

I CAN COPY TALENT

Chapter 14

Li Hai was a martial artist, but he was only a junior martial artist, and now he was sixty years old, and he had been at this level all his life, and he was the servant arranged for him by Mo Shaobei's father, who had been doing things for him.

"Young master, I have already investigated clearly, that Ye Tian is just an ordinary family, his parents were once martial artists, but they died in the wild more than a year ago, and now only Ye Tian and his sister are left." Li Hai reported truthfully.

"If it weren't for my retreat to shock the warrior, where would he have lived for a month, ahem, find someone, kill him!"

Mo Shaobei said with a murderous face.

Li Hai's face changed: "Young master, if you kill people at the base, if someone finds out, even if we Mo family is powerful, I am afraid it will be more troublesome!" "

"I do have trouble finding out, but what if I can't find out?" Mo Shaobei sneered.

"Can't find out?" Li Hai suddenly thought of a person, "Young Master, do you want to ask Shadow to help?" But if you want to ask Shadow to sell, the price is not cheap, at least 1 million ah! "

1 million kills of a warrior, which was not worth it in Li Hai's view.

And Mo Shaobei had only been promoted to the level of a warrior, and the family funds that could be mobilized were not many, and at most more than one million.

“That boy’s talent should be good, he reached the martial realm at such a young age, and he is not a beginner martial artist, the talent should be a primary talent, but it should not be a medium talent, but even so, with the assistance of the intermediate fierce beast blood and the fierce beast snake blood, he may be able to promote to the martial realm in a year or two, killing a martial artist is not the same as killing a martial artist, I want to strangle him when he is not grown, do you understand?” 1 million is indeed a big number for me now, but in another year or two, what is 1 million? Mo Shaobei analyzed.

“Young master, I understand, I’m going to contact Shadow!”

Li Hai said.

After saying that, he stepped back.

In the room, Mo Shaobei muttered to himself, “Although Shadow is only a second-class talent, he can’t improve after becoming a martial artist in the early days, but he is an incomparably rare multi-talented martial artist, with a shadow talent, he can hide in the shadow place, even elite martial artists can hardly observe the existence of shadows, it is an extremely terrible existence among martial artists, even I may not be able to dodge Shadow’s deadly assassination, by him to assassinate Ye Tian, Ye Tian is doomed!” ”

Immediately, he put the matter aside for the time being and began the cultivation of martial artists.

A day later.

As usual, after Ye Tian finished cultivating in the academy grove, he was ready to go back.

However, just as he was about to leave the grove, his look changed slightly, and there was a little more shock in the depths of his pupils.

He looked vaguely under a tree three meters away, which was not small, and there was nothing under the shadows, empty.

However, Ye Tian knew that there was a person here.

Human: Li Cun

Cultivation Talent: Inferior

Shadow Talent: Primary

The talent of copying had become Ye Tian's instinctive talent, he could probe everything around him at any time, and once someone or animal approached him, he would know.

It was also a way for him to protect himself.

"This person named Li Cun should have used the Shadow Talent to hide his body, so my naked eye can't see, he can awaken the talent, there is no doubt that his strength is a martial artist, but the talent is only a second-class talent, and the strength is obviously in the initial stage of the weakest martial artist!"

In just an instant, Ye Tian figured out Li Cun's situation.

It was late afternoon, night was about to fall, the students of the academy were basically gone, and he was alone in this small forest now, and Li Cun's purpose of hiding here was self-evident.

"Did you come to assassinate me?"

Ye Tian had a secret passage in his heart.

He didn't know Li Cun, and it was obvious that someone had hired Li Cun to assassinate him, and he didn't have to guess who it was.

"Mo Shaobei!"

Ye Tian's eyes flashed with a killing machine.

He only thought that Mo Shaobei had made some small means and given him a little trouble, but he did not expect that Mo Shaobei would dare to hire someone to assassinate him.

"If I live, Mo Shaobei, you will die!"

Ye Tian swore.

The current situation was not very favorable to Ye Tian, but it was also an opportunity for Ye Tian.

His talent for copying could be copied again, but he had never thought about what to copy, and now a great talent ran to him.

The Shadow Talent is definitely a relatively anti-heaven talent for a weak warrior, and once he has the Shadow Talent, many things that cannot be done can be done.

"If you want the Shadow Talent, you must first kill Li Cun!" Ye Tian said calmly.

As he walked slowly, he felt a killing force enveloping him.

He knew that Li Cun was about to move!

However, just as Li Cun was about to move, Ye Tian took the lead.

Swish!

Speed Talent activates.

Ye Tian's speed with 800 pounds of strength was not slow at all, and after adding the increase in speed talent, his speed had already surpassed that of ordinary martial artists, and even compared with the middle stage of martial arts, it was not much worse.

Li Cun originally thought that killing a martial artist was very simple, so he didn't care too much about Ye Tian, and he was immediately calmed by Ye Tian's speed.

"Die!"

Ye Tian held a fine iron knife and slashed hard.

Tear it up!

The fine iron knife hit an object, and a smear of blood flew out.

"Boy, you're looking for death!"

Li Cun appeared from the shadow state, and at this time, a wound appeared on his right arm, which was more serious.

If Ye Tian's strength was stronger, his arm would be cut off by Ye Tian.

Wounded in his right hand, Li Cun attacked Ye Tian with a knife in his left hand, although his combat strength would be greatly reduced, but he felt that he could still kill a martial artist.

But soon, he was confused!

Ye Tian's speed was too fast, much faster than him, and the sword technique was extremely sharp, even if he had been immersed in the sword for more than twenty years, it was not as good as Ye Tian.

Ye Tian relied on speed and sword skills to gradually suppress Li Cun, while Li Cun's right hand was injured and still bleeding, which caused Li Cun's state to deteriorate more and more.

Suddenly.

Ye Tian seized an opportunity and slashed a knife into Li Cun's chest, directly seriously injuring Li Cun.

"Boy, you wait!"

Li Cun's figure flashed, and the whole person disappeared.

However, Ye Tian did not stop and continued to split towards the empty place.

Rumble!!!!

Under the blow, a figure was split, it was Li Cun.

"Damn, you actually saw through my shadow talent, this can't be !!!"

Li Cun was obviously a little incredulous.

In the Linhai Base, not to mention the warrior, even the elite martial artist could not see through his natural ability, only the great martial artist could release his spiritual power, and he could see his figure.

Relying on the Shadow Talent, he had already become a presence that many warriors in the coastal base did not dare to provoke, and where he wanted to deal with a martial artist today but was so embarrassed.

Ye Tian did not speak, only responded to Li Cun with a knife.

Soon, Li Cun couldn't hold on any longer, and was cut half of his neck by Ye Tian, completely dead.
