

Rising from the Ashes (Andrew and Lauren)

#Chapter 181 - Read Rising from the Ashes (Andrew and Lauren) Chapter 181

Chapter 181 Lauren was angry at how arrogantly Jerry had been acting

She could not help but think these martial arts experts were all challenging to deal with, whether it was Tracia or Jerry

Andrew suddenly spoke up

I know what hes so smug about, but unfortunately, it wont help him at all !! Please tell me where to find the clues about the stolen herbs! Lauren exclaimed excitedly.

Andrew explained, He must be thinking about following the trucks tire tracks.

Lauren nodded thoughtfully, Thats actually not a bad idea.

There are plenty of dirt roads in the countryside, and our trucks would definitely leave tracks.

Andrew shook his head and replied, Unless the thieves are complete idiots, they wouldnt leave such obvious tracks for us to follow.

Besides, Ms.

Rhodes, have you considered what happens when the trucks hit concrete or asphalt roads? I guess that would make the tracks useless... Lauren deflated.

Lets go, Andrew said with a smile

Where to? Lauren asked, confused

Andrew hopped into an SUV and explained, Back to the farm.

This area is in the remote countryside, and if we want to find where theyre hiding the herbs, the local residents know best

Lauren, being a sharp woman, immediately brightened up as Andrews suggestion clicked

Of course! Why didnt I think of that? Those criminals who stole our herbs couldnt have moved it far in such a short time, so they must have hidden it nearby to transport later.

Andrew smiled knowingly, Exactly.

While our people are completely lost in this remote area, the locals who grew up here are different. Theyd know exactly where someone could hide seven trucks.

Half an hour later, Andrew and Lauren left the farm again, but this time with a young teenager in their car

Mr.

Lloyd, Ms.

Rhodes, finding those trucks full of herbs will be a piece of cake

I can take there, but just so were clear I wont do it for free, the boy stated matter of factly.

Lauren chuckled at his directness, Mikey, if you help me find the trucks, Ill give you 150 dollars.

And when youre older and visit Jayrodale, Ill even help set you up with a nice girl.

you The country boy was overjoyed and led Andrew and Lauren through a series of twists and turns until they reached a massive natural cave

Inside, they found all seven missing trucks

Upon inspection, Andrew discovered the site was deserted, but all the herbs were still intact.

1/2 Chapter 101 Lauren grinned and said, These thieves probably thought no one would find this place, so they went home to get some rest, feeling completely safe

She quickly called in their team to retrieve the trucks, while Andrew pulled out his wallet and counted out 150 dollars for Mikey.

The boy happily accepted the money and was about to sprint away wherr Andrew called out, Hold on, kid! Mr.

Lloyd, youre not going back on your word, are you? Mikey asked suspiciously.

Andrew chuckled and pulled out an additional 600 dollars from his wallet.

Take this too.

I know your grandpa isn't well, and it's tough for him to pay for both you and your sister's education.

You can keep the 150, but make sure to give this 600 to your grandpa to manage.

The young boy's eyes welled up with tears.

Overwhelmed by the gesture, he repeatedly thanked Andrew before running home happily.

Chapter 182 Lauren watched this scene unfold with a dreamy look in her eyes.

She admired his kindness and compassion, secretly wishing she could marry him right then and there. Suddenly, a commotion erupted outside as Jerry rushed in with his men.

When he spotted Andrew and Lauren, he briefly showed panic before quickly composing himself. He cleared his throat and said, Ms.

Rhodes, I'm impressed you found the trucks before I did.

Your brilliant mind truly proves why you're the most exceptional member of the younger Rhodes generation! Jerry laughed nervously, showering her with compliments while conveniently forgetting his earlier boastful promises about finding the trucks himself.

Lauren smiled graciously.

Thank you for your efforts too, Jerry.

The important thing is that we recovered the herbs.

Indeed... But did you manage to catch the criminals who stole it? Jerry asked, trying to sound casual. Lauren shook her head.

The place was empty when we arrived, so we couldn't identify who was behind this.

Jerry visibly relaxed at this news, letting out what seemed to be an involuntary sigh of relief.

Andrew, who had been observing carefully, suddenly spoke up.

Jerry, you seem pretty concerned about who stole the herbs.

Perhaps you already know who did it? Jerry's expression darkened as he snapped, How would I know? If I did, they'd be in pieces by now.

Andrew chuckled

If you dont know who did it, then why do you look so disappointed that Ms.

Rhodes found the trucks? I couldnt be happier that she recovered the herbs and saved the company from losses

Why would I be disappointed? Jerry continued defensively

Andrew suddenly changed topics, This is your first time visiting this rural medicinal garden, isnt it, Jerry ? Jerry hesitated but eventually nodded.

Of course

My schedule usually involves accompanying Mr.

Rhodes Senior or Rhodes Corporation executives.

Id have no reason to come to a place like this.

Andre grinned.

Thats interesting

If youve never been here and know nothing about this place, how did you manage to find this hidden cave ? Jerry stood speechless, unable to answer

Andrew pressed on, Dont bother making up excuses

The paths outside are narrow and winding, hidden by vegetation.

For a city folk whos never been here before to find this place so easily, one might think you grew up in these parts.

Lauren commented, Andrew, Jerry comes from a prestigious martial arts background.

He couldnt be from around here.

Andrew chuckled.

Well then, that would mean someone must have guided Jerry here.

Jerrys expression grew increasingly dark at these words, though he remained silent.

Andrew continued with a cold smile, And the only person who could have guided Jerry here.

would be the thieves themselves

Laurens face remained neutral, but her eyes blazed as she stared at Jerry.

Under her seemingly calm but piercing gaze, Jerry let out a cold laugh and sneered, After all this talk, youre basically accusing me of working with the thieves, arent you?

Chapter 183 Andrew shrugged casually.

Those are your words, not mine.

This finally pushed Jerry over the edge as he angrily shouted, You fool! Stop trying to sow discord! Ive served the Rhodes family faithfully for over 20 years.

Do you think your petty.

words can discredit my loyalty? In his fury, Jerry turned to Lauren and said respectfully, Ms Rhodes, this pretty boy is insulting me.

I demand justice.

Jerry, he just tends to be very direct with his words, Lauren stated diplomatically.

I know your loyalty to the Rhodes family, so on his behalf, I apologize

Jerry let out a cold snort and stormed off with his men, but not before shooting Andrew a murderous glare

: Andrew, however, maintained his smile, completely unfazed.

Once Jerry was gone, Laurens expression turned ice cold.

Do you think Jerry was telling the truth? Id rather believe pigs could fly than trust him, Andrew replied without hesitation.

Lauren burst into laughter, You can be quite funny sometimes

Andrew smiled and continued, At this point, we can almost be certain that Jerry is working with the thieves.

At the very least, hes not completely loyal to the Rhodes family or you, Ms.

Rhodes

First Tracia, and now Jerry, Lauren said coldly.

I dont understand why theyre doing this.

The Rhodes family has treated them well all these years.

Modern martial artists often prioritize profit over loyalty, Andrew explained calmly.

Both Jerry and Tracia are clearly ambitious.

If Michael has been courting their loyalty behind the scenes, it wouldnt be surprising if theyve switched sides.

Lauren gave a self deprecating smile

No matter how strong I am or what my title is, Im still just a woman.

The Rhodes family is like any other traditional family it will eventually be handed over to a man.

Thats why many in the family favor Michael, despite his mediocre abilities and arrogance.

Even people like Jerry, who act respectful to my face, probably dont take me seriously. Dont be discouraged, Ms.

Rhodes, Andrew said earnestly

Just say the word if you need anything

Michael and his fellows may be cunning, but Ive never considered them a real threat.

Laurens face lit up with a radiant smile, So, are you offering to be my knight in shining armor ? Andrew froze, caught off guard by her dazzling smile and alluring red lips.

He was fully aware she was trying to charm him, so he mentally scolded her for being a tease

1/2 Meanwhile, deep in the forest, Andrews Porsche Panamera was almost completely burned, with only the chassis remaining

Beside it lay Tracias stiff corpse

Two figures emerged from the shadows Michael and the sinister looking Bane.

Tracias dead? Who could have done this in this place full of nothing but farmers? Michael exclaimed in disbelief.

Chapter 184 up with a Bane silently crouched down and examined Tracias body.

After a moment, he stood grim expression and said, She mustve encountered a skilled martial artist. What kind of master could kill a Rhodes family security chief? Michael demanded angrily.

Bane remained silent for a moment, his face unusually grave.

At the very least, someone on the level of a junior grandmaster or maybe even a full grandmaster.

He continued, The ability to kill Tracia with a single punch is leagues beyond those amateurs who had just learned the basics.

Come on, Bane, you cant be serious, Michael said in horror

How could there be a grandmaster hiding in this place? To Michael, a grandmaster was practically a living legend someone even the Rhodes family would show respect.

In his mind, those figures were untouchable, being able to kill others without breaking a sweat.

Bane snapped, I never joke about such a matter.

She died at the hands of at least a junior grandmaster.

Bane, you dont think Lauren hired them, do you? Michael asked nervously.

Bane shot him a contemptuous look, Dont be stupid.

If she had access to such a master, would she have let Tracia drag, her into these woods, waiting for us

? This must have been a backup that arrived later.

Check if any Rhodes family elites were in the area.

Definitely not, Michael quickly replied.

If there was anyone in our family to deploy someone of that caliber, it could only be Mr.

Rhodes Senior.

Only he has that level of authority.

Bane was puzzled.

Thats strange.

Could Lauren have some powerful ally we dont know about? Andrew! It has to be that pretty boy Andrew

That damn bastard! Michael burst out through gritted teeth.

Bane stared at him in disbelief before scoffing

Thats nonsense! Dont underestimate him, Bane, Michael insisted, clearly haunted by past encounters. Hes repeatedly foiled my plans and saved Lauren.

Who else could have ruined our careful plartning? Bane mocked, Mr.

Rhodes, that guy has really gotten into your head.

Even Tracia alone wouldve been too much for him.

Dont tell me you think hes a junior grandmaster.

If that were true, you should pack your bags, leave Rhodes Corporation, and beg Lauren for mercy. Bane genuinely thought Michael was paranoid.

A young man like Andrew could not possibly be anywhere near the level of a junior grandmaster.

Bane, how would you fare against a junior grandmaster ? Michael asked.

Bane lifted his chin proudly.

Im skilled in both medicine and martial arts, and I wouldnt back down from a fight with a junior grandmaster

However, it depends on the situation.

Unless absolutely necessard rather not face one.

If you encounter such a martial artist, theres only one thing to do.

Whats that? Michael asked instinctively.

Bane replied with deadly seriousness, Run for your life!

Chapter 185 Michael nodded nervously.

Thank goodness we werent there when Tracia died.

Running into that grandmaster wouldve been bad news

Still, its unfortunate Lauren escaped, but at least we have the herbs

When she returns to Rhodes Corporation empty handed, shell have to answer for this failure ! At this thought, a hint of a smile returned to Michaels gloomy face.

However, Bane suddenly.

tensed and shouted, Whos there? Show yourself, or youll regret it! Michael spun around in terror, stuttering, B Bane, you dont think its that grandmaster coming for us? A broad shouldered man emerged from the shadows, and Michael immediately relaxed.

Oh, its just you, Jerry.

You scared me half to death! Jerry scoffed.

Mr.

Rhodes, if you want to take over Rhodes Corporation, you need to show more backbone.

Being spooked by every little noise makes you look like a coward.

Michael laughed.

Relax, Jerry, its just us three here

Even if Im scared out of my wits, no one else will know.

As long as others dont see my true nature, theyll never know what Im really like ! Jerry shook his head, thinking how inferior Michael was compared to Lauren.

Still, despite his incompetence, being male meant he had the best chance of inheriting Rhodes Corporation

Jerry, werent you supposed to guard the trucks in the cave? Why are you here? Michael asked, completely missing Jerrys look of displeasure.

Whats there to be guarded? They beat us to it! Jerry snapped in frustration.

Michael's heart sank

What do you mean? Did someone take the herbs? Forget about those truckloads of herbs, Jerry replied

By the time I got there, Lauren had already found them and had them moved.

What? She found them first? That's impossible! Michael exploded in rage

How could she possibly find them? I hid them so carefully! Bane chimed in coldly, I checked that location myself.

Her people shouldn't have been able to find it

Did someone on your end mess up? My men were with me the whole time there were no leaks, Jerry growled.

It wasn't Lauren's people who found it anyway.

It was that pretty boy Andrew.

Michael gasped and turned to Bane but you wouldn't believe me! See? It's him again! I told you it was that damn bastard, A murderous glint appeared in Bane's eyes.

He's becoming a real problem.

It looks like we'll have to get rid of him for good.

1/2 Chapter 105 And he seems to suspect me already, Jerry added.

Mr.

Rhodes, it's best if you don't contact me for a while

I'll help with your fight against Lauren, but if we go too far and Mr. Rhodes.

Senior starts asking questions, I'll be in trouble too.

Jerry, I need one more favor from you, Michael snarled.

Kill that meddling bastard who keeps ruining my plans.

Chapter 186 Jerry immediately refused, Im sorry, but I wont do something that risky.

Andrew is obviously very close to Ms.

Rhodes

If I harm him shell never forgive me.

I work for the Rhodes family to secure my future, not to be your hitman.

Then, Jerry disappeared into the woods, ignoring Michaels furious expression.

Bane, since Jerry is too scared, why dont you take care of that guy yourself? Eliminate him before he causes more problems! Michael suggested.

Banes face darkened with uncertainty as he replied, We cant rush this... One wrong move, and we lose everything

We now know Tracia was killed by at least a junior grandmaster level fighter, and that person might be backing Andrew.

If thats the case, moving against him carelessly would only bring us trouble.

Michael was frustrated by how his sure victory had turned into a complete defeat, and he shouted, Bane , are you afraid of that worthless pretty boy too? Bane scoffed

Dont be ridiculous! Ive dominated Gabo Creeks martial arts world for decades I fear no one, especially not in a small town like Jayrodale

Lets wait until we get back to town before making our next move.

Michael desperately wanted to confront Andrew immediately, but he lacked the necessary strength himself.

Hence, he had to rely on people like Bane and Jerry, who were too wise to take unnecessary risks without absolute certainty.

Back in Jayrodale, Lauren had dragged Andrew to Oakridge Club.

Andrew protested helplessly, Ms.

Rhodes, you dont really have to do this to thank me.

Lauren ignored his protests, keeping her arm linked with his while pressing close, seemingly unconcerned about their physical contact.

Dr.

Lloyd, dont be shy.

I have to thank you properly youve helped me so much.

e, why Seeing there was no escape, Andrew gave up and asked, Even if you want to thank me, bring me here ? This place is Weller family territory, isnt it? Lauren smiled, her ponytail swaying, Dr.

Lloyd, Im about to buy over Oakridge Club.

As my thank you gift, youll be its new owner.

For me? Would the Weller family be alright with it? Andrew asked, surprised

He knew the Oakridge Club was a famous and profitable high end establishment in Jayrodale, owned by Harvey.

The Weller family is drowning in debt, Lauren explained.

Theyre having to sell assets just to stay afloat

With the Rhodes family doing so well, its the perfect time to make a move and get a good deal.

1/2 Andrew understood immediately Harveys falle investments had become the final straw for the Weller familys financial struggles.

The once mighty family had been reduced to selling off their properties.

Inside the Oakridge Club, the former grandeur had faded to dim lighting

Francesca and Laurens assistant, Eunice, were waiting for them Are the Weller family representatives here ? Lauren asked Eunice, Eunice looked uncomfortable and replied, Yes, but Miss, its not just their representative who came... Lauren was unbothered.

Who else? That good for nothing Harvey? Francesca cut in, Lauren, you should be careful.

Not only is Harvey here, but Mr.

Weller Senior, the head of the Weller family, has also come .

Chapter 187 Lauren was shocked and exclaimed, Even Mr.

Weller Senior is here? Well then, lets see what theyre really up to Upon entering the main hall, Andrew noticed not only the Weller family members but also Christina. When she caught Andrews glance, Christina remained expressionless and turned.

away.

Harvey smirked, looking down at Andrew with contempt.

Lauren greeted Kane respectfully, acknowledging his status as one of Jayrodales most influential family patriarchs

His local influence sometimes exceeded even the mayors, particularly in matters concerning traditional martial arts circles.

Lauren, its been years since Ive seen you ! Kane chuckled before breaking into a cough, quickly covering his mouth with a white handkerchief.

Though Kane tried to be discreet, Andrews keen eye caught sight of blood on the cloth, and noting Kanes pale complexion and dim eyes, he could tell the man was gravely ill.

Mr.

Weller Senior, if youre unwell, we can discuss this another time, Lauren offered considerately, hesitant to bring up the club purchase given his condition.

Kane waved off her concern: Its just an old condition.

Lets get down to business.

Everyone took their seats, and Kanes gaze lingered on Andrew.

Even though it only lasted seconds, Andrew could not ignore the coldness and hostility in the mans eyes. The Weller family has fallen on hard times, and with my illness, I have no choice but to sell the Oakridge Club for operating capital, Kane explained slowly.

Lauren nodded sympathetically.

I understand your predicament, Mr.

Weller Senior.

Running a prestigious family business requires substantial daily expenses.

Please be assured that the Rhodes family will help however we can.

You're much more generous than your penny pinching father.

I like that, Kane said, laughing.

You know, you and Harvey would have made a perfect match.

It's quite a shame that fate had other plans.

You're too kind, Mr.

Weller Senior, Lauren replied.

Harvey is far too accomplished for me.

Besides, my heart now belongs to someone else

Kane glanced at Andrew, And I assume that would be Mr.

Lloyd here? Yes, Dr.

Lloyd is indeed the one I've chosen, Lauren confirmed without hesitation, causing Andrew to feel slightly embarrassed.

Behind Kane, Christina shot Andrew a cold, unreadable look, +26 BONUS Chapter 187
Kane forced a smile

Mr.

Lloyd is undoubtedly a fine young man, and it's no surprise he's captured your attention.

But I heard the Rhodes family has a strict tradition of arranging marriages within prestigious families. Frankly, Mr.

Lloyd's background is ... ordinary, to put it kindly.

He lacks the kind of standing that would make such a union viable.

From the perspective of a family head, I'd suggest you reconsider.

It may be best for you both to part ways now and spare yourselves from unrealistic expectations.

Chapter 188 Lauren maintained her composure and replied, My relationship with Dr. Lloyd isn't your concern, Mr.

Weller Senior

Perhaps we should focus on business matters now.

Kane's brows furrowed at her bluntness.

As the head of a prestigious family, he was not accustomed to being dismissed, especially by a junior.

His intentions were genuine. Harvey had mentioned Andrews' abilities, but from Kane's perspective, Andrew was clearly not in the same league as Lauren.

However, unlike Harvey, Kane maintained his grace and smiled.

Very well, let me be direct.

My price for the Oakridge Club is 150 million.

The number shocked both Lauren and Andrew.

I'm sorry, Mr.

Weller Senior, but at 150 million, I'll have to pass on this deal, Lauren replied, disappointed that Kane would try to take such a blatant advantage of her.

Harvey chimed in with a smirk, Lauren, we're giving you first priority here.

If you're not interested, there are plenty of others lined up to buy Jayrodale's premier club.

Lauren fell into deep thought.

While she did not particularly care about the Oakridge Club, she had promised it as a gift to Andrew and did not want to appear insincere in her gratitude.

Mr.

Weller Senior, 150 million is far too high.

Perhaps we could negotiate ? Lauren suggested.

Kane inwardly smiled, thinking the younger generation was still too naive in business dealings.

He knew nobody would willingly pay 150 million for the club, but he intended to pull a premium price since he was personally involved in the negotiation.

After pretending to consider it carefully, Kane spoke again, Lauren, since both the Weller and Rhodes families are elite families of Jayrodale, Ill give you special consideration.

How about 120 million ? Laurens frown deepened

Even 120 million was highway robbery for the clubs actual value.

Eunice could not help but comment, Miss, I dont think we should pay 120 million.

Please reconsider! Shut up! Harvey snapped

Who are you to speak here? Eunice paled and retreated behind Lauren, fighting back tears.

Kane took a slow sip of tea and flashed an insincere smile.

Lauren, youre too forgiving with your staff

In our family, such behavior would merit severe punishment and expulsion.

Laurens expression darkened.

While Kane was trying to lecture her on managing staff, she did not appreciate the interference especially since Eunice had merely voiced Laurens own thoughts about the Wellers extortionate pricing Chapter 188 Kane set down his teacup and added, Lauren, Ive already lowered the price by 30 million out of consideration for you.

If you refuse now, it would be disrespecting me and the Weller family.

Laurens expression changed, and even Francesca, who had been quietly observing, felt angry.

Kane was clearly using his seniority to pressure the Rhodes family into an unfair deal.

Chapter 189 The situation was frustratingly complex since Kane technically had the upper hand.

As at family patriarch and Laurens elder, Kane had made what appeared to be a concession by lowering the price by 30 million, making it difficult for Lauren to refuse without seeming disrespectful.

If Harvey had been the only one present, Lauren could have continued negotiating.

However, with the cunning Kane there, it was awkward for her, as a younger person, to keep bargaining.

Nonetheless, she was not foolish enough to accept such an astronomical sum of 120 million. dollars.

Meanwhile, Harvey was secretly delighted that bringing his father along worked out so well.

Kanes negotiating skills far surpassed his own, and the Weller family was past caring about their reputation they just wanted to rip off the Rhodes family while they could.

Lauren, if theres no issue, lets sign the contract ! Kane said with a seemingly friendly smile. Lauren silently cursed the crafty old man while outwardly hesitating.

Mr.

Weller Senior, I think... Lauren, spare me the excuses, Kane cut her off assertively.

Once we sign the contract and you transfer the 120 million to the Weller family account, we could talk about how our families had gone way back.

Wouldnt that be lovely? Laurens palms were sweating as she considered whether to confront Kane directly.

While the Rhodes family could handle any fallout with the Wellers, she knew Michael would use this incident against her.

Come on, Lauren, surely 120 million isnt an issue for the Rhodes family? Harvey pressed.

Just sign the contract and keep things simple! Lauren took a deep breath, ready to refuse despite the consequences.

She was not afraid, knowing Andrew had her back.

I think Ms.

Rhodes should pay 120 million, Andrew suddenly commented, catching everyone off guard.

You cant be serious! Andrew, thats 120 million How can you let Lauren pay that ? Francesca exclaimed in shock.

Even Lauren stared at Andrew in disbelief, surprised by his support for the deal.

Harvey laughed triumphantly

Andrew knows a good deal when he sees it! The Oakridge Club is Jayrodales most prestigious venue.

If we werent all friends here, Id be asking for at least 150 million.

Kane remained silent with a slight smile, assuming Andrew was either trying to curry favor or needed something from the Weller family.

1/2 Chapter 159 Christina inwardly scoffed at Andrews apparent change in character.

While she was currently aligned with the Weller family, she felt disappointed to see Andrew apparently abandoning his principles when faced with someone of Kanes status.

Chapter 190 Alrigh , well follow Dr.

Lloyds suggestion and proceed with the 120 million, Lauren decided.

Even though she was unsure why Andrew agreed to such a price, she trusted that he had his reasons and was willing to spend that amount on him.

Just as Kane and Harveys faces lit up with triumph, Andrew dropped a bombshell.

I think.

there might be a small misunderstanding

When i mentioned 120 million, I wasnt just talking about the Oakridge Club.

He continued, What I meant was that 120 million should buy the entire Weller family holdings.

Everything the Weller family owns in Jayrodale would become Rhodes family property, and Ms.

Rhodes can transfer the money right now.

Now, thats what I call a win win situation! The room fell into a stunned silence as everyone reeled from Andrews words.

His suggestion was not about meeting the Weller familys greedy demands it was about buying out their entire family enterprise

What the hell are you talking about? Harvey snarled

The Weller family has been a powerhouse in Jayrodale for over a century.

Do you think your pathetic 120 million can buy our entire legacy? Are you out of your mind? Kanes pale face flushed red with anger

Young man, thats quite bold of you.

The Weller familys heritage cant be measured in mere dollars.

Do you realize how ridiculous you sound? Francesca, Lauren, and Christina all stared at Andrew with strange expressions, shocked by his audacious proposal.

Well, if Mr.

Weller Senior thinks 120 million isnt enough, lets make it 150 million, Andrew replied calmly.

As you said earlier, the price is negotiable.

This is ridiculous! Kane exploded without hesitation.

Even if you offered billions, the Weller family isnt some commodity to be bought and sold! In that case, it seems Mr.

Weller Senior is the one disrespecting the Rhodes family and Ms.

Rhodes, Andrew replied coldly.

We showed good faith by raising our offer, but apparently, the Weller familys pride is too inflated to negotiate reasonably

Kane nearly choked on his anger, realizing that Andrew had cleverly turned his own earlier pressure tactics against him.

Lauren, you better control Andrew, Harvey shouted

Who does he think he is to interfere in business between our families? Lauren was secretly delighted While she had to maintain respect for Kane, Andrew was free to challenge him.

Chapter 190 Well, you see, Dr.

Lloyd actually has every right planning to buy the Oakridge Club as a gift for hi Chapter 190 Well, you see, Dr.

Lloyd actually has every right to speak, Lauren explained

After all, I was planning to buy the Oakridge Club as a gift for him!
