

Surprised Wife With Twins (Ivan and Jennifer) Chapter 123

As Jennifer was in shock, she looked at Ivan.

She saw that Ivan's face had changed.

Spencer had promised him that he wouldn't show up in public!

But now, it was obvious that he was publicly going against him!

"Ivan, you have shut down his club," Jennifer reminded him in a gentle voice, "It's his choice what he wants to do next, and you can't control him anymore."

Ivan turned to look at her with a livid face. Jennifer's heart skipped a beat.

Ivan suppressed his anger and said nothing but left.

Looking at his receding figure, Jennifer was worried about Spencer.

Would it be that... Spencer was Ivan's half-brother?

Was that why Ivan would have such complicated feelings towards him?

Jennifer thought that she had found out about a big secret and she could not calm herself for a long while.

In the Lamborghini, Ivan sat in the back seat and was staring at the poster on his iPad. The smile on Spencer's face on the poster showed blatant provocation.

Ivan had been suppressing himself in order not to show anything on his face.

The sunlight crept in and fell on his sculpted face through the car window. However, the look on his face was still cold.

Thinking of Jennifer's kiss last night, he felt less angry.

In the simple but luxurious living room of Emerald Bay.

Jennifer sat on the sofa with the remote control in her hand. She had been watching the news about the shooting of "Love in Violet Gold Bay", which were all over the TV channels.

It had been settled that Spencer would play the hero.

He meant it when he said he wanted to become an actor.

In the poster, Georgia was in a white wedding gown and diamond-bordered high heels, she looked like a princess.

She was back-to-back with Spencer and they looked like a perfect match.

Jennifer wasn't in a rush of making the treatment plan. She had spent the whole day in the house, thinking about the story Ivan had told her last night, and she was drawn to the story among the last generation of the Mash family.

What in the world was love?

Ivan's father didn't want a penny from his marriage with Aubree and insisted on divorcing her for that woman.

He came from a family inferior to that of Aubree's.

Jennifer was also wondering if things would be different if Aubree had agreed to the divorce.

In the deputy president's office of the Marsh Group.

The sun came through the windows and shone on Catherine. She sat on the sofa facing the window. On her laptop screen, there was a photo of Spencer and Georgia. She had found out about the shocking news already.

Spencer had become an actor!

He was showing up in public!

"Ms. Collins, we need your signature on the file," Linda walked in and said to her.

Catherine took out her phone. "Put it on my desk." Then she called someone.

After the phone was answered, she said with a sullen face on the phone, "I want to see you, now."

"Catherine, I really don't have the time. I am with the crew now," Spencer said. Catherine could tell he was smiling, "Just talk to me on the phone."

"Why didn't you keep your promise?" Catherine questioned him, "You said you wouldn't show up in public and now you've become an actor? When you become famous, the paparazzi will dig out everything about you!"

"He shut down my club, I have to find a way to support myself," Spencer said in a relaxed voice, "He has left me no choice. I have to go on with my life. I don't care about the paparazzi. I have never done anything bad anyway."

"He shut down your club? Why?" Catherine was astounded.

Spencer smiled. "It's just a club. I had grown tired of it anyway."

He was provoking Ivan! He did it on purpose!

"Catherine, if there's nothing else, I have to hang up now. I am busy."

"..."

Spencer held the phone in his hand and smiled. It was the smile of a winner.