

Surviving in Woman's world as a novel villain.

Chapter 121 121. Bodygurd Strike Again

Nathan's eyes burning with immense rage when he saw Alex standing in front of him, He will never forget the humiliation of forcing him to swallow a shoe.

And yesterday's beating, He was sure that the woman was also sent by Alex. If not, how can any woman have the heart to beat a handsome, charming, Mr. perfect guy like him?

It does not make sense, So Alex had to arrange it.

'He should spend a lot of money to convince that woman to beat me. Maybe she needed money urgently, If not she should have never done that to me.'

Nathan couldn't help but to think about that woman, He felt that weird feeling when he saw her.

This is like something in the dark telling him that she is very useful to him. Before when he had this feeling, He was very confidently able to go and talk to them and they too got impressed by him.

The best example is his master. He also got the same feeling for her and when he talked to her everything worked out. She became so impressed by me, She directly accepted me as her first male disciple.

But yesterday things took a weird turn. He always goes and talks to that woman in his usual way as people often get impressed by how he is not afraid of power with his arrogant way of talking.

But that woman, other than getting impressed, became angry. He doesn't know what happened after that. He only knows when he woke up he was in a wheelchair.

So of course by his logic, it was done by Alex, As he never fails, Which is kinda right.

The reason why they are getting impressed like this was because of Halo of Wisdom, decreasing the IQ of others but Alex destroyed that Halo permanently from this world.

That's why people around Nathan reacted the same way as they would to others if they did the same.

So the frustration of losing those two women, Who gave him that feeling came over to Natahn, He gritted his and looked at Alex with hatred.

"Why are you here bastard- Arrgh Ack."

Nathan out of annoyance at seeing him here fully knowing that he will be going to once again cause trouble for him to prevent him from entering into the VIP ward.

What was even more blood-boiling for him was that this bastard was with three extremely beautiful women.

One of them he asked out before while the 2nd one was he fell in love with at first sight and the third thought not seen before was one is also a cutie, So out of frustration he asked him out in anger.

But the moment he completed his sentence, He felt a tight grasp on his neck and suddenly his airflow stopped.

His eyes wide open as his pupils dilated seeing the woman he fell in love with at first sight yesterday was now clinching his throat so hard that he can't even breathe.

He quickly wanted to look back and ask the two useless bodyguards standing behind him like a statue, Which side were they on? He is going to die here.

He brings them with him today only because he wanted to punish them, He even rejected Isabella's offer of lending him her bodyguards.

But now he was truly regretting it. He who killed a few people knows that Alia was not kidding around, She wanted to kill.

And the worst thing is that he can't even move because of his bandages, So he was like a fish on the chopping board.

Alex here was also stupefied, He knows the protagonist is stupid but to this extent? Compared to him, Rose looks like a one-in-century genius.

After all, Nathan has seen Alia with him, The same Alia who his "bodyguards" were not able to defend against before.

So he still does not understand why. What was thinking behind provoking someone like her by saying that to him?

Grace was also quite angry. How dare someone call the perfect man in her eyes a bastard, She as Alex simp had the urge to be a white knight in lighting shining armour and give him justice but Alia beat her to it making her feel she was still lacking and needed improvements.

Xiao Bai on other hand totally ignored Nathan's existence, Someone as weak as him was not even worth looking at.

All her attention was on trying the legendary skill of staying still by the red-bald guy, For to spend more time in his arms.

"Miss Alia, can you please not kill our young master? Don't forget he belonged to the Gayler family, You can't kill him."

Man in black seeing Natahn's face shifting from red to blue and soon turning purple decided to step in to prevent Nathan from dying here.

They don't care about whether he is dying or not, They just didn't want that to happen under their watch.

Alia not caring about their internal affairs was provoked when these men brought the Galyer family trying to put pressure on her.

So though before she only wanted to give a warning but now she really wanted to break this arrogant man just to send a message.

"Are you threatening me? Do you believe me when I say I can break both his arms and legs and send him back to your Gayler family?"

So she loosened the grip on his neck but did not let him go but lifted him by his neck dangling him in mid-air.

Alex seeing this felt pity, Pity that he didn't have popcorn right now, It would be fun seeing this while eating it.

Men in Black were also startled seeing this, Both quickly shared a glance at each other and then looked angrily at Alia.

"Miss, Miller, Aren't you underestimating our Galyer family?"

One walked in front of Alia and said angrily, He was looking really angry and humiliated by her words.

Alex also stops messing around and prepares to stop the melee conflict. He still needs to use Nathan as a cannon folder, It will be a pity if he gets damaged here.

'Finally, these stupid guys had not forgotten they belonged to the Gayler family.'

Nathan wanted to cry with joy seeing his "bodyguards" finally get some brain and came to his rescue.

He now gets it, Alex brings Alia here cause he sends his mother to him, He should have been careful about his retaliation.

But now decided to go full-on war with the Miller family, He just had to get the support of a person inside of this ward.

Alia is also shocked seeing the drastic changes in these bodyguards, Maybe they respect their family a lot.

Still, she will not let go of this arrogant man who dares to curse her man in front of her.

"What if I am? What are you going to do about it?"

Alia looked at the nameless man in black and said with her heir of family confidence, But surprisingly not only was this bodyguard not afraid he became even angrier.

"Really? Then do it. Let me see if you dare to do it. Why only hands and legs? Break every single bone in him.

So why did you stop? Do it, I dare you, I double dare you. Break all 207 bones in him, I will show you the power of the Galyer family. We have a family doctor who is way better than yours. Our young master will recover in just a week and stand before you once again.

Why are you not doing it? Are you underestimating our family again? Are you afraid of the Gayler family? You coward. This is a big disrespect to our Gayler family, Number two common if she is not breaking we will, He has to save the face of the family."

Then he started ranting, The words which were coming out of his mouth make a sane person hearing it doubt their own sanity, It's quite weird.

On one hand, his world kinda makes sense but on the other hand, it doesn't.

"..."

As guessed everyone stopped what they were doing and just stared speechlessly at the Bodyguard. Everyone was thinking one thing.

If you have a bodyguard like this, Do you really need to have any enemies?

Alia was also quite confused now she didn't know what to do. Do they break Nathan or not, Looking at this guy even if she didn't he will.

Alex too was surprised, He was ready to step in but he got betrayed, He had never in his wildest imagination thought of this happening.

There is no such character in the plot, If there was he would never have forgotten him.

Grace who was ready to join in to fight with Alia nearly fell on the ground hearing these words.

But most miserable was Nathan, The one these two were "guarding". He now truly regrets bringing these two, What do they mean if Alia didn't break his bone they will?

And why were they suggesting breaking all bones? Their family doctor is good but he is not a god to heal those injuries in an instant without any consequence.

And even then these two wanted him to face her again, Why? To let her break his bone again?

He now really misses his mother. If she was here this would never escalate like this.

"Hey don't look at me like this. I am shy."

The number one had guts after saying all that to act innocent, He was hiding his face apparently from the shyness of them staring at him.

[Ding!....]

Amidst this system, A notification rang in Alex's mind making him excited.

(A/N : The nameless one strikes back, Do you like it?

Like ways thank you for reading and have a good day 😊)

Chapter 122 122. Daddy Alex

[Ding! World choice is detected...

Options were like the following...

- [1] Someone said about beating the Protagonist, So why are you as a villain not doing anything?

Task : Break as many as bones you can of Nathan's.

Reward : Skill "Nutcracker"

- [2] You are a villain with a working brain, So do according to it.

Task : Break as many bones as you can of Nathan's

Rewards : Title " Enemies enemy is a friend".

- [3] How can you do Heartless things like beating a disabled person? It's inhumane.

Task : Use holy light skill and heal Nathan.

Reward : Strengthening your physiques (X times = X Heals)

(Note : If the host did not want to choose any of them, Please ignore this notification, There will be no punishment for it.)]

Alex stared at the system options and then at poor Nathan who was still being held in the air by his throat by Alia.

Looking at him, It seems he might burst out crying any second now, Have to say there was a moment Alex kinda felt bad for him.

It's human nature to sympathise with anyone, Not to mention Nathan is technically his son now.

[Ding! Host the option of raiding him and ending the conflict between you is still available, Do you want me to initiate that mission-]

"I chose all options. Even if he was my son I have to put justice upfront. People like him are cancerous to this world. After he is gone I will take care of his mother and sister."

Well, The moment system mentioned that old offer of raiding protagonist, Alex got enlightenment.

Raise up and above these mortals bonding, And quickly concluded that Nathan and he can't share one world.

So Nathan has to go, And this responsibility is now shouldered by him.

See how selfless he is, Why can't every villain be like him?

[Ding! All three options were selected, Please fulfil them to receive the rewards.]

The system did not even bother to argue with him, It had now gotten used to the shenanigans of its host.

Alex was also too shameless to get affected by this little thing, His focus was on the main thing.

It was through good fortune that even the third option was positive. It only happened 1 time before, So he wanted to use it to the fullest.

He was getting excited thinking about getting the honour to be the one who broke the bones of his dear son.

So Xiao Bai, still in his arms, came forward and stood in front of the Number one bodyguard as this one is nameless.

"You worthless dog of the Gayler family think we are afraid of your family? Allowing you to do honour-Ahem I mean needing you to break his bones, Do you think we are that weak? Let me show you the power of our family."

Alex pointed at him as he felt extremely hurt by what this man said, How can someone else break the bones of Nathan?

It's like this man was announcing war against him.

Bang Crack

Alex fears that others might steal this golden opportunity, Didn't waste a single second, Just as his words fell, He with one swift moment of his leg lashed like a hunter at Nathan's chest.

Nathan did not even get time to realise what just happened before he flew out of Alia's grasp and hit the wall behind him.

While flying he did hear a cracking sound, Which highly likely came from his ribs breaking apart.

[26/207]

Alex stopped here as he looked at the property panel in front of him. It's not hard to guess that it was for keeping a record of Nathan's broken bones, Which is very useful for him now.

After that, he started walking towards the half-conscious Nathan, Looking at the number in surprise.

There are a total of 26 rib bones in the chest, So he broke all his ribs with one kick.

"What? All his rib bones broke just from one kick? This proves how weak your Gayler family is."

So how can he not go to share it with his "enemy"? He looked at number one and spoke proudly without slowing down his moments at all.

Xiao Bai already sealed this space, So he can be a little wild if he wanted to, He just has to be careful not to do too much and trigger the protagonist's halo bringing him to help out of thin air.

"What do you mean? This does not prove a thing, And even if it does then it proves how weak you are. See even after your weak kick which only breaks 26 bones, Our young master is still conscious, This is the might of our young master.

I tell you, Even if you use more of your weak moves to break all the bones of our great, legendary one-in-the-century young master, He can still take it.

If your weak ass does not believe it, Then try it or are you now afraid?"

Number one not even needed a hint from Alex as the moment words of Alex fell, He too replied arrogantly, straightening his chest and boasting and saying pridefully.

All the training his eldest lady had given to him now being useful, He too enjoyed the current appearance of Nathan.

Anyone who goes against their eldest lady deserves to be treated like this

Alex did get quite impressed by this bodyguard. No wonder the protagonist hated his sister so much that he killed her later in the plot even though he can't walk away seeing a beautiful woman.

It was all thanks to the handy work of these guys, Making every day of Nathan hell and creating an infinite hatred for his sister, Even more than the lust in his heart.

"Really!!? Are you calling me weak? ME!!? Now you did it, Let me see how strong your young master is."

Alex also decided to follow this routine, It was actually more fun than directly starting to beat someone.

His sadistic personality was enjoying every bit of this, The confused wronged look of Nathan just flaming the fire in his heart.

He cracked his knuckles before he covered Nathan's figure with his to keep it PG-13.

Bang Boom Crack

The strange sounds were coming, making even the listener shiver in fear. There was muffled yelling and begging too in those sounds but it was so slow and low that it was masked by other sounds.

"Mummy!!! Bang"

Nathan came out of his shock and came to know that he was in fact being beaten, And not any normal beating, He was getting beaten like a dog.

What was even worse is that he realised that he can't fight back at all, Alex was way too stronger than him.

So he did the only thing he knows to do when he is helpless, He called out to his mummy.

[69/207]

"Mummy!!! Bang

But just as he yelled out for mummy, Alex hit him. He called out for mummy a second time and that time too Alex hit him.

There was quite a power in his punches as his fists touched Nathan, His bones breaking like a toothpick.

[133/207]

"Mumm-Bang"

[145/207]

"Mum*Bang*"

[180/ 207]

"Mu*Bang*"

[206/207]

"Daddy!!!....Huh!?"

Nathan was covered in blue-purple bruises, The inhuman man Alex did not feel pity at all, He beat him without a break making him wonder if this monster ever gets tired at all.

He lost the sensation in his body because of the pain. He can't feel shit and lost all the sensation in his lower body.

Because this bastard man did not even let go of his spine, He makes sure to break everyone.

From cervical vertebrae to lumber one, He makes sure to count them before breaking them all.

What kinda lunatic he came across, He now just wanted to go home and cry to his mummy but he thinks that the mummy's word is the cause of why he is getting beaten, So decided to say something else.

He called out for daddy and surprise surprise, He stopped.

Nathan was glad that he was this smart to figure this out. Maybe Alex has some problems with his mother, So he said mummy might be triggering him.

Well, What do you expect an already brain-dead person like him to think after definitely having a concession?

Step Broke

[207/207]

But sadly as we all know the calculation of his is slightly off, As proven when he was sighing in relief at getting gone by this monster.

He saw Alex rising his foot high, In his foot was the same type of shoe which gave him one of the worst memories.

Out of instinct, he closed his mouth fearing him repeating the same thing but once again his calculation was slightly off.

That foot other than coming towards his mouth goes towards, Then in front of his two wide-open eyes landed on his family jewels.

He was sure that he felt his eggs crushing under the impact of that evil black shoe though he had no sensation in the lower half.

"....AHHHHHHHHH!!! MY BALLS!!!"

Nathan needed a few seconds to process the loss of his twins, Which were with him since childhood.

He yelled in agony though again there was no pain in his body getting detected.

[Ding! Warning Protagonist going into a critical state (99% before triggering Protagonist Protection Halo), Please find a way to lower it as soon as possible.]

[Ding! Villain Halo is triggered, and Protection is given to the villain.]

(A/N : I was not kidding when I said I am going to make Nathan's life a living hell.

Sorry for the grammar I will fix it later 🙏

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊.)

Chapter 123 123. Will He Domestic Abuse - Grace

Alex took a slight break as he took a look at the notifications.

He was though not surprised he was still impressed that even after this extreme beating which will kill another human not even make Nathan unconscious.

This shows how hard it is to kill this damn protagonist, System notification proves that point.

If he now tries to go any further which will have a huge chance to kill Nathan, Some rando going to pop up and somehow will be a big shot.

After that Alex had to suffer a little, As that brain-dead person would not think twice and attacked him in an attempt to save Nathan, Which made him end up getting killed as now Alex has Xiao Bai with him.

But Nathan is 100% going to escape and will encounter a thing and quickly going to boost his power. This is how the protagonist normally works but sadly for Nathan, Alex has a way to walk past this rule.

He just had to ask some questions about the system before moving forward with his plans.

On the other hand, While Alex was talking with the system, Alia looked at him with shock.

She was shocked by the fact that he was able to kick Nathan out of her grasp, This is not normal at all.

She is a peak B-Rank awakened capable of fighting toe-to-toe with peak A-Rank, And yet she is not even able to figure out how Alex kicked Nathan.

That move she had never seen, Also the force behind his kick was just around C-Rank warrior, still, that much strength overpowered her grip.

It can be argued she was not prepared. That's why he was able to pull that off but then why was she not able to see his move? It was unscientific.

"Psst~ Alia, Hello? Are you listening? Earth to Alia, Are you there?"

Grace being sneaky came close to Alia who was lost in disbelief at the situation, Then like a mosquito started to annoy her to get her attention.

She too saw Alex's moves but she was worried about even more important matters than Alia.

"Stop annoying me and speak whatever nonsense you want to utter."

Grace's plan did work and pulled Alia out of her deep thinking. Annoyed by Grace, Alia replied without even looking at her.

Her gaze was fixed on the strong straight back of Alex, Who was doing indescribable things to Nathan.

Grace this time was not bothered by the uncaring attitude of Alia, She wanted the answer to a more important question.

"Hey, It's not nonsense, It's very important. I want to ask if Alex is going to do domestic abuse? I never saw this brutal side, He does have some tendency for it."

So she looked left and right especially towards Alex making sure he was not in earshot range before she whispered in Alia's ears.

Alia did not plan on hearing the stupidity of Grace, She was ready to shut Grace off the moment she finished asking the question as in her mind it definitely has to be a dumb question.

But when she was about to do it, She stopped instantly stupefied by the question asked by Grace.

Not because it was a dumb question, It was actually the opposite, This question makes a lot of sense.

This thing stupefied Alia as in her eyes Grace is nothing but a dumb woman who follows Alex like a dog.

That is the only Grace she knew, Alia is completely unaware of the part of Grace being the number one student in the finance department.

But then she paid attention to the punishment part as her mind started to think in a wicked way of hers.

"What kinda abuse are we talking about?"

Then she asked, no filters at all. Now that Grace mentioned abuse, New fantasies popped up in her mind.

A lot of things that were not suitable to talk about were playing in her head, But the common theme of them was the woman sitting at the corner while her man was in another woman's arms.

Though she knew this is a fucked up thing to even think about it the rush and the joy it give her were uncanny.

This feeling was so addictive that it was affecting her critical thinking. She knew she needed to stop but she also knew she had fallen too deep.

The line should not be crossed, Was crossed the way before now there is no turning back.

And so if there is no turning back then why not embrace this darkness? It will not do any good to others if she ignores the existence of darkness.

But if she embraces it, She will not only get her to deserve punishment but also she can explore this unknown emotion and the reason why they were so addictive.

Grace was confused about Alia's question but still out of instinct, she started answering her.

"Ohh it's domestic- Wait! Did it matter what kinda abuse? Tell me the reasons why we can justify it."

Well, She too had fallen deep. After all, she was the first one to agree about lending or even say helping to get Alex into her mother's pants.

It was even before Alia and that too without being under the influence of unknown emotions, That says a lot about how head over heels, She is for Alex.

Even now she was not worried about abuse, Here she was more worried about how to justify it in the eyes of the world.

She is indeed a true simp, A well-known dog lick.

While two love idiots are doing their thing, Number one here at some point pulled out his phone and started streaming live events unfolding here to his eldest lady.

"Eldest Lady, Are you seeing this? See how our Young master is trying to prove the strength of the Gayler family. See how brave he is, A true hero, Don't you think I miss?"

While streaming he did not forget to give live commentary about making this already interesting thing even spicier.

"Good, He is indeed the hero of the Gayler family, Make sure he will not die and arrange the finest bed just add tiny needles hidden in them. So he will be reminded of his noble act."

On the other side, an extremely beautiful woman looking at the scene of Nathan being beaten with a wide smile on her face.

And she is the one who trained these "bodyguards", Has an interesting way with words.

While she was enjoying the beating of Nathan, Her eyes fell on the one who did this good deed and then her eyes never moved.

Even if the thing she always wanted to do was happening to Nathan, She was way more interested in this unreasonably handsome man.

The ambition of her being the head of the family wavered a little. If she can be with this transcended man, Then this worldly wealth matters.

But then she quickly changed her mind. The ambition of being the head of the family increased a lot.

It's just that before she wanted to be head of the family just to piss her mother off but now she wants to, So she can be worthy of being with him.

So now with that in her mind, She started making even more extreme plans to get rid of her brother.

'System, Shut off-peak stats increasing stats of Holy Blessing.'

Here back to Alex standing in front of Nathan done with talking with the system about a few things about how this protagonist's halo works.

Now he knows that the Halo of the Protagonist works like a prevention protocol. Whenever the protagonist's life was in danger or the odds were stacked against them a lot.

That hidden dark power of luck starts moving to create odds that will create a favourable condition for the protagonist.

But the catch is that it will not do a thing if its conditions were not met, As interference of luck that much disrupts the working of the world.

So as long as Alex makes sure that he will not push Nathan to a dead end, His halo will become useless.

"Holy Blessing."

After Alex shut off the best function of the Holy Blessing, He used it on Nathan.

He stretched his milky white slender hand towards Alex and spoke softly as a golden light came out of his hands and penetrated Nathan's skin.

As that light entered, Nathan got back his senses and felt the coldness of his body, Then huge pain hit him.

But as he was about to yell in agony, That coldness was replaced by warmth and his pain was gone. Now he felt like he was in the warm embrace of his mother.

Golden light quickly spared all around his body as it quickly found all the broken bones and entered them before starting to heal all the fractures and the broken bones.

The tiny broken shreds of his bones were also taken care of as golden light converted into a liquid and quickly merged them back into the broken parts of bones.

Visible to the naked eye, Nathan became even better than he got beaten, All his bruises were also gone.

"....Thank you???"

Nathan felt his body become confused and surprised as he never thought that anyone can heal this quickly.

He was also shocked that power like this was possessed by Alex, This makes him very jealous of a medical trained man like him with this power is very good.

So he decided to be friends with Alex first before figuring out ways to steal it. He never forgets about his revenge and now he has even more reason.

"Ohh welcome, Now the 2nd round begins."

Alex can guess what was cooking in their mind of Nathan, But he was not afraid at all, This only made it easy for him to continue.

So in the horrified eyes of Ntahn, Alex with his devilish smile walked towards Nathan, starting the second round.

(A/N : Is this enough or need more (There is more but talking about in this place.)

Chapter 124 124. Take...Me...To...Mummy!!

[Ding! Protagonist's Halo triggering chances decreases to 0%]

[Ding! Villain Halo also lowered its power.]

[Ding! -2000 Protagonist Luck (6500 luck), + 2000 RP points and +200 (1800) Luck to host].

'Humm, As I thought, If the protagonist comes out of the critical condition before it can trigger its halo, It goes back to normal.'

Alex nodded positively, finding this key information. Now not even Nathan but even with the other protagonist he didn't have to walk on eggshells.

For normal things like beating them half dead he can do it, His villain halo will take care of the Protagonist's Halo will be in check, He just had to maintain the equivalent balance in two halos.

While he was lost in thought, Nathan might misunderstand his intentions thinking that he had a merciful heart and thanked him.

Alex pulled out his thoughts by those words, Just to see naked greed in his eyes.

For a second Alex shivered in fear, As this is the reverse world, Scissoring might frown and be disgustingly seen by society.

But sword fighting is a defence seen in 4k here, Even though men who like to explore caves might clash their swords with others just for fun.

So seeing Nathan looking at him freed Alex and misunderstood that he too wanted to clash swords with him. After all, Alex's charm is there that affects others beyond the boundaries of gender.

Alex was in panic and even thought that if he was quick enough he should be able to kill Nathan before his halo kicked in, Though he knows this is not possible but still he didn't want to take risks.

It was his initial thoughts but after a few seconds, He realised that Nathan was not greedy about him, He was not that colourful person.

He should definitely eye his power, This disgust Alex even more about the protagonist, This guy wanted to bite the hands that saved him.

Given that these hands were also the prime reason why he needed saving but still, This brat is very ungrateful.

So As a father, he needed to take matters into his own hands and put some sense into himself.

And he just did that. There was a second round which was even more intense than the 1st one.

A yelling and begging sound of Nathanrang like a melody in Alex's ears as his hands were busy doing the act of righteousness.

Soon the 2nd round ended but Alex was still in full spirit, He once again used his Holy Blessing before he went for the 3rd and 4th only stopping 9th and a half as he needed to save one use of the holy blessing.

[Ding! -2000 Protagonist's Nathan's Luck (4500 Luck), +2000 RP and +200 Luck to host (2000 Luck)]

But he also didn't want Nathan to walk scratch free, So he with a heavy heart broke 105 bones of his as a reminder to be a good person.

Yeah, his balls still had to be sacrificed as they were the origin of evil within him.

Now that they were gone, He might look a little more clearly, And there is a sex lock still on him, So Alex also didn't have to fear brain-dead things like poisoned need to have sex to survive the plot kicking in.

"Ta...Take...me...to....mummy..."

Nathan just lay on the ground with lifeless eyes, There was no will to yell or complain to anyone in his heart, He did at the beginning but under the constant service of Alex, He gave up on it knowing it is useless.

[Ding! +5000 Luck for the protagonist, +20 physical stats were increased for the protagonist Nathan.]

Alex was also ready to let him go now as he had his fun. He now wanted to use this canon folder one more time and send it to Helen to decrease her anger.

But then a system notification rang in his mind, startling him. He quickly opened the system panel and rechecked the notification.

It turns out that this beating not only increased Nathan's luck but also his physical stats, Though not that much by his standards but for the others, 20 stats are huge numbers.

No wonder this protagonist was pretty much impossible to kill with normal means, Thankfully he has a system to take care of unexpected events.

[Ding! Warning!!! You are being watched now.]

The system once again jumped up and gave him the earnings but this time Alex was not surprised as his God-level acting already detected eyes on him.

Well it turns out he can not only detect cameras but also the eyes on him, he wasn't able to feel this before but as his strength increased, He understood this weird sensation from people's eyes on him.

And this person who had eyes on him was not unexpected for Alex, rather he was waiting for her to see past from the sealed space of Xiao Bai, Which took a lot more time than expected.

"You two, I agree your young master is mighty, the Galyer family did have some face but I am not sure yet, So I have to try a few more times to bring him when I ask, For now, go take him inside as he wanted, He earns it."

Alex knows he got her attention, Started running his acting skill, And said these words as if he really believed all he did here was just to test the might of the Gayler family, There were no ill intentions at all.

He also started sweating lightly, His expression was slightly changed but quickly go back to normal without others finding out of course except the one he wanted to show it.

"Okay, Our Gayler family is not afraid of anyone, Young master will take thousands beating like this and will not even flinch."

These two men in black who were "bodyguards" for Nathan quickly came to half-conscious Nathan laying on the ground lifelessly, Then they without giving even slight pity to him declared to Alex.

Before they thought that breaking his bones one time was enough like yesterday that hooded woman did but now seeing Alex's move, It open their eyes. Why stop at one if you can have as many as you want?

They now think about stacking up healing potions with them, So whenever someone tries to give up thinking Nathan had enough, They can just pour that liquid in his mouth to make him beatable once again.

Thinking of that, the two grabbed Natahn's arms and legs and started walking towards the VIP ward entrances, With wide smiles on their faces.

They don't know what or who is inside waiting for him but looking at how eager Alex is to make them enter, It was definitely bad news for Nathan.

"No...Take...Home...To...Mummy!!"

Nathan had a drastic reaction as these two idiots started carrying him towards the VIP ward.

As he had a very bad feeling in his heart, All cells in his body were yelling not to entry in that ward but he was helpless, His body not even had the strength to ma one single finger.

And even if had strength his body was incapable of moving as Alex broke all the joints making his fish on the chopping board.

So under his futile protest, Those two carried him to the VIP ward.

Alex, seeing he might have a few free minutes, wanted to go over the plan in his head as there is a very slight margin for mistakes in his next plan.

But Grace came running towards him and grabbed his palm and started inspecting them hurriedly.

Even Alia came to him looking at them with emotions in her eyes that Alex does not know of.

He did not pay her much attention as he thought she was now in a cult and it was not a sign of intelligence to guess what was happening in her mind.

He put his focus on Grave, Who was carefully checking his palm from the front and back over and over again trying to check something.

Alex guessed she might be looking for where that golden light came from as it is her first time seeing this supernatural thing.

So it's valid to be this curious, that's why he let her be and wanted to tell her about supernatural existence like superpowers in this world.

"Grace, Don't be surprised. In this world, there are lots of supernatural things, My golden light is one of the"

"Shut up you idiot, Why were you fighting like that? It's okay to beat him once but why did you beat him that many times?"

Grace cut him off mid-sentence, Which was unexpected for everyone present as Grace is more of a submissive type of woman, Which will follow anything Alex will say.

But now she acted like that? Alex was very confused about why there was this sudden change.

"Grace what-"

"If you wanted to beat him, So be it but why do you do it yourself, When we have thug like Alia? Look how red your knuckles became. What we will do if you broke a bone or two?"

Grace once again cut him off as she continued speaking, While checking his palm apparently for injuries.

"..."

Well, She made everyone speechless. Even Xiao Bai, who was born a few hours earlier, was looking at her speechlessly.

(A/N : Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊.)

Chapter 125 125. Helen Powerhouse

Alex looked at Grace with stupefiedness as he tried to figure out how and from where did she pick this vocabulary as it was not from the Grace he knows off.

But there was an even more concerning thing, He did not even have to look at Alia as he could feel her boiling anger.

Thankfully he has Harem protection (Internal) or he was 90% sure someone will die today here.

After all, Alia takes her pride very seriously. If anyone tries to mess with that she will show why she was feared as an infamous black rose of the business world.

As he expected Alia was burning with rage, The stupidity of Grace hurting her own mind.

How can this stupid man call her a thug and that too in front of Alex? Where is she going to put her face now? This is a huge insult.

"You worthless stupid being, I am not a thug, Thugs work for others, At best I can be considered Savage."

So she turned to Grace and sternly answered and cleared the difference between Thug and Savage as that was what bothered her.

Well, what do you expect? Heroniesbrainsn work too differently than normal.

Alex here was also at first surprised then felt stupid for even worrying about the conflict.

These heroines were made to tolerate another woman from their man by the laws of this world, So even if another woman might cross the line, There will not be too big a reaction.

Of course, Unless we are talking about crazy women, Alia is one of them but it seems, She is having technical difficulties in her Yandere personality nowadays.

"Ohh, I am sorry, You are Savage, Alia."

Grace on other hand looked at her with a look of realisation, and with a shocked face uttered these words.

To which Alia just gave an agreeing nod, Like the words Grace said were normal ones.

'What is happening? Since when tigress became this docile? And what happened to the IQ of this little white rabbit?'

Seeing the interaction Alex couldn't help but spike in his mind, He did not understand why Alia's personality drastically changed.

Also, Grace was supposed to voice reason in this chaotic world, But this voice now became dumb.

[Ding! Host, A high favorability is one of the main reasons for their changes. People often act differently in front of the person they love, Aad when love crosses the limit of unhealthy obsession, It only worsens that effect.

So in front of you, they behave differently as hosts, But the system suggests not to lower your guard around them as they are still as capable or now even more to cause chaos.]

As always, anytime Alex needed, System came to his rescue. This time was no different.

In normal worlds, These women were love brains right now, So their way of thinking was different than usual, Which is a common occurrence.

But the system also warns him not to lower his guard, to Which Alex completely agrees, He is not a fool to make that rookie mistake.

Even if everything looks like going all right, He never lacks in his planning as it's better to overdo it than to be caught lacking, Because overdoing at best makes him try but if he got caught then that would be game over.

"Mommy!!!!"

While Alex was thinking about his broken philosophy, A painful agonising shriek came from the VIP ward.

This voice belonged to know one other than our dear Protagonist, Nathan.

Alex, Alia and Grace quickly turned their head towards the VIP ward as the pain in that voice was too much.

Alex before beaten Nathan brutally and still, he did not yell this miserably as he did now.

Alex shivered in fear hearing the shriek of Nathan, He was right to send his dear cannon folder in first to face that sleeping beauty, Who now turns into a beautiful beast, Hungry for revenge of blood.

Though it is metaphorical, he did somehow take the first blood of the mother of two biological children.

And top of that he had slept with her and her daughter together on the same bed that she was sleeping on.

Anyone with a sane mind will get angry, And Helen currently has the sanest mind among the heroines, Well not say much but at least she would act close to a normal woman, When he was not around.

That's why he dares not to go in front of women. He had Oyakodon not when he knew how powerful she was.

The only reason he even had the guts to come to this hospital is Xiao Bai, After all, even during their section, System indicated the strength of Helen and that she can do anything to what she wants.

His fear is valid though, There are only 7 known S-Rank warriors in this vast big country, Which stands with Murica in terms of power.

And Helen is one of those 7, The top powerhouse of the country.

As for why she lives here like an ordinary person no one knows not even Alex, As it is never said in the plot.

In the plot, Helen is a big backer of Nathan's early stage but as a too overpowered force, She rarely came into the plot, Often when things turned too desperate for Nathan.

And later when other strong persons appeared, She slowly got forgotten by the author. Other than leaving her name here and there, Helen never appeared in the plot.

So those things stay hidden and never get mentioned, This is also the reason why Alex was hesitant to go to meet her.

As now unlike before, Helen will be in a fully awake state and not just following her primal instincts.

"Hey Alex, Is he going to die? Do I go inform Gayler's family?"

At some point, When Alex spun gears in his mind, Alia came to him and looking at the VIP ward spoke in Alex's ear without much extra expression on her face.

Grace looked horrified at Alia not understanding how she can talk about someone's death with that carelessness.

But then it hit her who she was talking about, In Alia's field you can't survive without dirtying your hands, So Alia might have gotten used to it.

She does feel kinda pity for Alia as she has to deal with this stuff daily, But also makes her fearful and reminds her that she was dealing with the devil.

"No need, This guy has more lives than cats and harder to kill the cockroaches."

Alex is also not affected by the mere issue of something not related to the person's death, And he is also sure that Natahn will not die.

If it was this easy-to-kill protagonist, He had put 9 grams of lead in Natahn's brain the moment he had met him to prevent sleepless nights.

But unfortunately, These illegitimate sons of heaven were very well protected by the power of luck.

He was sure either Helen's anger would subside before Nathan was close to dying or someone came to his rescue.

He just had to wait for what would happen, Though he wholeheartedly wanted the first thing to happen as it would be very good for him.

....

"M...A...M, I...I didn't Gulp did a....anything, P..lease. L..t me go."

Nathan was laying on the ground in his own blood, Begging for the life of a woman he had a crush on since childhood.

While his two bodyguards were standing aside looking at the events unfolding in front of them with a look of enjoyment.

They really hate this arrogant Young master of theirs, He only came back 3 days ago and yet he makes them him to this extent.

They felt he has this unique talent, a normal person can't be this unbearing.

"How dare you break into my ward, Do you think anyone can enter? Do you think I am a casual woman? And you even bring other people with you? Do you enjoy bringing more people or was it just for me? Because I am an old woman or I am a widow? I have standers you know."

Helen sat in bed in a well-dressed manner, Her long hair was open, hauling like a river to her slender waist.

Now in one hand, she held the knife, While the other hand was an apple, Which she was cutting and eating while babbling this thing to Nathan.

Who right now crushed under the pressure of the aura released by her, Pinning him on the ground.

Right now he wanted to say too many things, But most importantly he wanted to ask, What this woman was talking about?

He did not understand a word she was saying. What did she mean by bringing more people? Did she not see he did not even come here of his own will? He was carried out here by the people standing in front of her eyes.

Also, he does not understand, Why he feels weird to hear. She was talking about the breaking in but at the same time, it feels like she was talking about a totally different thing.

He cursed himself, Why did he get out of the house? He better have listened to his mother and stayed at home to rest.

He regretted even leaving his house but the hate for Alex never wavered in his heart, His hatred for Alex increased even more now, As all anger and blame once again fell off Alex's head.

'I had to call my master to deal with that bastard.'

While Helen was increasing pressure on him as she started babbling more, Nathan only saw one person as his hope in this desperate situation.

(A/N: Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊.)

Chapter 126 126. Step-Dad

Nathan laying in his pool of blood was contemplating his life decisions, Why did he even come here? Will the feeling he felt before be wrong?

He looked at Helen from the ground and saw that he was well dressed in a black suit and pants. Her face too had a healthy blush. There is no way this woman could be sick.

Still, to be on the safe side he decided to use a special technique his master taught him. His eyes glowed as he scanned her body.

But then he remembers, isn't this the reason why he was laying on the ground? When he came here Helen was not that aggressive but out of curiosity and to search for the chance, He used this technique on her.

This will help her to find any hidden illness of Helen but before he could search her body, Enomourouse's pressure fell on him pinning him on the ground, Making his fractured bone stick out of his body under pressure.

Well, he was right, Just as by instinct he used his technique on her, Pressure on him doubled crushing his bones and making him bleed even more.

He was now thankful that his master had taught him the breathing technique of quick healing. If not, He was not sure he could survive today.

But this technique is also quite taxing. This directly draws the power of the future potential of the user, So in exchange for life, you have to sacrifice the future.

As he used that technique, An aurora rose from his body covering him whole, quickly healing the old wounds and the new ones that are being created right now.

Still, under the pressure, New wounds were appearing making him use this technique constantly.

'Alex Winchester, You will have to pay for this with interest.'

Nathan gritted his teeth as he bore the pressure Helen put on him, Though not sure of his own survival he did not forget to curse Alex.

In his mind, everything happened because of Alex. He is the reason why he was not beaten like a bitch. If at that time he did not put his big nose in his matter, Everything would be fine.

He had gained support from that powerful person, After that, he should have had smooth sailing, But since he met Alex everything turned worse.

He even treated his own house like unwanted, Before when he liked any woman they came running towards in his arms and now? They are beating on sight.

It's all Alex's fault, He had the gut feeling everything that happened to him was directed by Alex, He didn't know why but this is a very strong feeling.

Also, there is another feeling he did not want to admit, which is fear. He had fear in his heart since the 2nd meeting with Alex.

Seeing Alex, He felt like he was comforted by his natural enemy. He did have the urge to run away every time he saw him, And now seeing his strength, He gets why even after his mother taught Alex a lesson was able to walk.

His mother might have fooled him by his weak appearance and she went easy on him, So he decided to go back home and ask his mother to pay one more visit to Karna.

But this time he wanted her not to go easy on him. Even if she had to punish him all night, He wanted her mother to do it.

'This??'

Helen wanted to continue beating Natahn till he would stop breathing but she was stunned seeing the technique he used.

"You guys have a gut, Even dare to peek into my body. You are very lucky that you are some of Isabella, My old friend's students. If not...well you know what would have happened, right?"

Helen lowered her pressure seeing that Nathan was in a desperate situation using the forbidden technique.

She knows that technique very well. It was her old friend who found it in ruins. As it's forbidden for the reason why Natahn didn't want to use it, It uses the future potential of the user.

But that is a half-truth. Even if it was using future potential it was not enough to label it as forbidden as in life and death. It didn't matter if you were drawing power from potential.

The reason why it's forbidden is that it not only draws potential from the future but also decreases one life and it also damages one's origin core, The thing that holds the life and potential of every awakened being.

So when she saw Nathan using that technique continuously to stay alive, She stopped fearing he might really die.

Before he was the son of Isabella was not a big deal, Though she did not want to spoil the relationship between families but she also did not care much about it.

But now an additional person, Her old friend being this man's teacher, She had given up taking out her anger on him, Anyway now she has calmed down, At least now she is not as angry as before.

'It's quite an effective way to reduce anger, I should find a few volunteers for this noble task.'

Helen is learning a new thing and that is beating people will lower her anger a lot and that too very quickly.

So as a mother of cold Alia, The first thought was to find some before beating rather than to buy a punching bag.

Which not only be cost-effective but also a lot more durable, Though not able to take shots from S-Rank like her but a custom-made strengthened tungsten punching bag for awakened will be a lot more durable.

But well, She is the mother of Alia, To whom even Alia is fearful, There is a reason for it.

"You two, Throw this trash away," said Isabella to keep her dogs on leashes. If not, I don't mind doing it for her."

Helen then looked at "bodyguards"/standing in the corner thoroughly enjoying her miserable condition of Nathan.

"Okay, Miss. We will keep our dog in check but if he crosses his line in future, Feel free to beat him anytime you want, We will not say a thing.

Our Young man thought the man was very feminine. His skin is also quite thick like his head, So he is going to need a few more beatings to get this thing in his head, So we will meet.

I have to apologise for the inconvenience in advance, Okay, We will take our leave miss."

Number one will not let go of any single moment that is harmful to Natahn, Though he still needs sharpening at this time taunting was way efficient but well he can still learn.

"??????"

Helen had question marks hovering above her head, She did not understand what just happened.

She deals with lots of people in her life, Most if not all of them either act fearful or threaten her, But she never hears this reply and that too from this person's bodyguards.

"Ba....ster...ds"

Nathan really wanted to beat the shit out of these two now, Why were they looking for trouble for him, What he ever did to them? Why were they targeted like a mortal enemy?

He felt like crying blood tears when he thought that he was the one who insisted on keeping them as his bodyguards. Did the dog have eaten his brain when he made that decision?

Nathan was in regret, While two of them came and carried him out as they brought him here.

"How can she teach disciple this weak?"

When Nathan and his bodyguards were gone, Helen murmured to herself, She knows the teacher of Nathan, That's why she also knows that woman never taught a random person, All her students are exceptional geniuses.

And more importantly, All of them are girls.

Her friend has an old minded. She thinks women are superior to men when it comes to ancient knowledge. That's why she only taught girls until now.

So she was confused about how a person with this kinda mindset could teach someone like Nathan, Who is not only weak but also a man.

"Forget it, That woman might have gone senile because of age."

Well in search of an answer, She came up with the most logical one and dropped the topic as there are more important things.

'He seems to have some problem with his use of power.'

Helen looked towards the entrance, Even though the door of it was closed, She was able to see everything from another side.

Her eyes were focused on Alex, Who now shivered to see Nathan carried out of her VIP ward.

She looked at him before. At first, she wanted to beat him to death when she had just woken up from her deep sleep.

But now that she saw him, Her heart softened, So she decided to make him hers anyway her daughter was lacking a father, So he would like a gift for them.

She fully decided now to make him her husband by any means necessary, After all, that man kinda takes advantage of her.

It's just a while looking at him. She saw an anomaly which worried her a lot, So she dropped the idea for a while.

....

Outside Alex shivered as he heard a system notification.

[Ding! New mission : Avoid being a stepdad....]

Chapter 127 127. Be Daddy

[Ding! New Special Mission: Avoid being a stepdad...Be daddy.

Task : Be daddy of Alia and Rose, (Violet)

Reward : Title "Daddy"

Daddy :

- +30 initial affection of draughts for you, ×1.5 times more daughters will be sexually attracted to you.

- +70 initial affection of mothers for you, ×2 times more mothers will be sexually attracted to you.
- -80 Initial affection of sons for you, ×5 times more sons will have hatred for you.

(Note : This affection is an add-on and can be stacked with other title effects.

Do you want to accept? Y/N.]

'WTF!!!'

Alex just stared at the system mission, Unlike before it was not a world mission, It was a special mission.

He was a casual gamer in his last life, So he knows this is like an event-triggered mission.

He might have triggered this mission by what he did these days, As right now he pretty much has two mothers under him, While the other one will be his soon like her daughter.

So it might be that he completed some secret mission to receive this mission.

[Ding! No, you are the wrong host. This is just a randomly generated special mission. Any relation to the person, event or thing is nothing but a coincidence, System will not be responsible for the disaster of your own thinking.]

The system, like before, jumped out and defended itself. It really had no such thing as Alex was talking about, Though there are some functions that are yet to open the system but the current system did not do as he was talking about it.

So to be on the safe side, It announced a disclaimer, That way Alex can not point the finger at it and blame it for if later he made a mess.

'...Yes, accept the mission.'

Alex was speechless, How can his docile system act like that? Who is that bastard to spoil his system?

But then he realised he was the only one capable of influencing the system, So he was the one who reasons, Why the system learned a counterattack to his argument before.

Well, he does want to blackmail and guilt trip the system before to gain rewards as he may be a villain, System will allow that but it seems the system will not be able to make it easy for him.

So he didn't think much about it. He will take care of the innocent system later. First, he wanted to be the one other world guy dying to hear their girlfriend say it to them.

"Come on, What are you guys waiting for? Let's go to meet my mother-in-law."

Alex then looked at Grace and Alia, Grace still doing her check-up never asking about the strange golden light even when it will destroy anyone's worldview.

While Alia was looking at them weirdly looked filled with strange emotions.

Shiver

Seeing that look Alex shivered, He didn't know what was happening with this first heroine, To what extent he had broken her.

He felt the look in her eyes was hinting something, wanting something but he didn't know what it was.

But he was sure that does not want this woman near any virgin woman of his, He had to work sleeplessly to make that happen.

He just did not have to handle excited Grace as she heard him calling Helen mother-in-law.

"M-Mother-In-Law??"

Surprisingly the first to speak was not Grace but Alia, Her face was now redder than tomato, Her eyes not even meeting with him nor it was staying in something.

Her blue icy gaze had a strange warmth and was like a dragonfly on the water's surface wandering all over the place.

Seeing her like that, Grace understood why Alex had fallen in love with Alia and sang that memorising song, Which was still trending on all the social media platforms right now.

Alia right now looked breathtakingly beautiful, Her dark thick lock of hair against her flushed milky skin was showing uncanny beauty.

Not to mention the shy expression on that celestial well carved face, It will soften anyone's legs just by the mere look of it.

As a woman and her love rival, Grace is indeed jealous of this work of art but there was also an appreciation for beauty, which will not reduce the rivalry between them a bit.

'So what she is beautiful, I am not bad looking either, Plus I am not alone, I also promised my mother to him, So this is 2 vs 1, I have the high ground here.'

Grace clenched her fist as she hardened her determination about the promise she made to Alex about helping him get her mother.

Before she thought it was weird and was also a little reluctant to do it but now, She had the motivation, She will not lose to Alia , She was sure of it.

"Y-Yes!? Is there any problem, Alia?"

Alex is also captivated by her look. After all, she is a true number one heroine in both plots, So her importance was no doubt was any less and so were her looks.

And on top of her first-class look, He used his holy blessing on her, increasing her charm stats too.

So her beauty was 10 times more than what was in the plot, So there is no wonder he should get a small heart attack seeing this unbelievably beautiful woman.

Especially when she acts in opposition to her personality and becomes shy. It can bring any strong man to their knees.

"No, There is none, Let's go to meet mom."

Alia also saw their stare at her and blushed even more, The burning desire in Alex's eyes also ignited a fire in her heart.

It said that every man wants to be looked at by their woman with that desire but that also applies to women.

Women too wanted to get looked like this by their men, They too wanted to know if they are as attractive to their men as they are to them.

And the look of Alex was her proof that she was, He too had that desire in his eyes for her.

Her heart sped up so did her breathing. She felt her whole body on fire suddenly, Where his eyes landed on her body made her feel that place became hot.

She was afraid she couldn't control the primal desire rising in her heart any longer and hopped on his body right here and now.

So she quickly turned her face away and hurriedly walked into the VIP ward leaving Grace and Alex behind alone.

"Chuckle This stupid woman, Only knows how to play with my fragile heart."

Alex, looking at Alia's departing figure, couldn't help but shake his head.

At one point she made him fear for the well-being of his harem and the next moment she pulled shit like this made him feel guilty about thinking that bad about a pure innocent soul like her.

"Don't worry, I am there to heal your broken heart."

When Grace listened to Alex's words, She misunderstood and thought he was talking about events before, So she quickly came to him and declared she was there to take care of him.

"Ohh thank god I have you, Grace, So let's go in, My lady."

Alex has not given much thought as this is what Grace is, She rather suffers all suffering the world throws at her then to let even a single thing bother him.

She is like a lantern to him, She will burn herself in a fire just to keep him in the light, He knows this very well.

So to appreciate her gestures, Alex in royal style bowed to her while at the end extending his elbow inviting her to come with him.

"Honour is all mine, My lord."

Grace too entangled her arm in his while both walked inside.

"W-Who d-do I go with??? W-Wait, I am he-here too!"

While Alex was getting sympathy and love from two beauties, Poor Xiao Bai was left alone or said to be forgotten by him.

She stopped looking around after realising she was no longer in Alex's arms, Her eyes quickly started searching for his figure like a lost child with fearful and panic-filled eyes.

Well, Even if she is an S-rank warrior, she is a child alone in this new world, So it is common to get scared of being alone.

She searched and quickly found the figure of Alex going anyway and quickly dashed after him.

....

"Another woman??? Did he have more women than my daughter? How can my daughter do all this? This is a disgrace to the name of our family."

In the ward, Helen saw that Grace who was before keeping an appropriate distance from Alex now in the absence of her daughter was now broken that invisible line between them and pretty much hung her body on his.

Seeing them like that flame of jealousy burned with full force in her heart.

That man is hers...daughters, It is disgrace to Miller's name if this news goes out.

"Bees will never stop coming to ownerless flowers, I should talk about marriage to him, This way others will not mess with the master of their Miller family."

Helen here directly fixed the marriage of Alex without asking him, To whom? That is a question even she did not have the answer to, All she knows he will be marrying the Miller family.

(A/N : Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊.)

Chapter 128 128. Coincident? I Think Not

"Mother, I bring him here."

Alia hurriedly ran and came to her mother with a red blushing face, A fine bead of sweat like expensive pearls was collected on her wide smooth forehead.

Her heartbeat was still not calmed down as her heaving bosom was indicating.

"..."

Helen just looked at her coldly without speaking, making Alia look down in guilt, not daring to meet her eye for what she did yesterday.

Guilt was actually mutual, Helen too did not know how to face her daughter since yesterday, Thankfully she can hide it behind the mask of a stern face.

She also knows that she was equally at fault for what happened yesterday. Her body was man deprived. The only reason she was even alive all these years and did not die was because of her S-Rank power.

But everything has a limit, So after some time somehow she was not able to satisfy her needs by supplementing her core energy but a few days ago she somehow wasn't able to do that anymore.

It was very weird as she was able to do this all these years without any problems and then out of nowhere she wasn't able to do it.

She wanted to find a solution to this as soon as possible, But when she did not find it she hardened her heart and decided to find a man.

It's just when that thought appeared in her mind, Her body could no longer hold it together and she fell into a coma.

Her Lust Fairy body is very strong but this is its biggest weakness, It needs to be supplemented with sex.

So when a man(Alex) got near her already sex-deprived body, She moved on instead and the rest is history.

'What happened to Alia? Didn't Alex and she were just a couple for name only?'

Okay sleeping with her daughter is not the main concern for her as it was a medical problem and she was not in her right mind, So it was excusable.

But what is more worrying here is the fact that the man she slept with was the boyfriend of her firstborn and infamous person in her 2nd daughter's mouth, Alex.

For while she was glad as she knew what they had in them was just a transaction for their needs, So there was not much guilt but then looking into Alia's eyes scared her.

Every time she even uttered his name, Her eyes would fill with overwhelming love, This made her more guilty.

Though Alia said she did not mind and understood her this only made Helen more guilty.

As she did not want this to be a one-time thing, Don't be misunderstood, She did not want to share a bed with her like before, But she did want to with Alex.

Since coming to her senses, His heavenly face is not going away from her eyes. When she opens her eyes she visualises him and when closed she imagines him.

He is like a ghost haunting him this day and night, Just the mere thought of him increases her heartbeat as if she was once again an immature woman in her first love.

The guilt is that she wanted to break them away. She wanted her daughter's man to be all for herself. She wanted to lie in his arms all day to smell that natural fragrance of his and feel his comforting warmth.

She thought it would be easy as she knows her daughter very well but now she doesn't know.

As never in her life did she see Alia blushing. She was always like an old glacier, Cold to everyone, Even to herself with a beautiful but rigid face.

She knew the price Alia had to pay for the SS-Rank superpower as this is the rule, Nothing came without paying their equivalent price.

So it shocked Helen to the core to see this new Alia. Even yesterday when she came to him, There was guilt in her words but not in her body language. It was the same as always cold.

"Alia it's not good manners to run away forgetting us."

Alex barged into the VIP room as he owned it and broke the awkward silence between Helen and Alia.

Grace was still holding him looking around the futuristic ward with a look of curiosity, She saw this thing in the movies.

She thought that compared to this ward her mother's VIP ICU is a pretend one in child's play.

"Ohh, You are awake? Have to say you look beautiful in that black suit and pants but still it can't compare with yesterday's one, "Mother-In-Law."

If you want to open a harem and add a mother-daughter duo in it, Then you need to have a thick face and a big mouth. If not it was nearly impossible to pull it off.

Plus he already had a plan in his mind, So this bold personality was necessary.

Helen hearing his words at first was happy but her face turned red visible to the naked eye as she understood the hidden meaning of those words of his.

Alia's face was also burning with shame, She wanted for the first time in her life to dig a hole and hide in it.

"Shut up."

Helen was very embarrassed to be reminded of the shame, Remembering that thing set her body on fire.

She does not understand what this man is made of, How he can do that long without getting tired at all, It was unheard of.

So she tried to reprimand him with her head of family voice but when her words came out of her mouth, They were so soft and slow that she was surprised that she was capable of speaking like this one.

"Of course, I will keep my mouth shut, Dear mother-in-law."

Alex this time acted as if he just felt something trying to control him, His personality also shifted to the more submissive one compared to before.

He spoke to her and went to stand next to Alia. Of course, he brought Grace with her. It is very risky to leave her alone in front of Helen.

'Huh?!...'

Helen was surprised that this quick change in personality, and found out something is wrong with Alex.

Before she also said that he was trying to hold something back but she put that aside thinking it was the overuse of his skill.

But now it seems it was not the case, So she decided to check and spared her spiritual power towards him, Trying to see what is wrong with him.

'System, don't stop her, Let her find out about my superpower and Incubus body.'

Alex knows what is running in Helen's mind, So while walking towards Alia he commanded the system not to stop the investigation of Helen to find out about his SS-Rank superpower and special physique.

This way he will build the foundation, A base work to create a harem with her permission.

After all, creating harem without her permission is not only going to be taxing but also very dangerous as she is a legit S-Rank warrior, Still being a formidable force.

Swift

As he expected, A strong feeling washed over him. As low in level he was not able to detect her spiritual power but he did feel a power covering him and then quickly going away, Which means the system stopped him from moving further.

He very badly wanted to see her shocked face but he didn't as it would expose him making her think it was all his part of the plan.

Well, it is but she does not need to know about it.

'How is this possible? Not only SS-Rank Superpower but also legendary physique? Is he some prophecy child?'

Alex once again guessed right, Helen was shocked beyond belief as she can't wrap her mind around the fact in front of herself.

She always thought that her daughter is a legendary rebirth of the empress, That's why she has an SS-Rank superpower.

As the SS-Rank superpower couldn't appear in this weakened world after the epic war, So only those who are blessed with luck can possess this rank superpower.

Even though she as an S-rank warrior only has an S-Rank power, Which for everyone is a ceiling of the ranking system.

But now there is another person with the same rank superpower as her daughter and what is coincident- No, It was to be connected that his power is related to fire opposite of her daughter.

This news was already scary. If others find out about it they will do everything in their power to get their hands on Alex or say his power.

After all addiction to power is the most destructive one.

That's why no one knows about Alia's SS-Rank superpower, And even with this super strong thing, he was blessed with another one too.

A legendary physique, Which separates geniuses and evildoers.

In history not one who possessed any kinda physique was a normal person, They all became myths and legends.

And here Alex possesses the Legendary-Rank Physique, Which no man in history can possess, He should be the first man, and 3rd human after those two empresses.

Helen tried to calm herself down but she couldn't, The excitement, worry and fear in her heart not allowing her to stay still.

"Today here, I, the head of the Miller family, Helen Miller, announce that Alex Winchester from this moment will be my husband and father of Alia and Rose."

So she did something. She got up from bed and announced it in her commanding voice.

(A/N : Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊.)

- Chapter 129 129. Do You Feel Honoured?

Chapter 129 129. Do You Feel Honoured?

In the ward was a pin-drop silence, Everyone was rooted in their place as if they were under a freeze spell.

Alia looked at her mother with a complicated look, On one hand, she was feeling that surge of emotions again making her excited about seeing her mother and Alex together.

But then there was anger, hate and lots of negative emotions. It's one thing she wants to see together and it's totally another when she tries to steal Alex from her.

He is hers, If he will marry then he will only going to marry her alone, No one else, not even her mother, This is her bottom line that one can cross.

This is a matter of her love, Yes she loves him. Her love might be weird and strange to others but for her, it was as pure as the heart of a child.

She can share a bed with another woman with Alex but not him, So if her mother dares steal her from herself then, She will be the first one to oppose knowing it will be futile.

But she will not give him up until there is breath in this flesh and bones.

Grace was also in a similar situation, But unlike her, she can indeed share him with others but others also wanted to do the same, Which Helen did not.

She had no idea why or how a woman as old as Helen even dared to announce this with a straight face. Did she not even think about her daughter even once?

Did she not even think about what society will say? Grace did not care about society as it had given her nothing but pain all her life but Helen was held high by that same society, At least she should show some gratitude towards it.

'How to stop this?'

Grace's heart was beating faster, Darkness enveloped her as multiple thoughts were running through her mind trying to find a way to prevent this from happening.

But she can't come up with any as the background and power of Helen hold were too much for her pity plans, Once again she felt helpless she felt those early days in college.

A heart where only her Alex had a place now was also consumed by the fear, A fear of losing him forever.

She was desperate. She was like a headless chicken trying to figure everything out, Find a door or at least a window for it to stop but she couldn't, All doors and windows were shut in front of her face.

There was a lot of light in the room but only darkness was in front of her eyes. After all, what she had for is not just love but an obsession, A deep devotion that was being cruelly snatched away from her.

Alex, on the other hand, had a calm face. He looked around in search of something. Soon he found it as he left these two women alone and went there and came back with that water jug in his hand back to this place.

After that, he chugged it down as he might be thirsty and then he

"*Pffft*What did you say?!!!!"

He sprayed that water from his mouth as he with his comically dramatic expression looked at Helen and questioned.

Well, he too was not calm at all. He had thought and prepared for everything that he thought possible but never in his wildest dream he thought of this event taking place.

How can a cold-blooded woman, Who legitimately wiped out hundreds of thousands of soldiers from the battlefield with a straight face, say this thing?

This number is so big that now it was not even a casualty but just statistics on paper, This is a woman even cold unvarying Alia was afraid of.

So it was reasonable to think that she rather try to force him, abduct him or even put him on house arrest than to fucking announce him as her husband.

'System what the fuck you did do to her, She was acting weird.'

So as the nature of humans which is not like to admit when they are wrong, Alex pushed the blame on the system, Anyway it was the last thing that interacted with Helen so it is a prime suspect.

[...]

The system was speechless, How can anytime something happens, It is labelled as a culprit by its host? It's not fair, it wants justice, It is innocent.

'Humm, I take your silence as an acknowledgement of your crime, Who made me this forgiven, You are forgiven, System.'

Alex felt good after blaming the poor system and started running his hamster in his mind to find a way to avoid marrying Helen, As he did not want to be a stepdad or others said dad who stepped up but he wanted to be a daddy.

[...]

The system once again said nothing as it now got used to its host shenanigans, Anyway, as long as he did not get himself killed, System had no problem with Alex.

"I announce you as my husband from this moment, Do you feel honoured?"

Helen looked at everyone's faces as she consciously avoided looking at her daughter but the hateful stare on her body indicated her daughter's current emotional state.

But she had to do this, She was doing this just to save him, Her daughter will understand it later.

After all, In her eyes, Alex had no background but had too much potential but no strength to protect him.

She knew in this world weakness is the origin of sin. If you had potential but no strength to protect it then that boon will become the worst curse you can receive.

There are a lot of rising stars. In this hundred billion people in this world, of course, there will be more people with genius potential.

But did they reach their potential? No, Most of them fall mid-way through their journey, and not for the natural cause but because of greed.

Human's always attracted to what others have. This is the nature of the human mind and the birthplace of greed.

So people with the intention, Shut off people who either create inconvenience to them or want what they had and so the hut of younglings began.

Though now due to that greed, Very few geniuses were born and even got protection from the country which is still not enough to suppress others' greed.

Not when there is not only SS-Rank superpower but also legendary physiques, Even those hidden S-Ranks would come out to get their hands on his power.

It's very hard to get one power but not impossible, So even if they knew the quality would decrease by forceful extraction, They would still do it, As the SS-Rank superpower is still way better than their current superpower.

So she had to do this. If Alex is her husband no one dares to even think of his idea as she is not only in the seven known S-Rank of the country but also 2nd only to the monster women in strength.

There is no other way or at least she thinks that as she herself is also a human with her selfishness.

If there is a proper reason for them to get what she wanted, Then why does she not use it to get what her heart desires? It will also not make her worse of a mother than it normally would but label her as the one who sacrificed for her daughter.

This is hitting two birds with one stone, So Helen decided to do it.

"Honoured?? No, I am scared of it, Mother-In-Law. If my sister knows this she will go on a rampage, And I can't even imagine what my mother would do, So stop joking."

Anyway, what is there to do between us as what wife and husband should do? We already did it and that too multiple times, My waist is still sore from that, You should take responsibility for it."

Alex already figured out why Helen did what she did. After it was not that hard to guess, It was just that he had to make a mental note to himself.

Women who crossed unhealthy obsession levels of favorability behave differently in front of him, So he from now on will not make a plan based on their personality from the novel.

He needs some time to get used to and learn the new behaviour of these heroines but now he was worried that if Helen did not change her decision, Then Amara would really go on a rampage.

"N-No, Mine."

Alex is here thinking about how to complete the task without revealing much, While Helen was thinking about how two new family members popped up of his as in her investigation, He is alone.

Alia and Grace were not in a condition to think of anything else, All her minds were trying to figure out how to stop this but no solution was coming out of it.

And in this desperate time, A white figure stands in front of Alex like a tigress protecting a calf.

Well, technically it was a calf protecting its master as it was Xiao Bai who appeared and hugged Alex's side arms looking at Helen with wary eyes.

Thump

Just as Xiao Bai appeared, Helen felt palpation in her heart. An insinuation arose as it warned her about this new member.

Her hand was shaking as she was stared at by Xiao Bai. She felt this overwhelming feeling once in her life by that monster of a woman.

And now here there is the 2nd person who has given her the same feeling.

"S-Rank."

Helen couldn't help but mutter these words as she shockingly looked at Xiao Bai.

(A/N : Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊.)

Chapter 130 130. Crying Xiao Bai

Goosebumps appeared on Helen's mature body, She didn't since when or did she even had this feeling ever in her life.

This is a very exhilarating feeling with a weird sense of joy in it, A deep wanting to stretch herself totally to duel with this new member.

But then as she suppresses that feeling of competition, She realised a fearful fact, There is an S-Rank around Alex.

If she could find it with just one look at his potential then that means this new woman also knows it or she as S-Rank will not be close to an F-Rank warrior like Alex.

In her mind, lots of things were going on. She even thought of ending this woman here as Alex's secret also stayed here but she quickly dropped that idea.

As she was not sure she can do it, And even if she did it will not be quite as she wanted, Other hidden monsters will be alerted making her action not only futile but also causing more problems.

So now she was in a helpless situation not knowing what to do with this uninvited guest.

'She can help.'

If anyone is most happy about the emergence of Xiao Bai then that person will be Alia.

Before she was feeling very helpless, She knew even if she goes all out it will be nothing but a moth jumping into the fire, She can never beat her mother.

She blamed herself for why not she trained more. If she did then she should not have been this helpless.

But after Xiao Bai appeared, Hope came with her as she heard Helen calling Xiao Bai S-Rank.

And Alia did not doubt that this woman is S-Rank as now that she was on guard against her mother, She felt that seemingly infinite power surrounding Xiao Bai, Which she only saw in her mother.

So now there was a chance of going against her mother and stopping her from marrying Alex but Alia was still very different from Xiao Bai.

Alex called this woman his pet. How can she be S-Rank's pet? So there is definitely an ulterior motive this woman has for her Alex.

After the betrayal from her mother will not take the matter lightly. She does like that helpless, weird feeling seeing him with other women but he is hers and only hers, No one can steal him.

'Why is she here? She will be in danger if she goes against Madam Miller.'

Grace calmed down from her initial shock and started looking for the logic behind Helen's action, Though she did not find it but her guts told her that there is definitely a valid reason behind Helen's sudden declaration.

Yeah, she of course ignored the comment Alex passed about Helen and him doing what husband and wife are supposed to do, Her mind really filters this thing very effectively.

'Mother should know to handle this situation.'

Grace couldn't help but think about her mother, As she used to tell her tales of these superpower beings as fairy tales in childhood.

Little Grace of course used to think this product of imagination even though her mother insisted that it was all real.

After all, she got mature and very young, So in her eyes, her mother was just doing it to make her happy and give hope by telling her there is a world in the world.

The world of fantasy did not let her worry about their current living as it did not that much mattered but then today she got proof that it was real.

Alex had shown her that world her mother always talks about, If that is the case then her mother should also know more about it.

That is why she can keep calm even knowing that she might once again lose Alex. This mental fortitude is given as she is also a future business queen.

"Hey, Xiao Bai, Are you afraid?"

Alex does not care much about Helen's announcement as there are nearly thousands of ways to avoid it in his mind but only because of the mission he was hesitating before.

But now he was more worried. When Xiao Bai appeared with his bond with her, He feel fear in her heart and her anxiousness.

He does not understand why she was feeling this as Helen is strong but Xiao Bai is a beast and had the advantage of being in the same rank.

Still, He did not waste time thinking and took her in his arms to comfort her turbulent heart.

Sniff Uhwaaa

As he did that, Xiao Bai was at first startled and scared but after sensing the familiar embrace, She as a strongwoman of S-Rank burst out crying like a child in his arms.

Alex was shocked, Not only he but others too were shocked seeing the strong woman in their eyes bawling in her arms Alex.

Helen couldn't believe what her eyes were seeing, For a moment she even thought of the possibility of being in the illusion but that thought went away as it came because if it was an illusion, She should have broken it by knowing it is an illusion.

But the scenery in front of her didn't change. It was still the same, making her believe that she was maybe in a very strong illusion or that This S-Rank woman was really crying, Which is even more unbelievable.

As every S-Rank has their own pride, Their head can be cut off but can't be lowered, So she has never seen the S-Rank crying nor she imagined if it was even possible.

'Did I misjudged her?'

Helen couldn't help but to think of it. She knew this was not possible as the fear had risen from deep in her heart, proof that this woman is S-Rank but still what she was seeing was also not possible.

Alia too was in deep shock, Though she did not know the pride of S-Rank as much as Helen but she knew that a strong person like S-Rank never cry like this making her wonder if her mom wrongly estimated the strength of Xiao Bai.

Grace was natural or rather her soft heart felt bad for Xiao Bai as she felt that these tears were genuine. She who spends most of her life crying can tell if someone is faking it or not.

"Who bullied you, Xiao Bai? Tell me I will teach them a lesson."

Alex was confused because of a sudden change in Xiao Bai, His sharp eyes directly locked with Helen asking her, If she was behind Xiao Bai's condition but Helen quickly nodded her head negatively.

Now Helen felt ashamed as when he looked at her, Her heart jumped in panic and quickly answered losing her authoritative aura and her pride in being S-Rank.

'System what happened to her all of sudden? Who is responsible for this?'

Seeing Helen decide, Alex worriedly asked the system as he was confused about what could make Xiao Bai this afraid that she cried.

He also became angry as he can bully his women but others can't. If they do, they have to pay the heavy price for it.

Did that make him a hypocrite? Yes but he never denied being one like protagonists do.

[Ding! You are, You left her all alone in a strange unknown place, Remember she thought strongly but her mind is still that of a child, Being left behind by you made her panic and on top of that she also lost her way here making her more afraid resulting in this situation.]

The system quickly came out of its slumber and answered Alex. It was connected to Xiao Bai though Alex can feel her emotions, So it answered him.

'Me?!'

Alex did not expect to hear it but then he realised his mistake. He was so fooled by Xiao Bai's mature appearance that he forgot that she had just been born a few hours ago and was new to this world.

So of course, she will be like a lost raft in the middle of nowhere in the vast ocean without any destination.

"Xiao Bai I am sorry, I should have not left you there, Will you forgive me? If you do, I will cook delicious treats for you."

Knowing it was his fault, Alex tightened his hug and softly and gently in an apologetical tone said it to her.

He now knows beasts mature very fast but they still need some time, So he had to take care of her during that time like a child.

"Wh-What treats?"

Xiao Bai suddenly stopped crying as her two big icy blue misty eyes looked straight at Alex in curiosity and asked in her childish voice though she was still not able to speak properly.

She is just like a child who quickly forgets the reason she was crying and is distracted by the treats in Alex's mouth.

"Lots of it, I will cook both you and Shapira, Okay?"

Alex's heart melted seeing those eyes, They were clean without any tricks or deceit but only filled with innocence.

In this world where everything is after their interest, She is a unique specimen.

"Yo-u o-kay."

She looked up at him and said, " Alex guessed she had forgiven him but it might be hard for her to speak forgiven.

[Ding! Hidden achievement completed : Conquer Of Heart Of Beasts.

The Beast Storage function is unlocked.]

As Xiao Bai said, The system voice also rang in Alex's mind.

(A/N: So info dump is over, Now focus on the main story.

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊.)

Chapter 131 131. Noble

A system like a late-night tele-product commercial tells information about Beast storage and its perks.

Alex, though surprised by it but not too much as he already guessed, System also learns and tries new things to keep them interesting.

He looked at Xiao Bai and gently cupped her face using his thumb. He wiped off the tears from her rosy cheeks, To be honest, He did have the urge to make her cry.

As she looked quite attractive while crying, She is a living example of the saying of weeping beauty.

"You filthy woman, Get away from my husband."

Helen on the bed seeing the two of them acting in this intimate way burnt in jealousy, Her heart was relentless as she thought that her being S-Rank already put her way ahead of this Auntless woman*.

But now with the appearance of Xiao Bai changed her thinking, Xiao Bai thought the same S-Rank as her but looking at her bone age, She should be a lot younger than her.

And Xiao Bai's Yin is also in place indicating she is a virgin, Which also means she has no kids. After all, not all people are like her to go back to being a virgin.

This made her insecure, Though Alex had taken her virginity, But she has kids means there is past baggage, While this woman. Didn't have anything.

So why should Alex choose her? He already had a physical relationship with her giving up her bargaining chips, Now she had nothing to offer him making her restless.

For the first time in her life experienced many emotions. There was fear, jealousy, anxiety, and Insecurity.

A fear that he will choose this woman forgetting her, Jealousy of course because of his being with that new woman, Anxiety about what decision he would make and insecurity is from realising she did not compete with Xiao Bai.

'Wait? Why don't I make my weakness my power? I already did it with Alia, and if I add Rose too then my side will be heavy and I also not have to deal with the government for trying to monopolise Alex.'

But then as with every woman in the heart novel, She decided to use women around her as extra chips to increase her worth.

'Ohh? Where can I find a mother-in-law like this one?'

Alex looked at Helen with astonishment, When Helen roared and asked Xiao Bai to stay away, He just to be on the safe side used an inner voice skill on her and heard everything was in her mind, He was very glad about her to brian to work but he was not surprised.

She is a mother-daughter duo in a harem novel, So there is no problem in her eyes to share a man with her daughter. It just before was an initial guilt but no regret to the actual act of her.

And with a little push, he can indeed make her share a bed with others. Now he was sure that it is a little easier than he initially thought about introducing the idea of a harem.

After all once someone lowered their bottom line then you can always push it back as you want, He just has to do it carefully.

"N-No, Mine."

Just like before, Xiao Bai hugged him from the side looking at Helen with a look of warning.

She knew the word but did not know what husband meant but the thing for sure is that she felt that Helen wanted to steal Alex from her.

So out of instinct does not want this woman to go near him. After all, she can deal with other women as they are weak but Helen is equal or just slightly weaker than her but the experience of Helen gives her an edge against Xiao Bai.

As a beast, Xiao Bai is quite good at judging people's strengths, So she was insecure that if Alex gets Helen, He will not need her anymore.

It seems no matter who they are, They are suffering from jealousy.

"You- "

"Okay, Mother-In-Law chill out, I know you are trying to protect me but rest assured that I am quite safe.

This is Xiao Bai, A S-Rank beast is my contracted beast and there is also a sister of mine who is also an S-Rank and there is a fiancé of mine, Who once again is an S-Rank, Also a friend of mine family also has one S-Rank in her family.

So I am quite well protected, Also there is you here. I don't have to fear much with this level of protection."

Alex decided to end this "misunderstanding" with Helen, So he told her his background not only to make her relax but also to put pressure on them by mentioning his family.

Helen and Alia were stunned hearing the words of Alex, Grace does not know much about S-Rank, So she though curious not stunned as she did not know what terror of S-Rank represents.

Alex also did not speak and let this thing sink in the mind of the two of them but of course, He still had a plan in his mind.

While they were digesting the news his facial expressions were changed multi-times like pain, struggle, lust, wanting, and desire back to normal.

No one notices it once again except one, Helen. As she is the intended target.

'What's wrong with him.'

Helen for a second suppressed her shock at knowing there is 5 S-Rank around him, And focused on his changes.

She out of worry once again scanned his body but did not find any anomaly in him. This was strange as she could see something was bothering him but he did not want to say it, So she did not force it for now.

"So you really have 5 S-Rank around you? Also, who is your fiancé?"

Alia did not come out shocked but Helen did and asked Alex a question but what she wanted to hear more about was his fiancé.

Before he talks about his sister and mother, And now he even talks about his fiancé. If this goes on he has a chance to mention his wife and kids.

So Helen wanted to know if this was the end of it or not.

Also, S-Rank's fiancé for an F-Rank is kinda hard to swallow, Helen knows it is possible with Alex's looks but she still does not want to admit it as it will not make her worry about another S-Rank her rival for now.

"Yes, Including you there are at least 5 S-Rank around me, I am not sure if my noble mother also sends one to protect me or not, So I will not count that."

Alex only answered her first question as he was not crazy to flame the fire of jealousy in these women's hearts.

"Noble!!!"

Helen quickly stood up from the bed and asked in surprise and fear, There is horror written on her face as she heard the name noble.

This name is taboo in their S-Rank group, This is well-known in them like stories of ghosts to children.

The reason why they fear this name is because of the job Nobles do, Just like in every food chain there are prey and predators, In this world hunt and hunter.

Nobles are natural hunters of S-Ranks, This is a force that puts a leash on S-Rank from acting wantonly, This is the force that protects the fragile world from war and the power of S-Ranks.

Before there was one S-Rank wanted to give a sacrifice for the whole country in the hope of breaking through the shackles of the S-Rank and stepping into the mythical field of SS-Rank.

Though other S-Rank warned that women saying it would earn her too much bad Karma and get the attention of Nobles, Though at that time no buddy took Noble seriously in pride of S-Rank. That woman too did not listen and was ready to sacrifice.

Other S-Rank too did not care about millions of mortal lives, Surely they will not go against S-Rank and fight for those people.

They also wanted to see if it worked or not. If it worked they also wanted to give it a try, So he just waited for that woman to slaughter these people as a sacrifice.

But just the next day after she decided to kill those people, News came that S-Rank had fallen.

A proper peak power S-Rank got killed without making any noise nor there was a fight.

This is an unheard-of thing done by Noble, A unknown origin group that keeps watch on S-Rank, Since that day horror of Noble rooted in every S-Rank heart.

And it only deepened with time as, since its emergence 400 years ago, It has 5 S-Rank's blood on its name.

"Yes, My mother is the current head of Noble, Just don't mention it to others, I am not supposed to say this to others."

Alex said casually while patting Xiao Bai's head ignoring the bomb- no nuke of news he just revealed.

(A/N : Aunt is slang for the period, Auntless means period less which is the gender reverse of without a hair child (Not talking about the hair on the head.)

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊.)

Chapter 132 132. PTSD Of Natasha

"So, Grace, do you want to go shopping? Aunt still has some time before she wakes up."

Alex came out of the ward with Grace and Koala Xiao Bai who hung onto his body with no intention to let him go even for a second.

Maybe this poor soul was scared too much that she was not taking chances to let him out of her grasp.

Alex to let her be, He was in no hurry to put her in beast storage, He wanted to let her enjoy the outside world for a while, and then he should put her into cultivation.

'They will take at least a few hours before they come back to bother me.'

While fumbling with Xiao Bai's silky white hair, Alex thought of the mother-daughter duo he left behind to digest the fact.

After he said those words, Neither Helen nor Alia were in a condition to speak, and he too did not bother with them.

He just wanted to give them a little check of the reality of his family background, though there was a little lie in it.

He has no idea if his mother had any connections to the Noble organization, He just heard it in the plot and knew they will not come up anytime soon, So he used their name to put pressure on Helen as for her that is the only thing that can work.

After all, S-Rank is known as a walking warhead. There are very few things they pay attention to, and Noble is, fortunately, one of those things.

Now he just had to wait until those emotions and his laid-out work fermented, After that he could openly create a harem.

It is very hard, taxing and risky to open a harem without their permission as those two hold very important value not only for the plot but his conquest too.

"Okay, but are you sure? I think after all that you should take a rest."

Grace too was processing what Alex said but as the saying goes Ignorance is bliss, So because she did not know what horror Noble represents, So she did not get much affected by it.

She though was not like Xiao Bai hanging on his body, She was still holding his hand intertwining her cute soft finger fingers with his.

She was not showing it, but she was also too afraid. She feared that today she would lose him forever, giving her once again a rollercoaster of emotions.

When Alex asked her if she wanted to go shopping, she was excited. She knew men don't like to go shopping like women do, They rather go play games or watch sports or cars.

She never gets it. Why does man waste time doing that useless thing like it was just a waste of time and money?

If you go shopping with your partner, You can deepen your relationship with them and also buying jewellery is a kinda investment not like depreciating assets like cars and games.

But now that Alex asked her out, She is also happy that he is showing interest in her and wants to go with him, but she is also worried that he should be tired from beating and using that strange light to heal that lunatic.

So she hesitantly asked, looking at him with her worry filled hazel eyes.

"Am I that easy to get tired of? Don't you know my stamina Grace? Are you slandering me? If you want, I can prove to you right here and now that I am not a bit of trying, Say do you want me to?"

Alex, of course, is concerned, but he also wanted to tease her to lighten her worry. As said before, she is the only person he can be himself without worrying about the aftermath like others.

So he also cares about her a lot in his strange weird way, though now there is a bro-con like Mara, The value and feelings for Grace have not decreased.

"They- This...We should hurry up to the mall."

Grace hearing his words turned red like a tomato in shame, Now that she thinks about it, Alex does have surprisingly lots of stamina, Which she painfully made aware of, Though not a Bai kind of pain.

Still thinking about it, her brain overloaded with images of their intimate act as her heartbeat increased, Alex was sure that he saw smoke coming out of her head.

She did not dare to answer his quest, So she tightened her grip on him and dragged him towards the exit.

Alex too, laughing, followed her carrying Xiao Bai with him.

....

"Miss acting quite strange today, I am not sure if this change is good or not."

Natasha was sitting in her car waiting for Alia to come back, So they can go to the office.

This never happened before that her miss Alia missed a single day of office but since yesterday, She completely changed as a person, She was smiling and that too without destroying any families.

The cold-hearted Alia in her mind now becomes a shadow of the past, or at least she thought so until she beat someone half to death when they touched her to get her number. She is a clean freak who did not show mercy on that man, and she washed her hands until they turned red.

So Natasha knew the miss she knew was not gone anywhere but just hiding behind this new one, Which was concerning Natasha for her safety.

Before she knew what to say and not to say to her miss, but now she was not sure what would trigger her miss, Her life was on the line here.

That's why she was sitting in the car, sulking and wondering if this change was good or not. She was also cursing the person who broke her miss.

"Yew long time so see, Natasha, Come on, bring us to the city mall."

When she was lost in thought, two or three people entered and sat in the car as if they owned it and even asked her to bring them to the mall.

"....Young master Alex, do you have a death wish? If you do, please don't include me on your suicide mission Sob I have yet to have a boyfriend, I don't want to die this soon, not like this."

Natasha knows the owner of this voice, So she did not bother to blame or reject him as she was sure that behind the recent changes in her voice, This man is most likely the culprit.

So she was ready to go where Alex asked her to without asking much, but then she saw something in the rearview mirror that took her soul away.

She saw Alex with his uncanny beauty sitting in the back seat comfortably. It was a breathtaking scene that was not the one that scared her.

The thing that scared her shitless was that this time the boyfriend of her miss has one extremely beautiful woman sitting in his lap, While Grace, the long-time rival of her miss, is sitting sideways with him hugging him.

Seeing that Natasha burst out crying, tears started flowing from her eyes like a broken dam.

All her life flashes past the front of her eyes. She was sure that if her miss saw this not only would she kill Alex and these women's but she as the "designated" driver to be included in the slaughtering

She was just sad that after tip-topping all her life, she will die because of this guy's death wish? It's unfair. She was careful not to provoke Alia, but now she will die as a by-product. She was not willing.

She was 100% sure that Alia will know this. There is no doubt of it as that woman is a monster, Always knew what others hide dearly and here this man doing this in the open, So news of it until now had reached Alia.

Now her death countdown has begun, She was sure she will not be able to see the end of this day.

"???...Oh, don't worry Natasha, I promise Alia will give us a quick death. Until then, let's go and enjoy our last day."

Alex at first could not understand why Natasha cried seeing him, but then he realised that this poor thing was suffering from the PTSD of Alia, So of course seeing him with other girls like this might have given her a heart attack.

But then who is he? How can he just explain to her without having his fun, So he ran his acting skill and said in a giving up voice almost checking to make it look like he is done with life.

'I am dead, So dead, Mummy I am coming to you soon now, Wait for me down there.'

Hearing his words, The fear of Natasha increased and once again confirmed that she is down, for now, All thanks to this bastard's death wish.

So she started to pray, Of course, to the one down there as one above will not accept someone like her.

Alex was enjoying every second of her change in emotions, from initial shock and fear to acceptance. This woman in this mere second goes through all 5 stages of grief, Which in itself is a record.

Boom

After enjoying it, Alex wanted to relax with this poor woman, But before he did that, He was someone outside from the windshield.

Just as his eyes laid on that person, His pupils dilated, Hair on his body stood up, His senses became fully alert as unconsciously he released sharp cold killing intent dropping the temperature in the car to a few degrees.

(A/N : Guess who that person is?

Also, do grammar improve as I used the app to fix it.

Like always, thank you for reading and have a good day 😊.)

Chapter 133 133. Jake Appaers

'How can he be here?'

Alex did not pay attention to the change of expressions of people in the car. All his attention was on the street where a man was walking. His eyes were like eagles fixed on his prey even though there is a lot of distance between them.

He was surprised. He did not expect him to come this early, Alex thought he would come here after Nathan was dealt with but now it was not the case.

'Eye of truth.'

After seeing him, Alex did not waste any time and quickly used his own eye of truth skill on him to know more about this guy.

He can slack off against Nathan and play as much as he wants but against this guy, He had to be on extra guard.

Right now his enemies used ticks and deceit to make him injured and put him in a weakened period, So he is at max only able to use A Rank power and normally Peak B-Rank.]

"Fuck!!!"

Alex could not help but blurt out curse words in shock. He was shocked to the core after seeing the stats of Jake. He was aware of it but he did not know he would be this strong.

He had to do all that things just to get be a peak F+ Rank warrior, Though he does now have S-Rank Xiao Bai, whose power he can use anytime he wants

"No, you realise how fucked we are? We might not even be able to get a proper funeral. The best thing will be that we became fish food if not surrounded by solid concrete at the bottom of the river."

Natasha, thinking Alex now gets the severity of the situation spoke in helplessness, Once again a trail of tears ran down from her eyes.

She did not care that Alex is a man and she was a woman crying in front of him. Anyway, what she was going to do with pride when there is not much time left for her to live, It is meaningless.

'System comes out and answers me, Didn't you say Jake will come back in 15 days? So why is he here?'

Alex ignored wailing Natasha, worried Grace and curious Xiao Bai. All he cared about was getting his answer from the system.

Even if 15 days were estimated and he can come soon, So at least it will be around 10 days right? So why just after 1 day this parasite came here? It did not make sense at all. How can estimation have this much difference?

[Ding! Host it was all because of you and Rita, What she did and later you did to Nathan caused heavenly will to panic about not knowing what is happening, So it said to Jake early to sniff you out and deal with you.

After all, Nathan is the main protagonist of the world. Anything related to him is paid special attention to by the law of the world. It can't see or find you but it can see the problem being created for Nathan.

Also, losing the main heroine and others causes this panic operation of sending Jake here in a hurry, But you don't have to worry because doing this is also good for your host.

Now heavenly will not be able to interface with the world for a while, So you don't have to fear new prota-]

'Shut up, For god's sake don't raise any flags for my system.'

While the system was telling Alex the reason for the sudden emergence of Jake but when the system wanted to raise the flag, He stopped it on its tracks. The protagonist was already a handful; he was not in a condition to take care of others.

Then he put his eyes on Jake's Halo. He knew Halo Of Wisdom was destroyed by the system early as a mission reward, So he did not have to worry much about it.

Before Jake's 2nd Halo might have created the problem but now that he has Harem Protection Halo, He does not have to fear being green, He just had to worry about a woman who is not in the harem yet.

'But still, Why is he here?'

Alex now gets it how Jake gets here but he still does not know why he is here. So he takes his eyes away from him and starts to search for this reason and then he finds it.

(A/N : Sorry for the short chapter but had to do it, Don't worry though there are 3 more after it.

Chapter 134 [Bonus] 134. Author Is Racist

Alex looks at the one long black luxury car "hiding" at the end of the road but how can someone be able to hide that flashy big car like that? So it was quite obvious and can be seen at one glance.

He then looked back at Jake with lots of thoughts running through his mind. He can tell that the car and Jake have some relation or at least the reason why Jake is here can't be separate from that car.

So his eyes were like a hunter in the wild searching for each and every one in his sight. His priority was a woman as he knows women are the pushing force of the protagonist but there is no one standing out.

No woman nor man, He had given up on the hope of the chances of here being heroines when he did not find her at a first glance as it is impossible for heroin to not stand out in the crowd.

Still, even a normal person is not able to connect to the plot that is definitely going to unfold here. Here everyone was a passerby, and No one has any resemblance of being close to the plot even as a canon folder.

'Where is it? Where is the fuse?'

Alex still did not give up. He knew if the protagonist was here then there would be a plot, As Jake will not come here without any reason, He was damn sure of it, He just was not able to find the fuse.

Fuse is the person who starts the conflict in the initial plot which will start a chain reaction and reach up to the end boss. This is a normal plot, Which follows here.

"Please!! Catch her, She stole money I need for my father's treatment, Please someone stop him!!"

Then Alex finds his fuse. An average-looking boy around the age of 18-19 yelled loudly asking for help as a slender black woman stole a packet he was carrying, Which according to the boy had the money needed for the treatment of his father.

'Really? I have not seen one black woman until now and when I saw it she was stealing stuff. Is the author of this novel plot not only dumb but also racist?'

Alex could not help but to sigh as he saw what just happened. Well, he can't say he was surprised as this was not news to him as in online novels are always considered black people lower than themselves.

In a novel like this just as at least once, the protagonist has to show how mighty and superior his country is and how low and weak the rest of the others are. The same thing too for race as he always considers himself superior race, All others are lower than his race, especially black people.

So for stealing stuff, the author used a black woman, Alex was not surprised,

He will not even get surprised if the protagonist now brutally beats this woman, As though Jake can't walk away from seeing a woman just like every protagonist.

In his eyes this black woman is not a woman, Heck she was not even a human, So Jake will not hold back.

'My time to shine has come.'

Alex though not like the setting but he was glad this stayed the same as he can still trust his knowledge of reading those thousands of online novels, As he first had to think about survival rather than other things.

He then saw from the rearview mirror that a woman was coming close to his car and soon after that will reach Jake. If he does not do anything right now a chain reaction will start which is only going to create trouble for him.

After all, Jake is even worse than Nathan as his initial favorability for his shockingly - 100, The worst he saw so far.

So he decided to move before Jake will.

.....

"Huh? Why is that person in the car looking at him?"

Jake felt a strong gaze on him, So he turned around and found out that it was coming from a tinted car standing in front of the hospital.

Before he was easily able to look past the tint and see the person who gazes at him but after getting betrayed and injured by his comrades 3 years ago, He can't do it like before.

He can still see inside the car to see who is the person looking at him if he wanted to but he decides not to do it as not only does it cost him a lot of spiritual power but looking at the car, He knew the person inside is some bigshot.

Right now he did not have his Dragon Gate's support in this country, So he did not want to cause any trouble for a while though he will not look away if trouble came knocking on his door.

He first decided to go and save that useless Rita, Who should definitely have messed up and got caught by someone. He just wishes for that someone to be his sister Alia, As he really did not think it was worth fighting with someone for a useless woman like her.

But then he had a strong unexplained feeling in his heart that brought him here. He was not sure why he was here but his heart told him that he was meant to be there.

He is very familiar with this feeling. Since childhood every time this feeling appeared in his heart, He always got extremely good opportunities.

In childhood when this feeling appeared, He fell into the river, Which at first sounded bad but it was the moment he unlocked his superpower and also met his master, Who brought him on the path of cultivation after seeing his potential.

And later on, made him her core disciple and later head of Dragon Gate.

This happens multiple times and every time he got something beneficial to him in return, So he was sure even today he will receive something good.

"What a low-life, I need to teach It a lesson."

When he was lost in thought he heard the yell of a man. He looked at the man. At first, he did not care. Why should he waste time helping a man? This world follows the rule of survival of the fittest, So deal with it.

If it was a woman then it would be a different story, But for a man, he cares less if that man was stabbed to death here.

But then he saw it was a black woman who stole the money, Which changed his mind in an instant.

Yeah he did not care about the man but he hated more of these black people, So he too decided to move and put it in place.

(A/N : We all know that annoying/hateful part in those novels, There always is this part with very few exceptions.

Two more after this one.

Chapter 135 135.Brain-Dead Plot

Alex waited for that woman to reach him and when she did, He flings open the car door just as she was about to pass it, making her slam directly into the door.

"Slam* Bang

The woman was not expecting this to happen, So she with full force slammed into the car door and stopped in her tracks falling on her ass.

This car was a luxury and cost at least 5 million, So of course the door snapped out of its place and was barely hanging with the tail light wires in its frame.

"Arrgh, Bastard I will- "

Well, the door was from a luxury car, So they were lots of soft padding for comfort and sound isolation giving women only slight bruises from the impact.

She looked up and angrily wanted to curse as she could seriously be injured from this but just as she saw who opened the door, She swallowed all those words.

After all, How can she yell at a person this enchanting? One look of his and she knows she is done for, Now she can not think of any other man in her life at all.

This man looks like a fairy walking down from heaven, Now even the slight injuries she got feel like a heartfelt gift from him.

She knew not to stare as it made the man uncomfortable but she could not stop herself from doing so.

+1000 RP is received.]

'Well, Dick pass is a thing here, Reverse world in its finest.'

Alex looked at the stunned woman and remained that he lived in the reverse world, Man would get a dick pass.

Also, it's once again made clear how well-protected heroines are. They see him and only think of him as the most handsome man in this world.

But no heroine will be like this, Liza is the exceptional unicorn of heroin, So she did not count.

"Are you okay miss? Do you need help? Also, theft is wrong, Please return the packet to that man."

Alex reached out his hand to her to pull her up but she just stared at him without blinking with her deep honey-coloured eyes.

"Hello, miss? Excuse me? Thief lady, are you in there? Hello!!!"

Alex wanted to know what this plot was about, So he decided to get some info from but this woman was utterly lost in his heavenly, magnificent, splendid, spectacular,....., resplendent beauty.

But still, Alex wanted her out of her shock, He narrowed down the few plots in his mind.

One is that the man's mother is some hidden bigshot but that is highly unlikely as the car being they do not make sense.

The second one being this woman is some kinda hidden force but again as she is black, the Author of a novel like this will never make her an important character.

The third one is in this pack or that kid as a necklace or pendant with a hidden soul but once again this did not justify that car being there.

'Wait!? Will it be that level of the brain-dead plot?'

After rummaging through a few plots, Alex thought of one of the most brainless ones out there.

It is to find a fake boyfriend through this, Seeing who is more chivalrous and honest enough to trust.

Yeah, this is one of the most brain-dead things in fiction as to why a woman with millions if not billions of wealth with the looks of a goddess will look for a fake boyfriend on the road.

When she can just call one of her people to arrange for her, Which is not only safe but also more secure but now she has to find it on the streets.

Now looking at the car and this scene, He knew he misjudged the author. This author is not racist but brain-dead for using this full of plot holes.

This "black" woman in front of him is just acting for someone, And that someone is a woman currently sitting in that black car.

"I am fine- Wait! I am not a thief please don't misunderstand me."

Finally, this woman came out of her trance and heard what he said. So panic arose in her heart as she started to explain to him as she did not want to be misunderstood by him.

"Oh, I know you should have your reasons and not be a thief, But still you stole the stuff, You give that back, If you need money I can give you."

Alex was startled by the stupidity of this woman. He came here to steal the show of the protagonist but now if this woman blurts out it was set up, Then what is the use of his acting?

It will be a waste of opportunity if this woman spills the beans, So Alex interrupted her to make her come back to her senses.

"Are you stupid? Why are you wasting time with a low-born like her? Just beat her until she knows the theft is a crime."

Before this woman could reply, Another voice came from behind surprising Alex.

Well, he was not surprised because Jake spoke. He already knew Jake would interfere. What surprised him was that he felt the flow of wind heading towards the back of his head.

This bastard attacked before even finish speaking and not only that his target was not this "black" woman but he.

Jake attacked Alex without a warning but how can Alex be caught off this easily?

Though on paper their stats are in huge favour of Jake but in practicality, Alex had top-quality status like pseudo-immortality grade fighting skills and raw strengthened physique by two top-class constitutions.

So Alex quickly made a manoeuvre dodging the attack heading for him with some critical position.

Seeing his attack fail Jake was stunned and surprised. He already sees Alex being F-Rank, So he did not understand how he could have dodged his move.

Alex, seeing Jake was not distracted, did not let go of his chance. Before Jake can understand, Alex, like a coiled snake, attacks him, pressing pressure points on him, completely immobilising him and putting him out of commission.

Clap Clap Go-Good."

It happened so fast that no one was able to react except Xiao Bai, Who knew Alex can handle it enjoyed the show and after Alex won excitedly clapped and said what she found an appropriate word from her pitiful vocabulary.

"Who are you? Why did you attack me? This is a capital offence and I can put you in jail for it but seeing this is your first offence, I let you go."

Alex, too possessed by an actor did not break his character and big-heartedly forgave Jake and even released his acupuncture point making him mobile again.

"Black" women had stars in her eyes seeing his generosity, But Jake on another hand who was forgiven by Alex had a burning fire of hate.

Before he wanted to help that man to handle this low life but before he could do that, This ugly-looking man interfered.

He does not understand why, But just as he saw this man's infinite hate emerge in his heart, He wanted to burn him, Broke him, Slice him, Skin him alive and do all kinds of torturous things did to him.

So he attacked, aiming at his head as he not only wanted his ugly face but also his head to exist in this world but to his disbelief, this man countered her easily and even humiliated him by immobilising him.

The head of Dragon Gate was laying on the road all because of this man, So hate in his heart for this man increased to no limit.

He was ready to burn his soul to increase his power to S-Rank and make himself free from before he could rip the head of this man to save his pride.

But this man even took that away from him, Now he wanted nothing but to ruin him.

"Are you alright Alex?"

Jake was thinking about making Alex suffer but his eyes were wide open as he saw a woman who can only be said to be a goddess who came out of the car, Going towards that ugly man.

Jake burned with jealousy seeing that, He used to think his sister is the most beautiful woman but this new one even put his sister a few streets back in beauty. (A/N : He only knew Alia before Alex increased her peak stats.)

So he now really hates this man, This woman should be his, The Dragon Lord jot some no buddy.

"I am okay? It was pretty casual. This man does have strength but lacks technique. So it was as easy as taming a wild bull."

Alex let Grace hold his hand as she was worried about his safety and spoke as if he blurted out without thinking.

Grace knew Alex said things without thinking, And the "Black" woman was also in shock to care about his words but Nathan was not under either of those things.

Being looked down on crossed his bottom line as it was not that hard to cross especially if you are a man, So Jake was angry, He did not think much and burned history to gain S-Rank power for a short time.

He now did not care if it was going to harm his future nor he cared about forever losing hope of going S-Rank again as once core has been destroyed the chance of being S-Rank breaks with it.

But he did not care about all that, He just wanted to teach this man a lesson, No he wanted to kill this man, Shred him into pieces.

Seeing what Jake wanted to do, Alex was happy after all this will put Jake out of commission for a while, Which gives him time to deal with both of them without fearing firepower from Jake.

Bang

Jake burned the power of his core and was about to burst with S-Rank strength, Alex already warned Xiao Bai to be ready to take action as though S-Rank but it is not the real strength of S-Rank being forced to rise from other things, Xiao Bai can deal with him easily.

But before Jake actually reaches S-Rank, someone slammed into him breaking his concentration, Which stopped the burning core process and even gave Jake a backlash because of it.

Alex looked up at the person with surprise as he never expected this person to have action now.

(A/N : Who do you think is that person?

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊.)

Chapter 136 136. 7-Days, 6-Nights Vacation

"Sorry buddy but I can't let you kill this plague in front of him, I suggest doing it out of my sight, You low-IQ man."

Natasha stood over the fallen body of Jake spike in a very casual tone as if right now she was not the one who stopped Jake from turning into what is known as a warhead of the country.

She rather than being excited was dissatisfied, making Alex curious which made her dissatisfied.

"Tec~, If this low-iq man tried to kill this plague of man out of my sight, This might save my life but no, This brain-dead man did it in front of me."

Well, Alex gets the reason for her dissatisfaction in her mumbling, She was hoping that if Jake killed Alex then Alia did not have a reason to do anything to her.

But that only works if she is not aware of Alex being killed. If it was happening in front of her eyes and she did nothing, Then she too had to rest 6 feet under with Alex and this stupid man.

After all, She technically was not a diver or Alia but a bodyguard but a problem is that Alia did not have her protection making her do a part-time job as a driver.

But the situation arose, and She had to protect someone's body to justify her need, If not? Why should Alia pay her salary as a bodyguard for doing a driver's job, Which is 10 times more? Alia can just appoint a driver and save a lot of money.

So this is also the reason she helped Alex. She can't lose her job now. They're going to the sale of jewellery soon. She needs that extra money to buy that limited edition stuff.

Alex ignored Natasha. He does not bother to argue with a knowingly dumb woman like her, He should just ask Alia to take care of her, After all Alia used to deal with Natasha for years, So it will be more efficient as Alia has quite much experience in that field.

He put those thoughts aside and focused on the main thing. He looked at Jake who right now was laying on the ground without even the strength to stand up looking at not Natasha who was pretty close to destroying all his hope but at Alex with infinite hate in his eyes.

If he can, He once again wanted to try and burn his core, Even if he destroy it he did not care, All he want now was to rip that head off from the dirty body of Alex, For that even if he had to sacrifice the hope of ever becoming S-Rank, He was ready to do it.

But the problem is that there is no spiritual power left in his body, Not only that when he got interrupted from all spiritual power he concentrated to burn before exploding breaking all meridian and sweeping through it.

So right now in his body was not even the strength to move a finger, Not to mention trying to kill Alex, Who was surprisingly well-trained, So he though unwilling had to give up on the plan of killing him here.

His best option is to wait till his help arrives here and they wipe this man from the face of the earth but he was not that patient man, he decided to ask his assassins to do the job.

'He's mocking me, he's definitely mocking me.'

Jake gritted his teeth as he heard the words of Alex. He was sure he was doing it to humiliate him. There is no proof of it but he just knows, Which is bigger than any proof.

But no matter how much he wanted to show this ugly bastard what happens when someone messes with a Dragon Lord but unfortunately he can't do anything.

Right now he was like a fish on the chopping board. If someone wants they can attack him though he was not without means, He still has that thing his master had given him for emergencies.

'Should I use it?'

While Alex was still going on and on about what Jake did was wrong and all, Jake reached out to his chest and held the pendant he was wearing tightly in his hand.

He was hesitating, Even though there is -100 hatred for Alex, Which pretty much wipes out all sanity of a person for revenge, But the consequences of using this thing are resisting him from using it.

He knew once he used it, He can't go back at all. He would be an internationally wanted criminal and be like a rat in an alley, Hiding from the world.

And that's not the scary part, His Dragon gate will also be destroyed and he will be on the hit list of The Nobles, So he even after that immense hatred controlling himself from using this thing.

'Fuck!! Does he want to use THAT?!!'

Alex already awakened his inner Karen, So he was going on and on, Others other than Natasha did not mind though as face value is justice but when he was waiting to give Jake a package of 7-days and 6-night with 2 times food in place worth millions, He saw Jake holding that pendant.

Alex's eyes became wide open as he saw it. He really did not think that Jake would use something that destructive here in the city, This is why he dared to comfort him.

After all, that pendent is from the forbidden tomb, Which Jake's master finds by coincidence and gives to Jake After he was betrayed by his comrade for his protection as there are few S-Rank Jake provoked.

And now that Jake did not have S-Rank power, So no rule prevents other S-Ranks from attacking him, So for protection she gives that to him.

Alex knew once that thing set off, Even S-Rank had to retreat from it, As its destructiveness is so much that it can even kill S-Rank.

This is an artefact from the previous era for a reason, So Alex was a little careful, Though he will survive as the broken passive of his god-level acting putting him pretty much in invincible mode but he had to worry about others.

Only Xiao Bai, His sister Amara and Helen are able to be safe in this whole city and 10 kilometres are around it. Everything from small houses to buildings, grass to big trees, Everything else other than their living or not will be turned into carbon laying on the ground.

This is the power of that little thing and that too when ignited by a currently powerless guy like Jake, If it is t used by S-Rank, The power of it also increases a lot.

So he did not wait for a second and decided to do what he had always thought of doing but never got the opportunity for it.

He quickly with telepathy asked Xiao Bai to seal off the space and came to Jake, Just when hate won over the rationality of Jake and was ready to use this artefact ready to cause the most destructive disaster in the century.

Seeing that he did not have time, As Jake was about to chant a mantra to activate that pendant, Alex moved and...Started to sing.

"There used to be a man."

As he started singing the whole world felt frozen over, Even Jake who was burning with hatred stopped looking at Alex with a confused gaze, The flame of revenge also got frozen by it.

A vivid picture appeared in everyone's eyes though depending on what was best suitable for them they imagined the face of a man in their memory.

A man in singing was doing nothing but the everyday odd job, over and over again, He woke up, So tiresome odd job until the sun in the blue sky vanished and the twinkling sky adorned by the lustrous moon before going back to sleep, Then repeat all over again.

This is all his song at first but soon things started to change, Man became old and not able to do his job properly, He was now often getting hurt, At first, it was a slight miss of a hammer on his finger or things falling on his toes.

This all was a nuisance not that big of a deal but because there was no time for those injuries to heal and new ones just came every day, It started to increase, Soon his whole body was filled with injuries.

No place on his body did not have unhealed bruises including no-no area somehow but that man kept working, He did not have the option if he did not work he was still going to die from hunger.

So this goes on for a few more years. Though only a few years had passed, This man now looks 10 years older. His injuries were not filled with pus, and gave a very bad foul smell.

He was rotting alive but he still kept working, Working and working, getting injured again and again. The pain now became a friend of his so even pain did not bother him.

Until one day, He woke up one last time, Lifted his tools last time, Felt pain also last time and so did he get injured for the last time. After that day he slept eternally and peacefully.

There was no pain, no work and no inconvenience of his old body, He was free and happy - The end.

[Ding! Jake severely got hit by the host's soul attack...

-10,000 Luck of the protagonist, +10,000 RP, +1000 Luck for the host.]

[Ding!.....]

(A/N : I was hoping to try it on Nathan first but well Jake is also not bad both are important, As both will be Alex's Son and Brother-In-Law.

Chapter 137 137. Warth Of Lord

In the beginning there was a struggle, pain, lots of pain, hurt, agony and all but then there was peace.

A comfortable peace, A peace telling him to give up, Let this darkness embrace him, urging him to sleep eternally here, Give up everything and stop his suffering, Just like that man.

A voice was ringing asking him, Did he not suffer enough? Did he not work enough? So why did he not get what he wanted? Why did his own comrade betray him? Why did his sister not wait for him? Why did she find another man?

Is there even a reason for his struggle? What's holding him back here? Nothing, So why not just go away and get his peace? Why did he not just accept the darkness as his light, His sister is not with him.

Yeah he should be gone, He should stop fighting, Maybe then his sister will notice him.

Jake's body temperature rapidly started dropping as he slowly closed his eyes.

Swift

Just as Jake was about to give up all and close his eyes permanently, A warmth suddenly came from his chest, heating his body which was about to drop below a critical level.

As that warmth appeared so a strange power also came up with it which directly headed towards his brain making it clear.

He quickly woke up from the daze and realised what he was about to do. He did not understand how he could even think of doing that, This thought was bathing him a lot.

Even though that strange power tried its best, It was not able to fully counter the spiritual attack of Alex's god-level singing.

If Alex was a little stronger then even if this power came out, It would not be able to stop what is inevitable, Jake still threw himself into darkness and fell into eternal sleep, At best this power could be able to buy some time before it happens.

But the protagonist's luck is there, So he avoids certain death by the skin of his teeth.

[Ding! Wrath Of The Lord artefact of Protagonist Jake used 70% of its power to prevent Jake from dying, It can't be used for a while now.]

[Ding! Protagonist lost one of its hole cards, - 5000 Luck of Protagonist.]

[Ding! Congratulations to the host for getting +5000 RP, +500 Luck and 70% power of the artefact "Wrath Of Lord."

(Note : It is stored in the system inventory.)]

Here Alex was happy hearing the system's voice ringing in his mind. He always thought of using his singing as an offensive method but situations never arose, But today he gets to use it.

He is also very excited about getting the artefact "Warth Of Lord" of Jakez Though this has that 70% lost power but it was still enough to seriously injure any S-Rank powerhouse.

He never thought that system was generous enough to actually give him back the lost power of it, He felt pity before knowing he lost a huge insurance card from Jake, There was even thought of beating Jake for wasting it.

But thankfully he gets it back. There are a lot of uses for this thing than just a simple offensive one, Which a barbarian like Jake never thought of finding out.

Alex was glad that Jake didn't as now he can ripe the harvest that the illigentment father of the Protagonists arranged for it.

He then took a look at the unconscious Jake with a sly smile on his face. Before a few minutes ago he was a little fearful of his power but now? Jake was worse than Nathan in strength.

With these two attacks simultaneously will make Jake weaker than a normal man, If it was someone else they are done for life but the protagonist at max be like this for a week or two.

This is a limit and time frame for Alex to quickly cut off other wings of Jake before finishing him off.

Clap

Clap Clap

Clap Clap Clap

Alex after dealing with Jake wanted to deal with the stupid woman, Who arranged this brain-dead plot but when he turned around he was greeted by a few claps which turned into a shower of claps.

"Wow, This is so breathtaking Alex."

"What a metaphor of life, What a great song and meaning of life."

"Yeah, I mean this song tells the whole journey of life, The pain and struggle of survival, Which gives us that sweet peace at the end."

"Hum, But why did this song feel like a dark self-harm one? As there is too much negativity in the song, Is the singer okay? Did he need help?"

"What are you talking about buddy? This song represents how meaningless our life or struggle is in this vast cosmos."please visit

"But I thought it was a positive one, About how after struggle you get that finally peaceful release though few regrets but a lot of memories to carry on."

"...."

What Alex saw was that he was already surrounded by bystanders, Who were arguing and some even started fighting over the meaning of life.

Alex was very confused looking at them as he really did not have any meaning in the song, The only purpose of his song was to target Jake, Which he did, So he did not understand what these people were going on about.

He looked at Xiao Bai wanting to ask how the fuck these people come here? Didn't he ask her to seal off the space before?

"..."

He asked her through telepathy, But all he got in return was her unblinking icy blue eyes staring at him with stars in her eyes.

Well, seeing her like this he got his answer. His song also affected her even as S-Rank and made her lose control over the seal breaking it.

He should have taken precautions about it, But now he has to deal with these people first which is quite a headache. He really hates crowds.

[Ding! Hosts get the affection of large groups of the opposite sex...

+100,000 RP is received.]

"...Well Crowds are not that bad either."

He took his words back when he heard the voice of the system, Then retracted his attention from Jake, Who was ignored by everyone, All thanks to his song and put it on the man, Who got his pocket stolen.

'Did he not get paid enough? Act you, bastard!! I have to move to plot forward.'

Alex was waiting for that man to come running to her thanking him, The same usual plot but to his horror, that man too was standing there looking at him unblinkingly, Not following his act at all.

If that man did not act then how did he complete his act and go enjoy his rare free time? He needs to enjoy as much time as he can before these two monsters of the mother and daughter duo come out of their shock.

'Wait? It's not only him but others also were not moving at all, What is happening?'

Alex wanted to curse that man for his poor acting ethic and wanted to teach him one or two principles of acting but then he noticed that it was suddenly strongly quieted down all around him.

He waited for people to swarm him up but that too did not happen. He looked up and gazed all around just to find that everyone except Xiao Bai and Natasha was stuck in their position.

But Natasha does sit back in her driving seat, laying her head on the steering wheel and pretending to be also affected like others as she rather sleep than bother with anything else.

Alex also ignored her but put this thing down in note, he will ask Alia to take care of her later.

Right now, he quickly looks down at his wrist to check his watch and finds out that even the hands of his wristwatch had stopped, not only that, He looked up just to find that even birds were frozen mid-air, Which indicates that someone had used a time-related superpower here.

Seeing this, Alex was praying that the person who did to be a woman, He wanted this broken superpower very badly, As it will make his life too easy.

After all, The time-related superpower is even rarer than elemental superpowers and also quite powerful and has many auxiliary values.

And this is also a very high-grade superpower at least on the S-Rank one as this is a domain of time, Just like his domain of fire.

So Alex looked all around before fixing his gaze on the car "hiding" at the end of the alley. He was sure the one who did this was inside that car.

And he was right. As he was looking at the car, Its door opened and a very charming woman with a plump figure came out of the car.

Alex took a look at her and figured out that her beauty on paper was close to Alia but in reality, she was much more attractive and possessed an exaggerated figure.

To understand more easily, She looks like the highlighted heroine in manhwas, So that pretty much said how hot and beautiful this woman was.

While Alex was looking at her, She was in her tall heels walking toward Alex and standing in front of him before she spoke.

"Quite a good song you got there Alex Winchester, Mind talking to me- Ahhh!! Get off me you feral beast."

(A/N : We all know that level of beauty, right?

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊)

Chapter 138 138. Rebecca Valentine

Alex standing on the time-frozen road stupidly watching the scene unfolding in front of him, The woman who carried a noble aura and shows her wielding attitude and overbearing display of strength now like a little girl running all around.

She was running like a headless chicken trying to get rid of Xiao Bai hanging on her neck biting and scratching her with her nails.

The woman was on the verge of crying out as no matter how she tried she was not able to get rid of Xiao Bai . Thankfully there was no strength behind the bites of Xiao Bai, So she was not hurt much.

There were only a few scratches that any cat owner can handle, Still, that woman running around like a madman, Still trying to get rid of Xiao Bai from her neck.

"Ahhhh, Please remove her from me, I am begging you, Ahhhhhhhh!"

The woman looked at Alex, as if she saw her only hope start running towards him at full speed begging him to remove Xiao Bai.

"Fuck don't come here you idiot Kick"

Bang

Alex did not want to be anywhere near this woman for fear he would get infected by her stupidity. He already bore the dumbness of Rose. He did not want to be dumb and stupid at the same time.

So when she got closer to him, He kicked her Kennedy style making her fly back the way she came here but in the process Xiao Bai indeed got off her, So he did what she asked.

"What the fu- "

"No need to thank me, I did what no one was able to, Still not need to praise me or anything, I am not your god what, So there also no need to worship me, But again who I am to stop anyone, So can worship me if you want."

Women barely able to stand up, Supporting their breasts as he kicked her there. She thinks if she was not an Awakened warrior with this kick, Alex would be able to turn any normal person into blood mist.

Still, she felt there was a fracture in her ribs, So she wanted to curse but before she could not Alex spoke words that made her brain stop working for a while.

While she was falling into confusion, Alex went towards Xiao Bai, sitting on the ground and playing with something.

When he got a closer look, He saw Xiao Bai holding a shiny pearl necklace in her hand, Which she was throwing back and forth from one hand to another while giggling like a 6-year-old.

Seeing her, Alex now gets why Xiao Bai attacked her, No matter if she was a tiger or beast, At the end of the day she was a cat, Whose favourite thing is to cause destruction and shine things.

Xiao Bai just did both of those things hitting that poor lady. She is a very bad girl.

"Do you like it? You have it, This lady looks like a very big-hearted woman, She will not say no."

Alex rubbed the silkily white hair of Xiao Bai, Who also closed her eyes enjoying the warm touch of his. Even then her hand even stopped playing with the necklace.

".....You know if you don't have that kinda uncanny face, You should have been beaten to death long ago."

The woman looked at Alex and spoke irritatedly. She did not understand him at all.

At first she thought this man was green tea then after listening to the song he sang for that bitch, She felt guilty that she misunderstood him and jealous because this song was for that cold bitch and not here.

Even now seeing him helping both man and the "thief" she felt good about him. Thinking this man has a soft and even big heart, She thought she finally understood what kinda man he is but then he spoke those words.

She also thought that she found a man for her use but now she was back to zero not knowing who the real Alex is.

"Hehe, thank you."

Alex looked at her shyly as he said to her dodging her eyes.

"I am not complimenting you!!"

Hearing him speaking to her without regret for his action doubled her anger and she roared at him.

She was already annoyed by getting fooled by him, And he doing this only made her more angry.

"What happened to you, Rebecca? You used to be fun."

Alex dropped the act and asked Rebecca, Rebecca Valentine, The 2nd most powerful family in this city after Millers.please visit

And Rebecca is the heir of that family and also the arch-nemesis of Alia, She always competes with her since childhood, Alia also does the same.

So Alex saw her before, Alia especially brought him to her to show off, As there is quite a deep feud between them.

Both should have destroyed each other if not for that both need each other for business, Valentine's family own 65% of the market share of showbiz in the city.

While the Miller family own the same 65% of the beauty market in the city, So both kinda need each other to survive.

Alia is in a beauty market that needs actresses and actors to promote her products and Rebecca also needs those endorsements to put food on the plates of her employees.

So they did not want to work together; they had to do it. There were no other options.

Creating their own respective company? No that is not possible as long as they stay in each other's lane they are safe but once they cross someone else's interests then that would break the critical balance in the families.

That's why there is an unspoken rule not to go into others' business, When someone does it will be met with not only one but the other three families' resistance. So they can't create their own company at all.

"You also used to be with that bitch, Still with her?"

Rebecca did not bother with the necklace in Xiao Bai's hand. She did not like anyone going near her neck as it put her in a vulnerable position, Which she hated the most.

That's why she had that extreme reaction as it also triggered her childhood trauma, Which she rather not spoke of now.

"What do you mean used to be? We just broke up. It is a very common thing to patch up after getting tired of sleeping around, Don't you know? So stop beating around the bush and tell me what you wanted me to do for you."

Alex lifted up Xiao Bai from the ground and spoke to Rebecca while carrying her toward their car.

"Well this is Alex I know, The one who only had an interest in his mind, Get in the car, We need to talk about the stuff, I can not hold them in that state much longer."

Rebecca shook her head and a very breathtaking smile adorned her lips, When she heard Alex's words.

She knew this green tea Alex After she properly investigated him after meeting him to find faults to calm down her heart knowing Alia has this handsome boyfriend.

And she indeed did. She found out that he was only after Alia's money, So she did care but about him until 2 days before night. The song he sings shook her soul making him realise how wrong she was and what caught Alia.

So this became the last straw and she decided to find a boyfriend or her parents might think she was into scissors.

And now she finds the man to counter Alia's man is THE man she is planning on countering. It can't get any more complicated than this but she was also excited thinking she had a chance to make Alia green.

So she started a cooking plan in her mind against Alia.

Alex reached their car and picked up frozen-in-time Grace and carried her to Rebecca's car.

"Hey Natasha, Your payment this month will be deducted for the loss of that door."

When he reached Rebecca's car, Alex turned around and spoke to Natasha who was still pretending to be frozen like others.

"Shudder*

Hearing his words her body shuddered but she did not move, Hoping he was bluffing, Alex too did not waste time on her, He will take care of her later, Now he wanted to see what this stupid woman had to say.

He put Grace and then Xiak Bai in the car, After that he reached out in his pocket and took out something.

"Why are you wearing a mask? This car is tinted."

Rebecca looked at Alex, Who was wearing a mask and asked in confusion. She knew he liked to wear a mask when going out to prevent harassment but now they were going to be seated in the car so there was no need for it.

"I did not want to catch your stupidity, This is a precautionary method."

Alex looked straight into her eyes and spoke these words before seating in the car and leaving stunned Rebecca outside.

Chapter 139 139. Rent A Boyfriend

Alex was sitting on the sofa like a long chair in the back seat of the car, Xiao Bai on his left was busy playing with a shiny necklace, While Grace was still frozen in time.

Alex thought it would be best for her to stay like that as he did not have an extra mask for her.

Front of him, sitting in the arrogant pose, Which every Manhwa CEO heroine sits, And now she was looking at him angrily, still upset over the fact that he called her stupid.

"So get me this straight, You do all that just to find a man to pretend to be your boyfriend? Are you stupi- Never mind."

Alex did not bother to look around in the car but looked at Rebecca and asked her, She told him her reason for doing all that.

Yeah as he guessed it was all an act, and the reason too unfortunately was the same. This woman did all this just to find a suitable man to pretend to be her boyfriend.

That's all intention and motive behind her action, Which stupefied Alex even more.

Even if he considers she wants to find this way and approves of her idea for the sake of argument, he can't wrap his mind around why she did this experiment here, on a though hospital street but kinda secluded place.

Her probability of finding a man to pretend to is much more in other main crowded streets, But now she came here to do her experiment to weed out the ideal man, Which is harder than finding a needle in the haystack.

But who made her the heroine, Even though it was a stupid thing, somehow on the first try encountered him. You can't get anyone better than him, So she is really lucky.

"Hey, You are doing it again, I am not stupid, Didn't it work out? See I have my ideal candidate in front of me."

Rebecca did not like anyone calling her stupid, especially not when the other party is related to Alia, So she stood up and pointed a finger at him with a smirk on her lips as she spoke to Alex.

"Slam Bang Ouch, Hey watch how you are driving."

But before Alex had arrived to answer her, Car took a sharp turn making her slam on the door frame, And then bang her head on the roof of the car.

She became angry, She turned around and cursed at the driver, Who could not hear her as this part of the car was currently in sound isolation for privacy, Which she herself activated.

"You are the one who stands up in the moving car, Is there even a chance remaining for your defence?"

Alex looked at her with a joke in his void-like eyes and spoke, This woman is exactly the opposite of Alia.

If Alia is cold, heartless, and hard to deal with, Then Rebecca is energetic, Full of empathy and very easygoing.

She is also not dumb. After all, she runs a 100 billion UC-worth company on her own and even increased its value at a shocking rate of 5%, So there is no doubt about her talent or her intelligence.

The only problem is that she is knowingly stupid, As there is a proper good brain but she is too concerned about other things that she most of the time forgets to use it.

Which is again exactly the opposite, Alia did not give her brain a slight break, There is always something cooking in her mind, Always planning on attacks and counters.

Which is a thing he was afraid of before but now, He was terrified of it. Before he was at least able to guess what was cooking in her mind but now he did not have even a slight idea about it.

He had to take care of her before she did something unthinkable.

"Alex drop these useless things, Now I want to propose that I want to rent you as a boyfriend, 1 Million a day, I want you for 10 days."

Rebecca was embarrassed, She really lost her position to defend herself after she made the foolish mistakes.

So she dropped the topic and changed the subject. She wanted to deal with these things quickly, so she could go and fawn in front of Alia.

Her face at that time should be worth every penny, That's why she also offered a generous price. Anyway, this much money means nothing to her, And she was not even lost.

Getting Alex like a boyfriend for 10 days for 10 million is a steal of a deal, Any other woman would kill to get an offer like this one.

"....Who do you think I am? 10 million? You wanted me to be your boyfriend for 10 million? Am I that cheap of a person in your eyes? It's okay when others say it but you know me and say this hurts me a lot, You know."

Alex, hearing her offer, opened his eyes wide. There was a pain and betrayal expression on his face. He looked like he was really hurt by her words, only dignity was a thing helping him hold back his tears.

Rebecca sees him as this regret. She judged him like he was green tea like before but she should have been clear after that song. He was not a gold miner, He is just a guy too ignorant of how his actions are seen in other's eyes. please visit

So he asked him to be her boyfriend. It really looked bad, Especially when she did not mention that they only had to act in front of others, So there selling their body business here.

She was sure he had misunderstood her, This deal does sound more like a prostitution kinda deal.

"Alex you misunderstood, No I am sorry, I should have not said something like that after knowing you, Please forgive me."

Rebecca at first wanted to clear the misunderstanding of his but she stopped her as this looked like a justification, Which is not the right approach right now.

She dropped the idea of explaining and apologising to him. She really can't bear to see that look on his face. It hurt her physically to look at him.

"Yeah, You better apologise and ask forgiveness, How long since you knew me, And yet you did not understand me a bit."

Alex looked at her helplessly with her in his voice, Rebecca hung her head down in shame and guilt for hurting him this much.

She did not have any intention to hurt him, It was a thing she saw in the S-dramas and thought it might work for her, So she decided to try it out.

She did not consider the dignity and self-respect of men. For a woman, it might not be a big deal but men take their self-respect seriously. They protect their bodies and names like precious jewels.

So she really should have hurt him with her words. She indirectly called him to call an escort, Which a self-respecting man can take.

"Sorry..."

She once again muttered sorry for her action, Speaking without thinking is really quite destructive.

"You better be, After all, how can you offer me a mere 1 million? You can't buy shit from it, At least it has to be 5-no 10 million for a man like me, But hey who made me this big-hearted, You are forgiven for your sin and as you are an old friend of mine, You get discount, You just had to pay 9.999 million."

Alex, seeing Rebecca really regretting it, became satisfied. After all, He indeed felt insulted when she offered a mere 1 million for a day.

How can a man with his calibre sell himself for 1 million? It at least should be 10 million, didn't it? Anything less did not justify the price for him.

So he really as Rebecca thought was hurt getting insulted like that, Which too directly attacked on his looks, Which he can't bear.

"....Give it back."

Rebecca was stunned hearing his words and became speechless for a while and when she came back to her senses, She only spoke these words bringing her teeth.

"Huh!? What do I give back? I did not take from you anything, Oh wait?! You can't take back the necklace it was given as a gift and she likes it. If you want, You need to pay at least 100 million."

Alex got confused hearing her words, He really did not understand what she was talking about, and He did not take anything from her.

But then he realised he did take her necklace from her, So he thought she wanted that back, which he can't give for free at all, After all Xiao Bai liked it.

But if Rebecca gives 100 million for it then he will gladly give it back, As with 100 million he can buy lots of shiny things for Xiao Bai and he can also get extra pocket money.

The 13.07 billion UC of his he saved to start a business and he also did not ask for money from Amara or Isabella, So he was a little tight on the pocket.

"Bastard, Give me back my sympathy, Ahhh!!!"

Rebecca lost it, She did not care about it anymore, When she was done speaking she jumped on him bearing her claws out.

'What did I do?'

It was the only thought on Alex's mind before Rebecca jumped on him.

(A/N : I know it became slow paced but the new heroine also needs her soul, later I add number one (Bodyguard) as compensation.

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day ☺.)

Chapter 140 140. Rebecca Forgotten Heroin

Huff* Huff How as a man you- Huff this strong?"

Rebecca once again seating on her initial opposition but different than before was that she was huffing for air, Her more than D-cups were moving in seemingly fluid motion against the law of physics

Her wavy long brown waist-length hair which was before carefully maintained Now was unkempt making it look like a bird's nest.

Her smooth wide forehead also had the bread of sweat dripping down from her delicate angular face, There was flown between her crescent-like half-moon eyebrows showing her dissatisfaction but also making her look cute.

Her royal violet-coloured one-piece dress also moved a little showing off the richness of her physique to Alex.

Rebecca did not bother about her appearance in front of Alex that much, Anyway it was not that big of a deal if it was Alex as it only worked in her favour.

What she was more worried about was the fact that strength he had shown just now. She glanced at Alex whose not even a single hair got affected by their banter, He was sitting there as if they had not just had a little stand-off here.

She never thought that Alex will be that strong, Though in fairness she did not use any spiritual power right now but even then as a B-Rank warrior, She should not be defected this badly by an F-Rank warrior and that too by a man.

It is unheard of, rarely there is a figure born in the world who can fight across 1 big rank. Those ones will become a legendary warrior who will leave a mark in history.

But never even once was an F-Rank rank able to fight with B-Rank like this, No it was even against common sense, How can one fight someone 4 ranks bigger than them? It was breaking the scaling measurements.

It was still though very hard to accept but can be taken care of. What is more, disbelieving things is that this was done by a man.

She was not sexist or anything but it was a natural proven fact that women are way stronger than men, And that difference increases drastically when it comes to cultivation.

Men are not favoured by the world at all, You can even say they are hated by it, So it was very hard for them to advance in the already hard ranks and then to their strengths come nowhere near the women in the same ranks.

So it was a worldview-breaking thing for her that Alex got this strong.

"Why? Can't a man beat a woman? This is a little sexist, Don't you think?"

Alex looked at Rebecca and also understood her inner turbulence. After all, what he did was really impossible in her eyes. Man, is this world treated as 2nd class citizens but not by people but by the world itself?

Alex did not know who made this world like this as in both plots there was just a hint here and there but no concrete proof of it, But he was sure of one thing anyone who did this hated man a lot.

I mean everything in this world is either made to work against men or give unfavourable advantages to women.

Like spiritual power all around this world, This power favours women a lot, So much so that for a woman it was 2 to 5 times easier to cultivate than a man.

Not to mention women also have 10 times more chances to awaken their superpower hidden in them, And if one parent has a superpower then there is an 80% chance daughter born to them will also have a superpower.

But the odds of men did not increase, Same if both parents have superpowers then there is only a 10% extra increase in the chance that a son born to them will get a superpower but a daughter will 100% will get it.

This is how much this world hates men, If not for the system's op things he will also be that weak, Though on paper he is F-Rank but his combat power already reached C-Rank, But still he could not able to advance in rank is all thanks to 10 times restriction of the world on him.

He has to work 10 times harder than women to increase his rank, That's why he is still stuck on the peak of F-Rank but this was also a good thing as because of it his foundation was solidified.

So Alex was not a bit surprised by the shock of Rebecca, Which was justifiable but that did not mean he will let go of the chance to tease her.

After all, he still needs to raid her to survive, and for a woman like her, this is the best approach.

Unlike Alia whose raid has to be to give and take control from her hands, Rebecca's one is to take all control in his hands, And be more wild than she is. This works best with her type of heroine.

Also a universal thing of being hard to understand and creating curiosity like basic things also work on her, He just does not get it why the system has yet to notify to his increase in her favorability.

He was waiting for it but the system did not make any sound.

"It's not that I am sexist but man being strong is not a good thing for them."

Rebecca now kinda gets it how his brain works, So she did not bother to justify her statement but said what she wanted to say.

She really thinks for a man to be thin is not a good thing, It was against the nature of man and kinda useless.

"You said not to be sexist and said the most sexist thing, Rebecca. Why is it not good for men to be strong? Will it hurt the fragile ego of women?"

Alex is not happy when Rebecca does not fall for his trap, It was only the 2nd type of entertainment here in this world of his after the one on the bed.

So he still tried to provoke her, Just to bring down her IQ which started to rise. After all it was not good for him, If her brain suddenly started working.

"Again not sexist, Did you not know the stronger the man is, the shorter their life span than women of the same rank? So the stronger you become, the earlier you die than a woman in the same rank."

Rebecca was startled by his comment but knew he was just trying to mess with her, So she did not pay any attention to it and went directly to the point she was trying to tell him.

It is common sense that the stronger the person gets the more their lifespan also increases, This is the reason why people are so crazy about increasing their ranks.

As some want eternal youth, Some want immortality and some want to preserve their beauty, So they walk on the hard road of immortal cultivation.

Each rank is respective to their level, increasing some amount of the lifespan of a person which applied to all of them no matter the nature of their superpowers.

From 100 years on F-Rank to 10,000-15,000 years added in S-Rank, It is common knowledge but it was only for women, Not men.

For men, F-Rank gives an extra 90 years which was not that low compared to a woman but as their level increases it will become lower and lower to the extent that the S-Rank of a man will only get 1000 to 25000 years added to them making it useless to waste time in practice for it.

Yes, the world hates a man to this extent. If a man gets stronger even after 10 times more practice restrictions then it was the world's way to prevent them from getting more powerful.

"...I forgot about that thing."

Alex was stunned but then casually answered her as if he did not care about this fact.

'FUCK!!!! How could I forget this important thing?'

But in his mind, he was yelling like a madman. He had forgotten this thing as too much happens these days.

He also now doubts that this world is made by those red-haired women. He has a lot of proof of it. After all, only they are the one who hates a man to this extent, This world will be a paradise for them.

But then the worry in his heart is dismissed. He is a man with a system, and of course, he will find a way to counter the laws of this world.

"Rebecca, Tell me about your superpower, How did you stop the time?"

Alex then asked her what he wanted to ask her, the Author of her novel did not pay much attention to her as her powers are too strong to create any threat to Jake, So she most of the time stayed behind the scenes.

And when the Author decided to show her power, Jake already became too strong, So there was no significant meaning in paying attention to her power, So she became a forgotten heroine just like Helen.

So Alex is now curious about what grade or what kinda power she had but he did not expect to hear it from her.

'System uses the eye of truth on her.'

He just wanted to distract her until he saw her real accurate stats from the system.

[Ding....]

(A/N : Her power is the reason I am paying attention to her.

Like always thank you for reading and have a good day 😊.)
