Chapter 1261: This Kid Is Difficult To Deal With

When he saw Chen Xi's actions, Huang Long's eyelids couldn't help but twitch before his face sank, and he stared at Chen Xi before he said in a low voice. "Fellow Daoist, aren't you going too far by wantonly beating up my subordinates?"

He'd noticed that Chen Xi was a Golden Immortal as well, and this was why he didn't launch an attack, otherwise, according to his temper, he wouldn't say at single word at all before directly charging ahead to crush Chen Xi.

Whip! Whip! Whip!

Chen Xi still didn't look at him, and the iron whip in Chen Xi's hand swept into a myriad of afterimages while swiftly whipping down fiercely in an orderly manner, and then a wave of wailing and howls resounded once more.

Huang Long's face sank when he saw this, but he was slightly anxious and fearful as well.

It was common knowledge that the Soulsmeat Mining Area was in the control of the Immortal Monarch's Estate, and it represented the dignity of the Immortal Court. In the past, no one had dared come cause trouble here.

But not only was this young man before him causing trouble, the young man didn't give him face at all. The young man's calm and composed attitude didn't seem like the young man was deliberately making a show of strength as well. This caused Huang Long to be unable to help but guess in his heart. Could it be that this young man is of great background?

When he thought up to here, he forcefully restrained the fury in his heart and said in an unhurried tone, "Fellow Daoist, please stay your hand. I don't know exactly what has occurred here, but if it's the mistake of my subordinates, then Fellow Daoist doesn't have to say anything. I'll directly punish them myself."

As soon as these words were spoken, the expressions of all the black clothed guards that were originally hoping for Huang Long to assist them turned pale, and they didn't dare believe that all powerful Lord Huang Long who commanded the wind and clouds would be so courteous to a young man.

Logically speaking, under such circumstances, any other Golden Immortal would probably give Huang Long some face. Unfortunately, Chen Xi still paid no attention to him.

This caused Huang Long to explode with rage in his heart, and he said with a low voice, "Looks like Fellow Daoist doesn't intend to give me some face today?"

"Who do you think you are? Are you even worthy of talking about that with us?" When he saw Chen Xi keeping silent, Xuanyuan Yun was unable to restrain himself, and he pointed at Huang Long while he cursed. "Not to mention you, there's nothing to talk about even if the Immortal Monarch of Misty Immortal Continent comes over. I advise you to quickly kneel down and admit your mistakes right now, otherwise don't blame me for not giving you any advice before disaster befalls you."

These words were utterly blunt, and it vividly displayed Xuanyuan Yun's pride and domineering attitude as a disciple of one of the seven great ancient clans.

But when these words entered into Huang Long's ears, he almost didn't dare believe his ears, and the corners of his mouth couldn't help but twitch while his expression instantly became extremely gloomy.

"You arrogant kid! You asked for death yourself!" Being humiliated like this caused Huang Long to be completely furious, and he disregarded everything as he slapped his palm down towards Xuanyuan Yun.

Crack!

Chen Xi's hand shook, and then the iron whip that was comparable to a Darkspirit Grade Immortal Artifact broke apart inch by inch before transforming into powder. After that, the powder swept out like the sharpest glows of light in the world. Everywhere they passed, the few hundreds of black clothes guards who were still emitting shrill cries seemed as if they were burned by blazing flames, and they instantly transformed into pile after pile of ashes!

With a single shake of his hand, he'll annihilated all of them!

At this moment, Chen Xi's figure had vanished on the spot. In the next moment, he'd arrived before Xuanyuan Yun, and his palm emanated divine radiance as it swiftly smashed onto Huang Long's approaching palm.

Bang!

Divine radiance erupted while a rain of golden light shot into the surrounding, and boundless blazing light swept through the heavens and the earth. Huang Long's figure seemed as if it was fiercely struck by a myriad of mountains and was blasted flying, and his figure smashed open an extremely terrifying narrow and long rift in space.

Pu!

Blood sprayed from Huang Long's mouth, and then he looked at Chen Xi with astonishment. "Who exactly are you?"

He was blasted flying with a single strike and suffered a great injury. This wasn't something an ordinary expert could accomplish. In these years that he'd been roaming freely through Misty Immortal Continent, only existences at the Saint Immortal Realm were capable of blasting him back so easily.

"You've spoken enough nonsense." Chen Xi finally spoke, yet his tone caused Huang Long's expression to change once more. Before Huang Long could react, Chen Xi's figure had vanished once more in his field of vision.

"You're courting death! This is the Immortal Monarch's Estate's territory. No matter how great your background is, or how formidable your combat strength is, you'll never be able to live a day of peace after offending the Immortal Monarch's Estate!" Amidst his grim shout, Huang Long's figure flashed backwards repeatedly with the intention of avoiding Chen Xi's attack.

Unfortunately, he'd underestimated Chen Xi's ability.

Right at the instant that he'd teleported away, a slender hand stretched out from space, and when it retracted, it was already holding tightly onto his neck and dragged him out like a helpless animal.

"Who exactly are you!?" Huang Long's face flushed red from being suffocated, and he struggled repeatedly yet it was in vain. He could only stare at Chen Xi with an astounded gaze, and his eyes were filled with disbelief and horror.

On the other hand, when they saw a Golden Immortal had actually been instantly grabbed by Chen Xi like a little chick, those prisoners that hadn't fled yet gasped while swallowing their saliva with great difficulty.

As for Qi Xiaoyu and Madman Liu, they'd been stunned and shocked speechless a long time ago.

They'd witnessed Chen Xi's strength earlier, yet they'd never imagined that Chen Xi was actually formidable to such an extent, and it had exceeded their imagination!

Only Xuanyuan Yun felt that this was very normal because this fellow, Chen Xi, was the number one expert amongst the new students of Dao Emperor Academy, and he'd even crushed all the top existences of the other academies in Nightmare Battlefield to pass through the inner court exam while ranked at the first. He could be considered to be peerless. Even though Huang Long could be considered as an overlord in Misty Immortal Continent, he really was nothing before Chen Xi.

It was even to the extent that Xuanyuan Yun admitted that even if he was the one that fought Huang Long, even though he wouldn't be able to accomplish it as easily as Chen Xi had, he would still be able to annihilate Huang Long in a short period of time.

This was the ability of the students of Dao Emperor Academy. Because there were too many genius experts in the academy, their talents couldn't stand out, yet if it was in the outside world, all of them were existences that could be considered as little freaks.

Thump!

Chen Xi smashed Huang Long on the ground as if he was throwing down a bag of trash, and then he looked down at Huang Long and said, "Who I am isn't important. But you definitely won't live to see another day. I'll give you a chance to call for assistance."

As soon as he finished speaking, Chen Xi didn't speak any further.

This fellow really is completely infuriated today... Xuanyuan Yun was astounded in his heart because he'd never seen this mad side of Chen Xi's.

On the other hand, the others were shocked by these words to the point tempestuous waves surged in their hearts. Who exactly is this young man? Could it be that he's really unafraid of the Immortal Monarch's Estate's authority? Only Liu Jianheng revealed a worried expression. Even though he'd found out from Xuanyuan Yun early on that Chen Xi wasn't afraid of the Immortal Monarch's Estate, at this moment, he still couldn't help but be slightly worried that Huang Long would seize this opportunity to call the Immortal Monarch over because that would be troublesome.

However, he didn't speak up to persuade Chen Xi. He was very confident that this disciple of his wasn't a person that would rashly disregard everything.

“Alright! You asked for it!” Huang Long crawled up from the ground with a dusty and dirty appearance. Originally, he thought that he would definitely die, yet never had he imagined that Chen Xi would actually allow him to call for help. For a time, his spirits were refreshed, and he didn’t dare hesitate at all to instantly execute a secret technique and seek assistance.

After he finished doing all of this, he still felt slightly anxious and fearful because he was worried Chen Xi would go back on his word. However, even until the end, Chen Xi didn’t do anything, and this allowed him to heave a sigh of relief in his heart, yet he couldn’t help but be anxious and fearful in his heart. Could it be that this young man really isn’t afraid of the Immortal Monarch’s Estate?

No matter how anxious and fearful Huang Long was, Chen Xi kept silent and stood silently in midair.

At this moment, time actually seemed to be moving extremely slowly. To Huang Long, it was even like torture, and every single second felt like a year to him as he was worried at all times that Chen Xi would suddenly launch an attack against him.

While under this extreme pressure, ten minutes passed before Huang Long’s help finally arrived!

Om! Om! Om!

Along with intense fluctuations of space, three figures that were suffused in golden light appeared out of thin air. Surprisingly, they were three Golden Immortals. As soon as they appeared, their terrifying pressure enveloped the entire heavens and the earth.

“Daoist Brothers Nan Zhen, Zhou Heng, and Wan Kun, quickly save me!” Huang Long couldn’t restrain the excitement in his heart when he saw this, and he shouted loudly. Obviously, these three people were experts from the Immortal Monarch’s Estate.

“What happened?”

“Dammit! Someone actually dared to cause trouble in the territory of our Immortal Monarch’s Estate?”

The three Golden Immortal swept the surroundings that was in a mess with their gazes, and they instantly understood everything. In the next moment, they swept their icy cold gazes towards Chen Xi in unison.

On the other hand, Chen Xi frowned instead and glanced at Huang Long with indifference before he said calmly, “Just these three? If it’s like this, you won’t be able to live for another moment.”

“How presumptuous! Don’t you dare act arrogantly!” An extremely mighty Golden Immortal with a beard that was like a lion’s mane shouted loudly, and he held a violet colored blade that was the size of a door as he slashed down towards Chen Xi.

Swoosh!

The violet blade light swept down like a waterfall as it tore through the sky, and it was suffused with violent Golden Immortal Laws as it moved with a peerlessly shocking impetus.

Clang!

However, Chen Xi only casually stretched out two fingers against this attack before casually stabbing with them to shatter the blade light into powder. His fingers then pressed down together to instantly clamp onto the violet colored blade that was slashing down, causing it to be unable to move another inch!

“This kid is troublesome! Let’s attack together!” The extremely mighty Golden Immortal’s pupils constricted before he suddenly let out a long and grim howl, and then he utilized his entire strength with the intention of breaking Chen Xi’s fingers.

Clang!

Chen Xi didn’t give him the chance to succeed, and his fingers light struck and flicked the blade.

Instantly, a terrifying force moved along the blade and instantly surged into the Golden Immortal’s body, and it shook his entire body to the point of shivering. It was like he’d been struck fiercely by the sledgehammer of a god, and the violet blade flew off from his grasp. Moreover, he suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood while his aura plummeted, and his body was blasted down from midair like a sandbag.

Rumble!

At this moment, all the Golden Immortals including Huang Long charged towards Chen Xi, and all of them exerted their entire cultivations, causing their attacks to seem like tempestuous waves that were ruthless, merciless, and terrifying.

At any normal time, three Golden Immortals were sufficient to crush any Golden Immortal, but the target they’d chosen this time was wrong, so they were bound to make mistakes in their attacks.

Swoosh!

They felt something flash before their eyes before they lost track of Chen Xi’s figure. Before they could make any reaction, every one of them felt an extremely terrifying and deep force smash onto their bodies. They seemed as if they trampled on by a group of wild horses as countless bones in their entire bodies were broken while blood sprayed from their entire body, and it hurt to the point they couldn’t restrain themselves from emitting shrill cries.

All of this had merely occurred in less than the time for a single breath, yet the outcome was already decided!

Chapter 1262: A Saint Immortal Arrives

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The three heavily injured Golden Immortals were smashed down from midair like sandbags, causing dust and dirt to suffuse the air while shrill cries resounded without end. They were unable to crawl up again and were in an extremely miserable state.

A moment ago, they seemed awe-inspiring as they teleported over through space, yet an instant later, they’d collapsed on the ground like dead animals while endlessly crying in pain. When these two moments were compared, it created an unparalleled visual impact that caused everyone present to be stunned on the spot with their mouths wide open in shock.

This was too shocking, and it was unbelievable.

After all, these were four Golden Immortals from the Immortal Monarch's Estate. Every single one of them was a renowned figure in Misty Immortal Continent, yet now, they'd lost at Chen Xi's hands in a few moments!

"Who...who're you?" Huang Long and the others were terrified. As Golden Immortals, they were naturally clearly aware that since the young man was able to defeat them so easily, the young man definitely had an extraordinary background.

However, no matter how they wracked their brains, they were unable to figure out when such a terrifying figure had appeared in Misty Immortal Continent!

"Who I am isn't important. The important thing is that all of you've...offended my Master." Chen Xi stopped in midair as he looked down indifferently at Huang Long and the others, and he pointed towards the Madman Liu.

Master?

The gazes of Huang Long and the others descended onto Madman Liu. As they looked at that shriveled and haggard body that was in ragged clothes and covered in scars...their expressions instantly became extremely unsightly.

Who could have imagined that a lowly forsaker of the heavens confined like a prisoner here would actually possess a disciple at the Golden Immortal Realm?

It wasn't just Huang Long and the other Golden Immortals, even those forsakers of the heavens that hadn't fled yet were completely stunned because it was shocking to the point that they didn't dare believe their ears.

"How...how could this be possible! He's only a forsaker of the heavens. How could he possibly..." Huang Long was dumbstruck. His pupils had dilated while he still revealed an expression of disbelief.

The others were the same as well.

It couldn't be helped, the contrast was just too great. In the entire Immortal Dimension, no one had seen a disciple whose cultivation and combat strength actually surpassed his master by more than a realm!

This sort of astounded gazes didn't give Chen Xi any sense of accomplishment at all. Conversely, he recalled Madman Liu's bitter and miserable encounter.

All those years ago, if it wasn't for the sake of rescuing him in the Primeval Battlefield, how could Madman Liu have possibly been exposed as a forsaker of the heavens by Bing Shitian and be forcefully drawn into the Immortal Dimension?

If he hadn't been forcefully drawn into the Immortal Dimension, then how could Madman Liu have possibly suffered such bitter and miserable hardships?

Presently, Madman Liu's cultivation is indeed greatly inferior to me while he's even a prisoner. Moreover, the situation he's in is one where he's unable to see the light of day and is utterly miserable. Yet wasn't all of this because of me?

The more he thought like this, the more vexed and guilty Chen Xi felt. His eyes that were deep like an abyss surged with a wisp of pain...and killing intent that couldn't be restrained.

When the heavens emanated killing intent, the stars were moved; when the earth emanated killing intent, dragons rose from the ground; when man emanated killing intent, the heavens and the earth were overturned... When Immortals emanated killing intent, everything fell into oblivion!

At this instant, a terrifying killing intent erupted and enveloped this entire expanse of the heavens and the earth. It caused space to be shattered into pieces while it pressured Huang Long and the others to the point their countenances instantly went pale. Even breathing felt difficult to them while every single inch of their skin felt as if it was sliced by sharp blades, and a strand of indescribable terror and despair surged from their hearts.

"No!"

"Don't kill us. We didn't know anything about this at all. If we did, then we would absolutely not dare touch a hair on your Master no matter how bold we were!"

"My Lord, My Lord, please be merciful and spare us this time..."

Under the pressure of death, Huang Long and the other Golden Immortals disregarded their pride and knelt down while begging for mercy. At this moment, they were no different than those people that were cowardly and afraid of death.

This indirectly proved the saying that the greater a person was, the more fearful that person would be in the face of death, whereas a nobody would normally dare to suffer disaster in order to drag the Emperor down from his horse.

Besides feeling enjoyment from watching this scene, a wisp of dense ridicule couldn't help but suffuse the corners of Madman Liu's mouth. This is what Golden Immortals are? Haha...

"I've said it earlier, once some mistakes are made, then they can't be forgiven." An indifferent voice was lightly emanated from Chen Xi's mouth, and it was like giving them the death penalty.

The expressions of Huang Long and the others turned pale. Before they could beg for mercy once more, Chen Xi raised his hand as a terrifying force effused out from his body, and it caused Huang Long and the others to even be unable to speak a single word.

At this moment, their expressions changed repeatedly as they struggled with all their might, yet they were like people drowning and on the verge of death, it was completely in vain and powerless.

Bang!

Chen Xi's palm stretched out while carrying divine radiance on his fingers, and it was like the hand of the heavens was smashing down.

Swish!

However, right at this moment, space suddenly trembled like a rag was being torn apart, and a mighty figure appeared.

He had dense brows, wide eyes, and a dignified appearance. He wore a dark violet colored robe embroidered with a python, and every single move he made emanated a divine aura while naturally emanating a lofty and immovable imposing aura.

Chen Xi frowned, yet he withdrew the might of his palm that was descending. It couldn't be helped, this middle aged man just happened to be standing between him and Huang Long's group.

Most importantly, Chen Xi was able to clearly sense that this middle aged man who'd appeared abruptly was obviously a Saint Immortal Realm expert, and the vital energy within the middle aged man's entire body had a lofty and saintly aura.

The appearance of this middle aged man caused everyone present here to be stunned. Especially Huang Long and the others, their originally despaired and helpless eyes suddenly emanated a wisp of blazing light when they saw him make an appearance.

"Lord Feng!"

"Lord Feng, save us!"

They shouted while feeling overjoyed, and they were excited to the point their entire bodies trembled. They saw a trace of hope descending from the heavens while covered in the shadow of death, so it was impossible for them or anyone else in their situation to maintain their calm.

Obviously, this middle aged man was the master of the Immortal Monarch's Estate in Misty Immortal Continent, Feng Yanshan, an overlord at the Saint Immortal Realm.

On the other hand, the expressions of Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu turned pale while Xuanyuan Yun's brows raised, and only Chen Xi's expression was calm as before.

However, to the surprise of everyone present here, Feng Yanshan's expression was extremely gloomy upon arriving here, and he didn't even conceal his rage at all. He seemed like an infuriated ferocious beast. However, his gaze had descended onto Huang Long and the others instead...

Moreover, everyone was even more greatly surprised when Feng Yanshan didn't say a single word before stretching out his palm and smashing it down fiercely at Huang Long and the others.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

The might of a Saint Immortal was terrifying. In an instant, a palm print formed from blazing radiance descended like the autumn wind sweeping away dry leaves as it struck repeatedly onto Huang Long and the others. It caused them to roll on the ground like gourds while emanating shrill cries and coughing up blood repeatedly, and their injuries became even more severe.

"Lord Feng! You...you..."

"Why? Why?"

"AH!!!"

Huang Long and the others were completely dazed. Never had they imagined that their Lord would actually make a move against them, and this caused the trace of hope that had just arisen in their hearts to be instantly obliterated. They felt both frustration and despair, and they were on the very edge of collapse.

It wasn't just them, even Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu were dumbstruck. They almost didn't dare believe their eyes because this scene was simply too absurd and bizarre!

Only Chen Xi and Xuanyuan Yun seemed to have understood something, and they exchanged glances before maintaining silence.

After a short while, Huang Long and the others had been struck to the point white froth sprayed from their mouth, and they were on death's door. Only then did Feng Yanshan stop angrily, and he still cursed. "A group of stupid trash that have eyes but fail to see! All of you simply deserve to be cut into pieces!"

After he finished doing all of this, he turned around and looked at Chen Xi and Xuanyuan Yun while his attitude had changed completely at the instant he turned around.

His cold and murderous appearance was completely replaced by an extremely warm and amiable smile, and it was even to the extent that it carried a trace of indistinct modesty!

This sudden scene caused Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu to be flabbergasted once more. Is this...still that Lord Immortal Monarch that possessed a saintly imposing aura that was lofty like a mountain just moments ago?

"I'm Feng Yanshan, it's a pleasure to meet both of you." Feng Yanshan cupped his hands while his face was covered in a smile, and his tone was even extremely polite.

"You've recognized us?" Xuanyuan Yun frowned as he spoke, and then he shut his mouth because he felt his question was a bit unnecessary.

"Haha! One of you is an outstanding disciple of the ancient Xuanyuan Clan while the other is the first amongst the new students in Dao Emperor Academy. Even though I've been living in Misty Immortal Continent for a long time and have shut myself away from the world, both your great names are like thunder that reverberates in my ears."

Sure enough, Feng Yanshan calmly admitted this.

The ancient Xuanyuan Clan? The first amongst the new students in Dao Emperor Academy?

The figures of Huang Long and the others who lay on the ground while on the verge of death froze upon hearing this, and they had ashen expressions while the bitterness and regret in their hearts had risen to the extreme. They'd finally understood the identity of their opponents and why they lost so terribly today...

On the other hand, Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu seemed to be greatly confused when they heard this. They'd been confined in Soulmelt Mining Area all along and were unable to come into contact with information from the outside world, so they were naturally unaware of the monstrous authority that the ancient Xuanyuan Clan and Dao Emperor Academy represented.

But even though they were unaware, when they saw that even an Immortal Monarch revealed such an amiable and even modest attitude when facing Chen Xi and Xuanyuan Yun, they were roughly able to sense what it meant. For a time, besides sighing with emotion in their hearts, they couldn't help but feel curious. Exactly what sort of shocking favorable turns in life has Chen Xi experienced in these past few years within the Immortal Dimension?

Feng Yanshan spoke politely, yet Xuanyuan Yun didn't appreciate it, and he frowned as he said coldly, "What an excuse! You think you can cast aside all your responsibility with just that?"

Madman Liu was horrified when he heard this, yet to his astonishment, Feng Yanshan actually didn't mind at all, and his smile actually grew wider as he cupped his hands repeatedly in an apologetic manner. "Little Brother Xuanyuan, please calm your rage. I was really unaware of this matter. However, I won't evade the responsibility that I should bear."

"Alright, you're pretty responsible. However, you're mistaken something. Chen Xi isn't just the first amongst the new students now, he just obtained the first in the inner court exam to become an inner court student." Xuanyuan Yun grunted coldly and glanced at Chen Xi.

The first in the inner court exam!

Feng Yanshan was greatly shocked in his heart while he gasped without end. He was well aware what the inner court of Dao Emperor Academy meant, yet Chen Xi had actually entered it as the first in the exam, and this obviously showed how heaven defying and shocking Chen Xi's natural talent was.

Moreover, such a figure would definitely be the center of attention for the extraordinary figures in Dao Emperor Academy!

These idiots! Why did they offend such an influential figure!? At this moment, Feng Yanshan wished for nothing more than to swing his palm and crush Huang Long and the others.

Chapter 1263: Shocking Secre

Even though he wished for nothing more than to kill Huang Long and the others, Feng Yanshan's expression didn't change on the surface.

Especially when he heard that Chen Xi had passed the inner court exam while taking the first position in it, the smile on his face became even warmer like a daisy that bloomed wildly beneath the raging wind.

Chen Xi couldn't help but frown when he saw this, and he said, "Immortal Monarch Feng, I'll get straight to the point. I only want an explanation, and if I'm dissatisfied by it, then I'll give you one instead."

Feng Yanshan's heart jerked when he heard such direct words, yet he sighed instead and said, "Little Brother Chen Xi, to tell you the truth, I've always lived in seclusion and shut myself from the outside world, whereas the Soulsmeat Mining Area has always been managed by my subordinate, Huang Long. If I knew all of this earlier, how could I have dared to detain your Master here?"

He was telling the truth. At any rate, Feng Yanshan was the Monarch of a continent that possessed monstrous authority, so how could he have placed his attention on an unimportant place like the Soulsmeat Mining Area?

But Chen Xi wasn't satisfied, and he said directly, "Since it's like this, then please continue staying out of these matters and allow me to deal with these people, alright?"

Feng Yanshan's expression turned slightly grim, and then he smiled bitterly as he cupped his hands and said, "Little Brother Chen Xi, please show mercy. There are only four Golden Immortal Realm commanders under my command. Moreover, some of them weren't aware of the situation. So if they're implicated just like this, then I'm afraid..."

Chen Xi sneered in his heart and interrupted. "Then what does Immortal Monarch Feng intend to do?"

Feng Yanshan's expression instantly turned solemn, and then he turned to look at Huang Long who was on the ground before he said in a low voice, "Huang Long, I need an explanation from you!"

His voice carried a wisp of a murderous tone. He could submit before Chen Xi, yet he was unable to tolerate his own subordinates bringing such a disaster to him.

If he hasn't rushed over in time, then these two students of Dao Emperor Academy would have almost turned their hatred onto his Immortal Monarch's Estate as well, and he was absolutely unable to accept such a consequence.

Huang Long raised his head and said with a trembling voice, "My Lord, I've always acted according to your instructions, and I've never deceived you."

Slap!

Feng Yanshan waved his hand and slapped Huang Long heavily from afar. He seemed to be cold and merciless as he said, "If you still remain stubborn, then don't blame me for punishing you!"

Huang Long let out a shrill cry while his entire body shivered from intense pain, yet he gritted his teeth tightly and was unwilling to speak.

"There's no need to ask him. He was put up to this by Misty Immortal Mountain." Suddenly, Madman Liu spoke and revealed everything.

Misty Immortal Mountain? A bright light flashed in Feng Yanshan's eyes while the gaze he shot at Huang Long was icy cold and indifferent, and it didn't have the slightest emotion as he said, "As a commander of the Immortal Monarch's Estate, you colluded with Misty Immortal Mountain in secret? How audacious!"

His voice hadn't finished resounding through the air when a bang resounded. Huang Long didn't even have the chance to react before his head exploded while blood and brain sprayed into the surroundings and dyed the sky red with blood.

The other three heavily injured Golden Immortals were horrified when they saw this.

"Hmph! He deserved death!" Feng Yanshan remained cold and indifferent instead, and he revealed an awe-inspiring appearance of righteousness and hating evil.

Chen Xi raised his eyes and glanced at Feng Yanshan when he saw this scene, and then he didn't say a single word before leading Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu away with the intention of leaving.

Xuanyuan Yun was stunned, and then he hurriedly chased up to Chen Xi and the others. "You're letting them off just like that?"

Chen Xi replied calmly. "Let's go. We've killed enough people today."

Feng Yanshan let out a long sigh of relief when he saw this, and then he caught up to Chen Xi as well before he revealed a benign smile and said, "Little Brother Chen Xi, please feel free to let me know if you're displeased with how I handled the matter."

Chen Xi said indifferently, "I really admire Immortal Monarch Feng for placing righteousness above your own relationships."

Feng Yanshan frowned imperceptibly before he roared with laughter and said, "But no matter what, it was the negligence of my Immortal Monarch's Estate that is to blame for this matter. Why don't you allow me to hold a banquet in order to apologize for the offence? Please don't refuse."

"There's no need." Chen Xi waved his hand and said, "I appreciate your kindness, but I have important matters to attend to, so I won't disturb Immortal Monarch Feng any longer."

As soon as he finished speaking, his figure flashed as he teleported away with Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu.

"Hmph! All of you got easily this time!" Xuanyuan Yun glanced at Feng Yanshan before he flicked his sleeve and left.

"The youngsters these days are getting more and more extraordinary." After he watched Chen Xi and the others leave, the smile on Feng Yanshan's face gradually vanished, and he became cold and indifferent.

The three Golden Immortals crawled up from the ground and arrived by Feng Yanshan's side before one of them asked in a low voice. "My Lord, Huang Long..."

"Hmph! He deserved death!" A wisp of a vicious aura surged onto the space between Feng Yanshan's brows when Huang Long's name was mentioned. "He almost got me killed. What's the point of keeping such a traitor by my side?"

All the others were silent like cicadas in the winter.

"After all of you recuperate, go investigate exactly what Misty Immortal Mountain wanted Huang Long to do. Remember, don't alarm them. Even though Misty Immortal Mountain is far less terrifying than Dao Emperor Academy, it has existed for a very long time, and it can be traced back to the primeval times..." Feng Yanshan rubbed his chin and seemed to be lost in thought. "Most importantly, Misty Immortal Mountain's background is extremely strange. Even the Central Immortal Court isn't clearly aware of its background, and rumors say that it's related to one of the three great sects of the three dimensions, the..."

His voice ceased abruptly when he spoke up to here, and he went silent. He seemed to not dare casually mention the name of that sect.

Swoosh!

Space fluctuated while two figures flickered repeatedly within it.

"Brother Xuanyuan, do you know of Misty Immortal Mountain's background?" As they traveled, Chen Xi pondered deeply for a long time before he asked abruptly.

Xuanyuan Yun seemed to be utterly unsurprised, and he said with a smile, "I knew you would ask this question."

When he spoke up to here, he withdrew a jade slip and passed it over before he said, "This is the information I obtained from those friends of mine after we arrived at Wind Indulgence City. The information about Misty Immortal Mountain is within it."

Chen Xi was stunned, and he glanced at Xuanyuan Yun with surprise.

"There's no need to be surprised. Even though I don't like to be known as the disciple of a great clan, I'm able to obtain many unexpected things by relying on the name of the Xuanyuan Clan. For example...information." Xuanyuan Yun laughed with self-ridicule.

Chen Xi smiled as well, and then he went silent as he started to look through the jade slip.

There were 4,900 continents in the Immortal Dimension, whereas even though Misty Immortal Continent couldn't compare in reputation to the four great continents, it wasn't much inferior, and the reason was Misty Immortal Mountain.

It was an ancient sect whose origins could be traced back to the primeval times. In the history of the sect, more than one Immortal King had been born from within it. Unfortunately, in the recent tens of thousands of years, Misty Immortal Mountain's forces were in a gradual decline, and they'd lost their former glory.

But a lean camel was bigger than a horse. Even though Misty Immortal Mountain could be considered as a first-rate power in the Immortal Dimension, yet while it stood within Misty Immortal Continent, it was like a unique power that couldn't be compared to by any other power.

Especially in the last few hundreds of years, numerous experts had suddenly set out from Misty Immortal Mountain, and they trespassed into the Nine Radiance Sword Sect before annihilating it overnight. This incident caused a mighty uproar in the Immortal Dimension.

After all, the Nine Radiance Sword Sect was an ancient sect that was even considered to possess greater resources and reserves than Misty Immortal Mountain. But it was precisely a formidable sect like this that was annihilated overnight, and it was truly shocking.

It was that exact battle that caused Misty Immortal Mountain to rise to fame, and no one dared underestimate this ancient sect that had fallen into a decline any longer.

According to the information on the jade slip, Misty Immortal Mountain presently possessed no less than ten Saint Immortal Realm experts. As for whether it possessed experts at the Half-step Immortal King residing within it, no one dared to be sure.

So, it really was Misty Immortal Mountain that annihilated Nine Radiance Sword Sect in the Immortal Dimension... Chen Xi let out a long sigh when he finished looking through the jade slip, yet he inadvertently thought of Dao Lotus and Evil Lotus that had left the 99th level of the sword cave.

Evil Lotus had ascended into the Immortal Dimension after leaving all those years ago, and he'd said that he intended to kill the enemies that schemed against the Chaotic Divine Lotus all those years ago. Unfortunately, Chen Xi still hadn't heard any information about Evil Lotus until now.

Chen Xi still remembered that when Evil Lotus left all those years ago, Evil Lotus had once said that when a lotus flower appeared on the Dao Calamity Sword, then it meant that Evil Lotus had perished...

Of course, the Dao Calamity Sword still remained as it was in the past and a lotus flower pattern hadn't appeared atop it, so it proved that Evil Lotus was at least still alive.

"Chen Xi, according to the information I obtained, there something strange about Misty Immortal Mountain. It seems...it seems to be greatly related to one of the supreme sects of the three dimensions, the Sovereign Sect." Suddenly, Xuanyuan Yun revealed a shocking secret.

The Sovereign Sect! Chen Xi's eyes narrowed. Since a long time ago, he was aware that there were three supreme sects in the three dimensions. One was Oracle Mountain, the second was Nuwa's Dao Palace, and as for the third, he only knew it existed, yet didn't know its name.

The reason was that amongst the people he knew, no matter if it was his Little Senior Sister, Li Yang, or the tiny cauldron, they'd never mentioned its name.

"The Sovereign Sect is extremely mysterious, and just like Oracle Mountain and Nuwa's Dao Palace, it's a supreme existence in the three dimensions. Even I've only heard the seniors of my clan talking about it occasionally, and I know very little about it. However, the Sovereign Sect is undoubtedly formidable, unbelievably formidable. Even if others know its name, practically no one dares to mention it casually." Xuanyuan Yun had a solemn expression, and he lowered his voice while speaking to Chen Xi via voice transmission.

"I understand." Chen Xi nodded, yet he didn't think there was anything to feel fearful of. After all, he was a disciple of one of the three supreme sects, Oracle Mountain, so he naturally wouldn't feel that the Sovereign Sect was mysterious and terrifying.

However, Xuanyuan Yun's words still caused his heart to feel very heavy. The Nine Radiance Sword Sect was annihilated by Misty Immortal Mountain, whereas Misty Immortal Mountain was related to the Sovereign Sect. Could it be that the enemy who schemed against the Nine Radiance Sword Sect's founding ancestor, the Chaotic Divine Lotus, came from the Sovereign Sect? If it's really like this, then Evil Lotus is in danger. It's one of the three great sects after all, so how could Evil Lotus be a match for it by himself? Moreover, why did Misty Immortal Mountain instruct Huang Long to continue detaining and oppressing my Master, Liu Jianheng? What did they intend to obtain from him?

Chen Xi took a deep breath and restrained the chaotic thoughts in his mind, and his gaze recovered its calm. No matter what, it was best to think about it after he returned to the academy because at that time, he might be able to find out the truth from Liu Jianheng.

Chapter 1264: The Influence Of His Reputation

Valiant Star Continent.

Darkombat City.

Om~

A strand of fluctuation arose from the teleportation formation, and when it was activated once more, a group of cultivators had surged out from within it. Amongst them was Chen Xi, Xuanyuan Yun, Madman Liu, and Qi Xiaoyu.

Only a day had passed since they returned from Misty Immortal Continent and arrived at Darkombat City, yet it was like a cycle of great happiness and sorrow to Chen Xi.

Getting his Master, Madman Liu, caused him to be extremely delighted, yet witnessing the agonizing experience Madman Liu had suffered all these years caused him to be aggrieved and furious.

This was Chen Xi's great sorrow and great happiness. Actually, with his cultivation in the Dao Heart, he was entirely capable of controlling his emotions. But he didn't do so.

No matter if it was a man or an immortal, they were absolutely not cold and emotionless. If they lost their emotions, then they would be no different than a walking corpse or puppet, then how would they cultivate? How would they comprehend the Dao?

As the place where Dao Emperor Academy resided, countless experts were attracted over to Darkombat City from all over the Immortal Dimension every single day. In terms of scale and prosperity, it was absolutely impossible for other cities to compare to it.

Today, Darkombat City was bustling and prosperous as usual.

As they walked amongst the streams of wagons and crowded streets, as they gazed at the experts of various different races and origins in the Immortal Dimension, and as they felt the air that was enshrouded with dense Immortal Energy, no matter if it was Madman Liu or Qi Xiaoyu, their eyes were wide open while they had extremely dazed expressions as they exclaimed endlessly with shock.

To Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu that had always been confined within the dark Souls melt Mining Area as prisoners, everything before them was like a dreamlike place of prosperity, and it was the true Immortal Dimension!

As he watched Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu follow by his side while carrying dazed and shocked expressions, Chen Xi was able to faintly notice their slight fear towards this prosperous place, and they were like bumpkins that had entered into a bustling city for the first time...

All of this caused Chen Xi to feel sad, and it hurt in his heart.

From today onward, I absolutely can't allow them to suffer again! Chen Xi took a deep breath and puckered his lips. He didn't say anything and just decided silently in his heart.

Not long after, Xuanyuan Yun bid his farewell and left to arrange a place for Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu to stay.

The reason was that Dao Emperor Academy prohibited outsiders from entering it. Even though Chen Xi had brought Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu back with him, in consideration of their safety, he had to find a safe place for them to reside in.

The Xuanyuan Clan had a branch in Darkombat City, and if he was able to arrange for Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu to reside in the Xuanyuan Clan's territory, then it would undoubtedly be the safest.

After all, it was the territory of one of the seven great ancient clans, the Xuanyuan Clan. Even if the members of Misty Immortal Mountain were to pursue Madman Liu here, they wouldn't dare take a single step into the Xuanyuan Clan's territory.

Chen Xi wasn't in a rush to return to the academy, and he brought Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu around Darkombat City.

He was very clearly aware that he had too many things to deal with. So no matter how unbearable it felt to leave them behind, he had no choice but to spend a great deal of time on his cultivation. In this way, the chances he would have to meet Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu would undoubtedly be extremely rare.

So he intended to seize this opportunity and accompany them for some time while disregarding everything else.

But before long, Chen Xi acutely noticed that Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu's expression were slightly ill at ease. He swept his gaze towards the surroundings and instantly understood everything.

It turned out that Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu's clothes were too shabby, and every single move they made caused them to seem like bumpkins who'd entered a city. They seemed to be too fearful and reserved, and it drew strange gazes and the attention from many people who passed by.

It was even to the extent that some bad mouthed people even didn't conceal their disdain and ridiculed them.

"An emaciated geezer at the initial-stage of the Heavenly Immortal Realm bringing along a little girl at the Earthly Immortal Realm. I wonder which village they came from. It really is a rare sight in Darkombat City where everyone is either rich or noble. Haha!"

Chen Xi had just become aware of the situation and didn't even have the time to react when a voice of ridicule sounded out from the side of the street.

It was a woman in luxurious clothes. She wore a belt made of jade rings, had a precious hairpin in her hair, and she was even waving a feathered fan that glowed with the aura of a treasure. She had an arrogant bearing and was like a female peacock with its feathers spread wide.

However, at this moment, the ridicule on the corners of her mouth caused her to seem mean.

Chen Xi frowned and glanced over with an icy cold gaze.

"What're you looking at? You're displeased? Since you're with that geezer and little girl, you're obviously trash as well." The woman noticed Chen Xi looking over, causing her brows to be instantly raised before she raised her chin and spoke with disdain.

Slap!

Before her voice could finish resounding through the air, Chen Xi slapped her on the face from afar. It struck her to the point the hairpin fell from her head while her hair became disheveled, and the left side of her snow white cheeks swelled up. She fell to the ground and let out a shrill and miserable cry.

"You...actually dared to hit me?" The woman held onto her face and seemed to not dare believe that someone actually dared to raise a hand against her, and then she cried out with fear and rage. "You lowly ant. All of you'll..."

Her voice stopped abruptly because a hand was holding tightly onto her snow white neck, causing her face to flush red, yet no matter how she struggled, she was unable to arouse even a trace of strength.

"Speak another word and I'll kill you!" Chen Xi spoke while his deep black eyes surged with bone piercing coldness.

The woman originally intended to continue mouthing off, yet when her gaze inadvertently met Chen Xi's icy cold eyes, it was as if a bucket of cold water had been poured on her, and her entire body surged with coldness as if she'd fallen into an icy pit while she was actually terrified to the point of being stunned on the spot.

"Fellow Daoist, please show mercy!" Meanwhile, a few young men in luxurious clothes rushed over swiftly, and all of them were shocked when they saw this scene. One of them who wore an embroidered robe hurriedly cupped his hands and said, "My cousin sister was having a bad day today, so it's unavoidable that her words temper is slightly fiery. Please do forgive her."

"So she can vent her anger on others just because she's having a bad day?" Chen Xi spoke coldly.

"What? We've already apologized to you. Could it be that you still intend to take a yard after being given an inch? Do you really think you're some great figure? You should go find out if you can afford to offend our Zuoqiu Clan!" Another green robed round man grunted coldly and spoke with displeasure.

"The Zuoqiu Clan?" A wisp of a piercingly cold smile appeared on the corners of Chen Xi's mouth, and it caused him to seem even more icy cold and indifferent.

"Exactly. Do you understand now? Quickly let go off Cousin Sister Yuyan and apologize for your offence, and then the we'll let this matter go. Otherwise... Hmph!" The green robed young man crossed his arms before his chest and glanced proudly at Chen Xi while grunting coldly without end.

"Xi'er, let's go. Don't cause trouble." Meanwhile, Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu came over and glanced at Chen Xi with worry because they were able to discern from their luxurious clothes and conversation that these people probably had great backgrounds.

Even if they were clearly aware that Chen Xi was helping them vent their anger, Madman Liu wasn't willing to see Chen Xi offend such a power because of some ridiculing words.

However, Madman Liu had never imagined that when he spoke like this, it caused all of them to become even more arrogant. Even the woman whose neck was held by Chen Xi raised her head high while her eyes revealed a wisp of resentment and ruthlessness.

Chen Xi sighed in his heart. All those years ago, Madman Liu's temper was so wild and unrestrained, and he took revenge for all enmity. Yet after experiencing the hardships in the Souls melt Mining Area, the lofty aspirations in his heart seemed to have been ground away. This caused Chen Xi to feel extremely sad in his heart.

"Friend, have you made up your mind or not? If you continue delaying, then the consequences will probably become even worse for you!" When he saw Chen Xi remaining silent, the green robed young man was even more complacent, and even if tone became oppressive.

"Is this a threat?" asked Chen Xi.

The green robed young man didn't hesitate to reply. "Hmph! You can take it like that."

However, his companions by his side were slightly stunned because they faintly felt a trace of uneasiness upon hearing Chen Xi's words.

Slap! Slap! Slap! Slap!

At this instant, Chen Xi didn't speak another word nor did he seem to have made a single move. However, a few tens of clear and resounding slaps resounded from the face of that woman called 'Cousin Sister Yuyan.' He struck her to the point her pretty face was swollen like the head of a pig, and it was extraordinarily ugly and unsightly.

Her sharp and miserable cries resounded at this instant as well.

They were on the bustling streets of Darkombat City where streams of people moved about. After this scene occurred, it instantly drew the attention of numerous gazes from the vicinity.

On the other hand, the expressions of those young men from the Zuoqiu Clan instantly became gloomy while they didn't conceal their killing intent at all because the young man before them was simply too arrogant and really didn't know what was good for him!

However, before they could flare up, a wave of exclams of surprise resounded.

"Chen Xi?"

"Senior Brother Chen Xi! It's you!"

"What? That young man is Chen Xi? I heard that he just entered the inner court while holding the first position in the inner court exam. I never expected that I would actually be able to see him here."

"My god! Who're those fellows? They're so stupid to actually offend Chen Xi on Dao Emperor Academy's territory. Aren't they just courting death?"

The crowd bustled. There were numerous outer court students from Dao Emperor Academy within the crowd, and when they recognized Chen Xi, they cried out with pleasant surprise while their expressions couldn't help but reveal fervor and respect.

On the other hand, those who didn't recognize Chen Xi started exclaiming in surprise in succession when they heard the handsome young man before their eyes was the renowned number one expert amongst the new students in Dao Emperor Academy.

Thus, Madman Liu finally understood that Chen Xi wasn't that young man he had to protect all those years ago any longer. He...was already a renowned and influential figure in the Immortal Dimension!

So this little fellow has already grown to a state where I don't have to worry about him... Madman Liu sighed with emotion in his heart, and he gratified from the bottom of his heart.

Compared to Madman Liu, the disciples of the Zuoqiu Clan were dumbstruck on the spot, and they were scared out of their wits. I...actually offended this maleficent existence today!?

On the other hand, the woman was terrified to the point her entire body shivered, and she almost wet herself. As a disciple of the Zuoqiu Clan, how could she have not heard of Chen Xi's name?

After all, many disciples from their Zuoqiu Clan had fallen at Chen Xi's hands!

Talisman Emperor

Chapter 1265: Clearance

Two years ago, when Chen Xi participated in the second round of the recruitment test in Dao Emperor Academy, he'd once killed numerous disciples of the Zuoqiu Clan within the Bloodlands.

After he entered Dao Emperor Academy, Chen Xi had successfully resolved every single action Zuoqiu Jun took against him. Not only was it unable to cause any material harm to Chen Xi, it instead indirectly boosted Chen Xi's status and reputation in the academy.

Moreover, in the recent inner court exam, the Zuoqiu Clan had secretly carried out the greatest hunting operation even and it could even be considered an unprecedented extravagance because it was carried out by an expert at the Half-step Immortal King Realm. Unfortunately, it still failed on the verge of success.

Perhaps others weren't aware of all of this, but all of these disciples of the Zuoqiu Clan were naturally clearly aware. At this moment, when they found out that they'd actually offended this maleficent existence, Chen Xi, all of them were terrified to the point their souls almost left their bodies.

Indeed, they were disciples of the Zuoqiu Clan, but they weren't even able to pass the test and enter Dao Emperor Academy, whereas their status in the clan couldn't be compared to core disciples like Zuoqiu Jun and Zuoqiu Yin, so how could they dare to go against Chen Xi?

"You...you...you're Chen Xi?" The green robed young man spoke with a trembling voice. Actually, he didn't know what he was saying at all because his mind and heart were already filled with terror. The only thing in his mind was the desire to flee as far as he could!

Perhaps others would be fearful of the Zuoqiu Clan's reputation, but to this maleficent existence called Chen Xi, he loved to kill members of the Zuoqiu Clan the most!

When he saw their appearances, Chen Xi instantly understood that even if these fellows before him were members of the Zuoqiu Clan, they were probably nobodies within the clan.

Suddenly, a wisp of disinterest arose in his heart, and he tossed the woman on the ground before he said, "Apologize and then fuck off."

His voice was calm, and it carried an indisputable tone.

The young men and the woman were terrified out of their wits long ago, but asking them to bow before Chen Xi and admit their mistakes was absolutely impossible because everyone was clearly aware that there was conflict between Chen Xi and the Zuoqiu Clan. How could they possibly admit their mistakes and apologize to the enemy of their clan?

But if they didn't...

When they thought about Chen Xi's fierce reputation, their hearts trembled once more, and they were vexed and terrified. They were in a dilemma, and it was extremely painful for them.

Chen Xi's eyes turned cold and was just about to say something when he inadvertently noticed Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu. He went silent for a moment and didn't say anything in the end. He didn't spare another glance at those disciples from the Zuoqiu Clan before he turned around and with Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu.

It wasn't the time to get even with the Zuoqiu Clan now and coupled with the presence of Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu, he was worried that they would be implicated in the conflict.

"There was enmity between you and them a long time ago?" Madman Liu couldn't help but ask.

"There're too many people here. I'll tell you in the future." Chen Xi was able to sense numerous gazes following him all along the way. Some of them carried surprise, some carried adoration, some were fervent... Of course, there was no lack of some that were watching him with ill intent.

This was the bustling streets of Darkombat City after all, and it wasn't suitable to speak too much here.

"Then where're we going?" Madman Liu was able to understand what Chen Xi meant, and he immediately changed the topic. "If you have something important to do, then you just have to casually arrange for a place for us to stay at."

Chen Xi shook his head. "That won't do."

After that, he sized up Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu from head to toe before he said with a smile, "Come, I'll go get some clothes and things both of you'll need to cultivate with. In the future, even if it's when you're in the territory of the Xuanyuan Clan, you don't have to trouble them too much."

He acted as soon as he finished speaking. Chen Xi immediately disregarded their agreement and led them towards the busiest street at the center of the city.

Goldwave Immortal Pavilion.

As one of the most notable merchant groups in the entire Immortal Dimension, Goldwave Immortal Pavilion had opened a branch in Darkombat City. Moreover, it was on an extremely grand scale that surpassed all the other stores, so those that were able to become customers of it were either rich or noble.

When Chen led Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu here, the beautiful female attendants that stood in two rows at the side of the entrance instantly revealed polite smiles.

They didn't reveal any disdain because of Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu's attire, and this obviously showed that it was absolutely not luck that allowed Goldwave Immortal Pavilion to exist until now. Merely the character of these female attendants had definitely been formed through strict training.

When Chen Xi withdrew a VIP token of Goldwave Immortal Pavilion, those beautiful attendants were even more modest while their smiles grew wider. One of them immediately bowed and stood up before she led Chen Xi and the others in.

"Young Master, may I know if you've come this time to purchase something or to sell something?" The attendant asked respectfully.

"I'll sell some things first, then I'll buy some." Chen Xi replied in a casual manner. He'd obtained great gains from Nightmare Battlefield, and the various rare immortal materials and ores he possessed could be piled into a mountain. However, he had no use for some of these, so he naturally had to dispose of them.

"Then may I know what treasures Young Master intends to sell?" The attendant's eyes lit up.

Chen Xi replied. "You'll know when the time comes."

The attendant was able to discern that Chen Xi wasn't willing to chat with her, so she moved the target of conversation to Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu.

She wore light violet gauze clothes, had a pretty appearance, fair skin, and a slender figure that swayed about. Even her cultivation was at the Mysterious Immortal Realm. However, she didn't put on any airs before Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu who were respectively at the initial-stage of the Heavenly Immortal Realm and Earthly Immortal Realm. She was respectful and polite, and it caused Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu to reveal slight smiles from time to time.

Before long, when the female attendant who called herself Zi Yu brought Chen Xi and the others to their destination, Qi Xiaoyu had become friends with Zi Yu, and they even called each other as sisters.

Chen Xi remained indifferent towards all of this because it was the magic of authority and wealth. Everything in the world was like this, so he had nothing to say about it.

They arrived in a bright and spacious private room, and it was furnished in a grand and elegant manner.

After Chen Xi and the others took their seats, Zi Yu carefully offered them tea before turning around and leaving, and it wasn't long before she brought an Appraiser over.

"I'm Xuan Zhong. May I know what treasure Young Master intends to sell?"

The appraiser was a very old man that had a reserved expression, and he was neither humble nor haughty. He was like an old scholar in the mortal world, and he was suffused with an intellectual and graceful bearing.

It was the bearing unique to appraisers, and it was impossible to attain without years of experience.

“There are a lot. I’ll probably have to trouble senior to spend some time here today.” Chen Xi raised his eyes and looked around the room before he spoke casually.

A lot? Xuan Zhong frowned and reminded. “Young Master, this is a VIP room. If the treasures you’re about to sell aren’t precious or rare, then forgive me for being unable to accompany you.”

Obviously, he felt that Chen Xi intended to waste his time with a pile of ordinary things.

Chen Xi couldn’t help but smile, and he didn’t give any explanation before flicking his sleeve. Instantly, the entire room was filled with the brilliant glow of treasures, and it was beautiful, dreamlike, and emanated a variety of auspicious glows.

Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu were stunned, and they were dazed by the various immortal materials that filled the room.

The eyes of the beautiful attendant that stood at the side opened wide while she hurriedly covered her red lips, and her ample chest rose and fell slightly because she was rather excited and unable to calm herself down.

There were too many treasures before them, and all of them carried a variety of auras. With her experience, she was able to roughly determine that most of the treasures that filled the room were extraordinary.

On the other hand, the appraiser, Xuan Zhong, was extremely moved. He casually picked up one of them and sized it up carefully before he nodded. “This is the beak of a Void Hawk from the Outerealm, and it can only be obtained in the Outerealm Battlefield. It’s of great value.”

As soon as he finished speaking, he picked up another object. “Eh, this is the Icethread Dreamherb from the Outerealm’s Mistysea World, and it’s impossible to find in the three dimensions. It possessed a miraculous effect, and it’s a precious treasure that’s difficult to come by.”

“How could this be possible? Goldmarked Wisdom Fruit! This immortal herb has gone extinct in the three dimensions since a long time ago, and it’s extremely difficult to gather. Only the secret technique of the Outerealm’s Nethergold Clan is able to gather them.”

“Hiss! Skynet Fragrant Rock! It’s actually this treasure!”

“And this is...”

As he appraised more and more rare treasures, Xuan Zhong was unable to maintain his calm any longer, and his eyes glowed while he muttered continuously. He exclaimed with shock sometimes, frowned sometimes, sighed with emotion sometimes... His intellectual and graceful bearing from before had vanished completely.

Chen Xi didn’t have any attention to laugh at Xuan Zhong, and Chen Xi felt extreme admiration in his heart instead.

He didn't recognize most of these treasures, and he only relied on the strength of the auras emanated by these immortal materials to determine their quality. As for their exact usage, his knowledge was far inferior to Xuan Zhong.

"Since these treasures are so precious, then...why do you intend to sell them?" Madman Liu couldn't help but send a voice transmission to Chen Xi. Even though he was unable to figure out the value of those treasures, based on the passionate expression Xuan Zhong had, Madman Liu was able to make a rough judgment.

"I have even better treasures than these. I have no use for most of these." Chen Xi smiled as he replied via voice transmission.

Madman Liu's eyes opened wide and the corners of his mouth twitched when he heard this, and he couldn't help but sigh with emotion in his heart. As his Master, I'm unable to figure out the world this kid lives in now...

After an entire ten minutes had passed, Xuan Zhong raised his head from the pile of treasures and let out a long breath of air, and his gaze had changed when he looked once more at Chen Xi.

"Young Master, these treasures are indeed rare in the three dimensions, and they're mostly special products from the Outerealm. Even though their quality can't be considered to be high, they're rare, so their value is naturally high." After considering his next words, Xuan Zhong slightly didn't dare confirm Chen Xi's intentions and couldn't help but ask once more. "Young Master, you intend to sell all of these?"

Chen Xi said casually, "Of course."

Xuan Zhong was stunned, and then he took a deep breath before he said, "These treasures are too numerous in number. If they're exchanged for ordinary immortal stones, then it'll come to an amount that's too huge. However, if they're exchanged to top-grade Immortal Essence Stones, then I can determine a rough amount."

"How much?" asked Chen Xi.

"8,000," said Xuan Zhong, and then he explained. "This amount can absolutely be considered as fair. If Young Master doesn't believe me, then you can go around and ask about it."

Chen Xi laughed lightheartedly as he said, "I naturally trust the reputation of Goldwave Immortal Pavilion. However..."

"However what? Please feel free to tell me because everything can be discussed." Xuan Zhong was instantly nervous.

Chen Xi shrugged and said with a smile, "It's a bit too early to talk about the price now. I didn't say that I would only be selling this little bit of things this time."

Chapter 1266: Legendary Experience

When they walked out of the VIP room, the expressions of everyone besides Chen Xi was extremely dazed as if they were possessed.

Madman Liu was astounded, and he frequently bit on his toothpick while seeming to be sighing with emotion.

Qi Xiaoyu had an expression of wonder instead. She frequently tilted her head while pondering with a frown on her face, and she was extremely dazed as she seemed to be calculating an extremely complicated list.

As for the beautiful female attendant, Zi Yu, she had a dazed expression as well while seeming to walk unsteadily, and it was even to the extent that she almost collided with Chen Xi by accident.

"What's wrong?" Chen Xi frowned while imperceptibly exerting a strand of force that steadied her.

"It's...it's nothing." Zi Yu was shocked, and her mind cleared up slightly before she hurriedly shook her head.

Chen Xi nodded and didn't speak any further.

Zi Yu heaved a sigh of relief in her heart instead. She inadvertently recalled the scenes in the VIP room earlier, and tempestuous waves couldn't help but surge in her heart.

Within the VIP room moments before, Chen Xi had consecutively withdrawn pile after pile of various precious immortal materials, and he'd filled the entire VIP room nine times!

On the other hand, all of them were fiercely shocked nine times!

Especially when she recalled the changes in Xuan Zhong's expression every single time, and his seemingly demented expression, Zi Yu couldn't help but roar with laughter in her heart because even a great appraiser that had wide experiences was actually unable to maintain his composure like that, let alone the rest of them.

After that, her beautiful eyes imperceptibly glanced at Chen Xi who stood by her side, and a wisp of curiosity that could be restrained suddenly appeared within Zi Yu's heart. How...how could he gather so many precious treasures? Could it be that he's an extremely formidable expert as well?

"This is the Treasure Hall?" Chen Xi stopped as he gazed at the brilliant and grand hall before him. In an instant, he couldn't help but glance at the various gorgeous glows of treasures that filled it.

There were truly too many treasures there. They were spread out in rows before the counter, and it was a dazzling array of valuable treasures. It felt to him as if it was impossible to see the end of these rows. At this moment, there were many customers that consisted of both men and women glancing over these treasures, and every single one of these customers wore luxurious clothes and were either rich or noble.

At this moment, Zi Yu had finally returned to her senses, and she asked respectfully. "Young Master, what treasures do you require?"

Chen Xi glanced at Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu that stood by his side, and then he pondered deeply for a moment before he said, "I need all the Immortal Artifacts and medicinal pills that every stage of the Heavenly Immortal and Mysterious Immortal Realms require."

Zi Yu's eyes lit up because this was a huge trade. After all, the Heavenly Immortal Realm was divided into four stages, whereas, the Mysterious Immortal Realm was divided into three stages, and every single stage had treasures and medicinal pills that specifically fit that stage.

For example, merely in terms of medicinal pills, there were no less than a hundred types that were suitable for experts at the initial-stage of the Heavenly Immortal Realm to consume and cultivate with!

"I only want the best." Chen Xi added.

Zi Yu's eyes grew even brighter when she heard this. The best! That meant that if she was able to complete this trade, then even she would obtain a high percentage from it!

Practically without any further thought, Zi Yu led Chen Xi and the others into the Treasure Hall and brought a middle aged attendant over. After she clearly stated Chen Xi's requirements, the middle aged attendant's eyes suddenly lit up as well, and he warmly welcomed Chen Xi and the others into a private room.

After that, the private room was silent no more, and it bustled.

"Young Master, please take a look. This is a bottle of Azure Heart Condensation Pills, and the market price is 80,000 Immortal Stones. Even though it's expensive, it can't be compared to an ordinary medicinal pill. It's refined from 107 types of precious immortal herbs, and besides being beneficial to one's cultivation, it can even strengthen one's cultivation and solidify the foundation. It's absolutely an exception treasure for experts at the initial-stage of the Heavenly Immortal Realm!" The middle aged attendant was called Lu Cheng. He had a stout figure, yet his movements were extremely swift and smooth. He immediately withdrew a bottle of pills before introducing it to Chen Xi.

"I'll buy it!" Chen Xi didn't hesitate at all, and before Lu Cheng could feel happy from this, Chen Xi added. "I want two bottles."

Two bottles! That's 160,000 Immortal Stones. When he saw Chen Xi was so direct, Lu Cheng was instantly overjoyed in his heart. The young man before me is absolutely a descendant of a great clan! He comes from a strong family and based on his bearing and the way he does things, it's utterly impossible for an ordinary person to be capable of learning how to do it!

After that, he took a deep breath secretly while trying hard to make himself remain calm and become calmer. I absolutely can't hold back before such a customer. I have to give all the discounts and preferential treatment that I should give him. In short... I can't make him feel that he's being cheated! Only in this way would I have the chance to make him a long term customer.

"Violetcloud Lightspin Shoe, it's one of the best amongst ordinary Immortal Artifacts, and it was refined by a Supreme Grandmaster in equipment refinement. Even though it's only an ordinary Immortal Artifact, its effects are extraordinary. Besides being capable of improving speed by around 30%, it carries various abilities like avoiding dust, water, wind, fire, and various others."

"Alright! Two of them!" Chen Xi nodded once more.

He wasn't worried that Lu Cheng would dare to deceive him and coupled with the fact that he'd observed the quality of these treasures before him, and he felt that they were indeed worth this price. So he naturally didn't have any objections.

“Ninestar Radiance Armor. Top-quality at the Darkspirit Grade. It carries 36 layers of defensive restrictions that are extremely difficult to shake. Besides this, when this armor is worn, it carries an extremely great profound effect while cultivating. Such a precious treasure is only 190,000 Immortal Stones.”

“Alright, two of them.” Chen Xi didn’t hesitate to nod once more. Even though Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu were quite far from the Mysterious Immortal Realm, the time would come in the future where it would be of use.

“Crimson Eight Profundity Powder...”

“I’ll buy it!”

“Glimmer Starcontrol Shoulder Guard...”

“I’ll buy it!”

“I’ll buy it!”

“I’ll buy it!”

“I’ll buy it!”

Up until the point Chen Xi and the others left with the various Immortal Artifacts and medicinal pills, Lu Cheng was still in an excited and dazed state because his experience from today was simply like a dream!

Practically all the Immortal Artifacts and medicinal pills that he recommended were purchased by Chen Xi. He’d seen people that were willing to spend money, yet he’d never seen someone that was so willing to spend money!

“Dammit! I actually forgot to ask for the noble Young Master’s name!” After a long time, when Lu Cheng recovered his senses, he instantly slapped his forehead before moaning endlessly with pain. He felt that he’d made an unforgivable mistake today.

On the other hand, at this moment, the beautiful attendant, Zi Yu, was looking at the figures of Chen Xi and the others disappearing into the distance from the entrance of Goldwave Immortal Pavilion, and her expression was extremely dazed while she was unable to calm herself down even after a long time.

He sold treasures to obtain over 93,000 Immortal Essence Stones, yet I never expected that he would spend almost all of it in the blink of an eye. I wonder what’s the relationship of that old man and little girl with that Young Master that he would actually look after them like that. They have absolutely nothing to worry about in their future path of cultivation... Zi Yu was envious in her heart. At this moment, if Chen Xi were to ask her to be his maidservant, then she would absolutely agree without the slightest hesitation!

This was the charm of wealth, and it was able to imperceptibly conquer the hearts of many people or things when one would have imagined that it would be impossible.

Darkombat City, Immortal Love Restaurant.

In a light and spacious private room at the highest level, one could look down upon more than half of Darkombat City from this angle. One's field of vision was extremely vast here, and it caused others to feel that it was clear and open.

At this moment, only Chen Xi, Madman Liu, and Qi Xiaoyu were within the private room, and the table before them was covered in a dazzling array of various delicacies.

Stir fried deer, Nine Treasure Stew, Dragon Roar Jadesky, Exquisite Land, Dragon Turtle boiled in clear soup... There were a total of 81 delicacies on the table, and every single one of them was prepared by a Supreme Grandmaster Spirit Chef.

Of course, the value of this table of delicacies was sufficient to terrify most immortals.

But Chen Xi didn't care. So long as he was able to make Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu happy, then this little bit of money was nothing!

"Oh you..." Madman Liu sighed abruptly while the gaze he shot at Chen Xi was slightly complicated, yet he was at a loss for words, and it was an emotional sigh where he wanted to speak yet didn't know what to say.

"Master, let me offer a toast to you." Chen Xi's feeling rose and fell in his heart as well when he saw this. He immediately stood up and raised his cup before bowing solemnly. "Without you, it would be impossible for disciple to enter the Dark Reverie or cultivate in the Nine Radiance Sword Sect. I will never dare forget this great kindness in my entire lifetime."

As soon as he finished speaking, Chen Xi cleared the wine in his cup.

Madman Liu stared blankly for a long time before his eyes suddenly became slightly moist, and he said with a trembling and hoarse voice, "What ability do I, Madman Liu, have to receive this? What ability!"

He finished the wine in his cup yet was unable to stop the tears from flowing out of his eyes.

An old geezer that had lived for countless years had lost control of his emotions at this moment and was crying without end. If it was any other time, Madman Liu would probably suffer the gazes of disdain and ridiculing laughter of countless people.

But Chen Xi didn't. Conversely, Chen Xi had a complicated feeling in his heart as well. He was very clearly aware that Madman Liu had suffered greatly in Souls melt Mining Area, and now that Madman Liu had finally been freed from it, his excitement was naturally not something others could understand.

"Xiaoyu, let me offer a toast to you as well. You're Master's adopted daughter, so you're naturally my younger sister as well. Without the information you provided this time, I would probably have to live with this regret for my entire lifetime." Chen Xi turned around and gazed at Qi Xiaoyu. The young woman was consoling Madman Liu, and she was instantly stunned open hearing this. Her fair and pretty face flushed red while she was at a slight loss for what to do.

She'd grown up in Souls melt Mining Area since a young age, and she'd practically had no contact with the outside world. It could be said that she didn't know the matters of the world and had never experienced such a scene.

"Haha! You little girl. Quickly raise your wine cup." Madman Liu roared with laughter when he saw this, and he patted Qi Xiaoyu on the shoulder as a form of comfort.

"Mmm." Qi Xiaoyu hurriedly stood up and hastily held up her wine cup before drinking all its contents. However, because she'd drunk too quickly, she choked on it and coughed repeatedly while her face flushed red like sunset, and it was extremely cute and loveable.

Chen Xi smiled before he quickly poured a cup of Immortal Dew for her to clear her throat, and only then did he finish the wine within his cup.

After that, they chatted as they drank. Madman Liu asked about Chen Xi's experiences in these past few years, and Chen Xi spoke of them without concealing anything.

Even though he spoke casually about it, when it entered into Madman Liu's ears, he exclaimed endlessly with surprise. He didn't dare believe that this disciple of his had actually experienced such complicated ups and downs in these past few years.

As for Qi Xiaoyu, she'd been stunned by Chen Xi's experiences a long time ago. She held up her snow white chin with both hands while her eyes glowed brilliantly, and she didn't even eat the food before her as she listened attentively to what Chen Xi had experienced in these years as if she was listening to a legendary story that was filled with ups and downs.

The lives of some people were bound to be extraordinary and filled with variables. Their lives were filled with countless dangers and accompanied by innumerable favorable turns. To others, all of this was filled with a legendary color.

To the person themselves, it was a string of footsteps on the path of cultivation. It recorded the past, accumulated experience, and allowed one to walk in an even more firm and composed manner.

Beyond all doubt, since a long time ago, Chen Xi's experiences made his path of cultivation to be bound to be...extraordinary.

Chapter 1267: Unexpected Even

After a few rounds of drinks and enjoying the food, Chen Xi had finished speaking of his experiences in these past few years, and he asked about Misty Immortal Mountain.

When this topic was mentioned, Madman Liu's expressions instantly became extremely solemn and faintly revealed a wisp of undisguisable hatred.

"They did it for the sake of the Dao Calamity Sword." Madman Liu didn't conceal anything and spoke directly in a low voice. "Early on when I was still in the Mortal Dimension's Nine Radiance Sword Sect, I'd heard the legends of this sword. All those years ago, when the founding ancestor of my Nine Radiance Sword Sect, the Chaotic Divine Lotus, attained the extremes of the Grand Dao, he'd once obtained a strand of the quintessence energy of the heavens. Unfortunately, before he could succeed, he was schemed against by numerous enemies and failed on the verge of success.”

“At the moment of his fall, the founding ancestor sealed this strand of the quintessence energy of the heavens into his sword, and then hid it within the 99th level of the sword cave.”

“The power standing behind Misty Immortal Mountain is the place of birth of one of the formidable enemies that schemed against the founding ancestor all those years ago. Perhaps it’s precisely because they’re aware of this secret that they cruelly oppressed my Nine Radiance Sword Sect like this.”

When he mentioned this enmity, Madman Liu’s expression was gloomy and murderous, but there was a greater sense of loss on his face. After all, the forces of the Nine Radiance Sword Sect in the Immortal Dimension had been uprooted and ceased to exist since a long time ago.

“Why...did they choose to make a move now?” Chen Xi couldn’t refrain from asking this question.

As far as he was concerned, the Chaotic Divine Lotus had fallen during the primeval times, and it was too long ago from now. However, Misty Immortal Mountain just had to make a move in recent years, and it was strange.

“The reason is the Dao Calamity Sword. According to legend, the mysteries of the heavens would collapse during the upheaval of the three dimensions, and the order of the heavens and the earth would fall into chaos. If one was able to grasp the strand of quintessence energy sealed within the sword, then would could remain invincible during the upheaval and even obtain a great deal of benefits.” Madman Liu frowned and pondered deeply before he said, “However, this is a legend in the end, and very few people are aware of it. It’s even to the extent that I’m unable to confirm if the Dao Calamity Sword exists.”

When he heard up to here, Chen Xi finally came to an understanding, and he said in his heart, The power standing behind Misty Immortal Mountain is definitely the Sovereign Sect, and it’s naturally one of the enemies that schemed against the Chaotic Divine Lotus and killed him all those years ago. As for the Dao Calamity Sword, it naturally exists. Unfortunately, I’ve promised Senior Dao Lotus that I wouldn’t expose it to anyone else...

“As for why they chose to make a move now, I’m utterly unaware.” Madman Liu’s brows knit together tightly as he pondered deeply for a long time. In the end, he was unable to wrap his head around the matter.

“It’s fine. We’ll be able to find out one day.” Chen Xi spoke with a light voice while a firm expression resided between his brows, and then he said seriously to Madman Liu, “Master, you and Xiaoyu can cultivate peacefully within Darkombat City in the future and leave everything else to me. Only in this way would I be able to rest at ease.”

Madman Liu sighed while he revealed a slightly bitter smile, yet he agreed in the end because he was clearly aware that he was unable to be of any help and would cause a great deal of trouble for Chen Xi instead.

Perhaps the only right decision was to agree to Chen Xi’s request.

Right at this moment, the door of the private room was knocked from the outside. "Brother Chen, it's me."

Chen Xi stood up and opened the door. It was exactly Xuanyuan Yun. Chen Xi immediately welcomed Xuanyuan Yun in with a smile, and then placed down an extra pair of chopsticks for Xuanyuan Yun.

However, during this entire process, his gaze inadvertently swept towards the side of the room, and then he withdrew it imperceptibly.

"It's done. I can welcome your Master and her back tonight itself." Xuanyuan Yun drank a cup of wine before he said with a smile, "I just never imagined that the prestige you received would be greater than me. When the seniors of my clan heard it was for you, they immediately divided out a superb place of cultivation, and it was simply as if they'd agree to any request of yours. They even told me if I didn't manage this matter nicely, then they wouldn't allow me to take another step into the clan."

Chen Xi couldn't help but grin, and then he cupped his hands and said, "No matter what it is, I have to thank Brother Xuanyuan for taking the trouble."

"If you really want to thank me, then accompany me for a good meal and drinks. We've never had a good drink since we've known each other." Xuanyuan Yun roared with laughter.

Knock! Knock! Knock!

However, before Xuanyuan Yun's voice finished resounding through the air, a wave of rapid and heavy knocks resounded, and it was no different than smashing down the door, causing it to seem extremely rude.

At the same time, a gruff voice entered the room. "Friends within the room, please open the door quickly. We're trying to capture a thief, and we'll leave after searching the room."

Xuanyuan Yun's brows raised while his face sank. He was just about to seize this rare opportunity to enjoy a drink with Chen Xi and bring their friendship closer together, yet he just happened to be disturbed at the critical moment, so how could he not be annoyed?

"What the fuck are you talking about? Is this a place where a thief can enter? Let me see who exactly you are to speak so arrogantly!" He did as he said. Xuanyuan Yun was about to stand up immediately when he was stopped by Chen Xi who smiled while shaking his head. "Forget it, it doesn't matter."

Chen Xi just felt that too many things had occurred today, and he didn't want Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu to be worried for him. When one could take a step back to avoid some trouble, then it was better to avoid it.

Xuanyuan Yun laughed bitterly and helplessly as he said, "Alas, doing this will only grow their arrogance."

Sure enough, as soon as he finished speaking, the door that was densely covered in layer upon layer of restrictions was blasted open, and it was actually forcefully kicked open!

After all, a group of people charged in furiously, and the person in the lead was a young man in an embroidered robe gilded with gold. He directly waved his hand and said, "Search! The restrictions of Immortal Love Restaurant have been activated. It's impossible for that little thief to escape!"

After he said all of this, he raised his chin and put on a fake smile as he glanced at Chen Xi and the others. "I'm sorry for disturbing your meal. You can put it on my tab, Meng Tong."

He spoke with an indifferent and arrogant tone, and he didn't reveal a trace of an apologetic tone.

This scene caused the nerves of Xuanyuan Yun's forehead to bulge. Especially when he saw those people starting to overturn everything in the room and searching in an unbridled manner while seeming as if they didn't take him and the others seriously. Xuanyuan Yun was instantly unable to restrain his rage and stood up before revealing a ghastly smile, and he revealed a mouthful of snow white teeth as he said, "Little bastard, does this lord even need that from you!?"

His voice hadn't finished resounding when he swung a fierce slap, and his palm whistled through the air, carried divine radiance, and was rather fierce and swift.

The young man who called himself Meng Tong raised his hand and actually blocked Xuanyuan Yun's slap. However, he was shaken by it to the point of taking three steps back.

"Grandson, you actually dare to avoid your Grandad's beatings?" Xuanyuan Yun glared as he swiftly charged forward, and the force on his palm grew. Instantly, he slapped out a thousand layers of surging gales, and it seemed like tempestuous waves that were ruthless, domineering, and ferocious!

This indirectly displayed that as an existence that was able to be ranked in the top ten of Dao Emperor Academy's recruitment test, Xuanyuan Yun's strength was extremely formidable.

Rumble!

Meng Tong had never imagined that Xuanyuan Yun would attack so decisively and ruthlessly, and he was instantly caught off guard. In an instant, he was struck by Xuanyuan Yun's terrifying attacks to the point his body trembled and was on the verge of being unable to endure it.

"Big Brother Meng Tong!"

"You're courting death!"

"Let's join forces against him!"

When they saw this scene, his subordinates couldn't be bothered to continue searching the room, and they roared furiously as they charged over.

When he saw Xuanyuan Yun was about to be surrounded by enemies, Chen Xi sighed in his heart and immediately didn't hesitate to make a move. However, at the instant he did, his gaze inadvertently glanced towards a corner at the side of the room.

Bang!

Chen Xi flicked his sleeve and a terrifying force swept out from the room.

In the next moment, a wave of thumps and muffled groans that were accompanied by shrill howls resounded. All of them including Meng Tong were suppressed on the ground while letting out shrill cries that reached the skies.

This scene could be described as annihilation with the flick of a sleeve!

Xuanyuan Yun was stunned before he glanced at Chen Xi with a bitter smile on his face, and then his face sank as he raised his leg and stomped fiercely on Meng Tong. "I'll pay for my own food. However, if you're willing, then you can put this beating on my tab!"

Meng Tong let out a shrill howl while the bones in his entire body were on the verge of breaking, and he wasn't able to speak another word properly.

Chen Xi felt slightly annoyed because it was too noisy. The appearance of these people had spoiled the mood of their gathering.

"Get the fuck out of here!" Xuanyuan Yun acutely noticed the changes in Chen Xi's emotions, and his hands grabbed repeatedly as he tossed Meng Tong and the others out of the private room.

"Bastards, all of you just wait. You're dead for spoiling Big Brother Meng Qi's business!" Meng Tong's resentful shout resounded from outside the room.

Chen Xi flicked his sleeve and formed a restriction when he heard this, and he sealed the door, causing all noise to be completely isolated from them.

"Meng Qi? It's him?" Xuanyuan Yun frowned instead and seemed to have thought of something.

"What is it? Is Meng Qi's background extremely formidable?" Chen Xi was seated once more and glanced at Xuanyuan Yun with surprise.

"Meng Qi's origins are nothing worth mentioning. However, this kid is currently a rather famous fellow in our academy's inner court, and he's ranked at the 30th position on the Violet Ribbon Golden Rankings, and he has obtained the attention of many top powers." Xuanyuan Yun introduced Meng Qi in a concise manner, and then he laughed coldly. "However, we don't have to fear him because Meng Qi isn't the only expert in the inner court."

Chen Xi nodded. He didn't take this matter seriously, and he just frowned and pondered deeply for a long time before he shot his gaze towards the corner of the room in the end and said, "Miss, you seized the instant my friend entered the room to enter uninvited. Now that we've helped you deal with this disaster, it's hardly justifiable if you still don't make an appearance."

As soon as these words were spoken, Xuanyuan Yun, Madman Liu, and Qi Xiaoyu were shocked in their hearts, and they swept their gazes over in unison, yet saw that it was empty while even their immortal sense was unable to detect anyone!

Especially Xuanyuan Yun, he'd never imagined that someone would seize the opportunity when he entered to enter along with him, and if it was true, then it was terrifying.

"What? You really intend to make me invite you out?" Chen Xi frowned and placed emphasis on the word invite.

"I didn't say I wouldn't come out. Why're you so ferocious? Don't you know that you should be courteous when dealing with women?" Along with a clear and melodious voice, a wisp of light violet radiance suddenly arose from the originally empty corner of the room, and as the light flowed, it formed into a graceful and slender figure.

Talisman Emperor

Chapter 1268: A Treasure In Return

Her voice was like the sound of nature, clear, melodious, gentle, and moving. It was intoxicating to the bone. The light violet rain of light swayed through the air as it gradually formed into a figure that was graceful, slender, beautiful, and otherworldly.

Even Chen Xi who was accustomed to seeing various beautiful women since long ago was slightly dazed at this moment because this woman was truly too matchlessly beautiful.

After that, Chen Xi frowned as he noticed that no matter if it was Xuanyuan Yun, Madman Liu, or Qi Xiaoyu, all of them seemed as if their souls had left their body, and they were stunned on the spot as if they were in deep sleep.

“What’re you doing?” Chen Xi was suddenly shocked in his heart while his voice carried a strand of the tune of the Dao, and it drifted out with the intention of waking Xuanyuan Yun and the others up, yet it was to no avail.

“Don’t worry, they’re just unable to hear us for now.” The beautiful woman that appeared in the corner smiled lightly before casually sitting at the other side of the table, and she picked up an exquisite jar of wine and took a sniff before she frowned and said, “This wine can only be considered to be ordinary. It doesn’t carry any fragrance.”

“Oh.” Chen Xi stared at her with a calm expression while he was extremely vigilant in his heart because this woman had appeared here soundlessly, and if it wasn’t for the Eye of Divine Truth, he would have almost been unable to notice her.

Moreover, she actually soundlessly isolated Xuanyuan Yun and the others upon making an appearance. Such ability was even more terrifying, and this obviously showed that this woman was extremely formidable!

The woman had a beautiful appearance, a graceful and slender figure, jet black hair that fluttered, a round forehead that was fair and smooth, eyes that flickered with wisdom, willow leaf shaped brows, lively black eyes, and otherworldly beauty.

“Try the wine I brought.” The woman puckered her cherry lips lightly and formed a wisp of a grin before she flipped her fair hand, causing a jade white jar to appear. She tilted the jar slightly and wine that was like green amber flowed from within it and into the wine tankard before Chen Xi.

Instantly, an intoxication fragrance rose from it, and it seemed as if it could seep into the depths of one’s bones.

Chen Xi inhaled a mouthful of it, and he acutely noticed that the energy contained within this wine was actually extremely thick. Just its fragrance made the vital energy in his entire body become lively, and it wasn’t inferior to a peerless immortal herb.

“The wine can be drunk later. I’m just curious. With Miss’s ability, avoiding capture by those people should be easy, so why did you just happen to come to this room?” Chen Xi gazed at the woman with a calm expression while the depths of his eyes seemed to be still like an ancient well. This woman was unique indeed, her bearing was divine and lively while she carried otherworldly beauty, yet every single move and action she made carried a strand of extreme natural charm. She was like the product of the fusion between a celestial maiden and a siren, and it was very unique.

Most importantly, he felt the woman before him was extremely dangerous. Up until now, he wasn't able to see through her strength, and this caused him to be rather vigilant.

"Oh, not a single disciple from your Oracle Mountain is as cowardly as you are." The woman suddenly smiled sweetly, revealing jade white teeth, and she seemed beautiful and enchanting. Moreover, her voice carried a trace of a teasing tone as she said, "Could it be that you're worried that I would eat you up?"

Chen Xi was shocked in his heart because it was the first time someone had exposed his identity since he started cultivating!

This woman wouldn't be an heir of Nuwa's Dao Palace or the Sovereign Sect, right? Chen Xi quickly pondered in his mind while he said calmly, "Miss, you can try and see if I'm cowardly."

At the same time, he was even more confident that this woman seemed to have come specially for him!

"Oh, how can I determine how brave you are?" The woman spoke curiously while her red cherry lips parted lightly, and she revealed a strangely enchanting expression.

Chen Xi didn't speak any further when he heard this. After staying silent for a long time, Chen Xi suddenly stretched out his hand while his fingers parted, and it directly moved like a bolt of lightning to grab her throat.

Hiss!

This strike was launched rather suddenly, and at the instant he executed it, the Five Element Divine Crest emanated a blazing and powerful crushing force. At such a close distance, Chen Xi was confident that it would definitely be difficult for her to avoid it.

However, the woman smiled sweetly. From the beginning until the end, she didn't move at all, but a strand of a shapeless and powerful force effused out from her body, causing Chen Xi's palm to barely be able to arrive an inch before her snow white throat before being unable to move closer any further.

Chen Xi was horrified in his heart. However, before he could withdraw his hand, the woman's white write flipped abruptly while her fair hand suddenly grabbed onto Chen Xi's palm.

When the woman's slender, jade white, and beautifully fair hand grabbed onto Chen Xi's palm, a strand of a slightly cold yet warm feeling came from it.

After that, the tip of her finger moved lightly on Chen Xi's palm, causing an electrified feeling to surge through his entire body. Chen Xi instantly withdrew his arm while his expression was slightly furious, and he gritted his teeth as he said, "Who exactly are you? Why did you come looking for me?"

"I was just playing with you. You're angry?" The woman chuckled while her voluptuous body shook slightly, and her snow white figure was suffused with a divine and enchanting glow. She was like an ice lotus that was swaying lightly in the wind. She was filled with grace and breathtakingly beautiful.

Chen Xi remained silent. He puckered his lips while staring at her with extreme vigilance. He was clearly aware in his heart that her strength was probably far above his own, otherwise, it would be impossible for her to deal with his attack so easily.

“Oh, it was you who attacked first. Logically speaking, I should be the one that’s angry.” The woman pursed her bright red lips while her fair fingers started casually playing with a strand of her jet black hair.

After that, when she saw Chen Xi remained silent while staring vigilantly at her, she shrugged helplessly and said, “You’ve probably discerned that I carry no ill intent towards you.”

Chen Xi acknowledged this, so he pondered briefly before picking up the wine tankard and finishing it. He savored it for a moment before he said seriously, “This wine is good.”

It was good wine indeed. It was mellow and wonderful as it entered the mouth, and its piercing coldness contained an indescribable fragrance. As soon as it entered the throat, it transformed into trickling streams of warmth that flowed through his entire body, and it possessed shocking strength and caused his cultivation to actually solidify a step further at this instant.

The woman revealed a sweet smile upon seeing this. “You’re not afraid any longer?”

Chen Xi didn’t spare a glance at her and just stared at the wine tankard in his hand as he said, “In any case, I can’t defeat you, so keeping my guard up is useless.”

“Not bad. Let’s get to business then.” The woman withdrew her smile instead upon hearing this, and her expression seemed pure and emotionless while a wisp of lively radiance flickered between her brows, and her eyes were clear like water as she stared at Chen Xi and said, “I hope you can advance into the advanced-stage of the Golden Immortal Realm next year, and then go to a place with me.”

What a strange condition! Thoughts flickered within Chen Xi’s mind in an instant, yet he said, “A year? I’ll probably be unable to help you.”

What a joke, I was only able to advance into the intermediate-stage of the Golden Immortal Realm that day because of the various fortuitous encounters I had in that tomb. Even I feel that there isn’t much hope for me to advance into the advanced-stage of the Golden Immortal Realm within a year.

“You can do it.” The woman’s eyes glowed brilliantly. She withdrew a jade box and opened it lightly. “As a reward, this treasure will be yours once we return from that place.”

Chen Xi originally intended to refuse, yet when his gaze descended onto the jade box, he was instantly stunned on the spot. A River Diagram fragment?

It was indeed a damaged turtle shell shaped object that was smaller than the size of a palm. It was completely dark and suffused with an ancient and mysterious aura. Presently, Chen Xi had already obtained five River Diagram fragments, so how could he be unable to recognize it?

Who exactly is this woman? Not only does she know that I’m from Oracle Mountain, she actually seems to know that I’ve always been searching for River Diagram fragments! Great waves suddenly arose in Chen Xi’s heart, and he had an even deeper feeling that this woman’s background was extraordinary.

“Where are we going?” Chen Xi was silent for a long time before he finally moved his gaze from the jade box while his expression recovered its calm. Since the woman was able to produce such a treasure as the reward, she definitely had great plans, and this also meant the danger was extremely great. He had to find out about it clearly.

"You'll know when the time comes." The woman put the jade box away.

"Don't worry, I'll definitely not allow any danger to befall you when the time comes. Otherwise, your Oracle Mountain would probably not let me off. That's an even greater headache to me than killing me." When she spoke up to here, her clear eyes flickered with wisdom, and her calm smile caused her to be covered in an indescribably supreme and mighty aura...

Chen Xi thought in his heart. Since she's actually afraid of Oracle Mountain, then it's easy to deal with. At the very least, if she arouses killing intent towards me, then she'll have to consider the consequences of offending Oracle Mountain.

"Hehe. I have to go. The strength of this Spirit Body Clone has been exhausted too much. If I still don't return, then my true body will be in danger. Remember, I'll come see you again in a year. Of course, if you advance beforehand, then you can come look for me at Midnight Continent." The woman stretched her graceful figure and drew out a breathtaking curve, and then she smiled sweetly to Chen Xi before transforming into an expanse of a light violet rain of light and was about to leave.

Spirit Body Clone?

That was only a clone condensed from supreme energy?

Chen Xi was extremely shocked before finally being astounded. He guessed that her strength as probably greater than a Saint Immortal!

"Wait, you haven't told me who you are." When he saw the wisp of light violet light rain was about to vanish completely, Chen Xi couldn't be bothered to think about anything else as he asked in a loud voice.

"Oh, call me Dian Dian. In any case, all those fellows from Oracle Mountain know about it. However, you can't tell anyone else, alright." Amidst her wispy, clear, and resounding voice, the light rain vanished into thin air.

Dian Dian? This is obviously not her real name... Chen Xi stared at the place the rain of light vanished and fell into deep contemplation. The appearance of this woman was too strange. I wonder exactly what she plans to do that she actually need me to work together with her. Could it be that she has taken interest to one of the treasures in my possession? Or perhaps she wants to use my identity as a disciple of Oracle Mountain?

Midnight Continent? She wouldn't be the mysterious Midnight Immortal King, right? When he thought up to here, Chen Xi immediately shook his head and returned to his senses. Existences at the Immortal King were extremely supreme and lofty existences, so even if an Immortal King desired to go somewhere, how could an Immortal King possibly seek to work together with a Golden Immortal like him?

Meanwhile, Xuanyuan Yun, Madman Liu, and Qi Xiaoyu returned to their senses as well. All of them had extremely dazed expressions, and they obviously didn't know what had happened earlier.

Talisman Emperor

Chapter 1269: Make The Best Use Of Every Second

The air within the private room still carried a trace of the piercingly cold and thick fragrance from the wine, and it was intoxicating.

Xuanyuan Yun, Madman Liu, and Qi Xiaoyu were slightly dazed instead. Exactly what happened earlier? Where's that figure that formed out of thin air? Why has it disappeared?

"She's gone." Chen Xi gave a simple explanation when he noticed their confusion. Actually, even he hadn't figured out exactly what ability that woman who called herself Dian Dian had utilized to isolate the senses of Xuanyuan Yun and the others.

"She's gone?" Xuanyuan Yun was stunned. He was just about to speak when he noticed Chen Xi's brows knit together tightly, and he instantly went silent because there were some things that he was better off not asking about.

"Let's go as well."

At this point, he's lost all his interest in this meal, and Chen Xi wasn't willing to stay here any longer.

Xuanyuan Yun, Madman Liu, and Qi Xiaoyu naturally had no objections. They immediately stood up along with Chen Xi and left the private room.

However, right when they'd just walked out of the room, a group of people walked straight towards them.

The person in the lead was a tall young man who wore an ordinary and loose robe, had dense long hair that touched his shoulder, and had a rugged appearance. He walked with powerful strides, and as his eyes opened and closed, his gaze seemed like electricity that was peerlessly terrifying.

Surprisingly, Meng Tong's group were following closely behind the rugged young man. All of them had bruised faces and gloomy expressions. Especially when they saw Chen Xi and the others walking out of the private room, their gazes even surged with a wisp of resentment.

"Hmm?" The young man stopped while his gaze swept towards Chen Xi like a bolt of cold lightning. He seemed to have recognized Chen Xi, causing his dense and ink black brows to knit together.

At the same time, Xuanyuan Yun was shocked as well, and he quickly sent a voice transmission to Chen Xi. "This fellow is Meng Qi, that fellow at the 30th position on the Violet Ribbon Gold Rankings of the inner court. We bashed up his companions earlier, so he has probably come to get revenge."

Chen Xi came to a sudden understanding, and his gaze shot imperceptibly over to size up Meng Qi. Chen Xi noticed Meng Qi had a heavy aura that faintly revealed a wisp of iron blooded ferocity. Obviously, he was an extraordinary existence that had experienced many battles.

These students of the inner court really are extraordinary. Merely such an aura is something no one in the outer court can compare to. Chen Xi seemed to be lost in thought.

However, Meng Qi wasn't capable enough to arouse fear in Chen Xi, so he immediately intended to leave.

“You still intend to leave? Fucking stand right there!”

“Big Brother Meng Qi, it was these fellows. If they didn’t stop us, then we’d have captured that little thief a long time ago!”

“Dammit! That thief actually took away a jar of wine that we intended to offer specially to Big Brother Meng Qi. We would have been able to capture the thief, yet these fellows messed it up!”

When they saw Chen Xi actually didn’t spare them a glance and intended to leave. Meng Tong and the others were instantly unable to refrain themselves, and they charged out to block Chen Xi’s path while berating endlessly in a fierce tone.

A jar of wine got taken away? Chen Xi was stunned, and then he muttered to himself. That wine the woman called Dian Dian gave me to drink wouldn’t be the wine these fellows intended to present to Meng Qi, right?

“What? All of you haven’t had enough? Your skin is starting to itch again?” Xuanyuan Yun laughed coldly and couldn’t be bothered to spare a glance to Meng Tong and the others. He directly shot his gaze towards Meng Qi, and his expressions was cold while revealing an undisguised provoking expression.

Meng Qi frowned when he saw this, and he stopped the others from speaking with a wave of his hand before he said calmly, “I never expected that it was two Junior Brothers having a meal here. It seems to have been impolite of me.”

Junior Brothers? The others behind Meng Qi were stunned before they revealed shocked expressions as they finally came to an understanding. So they were actually students of Dao Emperor Academy, no wonder they dared to act so arrogantly.

“Since you know you’ve been impolite, then why are you still standing these? Could it be that all of you came over in a threatening manner to apologize?” Xuanyuan Yun was unforgiving.

Meng Tong and the others revealed furious expressions because even though the three of them were from the same academy, but a younger student daring to speak arrogantly to a senior was going too far!

Meng Qi didn’t mind at all, or perhaps, he’d directly and calmly disregarded Xuanyuan Yun, and he moved his gaze onto Chen Xi and sized Chen Xi up briefly before he said, “I heard Junior Brother Chen Xi entered the inner court this time as the first in the exam. Now that I’ve met you, you really deserve your reputation.”

Chen Xi said indifferently, “You’re too kind.”

Meng Qi still remained calm when facing this, and he just changed the topic and said abruptly, “However, the inner court is unlike the outer court. Junior Brother has already offended the Zuoqiu Clan, and as a Senior Brother, I have to remind you that you should be careful when you enter the inner court because the higher they are, the harder they fall.”

As soon as he finished speaking, he glanced deeply at Chen Xi before turning and leaving.

Meng Tong and the others were stunned as they never imagined that it would actually end like this. This caused them to be extremely disgruntled, yet when they thought about how they weren’t a match for

Chen Xi, they could only glare resentfully at Chen Xi and the others before quickly following behind Meng Qi.

“Big Brother Meng Qi, we’re just going to let it go like that?”

“We planned and prepared for a long time before purchasing that wine with great difficulty from a grandmaster in wine brewing. We’re truly a bit too disgruntled that it has been stolen.”

“Alas, stop it. Haven’t all of you noticed that Big Brother Meng Qi has already made a decision?” In the distance, the voice of Meng Tong and the others could still be heard faintly.

“These bastards weren’t even able to enter Dao Emperor Academy. If it wasn’t for them relying on Meng Qi, then I wouldn’t be surnamed Xuanyuan if I allowed any one of them to step foot out of here!” They were disgruntled and so was Xuanyuan Yun, and he grunted coldly. Even though he spoke fiercely, it was obvious that he was fearful of Meng Qi.

Chen Xi smiled instead as he watched Meng Qi and the others leave, and he said indifferently, “Let’s leave as well.”

Xuanyuan Yun nodded, and then he couldn’t help but frown as he said, “Why do I feel that Meng Qi had ill intent in the last things he said?”

“It’s the inner court. The competition there is naturally even more brutal than the outer court. However, if he intends to come bully me, then it’s him who should be careful.” Chen Xi spoke calmly. There was no emotion or resolution in his voice, yet it naturally revealed a strand of absolute superiority and confidence.

On that same day, Chen Xi and Xuanyuan Yun sent Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu to the Xuanyuan Clan’s residence in Darkombat City. Chen Xi was finally completely at ease when he saw the Xuanyuan Clan really had arranged a superb place of cultivation that was heavily guarded for Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu, and he turned around and left.

Dao Emperor Academy, within the Emperor Grade Abode on Vastcloud Mountain.

As soon as he returned, Chen Xi couldn’t help but let out a long sigh before sitting on the ground.

Too many things had occurred today. He’d just returned from the Outerealm Battlefield when he received a transmission jade slip, and then he headed to Misty Immortal Continent with Xuanyuan Yun. He rescued Qi Xiaoyu, trespassed into the Soulmelt Mining Area with anger, and then rescued his Master, Madman Liu, before finally being provoked by the disciples of the Zuoqu Clan in Darkombat City...

When he thought that he could properly accompany Madman Liu and Qi Xiaoyu, the companions of the inner court student, Meng Qi, caused trouble for him. Originally, he intended to make peace and resolve the matter, yet he never expected that a woman called Dian Dian would appear abruptly. Not only had she exposed his identity as a disciple of Oracle Mountain, she even intended for him to cooperate with her one year from now in order to obtain a River Diagram fragment as a reward...

In short, simply too many things had occurred today, and it caused Chen Xi to feel slightly exhausted. His mind was in chaos, and he couldn't help but let out a long sigh.

Fortunately, I'll officially step into the inner court in a few days, and it can be considered to be taking a load off my mind. Chen Xi started thinking about his future path.

Relying on his position as the first in the inner court exam, it was sufficient for him to easily enter the Ancient Dao Emperor Grounds three years from now and find the inheritance of the Dao Emperor within it.

Now, he naturally had to earn sufficient Starpoints because in this way, so long as he obtained the inheritance of the Dao Emperor, he would be able to purchase a River Diagram fragment in one go.

Of course, all of this was established upon the fact that he was able to obtain the Dao Emperor's inheritance.

Besides this, he had to cultivate diligently because if he was able to break through once more within a year and advance into the advanced-stage of the Golden Immortal Realm, then he could choose to cooperate with that mysterious woman, Dian Dian, and obtain another River Diagram fragment from her.

However, Chen Xi still maintained extreme calm and vigilance towards this matter, and even if he was able to cooperate with her a year from now, he would make sufficient preparations beforehand so as to avoid encountering any disaster.

Oh, I have to find the time to pay Zuoqiu Taiwu a visit as well and ask him about the Zuoqiu Clan. However, there's no rush to do this, and it can casually find the time to pay a visit to him after entering the inner court. I presume that with his identity as a head instructor of the inner court, he probably wouldn't refuse my visit. As he continuously thought about everything, Chen Xi realized that he had many things to do, whereas he seemed to have less and less time.

A million years is too long, all I seek is to make the best use of my time. Chen Xi shrugged while laughing bitterly, yet he was clearly aware in his heart that as the pressure upon him increased, it would indirectly prove that he was getting closer and closer to his target.

For example, rescuing his mother, Zuoqiu Xue, or finding out about the enmity between the Nine Radiance Sword Sect and Misty Immortal Mountain...

If it was in the past, he was just persisting continuously while it was uncertain if he would be able to accomplish it. Yet it was different now. He'd gained a foothold in the Immortal Dimension and possessed a formidable strength, so the tiny hope he had in the past was growing clearer and clearer, closer and closer.

It was just as it was said, only with eternal persistence would hope appear before one's door.

Unfortunately, my strength is far insufficient, and I have to make the best use of my time to cultivate! After that, a wisp of a firm expression surged onto Chen Xi's face. When his objective grew closer and closer, his hopes of success grew greater and greater, and pressure assaulted him in the face, the only thing he could do now was continue working hard and persisting on his path.

Because this path was too dangerous, and it wouldn't tolerate any mistakes, slack, or weakness!

"Huff! I've finally succeeded." Right at this moment, the tiny cauldron spoke abruptly with a slightly relaxed and happy tone.

"What did you succeed in?" Chen Xi was stunned while his thoughts were interrupted.

"It's naturally the refinement of the Nine Continent Divine Cauldrons. Here, have a look. Even though you can't utilize them with your current cultivation, it's an essential treasure to cultivate the Nethergod Nine Cauldron Form." As it spoke, the tiny cauldron's body emanated the radiance of divinity. In the next moment, a strand of strange ringing of cauldrons drifted and spread through the abode, and Chen Xi could faintly notice that within the beautiful and hazy radiance was nine ancient bronze cauldrons that floated up into the air...

Talisman Emperor

Chapter 1270: Making Every Second Coun

The nine cauldrons soared into the sky. The ancient cauldrons were inscribed with the patterns of mountains, rivers, the sun, the moon, and so on and so forth. Every single cauldron was different from the other yet complemented each other as if they were from the same whole.

"This is the Divine Artifact that guarded the world. During the beginning before the three dimensions had been formed, there was only a single world, and these nine ancient cauldrons were created to hold down the karmic luck of the world." The tiny cauldron explained. "Unfortunately, the gods, sages, Fiendgods, and various sects fought for supremacy at that time, causing the whole world to be covered in chaos. After that, the three dimensions were formed, and it drew down the curtains to the endless wars."

Chen Xi listened to the tiny cauldron explain secrets from the primordial times while sizing up the nine ancient cauldrons that floated in midair, and he sighed endlessly with emotion in his heart.

All along his path until now, he'd heard countless legends related to the primordial times, yet he was still unable to restrain his hot blood from surging every single time he heard it.

To the entire three dimensions, it was an ancient and savage period where wars erupted frequently, and the flames of war spread far and wide. The world was in chaos, and the myriad of living beings in the world could only struggle to survive.

But to the cultivators, it was the most glorious and resplendent part of history in the cultivation world, and it was the period of time that others yearned for the most. There were Chaotic Fiendgods howling through the heavens and the earth, primeval gods launching expeditions throughout the world, great sages discussing the Dao... It was also that period of time that countless extraordinary figures and legendary overlords had been born.

For example, the Dark Parasol Tree, the Ant Exalt, the Chaotic Divine Lotus, the five Primeval Emperors, the twelve Shaman Ancestors... Even though their figures couldn't be traced back in time, yet their influence still existed until now.

"Do you remember my inheritance?" The tiny cauldron spoke abruptly and interrupted Chen Xi's thoughts.

“Of course. The Nethergod Nine Cauldron Form.” When he spoke up to here, Chen Xi was suddenly stunned, and he said with surprise, “This cultivation technique wouldn’t be related to the Nine Continent Divine Cauldron, right?”

The tiny cauldron didn’t deny it and said slowly, “All those years ago, Emperor Yu didn’t create the nine cauldrons to reside in the nine continents during the primordial times, and it was just for the sake of tempering his Nethergod Nine Cauldron Form. However, when he attained the peak of the Grand Dao, he has no use for this treasure any longer. Thus, he utilized it to hold down the karmic luck of the nine continents, allowing the myriads of living beings in the world to avoid various natural calamities and man-made disasters.”

“Later on, when the three dimensions were formed, Emperor Yu took back the nine cauldrons and headed to the Outerealm Battlefield with it to resist the great figures of the Xeno-race. In the end...” When it spoke up to here, the tiny cauldron’s voice stopped, and it seemed to be unwilling to mention this part of the past.

However, Chen Xi knew everything since a long time ago, he’d just never expected that the Nine Continent Divine Cauldrons were actually created specially for the sake of cultivating the Nethergod Nine Cauldron Forms.

No wonder my clone has always been stuck at the first level while cultivating this cultivation technique. Even though the method is correct, it lacks the assistance of an external force, thus it’s naturally extremely difficult to cultivate. Chen Xi seemed to be lost in thought, and his heart burned with yearning as he said, “Senior, since it’s like that, then can that clone of mine rely on this treasure to cultivate?”

“Of course. From today onwards, let your clone cultivate by my side,” The tiny cauldron said with a tone that carried a trace of criticism, “If you continue wasting your clone just like you’re doing now, then you’re truly wasting god’s given gifts.”

Chen Xi was embarrassed. Indeed, since he possessed his clone, it had always been in closed door cultivation within the world of stars, cultivating, or helping him deal with miscellaneous affairs like purifying spirit materials, accepting assignments, and various other things.

Of course, this was because he felt that his main body was sufficient to deal with all trouble, and he’d taken his clone to be a secret trump card. If he were to encounter danger that could threaten his life, then even if his main body perished, he would at least have his clone as a way out.

“Work hard in your cultivation. The Nine Continent Divine Cauldrons are even more formidable than Void Grade Immortal Artifacts, and it’s a Divine Artifact that even Immortal Kings covet. Unfortunately, your cultivation is insufficient, so you’re utterly unable to utilize it, whereas I’m restricted by my cultivation that hasn’t been restored, so I can only utilize it to assist your clone in cultivating the Nethergod Nine Cauldron Form...” As it finished speaking, the tiny cauldron seemed to feel extreme regret for the Nine Continent Divine Cauldron.

Chen Xi was greatly shocked in succession instead. An existence that surpasses Void Grade Immortal Artifacts? A Divine Artifact that even Immortal Kings covet? If I advance into the Immortal King Realm, then merely relying on this cauldron would be sufficient for me to sweep through all the experts of the Zuoqiu Clan, right?

“Stop dreaming. You need to make the best use of your time to cultivate diligently now, otherwise, if others find out the Nine Continent Divine Cauldrons are in your possession. Hmph! Hmph!” The tiny cauldron struck a blunt blow at Chen Xi, allowing him to recognize reality clearly.

Chen Xi laughed bitterly and shrugged while he sighed endlessly in his heart. It isn't just the Nine Continent Divine Cauldrons, the Dao Calamity Sword, Saintslaughter Forbidden Sword, River Diagram fragments, and even the Dao Insights of Paramita and Oblivion in my possession can't be exposed in public!

When he thought up to here, Chen Xi actually felt slightly depressed, and he even recalled the Netherworld Register and Condemn Evil Brush that was being kept safe for him in the Netherworld. They were similarly taboos that couldn't be exposed.

All of this was because the strength he possessed was far insufficient!

I'll get there soon. I've only entered the Immortal Dimension for a few years, yet I've already advanced into the Golden Immortal Realm. I believe it won't be long before I'll definitely be able to advance into a higher realm and grasp even stronger might! Chen Xi took a deep breath while his mind calmed down completely, and the space between his brows was filled with a firm expression.

In the following days, Chen Xi constantly resided within his abode. He didn't cultivate anxiously, and he ordered and planned his cultivation plan for the future. Preparation never slows down execution.

As for his clone, it was taken into the Nine Continent Divine Cauldron by the tiny cauldron. Within the cauldron was a world of its own, and it was nine worlds that were linked together. Every single world had a different use, and it carried extreme benefits towards the cultivation of the Nethergod Nine Cauldron Form.

If his time wasn't limited, Chen Xi desired to enter the Nine Continent Divine Cauldrons to take a look because he wanted to know exactly what miraculous effects lied within. Of course, it was only a desire of his.

After all, his main body and clone were like his right and left hand. If he wanted to find out everything his clone had experienced, then it was only a thought away.

However, he didn't have the mood to pay attention to all of this now.

Swish!

Numerous extremely rare immortal materials of high quality were spread out, and then Chen Xi picked and chose them before finally placing them within the Buddha's Pagoda according to type.

He'd obtained these immortal materials from the Outerealm Battlefield. However, they were rare and precious when compared to the immortal materials Chen Xi had sold in the Goldwave Immortal Pavilion, so he naturally didn't have the heart to sell them all.

I heard that I can exchange various rare items into Starpoints within the Starpoint Hall. I should make some time to go have a look. It's a pity to sell these immortal materials for money, but I can use them to gain Starpoints instead. According to Chen Xi's plan, if he utilized these rare immortal materials that were practically extinct in the three dimensions to gain Starpoints in exchange, then it would probably be a shocking amount of Starpoints.

Presently, the Starpoints within his Violet Ribbon Starcrest had barely passed 10,000,000 in total, and the reason was that he'd obtained 8,000,000 Starpoints in one go from obtaining the first position during the inner court exam!

Coupled with the Starpoints he'd accumulated in the past, he'd gathered an entire 10,300,000 plus Starpoints. Of course, he was still extremely far away from his objective to exchange 180,000,000 Starpoints for the River Diagram fragment.

Even if it was to exchange for the Chaos Quintessence Fragment that was worth 160,000,000 Starpoints, the Starpoints he possessed were far from being sufficient.

Presently, my clone is cultivating the Nethergod Nine Cauldron Form by the tiny cauldron's side, so the method of accepting assignments in the Dao of Talismans to earn Starpoints can only be stopped, and I have to rely on my own hard work for all of this...However, there's no rush. I'll enter the inner court first before thinking about it. At that time, there ought to be even more assignments which reward even more generous amounts of Starpoints for me to accept.

Chen Xi took a deep breath and put this matter aside for now. After that, he started to deal with other things, and he simply didn't stop or slack off for a moment.

He didn't have much time at all, but Chen Xi really enjoyed this sort of feeling. It was as if he'd returned to his youth when he was a Talisman Crafting Apprentice. His life was difficult, yet it was extremely rich.

To Chen Xi, the meaning of cultivation was none other than five words — Not spending time in vain!

Perhaps it was precisely the tempering he'd received during that difficult period in his youth that allowed Chen Xi to never slack off or feel satisfied all along his path of cultivation until this day.

I only lack the wings of a Phoenix to refine the Flame God Fan. I have to find the time to pay a visit to Zhao Mengli and find out what sort of price I have to pay in order to obtain this treasure from that Senior Phoenix in the academy. Presently, I possess the Cloudbook Seven Techniques, but there's no rush to refine and repair the Buddha's Pagoda and Calamity Ward Green Lantern because I have no use for them for now. It wouldn't be too late to complete it when I'm free. The important matter at hand is to comprehend the Origin Bone of the Yin Yang Fish King. If I'm able to grasp the Dao Insights of Light and Darkness from within it, then I'll naturally be able to condense the Laws of Taichi, a rare Allheaven Divine Crest. At that time, my combat strength will definitely obtain an enormous increase...

Just like that, he planned out everything he had to do like peeling the skin off a cocoon, and just differentiating the order he had to complete them utilized a great deal of Chen Xi's time.

As for various other miscellaneous and trivial matters, he couldn't be bothered about them.

It was impossible to do everything flawlessly on the path of cultivation, and perhaps flaws conformed the most to the original intent of the Heaven Dao.

Om~

Within the abode, the over 1m long Yin Yang Fish King's Origin Bone that was partially dark like the night sky and partially snow white like day floated in midair. It was branded with dense and complicated glowing golden bone markings, and they were interwoven together to form expanses of profound bone markings. They were like numerous ancient patterns that were revealed in midair and emanated strands of the energy of the Grand Dao of Light and Darkness.

Darkness was born from Yin.

Light sprouted from Yang.

Yin and Yang complemented and aided each other. Light and Darkness fused together and Taichi was born.

This was the true essence of the Grand Dao that came from within the Yin Yang Fish King's Origin Bone. This variant beast of the primeval times was born within the Grand Dao, and if it wasn't for the tomb of the primeval Emperor Yu, it was utterly impossible to find Yin Yang Fish any longer.

This bone was so valuable that its value even surpassed the bone of a Roc that contained the Devour Dao Insight or the bone of a Phoenix that contained the Undying Dao Insight.

The reason was held in the Grand Dao of Taichi. It contained the profundities of the Grand Daos of Yin, Yang, Light, and Darkness, and it was an extremely formidable and rare Golden Immortal Law.

Chen Xi held his breath in concentration while his mind and soul was immersed within it. He comprehended it calmly while his expression remained calm as an ancient well, and he'd fallen into a deep state of comprehension.
