There's nothing hidden and conceptual about Lisa's pending adoration in Moogolve as lead female Huntress-warrior most intricately she continue to hold a place in my heart. Since i'm her only brother, I must offer her the best skills from the collections in our bookshelves and equipment, to help her stand out supreme among the other Clans, qualitatively.

Perhaps, There's nothing wrong with deciding one's fate, before they met them. Because a lifetime moderation is occasionally uninterrupted, most of the times by a designated activity.

Probably, If they should come across any needless Changes, it's never a determinant factor, to what the future holds.

Neither a shift nor a propose stand is delusional in gearing up or rearing for an even balance.

Once an individual is opinionated in any formatting, they're also equally driven by it..

The proximity interconnecting the riverside to our home, is a walking proximity, in that way, you wouldn't have to walk a mile before arriving at our compound.

As soon as I'd arrived home, I couldn't find Lisa anywhere around the house.

Without a reason to be anxious, I left off the hook of Lisa's whereabouts. Since she'd already excused herself for Craddo's town hunting-adventure with her companions.

Her absent away from home, doesn't defy my stay in anyway. So i'd rather make the most of it other than reluctantly playing the dice games as usual.

I immediately get a hold of one of the available Journals in our bookshelves belonging to Roogan Hovah my Father.

It was one of those I haven't had the time to picture-out or handle before.

This is just the right moment for this one, it rang deeply in my head. Eagerly anticipated, full of will and passion and excitement, I took the the journal and opened it and began reading it.

In the first paragraph, it was boldly written, “The Secret of the Hunter's Black Powder.”

Your fate holds your will, and your will are driving by your motives and your motives are revealed in your actions.

The Hunter who survives in a jungle, is both master and king of the jungle.

To know your utmost strength in the jungle, You are either the predator or the prey to another predator.

As a Predator, you will have to prey upon the wildest of beast for meat or you'll be preyed upon as meat by the beast of the jungle.

This secret, will aid your survival-mode in the jungle, when you need.

The Hunter's Black powder is a fierce weapon and deadly element only found in places relating to the Abyss, in a spherical diagram, it's appearance is either liquidating or solidifying. It must have to go through timeless processing in other to actualize it's power and magic as a Black Powder.

The Hunter's Black Powder was secretly used by ancient hunters, in early BC in times of distress of conflicts and warfare and mostly when encountering a nearly impossible situation.

A nearly impossible situation was always the perfect time to unleash the deadly black powder, because when in use, it does not only decimate or affect it's victim.

The one who unleashes it, bears almost the same or equal level of damage as the one receiving it.

The risk of using the Hunter's Black Powder in any uprising situation, was tactically so high at both ends, and so it was preserve secretly, and only a few among the Morden hunters, could curtail the magical powers of the Hunter's Black Powder.
