, she can clearly see the medicinal properties of those Spiritual Medicines, easily extracting the needed properties and removing the undesired ones.

For her, concoction formulas might as well not exist.

Even if occasionally missing a few ingredients, she can immediately find Spiritual Medicines with the corresponding properties to substitute!

In Luo Qingtong's hands, as long as the diagnosis is confirmed, and you can find the Spiritual Medicines with the needed properties, she can bypass formula restrictions and concoct the required medicine for you!

In the 24th century, countless people sought her help!

After all, with technology advancing so rapidly, many precious medicinal materials have gone extinct!

Many formulas have essentially become obsolete!

But in Luo Qingtong's hands, this is all no problem!

The reason she can't cure the poison in her eyes is simply that in Jiuyu Mountain, there are no Spiritual Medicine substitutes for the necessary Detoxification Herbs!

It's truly uncanny!

Who knows who poisoned Luo Xinning!

The medicinal properties for detoxification are so rare and hard to find!

Clearly, someone was determined to ruin the original owner's eyes.

Thinking of this, Luo Qingtong frowned, raised her hand, and fed the mass of medicine liquid into the boy's mouth.

Soon, the youth's pale and gray-blue complexion returned to normal.

From the wound, black blood oozed, but in a flash, it returned to the fresh red that a normal wound should have.

"There, the python poison is cleared."

However, the chronic poison in his body can't be removed immediately.

After all, the youth's body is too weak now, and the poison is too tightly bonded with his meridians.

Detoxification isn't something that can be accomplished in an instant!

Luo Qingtong naturally could rely on her Pupil Skill to fully separate the poison from the youth's meridians.

But if she did that, his body wouldn't withstand it, and he could very well be tortured to death from the pain!

32: Chapter 32: The Nine Sorcerers' Transformation 32: Chapter 32: The Nine Sorcerers' Transformation Editor: Henyee Translations "Tsk, troublesome."

Luo Qingtong raised her hand, casually wrote a prescription for nurturing the boy's body, and tucked it into his arms.

She also noted that to completely detoxify, one could seek the Evil Doctor Ghost Eyes!

She temporarily injected her own aura into the boy's body, and using the Pupil Skill's inner vision, temporarily isolated the toxins from his meridians!

This way, until her injected aura dissipated, the boy would not suffer from the effects of the long-accumulated poison.

The talent he should have would reveal itself.

As long as those around him ensure that energy is channeled into his body and his aura remains intact, the poison would be useless against the boy.

After doing all this, Luo Qingtong held the boy in her arms again, preparing to leave.

At this moment, the Little Fragrant Pig, who had been silent in her sleeve pouch, suddenly seemed to remember something and jumped up with a squeal.

"Oh no, oh no!

Amidst your chaos, I completely forgot about that matter!"

"Hurry, hurry!

We must leave quickly, or it will be too late!"

Its four little pig trotters frantically scrambled inside Luo Qingtong's sleeve pouch, like ants on a hot pan.

"What's going on?"

If it hadn't spoken up, Luo Qingtong would have almost forgotten about it, but hearing its urgent tone, she freed a hand and pulled it out.

"What else have you been hiding from me?"

"What do you mean, what else have I been hiding from you?"

I..."

Before the Little Fragrant Pig could finish speaking, rumble!

The entire Jiuyu Mountain suddenly began to shake.

"Bang!" Luo Qingtong, caught off guard, lost her balance and fell to the ground with the young boy in her arms.

The entire Nine Witch Mountain Range was trembling violently, as if something was about to emerge from beneath the earth.

Luo Qingtong lifted her gaze, and she was stunned in an instant.

Not far away, atop the highest peak of the Nine Witch Mountain Range, a strange sight suddenly appeared.

Countless multicolored lights descended from the sky, completely enveloping the mountain summit!

On the mountaintop, there seemed to be some massive phantasm, slowly rising!

What is this?

Luo Qingtong stared at this scene in amazement.

The phantasm was so vast it almost covered an area several hundred miles wide at the mountain peak.

Beams of Golden Light refracted from it.

In the next second, a stunning vision of an Immortal Palace appeared before Luo Qingtong's eyes.

In the midst of those beams of Golden Light, a grand Immortal Palace, magnificent like a mirage, suddenly materialized!

"Rumble!"

The gigantic palace seemed to materialize from thin air within the countless beams of Golden Light, instantly startling everyone in the Nine Witch Mountain Range!

Even people tens of thousands of miles away witnessed this astonishing sight.

Meanwhile, Dongli Capital, in Fenglin City.

Yuwen Mo frowned at Seventh Princess Yu Wenxue standing before him, his exceptionally handsome face full of coldness.

"What are you doing here?"

Yuwen Mo's tone was not pleasant.

He happened to be passing by Dongli Country for business and saw his sister appearing here.

He understood Yu Wenxue's temperament; she always despised and disliked Luo Qingtong and didn't want her to become his wife.

Why would she suddenly appear here without reason?

Remembering that he had just become a freshman at the Holy Institute, while Yu Wenxue constantly chanted that Luo Qingtong didn't deserve him, Yuwen Mo's eyes grew sharp.

"I recall saying, you're not allowed to provoke Lady Luo, don't cause her any trouble!"

33: Chapter 33: Scorned from Afar 33: Chapter 33: Scorned from Afar Editor: Henyee Translations "Who, who said I was here to find her?"

Being stared at by Yuwen Mo like this, Yu Wenxue felt very nervous inside.

She retorted with a guilty conscience, and then saw her brother's face instantly darken, getting instantly angry too.

She was originally a spoiled and headstrong personality.

The Tianyu Empress had only her as a legitimate daughter, and she was also the full sister of Heaven's Chosen Son Yuwen Mo, her identity was extremely noble.

Even the Tianyu Emperor held her in the palm of his hand, and almost no one dared to show her a tough face!

At this moment, seeing Yuwen Mo scold her for Luo Qingtong, she immediately felt wronged and angry.

"Even if I am here to find her, so what?"

That kind of woman with no self-awareness, why are you defending her so much, brother?!"

Yu Wenxue was aggrieved and not afraid of her brother now, and said loudly: "Does she even see if she is worthy of you?"

If I were her, I would have already been so ashamed of myself that I'd die!"

"The first genius and beauty of the Luo Family in Dongli Country, how impressive indeed!"

Any young lady from a low-class family in our Tianyu Empire is better than her!"

She pouted at Yuwen Mo, "Brother, you are already a Heavenly Level freshman at the Holy Institute!"

You're about to go to the Holy City soon!"

"In the entire Da Qin Holy Dynasty, Eight Great Empires, Three Thousand Upper-class Countries, Eight thousand middle-class countries, Tens of thousands of low-class countries, how many people can enter the Holy Institute?"

Less than ten thousand!

There are scarcely a hundred Heavenly Level freshmen!"

"When you get to the Holy Institute, what kind of woman can't you have?"

Why insist on this Luo Qingtong?!"

I don't want such a sister-in-law!"

"I heard from the Queen Mother that you must marry her!"

She even said that once she turns sixteen, she'll arrange the marriage!"

Brother, are you foolish?!"

Yu Wenxue got even angrier as she spoke!

"You don't even like her, it's merely a marriage contract!"

Why not just call off the engagement?"

Yet you refuse!

What is so good about Luo Qingtong?"

In terms of talent, she's not even as good as..."

She stopped mid-sentence, realizing she might have slipped up, and closed her mouth quickly.

"Anyway, brother, you are the cloud in the sky, and Luo Qingtong is the mud on the ground!"

With her status and talent, she is simply unworthy of you!"

She might not even pass the entrance exam for the branch of the Holy Institute in our Imperial City!"

"Having such a Princess Consort, how shameful for you!"

I'm just looking out for you!"

Clearly, you can have better choices!"

"Have you said enough?"

Yuwen Mo looked at her coldly, then suddenly stood up.

"If you've said enough, then hurry up and go back!

I have things to do, no time to bother with you!

Don't force me to send someone to escort you back!"

"Besides, Luo Qingtong and I have a marriage contract!

I may not like her, but I will definitely marry her!

This matter cannot be changed by anyone!"

"You can treat her as just a decoration, an entity that doesn't exist!

But she is destined to be my Princess Consort!"

Yuwen Mo said, striding out.

"Brother!" Watching his retreating figure, Yu Wenxue stomped her feet in anger!

Why does brother insist on being so stubborn?!

Infuriating!

Luckily, I've acted first!

Does Luo Qingtong want to be my sister-in-law?

Maybe in the next life!

Just as Yu Wenxue was fuming, unwillingly about to leave, boom!

A deafening roar came from the sky.

Then, under countless astonished gazes, a grand palace hall suddenly appeared atop the highest peak of the Nine Witch Mountain Range!

Yuwen Mo, who had already walked some distance away, heard the commotion, looked up, and his pupils suddenly contracted sharply.

"This is..."

34: Chapter 34: Immortal Sect Ruins 34: Chapter 34: Immortal Sect Ruins Editor: Henyee Translations "What is this?"

Everyone was shocked as they looked at the changes atop Jiuyu Mountain's peak, wondering how such an immense temple suddenly appeared out of thin air.

The vast, mighty, and unending momentum burst forth in all directions the moment that grand palace building emerged, causing countless people to boil with excitement!

"It's the Immortal Sect relic!"

It must be the Immortal Sect relic!"

"Legend has it that before Jiuyu Mountain, an Immortal Sect relic was buried, but everyone thought it was just a rumor!"

Never expected it to be true!"

Countless voices arose from all directions.

Everyone's gaze was fervently fixed on this towering and grand Immortal Palace relic as they instantly moved their bodies, rushing towards the direction of the Nine Witch Mountain Range!

Immortal Sect relic!

This is indeed the Immortal Sect relic!

The legendary heritage relic left by the Immortal Sect!

Even if there is no heritage, the treasures inside are enough to drive countless people crazy!

"Swish, swish, swish!"

Figures dashed from all directions towards the Nine Witch Mountain Range!

Among them, the aura of Martial Emperors able to stand mid-air and the aura of Soul Masters able to wield Soul Skills appeared.

Cultivators of the Zhenyan Continent are divided into Martial Cultivation and Soul Cultivation.

Martial Cultivation means training in martial arts and body refinement.

Soul Cultivation involves training in spiritual power and soul power!

It is said that human souls possess spirituality.

As long as one can unlock this spirituality, they can grasp powerful and unimaginable strength!

This spirituality is known as the Soul Seal on the Zhenyan Continent.

Only those with the talent of Soul Seal can cultivate souls and become Soul Masters!

On the Zhenyan Continent, those who can successfully unlock the Soul Seal talent and become Soul Masters are very few.

Most people can only undergo Martial Cultivation, constantly surpassing their limits through body refinement!

This kind of cultivation is much harsher than becoming a Soul Master, and it's very difficult to advance!

In comparison, Soul Masters with Soul Seal talent, who can sense and cultivate by the Law Power of Heaven and Earth, are much more privileged than Martial Artists!

"Boom, boom, boom!"

As the crowd rushed frantically towards this side, Luo Qingtong also looked at the grand palace atop the mountain peak with a shaken gaze.

And the Little Fragrant Pig in her hand was also wide-eyed!

"It's over, it's over!"

The sealing is broken!

I told you to run!

You stupid woman!

Aren't you running yet?

Wait till that guy comes out..."

Before it could finish its sentence, a "roar" sounded.

An extremely loud roar suddenly resounded like a thunderclap, echoing in all directions!

The shadow of a gigantic beast emerged abruptly behind that Immortal Pavilion hall.

Its eyes, large as lanterns, slowly opened from the darkness.

"Damn!

That guy really came out!"

The Little Fragrant Pig's words were only halfway through when Luo Qingtong grabbed it by the neck and lifted it up.

"What on earth is going on, you better explain clearly!" The girl narrowed her eyes dangerously.

She knew there was something wrong with this pig!

Claiming to be an Ancient Divine Pig, it inexplicably signed some strange contract with her, now seemingly connected to this suddenly appeared Immortal Palace hall!

What exactly is it trying to do?

"Now is not the time to talk about this!" The Little Fragrant Pig was almost frantic.

"I already signed a contract with you, are you still afraid I'll do something to you?!"

Don't you know that this contract is the most disadvantageous to me?!"

It looked at Luo Qingtong's back.

The latter, with her back to the mountain peak, naturally had no idea that the giant beast shadow emerging behind the palace had already turned its gaze towards her.

"You stupid woman, run!"

The Little Fragrant Pig stomped its hooves with all its might, then suddenly widened its tiny eyes.

"Get out of the way!"

"Boom!"

Before it finished its sentence, Luo Qingtong felt an extremely dangerous aura coming from behind her.

An alarm surged in her heart, and almost instinctively, she fully activated her Pupil Skill and all her strength.

35: Chapter 35 Jie Tian Divine Beast!

35: Chapter 35 Jie Tian Divine Beast!

Editor: Henyee Translations "Bang!"

She lunged violently to the side and, along with the boy in her arms, fell heavily to the ground!

Then, they were tossed aside by the massive aftershock!

Fortunately, her Pupil Skill was precise, and she managed to land at the weakest point of the attack's edge.

Though flung away, she wasn't severely injured.

"You damn pig, what did you do?!"

Luo Qingtong gritted her teeth, staring at the massive hundred-meter-wide crater blasted into the spot where she had just been standing!

She had narrowly escaped being smashed to pieces!

Luo Qingtong looked toward the source of the attack.

A pair of enormous golden eyes were directly aligned with hers in mid-air.

The light within them shimmered like starlight and fire, blindingly brilliant yet also terrifying to the extreme!

Luo Qingtong watched the massive tail waving out from the shadow and wished she could strangle the pig in her hands.

"What on earth did you provoke?"

She spoke through gritted teeth.

"It's the Jie Tian Divine Beast!" Little Fragrant Pig kicked its four hooves as it squealed while in her hand, sounding like a piglet awaiting slaughter.

"Its strength level is just below that of an Ancient Divine Beast!

You'd better run!

If you don't, we're dead!

It's coming for us!"

"Nonsense!

It's coming for you!"

This damn pig had signed a contract with her, causing her to be dragged into this mess.

Wait till they're safe; she would teach it a lesson!

Luo Qingtong gritted her teeth in anger.

Seeing the giant beast make another move, she suddenly darted forward, commencing her escape!

A martial master against a Jie Tian Divine Beast!

Heaven, do you overestimate me!

This is a death sentence!

Luo Qingtong didn't even have time to consider the boy in her arms before leaving.

She wasn't sure what would happen to herself, so before leaving, she used her Pupil Skill to search for a safe spot in the surroundings and pushed the boy out of her arms.

Then she brushed her hand forcefully, covering the unconscious boy with many leaves and branches.

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh!

After doing all this, Luo Qingtong was almost running with all her might.

Behind her, the enormous beast finally emerged from the shadows.

Luo Qingtong glanced back.

She saw the Jie Tian Divine Beast in an incredibly luxurious form.

Snow-white fur stretched from its head to its tail, flowing and dramatic like silk from the vast sky.

Nine long snow-white tails fluttered between heaven and earth, almost covering the entire Nine Witch Mountain Range.

This Jie Tian Divine Beast appeared both tiger-like and leopard-like, yet also resembled a cat with a hint of a fox.

Luo Qingtong couldn't tell what it was at all!

Those golden pupils, glistening like sunlight, showcased its divine beast majesty.

Rumble!

Each step of its paws on the ground created abyss-like fissures.

The cracks extended continuously forward, and if not for Luo Qingtong's Pupil Skill assisting her, she would've fallen into the abyss formed by the first jump of the giant beast down the mountain peak!

Rumble!

One human and one beast were in pursuit.

In the distance, the crowd rushing frantically in this direction turned pale upon seeing the Jie Tian Divine Beast!

"A Divine Beast!

It's actually a Divine Beast!"

Moreover, it was incredibly powerful!

Witnessing the Jie Tian Divine Beast's mighty presence, everyone's faces twitched violently, and, almost instinctively, they started to flee!

A Divine Beast!

They'd only be courting death if they charged forward!

The faces of the soul master and Martial Emperor experts at the forefront turned ashen green!

Because the Jie Tian Divine Beast was charging toward them!

—There was no other way!

They were flying so high!

They were sitting ducks!

Luo Qingtong looked up and saw them flying in the air, and of course, the beast was charging in their direction!
