

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 61

Master's POV:

“But you swore that when I gave everyone the cookies then you would make me whole again. I can't go back there I'm sure by now they know who betrayed them, I would be killed on the spot. There is no way I can go back.” The pitiful she wolf cried. I had promised her that I would heal her so she would be able to bear pups. That was impossible, as powerful as I am I can't fix something that isn't there. When she was no longer useful to me, I would get rid of her. But since the pathetic alpha failed to get those twin pups, I couldn't kill her yet. But I was surprised that she brought a pup along with her, he may prove to be useful in some way. All packs were very protective of the pups so he might be worth something. Ignoring her whining. “Well, who do we have here?” I asked smiling at the pup as he eyed me with a frown. The she wolf placed him behind her like she could protect him from me. I chuckled at the thought of it. “He has nothing to do with it. I couldn't bear to leave in that pack when I knew what was going to happen there. So, I brought him with me. We are going to start a new life away from all this.” The she wolf said. “Yes, well plans have changed the plan failed so we have to find another way to get the alpha's twin pups here.” I said when I heard a small growl and the little pups' eyes glowed. “You can't take the babies I won't let you hurt them I'm their protector.” The little pups said with his little hands balled into tight little fist. I smiled at him. Bending down so that I was eye level with the pup. “So, are you close to the babies?” “Yes, I'm their Godbrother I protect them from getting hurt.” He said with his chin raised. “Well, isn't that lovely I bet the alpha and those humans would do just about anything to make sure you are safe.” I said, as the she wolf gasped and put the pup further behind her. “No, I won't let you use him he is just a child and doesn't have anything to do with this.” She said with her chest and head held high. I laughed then because she really didn't know what was willing to do to get my revenge. “You, think you can stop me from reaching my goal you think there is lines I won't cross to get what I won't. I don't need your permission to do anything, know your place, don't forget why you are here in the first place. I said and I used my power to lift the she wolf off the floor and she struggled trying to get an invisible hand from around her throat. “Get the pup and take him to the north wing make she he is guarded.” I said to my assistant. She immediately grabbed the pup as he kicked and screamed. “Please don't do this?” The she wolf begging hoarsely. “Oh, I won't hurt the boy as long as you do exactly what I tell you to do.” I said as I released my hold on her and she dropped to the floor with a thud coughing trying to caught her breath. “What do you need me to do?” she asked after she caught her breath. “Oh, I will let you know when the time comes but for right now use the restroom over there and clean yourself up and put on some comfortable clothes. I said point towards the door that held a restroom. I left the room after making sure someone was guarding the she wolf. Entering into my office I created a portable and went through it and stepped into the office of Alpha Zane who had a she wolf bent over his office desk as he pounded into her relentlessly. The poor she wolf was crying loudly but the alpha eyes looked as though he loved it. “Uh excuse me sorry to interrupt your little s*x session but we need to talk.” I said as the alpha jumped back like he just got caught by his mate. “What the hell witch don’t you know how to show up on the other end of the door and then knock like everyone else. He said as he stuffed his ck back in his pants and the she wolf didn’t bother to put back on her clothes before she ran out of the room without a backwards glance. Turning back to the alpha who looked pissed. “What the hell do you want witch? I am really busy trying to prepare for this upcoming battle. I need to get my mate back.” He said as he tried to look busy after just literally wasting time fg that she wolf who just left. “Yea because having s*x is a part of that plan.” I said rolling my eyes. “We need to move tonight, how many rogues do you have?” “Only a few hundred, I haven’t been able to find anymore.” “I guess they will have to be enough.” “Why do we need to go back so soon.” “Because they are more than likely still trying to recover from the first attack so they’re vulnerable, and my asset is being held there and she can’t be there too long, or she won’t So, gather your rogues and bring them to the castle and I will tell you the plan then.” I said as I opened another portal and stepped inside not giving the alpha time to respond. I needed to prepare for this upcoming battle, and I need to look my best when I see my love for the for time in decades. I know he will be so surprised to see me. I can’t wait to see the look on their faces when they see who is behind all this. I thought to myself and smiled.

At the school:

“Damn it he isn’t here either. She must have taken him.” Mina said after checking the last classroom. We had gone to the teachers’ house, but she wasn’t there. The house looked empty like someone had moved out. So, we decided to check the school again, no such luck. Taking a deep breath to calm my nerves. “We need to tell Kahi, about this so they can help search the pack grounds.” I said as the girls nodded, leaving the house. We headed in the direction of kahi’s parents house to check on the girls. We hadn’t seen them since they left the hospital earlier and I was missing them like crazy and with Raz missing it had me needing to see them even more. I was upset because I automatically thought he was in one of the safe houses and didn’t bother to check to make sure he was ok. I kind of thought of him as my own. We needed to find him because I don’t know what I’d like if anything has happened to him. Once we reached Kahi’s parents’ house poppa Toni opened the door almost immediately and embraced us one by one. “Mommas in the living with the pups, she has been worried sick since my son told us about Shawna’s condition.” He said as we all rounded the corner to see Momma Teri on the floor with the girls doing tummy time. She looked up time she saw us and jumped up to hug us. “OMG! How are you girls doing? We heard about Shawna. I will go see her the first chance I get I know she would love to have the babies around so she will know that she was able to keep them safe.” Momma Teri said with tears. We all had tears in our eyes remembering that Shawna was the reason the girl were safe and unharmed. “That would be a good idea for her. They haven’t been too much trouble I hope.” I said as I picked up Teri, she immediately recognized me and squealed before trying to eat my face. “Absolutely not they are perfect little angels.” Toni said, we gave him a knowing look because the girls were a hand full with the three of us. Momma Teri handed me Tru, and she did the same thing to my other cheek, and I laughed out loud enjoying the moment. I missed them like crazy and I’m so glad that they weren’t hurt after everything. They were turning out to be very smart and strong little girls and I couldn’t be prouder of them. They are really advanced for their age and still very tiny. They haven't gained much weight even though they eat a lot. They are still smaller than the average human baby at their age and much smaller than werewolf pups. But they are developing mentally and physically above the average human babies and Werewolf pups. "Hey, I want some of that loving too." "Yea, so auntie don't get no kisses?" Both Mina and Lynn said each taking one of the girls who were squealing and kicking their little legs and arms and Mina and Lynn tickled their necks with kisses. They really love their aunties. I smiled as I looked at them, but my smile faltered when I realized that one of us was missing. "Hey, don't do that she will be just fine she's a fighter you all are so she will be just fine. Now come on I asked an omega to fix us some lunch I know yall haven't been eating well since the attack." Poppa Toni said, as he came and wrapped an arm around me. I gave him a small watery smile. "We can't stay we have to go and talk to Kahi we found out who the traitor is, and we have to put together a search team because Raz is missing." I said, urgently. "What? I will mind link my son and tell him to get here now." Poppa Toni said as he eyes focused on something above my head. "He is on his way now he is also bringing the Beta as well." He said, once he refocused. I nodded and let them lead us to the dining room as I filled them in on everything the zombie bh told us. I just pray that Raz is safe wherever he is.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 62

Makahi POV:

"Hey guys, what are we eating? I'm starving. I asked as me and Montego entered my parents' dining room where everyone was eating and playing with my pups. I immediately went to them and cooped each of them into my arms and snuggled against their heads and inhaled their scent. Maka let out a purr of satisfaction, he was a big old softy when it came to his pups, he was a proud papa. I smiled as he continued to purr, not caring that I called him a big softy. I went to Ji'lahni and kissed her lips, and she smiled up at me and got one of the girls as I sat next to her. Montego sat next to Lynn, pulling her closer to him and buried his head in her neck and she closed her eyes, enjoying the attention. I caught my parents looking at me and Ji'lahni like proud parents. I knew this was what they wanted for us, and I am finally glad that I am able to be with her with no remorse. Of course, I still feel the mates bond with Summer, but as long as I allowed Maka to join my subconscious, I don't feel any discomfort. Turning back to Ji'lahni.

"So, what information did you guys find out and how did you come about this information?" I asked the girls quizzically. "Well, we found out that Fiona is the one who poisoned us." Mina answered, and I nodded. Allowing them to finish. "But we couldn't find Raz anywhere. We have checked Fiona's house and school. Your mother said he wasn't among the people in the safe house, so we have to send some people to search for them." Ji'lahni finished. "Montego mind link some of the guards, and gather a search team to look for Raz." I said, and he nodded. "What about Fiona we need to find her and a find out what she knows. I still can't believe she would do this. She was so nice, and she loved the children. I just can't believe she would put them in danger like that." Ji'lahni said deep in thought. "So, tell me where did you guys get this information?" I asked, with my brow raised. They all started looking around without making eye contact. Staring at Ji'lahni questioningly. "Wwweellll, see what had happened was, Hunter came by while we were with Shawna. He told us he would stay with her while we got cleaned up, take a nap, and see the babies. But apparently, he thought we were dumb and didn't know he was trying to get rid of us so Shadow could see Shawna. So, once we confirmed that's what he was doing we didn't go get cleaned up. But we also thought. "Hey why don't we go ask his nice mate some more questions like a girl talk." Ji'lahni said, shrugging like it was no big deal.

"What the hell Ji'lahni do you know how dangerous that was you could have been seriously hurt or worse. "Hey, I was with her she was perfectly safe with me." Lynn said offended. "Hey, you shouldn't have gone there either just because you are train that doesn't mean walk in dangerous situations either." Montego said to Lynn who looked away in shame. "So, you guys know where the dragon's blade disappeared to?" I asked, and again they all looked a way guiltily. "Hey in our defense that blade just protected us more from her potentially hurting us." Mina said. "Really that's the excuse you want to go with?" Montego asked. "Hey, we are getting off topic here. Like I was saying we wanted to have a friendly girl chat to ask the zombie a few questions, and wouldn't you know she was willing to answer all our questions." "Was it before or after you let Lynn threaten her with that blade?" "Is the how really important here, you worrying about the small stuff." Ji'lahni said in a rush.

"Anyway, she told us that Zane was after someone in the pack. Which I'm sure is me but she didn't know that, because if she did, I'm sure she would have said something." Ji'lahni shrugged. Maka was growling at the thought of Zane still wanting to mate Ji'lahni. That would happen over my dead body. "So, what are you going to do about Fiona someone needs to be looking for her. So, we can question her." Lynn said as the lunch was being served. "We already have a team searching for her." "How is that possible?" Ji'lahni asked. "Because we already knew about Fiona." "How did you find out?" Mina asked. "Well Brittany told us that Fiona was the one who gave us the cookies that knocked us out." I said. Putting my fork down because I know I will have to tell them everything that happened with Summer and Brittney.

"I knew them loony toon bitches had something to do with it, their asses have been really quiet I promise you they are dying right along with that zombie bh in what order I don't know at this point it don't even matter." Lynn said angrily. "I knew Summer had to know something especially with her uncle involved. They both refused to answer any questions. I had to use my alpha aura to command them to tell me the truth. Apparently, Fiona gave Summer the cookies and told her to make sure me and my men ate them. Apparently, she has been doing her uncles bidding this whole time. The pup isn't mine, its commander Bruin's pup. I wanted to talk to you about this first. I am rejecting Summer, but I want to wait until her pup is born. The pup is innocent and deserve a chance at life even without his mother. Commander Bruin is a good wolf and I want to give him the opportunity to decide what he wants to do." I said looking at Ji'lahni trying to read her face. "I don't like it, but I understand I can't imagine something happening to that baby because you reject Summer. You chose me so I'm good with that." She said kissing my lips. God, I love this woman. I can't wait to make her mine.

"About damn time you came to your senses I was secretly trying to find a way to kill you and get a new human." Maka said in my mind, and I laughed. "By any chance did Shadows mate say anything else about her Master?" I asked the girls, because we came up empty when tried to look her up in our achieves." I asked, and they shook their head no. "Maybe we can see if Shadow can get her to talk and tell us more about her master. Everyone we have asked has never heard of anyone name Urrale." I said shaking my head. All of a sudden, I heard glass breaking and looked up to see my dads eyes flashed to his wolf and my mother looked as white as a ghost. "Mom, dad do you know who this with Urrale is?" I asked looking at them questioningly. My mother was still in shocked silence, my dad was the first to speak. "Yes, we brought know Urrale." He said as he sighed with his head down, and this time my mother was the one to speak. "Yes, we know her she was your dad's..... first love, before he met me. If she is the one behind all this, then we are in grave danger.

Flashback: 45 years ago. Werewolf Training camp Florida

Antoni's POV:

I've been at Were training for 3 weeks now, and everything is running smoothly except my girlfriend has been nagging me a lot lately she didn't want me to come here to the camp because I will be here for the next 4 years because Alpha's needed to train and learn how to led an entire pack. I pretty much have met everyone although new werewolves come for training weekly. There were alpha's of all ages here. Once your pack alpha is ready to step down they will send the werewolf who will replace them to this camp to train. It was pretty cool that they picked Florida although we are somewhat far from civilization. We could still take advantage of what Florida had to offer. "Felix! Wait up?" I yelled at my friend, who was headed to the café for lunch. I met Felix on the first day here. We hit it off right away, we decided that we would room together while we were here and had to convince our roommates to switch so we could be roommates.

"Why the hell didn't you wait for me in the dorms, you knew I was coming." I said as I caught up with him. "Hey, you were on the phone with your girlfriend and we both know how long you be on the phone when she calls. She keeps you on the phone for hours, and I'm starving." Felix said, as we approached the café. "So, my sister is coming for a visit tomorrow since she turned 18 she feels like she needs to see the world and travel before she finds her other half mate. She has been travelling for a couple of months this is her last stop before you turns around and go back to the pack to start her Luna training." Felix said as he bit into her burger. "Hell, that sounds like a good idea. Maybe we should do that once we graduate. Take a road trip and visit different states you may meet your other half mate in one of those states." I said grinning. "Don't try and jinx me I want to experience life before I meet my mate, and you talking about me what if you meet your other half mate? You and the witch aren't mates, and I don't know what you even started dating her to begin with." Felix said shaking his head.

He always ask why would I date a girl who isn't my mate. I wasn't my intentions to date Urrale it kind of happen like love at first sight. She was the most beautiful girl I have ever seen with fiery red hair freckles on her cheeks and kissable red pouty lips. We had met one day in the woods I had been on a run I had only shifted a hand full of times and I was still getting use to letting my wolf Aton take full control. We were running and got came upon some rogues although I was a young wolf I was an alpha and could handle myself, but it was 6 rogues that were circling me. I wasn't going to go down without a fight, which is what I was doing until they all attacked at once. I knew I was going to die, and I was resigned to my fate.

Then out of nowhere the rogues started flying off me left and right. "Hey, 6 against 1 isn't fair at all. Why not try that with me." She said, as an energy ball was spinning in the palm of her hands like a baseball. The First rogue attacked her, and she throw the energy ball and it put a baseball size hole in the rogues chest. The other rogues turned to run but she held her hands high and stop them in their tracks. "Hey why are you guys leaving the party so early. It's just getting started." She said as she approached each rogue and used her energy balls so kill them one by one. Once she killed the last rogue she turned to me. I know I should have been afraid, but her smile put me at ease. She approached me and held out her hand. "Hi, my name is Urrale Storm future head of the northern witches. And from that day on we spent every day together and fell in love with each other. I decided that when I meet my other half mate that I would just reject her and mate Urrale and make her my Luna. We had talked about this often and had a plan to rule my werewolves and her witches and become the most powerful couple in the country. That is until everything changed the day I met her Lateri River.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 63

Antoni POV:

"Son Urrale is a powerful witch also a woman I dated before I met your mother. We were very serious and when I broke things off it didn't end well." I sighed and held my mates hand. Reliving these memories aren't easy for my mate. But I had to tell my son everything in order for us to have a chance and stopping whatever Urrale has planned. I thought that she had finally giving up on her vendetta, it had been decades since anyone has heard from her. Now that she is back and working with Alpha Zane we needed to find a way to stop her fast. "What do you mean someone you dated before mom? Why have you never mentioned her before now?" Makahi asked. "Because me and your mother thought she had moved on, it has been decades since anyone has heard or even seen her. But it seems she was just planning her revenge." I said running my hands through my hair.

"So, your ex-girlfriend is a crazy too? I swear like father like son. Is this some kind of family tradition or something?" Mina said, shaking her head. "So, what are we dealing with?" Lynn asked. "Well, she was to be queen of the northern witches when we were together. But when I broke things off with her she started dabbling in dark magic and became obsessed with breaking me and my mate apart. The witch counsel stripped her of her title, and she blames your mother for everything she has lost including me. She did everything she could to separate me and your mother including trying to kill your mother. But nothing she has ever tried has worked. Because your mother is a hard she wolf to kill once she's pissed." I said pulling my mate into my arms and inhaling her scent. Those days she was missing was the hardest days of my life. I don't know what I would have done if she didn't make it out of that cave alive.

"So, you think she is working with Zane in order to get to mom?" Makahi asked. Anger in his eyes. She knew getting to you was impossible since you were of Alpha blood, so we figured that's why she stopped coming after your mother after the countless times she has failed. We never thought of anything when the twins were born because everyone knows that alpha's produce only male pups. She must have somehow found out that they were girls and that they are half human. I can't be sure if she knows they have abilities, but I would guess she does if she is working with Zane. She knows the only way to get back at your mother would be through you or your pups. If Shadow's mate is working with Urrale she is no longer Shadow's mate anymore she is very dangerous she wolf." I said, knowing what Shadow will be dealing with losing his mate for a second time. "Shadow thinks she is brainwashed because she has no memories of her past life. He thinks that they have done something to her to make her do their bidding," Makahi said. "I have no doubt that she is being used but that doesn't change the fact that the she wolf Shadow knew is gone. If she has been exposed to dark magic it takes the soul of the host. There will be nothing anyone can do to bring her back." I said with a sigh.

"st! Shadow is going to be devastated. It will be hard to convince him that she is gone because he still feels the mate bond. How is it he still feels the mate bond if she no longer has a soul?" Montego asked. "If she is using dark magic she could create a potion that would imitate the mates bond. Although it would be temporary. When we were dating she was trying to find a way for me to never feel the mates bond, so that if I were to ever meet my mate I would have no problem rejecting her. But I met your mother before she could find a way to do it. She must have succeeded in creating a way to bond us together. I never thought it would be possible because that is something only a goddess can do." I said with a shake of my head. "We need to get Shadow's mate in the cellars before this Urrale attacks if she is working for Urrale willingly then they must have some sort of plan if she was to ever be caught." Montego said deep in thought.

"We need to talk to Shadow first I won't keep this from him he needs to know everything we have found out he may want to deal with his mate himself and we at least owe him that." Makahi said, as he got up from the chair. We need to gather the warriors and we need a plan put in place now. We have to assume they are going to attack at any moment. Mom we will leave the girls here with you for now until we figure out what we are going to do to make sure they're protected." He said to me, and I nodded. "Don't worry about the girls we will protect them with our lives." My mate said. With anger in her eyes. No one knew what she was capable of, but I knew what she meant when she said it and although I wouldn't want anything to happen to my mate I know I couldn't stop her from revealing herself if our grand pups were in danger even if the moon goddess didn't call upon her.

Shaid POV:

I have to find a way out of here. I thought of pacing the floor of the living room of my prison. The longer my master takes the more I'm beginning to panic. Especially after the visitors I just had. The one with the blade said that the person who owned it was her brother. I told her I didn't know where he was but that was a lie. He has been in our Dungan for the last several months. My master brought him to me as a gift along with the blade as a reward for my successful mission. He is my favorite of all the rewards from my master. "Shaid are you there?" I heard in my mind. I jumped excitedly at hearing my masters voice. Finally, "Yes master I am here, they have me in a house with guards surrounding it. I can't get in or out." I said in a rush. "What about your mate?" My master asked. "He is fighting the bond because he is in love with one of those human and she is having his pup she is dying because I stabbed her with the blade we got from that man you brought me a few months ago. The blade is magical and one of the humans was able to yield at and use its power. She said the prisoner is her brother. She said that people will be looking for him and the blade." I said in a rush. There was silence for a long while before she spoke. "You must find a way out of there and get to the hospital and I want her and her baby alive if we can get the baby before its born then maybe we can use it to our advantage." My master said excitedly.

"Master I am weakened I haven't fed in days. Please allow me to feed before I try to get out of here." I asked. "No, you mustn't I can't risk them finding out what you are. I will find a way to distract them, you just be ready and make sure you get the human and bring her with you do you understand. Do not fail me. I will reward you with what you always wanted." She said as I got excited at the thought of getting my very first human host to feed from. "Ok master I will wait on your signal. I will not let you down." I said as she cut the link. I needed to make sure I'm ready to escape with the human. I went over to the freezer and pull out some raw meat from the freezer it will have to do until I can feed properly. Maybe if my mate comes back we can finally mate and when I mark him I can secretly feed from him as well. I smiled at the thought of tasting his blood made me giddy with excitement. Now that my master has finally come for me I relaxed for the first time since I have been here.

Back at the clinic:

"Just to be clear, this st is crazy. I really miss our old life where we work and then home watch tv and go to bed. I promise I will never complain about not having a life." Mina said. As we walked back in Shawna's room she was looking paler then before. Which means that time was running out. "This is too fg much. The moon goddess told me they would be in danger, but I never thought it would be this wasn't anything I could have imagined, I really don't know what we are going to do. I'm really afraid for my babies and Shawna. How are we going to protect them." Ji'lahni said and she laid beside Shawna with her head on her shoulder as she let the tears flow. "We will do what we have been doing all these years working as a team. Now that you guys know who I truly am I can make sure that we are able to keep them safe. You guys are my family even if not by blood. You have taught me what a family is supposed to be, and I will not let anything tear us apart.” Lynn came over to the bed and got on it. Soon we were all crammed on the bed with Shawna careful not to touch any of the wires connected to her.

“All that was a nice speech little sister. Funny how you claim they taught you about what a family is supposed to be but yet when you’re in need you call the so call family you hate.” A voice came from the window of the room; we all jumped up knives and guns pointing at the person who entered. Lynn’s face paled when she saw who was at the window with a small little girl beside her. “Kat! What the hell are you doing here?” Lynn said with venom.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 64

Lynn’s POV:

“Kat! What the hell are you doing here? We almost killed you!” I yelled. This couldn’t be happening. I asked my grandmother to get my brother out here, Out of the three of my siblings Kat was the worst of them all. She was the one who tormented me my entire childhood my brothers just followed her lead, in order to not endure her wrath. “Why, Lynndoria is that anyway to talk to the sister who is here to save your weak human pets.” She said cleaning fake dirt from her nails. “Wait what did she just call us, your pet. I feel like bitches been testing our gangsta since we have been here.” Ji’lahni said, getting up. She usually is the levelheaded one after Shawna, but the things we have been dealing with has us all on edge. Having my sister here is not the best idea, because her mouth has no filter. I needed her to allow her dragon to heal Shawna and go.

Looking at the tiny child standing next to Kat, which was anything but a child. He was a full-grown dragon shifter. “Really Dradon you come as a child” I asked with a raised eyebrow. “ Hey, I didn’t want to scare the humans and I thought coming as one of their tiny humans makes me less scary.” He said in my mind, with a shrug as he stepped from behind my sister. He looked at me and then his eyes turned emerald, green which was the color of his dragon Drax. He quickly got control of his dragon and looked in the direction of Mina. No please, god no please don’t let him imprint on Mina. Being a dragon’s mate is not the same as it is here. Dragon shifter are more dragon then man if his dragon wants to imprint on Mina his human side wont be able to stop it. Imprinting is not the same as werewolf mates. Their God allows them to imprint for the sole purpose of procreation there was no love at all. It is rare, and most dragons die without ever imprinting on anyone.

Which is why they are only a few dragon shifters left. In the past when they have tried to mate and procreate the mother and child never make it through labor. An imprinting hasn’t happened in centuries. Shaking my head, I have to deal with one problem at a time.

Besides Kat and Dradon have been an item for years. Although they aren't mates they really didn't care because again imprinting hasn't happened in centuries. Every Dragon has dragon riders or a dragon protector we are trained from birth to protect their secrets and their amulet that controls the beast within them in case the Dragon takes complete control of the man. While also protecting them and their secrets from people who knows their weakness and could killed the dragon and the man.

Dragons were hunted by demigods who sort the power of the god who created them. Which is rumored to be the Strongest among all the gods. I was supposed to be a dragon rider, but I gave up that destiny to create my own and now my baby brother is missing. He was the only sibling that treated me with kindness the one who told me to leave, and he would take my place and now because of me he is missing. "So, sister Grandmother tells me you found our baby brothers blade on a filthy she wolf. We hadn't heard from him in months although it isn't uncommon. But He would always check in every couple of weeks. Now he is missing and possibly dead, and it would all be your fault because you couldn't cut it as a rider like me and Maxisin. Now our poor baby brother Cannon is gods knows where." Kat said in anger.

"I know this bh isn't talking to you like that, she got us fd up." Mina said coming to stand by me. I grabbed her hand not wanting her to get close to Dradon, because he was staring at Mina intently. I was so focused on them that I didn't notice Ji'lahni coming up on the other side of me to step into Kat's face. "So, let's be clear we asked for your help to save our cousin, but even she would never allow anyone to feel comfortable disrespecting Lynn she would never forgive us if we didn't put our foot in your a*s the next time you feel like you want to talk out the side of your neck. This ain't the fg day nor time to come here thinking you can speak to Lynn nor anyone like this while I'm standing here she might be you sister, but she is my family, and I will kill anyone who feel like they gone fk with her." Ji'lahni said with a knife in her hand. I had to swallow back my emotions at Ji'lahni's words. This is what I cherish the most they were loyal without question they have always had my back since the day we met our freshmen year.

Flashback: 10 years ago, community college in South Carolina

18-year-old Ji'lahni, Shawna, and 17-year-old Mina.

18-year-old Lynn's POV:

"See this is some bullshit! How the hell they room me with someone that smells like a*s. Like damn how you take a shower and still smell like a*s." The smallest of the trio said as she sat down at a table across from me in a café in the local community college I started last semester I had been in America for the last few months after leaving my family and my destiny behind. I enrolled at the local college in an effort to find myself and what I wanted to be in life. So far I still have no idea. "Well, nobody told you to stay in the dorms. We told you how it was going to be, but you wouldn't listen you wanted to live your life and experience college life, now you're getting exactly what you asked for, so welcome to the college life where you may encounter people who smell like a*s for no reason even after it looked like they just showered.” The bigger one said as they all laughed.

“I mean really how is it possible that you come out the shower with soap in your ears and you still stink” The smaller one said as she gagged. As the other two laughed so hard they were starting to cry and the middle one had the loud laugh like a banshee. It was contagious because I found myself chuckling at them. “Hey, can I borrow your ketchup bottle?” The smaller one asked me. “Yea, sure.” I answered handing her the bottle from my table. “Thank you, and I want to apologize for my loud a*s cousin they have no home training. I know you couldn’t study in peace with Shawna laughing like a hyena.” The smaller one said as the one she called Shawna tried to push her off the chair. “First of all, fk you! I don’t sound like no damn hyena.” Shawna said, trying to hold in her laugh. “See I can’t take yall no where in public yall always got to show out in from of people.” The bigger one said. Shaking her head.

They gave an I know you ain’t talking look. “Oh so, me and Mina are the ones that don’t know how to act in public? Then, who was the one who got us kicked out of the party last week when you punched a girl in the nose because you called you a bh, huh Lahni? Because it wasn’t me or Mina.” Shawna said, crossing her arms over her chest. “Nope that was self-defense.” Lahni said. “How? How was it self-defense? The only thing the girl did, was told you to stop flirting with her dude.” Mina said laughing. “That’s a lie, I wasn’t flirting with him he came up to me and started talking to me. She confronted me when she should have confronted her man.” Lahni said in her defense. “That still didn’t mean punch the girl in the face though did it?” Mina said.

“Hey, she bumped into me what the hell was I supposed to do let her think she can touch me over some dumb st like that? Nope not happening you put your hands on me we gone find out who going to be leaving in an ambulance or in cuffs.” Lahni said, with a shrug. “That girl only bumped into you because a drunk girl fell into her and that was the only reason she bumped into you, it was a mistake.” Shawna said laughing. “Oh well how was I supposed to know that it was an accident she had just called me a bh, so I thought she wanted smoke, so I started a fire instead.” Lahni said. They all turned to look in my direction. “Hey, What’s your name?” Mina asked me. “Lynndoria but call me Lynn.” I answered. “Ok Lynn, who do you think doesn’t have home training. Lahni who going around giving folks black eyes or me and Shawna who did absolutely nothing?” She asked me and they all looked at me like that had just giving their closing arguments in a courtroom. And that was the beginning of our friendship. The was one of the best days of my life, and I refuse to let my family take that away from me.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 65

Shadow’s POV:

“Shadow we need you back at the pack house ASAP.” The alpha mind linked me. “Copy that.” I responded. st what has happened now I how my mate hasn’t gotten into more trouble. Because I don’t need this st right now. I had been running ever since I left Shawna, I couldn’t bear seeing her like that, so lifeless and unmoving and it’s all because of me. How could the moon goddess do this to me, for years I thought I still felt her. Now it answers the question of why I survived her death because he wasn’t dead or a rogue. But he saw her die and felt the bond snap. All of this just didn’t make any sense and now he has Shawna and his pup who he can’t imagine living without. Rane wasn’t any help at figuring anything out because he also loved both our mate and Shawna. “Hey, don’t blame me I’m a wolf not a human.” He said in his mind. “Oh so, now you want to act like an animal without a brain.” I responded in my subconscious. Reaching the pack house, I shifted and went into my old room and changed into some sweatpants. I lingered in there because he still smelled of Shawna and some of her things were laying around, I grabbed her tank top off the bed from the last night we were there. Still smelled of her I put it to my nose and inhaled her scent, and I instantly pictured her smiling face. Strong emotions overtook me. I shook away the emotion and tuck the tank top in my pocket and headed to see the alpha. “Alpha sorry it took so long.” I said sitting in one of the chairs at the conference table all the warriors and guards were present as well. “No problem, Commander we were just about to get started. First I would like to tell those that don’t know. The Luna and her gamma are being held in the cellar for treason and she is stripped of or title as of today she is no longer your Luna. Next we have found out who we are dealing with, and I will not beat around the bush or make light of what we are facing. The Woman Urrale is a very powerful witch who practices dark magic on a level that we can’t imagine. She is after my girls in an effort of revenge against my mother apparently she is an old enemy that was simply biding her time waiting to strike and the girls birth as somehow brought her back and she is working with Zane. They have had help from your former Luna, and we have been betrayed by Fiona. As of now we are searching for one of our pups Razor we are going to assume that he was kidnapped by Fiona. We need to prepare for an attack at any moment even now. We have to be ready for anything. I have reached out to the counsel, and they will be sending reinforcements to aid us namely witches of the North where the witch Urrale was from they have knowledge of who she was and how to fight her. Which brings me to the next topic. Shadow I know told you that you could keep your mate in one of the houses. But new information has come to light to I had to make the decision to have her placed in the cellars. Not only for her safety but the safety of the pack.” The alpha said, looking to me. “What new information did you find out. She wont be able to survive down in the cellars. Doesn’t finding out that her master is the witch proves she has nothing to do with any of this and that she has had some type of spell put on her.” I said angrily getting up from my chair. Rane was itching to come out and go to my mate and make sure no one touches her. “Please Commander sit down I will explain everything to you once we have concluded the meeting.” The alpha said calmly a little to calmly for me. “NO! You have just told me that you had my mate thrown in the cellar like some common criminal without any explanation.” I said my eyes changing to Rane’s gray color. The alpha stood up then his eyes changing to that of Maka taking my actions as a challenge. Rane immediately bared his neck that the power of the alpha’s aura. “Commander I know this is difficult, but I will explain everything to you once we have made sure that our pack is protected as best as we could. In case we are attacked before our reinforcements get here. Still baring my neck to him I nodded, I sat down once he released his aura. I sat through the entire meeting in an angry haze. Once everyone had filed out with only the alpha, beta, the second and third commander. The alpha now sat relaxed in his chair. "Shadow, I want you to know making the decision to move your mate was not an easy decision to make and what I'm about to tell you will not be any easier. We found out that your mate has been..." The alpha was interrupted by a warrior bursting through the door. "Alpha we have spotted a... a...a dragon who landed at the pack clinic where the human women are." The Warrior said in a panic. Breathing hard more from fear than from running to inform me of the intruders. "God damn it Montego did Lynn tell you the dragon was coming?" The alpha asked. "No, she said she hadn't heard anything from her grandmother. I can assure you she is just as surprised as we are." Montego answered. As we all got up heading out the door the subject of my mate forgotten the moment the warrior said the dragon was at the clinic that could only mean he was here for Shawna and my pup. I had to make sure that they were safe.

At the Clinic:

Once the Alpha, Beta, and the first, second, and third commanders reached the Clinic they spotted the Doc standing outside the entrance pacing back and forth. "Doc what the hell are you doing out there you should be in there with the patient to make sure nothing goes wrong." The alpha said to the Doc. I know alpha went home to shower change and get something to eat. I left my head nurse in charge. Once I was on my way back that's when I spotted the dragon in the sky land on top of the clinic building once I reached here I was thrown back by some sort of force field no one is able to get in or out." The doc said angrily they basically locked him out of his own house so to speak. "Someone go get Lynn and the girls they was at my parents house the last time I talked to them." The alpha said. "Alpha the human women are in there with their cousin they have been in there for over an hour, and no one has seen them leave so they must still be in there." One of the guards said. "Damn it are and I can't mind link any one from the inside. What the hell are they doing in there? There must be a way to get in there we have no idea what that dragon is doing to them.." The alpha said now panicked that his Luna is in there with this unknown dragon. "Alpha we have tried everything to get in or communicate with anyone inside, but we are completely blocked out." A guard told the Alpha and shrunk back when the alpha let out a roar that made the ground shake before he rammed into the invisible force field, and it flickered but didn't break.

Inside the clinic:

"Must you be so dramatic, Kat. Is all this necessary?" Lynn said, rolling her eyes. "What I'm here to help you at your request, the least you could do is show some gratitude." Kat spit out. "Oh, please, the choice isn't solely yours to make Dradon has more say than you do. I'm sure he is the one who decided to help. Now can you please just shut up and let Dradon heal my friend before she dies. Whatever issues we have can wait," Lynn said angrily. "Enough! The small man child spoke for the first time. Lynndoria please escort me to your friend," Dradon said to Lynn. Lynn took the man child over to a sleeping Shawna she helped him up on the bed and he stared at Shawna for a long while before he spoke to Ji'lahni and Mina. "She is with a child?" he asked. "Yes she is only maybe a few weeks." Lynn spoke up. "Once I heal her some of my essences will enter the child I don't know to what extinct only time will tell.” She will have some residual side effects of my essence in her until she gives birth again to what extinct I can not say.” He spoke. “As long as she’s not dead and not a zombie then just do it.” Ji’lahni said, in a rush.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 66

Lynn’s POV:

“So, what do you have to do to Shawna exactly?” Mina asked, looking over Dradon Shoulder. He tensed briefly before I pulled Mina away from him. I can’t allow him to imprint on her. “You wait until his is about to heal her to ask that question. It’s a little too late, don’t you think? Just give him some room to work.” I said, sitting her down in a chair away from him. I walked back over to then bed where Dradon. I know what you’re thinking, she is off limits. If you want something for helping Shawna, I will pay the price.” I said in a whisper. He look up at me with his eyes glowing a beautiful iridescent color. He had pure white smoke coming out of his mouth like snow that glows, flowing directly into Shawna’s wounds and into her mouth nose. “Really? These human women means that much to you that you would indebt yourself to a dragon shifter the shifters you ran away from?” He asked with his eyebrow raised. “Yes. They are my family I would die for them as they would for me.” I said with confidence. “We are your family Lynndoria, we are blood, and we have a blood oath that connects out very soul to the Golden Dragon and you just threw it all away for these...these humans.” Kat said stepping to me in anger. I didn’t have to look back to know that Ji’lahni and Mina was already up with their knives out and ready. I held my hand up to let them know I was ok, and I got this. But I knew they would not move and would stay ready just in case. This is why I loved them and why they are my family. “Katalynia we may be connected by blood, but we are not family we have never been family. Everything that you and Maxinis did to me is not what families are supposed to do and I have them to thank for teaching me that. I didn’t throw it all away you and Maxinis made it hell that I couldn’t stay and keep my sanity at the same time.” I said angrily we were no longer children, and the elders wasn’t here to protect them from me, and she knows it, so I wasn’t worried she was attack me. She looked over and Dradon who was still working Shawna her color was coming back. She was looking alive again. “How much longer is this going to take baby we have to get out of her before the shields were off.” I looked wide eyed at her. “Shield? Why do you have a shield up? You are disrespecting the alpha of this pack you should know better then that. Dradon is a shifter he has to give respect to any shifter territory he lands in this could start a battle we do not need right now. “Drop the damn shield Kat NOW!” I yelled. Yes Golden Dragons are one of the most powerful shifters out there, but they still follow the same guidelines as other shifters. “What you asked us to come here right away so we couldn’t exactly follow the rules now can we? I have a duty to protect Dradon from the unknown which is what I am doing.” Kay said crossing her arms. Just then Shawna let out a scream so loud that it damn near burst my eardrums her eyes, mouth and the wound released a blinding light. Before her body went limp. “No need we are done she will remain sleep while her body rest from the traumatic experience. We must leave but I will be back to see..." He paused and looked over at Mina who was next to Shawna. "How the patient is doing." He said as he jump out the window and Shifted instantly into his Gold and blue dragon. Kat looked back at me and then over to Mina and her eyes flickered with insecurity. She must have seen the way Dradon looked at Mina as well. She suddenly jumped out the window and landed on Dragon and they both disappeared into the sky. Just as we all heard a thundering roar. "Oooohhh they big mad you and Lynn you gone get iiittt." Mina said to me and Ji'lahni as she stroke Shawna's hair. "You know sometimes I don't like you." I said rolling my eyes. "Lies you love me." She shot back.

Shawna's POV: my subconscious

HHEEEYYYY Bitcheeesss! Whew! Let's take a moment of silence because Yall know yall thought I was gone die too. st is still a little hazy because I keep trying to wake up, but my body won't work with me, but I'm not dead so that's a plus. Yes I remember everything that happened, and I'm PISSED. When I tell you somebody getting slapped hard, I'm talking about Shadow. I'm telling you if mad as hell was a person it would be my little brother because I'm bigger then mad as hell. I honestly don't think there is a word for how I'm feeling because you ever loved someone so much and they fk you over and you know you don't want to kill them because... jail but you want to do something close to it. See Ji'lahni always say I'm the one slow to anger and she is right, but because of this when I don't get mad it is on a whole different level of mad. Look I know Shadow didn't think his mate was going to stab me and I get it. But what pissed me off is not only did you stop me from killing the bh that was tried to take the girls but the way he looked at her with love like I literally saw his fg heart melt. The same heart that I thought he gave to me. It was like I didn't exist to him in that moment. It took the bh stabbing me in order for him to snap out of his loving lustful trance. That's the st that is pissing me off. I don't want to hear no dumb st about a mates bond the bh died not she comes back for seconds, and he just falls right back in love. I call bullshit! But let me tell you about me. I'm not doing what Lahni and Lynn did which they only did because they were actually mates to Kahi and Montego. Me and Shadow had to start from the bottom up there was no force that pushed us together we created our love or what I thought was love. Anyway, I don't chase or try to talk it out or even let him figure it out he should already know what he wants and from the look in his eyes what he wants wasn't me. So, if... no when, I wake up I'm not doing no talking, none of the let me figure it out, or I don't know what to do I love both of you bullshit. You can keep that I will make that decision for you. No matter how much it hurts me I'm letting his a*s go. Why the fk I'm gone be someone's option when I only ever had was one option, there was no doubts on my part, so why would I wait and see if someone will choose me it should have been me, and no one else no questions asked. Let me focus on waking my a*s up and get to slapping bitches.

Outside the clinic:

"Alpha, we have tried everything but whatever shield they have up is strong." The warrior said. "Damn it who the hell is in there. They must know the rules and guidelines for entering into another shifters territory. "What if it's the which?" Montego said. Worriedly he was pacing back and forth like me and the alpha trying to figure a way in. Rane was a raging beast pushing with all his might to shift and ram into the wall again. He was going crazy knowing that Shawna and our pup was helpless to who ever it was in the clinic. "Alpha someone said there is a mage nearby that maybe able to help us." "Go and bring him here now." The alpha said not even letting the warrior finish his statement. He was really desperate to get in there as well. He just got his mate back and to have someone holding her hostage or something worse had him growling and pacing keeping Maka at bay his eyes kept flashing silver. "Alpha the guards on the east border said they saw some activity about a mile out when they went on patrol." Said via open mind link. "st this can't be happening right now. WHAT THE fk! Take 4 guards and check it out stay out of sight and make sure they can't scent you. Have everyone report to the safe house as a precaution let them know we are not under attack we are just safeguarding while we check everything out." The alpha said via mind link. "Copy that!" He responded. Just as we heard a piercing scream that had us all holding our ears as a blinding light shot up and the force field broke all at once. SHAWNA! Rane and I roared as I shifted and leaped and crashed through the clinic door, not bothering to open it. I had to get to Shawna, please moon goddess let her be ok I can't lose her. I won't survive it this time I know it I feel it in my soul I would be lost without her. I thought to myself as I ran straight to the room that held my Shawna.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 67

The Master's POV:

"Was that a fg Dragon Shifter? Why didn't anyone inform me that they had a Dragon in their pack? That could have ruined everything! I yelled at everyone that was currently getting ready for the attack tonight. We needed to strike before they had time to recover. "We didn't know master, we only caught sight of it leaving the pack. But our scouts said that the Alpha and his guards are distracted because the Dragon had some type of force field around the building where the human women were. We can go in and get Shaid. They took her out of the house and to the cellars." My warrior said. As he waited for my instructions. I needed this to go well, and everything had to go as planned. One wrong move and my entire plan will be lost. I had to find out what the hell is going on down there. "Bring me the she wolf and the boy now." I said to my warrior, who nodded and walked away. What are you planning, you know as soon as they see that she wolf she is dead right she want be able to get you any information." Zane said as he came up behind me. "Please don't speak to me like I don't know what I doing. I've been planning this for decades, so don't think I will do anything without knowing it will work." The warrior came back dragging a struggling she wolf and a kicking and screaming boy. "What the hell are you planning? why do you have the boy here you will not use him in this plan!" Zane yelled half shifting taking the boy away from my warrior. I frown, now this is interesting. Looking from the boy to the alpha and it all clicked together I didn't know why I didn't see it from the first time I saw the pup. But I'm not one to assume. Have you seen Maury? “So alpha why do you care about this pup? Who is he to you? Do you know this pup?” I asked, raising my brow. “It doesn’t matter who he is, you will not use him in this I forbid it.” He said like he can forbid me from doing anything. I laughed, and allowed my power to flow through my hand and directed it at Alpha Zane knocking him into the tree behind him and broke in two. The pup yelled. “Grandpa!” As he ran to the alpha. “Well, that changes everything, why didn’t you tell me you had a grandson alpha I thought we had no secrets.” I said to an unconscious Zane. “Oh well, let’s get this party started. Walking over to the still struggling she wolf. “So, I need to know the layout of the entire pack and about any secret exits that my asset could use to get out of the pack without being detected?” “There is no exit that the alpha doesn’t know about. He grew up there even the teenagers doesn’t have a secret exit the alpha knows about those too.” “Well, that sucks. What about the cellars how many guards are posting on the inside and outside?” “There is always three inside and 3 outside.” The she wolf answered. I pulled out a small bottle, it held a green glowing liquid. I opened it and held it out to the she wolf. She struggled trying to get away. I sighed. “You want me to shove it down your throat, it won’t be pleasant, and I will make it painful so let’s just not waste time.” I said holding the bottle out to her again. “W wwwhat will it do to me?” she asked taking the bottle from my hand. “Well, it won’t kill you so that’s a plus it will be painful I’m not going to lie. But it’s better then you being killed by me for not taking it. So, does it really matter at this point? It will give you the appearance of whomever you want. All you have to do is pluck a single hair and place it in the bottle it dissolves in seconds. Once you make the change, you will go down to the cellars and release my asset.” I said shrugging. Her eyes widen. “How am I supposed to do that. They have a schedule that they keep. I can’t just walk up and go down to the cellars.” She said shaking her head. “Oh please! You will figure it I have giving you everything you need to get on the pack grounds without being killed, You will find a place where you can catch a guard alone and then drink the potion after my warrior takes him out then you will drink the potion and it will turn you into the guard. After that it is up to you figure out how to get my asset out of that cellar.” I said as the she wolf sighed in defeat knowing she has no choice it was either that or die. “How long does this potion last?” She asked, slowly taking the bottle from me. “It will last long enough for you to get my asset out of those cellars.” I answered in anger tired of the questions. “And once I do this you will keep your end of the bargain and make me whole again so I can have my own pup?” She asked yet another question. I was tempted to finally tell her that will never happen, but I needed her focused and willing to do whatever it takes to complete the mission, so I had to put on a fake smile. “Yes I have the potion in my tent that will restore your body to its natural state. But if you fail I will destroy the bottle right in front of your eyes. I said, and smiled when she gasped, and fear crossed her face at the thought of losing the one thing that she was willing to betray her own pack to get. She nodded and turned to followed my warrior to a safe place to get pass the borders. “By the way if you get any ideas about trying to warn anyone in that same potion if you speak of me or anything about anyone that potion will activate the poison and it will kill you before you can get a full sentence out.” I said before she disappeared into the woods. I swear why do I have to do everything around here.” I said to myself.

Shaid’s POV:

“WHERE THE HELL ARE YOU TAKING ME? WHERE IS MY MATE? YOU CAN’T DO THIS TO ME!” I Yelled as two guards damn near carried me below grounds to a dirty cell throwing me in like trash. This place was nothing like the house I was in with Shadow. I don’t know what happened to make the alpha put me here, but I need to get out here, there is no way I will know when the master sends me a signal to get the human out of that clinic. Looking around for any means of an escape route and there was nothing that I could possibly use to escape. In here was dark, cold, and smelled of urine no windows, a small bed in the corner and a toilet that only privacy is a petition I guess that’s a plus no one will watch you shitting. Where the hell is that damn wolf to get me out of here. I got up and went to the bars. “Please help me this is a mistake. Can someone go and find my mate and he will straighten all of this out? Please someone Help!” I yelled. “OMG! Please would you shut up they won’t do anything you say. So, stop wasting your breath when the alpha is ready to hear you he will send for you. So, if your mate can help you get out of here then you have nothing to worry about so please just Shut the hell up.” The pregnant she wolf said as she laid on a twin-size bed. “Why are you here your pregnant what could you have possible done to end up here?” I asked, frowning. “Exactly, I have done nothing wrong to be thrown in here like some criminal.” She said and another woman coughed uncontrollably. I shook my head and started pacing the small cell. How the hell is master supposed to get me out of here? She thought I was in one of the houses. I can’t mind link her she has to open her mind up in order for me to reach her. I’m so hungry I haven’t eaten since I got here. The raw meat wasn’t cutting it I needed warm blood. To get my strength back. I went to the corner of the room and slid down to sit with my arms wrapped around my knees. I needed to find a way out of this mess, but I will have to depend on the master and hope like hell she knows I’m not at the safe house anymore. I’m sure she knows she always has to plan A,B,C and D all the way to k which is simply kill everyone. I chuckled as I remember her telling me that when I asked has any of her plans ever fail. Coming out of a whole on the other side of the cell was a disgusting rat and it was more than one of them. I gagged at the thought of what I was about to do but when you’re desperate you have no choice I needed to be at my best when the master frees me from this hell hole. “Ewe, did you just eat a rat?”

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 68

Shadow’s POV:

“Rane was at full speed trying to find Shawna they must have moved her because she wasn’t in the room that I left her in. Rane immediately caught the girls scent and went in the direction of Shawna. We needed to see that she was ok. That scream was one of pain that was usually followed by death. Just as I was about to go through the surgery room door her cousins came out. Rane had to turn his body and almost went through a wall. The alpha and Beta were right behind me their paws sliding across the clinic floors. “Damn, what the hell is going on yall act like the building is on fire.” Ji’lahni said, as we shifted back to human form. “What the hell happened in here. Why the hell didn’t you tell me that a Dragon shifter was going to be on my pack land there are guidelines and rules in place that has to be followed by all shifters.” The alpha said his aura on full blast and has all the nurses baring their necks, but the women only stared at him.

“You knew we asked Lynn call her brother to come to the pack to save Shawna. They didn’t have to help us, but they did and at the expense of Lynn having to see her siblings who she hasn’t seen or talk to in years. If we could have picked up a phone and said hey the Dragon shifter is here, then we would have. We didn’t know that they would just show up. They assumed that they were already cleared to come here.” Ji’lahni said looking the alpha straight in the eye. If it were anyone else they would be dead by now, but since it was his other half he would never hurt her and judging by the way the nurses were slowly getting up and scurrying away says the alpha had calm down some at least. “Baby you have to understand that we were going crazy not knowing what was happening and the force field not letting anyone in or out we thought something happened to you.” The alpha said pulling her into his arms. Montego did the same. I really didn’t want to watch the reunion I needed to get to Shawna. “Where is Shawna is she.. is she and my pup ok.” I asked, and they cut their eyes in my direction. “The dragon said she was in pretty bad shape, but she should be ok. Her and the baby will share his essence, but he doesn’t know to what extinct Shawna will only have his essence while she is pregnant, but the baby my always carry his essence because of how tiny and new the pregnancy is.” Lynn explained to me. I didn’t know how to feel about Shawna and my pup carrying the essence of a dragon shifter, but if that was the only way to save them I will just have to deal with it. “I need to see her.” I said pleadingly. They looked like they were about to tell me to go to hell.

But they surprised me. “You can see her but understand that if you let your mate look in her direction and you don’t protect Shawna and our baby we will kill you and her. Lynn has a blade, and she isn’t afraid to use it.” Ji’lahni said and I nodded and headed directly to where her scent was the strongest. When I went into the dark room I could see Shawna laying on the bed so peacefully the wires were gone, and she just look like she was sleeping all her color was back and she looked healthy. I came close to her and inhaled her scent and sighed when I didn’t smell the dragon on her. I placed a kiss on her forehead and moved to her belly where our pup grew and placed my head on her stomach. “Hey buddy it’s poppa, I told you that you would be just fine your momma wasn’t going to let anything happen to you. And I promise I will do whatever I can to make sure you and her are safe while she rest and gets all better.” I said kissing her tummy lightly. I then moved in bed beside Shawna gently pulled her into my .

Shaid’s POV:

“For the last time. I didn’t eat the rat I killed it so it wouldn’t bite me while I slept.” I said for the thousandth time. “Whatever I know what I saw. You did kill it, but it was with your mouth. ”Summer said making the gagging sound. I rolled my eyes as I heard talking coming from up front. “That’s weird they usually don’t change shifts for another hour. I wonder what’s going on?” The girl that calls herself Brittney said getting up from her bed to see if she could see what was happening. “I got a little excited it was probably Shadow coming to get me out of here.” I was disappointed seeing it was just another guard. I turned around to head back to my corner. “Hawk, what the hell are you doing down here you don’t guard the cellars.” The she wolf named Brittany said to the guard that came in. “Yea, uh the alpha wanted me to bring this prisoner up for questioning.” The guard said nervously.

“Well why not just have one of the guards on duty take her up?” The pregnant she wolf asked coming to stand at the bars. “Uh because we are on lock down and he didn’t want to leave the cellars unprotected, so he just sent me.” He said with the keys shaking nervously in his hand. Now I am looking at him suspiciously. What is he really the doing here? “What the hell are you really doing down here Hawk Kahi would never send a patrol guard down to get a prisoner?” The pregnant she wolf asked, squinting at the guard suspiciously. What the hell is really going on why is this guard really here? Is he coming to kill me or something worse. I tensed up ready to fight him to the death before I let him touch me.

“I don’t know what you think you’re going to do when you open this door, but you will have to kill me if you think I will let you touch me.” I said getting into a fighting stance. The guard looked up suddenly afraid. He looked around before he said in a whisper. The Master sent me to get you out of here.” He said as he opened the do. I felt a wave of relief come over me my master is finally here to get me the hell out of here. “I immediately pushed opened the door as soon as the guard turn. “Hey, wait let us go too, we could help you. Get out of here we know how to leave undetected. Come on get us out of here. I looked at the two she wolves. They may be of use to me if I need to think of a plan b. I nodded at the guard. “Release them.” “What! No, the master only said to get you out of here no one else just you.” The guard said shaking his head like he was about to pass out with fear.

“I said release them they may be of some use to me I need to get into the clinic and get the injured human woman out of here and they may be able to help me with that.” I said as I thought of a plan. “Yea we can help you get in and out of the clinic without being seen.” The she wolf said excitedly. “Uh, speak for yourself I’m not leaving these cells he has already promised not to kill me for my crimes. If I go with you I will surely forfeit my life either way so I’m better off with an alpha I do know rather than an evil master I don’t. Brittney said backing away from the bars to sit back on her cot. “Never mind her let her rot in here for all I care. She can go down with the rest of them once I get my revenge on that fat bh. “Find hurry up and lets go. If you slow me down or hinder my escape in any way I wont hesitate to kill you myself.” I said as I headed out of the dungeon to freedom.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 69

Back at the Clinic: POV

“ALPHA! We just found hawk, it looks like he was attacked and knocked out. We brought him here to get checked out he doesn’t know who knocked him out because he was attacked from behind.” A warrior came into the room where Shawna was being held. They were all just sitting in the room waiting for Shawna to wake up, because they didn’t want her to wake up alone, and the girls even allowed Shadow to stay. Even though they were giving him the evil eye. “Damn it! Make sure the women and children are at the safe house they should still be there. Take two warriors over to my mother’s house to protect the pups. Everyone else with me. The alpha said to the warrior who nodded and headed out of the room. The alpha turned to the women in the room. I need you guys to go to my parents’ house and help protect the girls.” The alpha said to them. “What about Shawna? we can’t just leave her here. I know baby, we have guards on the way, they will be station outside the doors to make sure she is not disturbed.” The alpha said, they nodded reluctantly, because of their need to protect their cousin, and the need to protect the babies had them second guessing themselves which the alpha knew of all too well, so he decided to take on the burden and made the decision for them. They know what Shawna would say if she was awake.

“Alpha the prison has been breached. The asset and the former Luna has escaped.” A guard mind linked everyone on the open link. “st! It has to be her master she must be here for my mate.” Shadow said, as he jumped up careful not to disturb Shawna. “What about the former Gamma is she with them as well?” The alpha mind linked. “No, she is still in her cell she is claiming that Hawk released them but that is impossible because he was knocked out and at the clinic all this time.” The warrior answered. “We need to find out where they are going to try and exit from. We need to stop them before they cross our borders. Hawk was on the north side patrolling the area when he was attacked. I don’t want to assume they will not take that same route again. If I were them I would assume that they would think I would be trying to exit out the same way I came in. So, they will guard it heavily. But I wouldn’t take that route I would leave out the last place that anyone would think of leaving out. But with Summer leading them they will use her knowledge of our pack land to try and sneak them out using one of the exits our teens uses and think we don’t know about. We will need to split up because it is more than one exit. Beta and Commander will head up two teams, now go!” The alpha commanded, they all rushed out of the room not knowing who was lurking.

The asset, Summer and the guard named hawk waited at the door of one of the empty room wearing scrubs they had to sneak in through the window, then they just waited there until they all left. They hurriedly walked into the room where the human woman laying peacefully on the bed. “How the hell is she still alive and healed?” The asset asked, baffled as she stared at the woman her mate obviously cared about. “We don’t have time to figure that out here and now. We need to get out of here now before the guards come to watch over her!” The guard named Hawk said looking around. “Fine let’s go, we have to get her to my master.” The asset said, as she picked up the woman and headed down to the clinic basement. There was a tunnel there that the she wolf said no one knew about but her and the other prisoner Brittney.

“You better hope we’re not caught.” I said to the she wolf. “Don’t worry no one knows about the tunnels apparently it was an old escape route made centuries ago and was sealed up and deemed unsafe when it collapsed and killed the alpha's Luna during and attack. Me and Brittney found it by accident, so we unsealed and made it less creepy." The she wolf said, as we walked through the dark tunnels. She talked too fg much I would have snapped her neck if I didn't need her help getting out of these damn tunnels. We came out to a wooded area that was still within the Crystal Moon borders. You would think the exit would have been outside of the borders because of how long they walked, it seemed like a lifetime before they exited the tunnels. "OMG! Fresh air, I never thought I would see the outside world ever again." The she wolf said as she did a little spin and made a show of kissing the ground without really kissing the ground. "Well, it's been real, I'm going to head this way because I know some people that can get me far away from here, but if you guys head that way you shouldn't run into any guards or warriors, but I'm sure you're good at figuring your way in and out of places. The she wolf said, starting to strip and shift into her wolf. " And just where the hell do you think you're going? I didn't help you get released so you can escape to freedom you work for master now you are in her debt and mine." The asset said handing the human to the guard called hawk.

"What? That wasn't the deal I told you I could help you get out and I did that. My part of the deal is done I don't want any part of you and your band of evil I have my own plans of revenge, but I must wait until I give birth." The she wolf said backing away from me. "You know I would hate to have to cut that pup out of your body while you watch as I drink it's blood like I did that rat in the cell." The asset said finally revealing her fangs for the first time. "Bu.. but yo..you said that you only killed it to make sure it didn't bite you at night." The she wolf stumbled back into a tree trembling in fear. The asset laughed out loud. "You really are clueless even when you see things with your own eyes you refuse to accept what you clearly know to be the truth. Which is why you are in this situation now you saw what I truly was but ignored it and wanted to use me to your advantage and thought you would just run away into the sunset. But deep down you knew I wasn't going to allow you to just walk away, but nice try though. So just follow me now without a problem and I wont drain you dry princess. The asset said turning and walking away as the guard followed hurriedly. There was something off about Hawk that Summer couldn't put her finger on, and she didn't really have time to figure it out she was thinking of a way to get herself out of this st storm she just walked into. She was suddenly regretting not stay in the cellars with Brittney and just pleading for her life with the alpha.

Sometimes, Brittney had good ideas and her last one was starting to sound like it was a good idea. Turns out it was better to stick with the people you know rather than the evil you don't. The she wolf put her hands protectively over her belly as she walked slowly behind her capturers because they were no longer her partners. As they walked it seemed like the guard was slowing down. He seem like he is really struggling. "Hey, hawk what the hell is wrong with you?" The she wolf asked. Turning when the guard stumbled and almost fell to the ground. The asset eyed the guard suspiciously before realization hit. "Well, that explains a lot, Master used her cloning potion on you. It's starting to wear off you will be turning back to your original form, which I must say will hurt like a bh. That's my least favorite tool to use on a mission. Once it wears off you will be sick and throwing up for a week because you basically made your body do what it wasn't made to do. Even if you are a shifter your body is made to shift only to a wolf form not the form of a completely different person. We need to hurry before the fun really begins and the pregnant she wolf will have to carry you while you're screaming in pain until you pass out and we don't need you to bring any unwanted attention to our current location." The asset said picking up the human woman and walked off while a panting Hawk or whoever it was pretending to be Hawk got off the ground slowly and stumbled behind them crying silently. Seems as though both the fake Hawk and the pregnant she wolf have come to realize they have made a grave mistake one they will soon regret.

Chapter 70

Makahi's POV:

"Where the hell are they Brittney?" I asked as I entered the dungeons below ground. "We had all the secret exit checked and found nothing. We even check where they found Hawk and still nothing. The pups were safe and there was no attack, so it seems that their only mission was to get Shadow's mate. We were now in the dungeon to question Brittney to see what she knows. Shadow was pacing and growling barely able to contain Rane and keep him from taking over. He is having a hard time accepting that his mate isn't his mate anymore. He still thinks she is being used and has no choice but to obey the witch. He somehow thinks if he could just talk to her, he will be able to convince her to come back with him so they can somehow find a way to fix her. Going into the room where we question prisoners. Brittney was crying in fear. "Brittney you only have one chance to tell me what you know. What the hell happen down here?" I asked Leaning close to Brittney's face. Alpha all I know is that Hawk came in and released the woman who said she was Shadow's mate and then Summer told them she could help them get out without being detected. Shadows mate said something about needing to go to the clinic and get an injured human woman." Brittney said, than all we heard was a crash then Rane's roar letting every shifter know to clear a path." As Shadow shifted into Rane and took another damn door off its hinges. "Damn it they went after Shawna. Grab Brittney and take her to the clinic. Dad get the girls and meet us at the clinic." I mind linked my dad, as we raced to the clinic hoping like hell we can control Rane enough for him to not go bat st crazy and kill everyone and everything in sight.

Shadow's POV:

As soon as Brittney said that Shaid was going after Shawna, Rane took complete control. "NO NO NO! Please, not Shawna please don't hurt her Damn it Shaid, why are you doing this?" Those were the only thoughts I had as Rane raced to the clinic. I could hear the Alpha right behind me. But I had to get to Shawna and my pup. My heart was beating so hard I could hear it, afraid of what I will see when I get to Shawna's room. I finally made it to the clinic which felt like hours instead of less than a minute. I shifted into my human form not wanting to run into anyone like before. Shawna's room was completely dark which it never was because we didn't want her to wake up afraid. I stood at the door, not opening it afraid to confirm my suspicions. "Shadow why the hell are you just standing there? Will someone tell me what the hell is going on? Ji'lahni asked as she walked towards Shawna's room.

The alpha was at the door, he stopped Ji'lahni before she could reach around him and open the door. "Baby, There was a breach in our borders they Knocked out hawk." The alpha said calmly. "Yea we know that, so what happened?" Mina asked crossing her arms over her chest. "It seems as though their main goal was to break out Shadow's mate." He answered. "Damn it so the zombie bh got away." Lynn said shaking her head. "Ok that still doesn't explain why we're her...e," Ji'lahni said as her eyes widen and looked towards Shawna's dark room that the alpha was still standing in front of. "NO! NO! NO! please don't tell me that bh killed Shawna Makahi please please please tell me she's not dead please please." Ji'lahni begged and they all began to sob loudly. "NO baby she isn't dead. We think Shaid took her." The alpha said in a rush. "WHAT! I know you fg lying. We have to go find them now. Go get our gear and somebody's wolf to ride." Ji'lahni said wiping her eyes angrily and every omega immediately moved to follow her orders, Like the true Luna she was. "Baby we have checked all the secret exits and the borders we have no idea where they could have gotten out from without us detecting them." The alpha said sadly. "Alpha I think I know how Summer got them out without anyone detecting them." We heard Brittney say in a low shaky voice.

Before I could say anything. All three women were surrounding Brittney who whimpered in fear. "bh this is not the time to be afraid unless you want to lose more then a tooth this time you better not make us have to ask you twice. How the hell did they get out of here with Shawna." Lynn asked pulling out her blade. Brittney gasped loudly. There is a tunnel in the basement that no one knows about." She said in a low tone. "What tunnel? There is no tunnel in the basement." The alpha said frowning. "Yes there is, me and Summer found it years ago we had to dig through tons of ancient books to find out who built it apparently it was built centuries ago and was closed off when it collapsed and killed the alpha's mate. No one ever mentioned it again, and it stopped being part of the layout for the grounds hundreds of years ago.

Anyway, we found it, and dug through the tunnels for 2 years until we reached an opening almost outside our borders, and where the patrols don't check because there is no way for anyone to get in through there, but you can definitely get out if you take a rout that is upwind, so guards wont scent you as you pass by, it is fairly easy to get off pack lands using those tunnels. I didn't leave with Summer, because I truly regret my actions, and want to pay for my crimes, so I will help you anyway that I can. I know Summer like the back of my hand." Brittney said as she lowered her head in shame but determined to right her wrongs. We turned to head in the direction of the basement to see if what Brittney said was true. I was silent and anyone looking at me can see that Rane is also at the surface too. "Alpha!" Brittney called out. We all turned back to Brittney who was being led back to the cellars.

"What is it Brittney?" the alpha asked, impatiently. "It's about Shadow's mate." She said, I growled and came forward, but the alpha stopped me. "What about her?" The alpha asked. "Well while we were in the cell me and Summer saw Shadow's mate kill several rats. Claiming she did it because she didn't want to be bitten by them." Brittney said. We all frowned at the she wolf like she was crazy. “Ok why is that important?” Montego asked first. “Well because after she killed them she drank their blood.” Brittney said and I roared at her ready to snap her neck. “You’re lying! Why are you lying? How could you say that about my mate? How dare you accuse her of such a disgusting thing?” I growled out angrily. “I’m sorry Commander but I’m not lying we both saw her do it.” Brittney said trembling in fear. “Well, ain’t this some st, not only is She a zombie werewolf wacko bh she’s a damn vampire too.” Ouch! Mina Said rubbing her arm which Lynn punched. ‘What? Too soon? Well, you could have just said that instead of punching me, that st hurt.” Mina loud whispered. I felt like my world was crumbling around me.

None of this can be true there is no way my mate would do any of this. This has to be some sort of mistake or mix up. I can’t believe any of this because if I do then Shawna and my pup will be in more danger then anything. I turned on my heels and raced to the basement where Brittney said they may have used to take Shawna out without being detected. We reached the tunnel and the alpha decided to just head through the tunnel and told the girls to gear up and have the guards meet them at the opening. They agreed because although they were packing as always, they didn’t have all their gear although it wasn’t likely the alpha wanted us to go through the tunnel on the off chance that they are still in there. Brittney said it was pretty long but with wolf speed it would take no more than twenty minutes. They had an unconscious human woman to carry and a pregnant she wolf so it slowed them down considerably.

We shifted quickly and Montego took the lead with the alpha in the middle and me in the rear. We had to protect the alpha from the unknown. We had no idea what is down here, so we needed to stay alert. We ran at full speed it wouldn’t take us twenty minutes we are faster than the she wolves we were at the end after ten minutes. Shawna’s scent was strong in the tunnel as well as the others, but my main focus was on Shawna and my pup. I promised my pup that I would protect him while his mommy rest, but I failed them yet again. I can’t lose them I will protect them once I find them even if I have to do something that will result in me going rogue or dying. I will do whatever it took in order to ensure they survived. The girls came up to the end of the tunnel as we exited. The scents were strong, and we headed in that direction. We didn’t bother shifting back. Lynn and Ji’lahni put their harnesses on their mates because the wolves growled when they saw their mate on the backs of other wolves. “Are you serious right now. We don’t have time for this bullshit Makahi.” Ji’lahni said as she unstrapped her harness after the alpha growled at her in warning. Lynn didn’t even bother arguing. I had left them behind to start in the direction of my family. I’m coming for you mate I growled in heated anger; Rane is out for blood and at this point even the blood of his mate will be spilled if she has done anything to Shawna and our pup.
