

The 80s 240

Chapter 240 Gathering Information

Qi Taiguo has had an accident!

Cheng Su's head buzzed, and in her mind, apart from Wan Dahe's words that Commander Qi had been bitten by a poisonous spider and was still unconscious, there was a blank, and nothing more.

Poisonous spider, unconscious!

How venomous a spider must it be to bite someone and leave them unconscious?

Black Widow?

The term suddenly echoed in Cheng Su's mind, something she remembered from a scientific educational program she had watched in her previous life. She had heard that the Black Widow's venom was extremely potent, causing severe organ damage and possibly resulting in death in serious cases.

Were there such excruciatingly poisonous creatures in Xiangxi?

Xiangxi, what didn't it have?

Cheng Su turned pale, and as people were calling out to her, she turned her head like a puppet and slowly came to.

It was Old Song and the others, everyone looking at her with concern.

"Susu, you almost scared us to death, what exactly happened? Tell us, we can think of a solution together!" Ying Xiaoya was the first to notice something was off with her, had she not seen Cheng Su about to collapse and supported her, she might have actually hit the floor!

"It's nothing." Cheng Su managed a faint smile with the corner of her lips, "Qi Taiguo has been injured during the mission."

She then turned to Old Song and instructed, "Old Song, please take charge here, I need to go back to the military region to inquire about news, Qiulan, you take care of collecting the money."

"Alright, go ahead."

Cheng Su looked apologetically at Ying Xiaoya, who quickly said, "Don't worry about me, I can walk on my own, and it's a busy time, I will help you manage the restaurant. You should hurry back."

Grateful for the help, Cheng Su smiled, took off her apron, grabbed her bag, dashed out of the restaurant, and started pedaling her bicycle swiftly away.

It was not long before Cheng Su arrived at the military region, sweat-covered. After reporting in with the sentry, she was soon led to Regimental Commander Mai's office.

"Regimental Commander Mai, hello, I am Qi Taiguo's family member. I heard..." Cheng Su asked in a rush, her eyes gradually reddening.

Regimental Commander Mai walked over, guided her to sit on the sofa, and spoke reassuringly, "As Qi Taiguo's family member, be assured, we are well-informed about the situation. For now, Commander Qi is not in a life-threatening condition."

Not dead, or perhaps not needing to die, but for now...

"What exactly happened? What was he bitten by?" Cheng Su pressed eagerly for details.

"During the mission, he was trapped in the enemy's cunning scheme. The wound has been promptly cleansed. Fortunately, our military doctor happened to be nearby, administered antibiotics, and he has since been taken to the hospital, receiving IV fluids. We believe that Commander Qi will soon regain consciousness. Don't worry!" Regimental Commander Mai assured.

Upon hearing this, Cheng Su's anxiety eased slightly, but she asked, "But Wan Dahe said he is still unconscious."

"A person poisoned will always be a bit weaker, and with the continuous battles recently, his body is also in a weakened state, so his resistance is understandably lower. Please rest assured, Commander Qi is an exceptionally talented officer in our army, and we will definitely do our utmost to treat him," Regimental Commander Mai emphatically stated.

Cheng Su didn't care whether he was talented or not; all she wanted to know was whether he was safe and alive. That would be enough.

She yearned to be by his side!

"Regimental Commander Mai, could I visit him in Xiangxi? I really can't be at ease. Don't worry, I can cover my own travel expenses," Cheng Su requested.

Regimental Commander Mai laughed and said, "It's not that I don't want to let you go, but if there are no surprises, Commander Qi should wake up by tonight, and if there are no major issues, we estimate that he'll be back in the next couple of days. Wouldn't your trip be in vain if you went?"

Cheng Su felt skeptical, really no problem, and he could really come back tomorrow?

"How about this, let's wait a bit longer. If there is no news by tomorrow, we will send you over there, how's that?" Seeing her disbelief, Regimental Commander Mai promised again.

Hearing this, Cheng Su had to let it go and made polite conversation before leaving.
