

ALMIGHTY SWEET QUEEN IS REALLY RICH!

Chapter 7 Standard Answers for the College Entrance Examination

Feng Huaijin patted Su Li's head, gently pushed up the sunglasses on his nose, and turned to leave.

Everyone instinctively made way for him.

Su Li's face was a bit pale. What Feng Huaijin meant by "I'll support you" was definitely "I'll keep you!"

Su Li looked at the exam admission ticket in her hand, and finally felt a sense of relief.

But...

Su Li looked up at Feng Huaijin's back as he walked away in the sunlight, feeling something strange in her heart. Could he really be her future husband? So... did he come specially to deliver her exam admission ticket?

Su Li smiled at Chu Lianxin and Zhong Anni, "Sorry to disappoint you."

The two women gave somewhat stiff smiles.

Zhong Anni crossed her arms and looked Su Li up and down, suddenly saying, "Xiao Li, why did a man bring your exam admission ticket to you? I heard you weren't home resting last night."

Chu Lianxin looked at Father Chu and Mother Chu, her eyes starting to fill with tears, and said, "After dinner last night when Brother Xiang took us home, didn't he drop sister off? Why weren't you resting, and today you're brought here by a strange man..."

Chu Hongyuan and Zhou Rong's expressions changed slightly. They're at least considered notable figures in Jiang City, so if the daughter they've raised for eighteen years suddenly disgraced them like this, they would have no face to show.

The parents of other students occasionally cast glances their way, making Chu Hongyuan feel uncomfortable.

Su Li suddenly laughed and said, "Lianxin, the restaurant box last night had surveillance, you know."

Chu Lianxin's expression changed drastically, and she blurted out, "What did you say?"

Su Li gently smoothed her long hair, blinking as a faint purple light flashed, "I mean it literally."

Chu Lianxin never expected Su Li to turn the tables on her! If her parents saw her messing around in the restaurant with Chen Xiang on the night before the college entrance exams, Chu Hongyuan would definitely beat her!

Chu Lianxin was a bit flustered, completely losing her previous composure.

Clearly, she wanted to prevent Su Li from taking the exam, or at the very least make sure Su Li failed due to anxiety, so how did her own mindset become disturbed instead?

Chu Lianxin tugged at her dress and said gently with implied meaning, "So sister, do your best today. Father said that if you do well, you can return to the Chu Family and even get a two hundred thousand reward. Doesn't the Su Family just need two hundred thousand?"

Su Li gave a mocking smile. Is money what she's short of?

Zhou Rong frowned and interrupted, "You two sisters stop talking and hurry into the exam hall."

Su Li didn't want to tangle with Chu Lianxin any further, but her phone suddenly vibrated in her pocket. Su Li took out her phone and almost dropped it.

[Tuanzi loves Mommy the most: Mommy saved Daddy, so awesome.]

[Tuanzi loves Mommy the most: Mommy, are you taking the college entrance exam today? Mommy, do your best! Tuanzi supports you.]

[Tuanzi loves Mommy the most: Mommy, don't enter the exam hall yet, Tuanzi has a big gift for you! You'll definitely like it.]

Su Li stood at the door with her phone, unsure whether to go in or not.

Chu Lianxin gave a cold snort and strutted into the exam hall with Zhong Anni.

This college entrance exam, she was determined to score better than Su Li!

She wanted everyone to know her excellence, that she was the real eldest daughter of the Chu Family. Su Li was just a counterfeit occupying someone else's spot!

"Xiao Li, why haven't you gone in yet? It's about to start," Zhou Rong said with concern from the side.

"Mom, I'll go in right away."

Just as Su Li finished speaking, her phone vibrated again. Tuanzi sent an electronic document, clearly labeled "20XX National College Entrance Exam Language Standard Answers."

[Tuanzi loves Mommy the most: Mommy, Mommy, these are the standard answers I found. Memorize them, and being the top scorer in the national exam isn't just a dream!]
