

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 71

Shaid's POV:

"st speed up I can hear them getting closer. I swear I will kill you both if we are caught. "We have been walking from a while. We haven't made it to my master yet because the clone was in so much pain and needed to stop and throw up and the pregnant she wolf needed to pee every few minutes. There is no way a pup makes you pee like you drunk a gallon of water. "We're going as fast as we can not everyone is as fit as you are." The pregnant she wolf replied. "I'm carrying the human and still walking faster then you two now get it together and move before they caught up to us." I said, starting to run the howls are getting to close for comfort if they got caught then it will be their own fault and the master wouldn't be angry because she still had the human. Reaching out to her master. To let her know she was getting closer, and the wolves are closing in on them.

Master POV:

"Everyone! Get into position we may have company tailing the asset. We need to make sure we get the human through the portal. I'll take out the alpha first then his beta. The asset will handle the the commander because he think she's his mate, so he want hurt. Grab the pup they wouldn't want to do anything to hurt him, so we need to make sure the pup is front and center. I need two warriors hidden behind those trees make sure you have not scented us the potion of clock yourself, so they won't see you until it's too late attack them from the back on my command. I you can take the other human women alive then take them I have someone still in the pack house to get the pups. Their strongest warriors are going to be here so getting the pups will be easy. " I said with a smile on my face. Everything is coming together nicely. Now I just have to wait for the alpha to come and try to play hero. "You betrayed me like this we had a deal. I gave you the Intel you needed without me you would know nothing." Alpha Zane said from behind me. I turned to him with a smirk on my face. "I didn't betray you; You seem to not know your place. You can still have those humans once I am done with them you allowed your emotions for that pup to make you weak and I can't allow emotions to get in the way of my plans I have been planning this for decades, so understand I will not only kill you, but I will kill that little pup over there if it will ensure I win this battle. So, if you need to get with the program or you can die right along with them those filter wolves." I said angrily breathing hard trying not to let her anger make her lose focus. Everything has to go as planned. Opening her mind, she reached onto her best warriors she sent to retrieve the twins. "Have you located the pups, yet we are about to encounter the alpha and his pack, so you need to get the pups out of the pack now we have no more time to waste. Don't screw this up the clocking spell will soon wear off. "Master, We just entered the pack we had to take out a few guards that was left behind. They still had more guards then you expected. New of the guards we questioned said that the pups aren't in the safe house where the other wolves. But refuse to tell us where they are being held so we have to check each house."

The warriors responded. "Damn it Where the hell could they have hidden those damn pups. I thought they would be with the women and children." I said aloud to myself as I paced. "You really think that an Alpha would put his heirs with lowly wolves." Alpha Zane said, chuckling smugly. I marched over to him with my powers dancing on my fingers. Any other shifter would be fearing her when she showed her power. But the stupid alpha showed no fear. Which infuriated me even more. "Witch you don't scare me I have faced death ever since my son was killed I no longer fear death so if you want to scare me you will have to do better than that. But I to answer the question you are dying to know I will tell you where those pups are if you give me my grand pup." He said defiantly. "How about I kill the pup if you don't tell me where they are?" I countered. "You could but that would mean you will not get the information you need to get those pups because I will have nothing left to lose now will I? So, what will it be give me my grand pup and I will tell you where the twin pups are located. " He asked crossing his arms over his chest. I turned and nodded to my mage to let the pup go. Which the pup ran towards the alpha and the alpha immediately put the pup on his back to protect him and in case he had o shift and make a run for it the pup will already be on his back. "The pups are more then likely with the old alpha and Luna their safe house which is more then likely in the basement of their house. It is probably heavily guarded as well. That is what I would do if I was attacked." The alpha aid shrugging his shoulder. "I opened my mind again. The twins are in the old Alpha and Luna house in the basement. They are heavily guarded use the blue vials that will take out the guards immediately and don't breathe for 20 second exactly before you enter the basement. Don't hurt the previous Alpha that is a command do not hurt him he will not attack if you have the Luna so grab her first if he makes a move you kill her immediately and use the dart gun on him if you kill the Luna bh. Once you do that bring him and the twins to me. Do you understand?" I asked the warriors. "Yes master! " They said in unison. My heart began to race with excitement at the thought of being with my love again. I'm finally going to get everything that was taken from me. I may even keep the pups s me and my mate can raise them as our own. I thought as a smile formed on my lips as the thought of getting everything I deserve once and for all.

The Alpha and Luna's safe house:

"We should be with the kids. What if Urrale is here? They will need us to fight her. They will not be able to fight her she is too powerful for them to defeat on their own." Lateri said. Pacing back and forth with Tru in her hand cooing not knowing the danger they may be in. "Calm down mate, our son is strong and remember we both trained him you made sure you trained him as well he is a strong and powerful alpha he is the strongest alpha in this country and that's because of us." Atoni said, coming to hug his mate. She sighed because her mate is right. Their son was a strong alpha, and he was smart they made sure that he was at the top of his game before Atoni stepped down. "You're right our son is strong and smart he can handle this. We just need to make sure his pups are safe, so he doesn't have to worry about them." Lateri said, as she held Tru close and kissed the top of her head and then turn and kissed the top of Teri head as well. They were feeding the twins when they heard a thug then the knob on the safe house electronic lock clicked to green indicated that one of the guards was opening maybe coming to tell them they were safe to leave. They breathed a sigh of relief that quickly turned to anger when the men that entered wasn't their guards. As the door opened wide they saw their top five warriors were on the floor they must have been poisoned. That could be the only explanation. They both ran into the bedroom and locked themselves in. Atoni handing the pup to his mate. "That door will not hold them long, so I will distract them, and you run as fast as you can and go to the secondary safe house and lock yourself in." He said kissing his mate. "No, I will not leave you this has to stop now. No one will harm my family anymore. I know you don't agree with what I'm about to do. But I can't allow anyone else to be hurt when I can help. My family is in danger, and I will protect them all as I should have done. She placed the girls in their crib and before turned to face the intruders that tore through the door. Her eyes began to glow Atoni shifted immediately and attacked. She heard the pups cry out and she glanced back to see a new warrior who just appeared out of nowhere at the pups crib her not knowing it was another one of the witches potions that creates a fake illusion of another warriors. she was getting ready to attack the warrior who dare to touch her grand pups, but turning towards the new intruders was a mistake, because the warrior behind her took that opportunity to rush over and snapped her neck. The last thing she heard was her mate cry out, and then there was nothing. She has failed. She has failed her family.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 72

Back to the wood's POV:

"Alpha I spotted Shadow's mate about a mile up ahead heading east. She is carrying the human woman and she has Summer and someone else with her I can't make out who the third person is." One of my warriors said through our open mind link. At the tunnel I sent some of my warriors ahead of us to see if they could track the direction Shadows mate went in once they left the tunnel. I wanted to make sure they weren't too far ahead of us. "Copy that keep them in your sight we are about a half a mile behind you." I responded via mind link. "Shadow roared and picked up speed. I can't imagine what he is going through right now. Your mate that you thought was dead turns out not to be dead and then kidnapped the mother of your pup to put them in the hands of an evil witch out for revenge. We all pick up speed racing toward the she wolf hoping we can reach her before she makes it to the witch.

The Master's POV:

"Master we see the asset up ahead she is almost here, but she is being followed by some of the packs warriors and the alpha is coming up behind them." One of the rogues said as he came running to my way. I nodded my head readying myself for a fight. After a few minutes I see the asset come into view. My powers reeving up with excitement. "Go take the human from the asset and tell her to come to me I want her to be by my side when the alpha gets here." I told a warrior who nodded and went to get the human woman from the asset once they were close enough. I needed to make sure that we gave my warriors enough time at the pack house to get my mate and those twin pups. I looked over to alpha Zane who stood with his grand pup still on his back. I still planned to use the pup if I need to by now the alpha should know he can't stop me. He seemed conflicted and I can't have that affect my plans once you allow conflicted emotions those feelings could ruin everything, and I will not let the alpha's feelings get in the way of my plans.

"Master I am so happy to see you. I got the human, but I was unable to get close to the pups. They had me put in a dungeon I only had time to grab the human woman, but she is completely healed I used the blade on her she should be dead. But somehow they found a dragon to heal her. The man we got the blade from is a dragon rider and the Asian human woman is his sister and said very dangerous people will be looking for him" My asset said as she reached me. So, the man back at my castle is a dragon rider. That added an element I didn't plan for but no worries they haven't found him yet, I have had him for the past 4 months. I will deal with him once we make it back to the castle. "No worries Shaid I have warriors back at the pack house retrieving the pups as we speak we just need to stall them until our men can get the pups off the pack land and back to the castle. So, I need you to handle your mate." I said as I handed her a blood bag I brought from the castle. She eyed the bag greedily and didn't waste time ripping into it. I knew she was almost feral from the lack of feeding. So, I handed her another bag. Which she tore through the second bag like she did the first.

Just then there was a strangled growl that made us turn in the direction of the sound and saw that it was Shaid's mate looking like someone ripped his heart out he had shifted and was completely naked, I smiled at him. "Well, Shaid you can no longer hide what you are." I said, I saw a flicker of regret in Shaid eyes. Not liking that I will have to inject her once we get back to the castle. The rest of the wolves reached the clearing we created. "Well hello alpha how are you on this fine night. We weren't expecting an alpha to grace us with his presence, or we would have rolled out the red carpet." I said sarcastically. "Cut it out witch give us the human and Shaid and we will kill you fast instead of slowly ." He said stepping forward with the human woman coming to stand next to him. I smiled.

"Alpha I didn't force Shaid to come to me. As you can see she is clearly able to come and go as she please. Shaid am I holding you hostage?" I turned asking Shaid, who shook her head immediately and I smiled. "See alpha I didn't force her to come to me she is like a daughter to me I saved her from death." I said, and I heard a low growl from Shaid's mate. "W.. Why Scar? What happen to you?" Shadow asked in a broken voice. "Nothing happened to her I saved her from death when you left her dying on the ground as you fought a war. But I knew she was special which is why I saved her. I called an old friend, and he saved her life and made her more powerful they you could ever be." I answered for her.

"Uh why the hell are we playing story time with the evil villain. I'm not trying to hear all this bullshit. Where the hell is my cousin?" Ji'lahni said as she stepped forward and her alpha held her hand. Smart alpha because that human has no idea what I am capable of. Cocking my head to the side in interest. "Oh, you're the feisty human that Alpha Zane wants so badly. You my dear have the alpha going crazy over you willing to do anything to have you." I said turning to the alpha who hasn't said anything. "Alpha I wonder if you would hand over your grand pup if I provide you with this human you're in love with?" I asked, and his eyes grew wide as you can obviously see him contemplate on what he wants to do. "No one will touch my mate!" The alpha growled, you could feel his power sweep over everyone. He was so powerful just like his father. Sometimes I used to wonder what would it have been like if I were his mother instead of that bh of a mother that took his father away from me. "Alpha Makahi, I was just asking a question, Alpha Zane seems to be very protective of the pup on his back and tried to refuse me of using him against you. So, I just wanted to find out what he is willing to do for the human woman you have beside you. I honestly don't know what the moon goddess was thinking giving you a weak human as your Luna. You were better off with the pregnant she wolf. She has already prove that she would do anything to get what she wants." I said glancing at the She wolf who was trying to be invisible. Once I mentioned her everyone eyes turned to the she wolf with anger. "I swear I'm killing you."

The Asian human said to the she wolf who whimpered in fear. "Ah the infamous dragon rider Shaid her tells me you're looking for the owner of the blade. Well, I hate to disappoint you, but he is dead how else do you think I got his blade." I smirked. "You're lying my brother is not dead. I..I.. would know it I would feel it." The human woman said. I just laughed. "You think I survive this long not being able to cloak my whereabouts. "You bh I will kill you! She yelled as she through I knife at my head which I used my hand to deflect it easily it landed in a tree next to the human woman we had taken. They all gasped when they saw how close the blade came to their human. "I would watch where you throw those knives you will never know where they might land." I said smiling. Now they know exactly what I am capable of.

We all hear groaning and look towards the sound as the human who was unconscious slowly open her eyes and looked confused. She looked around at her surroundings, but it took her a while to figure out the scene she just woke up in when her eyes landed on Shaid. Her eyes widen as all her memories come back and all confusion gone. "Well damn yall couldn't even give me a bed to wake up on I was stabbed by my man's ex protecting our babies and yall just have me leaning against a damn tree." She said as a distraction so she could snatch a knife from one of my warriors who were guarding her and threw it directly at Shaid and it hit her in her thigh, and she fell to the ground screaming I must it admit I didn't expect the human women to be so brave even when they know they are no match for me but oh well they will all die slow. As soon as Shaid went down the men shifted and they all attacked at the same damn time. I will make them regret ever being born.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 73

Shawna's POV:

Why the hell does it feel like I'm sleeping on rocks I swear I'm getting another bed to sleep on because this is not working out. I groaned as I opened my eyes to see a whole bunch of people standing around like it is some kind of gathering or backyard party. I know I didn't get drunk and pass out Lahni will never let me hear the end of it. I frown because no backyard party I have ever been to had this many people standing around like they were about to start a war. What the hell is going on around here? I looked around and see my cousins who looked pissed and afraid. I look to the person they were arguing with because drunk or not is the bh they arguing with wont see me coming if she want smoke with my family I looked at the dudes standing in front of me looking like they are in the military and well built.

They have knives on their belts already planning to get one of their knives to use. I looked back at the bh my cousin was talking to and that's when I saw her. The bh who stabbed me and almost killed me and my baby that's when everything came back in a rush, and I am fg pissed I feel a little weak so I know I will have to throw the knife to disable her because I don't think I will have time nor the strength for a chest or head shot. So, I needed a distraction in order to strike and then try to get away, taking a deep breath. Oh well, folks I'm sure yall know what I'm about to say so I won't even bother we will just see how this turns out. "Well damn yall couldn't even give me a bed to wake up on I was stabbed by my man's ex protecting our babies and yall just have me leaning against a damn tree." I said and use their distraction to grabbed the guy's knife and threw it as hard as I could and it hit here in the thigh I punched and grabbed and pulled at their nuts, then I crawled away as fast as I could towards my cousins, because I didn't try to get up and run because I figured I wouldn't be stable on my feet because I didn't know how long I was unconscious. So, army crawling it is I refuse to be the girl in the scary wood to run and fall breaking my ankle. In movie if I die it won't be because of stupid st like running and falling.

I love my cousin because they didn't waste time they reacted knowing they need to keep them busy so I would have a chance to get the hell away from these crazy bitches I mean damn you got a pregnant bh having us kidnap because of some dk then you got a bh coming back from the dead for the dk. I remember that little challenge where females would say what they would do for the dk. These bitches is proven what the hell they would do for the dick. I mean don't get me wrong Shadow got the dk that might make you fight a bh or two but coming back from the dead dk I can't say it's that good. His dk is literally raising the dead out here in these woods.

So, imagine how good that thang got to be. Anyway, lets focus before yall get me killed. I was halfway to my cousin when the old hag with the magic fingers saw me and yelled for someone to grab me. Then all of a sudden I was being drag in the wrong fg direction. I started screaming and the first name that came to my mind was..."SHADOW!" I yelled as I tried to digging my nails into the ground trying to at least slow them down so somebody can save my a*s.

Shadow's POV:

I needed to get to Shawna these f*g rogues are somehow stronger than before, still not match for us but they are slowing us down. It's like they are on something, there are more feral and wilder than they usually are. I can't believe Shawna took a risk like that after she literally just woke up from being on unconscious. When I get my hands on her we are going to have a long talk on what to do while pregnant. "What the fk are these fucker hyped up on?" Ji'lahni said, as she used her crossbow and her gun protecting the alpha's body while the alpha ripped heads off from the front they were in sync just as an alpha and true Luna should be. I don't know but it's time to end this the witch is somehow controlling them or using magic giving them extra power we have to take her a*s out of wound her." Mina said as she shot another rogue that tried to attack hunter's wolf.

"You ain't said nothing but a word, just make sure she can't use her magic to hit me. Every time she tries to use her magic throw someone attack her. Baby I got this trust me ok? I need you to run as fast as you can towards the witch, and I'll do the rest." Lynn said before Diego roared and raced full speed towards the witch. She saw him run towards her and she lift her hand to release her magic on Diego and Lynn the alpha and Ji'lahni charged at her and Ji'lahni fired shots from both her gun and her cross bow and Mina, and hunter attacked before she could fire on the alpha and Ji'lahni. It looked like they have been training together for years instead of a few months with absolutely no training. I was ripping rogue wolves that tried to stop me from reaching Shawna.

She was crawling through rogue bodies not stopping or pausing at all. Our rogue bodies our eyes met for a split second and before she change direction and headed towards me. That made Rane roar and started killing rogues left and right to get to our Shawna we had to reach her she was depending on us, and I refuse to let her down this time. As soon as I rip the throat out of the last 2 rogues blocking my path I made a beeline straight to Shawna and I was stopped in my track as my mate stepped into my path both me and Shawna looked up at the same time she looked at me and all I saw was sadness in her face remembering what happened the last Shaid was between us. But I wouldn't fail her and pup again I can't lose them even if it means losing my life in the process because they were worth it.

"Well mate why didn't you just come with me when I told you we could leave we could have been happy together away from all this, but you just couldn't leave that filthy human woman." Shaid said as she slowly walked towards me. Rane growled and Shifted if I'm going to this then I need to do it as me. "What happen to you to you Scar why are you doing this. We could have gotten you help the doc could have found a way to help you." I pleaded one last time the mate I once knew deserved that much. But she only laughed. "Oh, please don't you get it by now I'm a vampire you fool. I am not your mate I guess I just look like her." She said with a shrug. "What you are my mate I don't know what that witch has done to you or what she has told you, but you are my mate. Just help me get Shawna out of here and I promise we will figure it out together. Just don't do this don't make me..." I trailed off just as I heard Shawna screamed and yelled.

"SHADOW!" I immediately started to run to Shawna. I was punched in the side of the head by my mate. "st Scar don't make me do this." I said as I dodged her punches. I have to admit she was pretty damn good. "Well, I guess I you want be saving that human we then. After I kill her I will drain her dry.” Shaid said as she jumped and kicked at my head I caught her leg and threw her to the ground. I was done playing. “Well, it looks like my mate has finally grew some balls. Well, this should be fun.” She said as she charged at me. Although I always fight with Rane in control I’m not going to this time my wolf is powerful, but I was d excellent fighter in my human form as well. I mastered as Taekwondo, Jujitsu, Muay Thai and kickboxing. “hey, stop bragging and get to our Shawna.” Rane said in my subconscious. “So, you’re ok with fighting our mate.” I asked. “Our mate is sick and is threatening our Shawna and pup they come first.” He said sadly both of us not liking what we are about to do.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 74

Master’s POV:

“Don’t let the human get away damn it! I yelled, as I dodged another throwing knife. I didn’t think the alpha and Beta would bring their human mates with them. Most werewolves are all muscle and no brain to think of a strategy that could compare to my intelligence they were an obstacle I didn’t plan for. The Asian wasn’t quite human she was an excellent fighter that which wouldn’t have been no match for me with my powers, but they were fighting me from all sides I couldn’t use my powers properly. I opened my mind to my warriors at the pack house and I dodge a kick from the Asian woman. While throwing an energy ball at her which she dodge just as I had to dodge another knife. “Shaid get your a*s over here. I yelled and I took a punch to the face and stumbled back. “Master! Shaid yelled and she quickly kicked her mate in the gut and ran towards me now fighting the Asian woman. They weren’t evenly match but, Shaid could very well hold her own while I got the hell out of here.

I opened my mind to my warrior at the pack house and asked again. “Did you get the pups?” I asked breathlessly, Still fighting the other two human women, they weren’t as skilled as the Asian woman, but they weren’t without skills, and with an alpha and a beta werewolf they were a hell of a team. Their wolves were fast enough to dodge and protect their mates from my magic and the women were always armed with some type of weapon that they shot or threw at me I was barely able to dodge a arrow to the chest but I did take a arrow to my left hand which means, I’m only able to use one hand for my magic I really needed to get out of here before all my hard work goes to waste. I looked over to the human that Shaid kidnapped and brought to me. The commander took out the two of my top fg warriors and now has the woman in his arms. Damn it we need to get out of here NOW!

“Do you have the pups?” I yelled through our shared minds. “Yes masters we have them, and we were able to get the male wolf once we killed his mate.” My warrior responded. I couldn’t believe I finally have everything I wanted. If I wasn’t dodging bullet and arrows I would be doing my happy day. I can’t believe it I have my mate back where he belongs, and I have two pups as well. Alpha Zane will not be getting his filthy hands on my two babies. He will just have to find another way to get his human woman. I have everything I wanted. With renewed energy I release a wave of energy that had the wolves and their woman stumbling to the ground which gave me the opportunity to throw a potion to open a portal to another realm where no one would be able to find me. "LET'S GO NOW WE HAVE THEM!" I yelled! At my team then I bolted through my portal with Shaid hot on my heels she hesitated for a few seconds before jumping through the portal before it closed on the wolves and human who were right on our heels. They will never find me, my mates, or my pups.

"Antoni's Pov:

I groaned; my head felt like it has been hit with a sledgehammer. The pups were crying like we haven't fed them in days. Where is Teri? It's her turn to feed the pups. Turning over, "It's your turn to feed the pups. I did it the last two times." I said with my eyes still closed. "Honey, I'm afraid I don't have much practice with taking care of babies, you'll have to teach me, but I promise I'm a quick learner and I'll do the next four feedings. A strange voice said, which had me frowning. It can't be an omega because my mate doesn't allow them to help when taking care of the pups. She said sense we no longer have alpha and Luna duties she wants to make sure she doesn't miss a thing. I tried to open my eyes but immediately closed them because it only made my head throb more. "Oh, my goodness you must have a killer headache let me help you. I felt a cold hand press against my head, immediately the ache disappeared, and I was able to open my eyes, to find that I must be in some type of nightmare. Because this can't be right where am I and where is my mate. I thought just as everything came flooding back.

I roared in pain at the realization that my mate the love of my life is gone, and the reason my mate is gone is now holding my grand pups as if they were her own. I got up, and tried to shift, but nothing happened. What the hell is going on, Night are you there?" I mind linked my wolf. "Oh, you can't shift here it's forbidden I put a spell on my castle so there is no shifting or magic unless it's my magic of course." The vial evil bh said, smiling. "Give me my grand pups I swear if you have done anything to them I will kill you." I said getting up off the bed. "Ton, I would never do anything to hurt our beautiful babies. They're just a bit fussy that's all." She said as if I insulted her. I went to the crib first and picked up Tru and went over to Urreal and got Teri from her. They Immediately quieted once they smelled my scent, but they were still hiccupping and sniffing from obviously crying for a long time. I felt like I would die at any moment from the lost of my mate. But I know she would be very disappointed if I left our grand pups in the hands of this evil bh. I will make sure I get my grand pups out of here before I join my mate.

I can't believe she is really gone, remembering the surprise look on her face when the warrior snapped her neck is an image that will be a part of my nightmare for the rest of my life. "Oh, I see they are going to be daddy's girls already. I frown looking at her. "These are my grand pups." I said looking at her like she's crazy. I know they are silly; I figure sense we were be the ones raising them that we might as well do it as their parents instead of their grandparents that makes us seem old, don't you think. I was thinking of cute baby names too." She said as she went to a drawer and started pulling out baby clothes. “Unreal are you crazy, first we aren’t raising them their parents will be raising them and they already have names Tru and Te..Teri.” I said, my eyes watering at the thought of my mate. I growled lowly. “Oh, don’t growl at me, you can’t expect me to allow you to name our children after your dead mate.” She said that like, she was nothing, like my mate was nothing. I put the pups on the bed and charged at the woman who ruined my life. I was quickly stopped in my tracks by an invisible force that held my entire body. She turned to me smiling. “Well now Ton why would you try and cause me harm in front of our children. But I understand Your dead mate is still fresh and you need some time to get over it. And I love you enough to give you time to completely get over her.” She smiled.

“Never! I will never get over her, I will never be with you.” I growled out, her face fell at the comment but quickly waved her hand and released me from whatever hold she had on me. “Nonsense you will realize that this is where you were supposed to be and after we take over the werewolf and the witches we will rule both the were the shifters and the witches like we used to talk about. But until then I have giving you a potion that will never allow you to touch me in anger. But you could always touch me in other ways. She said coming over with clothes for the pups trying to kiss me and I moved away from here grabbing the pups as I moved. She looked hurt but quickly smiled to hide the pain. “Let’s get the girls ready so we can go to the dining hall, so everyone can see us finally together and to introduce the babies to everyone and make sure they get to know their nannies. Since they will be spending most of their time with the nannies anyway because, we have some making up to do.” She said smiling seductively.

I cringe at the thought of her or anyone else touching me who isn’t my mate. I looked down at the now sleeping pups “Don’t you girls worry your grandpa is going to find a way to get you out of here.” I said to them in a quiet. While the evil bh went in search for some shoes for the pups. I held them closer to me determined to make sure they get out of here alive, while I think of a plan to get us out of here, and then wait for my son to find his pups.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 75

Back at the wood’s:

“st I can’t believe I let that bh get away!” Lynn said, angrily. “Hey, you did what we needed to do which was stop Shawna from being kidnapped.” Montego said pulling her into his arms. “SHAW!” Mina and Ji’lahni said as they ran to their cousin which Shadow still held in his arms checking her making sure she wasn’t hurt anywhere. “Would you stop it. I said I’m fine, now put me down. ” Shawna said wiggling out of Shadows hand in order to hug her family they were all crying hugging and laughing. “bh you scared the st out of us. You are no longer allowed to get stabbed. You almost die and we had to get a dragon to heal you because Shadow’s zombie mate tried to kill you with Lynn’s blade.” Mina said in a rush trying to explain everything that has happened since she has been on conscious. "Wait slow down damn it! Did you just say a Dragon?" Shawna asked, shocked. "Yes bh" a whole real-life dragon, you got to keep up because it's a lot. Mina responded.

The Werewolves eyes Glazed over because they were getting a mind link. The Alpha let out a deafening roar and fell to his knees sobbing. The women immediately went to the wolves. Ji'lahni knelt down beside the alpha, holding him in her arms. "What happened Montego?" Ji'lahni asked, scared because whatever it is, it had to be bad. "Montego was in shock, and he was also shedding tears unable to speak. "We have to get the alpha back to the pack house NOW!" Shadow said with anger in his eyes. "Not until you tell me what is going on Shadow." Ji'lahni demanded. Looking defeated. "While we were here fighting the witch had warriors break into the safe house at his parents' house. They killed his mother and kidnapped his father and your pups.

"NNNNNOOOOO!" Ji'lahni screamed. "This can't be happening how did this happen they had warriors protecting them at the safe house." Lynn said in disbelief. "I don't know the full story yet, but they were poisoned, and they used the hand of a warrior to open the safe house door and somehow got the upper hand and killed the Luna which would have weakened her mate which allowed them to be able to overtake him and take your pups. We need to get back to the clinic. The doc is waiting for us." Shadow said as he pulled his alpha up and the women helped Ji'lahni to her feet and heading back to the clinic where the alpha's mother's body was being held.

At the clinic:

Once they made it to the clinic Makahi was no longer crying. The anger was radiating off of him like waves all the wolves near him felt the anger simmering beneath the surface of their alpha. Everyone knew what all this meant. There would be a war coming very soon.

Entering the clinic, they were met by the doc. "Where's my mother?" The alpha asked. "We have put her in a room for now. We have it set up and you can stay there as long as you need to. Alpha I'm so sorry about Luna Lateri. She was the best Luna this pack has ever seen." The Doc said with tears running down his face. Every wolf in Crystal moon was mourning the lost of the Luna. Getting to the door the alpha paused taking a deep breath, his mate grabbed his hand, and he immediately pulled her to him and held her for a long second before he released her from the hug but not out of his arms.

He used his free arm to open the door that held his mother. She looked so peaceful almost like she was sleeping but the handprint around her throat told the story of what happened to his mother. His need for revenge was overtaking his mind and as much as he knew he needed to keep a level head it was proving to be impossible he wanted blood. He needed for the people who took his pups and killed his mother to die, and he will stop at nothing to get his revenge. Kissing his mother lightly on her forehead. "I'm so sorry mamma I failed you. But I promise I will get dad and your grand pups back and we will not bury you until they are back." He whispered. the doc heard and nodded his head.

He will make sure that they preserve her body. Until they bring her mate and her grand pups back to the pack where they belong. After another few seconds, the alpha stood up and went back out into the waiting room. Everyone needs to go prepare for a war. We have to find out where they have taken my father and my pups. We need to find Zane he is the only person who has dealt with this witch. I need to know how far out is the witches who were on their way here. We leave in 10 minutes.” The Alpha commanded. Using his aura which had everyone baring their throats to their Alpha. “Well, I’ll say this, alpha if you planned to go up against that vial evil which you will most certainly lose more than just your pups you will lose every one you love.” A strange raspy voice sounded from the back of the waiting room.

Every wolf in the room shifted and turned to attack the person who obviously broke into their pack clinic. One of the warriors turned and jumped to attack the intruder but she got up slowly and pointed her staff at the wolf which stopped him dead in the air. She simply smiled “Bad wolf.” She said tapping him on the nose with her staff and walked pass him. Everyone was shocked into silence. she was very short and looked to be at least 80 years old. “Well don’t just stand there chile we have some pups to save. Now is my granddaughter Lynndoria here somewhere?” We see a sea of wolves open up a direct path to the alpha and the women. “Grandmother?” Lynn said in disbelief. Hello, my granddaughter you look so beautiful a splitting image of my mother.” She said holding her old, wrinkled arms up as Lynn cried out and raced to the only family she loved unconditionally. After she helped her grandmother to a chair. She tried to introduced everyone, but her grandmother stopped her. “My sweet girl I know everyone here there is no need to tell me their names.” She smiled.

“What? But how you have never met any of them.” Lynn asked in disbelief. “We don’t have time for the explanation, I heard we have pups to save and this young man’s mother and father.” She said look over at the alpha. “Yes, grandmother we have to save his father and his babies, but his mother was killed by the people who took his babies.” Lynn said to her grandmother, sadly. The lady burst out laughing. Which caused the alpha to growl. “Grandmother what has gotten into to you I just told you he lost his mother, and you laugh.” Lynn said looking embarrassed. “Oh, hush up, chile that lazy battle horse is a lot of things, but dead isn’t one of them. Now help an old woman up so we can go and wake her up she is needed, if we have any chance of saving those babies.” She said, using her staff and Lynns arms to get up slowly, The angry alpha came to stand in front of the old Asian woman. “You will not go near my mother, nor will you disrespect her while I am here no matter who you are.” The alpha said with his eyes glowing silver. The old woman looked up at the alpha not phased by the alpha at all.

The old woman straighten to her full height suddenly looking stronger then when she appeared to be seconds ago. She looked the alpha in the eyes. Son if you want to ever find your pups and your father then you need to take me to your mother Now! She said banging her staff on the floor and everyone gasped at the magic that suddenly surrounded them. Lynn stepped to the alpha and grabbed his arm, getting his attention. “Makahi, My grandmother would never do anything to hurt your mother is she says she can help; you need to believe her. If you can’t trust he then trust me when I say you can trust her.” Lynn said, trying to calm the room. Her grandmother could be a bit outspoken, but she never said anything that wasn't true. She just didn't mince words saying whatever she wanted to say. The alpha was still looking at the old woman with anger in his eyes. He didn't have the time to entertain an old woman who disrespects the dead, "I did no such thing." The old woman said, looking at the alpha. His eyes widen in shock. "What are you talking about what didn't you do?" Lynn asked looking back at her grandmother. "The alpha thinks I disrespected the dead, which I did no such thing because the battle horse isn't dead." she replied, shrugging her shoulders.

"Grandmother you are making no sense. What are you talking about a battle horse." Lynn said starting to wonder is her grandmother was starting to really lose it. "For gods sake we don't have time for this." The old lady said starting to walk pass them as the alpha attempted to grab her but before he could touch her. She stepped out of his reach ducked and used two of her fingers and touched the alpha lightly in three separate places in the blink of an eye which locked him into place as he growled out struggling to break free. She threw her staff into the air, and it spun in the air before it landed standing straight up and it's magic slowed down time as she walked calmly into the Luna's room closing it lightly as it locked behind her. Everyone looked on in shock and anger really starting to hate magical people except Lynn who knew that whenever her grandmother exposed her powers that must mean that things was worse than they thought. She hoped that whatever her grandmother was doing that it didn't end up with her having to fight off her mate in order to protect her grandmother. Because that would suck a*s.

Lateri's POV:

"What the hell am I doing here? Why did you bring me here? My grand pups are in danger, I have to get back to them please." I pleaded to the moon goddess. When the warrior snapped her neck, and she didn't immediately regenerate and woke up in the realm of segway, where the battle warriors meet She knew exactly who brought her here because as a battle warrior it was extremely hard to kill one no regular shifter could kill them they could only die by the hands of the one who created them or another god or goddess.

She knew why she was here she just needed to beg for some more time because she needed to get back to help her family. she would do anything to get back in order to save her family they needed her she had never asked to be a battle warrior she would have never accepted if it meant she could never protect the ones she loves what kind of hero is she if she can't even help her loved ones, they deserved a protector as well.

"You know why you're here warrior, you were attempted to shift into your battle warrior, without my permission which was forbidden." The moon goddess said calmly. "I know that, but you have to understand there is a witch after my grand pups I couldn't just stand by anymore and watch my family be kidnapped or worse and I had the ability to help save those babies they are so tiny and helpless, and an evil witch is after them and she may have gotten them because I am stuck here.

So please send me back to them and I will take whatever punishment you deem fit even if it mean I must die.” The battle warrior said desperately. “You think I don’t know what is happening? If I thought that if needed your special skills I would have summoned you and the rest of the battle warriors. There is more to this then you think it wasn’t time to expose who you truly are just yet. If you are exposed then the rest of the battle warriors would be, and you will put your family in more danger then they already are. The witch is a small piece of great evil that is coming.

This is far bigger than you can imagine. I will forgive you this one time. You are forbidden from shifting into your battle horse.” “Bu how wi...” The moon goddess raised her hand to silence the battle warrior. “Although you will not be shifting into your battle warrior I understand your need to help your family so I will return your wolf sapphire to you I have also made it so that your wolf will not be affected by any of the wolfs magic. I have also called one of your oldest friends to help you.”

The moon goddess said with a smirk which caused the battle warrior to frown slightly. “What old friend are you talking about?” “Your best friend, Mulan.” The moon goddess answered with a laugh. “Oh hell n...” The battle warrior said as she was thrown back in her body just as the old Asian woman banged her fist in the warriors chest. “Ouch damn it that hurt you old battle rat.” Lateri yelled rubbing her chest. “Hey, I tried the old way, and your lazy arse wouldn’t wake up, so I tried it the old fashion why. A thank you wouldn’t hurt you know. I came all the way here to save your arse and this is the thanks I get. I can’t believe my granddaughter is mated to someone from your pack.” The old woman said, with the stink face. “What the hell are you talking about your granddaughter... wait, oh my god Lynn is your granddaughter. I don’t know how I didn’t see it before. Now I feel sorry for her.” Lateri said shaking her head. “How dare you insult me when I have come to help you get your mate and your grand pups back.” The old woman said offended.

“Oh, shut up. I’m sure you have offended at least ten people since you’ve been here.” Lateri responded raising an eyebrow. The old woman just shrug, and they both laughed. “Why the hell do you look like you’re a hundred years old. Is that the best you could come up with.” Lateri asked. “Hey, I couldn’t very well remain looking like I’m thirty years old now could I.

I have grandchildren that age how would that look.” The old lady responded. “Well, you’re going to have to do something about that because there is no way I will say I know you, just to have them wondering if I’m a hundred years old like you.” Lateri said getting up from the bed. Getting serious now that she was back she only have one thing I mind.

“Where is my son. I need to tell him everything and then we need to go get my mate and my grand pups.” Lateri said and the woman nodded. “I too have some explaining to do as well. Lynndoria is a very special woman and will play a very important role in your grand pups life.” The woman said. “Wait, Lynn is somehow connected to my grand pups. How?”

Lateri asked. "Come on I will only be explaining this one time only, and I need to go and release your son before he passes out. He is a mean one I tell you he's very protective of you."

The woman said as she walked back to the door, and it unlocked on its own and swing open automatically releasing the wolves who were still moving in slow motion. They all came tumbling forward at the sudden release of their bodies. The old woman went over to the alpha who's anger quickly turned in to shock, disbelief and then happiness at seeing his mother. When the old lady used her fingers to release his body he ran over to his mother picking her up and cried into her chest as she stroked his hair to soothe him. "It's ok son I am ok."

"Everything will be ok I promise." She said as he lowered her back on her feet. "They took dad and my pups, and we have no idea where they are. We are going to track down Zane he was the only one who had dealings with the witch." The alpha said, angrily. "We don't need the wolf to track down the witch I know exactly where she is, but you just can't approach her castle she is a very powerful witch, so she will be prepared for us when we go so we have to make sure that we are prepared for battle and in order to do that I must tell my granddaughter of her true destiny."

The old woman approached her granddaughter with a smile on her face. "Grandmother what do you mean? I already know that I am a dragon rider, but I gave all that up with your blessing don't you remember?" Lynn said as her tears fell from her eyes. "Oh, dear granddaughter you can never get away from your destiny, I gave you my blessing because I already knew who you were to become when the time came. You were never a dragon rider. You were meant for so much more." She said as she caressed her granddaughter's cheeks. "What do you mean I was never a dragon rider?" It is our birthright I bloodline is connected to the golden dragon you have always told us that." "I know what I told you and your siblings. At the time it was ok for you to believe you were a dragon rider, so you could train and prepare you for your destiny. You were always more skilled than your siblings and the elders were hard on you because they saw how advanced you were."

"Grandmother, I don't understand any of this. What is going on?" Lynn asked her grandmother. Her grandmother stepped away from her and straightened to her full five-foot two height and banged her staff three times on the floor and a bright light flashed and blinded everyone, but Lateri who knew what was happening. When the light dimmed there was no longer an old wrinkled Asian woman. In her place stood a beautiful warrior princess dressed in her ancient battle gear. "What in the entire hell is going on? Did the old Asian woman just turn into Xena the warrior princess?" Mina whispered as Ji'lahni elbowed her. "Ouch! Look y'all gonna stop hitting me. You be thinking the same thing I do. I just say what everyone was thinking." Mina said rubbing her side.

"I am not Xena dear child, I'm way more powerful. I am what you would call a demigoddess. You my dear granddaughter, were chosen to become a guardian of the most powerful shifters in the entire shifter community. The twins are the first of their kind more powerful than even the golden dragon. They are the ultimate alphas they will have the ability to shift into any animal and possess all their abilities and none of their weaknesses. But they have yet to come into their full potential and power. Posted by Jobnib.com; visit us for more free novels.

Which makes them very vulnerable. The witch wants to drain them of their power on the next full moon which is in 5 days. Every full moon they will be vulnerable to attack and being drain of their power whoever succeed and draining will possess the power they possess. So, we have 5 days to plan and get your pups back. Granddaughter I couldn't share with you what you truly are, until you found your mate, because he too will aid you in the battle of protecting the Omni-twins in the ultimate war." The warrior woman said and tapped her staff on her granddaughter's head and watched as her eyes rolled in the back of her head as she fell to the ground as Montego yelled in panic.

Chapter 77

The clinic's POV:

"What the hell did you do to my mate?" Montego yelled trying to get to the old woman who didn't look the least bit scare of the werewolf who is trying to attack her. "I would never do anything to hurt my granddaughter, she is simply being shown her mission" She said calmly, shrugging her shoulders. "She's right, I'm fine now. Grandmother is right we must get the twins back our entire existence depends on them." Lynn said sitting up from the chair she was laying on. Montego immediately went to hold her in his arms while checking to make sure she was truly ok. "Lynn what are you talking about?" Ji'lahni asked coming to sit next to her friend. Who smiled at the closest thing she had to a sister she has ever known. "I know that it was our destiny to meet because we needed to trust each other when the time came to protect the twins from a great evil who wants to destroy all shifters. Nothing about our lives since we met has been a coincident even ingesting wolfbane." Lynn said looking from Ji'lahni to Shawna then to Mina. We all have a part play and a job to do. We cannot fail or we will not only doom all shifters but we will lose the girls if the witch succeeds at draining their powers, so we must get them back before it's too late." She said getting up going to her grandmother and hugging her tightly.

"Thank you for everything you have done for me, I now know what my destiny and my purpose truly is. I have always felt that I was different then my siblings and that difference meant that I was less than or not good enough. But you have always made me feel like I was special." Lynn said with tears rolling down her face. "Oh, my dear granddaughter I treated you that way, because you were special, more special then you could ever imagine." She said pulling her close. Once she released her she looked over to the Alpha and stepped in front of him. "Your mother is very special as well she can't explain everything to you right now, but you have to trust her as well as the human women. I know as an alpha your first instinct is to protect the women you hold dear, but in this case and in this war you will need them more then ever. If you wish to defeat the witch and get you pups back." The Asian woman said as she looked to Lateri. Who took a deep breath. Son I can't tell you much about my pass but as you can see I am a bit more than a shifter. What I truly am I can't explain right now but you will have to trust me and believe that I will help you get my grand pups and my mate back." She said as he nodded. "I honestly don't understand any of this but for now I am willing to take all the help I can get to make sure my pups and my father are brought back safely. Now we need to gather all the information we can and come up with a plan to get my family back. We will meet up in the pack house in two hours to start making plans to save my father and my pups." The alpha said as he grabbed his mates hand and left the clinic. With everyone else following and going their separate ways to regroup.

The women's house:

"I know we need to make a plan, but I can't just sit here while my girls are gone, and I have no idea if they are being fed if they are warm they can't go to sleep with out being bounced by all of us at least an hour they get very angry when one of us is missing. When Shawna was in the hospital they were so fussy that we had to literally bring them to the hospital and lay them on her to get them settled enough to sleep. Now they don't have any of us, and now I don't know what to do I feel so empty." Ji'lahni cried and the girls rallied around her. "Remember they have my father there to protect them I know he would protect them with his life. That's the only thing keeping Maka at bay right now." Makahi said stepping into the house with his duffle bag followed by Montego and Shadow. Looking up at the men as they entered. Ji'lahni got up and went to Makahi as he embraced her. They were both worrying about their babies. "Why are you here?" Came a question that shocked everyone in the room. Shawna eyes were locked on Shadow. His eyes grew wide at the question. Everyone else was looking everywhere else, but them. "What do you mean? Where else would I be?" Shadow asked confused. "Are you kidding me right now? You literally allowed your dead ex to stab me." Shawna said angrily. "Ohhh st! It's about to go down now." Lynn whispered to Mina and Montego who was looking at every wall in the room, with their mouth open.

"She almost took my cousin's babies and almost killed me and my baby. I not only remember what happened. I saw your eyes when you recognized who she was, she tried to kidnap the twins and you were so mesmerized you forgot about everything and everyone including me." Shawna said with tears running down her face. "That's not how it was Shaw, I was just shocked, you have to understand I thought she was dead and when I saw you with the knife and how afraid she was my instincts kicked in and I" "Yea that's the problem your first instinct was protect your mate your other half from me." Shawna choked out through sobs. shadow took a step towards her, but she took a step back. "Shaw please if I had known I would never allowed her near you I didn't know what she was planning I thought she was being used I was trying to help her." Shadow pleaded. "I know what you were trying to do. You wanted to save your mate, so yall could pick up where you left off." Shawna said sadly. "No that's not what it was I just wanted to make sure she was safe." Shadow said pleading for understanding. "I get it I understand you and her have history and she is your other half and I have no place in that, and I refuse to make you choose between us when the time comes because it will. I refuse to trust the wellbeing of me and my baby to something that you can't control. I understand what it means to be mated and how it is for werewolves there is no way you would ever choose me. You're only here and not with her because of her choice, not because you don't want her. You can't look me in the eyes and say that if she would have come back with us that you would be here with me and not with her can you?" Shawna asked. When he didn't answer right away she simply nodded and began to walk away.

He attempted to go after her, but the alpha stopped him. "I know you want to go after her, but you need to give her time." The alpha said, Shadow sagged in defeat. "Damn it I swear y'all get on my nerve with all the love drama. Shadow I know Shawna, it will not be easy for you, you have to look at it from our standpoint you were constantly trying to save someone who literally tried to kill your girlfriend and baby. To us humans we don't give a st about who you use to be. Your actions now says who you are today, and your mate showed you who she was, and you ignored it trying to recapture that old thing back with your mate not really caring about Shawna. Even if she was being controlled that don't make what she did any less deadly. But you were willing to fix her and then what? What was your end goal out of all this Shadow?" Ji'lahni asked. Shadow sagged his shoulders in defeat.

"That is why you will lose her. You need to make a choice and stick to it no matter what your mate turns out to be good or evil. Your action will have to reflect that, there is no trying to save her especially when it could put Shawna and your baby at risk." Mina said. "I would never allow anyone to harm Shaw." Shadow said confidently. "Well, your actions lately don't reflect the words that are coming out of your mouth, and Shawna has now saw you twice trying to save your mate while she and your baby were in danger. First with you saving your mate which caused her to be stabbed and tonight you trying to figure out what happened to her while again Shawna was being kidnapped and probably drained of blood by your vampire wolf zombie mate." Lynn said, coming to stand in front of Shadow. His eyes widen at how they saw all of this playing out.

He never once thought of it like that and if Shawna say it as they did he could see why she would want nothing to do with him. He was lost he didn't know how he would ever get Shawn to believe that she was who he wanted more than anything. A knock on the door broke the tension in the room. The alpha open the door to Doc who had his doctors bag and a big machine behind him. "Thanks for coming as such short notice doc." The alpha said, allowing the doc and the omega nurses into the house. "Hey, Sabastian, what are you doing here." Ji'lahni asked curiously.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 78

Shawna's POV:

I couldn't stop the tears from falling which is why I got the hell out of the living room. I refused to show him how his actions really affected me. These damn hormones got me super emotional. I will not intentionally break my own heart. Shadow is still mated to that crazy bh, and by his actions he is still in love with her, so there is no need to try and win a losing battle. I refuse to try and make him choose me that is something he will need to do on his own, with no help from me begging him to stay. I won't keep him away from his baby, but there is nothing else between us. There was a knock on the door, and I already know who's on the other side. "Just come in I'm surprised it took yall this long." I said chuckling. "Yea, we had to give Shadow a piece of our minds. You already know we would have beat you up here, any other time." Mina said smiling, I loved my cousins, they always try and lift your spirits no matter what the cause is. We find laughing along with crying through the pain always helped us from breaking completely down.

"What did you say to him because there is nothing else to talk about. His wife is still alive, and he is trying to get her back so he can fix whatever is broken in her. I'm not trying to compete with a dead woman who came back to life and wants her man back especially when he was never truly over her to begin with. He always said he sometimes felt the bond, but he knew she was dead. But it turns out he was dead a*s wrong. I was thinking of going back to Uncle Felix's pack, once we get the twins back. I don't want to have to always deal with the heartache every time I see Shadow especially if he does get his mate back." I said as stupid tears fell from my eyes. "Well, if you go so will I, that way Lynn will be here with Lahni and the girls, and I will be with you and the baby." Mina said already changing her plans. I already knew she would say that because I would have said the same thing if I were in her shoes. "So, what happened while I was out? I already know that bh tried to kidnap me, but what I don't know is why?" I asked frowning trying to think of a reason I was targeted.

"Hell, we don't know either, we could only guess is that Shadows mate wanted to get rid of you, because Shadow cares about you and you're having his baby." Lynn said, shrugging. "So, what is this about me being healed by a damn dragon and will I turn into a dragon at some point because nothing about being a dragon says I'm going to be cute." I said and we all burst out laughing. "Shut up dummy you are not turning into a damn dragon. But I had to call my family in to heal you with one of their dragons because apparently the zombie bh stabbed you with a blade that belonged to my brother and when some one cuts you with it you will bleed out no matter how small the cut is it is a magical blade that is infused with dragons blood to help a rider protect it's dragon during a time of war and only dragons breath can heal a wound done with a dragons blade. When he healed you he said that you will have some of his essence in your body until you give birth and that your baby will carry dragon essence forever, but not in a bad way he may inherit some of a dragon's traits, but we won't know if or when it will happen." Lynn said and I try and process what she just told me.

"So, you're telling me that my baby will have dragon traits as well as being half werewolf." I said, in a panic what would that mean for my baby will it survive will it be accepted? "Calm down the dragon assured me that the baby will be fine and even with his essence it won't harm the baby in any way. We made sure that the baby would be fine. But that was the only option we had to save you and the baby, and we just couldn't lose you and the baby." Mina said as tears fell from her eyes. I already know what she was thinking because I was thinking the same thing when is was Ji'lahni who was hurt and when I thought Shadow's mate killed the only family I had left. "Hey, I'm fine, you already know I wasn't going anywhere I'm sure Ji'lahni would have found a way to bring me back just so I can finally replace that fur jacket I burned shooting fireworks at her when we were kids." I said, thinking about old memories before we lost our family. "OMG! She said that st to when we were waiting for the doc too tell us how you were doing." Lynn said, laughing. "I swear she will not let that st go. I don't care what happens she's not letting me go nowhere without me buying her a damn fur jacket and the bh wants a real fur jacket. I'm absolutely not buying her a real fur jacket. That jacket I ruined was everything but real." I said, as we all laughed.

There was a light knock on the door before Ji'lahni stepped into the room. "What are yall laughing about?" Lahni asked as she sat on the bed. "They were telling me what happened while I was out and that you brought up that damn fur jacket again, Like a bh can't be in a comma without you talking about that damn jacket." I said throwing my pillow at her head. "Hell, no you not going no where until you get me another damn coat. Anyway, the doc is here to check on you and the baby do you want him in here or in the living room." "No, I'll come down it's more space downstairs and I already know yall asses want to see and hear everything." I said getting up heading to the bathroom to freshen up. "Ok we will be downstairs waiting on you, hurry up so we can see our baby." Ji'lahni said as they headed out the door. I know lahni was trying to do any and everything to not think about the babies, hell we all were doing. If we didn't we would be all ugly crying, which I'm sure we will be doing at some point very soon. But we will stop at nothing to get our babies back. I didn't say anything in front of them, but I kind of wish they had let me be taken, then at least I would have probably been with the twins to protect them and make sure they were ok. I thought to myself as I cried in the shower. Because I could no longer hold back the tears.

Downstairs from the outside looking in POV:

Ji'lahni, Lynn, and Mina came downstairs.

"Hey Doc Shawna, said she will be down in a minute, you can set up down here." Ji'lahni said as she went to sit on The Alpha's lap as he pulled her in his embrace. Everyone can tell they are barely holding it together and trying to remain strong for everyone else. No one can imagine what they must be going through. "My mother says that her and Lynn's grandmother will want us to meet before the meeting begins so once we are done here we will shower and head over to the pack house." The alpha said as everyone nodded.

"Makahi have you tried reaching out to your pups like you did when we were searching for Ji'lahni?" Mina asked jumping up, thinking of that just now. "No! I didn't think of it, they had only reached out to me when they were in distress or upset." The alpha said closing his eyes trying to focus on his pups. After a few minutes he opened his eyes with disappointment, shaking his head and Ji'lahni hugged him tightly.

"Hey, Doc, I heard you were here to see me." Shawna said trying to sound cheerful and failing. She was trying super hard not to look in the direction of shadow who was looking so hard trying to will her to at least look at him. "Yes Miss Nelson, the commander here asked that I come check on you while we were at the clinic earlier." He said escorting Shawna to one of the chairs at the dining room table. "Well, we will go while upstairs and get showered and changed for the meeting while you get checked out.” The alpha said getting up from his chair kissing Ji’lahni before heading upstairs with Montego doing the same to Lynn. The girls notice Shadow still sitting across the room. They looked at Shawna and silently asked what she wanted them to do, because they would kick his a*s right out if that was what she wanted.

Closing her eyes taking a deep breath. She looked over at Shadow who looked afraid that she would ask him to leave. She simply lifted her hand and reached out to him because she just couldn’t form the words to say anything without getting choked up. He damn near tripped over his own feet getting to Shawna grabbing her hand and pulling a chair next to her. The girls stepped back and allowed them their moment.

Chapter 79

If walls could talk was a person’s POV:

“So, everything looks good there is no scarring where the stab wound was, I’ll tell you miss Nelson you had us all at the clinic afraid for you, that blade barely missed your heart which I can only assume was the target you were one lucky lady.” The Doc said, absentmindedly, which had Shawna burst out laughing. “Doc, luck would have been not being stabbed by my baby daddy wife/mate while my baby daddy protected her from me. But I guess if me not dying is lucky then let’s all celebrate.” Shawna said, as she removed her hand from Shadow’s he looked like he wanted to say something but a look from her cousin’s told him to just let it go. So now he looking like someone kicked his puppy. The doc clearing his throat to break the awkward moment. “Uh..um how about we check on the pup. I know we haven’t even checked you yet. But the girls said that you took a test, and when you came in although we tried to monitor you and the baby but with everything happening we didn’t get a chance to check on him or her. ” The doc said. “Yes I had just taking the test and was going to talk to my cousins because I thought Shadow was sleeping but when I went to Lahni’s room, and it was empty, so I automatically knew something was up because Lahni isn’t missing not one nap or bedtime. That is when I saw.... That someone was trying to take the twins, so I ran out the door after her and I fought until my cousins came. I tried my best to make sure she didn’t punch or kick me in the stomach, but I can’t be sure that I dodged all of them, and this point I may not even be pregnant anymore especially after what happened while I was in a coma.” Shawna said as she let the tears fall freely her shoulders shaking.

Her family immediately came to comfort her. Shadow looked devastated at her words at the possibility that she has lost their baby and it would be his fault. “How about we go to the living room where I have an ultrasound machine set up next to the couch so we can have a look.” The doc said as they all gathered in the living room. Everyone was nervous about what they may or may not see. “So, I need you to lift your shirt for me.” The doc said and Shadow growled. The doc held his hands up immediately in mock surrender.

“Sorry, commander I didn’t know I need her to lift her shirt so we can do the ultrasound. Shadow nodded and Shawna rolled her eyes but said nothing. The doc squirted the blue gel on her stomach and began to move the doppler around there was complete silence on in the room everyone holding their breaths prayer as the doc continued moving across Shawna’s belly she began to let the tears fall, Shadow immediately grabbed her hand the doc was starting to look sad at not being able to detect anything.

“Please understand that if we don’t see anything it could be that it is too early to see it via ultrasound so please don’t get disc....” Before he could finish the sentence the sound of a beating heart come up loud and clear and everyone cried happy tears Shawna reached out and hugged, kissed, and leaned their foreheads together as they both cried. “Well, I’ll be the little one was hiding from us. He’s already causing troub....” The doc got really quiet. Which caused everyone to tense up. “What is it Doc? What’s going on?” Shadow asked nervously. “Uh.. I .. I don’t know exactly.” The doc said. “Well, you need to figure it out doc, and tell us something.” Lynn said coming closer to look at the picture on the screen like she knows what she’s looking for. “I’ll need to run some test before I can say anything definitely.” The doc said as he took pictures of the baby. “When will we be able to tell if it’s a boy or a girl.” Mina asked. “From the measurements you are about 8 weeks. So next month we should be able to tell you what you’re having.” The doc said as he put up the equipment. The alpha and Beta came downstairs as the doc was leaving.

“How did everything go down here?” The alpha asked Ji’lahni as he pulled her to him for a kiss. “Everything is great. The doc wants to finish running test, but we heard the heartbeat, and it is strong.” Ji’lahni answered. “That’s wonderful news congrats Shadow.” The alpha said patting Shadow on the back. He mumbled a thanks still looking at Shawna who had straighten her clothes and moved away from Shadow. “Well, we are going to take a quick shower and head over to the pack house to talk to your mother. Ji’lahni said and went upstairs to get ready. Shawna had already showered so she stayed downstairs. “Well, I’m going to head into the kitchen to make some sandwiches for me and my cousin would yall like me to make some for yall as well I don’t know how long we will be, so I want to make sure we have something to eat.” Shawna said getting up heading to the kitchen after the men nodded wanting her to make them a sandwich as well. “This is the perfect time to try and talk to her.” Montego said, nodding in the direction of the kitchen. “What do I say?” Shadow said getting up pacing. “How about I’m sorry, we’ve all been where you are unfortunately.” The alpha said, looking ashamed he finally realized all the mistakes he has made since he met his other half mate. Shadow nodded and walked into the loin’s den. He just hoped that the loin don’t rip his head off time he walk in.

Shadow’s POV:

Walking into the kitchen Shaw has her back to me facing the counter. I stood and stare at her for a moment. I missed her smile she was always the quiet supportive one of the group she didn’t judge she was just there to listen and always made her cousins feel loved no matter the reason she was their light. But it seems as though her light has somehow dimmed or has been drained out of her and it was all my fault. I brought darkness into her life, and it has consumed the light that is her. “So, since we’re no longer together you’re going back to the silent dude who looked like he wanted to kill everyone.” Shawna asked and that made him smile remembering how she claimed she cured him with her cookies. “I thought you said you cured me.” I said walking further into the kitchen. “Well, I can admit when I’m wrong.” She said sitting at the table with a tray of meats and veggies for the sandwiches.

I went and washed my hands before sitting next to her grabbing bread to make sandwiches. “You weren’t wrong you did cure me you brought me back from the darkness that I walked in every day. I never thought that I could love anyone other than my mate. But I was wrong.” I said looking at her intently. You weren’t wrong I shouldn’t have pushed you into anything with me. You were obviously still mourning your wife or mate, or whatever you wanna call it, you said that sometimes you still felt the bond like she was still alive. Well, you weren’t wrong she was still alive, so the darkness you felt when you thought she was dead is gone. She’s back, and after you save and fix her, you will be able to pick up where you left off.” She said, casually like it was nothing like we meant nothing. “How can you say that, like we meant nothing? Why are you so quick to give up on us on me?” I said grabbing her hand, she immediately snatched her hands away breathing hard now.

“Why? Are you serious? You act as though I wasn’t there with you when you saw that it was Scarlett. I saw your eyes Shadow. I saw how you looked at her I saw exactly when that mates bond kicked back in. Do you know I had to yell your name before you were able to tear your eyes away from her. I saw the look you gave me when you looked at me. It was the look of sadness and sorrow because you had, and Rane had already made a choice and as we both know wolves can’t fight the mates bond. And while you were your eyes were breaking my heart your wife was trying to put her blade in my heart. So, none of this st is easy for me. I have a baby that I will have to basically raise on my own. While the man I love will be happy creating a family with his mate the same woman who tried to kill me.

This st isn’t far from easy, but I will be a fool to hope that you will be able to fight the mates bond. Twice you have come face to face with her and me and each time you were trying to save her and not me. The first time you saved her body from me the second time you were trying to save her mind or her soul hoping that she would somehow have a breakthrough while me on the other hand was crawling trying not to be kidnapped or killed by the same person who put me in the situation both times. So, I’m sorry if my faith in you is at an all-time low. I have to put myself and our child first because as long as your mate is still out there broken she is your top priority. I’m just giving you the freedom to follow your heart without guilt and once we get the twins, poppa Toni, and your mate back, I will be going to Uncle Felix’s pack, so you won’t feel any guilt or obligations when it comes to me because I won’t be here.” She said, getting up walking out of the kitchen and out of my life and took my heart with her.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 80

The masters POV:

Why won't they stop crying? I yelled as I threw my glass of wine against the wall and my servant immediately went to clean it up. "Master they only seem to quiet down when they are with your mate." The servant said lowly. "I know that, but I want them to get use to being around me. That's the only way my mate will accept me is if I can win them over. But all they do is cry. I can't believe the full moon is still 4 days away once I drain them of their powers I could make put a spell on them to make them think I'm their mother and that way my mate will see that I could be a good mother to our pups and we could raise them to be smart wonderful girls, and who knows we might just have a little one of our own." I said as I heard a snort from the corner of the room turning to the she wolf angrily. "Did I say something funny?" I asked walking over to the battered she wolf. I had meant to kill the she wolf when I was finished with her. But I decided I would keep her around to work as a slave. I still laugh as I remembered her face when I told her that I never had any intentions of fixing her body in order for her to have a baby.

Flashback 24 hours earlier

Damn it Shaid why didn't you tell me about the human woman and what they were capable of, you underestimated them, and we almost failed the entire mission." I said as I backhanded Shaid, and she flew across the room. "I'm sorry master when I fought them they didn't have their mates with them they must somehow be stronger and better as a team." Shaid said, picking herself up off the floor. "And what about your mate why isn't he with us? You were suppose to get him to mark you so we could bring him to our side." I asked walking towards her as she stepped back "I don't know master I tried everything; I know he felt the mates bond, but he also had feelings for the pregnant human woman as well. His feeling for her was stopping him from mating me." She said with a shrug. "How is that possible was she his second chance or chosen mate?" I asked. "Nope those humans have put some kind of spell on our men. Ever since they stepped foot on my pack they have been nothing but trouble they had all the men running behind them." The pregnant she wolf said laying on the couch. She wasn't tied up or being used as a slave because she was pregnant, what she doesn't know is I will be using that little pup as soon as it is born and allow Shaid to drain her dry. "Would you shut up. Before I throw you in the dungeons." I sneered at her, and she whimpered. "Excuse me master I was wondering if you could go ahead and give the potion or spell that I need to have my own pups I have done everything you have asked of me. Please give me what you promised so I can be on my way." The she wolf said nervously. "Oh yes, that's right I did promise you I could fix you, and you have done everything I have asked of you and for that I am truly grateful with your help I finally have my mate and two beautiful pups. So, because you have been so helpful I have decided to change a deal a little bit." I said walking over to my shelf where my potions are lined up nicely and neatly. "What? Change how?" The she wolf frown asking in confusing. "Well, I decided that I would keep you around indefinitely, because as you said you have accomplished everything I have asked of you. So why would I let such a wonderful employee go?" I said calmly as I went to sit behind my desk. "WHAT!? NO, YOU CAN'T DO THIS YOU PROMISED HOW COULD YOU DO THIS TO ME!" She screamed, as my warriors came in and grabbed her kicking and screaming. I laughed. "Darling did you really think I could fix you? How can I fix something that isn't even there? They removed your uterus. Now you can continue to work for me, or I can have my men have their way with you and once they no longer have use of you they will let Shaid drain you until your nothing but a dried-out corps. The choice is yours. So, what will it be?" I sat patiently waiting for her answered as she sobbed loudly. "I don't have all day wolf what will it be serve me for the rest of your life or serve my men until they tire of you and hand you over to Shaid?" I got up and walked over to stand directly in front of the wolf. She lowered her head and defeat. "I will serve you for the rest of my life." She said through her sobs. "The rest of your life...What? I asked, crossing my arms over my chest. "I will serve you for the rest of my life....Master." She said, then allowed my warriors to escort her to her new servant quarters.

End of Flash back.

"Master please forgive me; I know I failed in getting the commander on our side but if we could get rid of the human woman then I know I would be able to get him on our side." Shaid said, pleadingly. "It's to late for that now. I know they will be looking for me and must know by now that I'm in another realm and will most likely get my sisters involved and if that happens then I will need to be at full power. Let's just hope that they wont find us until after the full moon. By then nothing or no one will be able to stop me. I will finally be able to rule over all shifters and witches. Like me and my mate planned all those years ago." I said smiling thinking about all my plans finally coming true. "Take those screaming pups to my mate maybe he could get them to shut up. I swear if it weren't for their power and being my mates grand pups, I would have already gotten rid of them. But I will deal with the whinny brats if it will keep my mate happy.

Antoni's POV:

Damn it where the hell are we. I have been free to roam around this godforsaken castle, but she must have some kind of spell on castle and the grounds whenever I venture out into the woods I always end up back on the castle grounds. I can't get any of her servants to speak to me or tell me anything about the castle or the grounds they are all living in fear afraid to utter any other word but yes master. Pacing the living room floor of my living quarters. Trying to think of a plan to get into her office or lab to see what I can find out or anything to help me get me and the pups out of here. The door opening put me on alert Urrale always visited which would lead to me having to physically fight her off. She has resulted in using her magic to hold me in place while she pretends that we are a loving couple laying together watching movies and she even has one sided conversations with me pretending that I am actually responding to her. When the door open I hear my grand pups crying their little hearts out I rushed over to the door and ranked it open to see Fiona standing at my door with a crying Tru and Teri. I immediately snatched them away from her. "I can't believe you could betray your pack like this Fiona. We were good to you we trusted you with our pups and we treated you with nothing but respect and this is how your treat us? What did I or my son ever do to you to make you work for an evil witch?" I asked, as I held the girls close to me and they quieted down. They must have been crying for a while because they were still hiccupping. Drifting off to sleep they somehow felt lighter like they were losing weight, which wasn't good because they were already to tiny. I held them closer to me. I had to find a way to get Urrale to allow them to stay with me. "I'm so sorry Alpha I was so broken because I lost everything my ability to have pups and my mate rejected me because I couldn't bare him pups and the master promised me that she could fix me so I could have pups. I was desperate it was only supposed to be me feeding them information, but she just kept asking for more until I was too far into it, and I didn't know what else to do. But now I have lost everything. Everything she promised me was a lie, please forgive me I never meant for any of this to happen." Fiona said falling to her knees sobbing. "I have no forgiveness in me to give you. You have not only have this witch steal my grand pups away from my son and their mother, but my.. my mate is dead because you helped this evil witch. So, no I have not forgiveness in me to give." I said going over to my bed laying the sleeping babies down. I kissed their foreheads before I turned back to the traitor

"Please Alpha I will do anything for your forgiveness I don't want to die knowing what I have done to you and the pack I now know it wasn't worth it. Please I am so so sorry please forgive me." She pleaded sobbing even louder. I thought for a moment. "The only thing you can do to redeem yourself and bring you any kind of peace is to right your wrongs. Then and only then will you find any form of forgiveness." I said looking at her pointedly. She looked up at me her sobs now turned into tears falling from her eyes. Knowing exactly what I was asking she nodded at me. "What do you need me to do Alpha?" and with those words. It was the first time I had a smile on my face. I finally found a way to hopefully get me and my babies out of this hell hole once and for all.
