

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 101

Zane's POV:

We have been at the borders of Crystal Moon for the past two hours waiting on the witch. I'm starting to have a bad feeling about this the more I thought about it. "Having second thoughts alpha?" My beta said coming to stand beside me. I nodded. "Yes something doesn't feel right. The witch may be setting us up, I just can't figure out why would she do that. It make sense that the alpha wouldn't be here and is out searching for his pups." I said deep in thought.

"You're right there would be no reason to lie about that because it would be common sense to think the alpha is out looking for his pups. I just think you're thinking too much we need to be ready to attack. I have informed the warriors that anyone who swears their loyalty to you is to be spared. If you are going to rule over all shifters they should see the human side of you. When you show people you have compassion, they're more likely to follow you without putting up a fight."

My beta said and I nodded in agreement. From behind us a small woman stepped through a portal. She looked up at me once I reached her. "The master said that it is time for you to attack Crystal Moon." She said bowing her head and stepped back into the portal and it vanished. "Let's move out it's party time." I said eager to get this over with. Hopefully, the alpha left my mate there in order to keep her safe from harm. Maybe I will finally get my mate back. I thought to myself and that put a smile on my face as we headed to Crystal Moon borders.

"Each team will cover one of the four gates, once in position we attack at the same time. Taking out the guards first, then we gather the women and children take them to the awaiting vans. My and the Beta's team will attack the pack house where their strongest men will be. Once we find out who will pledge their loyalty to our pack we will kill who ever refuses."

I said, my men nodded and quickly went to get into position. This will be an easy attack. I should be home by breakfast hopefully with my mate finally in my pack where she belongs. "Alpha we're in position." Each one of my team leaders said. "ATTACK!" I said via mind link we want to go in silent.

We entered and took out the guards at the gate, but for some reason these guards seem to have more skills than expected. Just then the alarm rang out alerting the entire pack. Now things were about to get messy. I was ready to shed some blood because nothing has been going my way lately, but now is my time to get my revenge on the alpha who thinks he is untouchable. Shifting into my wolf I roared and headed towards the pack house.

Before I could reach the pack house I was met with the shock of my life. Not only was the alpha still at the pack house but my mate was on his wolf's back aiming her damn weapon straight at my head. I barely missed the arrow as it shot pass my head.

"Damn it alpha the witch lied to us. What do you want us to do?" My Beta asked, via mind link he had shifted the same time I did and was fighting off wolves left and right, If the alpha and his men were here we were outnumbered, but seeing my mate I had to get her away from that damn alpha and finally get rid of the hold he has on her and the only way to do that is if he dies. "No, we kill the alpha everyone make your main target the alpha but don't hurt the human!" I yelled to my men.

Ji'lahni's POV:

"Damnit it's alpha Zane he must have come for Razz. Maka tell one of your warriors to get Razz to one of the safe houses now!" I said and Maka nodded. We charged into the wolves that were attacking ripping them apart I saw Zane in the far distance and aimed my arrow right at his damn head and let my arrow fly. He dodged it at the last second and his wolf's eyes met mine and I swear I could see lust in them which turned my stomach. All of a sudden it seemed like all the wolves were headed in our direction. We had all split up because we were being attacked at all four of the gates. So that left me and Maka with some of his warriors with us at the main gate where Zane was.

They started to attack us from all sides. I switched my crossbow for my guns and started firing shots. "Maka duck!" I yelled just as a wolf came flying at me. I laid flat on Maka's back and he drop just as the wolf flew pass me, but I couldn't gut him like I did before. Because the bh used his fg claws to try and grip my body to get me off of Maka's back. I screamed because the bh actually clawed my damn back.

Maka roared in anger, turned to the wolf, and grabbed the wolf by the throat, shook his head until the wolf's head flew across the ground. Maka was growling and started tearing through wolves like a wild animal. There was too many of them coming at us all at once. I was firing shots and Maka was killing as many as he could. "Maka they are coming after us get more men over here."

He nodded, then turned and ran towards the pack house. Killing any wolf that came into our path. What the hell was Zane doing it didn't seem like he was coming after Razz he was coming after..... "Maka he isn't after Razz he is after." I was saying just as a wolf came from behind us and tackled me with enough force to cause the harness to snap and I fell to the ground hard. I groaned and rolled over off my back because, DAMN! Just so we all are on the same page sand in wounds, burn like a bh. "JI'LAHNI! BABY DON'T MOVE I'M COMING!" Makahi yelled, he had shifted and tried to race toward me but got attacked by four wolves. I groaned turning to get up but was slammed back down by a big brown wolf. Look when I tell yall I was scared shitless I just knew I was about to die. There was no other way this could end. But when that wolf growled at me and some of his drool hit my cheek. I promise yall I lost my damn mind. That's the most disgusting thing anybody can do to a person to make them forget they were scared. "I. know. Damn. Well. You. ain't. just spit in my face. Please tell me you didn't let slabber come out of your mouth like you not a trained dog you got a human in your body somewhere and he couldn't tell you not to spit in people's face?" I said, as I pull a blade from my thigh belt and plunged that st into his fg neck and then I gagged because blood splashed on my face, ew. I was gagging still when I saw a knife pass right by my damn head. "What the hell man? I know damn well you saw my fg head right there." I yelled at Mina as she came to help me up using her gun to fire shots at the wolves coming my way. Blaze was ripping heads off as they approached from the front. "Yea that's the same st I said when you did that to me when we was fighting that zombie bitch." "Really? That's what we doing right now at this fg moment." I said as I stood up. "Blaze get Ji'lahni back to the safe house they are after her and not Razz." Makahi said as he fought off more wolves. "There must be another Ji'lahni around here because I know damn well he wasn't talking about me I'm not going anywhere. I said as I ran to my automatic crossbow that still had three rounds left and my blades were still in my utility belt, and I had my gun. Makahi had my bullets and arrows attached to his vest/harness. So, I fired and took out three wolves that were on him. Blaze saw me run towards Makahi, roared from behind me, and protected my back as I ran towards my man who was cursing my a*s out for not listening to a damn thing he says, as he ripped the head off the last wolf that was on him and Shifted just as I reached him I hopped on and snapped back in luckily it just popped off and not snapped. Maka growled probably mad I didn't listen to Makahi. But I mean come on, he should know by now I sticks beside my man. Soon, Shawna and Lynn were beside us and we all went into the sea of wolves killing them. Alpha Zane was fighting three of our warriors when he spotted the four of us coming his way. I don't know what he told his pack, but they started retreating once their numbers started dwindling and we had even the playing field. We tried to catch Zane before he could escape but his wolves were real life loyal to him because they protected him even if it meant their lives were at stake which is was. Once the last of the wolves were killed or ran away. We got off the men backs, and they shifted back to their human form.

They were giving shorts immediately like magic. Makahi. stalked towards me anger as hell. "What the hell Ji'lahni, why don't you fg listen to me. You could have been killed or kidnapped again.

He was after you not Razz, that's why I told blaze to take you to the safe house. What were you thinking?" He yelled, Now normally I would have been cussing his a*s out, but his voice was fading in and out and st was starting to spin a little bit. "Makahi remind me to cuss your a*s out when I wake up from this nap." I said, as my legs gave out and everything went black I heard Makahi yell my name repeatedly wanting me to wake up. Because that's gonna stop my a*s from passing out.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 102

Makahi's and Maka's POV:

“Alpha’s Zane is the one who is attacking our pack, Rimmy get Razor to the safe house at my parents house and stay with him.” I mind linked. I can’t believe that ae attacks my pack no doubt thinking I wasn’t here because my pups are missing. Thinking that was a big mistake he should have known that even if I weren’t here I would never leave my pack unprotected. But he will soon regret it. Just when I spotted him my baby shot an arrow straight at his head the alpha dodged at the last second and I saw his eyes looked up at my mate I saw the lust in his eyes and that made me see red. I changed my direction and headed in his direction I will kill him this time. All of a sudden every wolf surrounded us and started attacking.

“Duck!” Ji’lahni said and Maka didn’t hesitate. I heard her scream as a wolf pass over our head I could see his paws a claws were burning. He was wallowing in pain, and I took the advantage and ripped his head from his body. Ji’lahni was still firing shots, but I knew she was in pain. fk every wolf I kill two more seem to show up. “Maka he isn’t after Razz he is after.” Ji’lahni was saying, then all of a sudden I am almost knocked off my feet and I feel Ji’lahni harness snapped, and she was thrown across the field. Maka roared and ripped the wolf’s legs off his body and snapped his neck off before he gave me control so I could go and check on our mate. “JI’LAHNI! BABY DON’T MOVE I’M COMING!” I was trying to get to her when four wolve jumped on me all at once.

I was a skilled fighter even in my human form. I saw killing the wolves that kept jumping on my when I see a big brown wolf tackle Ji’lahni, and my heart almost stop in my chest Maka roared in my head and he joined my subconscious my claws lengthen, and I started ripping throats out. I saw Ji’lahni pull her knife and stabbed the wolf in the neck killing him instantly and then started gagging. I would have smiled if a damn wolf didn’t bite my fg shoulder I grabbed him by the jaw and pulled until his jaw snapped open he died with his bottom jaw was hanging open. I see Blaze and Mina come to help Ji’lahni up. “Blaze get Ji’lahni back to the safe house they are after her and not Razz.” I yelled to Blaze and his wolf nodded. I breath a sigh of relief knowing she would be ok. But we all know that relief didn’t last long.

“There must be another Ji’lahni around here because I know damn well he wasn’t talking about me I’m not going anywhere. Ji’lahni said as she ran to her automatic crossbow, she fired and took out three of the wolves that were on me. Blaze saw on her heels protecting her from behind as she runs towards us, Maka roared, as she ran towards us. I swear she never fg listen to us I thought as I ripped the head off the last wolf that bit me , then I gave Maka full control, and I Shifted just as Ji’lahni reached me she wasted no time and hopped on and snapped herself onto the harness. All my other warriors came to aid of chasing after the wolves that was coming toward me and Ji’lahni. Soon my warriors we cutting down Zane’s warriors left and right. As I ripped one of his warriors head off I saw Zane looked at his surrounding and started to back away slowly.

“THE ALPHA’S ABOUT TO TUCK TAIL AND RUN DO NOT LET HIM GET PASS OUR BORDERS!” I yelled via Mind link and out loud. The girls started firing shots at him one bullet hit his shoulder but didn’t slow him down. He got pass the warriors that were blocking him, and his warriors made sure we were slowed enough for him to get away. Once it was said that he and the few men he had with him were out of sight I needed to check on my pack to make sure everyone was ok. But first I had to handle my hardheaded mate. "What the hell Ji'lahni, why don't you fg listen to me. You could have been killed or kidnapped again. He was after you not Razz, that's why I told blaze to take you to the safe house. What were you thinking?" I yelled, out of fear and anger. I was fully expecting her not to back down and say something smart. But she started to look funny like her eyes couldn't focus on anything. "Makahi remind me to cuss your a*s out when I wake up from this nap." She said, as her eyes rolled to the back of her head and legs gave out as she dropped to the ground.

"BABY! WHAT'S WRONG BABY? COME ON DON'T DO THIS TO ME RIGHT NOW!" I yelled, as I quickly caught her and lifted her into my arms. I ran to the clinic as fast as I could. "DOC It's Ji'lahni she's hurt. Her back got clawed and she lost a lot of blood and passed out." I mind link the Doc. "Yes alpha we will be ready for our Luna." He responded and I felt warmth at hearing her call Ji'lahni his Luna which she without a doubt was truly my other half mate.

Bursting through the clinic door doc was waiting with a gurney. "Alpha what happen?" "She got claw by one of Zane's wolves I think she lost a lot of blood and passed out." I said and the doc look at her back. "Yes that is pretty nasty she will need stitches and it may leave a nasty scar since she isn't a wolf. "No Such thing. I can get her looking as good as new." Mylan said as she walked over to us. with her dragons and riders close behind. I instantly saw red.

I rushed over to her my mother stood in front of Mylan and I stopped Maka coming to the surface. "Where the hell were you when we were being attacked why didn't you help my pack to fight off those damn wolves?" I all but roared. Looking at Lynn's brothers and the sisters. "Calm down alpha if we thought that you couldn't win this fight we would have helped, We need to keep the element of surprise if that alpha is working with the witch he will surely let her know that you have Golden dragons helping you. We need to stick to the plan. Now can you please step aside so I can help your mate? This will take time, Lynndoria I'm sure you have everything I need in your herb bag please fetch it for me." Mylan said and Lynn nodded and rushed out with Montego right behind her. The doc was looking at the old woman like a kids finally getting a glimpse of Santa. "Madam I would love to be present and watch you work on my Luna it would be a great honor?" The Doc said nervously like a little boy.

"Oh son, stop sucking up this is your clinic please take her to a room and have her back expose with clean towels, water, and gauze, and then point in the direction of the kitchen or lounge area where there is a table I could work on." Mylan said, the doc nodded like a damn school pup running off to do her bidding. I turned to Mylan. "What exactly will you be doing to my mate?" I asked following her to the chairs in the waiting room. "Well, that's easy son I'm going to heal her, she'll be good as new." She said not sparing me a glance. I decided not to ask any other questions she was able to bring my mother back from the dead so I'm sure she can heal a claw mark. I sighed turning and heading in the direction of where they took Ji'lahni. She was still unconscious, but she was laying face down like she was in a spa when her back was exposed. Her back looked really ugly, and it just pissed me off and Maka want to go and find the body of the wolf who did this to our mate and rip his body to there is nothing left. The nurse were trying to clean the dirt and debris out of her wounds. I was glad she wasn't awake because I know it would be painful, because it was painful to watch. Her body trembled like it was cold. "Go get her an extra blanket she is shaking." I said a little to forcefully and the nurses jumped into action getting her extra blankets.

"Son come on out so the nurses can work without you scaring them half to death. I need to talk to you about something." My mother said from the door. I nodded, kissed Ji'lahni on her lips softly and left out of the room. My mother led me into the next room. I had no idea what my mother wanted to talk about. She has been really silent since she was brought back from the dead. She said she couldn't be completely honest with me about who or what she truly is until the time was right, and I trust my mother, so I didn't push her. "Son, I'm so sorry I brought all this on you. I never thought that witch Urrale was still trying to get revenge for your father choosing me. And not only does she have your father, but she has taken your pups and I feel like this is all my fault everything is all my fault, and I couldn't do anything to stop any of it." My mother started to cry uncontrollably. How can she say this was her fault? "Mother stop it none of this is your fault. That witch is just Batshit crazy as Ji'lahni would say." That got a smile from her.

"If dad hadn't chosen you, then I wouldn't have been born, and neither would you have met my other half mate, and those beautiful pups wouldn't be here either. So, stop blaming yourself I know if you could've you would've protected all of us with your life and what matters now is that you're here now and I'm so happy that you didn't leave me on this earth alone just yet because I still need you so how about don't you dare die on me again." I said, giving her a tight hug inhaling the scent that was my mother my very first love.

17 hours until the full moon.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 103

The Clinic's waiting area:

Shawna's POV:

“Shawna you're about to fall out that damn chair, you nodding so bad trying not to fall asleep. You need to go to the house and get some rest.” Mina said looking at me nodding off again. I swear I have never been so tired in my life. I don't know what the hell these babies got going on in my body, but my energy is at an all-time low and I feel like my belly is growing by the second. I don't think this st is normal. On top of the fact that I have been avoiding Shadow at every turn . I really don't want to face him alone. Because I know my will power is also on negative one. Again, so we're clear we are blaming it on the babies. But these hormones are doing stuff that I don't agree with, and they aren't listening when I say this is a dictatorship and I'm the boss of my body. Because when he shifted back to his human form earlier, my hormones said fk your dictatorship we just want that...you know the rest. But listen when I tell you he was naked, naked that's what I mean. I was trying so hard not to look down, I just know I was looking cross-eyed. I had to turn around and walk next to Mina and Blaze just to get away from him. Doing the right thing is hard as hell when your dude looks like a Greek god and will be naked at any giving moment, and that thing just be hanging, and swinging every time he move. I was having flashbacks just thinking about it. Shaking my head. I looked at Mina as she gave me a knowing look. “What?” “I know that look your lil nasty a*s that's how you got pregnant to begin with.” Mina said, smiling at me. “Shut up, You want to talk about me what about what's going on with you and Blaze he been acting real different lately and the whole carrying your a*s out the house earlier what the hell was that about?” I asked crossing my arms over my growing belly. “Will you shut the hell up I don't know what that st is about he got a girlfriend and she already be looking at me funny.” She said, looking over at the couple as we speak. The girl had come in a little while ago, rushing over to him to make sure he was ok. He didn't seem to even want her touching him and he didn't take his eyes off Mina the entire time. I turned to look in their direction. “Don't look over there, they will know we're talking about them.” Mina said grabbing my head to turn it to face her. I laugh removing her hands off my head. “How about we both go back to the house to shower, change, and eat then come back to check on Lahni?” I asked, because I really needed all of those things in that order along with a damn nap. “Yea let's do that maybe then everybody will be gone when we come back. Mina said getting up and then grabbing my hand like I really needed help, but I let her mother me she gets like that sometimes. “Where do you think you're going?” We heard Blaze ask as we were walking to the clinic's exit. We both stopped abruptly wide eyed. I decided to answer for the both of us. “We are heading to our house to wash and grab a bite to eat we will be back in a little while.” I said turning around and continued towards the exit. “It is not safe for you guys to walk home alone. I'll come with you." "NO! That's ok we can literally see our house from the door." Mina said a little too loudly. "You heard them baby they can walk by themselves, and we can go back to your place at the pack house, we should spend as much time together as possible before you leave to go rescue the alpha's pups." His girlfriend said coming up behind him wrapping her arms around him. I could see Mina stiffen but quickly recovered and smiled at them.

"Yea, Blaze you should definitely spend as much time with her as you can, we will be just fine." Mina replied a little too sweetly. I snickered but quickly held it when Blaze looked at me. "Thanks girl for understanding I mean not understanding but when you get a man you will understand wanting to be with him as much as possible." The girl said with a sarcastic smile. "Wait a minute did she just throw shade? What the hell is wrong with every she wolf in this pack they just can't take when women try to be nice and let st go they have to always comment some dumb st that will get them smacked in the mouth and their teeth on somebody's table, like that one she wolf what's your name again?"

I asked rhetorically. "Hey, how about I walk you two ladies back to your place? I was about to head back to the pack house anyway" Dradon said interrupting me from cussing that bh out. I saw Blaze's wolf come forward, but he quickly closed his eyes and breathed before just turning and walking out of the clinic with his girlfriend nearly tripping over herself trying to catch up with him. I turned to Dradon "Thanks but you really don't have to walk with us it's literally 2 houses down." I said smiling at him.

Now, Don't get it twisted. My baby daddy is fine, fine, but this man right here was a sexy looking man. He was brown skinned with a goatee and long dreads, with clear brown eyes, yes I said what I said. They were too light to be called light brown or hazel. Every time he talk to any of the she wolves they would just start giggling and stuttering, it looked so sad to watch them damn near have a heart attack just because he said hello. "Nonsense, I was really about to head to the pack house and will be walking that way anyway so it's no big deal."

He said, intertwining our hand kissing the back of them as we walked out the door. We looked over at each other with a raise brow. Oh, this dude is a troublemaker. I don't have time to be dealing with no more dudes right now. Mina can have that mess. "So, baby momma how's the little dragon wolf babies coming along? Lynn says you have been displaying some dragon abilities." He asked. I frowned at him. "First let's reframe from calling me your baby momma, and don't call my babies no dragon wolf babies either. They are just babies. Yes I have displayed some dragon abilities but only when my life is in danger we think it's the babies protecting me like the twins did Ji'lahni when she was pregnant. Oh, I guess I could also use dragon weapons too."

I told him, shrugging. he smiled, a deep smiled which held the deepest dimples. "Why are you smiling so hard?" I asked as we stopped in front of our house. "No reason, It's strange that you can yield a dragons weapon with only my essence in you. It is said that only those who carry dragons blood in their system can yield any of our weapons." He said, like it was no big deal. "So, are you saying something is wrong with my babies are they in some kind of danger?"

I asked getting ready to panic. He quickly shook his head no but wouldn't give me any more details about what he meant. But I will definitely be asking Lynn as soon as I see her again. She didn't come back after going to fetch the herbs her grandmother asked for. I'll say this every shifter man I have met so far is either batshit crazy or stupid there is no in between with them. Don't get me wrong they are good men, but they allow their hearts, instincts, and the trust of some kind of wolf code to lead them down the wrong damn path. I thought shaking my head as we walked into our house.

Blaze's POV:

I had to get out of there, Onyx was on the verge of exposing that Mina was my other half mate. "Well, she is and I'm tired of you not claiming our mate I want my mate!" Onyx roared in my head causing my head to ache. That's all he has been doing lately. He barely gives me any peace. "And I won't as long as you don't accept and claim our mate before it's too late. That damn Dragon is trying to claim our mate if you lose her you will lose me I promise I will never allow you to shift if we lose our mate." Onyx said and he went back into my subconscious. "Baby will you slow down why are you walking so fast you know I can't walk fast in these heels." Jessica said from behind me I didn't even notice that she followed me out of the clinic. "Why do you insist on wearing those damn things on your feet? All you do is complain about them hurting your feet." Because Summer said that they make women legs look sexy to their men and men like to have s*x with them on sometimes."

She answered and I rolled my eyes at the mention of that crazy bh. "Why do you still listen to that crazy bitch's advice do you see where all that crap got her?" I asked as I entered my apartment in the pack house. "It wasn't hurt fault, the alpha cheated on and abandon her for those humans. She was heartbroken and upset. Can you blame her for trying to get her man back, I do think she took things too far, but she had every right to fight for her man." Jessica said absentmindedly.

As she started stripping out of her clothes. I use to get hard immediately at seeing her necked toned body as she undressed for me. But now it took everything I could think of just to get it up, and cumming was almost impossible. "Look Jessica I think I'm just going to crash for a few hours we're leaving this evening and I want to be well rested. I said turning on the shower. "Baby what's wrong with you? You have been different lately." She asked opening the shower and stepping in behind me. I take a deep breath trying not to snap at her she isn't the reason for my anger. "We've just been under a lot of stress lately with the twins being kidnapped and alpha Zane trying to take the alpha's mate." I said hoping that she will drop it.

"Well then you need me more then ever I know just how to relax you." She said and she came to stand in front of me and dropped down to her knees and took me in her mouth. Jessica was very skillful with her mouth, but I just wasn't feeling it I had to try and imagine it was the mouth of the woman I really wanted. Once her beautiful face appeared in my mind my dk instantly gets hard, and a moan leaves my mouth. I always just thought about her face and not her body and that would be all I needed to finish, even though it took me a long time.

But this time Onyx decided to put images of her body in my head and how it felt to have her warm legs straddle us as we fought together. He sent images of her a*s and breast we see all the time whenever we are around her. And the scent of her arousal when we smacked her a*s while we carried her on our shoulders earlier. That last thought took me over the edge, and I came so hard it surprised me from the force. I grunted, and my knees buckled from the force. “See baby I told you I could make you feel better. You have never came that fast before.” She chattered on as she washed my body and then hers. All I could think about now was when could I see all the things Onyx showed me for myself this time. Damn what the hell was happening to me.

Blaze’s POV:

I said turning on the shower. “Baby what’s wrong with you? You have been different lately.”

She asked opening the shower and stepping in behind me. I take a deep breath trying not to snap at her she isn’t the reason for my anger. “We’ve just been under a lot of stress lately with the twins being kidnapped and alpha Zane trying to take the alpha’s mate.” I said hoping that she will drop it. “Well then you need me more then ever I know just how to relax you.” She said and she came to stand in front of me and dropped down to her knees and took me in her mouth. Jessica was very skillful with her mouth, but I just wasn’t feeling it I had to try and imagine it was the mouth of the woman I really wanted.

Once her beautiful face appeared in my mind my dk instantly gets hard, and a moan leaves my mouth. I always just thought about her face and not her body and that would be all I needed to finish, even though it took me a long time. But this time Onyx decided to put images of her body in my head and how it felt to have her warm legs straddle us as we fought together. He sent images of her a*s and breast we see all the time whenever we are around her.

And the scent of her arousal when we smacked her a*s while we carried her on our shoulders earlier. That last thought took me over the edge, and I came so hard it surprised me from the force.

I grunted, and my knees buckled from the force. “See baby I told you I could make you feel better. You have never came that fast before.” She chattered on as she washed my body and then hers. All I could think about now was when could I see all the things Onyx showed me for myself this time. Damn what the hell was happening to me.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 104

Ji’lehni’s POV :

You know what I’m tired of? This st, I wish that I can get through one fight without passing the fk out or getting hurt. I thought as I slowly opened my eyes. I, ironically, don’t feel any pain at the moment, I remember my back hurting like a bh and feeling lightheaded and then nothing. I opened my eyes. I was lying on my stomach. I didn’t see anything, but I could tell I was in the clinic by the hospital smell. I decided to test how much pain I’m in just to see what I’m dealing with because I know that if I’m hurt badly, Makahi my try and stop me from going to get my kids. “st, How long have I been out I hope they haven’t left me. I will be pissed.” I said, as I hopped up in a panic than immediately regretted it. because I felt dizzy.

“Hey, hey what are you doing trying to get up so fast.” I heard Makahi say as he hopped up from his chair in the corner of the room. “I thought you guys left me to go get the babies.” I said as I began to cry with relief. “Nonsense I wouldn’t leave without you at least knowing it. Now come on and sit back down.” He said guiding me back to the bed. “Why is it I’m not in pain? I remember being clawed by one of Zane’s warriors.” I asked looking at him frowning as I moved my body and felt no pain. “Lynn and her grandmother made some type of herb concoction, and it healed your back, almost immediately. You should feel absolutely no pain and no scar.” He said as he pulled me into his arms and kissed me gently. “I am still mad at you for putting yourself in danger. I know you are use to everyone relying on you but you have me now and I need you to be safe and protected at all time because I can’t focus on fighting if I’m constantly worried about you. Me being the alpha means it could cost people their lives if I’m not focus.” He said, seriously.

“Fine, I understand that, and I will try my best to stay out of harms way. But you can’t keep trying to take me out of the game. Trust me to make the decision for myself if I need to sit out and I will promise to not put anyone in danger trying to be Billy badass. Deal?” I asked, holding my hands out for him to shake. He looked down at my hand. His eyebrow raised. “What are you doing?” He asked. “Duh this is how you seal a deal, you shake on it.” I said looking at him. “Nope any deal we make gets sealed like this.” He said before he picked me up and dropped both of us on the bed with him laying on top of me. I giggled as he kissed and nibbled on my neck. “Stop Makahi before you leave a mark on my neck.” “That’s my plan baby. I want to make sure everyone knows you’re mine.” He said trying to go for my neck again, but I dodged him.

“But I’m really not. Not yet anyway. You’re still bonded to Summer, you can’t even kiss or touch me without Maka being present. I see that you are feeling some kind of pain so I can only assume that it’s because wherever she is, she’s being hurt and you can feel it, right?” I said, looking at him. He Sighed and moved away from me. “I was trying to not worry you we already have a lot to worry about with the twins and my father. Right now, we need to focus on the twins then we can deal with me.” He said and pulled me into his arms. “But understand that although I am still bonded to Summer, it is you I want you are my Luna, and that goes for me and Maka.” He said and kissed me passionately. Look I know he loves me and wants me. But this mate bond is the unknown to me I don’t feel it the same way as they do. I won’t claim to fully understand it either. I can only go by what I have experienced and see. Just from those things alone I can’t say I’m confident on how this will end.

Summer’s POV:

I don’t know how many days it has been, or even if it has been days at all. How did my life come to this? I blame it all on those fg fat a*s humans. If they had never came to the pack. I would be married and carrying Kahi’s pup instead I’m stuck in this hellhole. “My pet, you’re so angry I can smell the scent of your anger from the other room. What has you so angry?” The foul-smelling demon asked. And I shiver at the sound of his deep mincing voice. He has been feeding off of me ever since I got here. I am so weak my wolf can barely keep us alive. If it wasn’t for her I’m sure me and my pup would be dead by now. “You’re refusing to talk well I guess I can just have a little snack while I am here.” He said, I could feel him move across the floor getting closer and closer to me. “NO wait please don’t, you have fed from me already it’s too soon I don’t think I can take anymore. Please don’t I’ll tell you whatever you want to know just please don’t hurt me again.” I begged, as I cried.

can barely keep us alive. If it wasn't for her I'm sure me and my pup would be dead by now. "You're refusing to talk well I guess I can just have a little snack while I am here." He said, I could feel him move across the floor getting closer and closer to me. "NO wait please don't, you have fed from me already it's too soon I don't think I can take anymore. Please don't I'll tell you whatever you want to know just please don't hurt me again." I begged, as I cried.

"Well now since you put it that way. Urrale mentioned that a human woman and the Alpha birthed the alpha twins. They fascinate me tell me everything you know about them." I demanded, I smiled because although I don't want anything to happen Kahi but if there is a chance that I can get rid of them one and for all I will take my chance. "I will tell you everything I know. They are the vilest humans I have ever encountered. They are a danger to all shifters, even their blood poisons us. I don't know who sent them, but they have brainwashed all the men in my pack including my mate the alpha. We were supposed to be mated, but as soon as those humans arrived everything changed. I lost everything because of them, Even our council leaders put them in jail, but Kahi rescued them and somehow convinced everyone that they weren't dangerous." I told him everything about them and even some things that weren't true. I just needed to make sure that he would want to bring them here and let me go. At this point I will try anything to get out of this hell hole.

The Dark one's POV:

The Dark one's POV:

My dear sister, it seems that you have been busy these past few years. What do you have planned with these humans? There has to be another reason you chose them. I will find out what that reason is. I just have to get one of them and taste their blood and it will tell me everything I need to know. Turning to the she wolf who has been surprisingly helpful and delicious may be more useful than I ever thought just in case the witch becomes a liability I may need a back up plan. To ensure that I will soon have my sister's heart in my hand feasting on it as I watch the life drain from her eyes. "Get up my child may have a job for you after all. If you prove yourself to me I will grant you your freedom and your alpha. You just have to do exactly what I say. First things first we have to get you cleaned and fed we can't have you smelling and looking like a we. Once I have the human your alpha will be all yours." I said as I summoned one of my minions. To get the she wolf cleaned up. "Really? I will do anything I won't let you down I promise." She said eagerly, I smiled because I have always said shifters are the stupidest creatures ever created, and I was absolutely right. "Once you are done I will summon the witch to take you back to her castle and wait for the wolves to attack. You will need to make sure that you are found and taken back to the pack house. Once I raise you will bring the human to me." I said as I walked out of the chambers as I formulate my plans for the she wolf.

Back at the castle

Urrale's POV:

Where the hell could he be, We have been searching for hours. I was growing more and more nervous because the closer it gets to the full moon without the twins being prepped and ready to sacrifice at the exact moment I could lose everything I have worked so hard to get. Why would my mate do this to me? I thought as we continue to search. “Master you have been summon by the dark one.” One of my servant said to me from behind. “st, st, st! I don’t have time for this. I need to find those babies. He can’t find out I have lost them he will kill us all.” Get everyone out of the castle and expand the search until I return alert me immediately once you find them. I said, turning to head back to my castle. Everything will fall apart if I can’t find my mate and those damn pups.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 105

Antoni’s POV:

“Alpha I can feel them getting closer and closer. I can feel the witches magic gaining on us.” Fiona said, running to catch up with me. We had been running for hours. Only stopping to feed the pups. They were getting fussy from being in the backpack for most of the day. We will have to stop soon, but I needed to move faster to put as much distance between us and Urrale. I will find a spot in order to be able to get the babies out of the backpack for a while. “Hey Fiona, we will have to run at full speed for a little while in order to stop for a little while and get the pups out of this backpack to get them changed, fed, and to give them some wiggle room.”

“I understand alpha just go I’ll do my best to keep up. I know what we must do I can handle it.” Fiona said and she lifted her head in determination. I picked up speed and ran as fast as I could. Changing directions every so often and covering our track to confuse the people after us. it won’t confuse them for long but long enough to give us more time to rest. We ran at full speed for an hour before I found another little cave. I used branches to hide the cave, even though we won’t be staying long. We fed and change the babies. We needed water, so I went out to see if I can find another water source. Hearing what sounds like talking. I quickly climbed the nearest tree and waited. I didn’t have to wait long though; three men came into the clearing right below me. The first one was short and bulky he isn’t a wolf he smelled...human.

The second one was tall and smelled like a fox shifter. The last one and the biggest one was definitely a Bear shifter and I hate those motha fuckas they weren’t the brightest bunch. After I assess the situation I already knew I would kill them. I just needed to find the right time. I was getting ready to strike when I heard something that made my blood run cold. “We have to find those damn wolves and those babies. Master will kill us all if we don’t find them.

The dark one will not be pleased if he finds out about the pups being missing.” The fox said. “Yea I have never been down in the basement she always takes Sam but he’s dead now thanks to her mate.” The human one stated. “I heard that The Dark one, plans to kill every wolf on earth, that’s why the Master needs those babies. He won’t be able to kill anyone who drinks their blood.” The bear said. At this point I see red and had heard enough. I dropped out of the tree silently.

I still have my weapons from the castle. As soon as I dropped out of the tree right behind the fox I reached out and broke his neck and threw my knife in the human’s throat. Hearing his men fall, the bear immediately ran at me I dodged him easily, because he’s a bulky guy so I know I had to use my speed if I was to defeat him, he managed to land a blow to my head, I stumbled back shook my head and smiled, The bear looked at me strangely. “Why don’t you just grab those pups and come with me, so we can do this without shedding blood.” The bear said as he circled me.

“Well, that’s funny, because shedding blood was exactly what I plan to do.” I said, and charged at him full speed before I dropped abruptly at the last second kicked out with my foot and cracked his knee causing the bone to poke out the back of his legs. The bear fell to the ground immediately and I used my fork to silence his cries. I needed to get out of here and back to the cave I know someone heard his screams. I forgot about the water for now I needed to get the pups out of here. But once I reached the cave my heart sunk when I saw four men with the pups and Fiona laying unconscious. “Well,well, just the wolf we were waiting for.

“This is your one and only chance to put my grand pups down and back away from them.” I said, my blood boiling at the sight of my grand pups beginning to cry as they notice me. “Now why would you threaten us we’re just trying to get you back to the castle the master has been so worried about you and these pups. Just come with us so no one gets hurt.” The wolf that was holding Tru said. “That’s funny your other three friends said the same thing before I killed them.” I said, as I inched closer to them. I know what they are seeing when they look into my eyes, and I wanted them to know what lies beneath the surface.

“Now Alpha I wouldn’t threaten us. especially with these two tiny precious pups right here in our hands I would hate to have to cut their little throats out. Do you think you will be able to kill us all before one or both of your grand pups die?” The wolf asked as he pulled out a blade and traced the blade along Tru’s face. I Growled and stepped towards them. “at,at don’t come any closer Alpha or I will see if your pups can heal without their wolf.” He said and pressed a little harder and Tru cried out. But he didn’t draw blood. I stepped back immediately. “Now that we have an understanding I need you to turn around so my buddy can tie your hands up. We don’t want a repeat of what you did to my friends to happen again.” He said as one of his men came forward. “Just so you know when I get out of this you will be the first one I kill before I kill the rest of you.” I said with a deadly smile as I turned around and put my hands behind my back. I did the only thing I knew to do. I closed my eyes. “Moon Goddess if you can hear me. Please send my son to help us. I have lost my mate. I can not lose my grand pups.” I said as they led me out of the cave and headed in the direction I never wanted to see again, the castle.

Moon Goddess’s POV:

Somewhere in a distance realm

Moon Goddess's POV:

Anger flared to life as I watch My wolf Antoni being escorted back to that filthy witches castle. I couldn't see inside the castle it is somehow invisible to me, which only tells me it is protected by a God. There was a God who is breaking the rules of all the Gods. The Ancient made the rules once he created us. He has long since left our realm we haven't seen or heard from him in millennia some of the God thinks he is dead or was killed the others thinks he is roaming from realm to realm and will comeback if and when he is needed, and it will not be a social visit he will surely end us if we destroy the very earth he created. We are the god's who protect the earth from those that wish to destroy it. Now that one of us has abandon the rules they are putting us all in danger.

So, we must find out who is doing this and stop them before it is too late. "Oh my dear Selina, you know very well who is doing this. The question is will you be able to stop your twin once he is found?" The God of the Dragon shifter Dragthe said as he entered my realm. I had called upon all the Gods to meet with me in my realm so we could find out who the traitor is and stop him before he cause the return of The Ancient. "Dragthe, I'm glad you were able to join me. You're the first to arrive once everyone is here we will begin." I said avoiding his statement all together I know everyone thinks it's my twin who is doing this. But I have my doubts, we are twins and use to have a connection where we could feel each other's presence. I haven't felt my brother's presence since the day I battled him centuries ago. "You're avoiding the question I see. Should I think of this as a sign that you will not be able to do what needs to be done once we find your brother."

"Nonsense I am not avoiding, I know, that once everyone is here they will ask the same thing of me, and I will only address that question once I do not wish to repeat myself because we don't have the time to waste if who ever is doing this succeed in their plan we will all be destroyed. We mustn't allow that to happen." I said looking Dragthe in the eyes. He nodded and went to sit at the table I had set up. Not long after all the Gods were present and seated. I walked over at the head of the table looking at all six Gods. The God of dragons was in the seat next to me then the Gods of the bears, foxes, lions, mermaids, and lastly the vampire lord, were all here we haven't all been in the same realm since the Ancient created us.

"I am glad you all could join me. I called you all here because there is a traitor among us. Before anyone interrupts me I want to make it clear those who believe my twin brother is the traitor then understand that I will not hesitate to kill him. If he is the traitor then he.is.no.longer.my.brother." I said looking each one of the gods one at a time. They all saw the truth in my glowing eyes and nodded in approval. "Now we must go through a cleansing so we can tell no lies and once we find out who is behind this we will begin the hunt of the Traitor god.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 106

Back at Crystal Moon

In the conference room's POV:

“So, we will leave in eight hours. My uncle will be here in three hours. Shadow I will need you to make a schedule for his men there are twenty men who will need to be added to our guard duty post. I have sent the names to your email you can go ahead with the schedule so the only thing you will have to do is show them where they will be station and the areas we patrol.” The alpha said as they went over the protection plans for the pack once they leave on the mission to save the twins. The alpha was pacing the floor looking uneasy. “Alpha is everything alright? you seem a little off.” Montego Asked. Coming up to stand in front of the alpha. He sighed, closing his eyes. “I don't know, I feel like something is happening or is going to happen before we make it to my father and the twins. I thought I felt a tug at the mind link from my father earlier like he was trying to mind link me but when I tried to reach out there was nothing. I don't know maybe I'm just going a little crazy.” He said running a hand through his hair.

“Hey, you're not crazy you're just worried about your father and pups. It's totally normal for anyone to be feeling a little crazy. Just go and find Ji'lahni, maybe that will help. Is she in your room?” “No, she refuse to move in there. Her words: I'm not laying in no bed you done fk another bh in, especially the bh who had me kidnapped. You will have to burn that pack house down and start that st over.” The alpha finished imitating his mate. Montego Laughed. “Damn you got her down to a tee that sounds like something she would say.” They both laugh. So, what are you going to do? The house they are in is entirely to small and the alpha of the pack can't live there.” Montego asked curiously.

“I'm hoping we could remodel the whole entire top floor and make it into an entire apartment. Once we get the twins and my father back I will bring it up to Ji'lahni and see what she thinks.” “That sounds like a good idea. You should definitely do that. “Alpha is it alright if I go see Shawna before your uncle and his men get here?” Shadow asked, the alpha frowned. “Yes of course is everything alright?” He asked. “I honestly don't know; she hasn't said two words to me since the meeting earlier and after the attack she made disappeared. I just want to make sure she is ok and talk about her role on this mission. I really don't want her to think that I want to rescue Scarlett so we could be together. I just can't let her stay with that evil vile woman if she has been abused and used these past years because I didn't try and find her.” Shadow said, looking defeated.

“Hey, Shadow man you can't blame yourself you thought she was dead you saw her die and felt your bond break. You can't blame yourself.” Montego said, as he patted Shadow on the back. “I know it isn't my fault I just feel that I owe it to her to allow her to be free and not under anyone's control.” “Do you still have feelings for her? Is there no chance that you and Scarlett can't pick up where you left off once the doc fixes her memory I'm sure her feelings will return. What will you do then?" Shadow looked at the alpha in shock like he didn't really think past rescuing her. "I don't know, me and Rane still feel the mates bond but our feelings for Shawna is still there, I miss her like crazy, Rane is going out of his mind, I don't know what's happening his anger is at an all-time high. She is all we can think about Rane just needs to be near her." Shadow said, sad and confused.

"Hey, I get that, but you shouldn't press her into anything until you figure out what you're going to do about Scarlett, because the girls have a bounty on her head, and you will have to either convince them to not kill her or come to terms with the fact that you will have to let Shawna go back with my Uncle like she planned to do once we get the pups back." The alpha said, and Shadow growled at the thought of Shawna and his pups leaving the pack. he will not let that happen.

The alpha said, and Shadow growled at the thought of Shawna and his pups leaving the pack. he will not let that happen.

Shawna's POV:

"Why am I so damn tired? I'm over this st already." I said as I sat on the couch in the living room. Me and mina had been back at the house for a little while. Lynn told us that Lahni was fine and wouldn't even have a scar she was just resting and will be back as soon as she wakes up. So, I took that good news and decided to take a nap, but for some damn a*s reason I couldn't get comfortable. I looked in the mirror and was surprised at my once soft belly looking firmer. It isn't really big, but my normal stomach looks rounder. I pulled down my shirt that felt a little snug. There was a knock at the door. I frowned "I swear yall wait until I sit down just to knock on my damn door." I said as I got my tired a*s up to go to the door. I swung the door open as they were knocking on it again.

"Damn give me time to get to the door, what do you.." My words were cut off by the two men that were standing at the door. "Uh Dradon and Maxisin, right? Lynn's not here she is at the pack house with Montego." I said getting ready to close the door. "Wait, we aren't here to see Lynn we are here to speak with you." Dradon said, with a smile. I looked at them suspiciously. I came out on the patio and closed the door behind me because they weren't coming in my house. "My brother told me that you were displaying dragon abilities. So, I wanted to have a talk with you. It is very unusual for a human to have dragon abilities from a dragon's healing, So I want to examine you for myself." Maxisin said, like I was getting on his nerves.

"Listen, I don't know you nor the dragon I thanked him for saving my life, but I don't know you and Lynn doesn't like you, so that should tell you how I feel about you. Now you can ask me whatever you want, and I will answer your questions and if you explain what you think is happening and If I feel like you need to check me out then I will let you know. If not then you and him can kick rock with no shoes on in a desert.” I said crossing my arms over my growing belly. They both looked lost and didn’t get my comment. “Dradon I think I like her.” Maxisin said with a flirty smile stepping towards me and I immediately took a step back but backed into the door. “I’m not sure if you can’t read the fg room but I don’t like you the end. Now if you don’t know how the act then we can cut this short and you’re just a rider and not a dragon so shouldn’t Dradon know way more then you?” I asked, looking at them like they were bullshitting me.

“Dradon know more then me? That isn’t possible in his lifetime or mine and he has been alive longer then me.” Maxisin said laughing. Dradon was looking at him angrily. “How about I see how fast your hair burns again.” Dradon said as smoke came out of his mouth and Maxisin stepped back with his hands up. “Oh my god can we get this over with. Before I give birth.” I said sitting in one of the chairs on the patio. They pulled their chairs to sit in front of me and was a little to close they were all serious which made me kinda nervous about what they think is happening to me or my babies. “So, tell me every detail about what you were doing when you experience dragon abilities?” Maxisin asked, looking at me intently. I gave him every detail I could think of from when I touched the blade and when I burned the wolf’s head off his body, to finding out I was having three baby boys instead of one baby. As well as how my pregnancy seems to be progressing.

“Damn it can’t be true.” Maxisin said getting up pacing the patio deep in thought. “What is it man you can’t just say some dumb st like that and then don’t say nothing else.” I said, getting up to stand in front of him. Just as he turned, and ran right into me, and I stumbled back. But he was quick and quickly grabbed me and pulled me to his chest and looked into my eyes before a small smile formed on his lips. I was about to move away from his grasp. But I heard a deadly growl. Before all hell broke loose. God damnit! Shadow is about to kill Lynn’s brother. How the hell will I explain this st to Lynn?

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 107

Shadow and Rane’s POV:

“DO. NOT. TOUCH. WHAT’S. MINE!” I growled when I saw that damn rider with Shawna in his arms. Rane immediately took over and charged at the man that dare touch what’s mine. Rane jumped on the patio grabbed Shawna, and placed her behind him, then grabbed the rider by the throat lifting him off the ground, I could hear Shawna screaming from behind me. All of a sudden that damn dragon shifter grabbed me and threw me away from the rider. I shifted completely into Rane and landed on my paws and immediately charged at the dragon who put his arm up to block his throat from me, I bit down on his arm trying to remove it from his body. He screamed out and shifted into his dragon and breathe blue fire at me and I easily dodged it ran and used the patio rails to jump and land on the dragons shoulder and bit down he roared out and fire left his mouth as he shook me off his shoulder and I landed hard on the patio. I'll admit that st hurt. Shawna came running and kneeled next to me. "Damn it Shadow, what the hell is wrong with you? Are you trying to get yourself killed? I swear if you die I will kill you myself. I am not raising these babies by my damn self." She yelled as she cried. I looked up as the Dragon circled around and shot fire out of his mouth in my direction before he spotted Shawna, His eyes widen in shock and fear. He looked like he was trying to fly down and reach us before his blue flames did but I knew he couldn't.

I grabbed Shawna and tried to shield her as much as I could. I knew I was going to die but I wanted to give Shawna a chance at surviving. I closed my eyes; I hear Shawna let out an ear-piercing scream and then nothing there was no burning no fire. I opened my eyes to look as Shawna who's eyes were glowing blue, and her mouth was releasing purple flames. I looked behind me and I could see the she was protecting us from the blue flames. Once the flames were gone Shawna's eyes changed back to her normal blue and she fell unconscious. "Shawna, wake up baby what the hell was that?" I asked the Rider and the dragon who had shifted back to his human form and fell to his knees in shocked silence. I picked her up, I needed to get her to the clinic. "We must take her to my grandmother she's the only one that can help her." I looked back at him and growled I don't trust them.

"Look you don't have to like me, but if you care about her you need to take her to my grandmother she will know what to do." The rider said just as the door burst open and the girls came running out. Their eyes widen in shock when they saw Shawna they immediately pulled out their guns aiming them at the rider and the dragon. "Somebody better fg explain what the hell is wrong with my damn cousin?" Ji'lahni said, from the door apparently whatever the old lady did worked, because she doesn't look like she was just passed out with claw marks in her back. Lynn run up the patio and looked at Shawna and then the dragon and the rider. "God damn it Maxisin what have you done. I swear brother or not I will kill you if you have done anything to my family." Lynn said pulling the dragons Blade out of her utility belt. "Calm down I didn't do anything, Dradon and the wolf were fighting and Dradon mistakenly released blue fire at the wolf not seeing Shawna until it was too late and she... she... released purple flames to protect her and the wolf." I'm trying to get her to grandmother now because she will know what to do." The rider said to Lynn who was also shocked into silence as she looked from Shawna to her brother. "God damnit Lynn what the hell is going on?" I yelled at Lynn which caused her to get over the shock and come running over to us. "Shadow he's right we need to get her to my grandmother; she will know what to do." Lynn said and I nodded and headed to the pack house where the old lady was staying. I trusted Lynn because she would die before she would let anything happen to Shawna.

"Alpha please get the old lady to the conference room. Something is wrong with Shawna and Lynn said that only her grandmother can help her." I mind link the alpha. "Got it, but what the hell happen Shadow?" The alpha responded. "Shawna passed out after she protected us from the dragons blue fire. Now she's passed out and I can't wake her." I told him. "Damn it, ok Lynn's Grandmother is on her way to the conference room I also have the Doc with us as well. We will be waiting for you when you get here." The alpha said before cutting the link. I made it to the pack house soon after. I kicked the door to the pack house off it's hinges. Not bothering to slow down I jumped the stairs by threes using Rane's strength. He was just as worried as I was about Shawna and our pups. Oddly, I could feel their aura somehow only alpha pups could emit their powers from the womb. As strange as it was I could also feel our blood connection so to speak. Once I made it to the conference room I saw that the doc had laid blankets and pillows on the table, and I laid her on top of the makeshift bed. "Step back son so I can check her." The old lady said. I stepped to the side, but I kept my hand on hers. I couldn't leave her side. I needed her to be ok. "Can anyone explain to me what happened to her?" Lynn's grandmother asked.

"The wolf attacked me and Dradon shifted to stop him he released his blue flames at the wolf but didn't see Shawna until the last moment. That's when she emitted.... purple flames and it completely extinguished the blue flames. Once she did that she passed out and now we are here." Lynn's brother said as the grandmother touched Shawna's head and placed her hands on her belly where my sons grew. I let out a small growl and the old lady looked up at me with a smile. "No worries son I will not hurt your mate." She said and turned back to Shawna and closed her eyes. When she opened them her eyes glowed gold and her hands began to glow, and her hair began to flow around her. She began to speak in another language.

"What in the hell is going on here? Is this some kind of exorcism? I didn't agree to be here for this st now yall are taking this st to a whole other level, cuz would forgive me if I ran the hell out of here right? Mina said backing away with her eyes wide. Ji'lahni grabbed her arm and kept her in place while she tried to pry her hands off her arm. Lynn what is happening is Shawna going to be ok?" Ji'lahni asked and I had to listen to her answer because I really needed to know the answer to that very question. "Grandmother will do everything she can to make sure she is ok." Lynn answered coming to put her arms around both Ji'lahni and Mina. Her grandmother's eyes finally turned back to their normal color and her hair dropped back down and her hands stopped glowing. She took a step back as Shawna took a deep breath and sat up patting her body checking to see if she was on fire. She looked around the room at everyone and then her eyes landed on Lynn's grandmother. "Excuse me but can somebody tell me what the hell is going on with me and my babies? Excuse my language I usually don't curse like that, but this pregnancy has got my hormones all over the place." Shawna said to Lynn's grandmother.

"Damn you must have been pregnant for years." Ji'lahni said which made the girls giggle. "shut the hell up Lahni" Shawna said with a small smile. "Child there is nothing wrong with you at all. You are something very special. Something we haven't seen in thousands of years something that was long gone from the Dragon shifters. Something that died with the mother of all dragons. She was the very first Shifter to give birth to the first Golden dragons. She was very special there was no other dragon like her. She was the first and the last to walk this earth and none of her offspring carried her powers. All dragons summon blue flames and can only do so when they shift into their dragon. But the mother of all dragons had the ability to summon not only blue flame she could also summon purple flames without shifting.

The purple flame can burn things at the moment of contact it also has the ability to extinguish any flame or redirect or protect anyone from any form of flame as you did today my dare child, it seems as though your babies will be the first to have the powers of the purple dragon shifter." The old lady said, Lynn, her brother, and the Dragon all gasp as the revelation.

"Wait, are you trying to say I'm having dragon babies? How the hell is that possible when their father is a damn werewolf?" Shawna said clear upset and scared she automatically reached for my hand, and I intertwine our fingers reassuringly. If what the old lady said is true. Shawna and our babies will be in as much danger as the alpha's twins. Rane began to pace back and forth in my head. His need to protect Shawna and our pups growing even stronger.

Chapter 108

Mina's POV:

I was finally able to get out of that damn conference room. I needed some fg air. I swear sometimes I think we are in the wizard of oz, with the damn wolves, dragons, and vamps oh my! I'm afraid to ask how many types of Shifters there are. I thought as I walked into the dining hall. I immediately spotted Blaze and Hunter in the corner with their girlfriends literally stuck to them like glue. "Hey Mina, what's up how's Shawna? We heard what happened." Hunter asked waving me over. I took a deep breath and walked over to them. "She's fine they're still in there talking, I just needed to get out of there and get some fresh air and probably see if the ladies in the back has some fruit or I may make me a sandwich." I said turning away from them to head in the kitchen. "Yea, you should go with the fruit it is better for you then all the bad food you probably eat. Good for you trying to lose weight especially if you're going to be teamed up with my baby I had to give him a rub down from When alpha Zane attacked.

“Lord, please give me the strength not to bust her head to the white meat.” I said looking up, praying that when I turn around I could be the better person and not cuss her a*s out, Nope not today I’ll try again tomorrow. “Jennifer right? “No Jessica.” “Whatever, anyway Jen Jen I see you are getting that Summer spirit in you with your mouth. I’m not sure why you’re getting real comfortable thinking you can say what you want to me and I’m just going to let it go. I’m not that cousin, I don’t deal with bull st well, so unless you want to start a fire in this bh today, please don’t blow no smoke. Blaze you don’t have to worry about me teaming up with you anymore I’ll get Lynn to get the harness vest from you and fit it for Rimmy.” I Said as I heard a low growl that I know came from Blaze I smirked a little at that. I turned away quickly and decided I would just go back to my house and make me a sandwich, because I would rather go back to my house, than in that dining room with Blaze and his girlfriend. Not looking where I was going I ran right into a solid brick wall.

“Hey, do you and your cousin make it a habit of not watching where you’re going?” I heard a deep voice say, I had to look up just to see that it was Dradon. “No, we don’t yall just don’t know how to get out of the walkway.” I said stepping away from him just realizing that he had his hand around my waist. He laughed as I stepped back. “I saw you leave the conference room and I decided to make my escape too.” He said with a seductive smile. “Well good for you, I was just about to head to our house for a minute to make a sandwich.” I said stepping around him. “Hey, cool I could eat can I tag along? We can get to know each other a little better.” He said, quickly stepping in front of me so I bump into him again. “Hey, stop doing that st man, and I don’t think it’s....” I was saying just as I was interrupted “Hey Mina, we need to talk, excuse us.” Blaze stood beside me gently moving me away from Dradon who just smiled.

“Um, excuse me we don’t have anything to talk about, and anyway me and Dradon was about to go back to my house so we could make some sandwiches you know the ones that your girlfriend thinks I should stay away from and of course I know I can’t team up with you anymore, you know with your bad back and all. I don’t want my big a*s to break your back.” I said with sarcasm. “Nonsense, you have a very nice a*s if I may say so myself. I will gladly let you team up with me and I can guarantee that you won’t hurt my back. I would most certainly enjoy having your a*s on my back.” Dradon said eyeing me like he was picturing me riding something that wasn’t his fg back. I could hear Blaze growling and I don’t have time for this st again. I don’t even know why the hell Blaze has been acting really weird. I know I’m not his mate because we have been around each other more than once and he has never giving me a second look after the night he told me I wasn’t his type. So, I don’t know what his deal is, but he needs to figure that st out. Lucky for me Blaze’s girlfriend came right on time.

“Hey, baby the omega’s Just brought the food out. Let’s go eat before our food gets cold.” Jennifer said coming up behind Blaze kissing his neck. That seemed to calm him down. So, I took the opportunity, “Yea you better get back in there before your food is cold and we’re about to head on outta here. See you later Jen.” I said waving at them both grabbing Dradon by the hand as we walked out of the pack house. I breathed a sigh of relief when Blaze didn’t follow or was it a sigh of disappointment. “So, are you and that wolf back there a thing?” Dradon asked as we walked in the direction of my house. “What? No, we're not we were kinda a team when we are being attacked or on some type of rescue mission." I said waving him off. "It doesn't seem like it is that simple for him." "Well, I can't tell you about him I can only speak for myself and for me it is damn sure that simple." I said as we made it to my house. I needed to hurry up and make this dude a sandwich so he can go on about his business.

Blaze's POV:

Onyx smelled her before she came into the dining hall. I was going to try my best to just ignore her, but Onyx was clawing at me trying to take control and go be near her, but I refuse to allow him to take control. "Hey Mina, What's up how's Shawna? We heard about what happened?" Hunter said getting Mina's attention, she took a second before she turned around with a forced smile on her face and came over to our table. Which drove Onyx crazy at how close we were to our mate. "Would you calm the fk down already. We are not going near her; we are here with Jessica remember?" I said to Onyx in my subconscious. "Correction you are with that she wolf I do not have anything to do with you. I want my mate, I will not mate with that she wolf." He fired back at me. "Her wolf's name is Bonnie, and you know it. You had no problem with it before." "That was before I met my mate. I will not touch another wolf; I will only touch my mate." "She isn't even a she wolf she has no wolf. She's just a." I was saying before Mina's words broke the conversation I was having with Onyx.

"Blaze you don't have to worry about me teaming up with you anymore I'll get Lynn to get the harness vest from you and fit it for Rimmy." Mina said, at her words Onyx went absolutely crazy my eyes flashed and a low growl escape my lips. I immediately took back control. As she left out of the dining hall. "Damn Blaze you really said that about Mina? That was f*d up." Hunter said looking disappointed at me. I frowned at him in confusing. "What the hell are you talking about? I didn't say anything." I looked at him waiting for him to answer. "Well, your girl Jessica said that you were having back pains due to Onyx having to team up with her and carrying her during our missions." Hunter said and my eyes widen in shock and Onyx went crazy in my head.

"I will kill her. How dare you allow this she wolf to talk about our mate like that. If she takes her harness back and give it to that damn wolf Rimmy I will kill him then I will kill this damn she wolf." Onyx said as he retreated back into my subconscious and slammed the mental door behind him. I turned to Jessica angry as hell. "Why the hell did you say that to my.. I mean why did you tell those lies? I have never said anything about her to you, and I for damn sure never said I have a problem carrying her on my back. Onyx is far from a weak wolf. You better pray that I can apologize and fix this mess. God forbid she tells the alpha." I said getting up trying to catch up with Mina before she left. When I walked out of the dining room I saw Mina in the arms of that damn dragon, and Onyx howled in pain and then growled in anger he wanted to rip that damn dragons throat out for touching what is ours.

Chapter 109

Lynn's POV:

Well, this is about to be super bad. Grandmother wanted me and my siblings and their dragons to meet before this mission. She has been acting really weird and I know she is hiding something, because she always talks in riddles when she's hiding something. She is always leaving you wondering if she has lost her mind. "I see your siblings still have issues telling time." Grandmother said, as she entered the conference room. Did I mention that I am about tired of this damn conference room. "Grandmother, I still don't know why we are even doing this. We have to prepare for this mission to save our babies, we don't have time to try and work on our family drama." I said, frustratedly. "Oh, Lynndoria you're still the hotheaded one I see, once your siblings get here I will tell you everything." Grandmother said, as she sat down. "Ok grandmother, we are here what is it that is so important that you had to summon us and not let us get some sleep before we have to save these brats." Kat said as she, Maxisin and his dragon came into the room. "Kat please don't make me punch you in the mouth. Watch how you talk about our babies." I said, getting up walking over to her.

"OMG! Would you stop with the "our babies", those are not your babies those babies belong to the human and the wolf. You need to get that through your head no matter how much you say it those humans aren't your family you don't belong with them you're an outsider that they feel sorry for." Kat said with a smirk she has always tried to make me feel less than like I'm not good enough to be valued and loved. But what she doesn't get is that those girls taught me what it means to value myself with or without anyone and they have shown me that they would ride for me through anything. So, her words don't mean jack st to me anymore I'm not the same person she use to bully. I smiled, thinking that if they were here right now I would probably have to pull Mina off Kat.

"ENOUGH! Kat do I have to do the same thing I had to do to your brother when he wouldn't close his mouth." Grandmother said, not even bothering to look her way. Kat visibly trembled and shook her head and took her sit. "Now where is Dradon?" she said. "I'm right here, sorry I'm late I had lunch with Mina today." Dradon said, smiling. Wait Is he blushing? what the fk is he up to. "Wha.." "That's where you were? You said you wanted to get some lunch I didn't know you were going on a date with that." Kat sneered. "Watch your fg mouth Kat. But I would also like to know what the hell are you up to Dradon? Why are you all of a sudden showing interest in her?" I said watching him closely. "I'm not up to anything it was purely a coincident that we bumped into each other, and I invited myself to her house for lunch." Dradon said, with that silly a*s smile on his face. "I swear Dradon you better stay away from Mina she is not yours and you will not imprint on her, I will not let you put her life in danger." I said, in anger. His smile dropped at my words, and he was about to say something, but grandmother spoke before he could. "Now, that everyone is here. I wanted to speak with you all and tell you what I have found out. We have reason to believe that the witch has your brother Cannon. I told you that the witches that found the rift, and said that there was a black dragon in the witch's realm." Grandmother said.

"But we all know it is impossible, because they died during the war." Maxisin said, sitting back in his chair. "Yes that is correct, but the witches said that they saw a black dragon in that realm, and if that is the case I fear that the dragon isn't really a black dragon, The dragon may be...your dragon Lynn, the Dragon you gave to your brother. He was born without a dragon so when you gave up your tie to your dragon it transferred to your brother. We all know a dragon is weakened without the rider that was chosen for them by the dragon god. In that weaken state makes him vulnerable to mental attack. I believe the witch was somehow able to put a spell on him to make him turn dark and blacken his heart, turning him into a black dragon." My grandmother said, and I felt like I had all the air sucked out of me. I just couldn't believe that Lynx would ever turn dark. I made sure before I left that Cannon and Lynx connected and were blood tied. "Grandmother how could this happen I made sure he and Cannon were connected by blood and we were disconnected. Why would he be weakened when he had a rider?" I asked confused and scared shitless. "Because Cannon wasn't chosen for him. The connection was artificial, so his strength wasn't at its full potential." My blood drain from my face at what Cannon and Lynx were going through.

"This is all your fault if you hadn't left to find your own, "Destiny" now because of you, not only is our baby brother missing, and suffering from whatever they are doing to him, but the golden dragon has turned into an evil black dragon. And that means, because they are connected by blood Cannon may also be affected. I hope you're happy now. You just had to go and fine yourself and didn't bother to think about anything other than yourself. So, Whatever happens to Cannon it will be your fault." Kat said angrily. That made my blood boiled. "Are you stupid or are you stupid and slow? You and Maxisin are the reason I left. How you conveniently forgot what you and he did to me daily if you and him weren't beating on me then the elders were beating on me because I defended when I got tired of the abuse. So don't act like you didn't have a hand in me leaving that hell hole yall created for me simply because I was better at everything then you and Maxisin. So, whatever happens now will not be on me alone yall played a part in all of this." I said getting up to go directly in her face hoping she gave me a reason to knock her a*s out.

"I did not bring you here to lay blame at anyone's feet what happen to Cannon isn't anyone's fault we haven't been at war in decades there was no reason to think that Cannon becoming a rider would do any harm because the golden dragons were the last of the dragon shifters. There was no way for anyone to think that a witch would attack a dragon and his rider. We need to make sure that when we try and get Cannon and Lynx out of there alive. Dradon and Myria when we get to the other realm I need you to find your brother Lynx and inject him with this." My grandmother said handing them a flat disc. "Just place this disc anywhere on his body and it will activate and release the potion that will knock him out, he will shift into human form, then you get him to the rift and then come back and aid the alpha and his warriors getting those pups out. Katalynia and Maxisin you need to try and find Cannon." grandmother said looking over at them. "I will help to find him as well, he is also my brother, so I will help." I said, holding my head up high. “We don’t need you to help find him, you don’t think of us as your family. Those humans are your family, so we don’t need you.” Kat said with a sneer.

“I don’t care about nothing you just said, because you nor Maxisin is going to stop me from trying to find my brother. I didn’t ask you for permission I was just letting grandmother know. You seem to be wishing for violence today, and I’m about to grant your wish if you keep talking crazy to me.” I said looking at Kat waiting to see if I will become a genie in a bottle. “Can you two give it a rest we need to focus on finding Cannon.” Maxisin said rolling his eyes at us. For the first time I had to agree with him as much as I hated to admit it. Once grandmother left the room I waited until all my siblings left the room leaving only me and Dradon I had a feeling he wanted to talk to me and although I didn’t feel like talking to him. He seemed to be determined. “Dradon what is it? I really want to try and get some sleep before we leave.” I said as Dradon stepped towards me.

“I just wanted to talk about our agreement. You promised me that you would do me a favor for saving your friend.” He said and I got a little nervous. “Yes, I remember and I also told you Mina was off-limits.” I said just so he knows I will not allow him to touch Mina. But he waved my comment off. “I have no intentions of forcing myself on anyone I am not some wild animal, but if she chooses me you will have no control on her choice. Now I have figured out what I want from you in exchange for saving your human friend and her baby.” He said, calmly, a little too calmly.

“What is it that you want Dradon?” I asked nervously. “It’s nothing really, it’s something really simple actually.” “Ok what is it just spit it out already.” “You will reconnect with Lynx, and you will allow him to imprint on you.” He said as if he just didn’t say he wanted me to not only reconnect with Lynx but also wanted me to have s*x and allow him to impregnant me. I stood there in utter shocked that turn into anger. “WHAT THE HELL DID YOU JUST SAY?” I yelled, because I know he didn’t say what I think he said.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 110

Back at the castle

Unknown’s POV:

I have been here for months. I don’t know where I am. All I know is that this monster has been feeding off me for months, It always leaves me barely alive only to repeat the process over and over again. Hearing footsteps I ball myself up in the corner knowing it will not hide me from the monster that comes for me every night. The door opens up and someone is pushed inside but not chained like me. “I swear to god if you so much as lay one finger on my grand pups, I will rip you to shreds.” The strange man said to the guards that threw him in here. He was banging on the door causing my head to ache. I am still recovering from the last time the monster fed from me. "Can you please stop with the banging it will only make them come back and beat you senseless and you will still be in here. So please just stop, I suggest you rest and keep your strength up because you're gonna need it. Banging on that door is useless" I said crawling onto my cot. He looked at me and his eyes showed sympathy, I didn't need his sympathy I just needed to sleep. "Damn it son how long have you been here?" The man asked I took a deep breath because I really didn't feel like talking. But it seems he was not going to do as I suggested. "I don't know how long it has been as you can see there is no windows to let sunlight in to tell how many days has past. If I had to guess it has been maybe 4 or 5 months." I said closing my eyes holding in my emotions I was done crying and hoping my family was looking for me. I didn't want to talk about me anymore.

There was nothing to do about my situation so why dwell on it. "How did you end up here?" I asked the strange man. He sighed and turned to look in my direction. "That is a long story son." "Well, I have nothing but time and from the looks of it you have just as much time as I have now." I said with a shrug. He shook his head in denial. I had no energy to argue with him or break his spirits with the truth. To be honest I was just as determined as he is right now when I first came to this place, but as the days pass, I realize that I would more than likely die here. Coming to that conclusion on my own was a hard pill to swallow, so I could only imagine how it would feel if I broke that news to him.

"I was kidnapped from my pack along with my grand pups by the witch Urrale she wants me to be her mate, but I would die before I mate anyone other than my other half mate. She has some sort of plan to use my grand pups in some sick twisted sacrifice, but I can't let her kill my grand pups, so even if you doubt me I have to find a way out here to save those pups. I have lost the most precious person in my life besides my son and his pups are all that matters now." He said his voice full of emotions. For some odd reason I also felt his emotions and it surprised me because I had long since let go of emotions they have no place here. "How old are your grand pups?" "Almost four months they are so beautiful, smart, and tiny. They were born early and less than ten pounds combine. They don't even look like they are almost four months, but they are very powerful, which is why Urrale wants to sacrifice them for their power." He said and banged on the cell doors.

"When does she plan to sacrifice them?" I asked suddenly interested in his story. I don't know why but I feel like I am supposed to help him. I can't explain it maybe because of the babies no one should harm babies for any reason. "She plans to sacrifice them at midnight. Which is why I need to get out of here now. There isn't much time left. I can't let my grand pups down I wouldn't be able to live with myself if I can't save them or keep them alive and safe until my son gets here." He said pacing in anger I could feel the power he holds, and he is very powerful. "How sure are you that your son will be able to get here in time to save them?" "My son will stop at nothing to get to his pups he is the strongest Alpha in the region. He also has a smart mate who is their girls mother along with her family they definitely will turn this entire planet and the next looking for those girls." "I thought you said your son was an alpha, from what I know about werewolves the alpha wolves only have male wolves." I said thinking about everything I was taught about the different shifters. He nodded and then smiled.

“We have discovered that werewolves could mate humans. The pups mother is a human and it was determined that because humans are so different from shifters that somehow it allows for alphas to birth alpha girls as well. This is very new, so we don’t know much, only what we have witnessed. Now that they are here and are so powerful we have people like this witch who wants to take their power away from them.” He said and once again banged on the cell door and this time he shook the entire rock wall so hard that pieces of the rocks surrounding the door cracked and broke off. Yea he is one powerful son of a bh. “Son, how is it you know so much about shifters? Your not a shifter but your not quite human either.” I smiled at him recognizing I wasn’t all the way human. “I’m a dragon rider, or rather I was. My grandmother made sure me, and my siblings knew everything there was about shifters and how to identify one when we see one. She as also very special and powerful she knew everything there was to know about all shifters.” I said, as a tear fell from my eyes thinking about my grandmother. The shifter stopped to stare at me strangely. “Son what is your name?” He asked, looking deeply at me.

“I am Cannon Lou Chan of the Chan Clan the protectors of the ancient Golden Dragons.”

Urrale’s POV:

The Dark one’s Den:

“Father why must I take the she wolf back to the castle. She is useless and can’t be trusted.” I said to Father, he summoned me here to take the pregnant she wolf back to the castle. Somehow she is suppose to help me when the alpha and his warriors come for my mate and the pups. But I don’t need her I am not the least bit worried about the young alpha. I’m still not convince that they will be able to find my realm. Alpha Zane may have killed him by now if he was worth anything. Or at the very least weaken them, to the point that they may not even be able to find me even if they tried. “Did I asked for your opinion do I need to remind you who your talking to. I didn’t ask you for your advice, how dare you question me.” Father said as an invisible force grabbed me by my throat and lift me up I was clawing at the invisible cord. I could see the stupid she wolf smiling evilly. She doesn’t even look like she was a prisoner anymore. She looks like she’s been pampered. Just what the hell has been going on down here? Has she somehow gotten to father? I didn’t have time to figure it out right now I was slowly losing consciousness. Just before I passed out he let me go. I fell to the floor gasping for breath.

“Now that we have an understanding, as I said you will take the she wolf back to the castle and make sure she is somewhere easily found should the alpha make his way to your castle. She has her own mission that I need her to complete. You provide her with what she needs until the alpha comes for his father and pups. By the way is everything still on track are you prepared for the full moon?” Father asked, and I physically cough again in shock. I pray he doesn’t know that my mate escape the castle with the pups. If he finds out he will surely not hesitate to kill me. I needed to get out of here so I can get back on the hunt for my mate and those damn pups.

“Yes. Yes father everything is going according to plan my guards have already set up the alter and the pillars and the chefs has prepared the Yin and Ying fish.” I said, with as much confidence as I could, hoping he couldn't see through the lies I told. I let out the breath I was holding when he dismissed me. I hurried out of the den, with the pregnant she wolf on my heels. "Can you slow down a little bit I am pregnant you know." The she wolf said behind me. I rolled my eyes and walked faster. I have no time to waste. I needed to find my mate and those damn pups. If I can't find them in time nothing else will matter because we will all be dead.
