Exclusive Treatment

In her daze, Jian Dan felt that she saw many figures walking around.

She wanted to see more clearly, but she could not. Her head was dizzy.

She felt that her entire body was sore and she had no strength at all. She could not even lift a finger.

Jian Dan had never felt so uncomfortable before, as if she was about to die.

In her daze, she heard someone say, "It's already 40 degrees Celsius. Hurry up and send her to the hospital."

Hospital?

That was the place that Jian Dan dreaded to go the most. It was where she lost her parents... "No hospital." Jian Dan struggled to say these words.

At this moment, Chu Liyuan had successfully acquired the MS Group. What should have taken seven days to complete had been brought forward by him to three days. These three days had exhausted everyone. Fortunately, the outcome was good. They had not suffered in vain. Now, they were in a meeting with MS Group's executives...

The cell phone left in the office kept ringing...

The meeting lasted for four hours...

When the meeting ended, it was already past 12 p.m.. It was already past lunch time, so everyone prepared to go for lunch together.

When Li Jing passed Chu Liyuan's cell phone to him... he realized that there were more than 40 missed calls on his cell phone.

He saw that they were all from Li Garden... Chu Liyuan's expression darkened and he felt uneasy... Just as he was about to call back, his cell phone rang again...

He pressed the answer button... Uncle Zhang's anxious voice emanated from the other end of the phone. "Young Master, something happened to Young Madam."

Chu Liyuan's heart clenched... "What happened to her?" Chu Liyuan's voice trembled.

"She's unconscious. Her fever hasn't subsided for more than four hours."

"Have you sent her to the hospital?"

"Young Madam doesn't want to go, no matter what. The doctor gave her medicine, but the fever just won't go away."

"Uncle Zhang, take good care of her. I'll rush back immediately."

After hanging up, Chu Liyuan left without saying a word. Li Jing—who did not understand what was going on—could only give some simple instructions before following him...

Chu Liyuan's brows were tightly knitted together, and the expression on his face looked as if he wanted to devour someone alive... "To the airport!"

Chu Liyuan spoke in an extremely cold and irritable tone.

"The flight is tomorrow morning. Are we going to the airport now?" Li Jing reminded.

"I'm going back now!"

"Now? But the earliest flight today is at 9 p.m.," Li Jing said.

"Get a chartered plane!"

As Li Jing drove, he wondered what had happened to make Mr. Chu look so worried. In the past, even when he encountered troublesome matters, Mr. Chu was always calm. But now...

Li Jing drove the car at the speed of a rocket. It only took him 10 minutes to reach the airport. He arranged for the flight as fast as he could and only took half an hour to get on the plane...

However, it would take at least 24 hours to fly back from Chile. These 24 hours were simply a torture for Chu Liyuan. It felt as long as centuries. Anxiety filled his mind. Before today, he had never been like this. He had not even been on the verge of death. But now...

Even he himself did not understand how a woman he had only known for a few days could affect him to this extent!

The plane finally landed, and Chu Liyuan rushed back to Li Garden as fast as he could...

Looking at the pale and unconscious woman on the bed, his heart tightened...

How did this lass end up like this? He was only gone for four days.

"So cold! So cold!" Jian Dan muttered.

Jian Dan felt a trace of warmth as she grabbed Chu Liyuan's large hand...

Jian Dan felt as if she was on a snowy street. It was freezing... Suddenly, a warm light appeared in front of her. Jian Dan instinctively approached the light, closer and closer... Closer and closer... Jian Dan felt her body slowly warming up... and she fell into a deep sleep.
