

I CAN COPY TALENT

Chapter 2

“What’s going on here?”

Ye Tian was a little overwhelmed, and at first glance he thought it was an illusion, but in the end he was absolutely certain that everything in front of him was not an illusion.

The data displayed on the retina is real, not an illusion.

“Goldfinger? No, this may be my hidden talent! ”

Ye Tian pondered for a moment and then thought.

Ye Yu is only 13 years old now, not yet to the age of cultivation, but the cultivation talent was born from the moment of birth, it is very normal for Ye Yu to have cultivation talent at will, as for the cold ice talent, this belongs to the talent other than the cultivation talent, it is very rare, there is no one in the middle, if you awaken in the future, you will absolutely crush the opponent at the same level, and even be expected to fight beyond the level.

“It is said that after becoming a warrior, I can absorb the Yuan Qi and the hidden talents will slowly awaken, but there are too few people with other talents, and I didn’t expect my sister to have a rare cold ice talent.”

“But is my talent the talent of being able to see other people?”

Ye Tian felt that his talent was definitely not so simple.

Soon, he was experimenting with something.

When he met his sister, he found that the cultivation talent in the virtual screen was reproducible.

That is, he could replicate his sister's second-class cultivation talent.

However, the Han Bing Talent had not yet awakened, and Ye Tian could not replicate it.

“Copy?”

Faced with this choice, Lin Tian naturally did not.

Although the inferior talent is better than his own weak talent, it is also garbage, even if it is copied, it is useless.

Sending his sister away, Ye Tian stayed alone in the room to check on his talent.

“I can see my sister's talent, and I should be able to see my own talent, right?”
Ye Tian Dark Road.

Therefore, Ye Tian focused his attention on himself.

Soon, a situation appeared on the retina about his talent.

Human: Ye Tian

Cultivation Talent: Weak, etc

The very simple talent situation, this shows that Ye Tian has no other hidden talents except for weak cultivation talents, in the words of this era, it is a standard waste material, just a little better than ordinary people without any talent.

“Now that the basic situation is clear, this magical ability of mine should be the inexplicable talent that caused me to explode and die, and I have crossed over with me.” This talent should be called the talent of replication, the ability to copy the talent of others, as to whether to cover their own talent, or to merge with their own talent, this needs to be experimented. In addition, copying other people's talents requires touching others, which is a bit troublesome, but maybe there will be changes in the future! ”

After sorting out all this, Ye Tian had a plan, that is, to copy a genius's cultivation talent, otherwise he would not want to cultivate to the level of a martial artist in his lifetime by relying on his own weak talents.

If you don't become a warrior, your life will not be easy in the future.

Ye Tian's parents died at the hands of the fierce beast a year ago, and now this family only has him and his sister, which is also the status quo of many families, after all, human beings in this era are still struggling to survive, every moment there are people who die, I don't know how many families are broken.

The place where Ye Tian was staying now was a small base called the Linhai Base, and there were a total of 300,000 people in the entire base, of which there were only about a thousand warriors, and the warriors had permissions that ordinary people could not enjoy.

Ye Tian's dead parents are warriors, but unfortunately he died in the wild on a mission, but even if he died, the base will give the family a certain amount of heavenly treatment, such as receiving the subsidy of the base before the age of 15, which can ensure his own life.

But once you are over 15 years old, you lose your allowance.

Ye Tian has reached the age of 15, so he has lost the subsidy, only his sister Ye Yu has the subsidy, but can only support one person.

The two were young and had no way to make money at all, and even in order to save money, he and his sister Ye Yu dropped out of the school class in advance.

At the coastal base, as long as you are nine years old, you can go to school until you are fifteen years old, but there is no elementary school, junior high school, or high school before the end of the world.

The things learned in the class were Chinese and mathematics and some beast knowledge, and he and Ye Yu had learned almost the same, and the impact of dropping out of school was not great.

“My parents once left an inheritance, although it is not much, but it is enough for me to live for a few years, but in the future, if there is no warrior level, if you want to make money, you can only work for others.”

Work?

That’s impossible, it’s impossible to work in this lifetime.

Becoming a warrior is the only way out in this era!

“Go shopping the streets!”

After Ye Tian made up his mind, he told his sister to let her stay at home in peace, and he went out alone.

Street.

Most of them are ordinary people, some are martial artists, and there are only a few martial artists.

These warriors exuded a powerful momentum, and if they got close, even their breathing was a little short.

Second class talent!

Second class talent!

Weak and other talents!

Second class talent!

Ye Tian walked around and found that most of the people were weak talents and inferior talents, and they had not even seen a few of the primary talents, only a few martial artists.

“It seems that in the coastal base, the primary talent is very good!”

Ye Tian frowned.

But think about it, the Linhai base is only a small base, the strongest people have heard that they are only great martial artists, and the cultivation of inferior talents to the limit is the initial stage of martial artists, and the primary talents are bound to become martial artists, and there is a little hope to become an elite martial artist, and the middle talent is to become an elite martial artist, and there is a little hope to become a great martial artist.

The great warrior at the Linhai base was already very old, and it was estimated that he was only moderately talented.

“Medium talent, at least find a medium talent to copy, I can’t get close to those martial artists, otherwise touch them, maybe they will be killed, the martial artists kill ordinary people, even if they violate the base regulations, they will be punished at most some money, there will be nothing at all, especially if I have no background, let alone no one to decide for me, so I can’t risk copying the talent of the warrior!”

“There are 300,000 people in the base, my replication talent can only check the talents of others within three meters, this distance is too small, if you check the talents of others one by one, the speed is too slow, the best way is to find someone fixedly, ask which martial artist is fast, and then go to see how his talent is, as long as there is a talent of medium or above, I will copy, I don’t believe that the great coastal base does not even have a medium talent?”

The martial practitioners are basically concentrated in the major colleges, the Linhai base has five colleges, as long as the age of 15 can go to these colleges, in addition to the first college in the sea needs primary talent or a certain relationship, other colleges have no requirements, give money can go up.

“The predecessor originally wanted to have a primary talent and then go to the first college, but now even if I have a primary talent, I don’t dare to go to the first college, the first college requires the test of talent, if I let others know the talent, if the talent becomes higher in the future, it will definitely be cut into pieces of research.” 』

Ye Tian said helplessly.

Today, he has only retired to study at other colleges.

In fact, he also had to go to the academy to study, otherwise he would not be able to learn the Forging Body Method, and the martial artist would not be able to absorb the Yuan Qi, but could only cultivate the Forging Body Method to refine the body, so as to have a thousand pounds of strength and become a martial artist.
