

Tale Of A Flaming Butch.

T.O.A.F.B. By Simon E. Evans

T.O.A.F.B chapter 3

Lisa

As soon as we all got across the bridge in the centre of the Moogolve village, we'd arrived at the T-junction and Mira waved at us, bye Kira, Bye-bye Lisa. With a heartening smile we both responded to her, saying, "Bye-bye Mira, we'll see again, next time we meet at the riverside." Okay! I Love you Lisa, I love you Kira, Bye-bye.

She took a left turn, since their house isn't far away from the T-Junction in Moogolve. Eventually, it is the nearest route that will lead her home, any day or anytime she's away from home.

Mira's mum, Mrs. Matilda is a business woman she sells fish among other aquatic animals like hippopotamus and crocodiles in the Moogolve General market. She allows Mira to practice swimming with us because swimming was compulsory in Moogolve Marine Village.

Considering the facts that such skills is useful for cultivation, for life-safety and for sporting events, she allows her to practice swimming whenever it is time. She never attempted to stop Mira anytime she chooses to go out to swim or anytime we check her out in their house.

Mrs, Matilda always cautioned her to come back in time, and to never go so deep into the river.

Each time she let-out those words to Mira, I always remember Mitchel Johnson,

She too never miss a day at the riverside she's a girl with such a beautiful and loving personality.

I can't just believe that she is no more. I feel so sad, each time I remember Mitchel, with all the pain inside of me, I always feel like I should curse our river because of the scenario that lead to her demise that day.

Kira and I, took the right lane of the T-junction. We're closest neighbours but most of the villagers in Moogolve use to think that we're sisters, I mean blood-sisters for that occasion.

Mistakenly, one may assume that they weren't wrong because fate had bonded us (Lisa & Kira) together so dearly as if we are. You barely could see me Lisa with Kira out of sight or out of reach, it is nearly an impossibility in Moogolve.

We'd took it upon ourselves to be each others companion for life.

Since I was the one and only daughter of Monalisa, I hunger and Crave for true friendship, partnership and trust so that I could one day lead the women of Moogolve to victory against the rest of the neighbouring Clans, just like my mother was, as the female Lead Huntress-warrior.

Notwithstanding, the people in Moogolve Marine village, they all look up to me, like some chosen one, that will deliver our land in trials of times in distress or conflicts.

Something I seriously doubt of myself. Meanwhile I'm no good swimmer like the other girls but this people put so much faith in me like some chosen one. Nevertheless, I always pray to the Ancient spirits in Moogolve Land to guide my path less I become a betrayal of faith and trust to my own people. Day and night I'll call out to the ancient spirits in prayers and worshipped, seeking their help, whether the river-goddess or moon-goddess, so I could give them a sense of hope even though there's much of a doubt within me.

They made me believe my birthed was extraordinary and that I possess gifts and strength that are synonymous to that of my Mother, Monalisa.

What the villagers are seeing in me, I hardly could see it upon myself.

I Wonder if in anyway they're telling me the truth, I only leave my fate to the future.

Author's note:

The Author of the story may have made critical changes in the modification of this article to collectively adapt to all reader's views. the novella is puzzled to satisfaction to brick all forms of illusions and to analyzed lively events in different places and times. So the characters and places does not depict the actual names of the characters and places of events in the scenarios. Divers changes has been made to provide protective values to the image of the characters involved, thank you!

Thank you so much for reading. All thoughtful comments and reviews are welcomed and will be highly appreciated.

If you find any errors (non-standard content, ads redirect, broken links, etc..), Please let us know so we can fix it as soon as possible.