6: Chapter 6 Another Master!

Editor: Henyee Translations "What?!"

Feeling the ferocity and enormity of this attack, a wave of astonishment flashed through Luo Qingtong's mind.

The next second, her entire body rose into the air, seeming as if divinely aided, she sidestepped just in time to evade the deadly blow coming from the shadows!

Bang!

The aftermath of the attack pounded heavily on Luo Qingtong, and even after evading, she was still forced a few steps back, her chest surging with blood energy!

Luo Qingtong's eyes widened in surprise as she looked towards the place where the attack had come from.

That attack just now was equivalent to the bombardment of an ion cannon!

Since when could human strength unleash such power?!

What kind of hellish place is this anyway?

Luo Qingtong thought she was simply in some unknown jungle on Earth, but it now seemed likely that this was no longer the world she belonged to!

As thoughts raced through Luo Qingtong's mind, terrifying and fierce auras began to rise one after another from the place the attack originated.

Clearly, missing their first strike, these people were going to attack again!

"Damn it!"

Feeling those auras, Luo Qingtong's expression changed dramatically.

Their auras were all too formidable, each one beyond Luo Qingtong's expectations!

Moreover, as she swept her gaze over them, she could only vaguely make out some images, unable to discern where they were hiding.

Since when had her Pupil Vision become so inadequate?

Even with the tight defenses of Zone 51, she had freely infiltrated and withdrawn!

Now, she couldn't detect the forms of a few people so close by!

These people were far from ordinary!

Thinking swiftly, Luo Qingtong made an immediate decision and bit through the tip of her tongue.

A mouthful of Heart Blood was spat out, her eyes exploding with red light, and she suddenly saw clearly the figures of those ambushing her.

They were a group of Silver-clothed Men.

The aura around each person was immensely vast and magnificent, their surrounding blood energy strength incomparable to those Black-clothed Men!

Ruthlessly speaking, even if hundreds more of those Black-clothed Men came, they wouldn't be able to handle any one of these Silver-clothed Men!

Master fighters!

Absolutely master fighters!

For the first time since gaining fame, Luo Qingtong felt such a profound threat.

Without time to think, the blood light in her eyes flickered, quickly finding a way out within the trajectory of their oncoming assault.

The next second, she abruptly shot upwards, like an arrow leaving the bow, flying forward.

Bam!

As their auras rushed towards her, she dashed towards an ancient tree beside her, kicking hard against it.

With that, her body swerved suddenly in mid-air, tracing an S-shaped path, evading their oncoming deadly attacks like a fluttering butterfly, swiftly heading into the depths of Jiuyu Mountain.

"Chase!"

The Silver-clothed Men, faces covered with black cloths, leaped out from the bushes, eyes filled with astonishment as they saw Luo Qingtong escape from their fatal strikes.

They originally had been secretly overseeing those handling Luo Qingtong, to ensure nothing was amiss.

Unexpectedly, the situation changed abruptly, and she even killed that group of Black-clothed Men.

Now, she had fled from their grasp!

In a place like Dongli Country, how could someone with no cultivation slip away from them?

Was it sheer luck or...

Regardless of the reason, they absolutely must not let Luo Qingtong escape today!

Translations Swish, swish, swish!

Luo Qingtong's figure moved swiftly through the dense jungle.

Relying on excellent jungle experience, Luo Qingtong always maintained a distance from those pursuing her.

But this could only be sustained for a while.

This body was injured, and couldn't hold out for long.

Even though Luo Qingtong had strong willpower and could persist forcefully, her injuries would inevitably slow her down!

And the ones pursuing her were so unbelievably strong!

Luo Qingtong considered that her strength in the 24th-century superpower world was superior even in a society where everyone took Physical Strength Potions.

But those who were after her, she felt that if she was caught off guard by them, there would be no chance to escape!

This world was truly strange!

Where on earth was she taken?

Luo Qingtong's strength was unmatched in the 24th-century superpower world, yet upon awakening, she immediately hit a wall!

However, this body was gravely injured, with no strength inside it.

Otherwise, with her Pupil Skill, she wouldn't be so powerless against those people!

Let them be arrogant for now.

Once she finds a chance to recover some strength and injuries, she wants those people dead!

Luo Qingtong hated being chased more than anything!

It happened too many times when she first entered the superpower world!

Everyone thought she was easy to bully and a rare commodity!

In the end, they all died!

Now, these people would be no exception!

Thinking of this, a fierce light flashed in her eyes, and the blood in her eyes deepened.

Just then, a light flashed across her Pupil Vision.

"Hmm, what's this..."

Luo Qingtong looked up in surprise at the front, suddenly curling her lips and speeding up.

"Swish, swish, swish!"

As her figure darted forward rapidly, the silver-clothed men chasing her saw her sudden acceleration and were visibly shocked.

Earlier, they thought Luo Qingtong's escape was sheer luck.

But now, after such a long chase, Luo Qingtong, a so-called cripple, kept her distance from them, making it impossible to close in.

That was terrifying!

After all, their strength was considered formidable in a low-class small country like Dongli Country!

How was blind Luo Qingtong, an ordinary person with cultivation wasted, able to run so swiftly with them on her heels?

Their eyes were in disbelief as they watched Luo Qingtong move like a butterfly, leaping through the forest with ease, almost making them doubt whether her blindness and wasted cultivation were their illusions!

Yet they had personally witnessed Luo Qingtong being crippled.

And the poison in her eyes was a concoction they themselves handed to Luo Xinning before coming!

It was medicine sent from that place, surely there was no mistake!

What on earth happened to Luo Qingtong to make her so terrifying?

Those silver-clothed men were more determined than ever to capture Luo Qingtong and kill her!

The changes in her were so astonishing, she must be hiding some secret!

They were determined to catch her and extract that secret!

At the same time, absolutely not letting her leave here alive!

Otherwise, if she learned what they had done in the future, the consequences would be endless!

While the silver-clothed men had a deadly resolve towards Luo Qingtong, she had already reached the flash of light seen in her Pupil Vision.

"Ha!

An Array!"

Luo Qingtong laughed happily.

The corners of her lips curled slightly.

With this Array, she wouldn't fear the silver-clothed men's pursuit!

Once she hides inside and finds a way to recover some strength, she would make them pay!

8: Chapter 8 8: Chapter 8 Editor: Henyee Translations However, this array is quite well-concealed; if it weren't for Luo Qingtong's Pupil Vision skill, it's likely she wouldn't have been able to discover the location of this array in the jungle.

As she approached, Luo Qingtong was even more surprised.

Because this array was hundreds of times more complex and obscure than those she had seen in ancient books in the 24th century, unraveling it was definitely not an easy task.

Fortunately, she had her Pupil Skill.

Thinking of this, Luo Qingtong's eyes flashed with a crimson light and she instantly discerned the energy operation path within the array.

With a swift movement, she flitted inside.

However, Luo Qingtong never expected the scene she would witness upon entering to be so wonderful!

Her gaze remained unblinking as she stared at the scene ahead.

Underneath a waist-deep Green Spring, a figure appeared in her line of sight.

In the dark red Pupil Vision scene, that figure immersed in the green spring water was clearly visible.

His face was hidden within clusters of mist, faintly revealing yet partially obscure.

Even with Luo Qingtong's Pupil Skill fully activated, she could not see through the faint glow surrounding his visage, let alone make out his features clearly.

This was her first time failing since achieving mastery in her Pupil Skill!

She couldn't believe she was unable to clearly see the man's face!

Yet even so, it did not detract in the slightest from his presence.

The aura radiating from the man was astounding.

Even in such a scene, he exuded an extremely noble elegance.

The aura surrounding him was akin to a king reigning over the world.

He lay reclined at the edge of the pool, slightly leaning back, with his hands resting on the rim of the spring water.

The lines of his back tensed and unfolded due to this action, the scapula clearly defined.

His slightly upturned head emerged from the hazy mist, exposing just a sliver of a smooth chin.

Just that exposed elegant contour was enough to prove that this man was undeniably a high-quality handsome man!

And a strikingly built hunk at that!

Luo Qingtong felt that just by looking, her nose might start bleeding.

In the 24th century, she had become accustomed to seeing handsome men and beautiful women.

But no matter the type of handsome male, youthful or mature, none could compare to this man who hadn't even revealed his entire face!

She never expected that while fleeing for her life, she would encounter such a delightful sight; it was truly remarkable!

As Luo Qingtong thought this, she suddenly locked eyes with a pair of eyes that flashed with icy light, profound and cold as the frozen snow of late winter.

Those eyes seemed to carry the glint of a blade stained with blood.

Luo Qingtong felt a sudden inexplicable chill just from meeting his gaze briefly.

This man was not to be trifled with!

Having come to this conclusion in her mind, Luo Qingtong lightly coughed, preparing to explain her accidental intrusion.

However, before she could speak, the man's gaze swept across her eyes and then he closed them again.

Luo Qingtong was momentarily stunned, then belatedly realized that to outsiders, she appeared to be a blind girl with impaired vision!

Fine, this worked in her favor!

She could enjoy the view of the eye-catching handsome man while healing.

With this in mind, Luo Qingtong sat cross-legged and began to examine her internal injuries.

Just then, a sudden rhythmic and powerful sound of footsteps could be heard from outside.

"Her trail disappeared around here!

Search thoroughly!

She must be nearby!

We cannot let her escape!"

9: Chapter 9: Emergency Assistance in the Martial World 9: Chapter 9: Emergency Assistance in the Martial World Editor: Henyee Translations "Swish!"

The handsome guy who had just closed his eyes reopened them.

Luo Qingtong watched him, his gaze flickering with cold stars as he looked in her direction, his thin lips slightly moved.

Seeing this stance, Luo Qingtong knew it wasn't good.

The other party was clearly startled and was ready to drive her away.

Luo Qingtong hadn't had time to check the injuries inside her body, let alone regain any strength.

After such a long time of sprinting through the jungle, her energy had almost run out.

If discovered now, there was absolutely no way to escape!

Thinking of this, her eyes flashed suddenly, and almost at the moment when the man's lips moved slightly, she darted directly into the spring!

The jade hairpin on her head was pulled out by her and held in her hand, aimed at the man's vital spot below the abdomen.

At the same time, her tender little hand covered the other's lips that were about to open.

"Handsome, urgent help from the martial world, borrowing your place to hide and take refuge.

I think you won't refuse the request of such a weak woman like me, right?"

Luo Qingtong's body, due to the impact of rushing into the spring, was tightly pressed against his body.

Her lips were close to his ear, her breath fragrant like orchids, her words pitiful.

If one didn't see that ferocious movement of her other hand hidden under the water, they might really mistake her for being extremely delicate and helpless.

Ye Qianming's gaze was icy and angry as he looked at this woman who had intruded into his Healing Holy Spring.

The opponent's face was covered in bloodstains, so messy that her original appearance was unrecognizable, but those slightly curled lips with a wildly mischievous smile made her whole body exude a dazzling charm.

No one has ever dared to treat him like this!

Feeling the continuous stabbing pain brought about by someone aiming the point at his vital area, Ye Qianming felt his heart was furious to the utmost.

"You are not blind!"

His gaze was cold, staring at the other person's still vacant eyes, his thin lips tightly pressed.

He had actually misjudged!

"Haha, who says I'm not?"

"I am blind!" Luo Qingtong closed her eyes playing dumb.

She definitely didn't want this man to realize she had already seen all of him!

Having to offend this man out of necessity was already very unlucky!

Luo Qingtong's intuition told her that this man was extremely dangerous, far more so than those silver-clothed men outside!

If the other party found out that she not only threatened him but also saw his body...

the consequences...

hehe...

Ye Qianming didn't believe her words at all.

The swift, accurate, and fierce actions just now were by no means something a blind person could do!

Seeing his intense gaze, Luo Qingtong knew she probably couldn't fool him, so she decided to go all out.

"Hey handsome, why are you staring at me like this?"

Could it be that you've taken a fancy to me?"

She moved closer, almost pressing against the man's body, her breath fragrant.

But the hand holding the jade hairpin was moving even closer to his vital spot.

"You know, a handsome guy like you staring at me like this makes my little heart flutter; if I'm not careful, I might..."

Her tone was low and unclear as she said this, the point in her hand gently sliding somewhere.

The cool touch constantly reminded the other party—your little brother is in my hands!

Keep staring at me like that, scared my little heart thuds wildly, I might get shaky hands, you know!

Editor: Henyee Translations Listening to her words, Ye Qianming's anger almost reached the sky.

At this moment, Luo Qingtong suddenly felt some changes occurring within her body, and in her shock, her hand slipped.

In an instant, her delicate fingers holding the jade hairpin touched a certain part of the man's body.

Instantly touched by this soft and tender touch, almost instinctively, the man's body suddenly tensed.

"You!"

Ye Qianming's body froze, his gaze extremely furious and cold as he looked at this audacious woman!

How dare she!

"Cough cough..."

Sorry!

It was a mistake!

Absolutely a mistake!"

Luo Qingtong looked at the man's angry eyes, coughing lightly as she spoke.

However, all her explanations appeared to be mere cover-ups.

A mistake?

Haha!

Even Luo Qingtong herself didn't believe this reason!

But she truly didn't have any intention of taking advantage of this man!

Although back in the 24th century, she often flirted with young and mature men, verbally taking advantage and admiring handsome guys, she really wasn't that shameless!

Threatening others one moment, and touching their body another!

She really wasn't that indecent person!

Luo Qingtong felt a lack of conviction in her own explanations.

But heaven knew, it really was a slip of the hand!

Because Luo Qingtong suddenly discovered that her internal injuries seemed to have healed completely!

Even the previously excruciating pain in her lower abdomen at the dantian area had regrown its strength.

In fact, Luo Qingtong had realized when she first woke up that her body's strength had been abolished by someone.

This was exactly why the power quality of her body had weakened so severely.

For martial artists, having the dantian destroyed is nearly equivalent to being completely crippled.

Unless one could find some heaven-defying Immortal Elixir, they would be a crippled person for life.

But Luo Qingtong was different.

Her Pupil Skill could allow her to repair the damage to her dantian, but she needed a little time.

However, she didn't expect that just now, a sudden surge of warm energy spread throughout her body, healing her internal injuries, and simultaneously, her dantian was repaired.

It was upon discovering this situation that Luo Qingtong, in her surprise, accidentally touched a certain part of the man.

It really couldn't be blamed on her!

However, it seemed that this warm energy came from the spring water.

Could it be that this man was healing in the spring water, which is why the Array was set up outside, unable to resist her actions?

Luo Qingtong was just curious as to why she succeeded so easily.

Obviously, this man wasn't simple, how could he have no resistance at all?

Turns out it was because he was healing.

Ye Qianming looked at her with cold eyes.

Those sharp sword-like eyes seemed to carry their own blade light and blood energy, staring firmly at her, as if wanting to imprint her entirely into his heart.

Just as Luo Qingtong felt a chill at his gaze, he suddenly closed his eyes again.

"Gurgle gurgle..."

Under Luo Qingtong's Pupil Vision, the emerald green water around them suddenly began to boil.

The emerald color inside quickly disappeared, as if something rapidly absorbed its medicinal properties, causing the spring water to swiftly turn transparent.

Luo Qingtong looked at the changes in the spring water with astonishment and soon felt the continuously surging warm energy within her body.

Sure enough, the man was healing.

But why was there no sign of any injuries on his body?

Luo Qingtong was shocked, her gaze rolling over the man's body.

Suddenly, her line of sight froze.
