Chapter 1328: Chapter 347: Spirit Reef Port Falls (10,000 Words)_5

As Harry's words fell, one response after another sounded.

"The Henrik Clan is willing to follow all instructions of Sir Ludivico."

"The Marquez Clan is willing..."

"The Mayer Clan..."

"..."

Watching as free nobles, wealthy merchants, and workshop masters all responded in succession.

Ludivico nodded in satisfaction, indicating his approval.

Once everyone seated in the meeting room had responded, Ludivico spoke.

"Very good!"

"As long as the free nobles unite completely, we will surely be able to seize control of Kakasong City."

One of the free nobles couldn't help but ask eagerly.

"So, Sir Ludivico, what is your plan?"

"And how do we prevent the Furious Giant Bear Mercenary Corps from turning against us?"

With the inquiry, more and more gazes turned towards Ludivico, waiting for his answer.

Ludivico glanced at the questioning free noble, then scanned the room, speaking calmly.

"In my opinion, the best outcome is..."

"After the Furious Giant Bear Mercenary Corps destroys the Church and Simo, they should take their payment and leave Kakasong City immediately!"

Ludivico’s tone shifted.

"But if the Furious Giant Bear Mercenary Corps covets with ill intentions and wants to occupy Kakasong City..."

"We can pit the tiger against the wolf!"

Seeing the puzzled looks on Megan, Harry, Gai Mier, and everyone else.

Ludivico explained calmly.

"Lynn, the Lord of Morgan Town, is the tiger."

"The Furious Giant Bear Mercenary Corps is the wolf..."

Hearing Ludivico’s calm and leisurely words, everyone’s brows couldn’t help but raise.

At this point.

Ludivico’s gaze turned towards Megan beside him.

Especially glancing at the prominent whiteness in front of Megan for a moment.

Only then did Ludivico speak.

"Lady Megan, I know what I just said may sound harsh to you."

"But you must know, everything I do is for Kakasong City, for the free nobles in the city!"

Megan, who had been silent all along, easily revealed a smile on her face, saying warmly.

"Sir Ludivico, you’ve misunderstood."

"Gol Krueger is indeed Megan’s brother in name."

"But in the end, he’s just a bastard!"

Ludivico nodded and replied.

"That’s for the best."

"Only free nobles like us are the most trustworthy and dependable allies!"

Seeing Megan nod in response, Ludivico continued.

"Then, Lady Megan, who is responsible for liaising with the Furious Giant Bear Mercenary Corps, should discuss the subsequent attack actions!"

As Ludivico's words fell, everyone's eyes shifted to Megan.

Like Ludivico just now, everyone couldn't help but glance at the front of Megan.

Megan slowly stood up, unconcerned by the unusual gazes of everyone.

Even more so, Megan's heart felt a bit of enjoyment from it.

Wearing such a robe highlights her advantages.

Megan was precisely enjoying their gazes, becoming the center of attention!

Megan took a slight breath of the air with a peculiar smell and began to speak.

"Gentlemen, after several face-to-face discussions with Gol, the leader of the Furious Giant Bear Mercenary Corps."

"We've already decided on the time to launch the attack on the Church!"

The eyes of everyone in the meeting room widened, staring straight at Megan.

At this moment, they were no longer concerned with Megan's proud and plump figure, waiting for her next words.

Megan looked at Ludivico beside her, seeing Ludivico nod slightly to her in signal.

Megan no longer hesitated, continuing.

"The Furious Giant Bear Mercenary Corps will enter Kakasong City on October 10th..."

"That is tomorrow, during the beer festival night held in the city!"

"At that time, to avoid chaos caused by drunkenness, the Church will undoubtedly dispatch more guards to maintain order."

"With the Church guards and soldiers scattered, it will be more advantageous for the Mercenary Corps to attack and secure victory."

"Then, the Furious Giant Bear Mercenary Corps will, under the cover of night and when there are fewer people, attack directly towards the Church from Church Street."

"A few days ago, Simo left Kakasong City escorted by Church Guards."

"Now, only the clergy remain in the Church!"

"A leaderless Church is our best opportunity to attack!"

"If you don’t want to be implicated in this war, seal all the doors and windows of your mansion before night!"

Hearing Megan’s words, everyone’s expressions became serious.

October 10th, the beer festival.

That’s tomorrow!

They really hadn’t expected it.

Ludivico had already negotiated the attack time and plan with the Furious Giant Bear Mercenary Corps so quickly.

Thinking again.

If they hadn’t come to Sir Ludivico’s Knight’s Mansion tonight to express their stance.

They would never know this information.

Their family mansions might face invasion or plundering by the Furious Giant Bear Mercenary Corps, or even be killed directly!

Thinking of this.

The hearts of everyone couldn’t help but feel a sense of relief.

Just as Megan finished speaking, Ludivico, who was seated at the head, picked up where she left off.

"Your relatives and family members can hide in the mansion."

"However, I need you to summon the Guard Team within your mansion!"

Everyone’s eyes widened, just about to speak.
