The City’s Strongest Son-in-law

Chapter 151 - 151 151 Do you feel like you've forgotten something

151: Chapter 151: Do you feel like you’ve forgotten something?

151: Chapter 151: Do you feel like you’ve forgotten something?

“Don’t you feel like you’ve forgotten something?” Gu Qing’er pouted and asked.

“Wash...

wash hands?”

Gu Qing’er pouted like she was about to hang something on it, and said with displeasure, “This has nothing to do with it!”

“Then what do you say I forgot?” Su Changfeng asked.

“You idiot, we agreed at the hospital before that if my food was delicious, you must praise me a few times!” Gu Qing’er rolled her eyes.

Su Changfeng almost felt internal injuries from holding his breath; so this little girl wasn’t eating, waiting for compliments?

“Okay, okay, what do you want me to praise you for?”

“Obviously that I’m good-looking, cute, and have a great figure,” Gu Qing’er said directly.

“But this has nothing to do with cooking, right?”

“Does that matter?

I don’t care, you agreed before, otherwise, then you don’t eat.” Gu Qing’er reached out to grab Su Changfeng’s chopsticks.

Su Changfeng turned to avoid her, replying: “Alright, alright, you’re good-looking, very cute, have a great figure, your cooking skills are exceptional, and you’re the most amazing woman in the world.”

“Even more amazing than Tang Qiulu?” Gu Qing’er blinked her big eyes, looking at Su Changfeng expectantly.

“Certainly not.” Su Changfeng replied without any hesitation.

Gu Qing’er frowned slightly in displeasure and then began eating.

The arduous task of washing the dishes was handed over by Gu Qing’er to Su Changfeng, and Su Changfeng was definitely going to do it.

After all, she was the Gu Family’s young lady, personally cooking was already giving Su Changfeng a lot of face.

To ask her to wash dishes would be a bit much.

After tidying everything up, Su Changfeng checked the time and realized he should leave, because it wasn’t good for a man and woman to be alone together.

He was famously a coward, and might not care, but he couldn’t tarnish Gu Qing’er’s reputation, after all, she was only an 18-year-old girl.

“I did you this favor, play me a piano piece as a return, can you?” Gu Qing’er said to Su Changfeng.

“You cooked for me to thank me, so why should I repay you?” Su Changfeng felt a bit puzzled.

“Because, the favor of cooking is rather big, thus you must repay me.”

Even though Gu Qing’er noticed that Su Changfeng’s silhouette was particularly similar to Piano Prince’s, she couldn’t be 100% sure, which is why she asked Su Changfeng to do it, and even the piano in the room was one she had just recently bought.

Thinking of reasoning with a girl is just wishful thinking.

Knowing this, Su Changfeng slowly sat down by the piano, placing his hands on it, and asked, “How do you know I play the piano?”

“I just know, why say so much?” Gu Qing’er patted her forehead anxiously, back then the Little Prince vanished like a Meteor, afterward, there was no news at all, now that she can see him again, Gu Qing’er couldn’t possibly not be excited, she restrained herself from screaming in excitement.

“Alright.” Su Changfeng smiled a little.

The sound of the piano was melodious and pleasing, Gu Qing’er quickly found an angle identical to that of a video and watched Su Changfeng, while her phone played the previous video silently.

Completely identical, no deviation at all!

He really is the little Piano Prince!

Back then, Gu Qing’er was obsessed, spent quite a bit of money to find him, never expecting fate to be so miraculous, getting acquainted at the martial arts gym.

Gu Qing’er believed this was God giving her another chance, even though he currently had a wife, she felt she must seize this opportunity.

Because Tang Family only regarded him as a coward, but if he came to the Gu Family, it would be entirely different.

As the song ended, Su Changfeng stood up to find Gu Qing’er staring at him with a mesmerized look.

“What’s wrong, is there something off?” Su Changfeng asked.

Gu Qing’er snapped back to reality and promptly said, “I never expected you to play so well, you’re definitely being claimed by this lady.”

For Su Changfeng, becoming friends with Gu Qing’er was indeed good news, so he didn’t refuse.

“I need to go back now.

When there’s a chance, I’ll showcase my skills, but your grandfather must be present,” Su Changfeng said.

“Alright.”

Gu Qing’er accompanied Su Changfeng outside, waiting for the elevator.

Previously, Gu Qing’er would hope for the elevator to arrive immediately, but now she wished it would come slower, slower still.

But regardless of how slow it was, it would still arrive.

“When it arrives, there will be a surprise for you.” Su Changfeng entered the elevator, and just as the door was about to close, Gu Qing’er suddenly said.

Surprise?

Su Changfeng thought, hoping it wouldn't be a shock, since Gu Qing'er was so sneaky, who knows what kind of trick she might pull.

Upon returning home, apart from Liu Lili still tidying up, everyone else had gone to their bedrooms to rest.

Su Changfeng chatted with her for a while and returned to his room.

Early next morning, at 6 o'clock as usual, but Tang Qiulu didn't let him join the morning run, so Su Changfeng didn't get up.

After lying in bed until 9 o'clock, he heard a commotion outside, got dressed, and arose.

Outside the villa, stopped was a fiery red Lamborghini, with someone standing beside the car.

It was the weekend, and so Tang Qiulu hadn't gone to work.

Her family was staring blankly at the car, especially Sun Mei, eyes ablaze with hope that the Lamborghini belonged to her.

If she could drive this to a gathering of her friends, everyone would die of envy!

"Qiulu, this place is our private zone, why did this person park the car here?" Sun Mei asked Tang Qiulu.

Tang Qiulu was equally puzzled, as Xianwu Mountain's security was rather strict, no one dared violate rules!

"Who exactly are you?

What are you here for?" Tang Qiulu asked again, looking at the person beside the car.

But he said nothing, still wearing a smile.

"Qiulu, could this guy be mute, unable to speak?" Sun Mei said.

Tang Qiulu felt this made some sense, for she had asked the person several times, yet received no answer.

Then, Su Changfeng came out.

Seeing the Lamborghini sports car parked there surprised him a bit.

“What happened?

What’s going on?” Su Changfeng asked Tang Qiulu.

Tang Qiulu glanced at Su Changfeng, before she could answer, the person standing by the car first bent down and then spoke, “Mr.

Su, is that you?”

Chapter 152 - 152 152 Someone Delivered a Car

152: Chapter 152 Someone Delivered a Car?

152: Chapter 152 Someone Delivered a Car?

Sun Mei looked at Su Changfeng with some surprise; it turns out the person wasn’t mute, he just waited to speak until Su Changfeng came out!

“It’s me, but I don’t think we know each other, right?” Su Changfeng was a bit perplexed.

The man smiled and said, “Mr.

Su, you surely don’t know me, because I’m just following orders to bring this car to you.”

Sun Mei’s hair stood on end instantly; was this person delivering a car to Su Changfeng?

Could it be that this guy bought this car?

Su Changfeng, this bastard, all his money belongs to Tang Qiulu, why is he spending it like this?

Sun Mei still thought that Tang Qiulu should take all of Su Changfeng’s money; she couldn’t stand the idea of him spending millions at once.

“Su Changfeng, you’re getting more and more brazen, not considering us at all.

How dare you not inform us beforehand?

Can you just make decisions about buying a car like this?” Sun Mei spoke with a fierce expression, as if Su Changfeng was spending her money!

“I didn’t buy a car.

I’m not even sure what’s happening.” Su Changfeng was a bit confused; he hadn’t gone to buy a car.

Besides, he wouldn’t buy a Lamborghini.

Although sports cars look particularly cool, they aren’t comfortable to sit in at all—at most, they’re just for showing off.

“I was instructed by our young lady to deliver this car to Mr.

Su.” The man explained.

Young lady?

Su Changfeng suddenly remembered that yesterday Gu Qing’er mentioned having a surprise for him.

Could it be this car is the surprise?

As expected of the eldest daughter of the Gu Family, it’s extraordinary, gifting a Lamborghini just like that.

It’s indeed a big surprise.

Sun Mei was stunned to hear this; the car was actually given to Su Changfeng by a woman.

This car must cost several million.

It’s impossible to just give it to Su Changfeng.

“Su Changfeng, have you been fooling around with those shady women again?” Sun Mei said coldly.

At this moment, Tang Qiulu’s expression changed a bit.

Although she believed that Su Changfeng hadn’t done anything inappropriate at Cang Jiao Pavilion, what’s the deal with the car now?

If the young lady mentioned isn’t connected to Su Canghai, why would she gift him a sports car worth millions?

Upon hearing Sun Mei’s words, the man who had been smiling instantly became cold-faced and said coldly, “I advise you to be more careful with your words!”

“Who do you think you are, seducing a married man and then telling me to watch my words?

Your so-called young lady must earn a lot at night, right?” Sun Mei said.

The man’s face turned cold, and his eyes carried a hint of menace as he replied, “Who do you think you are, daring to slander our young lady like that!”

“Who am I?

Haha.” Sun Mei said with arms akimbo, “This villa is mine, so who do you think I am?

Do you know where this is?

This is the Mountain Villa—does your young lady even live in such a place?”

Although Sun Mei wasn’t the owner, it currently belonged to Tang Qiulu, so Sun Mei felt that there was nothing wrong with what she said.

Living here, it reflects noble status, and she doesn’t care about any young lady.

“Mom, you better stop talking now.” Su Changfeng said.

Hearing Su Changfeng say that, Sun Mei became even more displeased and said coldly, “Now you’re trying to defend that wild woman?

Su Changfeng, you’re such a bastard, fooling around with other women outside.

I was even planning to see you as my true son-in-law, but now I’m truly disappointed in you.”

A real son-in-law?

That statement was extremely ironic.

“The wild woman you’re talking about is actually the eldest daughter of the Gu Family, Gu Qing’er.

I will report this to our young lady—Gu Family will not tolerate anyone slandering our young lady!” The man replied coldly.

Gu...

Gu Family’s eldest daughter!

Sun Mei suddenly froze.

The person who sent the car to Su Changfeng turned out to be the Gu Family's eldest daughter, Gu Qing'er?

And she had just called the Gu Family's eldest daughter a shady woman!

After swallowing a gulp, the arrogance Sun Mei just displayed disappeared instantly.

To offend the Gu Family in Hai City is equivalent to offending death itself.

Tang Zhenhua immediately said, "I am truly sorry.

This person didn't know your young lady was Gu Qing'er, which is why they spoke nonsense."

Even Tang Qiulu couldn't remain calm.

The Tang Family is currently trying to rise up, and if they end up in conflict with the Gu Family now, if the Gu Family decided to deal with the Tang Family, the Tang Family would be finished.

"I apologize on behalf of my mom.

She didn't mean it that way." Tang Qiulu said.

"Unaware and didn't mean it that way—does that justify deliberately slandering our young lady?

Don't you know what the Gu Family is like in Hai City?!" The man said coldly.

Sun Mei, being a woman who bullies the weak and fears the strong, had offended a prominent family like the Gu Family, and now she was so frightened that she almost sat on the ground.

She quickly slapped her own face several times and pleaded, "I'm truly sorry.

I was just babbling incoherently.

Please don't let Gu Qing'er hear about this.

Otherwise, how about I give you some money?"

The man looked at Sun Mei as if looking at an idiot.

Why is there such a foolish woman?

"Mr.

Su, the young lady instructed that only you are allowed to drive this car, and regarding someone insulting the young lady, you don't need to say anything.

Even if you pleaded, it would be of no use.

I will tell our young lady the truth." The man said to Su Changfeng.

Sun Mei shivered; if Gu Qing'er really found out about this, the consequences would be something she couldn't bear.

Since Su Changfeng is friends with Gu Qing'er, maybe having him plead for leniency might help a little.

"Su Changfeng, I'm your mom, can't you plead for me?" Sun Mei said in a commanding tone to Su Changfeng.

If her attitude had softened a bit, Su Changfeng might have said something nice for her.

But even now, she still appeared so arrogantly high.

Su Changfeng could bear bitterness for Tang Qiulu, but this didn't mean Sun Mei could always dominate him.

Moreover, Su Changfeng initially intended to teach Sun Mei a lesson; this situation was an opportunity.

"What can I plead for you?

Do you really think the Gu Family cares about my face?" Su Changfeng said indifferently.

Sun Mei got anxious and shouted, "Su Changfeng, what do you mean by that?

This mess happened because of you; you can't escape responsibility."

Shameless woman, it was clearly her foul mouth that insulted others, yet now she was blaming Su Changfeng.

"Oh." Su Changfeng replied with a nonchalant look.

Seeing her words had no effect, Sun Mei shook Tang Qiulu's arm, intending to have Tang Qiulu say something to help her.

Chapter 153 - 153 153 Shameless Sun Mei

153: Chapter 153 Shameless Sun Mei 153: Chapter 153 Shameless Sun Mei However, Tang Qiulu and Su Changfeng are currently having a conflict.

She couldn't possibly bow down to Su Changfeng, and besides, the previous issue hasn't been resolved yet.

Now that there seems to be something between Su Changfeng and Gu Qing'er, she's becoming increasingly upset.

"Mom, what qualifications do I have to do anything about him?" Tang Qiulu replied blandly.

Su Changfeng wore a bitter smile and walked toward the person.

"I'll just take the car for now.

Please thank your lady for me," Su Changfeng clearly knew that if he didn't take the car, Gu Qing'er might even come over in person.

If that really happened, there would be no way to explain anything.

The person was very respectful to Su Changfeng because Gu Qing'er had instructed him, so he couldn't show any disrespect to Su Changfeng.

Even if Sun Mei cursed Gu Qing'er, he wouldn't blame it on Su Changfeng.

"Mr.

Su, our lady said you are the only one who can drive this car," the person reminded again.

Su Changfeng smiled bitterly, nodded, and said, "I understand.

Please also give my regards to the old man."

"Very well, I'll take my leave now."

After the person left, Sun Mei whispered, "Why does this coward Su Changfeng know the daughter of the Gu Family?

Where does he get the qualification to have connections with such a prominent family?"

If it were one of the women from Cang Jiao Pavilion, Sun Mei would have scolded Su Changfeng harshly.

However, now that it's the daughter of the Gu Family, whose status is far higher than the Tang Family, with superior wealth and influence, Sun Mei felt a bit off balance.

Comparing Tang Qiulu with Gu Qing'er, the former was no match.

Even though Sun Mei often acted unreasonably and threw tantrums, at least she understood their positions.

Su Changfeng held the keys, returned to Tang Qiulu's side, and before he could explain, Tang Qiulu said, "You don't need to tell me so much.

From now on, there's no need to tell me anything about your matters."

"You bastard, Qiulu will divorce you sooner or later!" Sun Mei said viciously, eager to escalate the situation further.

Su Changfeng sighed and didn't bother to explain further.

One day, he would prove that he hadn't done those things.

After Sun Mei went home, she was still worried that Gu Qing'er might come looking for her, so she asked Tang Qiulu for a solution.

However, all the issues that had happened to Tang Qiulu lately were resolved by Su Changfeng.

Now, if she didn't seek help from Su Changfeng, Tang Qiulu really had no way out.

Only now did Tang Qiulu realize that everything she achieved wasn't because of her own efforts but due to Su Canghai's repeated assistance.

I can't continue like this.

I need to rely on my own strength to handle everything, not Su Canghai's help.

"Mom, I really can't help you with this, but Gu Qing'er most likely won't care.

She's the daughter of the Gu Family after all," Tang Qiulu said.

"Qiulu, what do you mean by that?

Are you implying that Gu Qing'er looks down on me?" Sun Mei was a bit dissatisfied.

Beside them, Tang Zhenhua couldn't hold back anymore, "Just drop it.

Do you really think you can compare with Gu Qing'er?

So what if she looks down on you?"

“Tang Zhenhua, at least I’m better than you, a coward.

Where do you get the courage to talk down to me?” Sun Mei said coldly.

Tang Zhenhua sighed and stopped talking, knowing that Sun Mei was tough inside but easily frightened.

Previously scared after a slap, she didn’t sleep all night, and now she’s agitating Gu Qing’er again?

If Gu Qing’er really came over, Sun Mei would likely just have to admit fault and not dare to say a word.

“Mom, you need to be more mindful of what you say in the future.

We live on Xianwu Mountain, and the people here aren’t simple,” Tang Qiulu reminded.

Sun Mei was stubborn and didn’t want to admit fault, but she understood Tang Qiulu’s words were true.

As such, she really should control her mouth in the future, or else, who knows how many people she might offend!

“Alright, alright, I understand.

I’m not completely unreasonable.”

Even Tang Zhenhua had to stifle a laugh at Sun Mei’s words.

Sun Mei being a reasonable person, if that were true, then are there any unreasonable people left?

“By the way, Qiulu, there’s something I need to tell you,” Sun Mei said.

“What is it?” Tang Qiulu asked, confused.

“A man can’t have too much money, or else he’ll have the means to go after other women,” Sun Mei hinted.

> Tang Qiulu understood the meaning behind Sun Mei’s words.

However, now that the villas had been transferred to her, asking Su Changfeng for money would be too shameful, something Tang Qiulu would never do.

“Mom, what you’re doing will drive him away,” Tang Qiulu said.

Sun Mei laughed gleefully, “That would be a good thing!

Once we get rid of him, our family won’t be laughed at anymore.”

“Gu Qing’er gave him a car worth millions; maybe in your eyes, he’s trash, but in others’ eyes, he’s a treasure,” Tang Zhenhua said with a sneer.

“Su Canghai is a treasure?

Tang Zhenhua, why would you say such a stupid thing?

Do you want to make me laugh to death?” Sun Mei propped her hands up by her eyes, as if afraid that laughing would create crow’s feet.

Tang Zhenhua thought to himself, Su Changfeng was either buying cars or large villas, his financial capabilities were particularly strong, which Sun Mei couldn’t possibly ignore.

But after three years of seeing Su Changfeng as a coward, she couldn’t see things clearly now.

In Tang Zhenhua’s eyes, Su Canghai was likely not some coward.

Perhaps he’s quite capable but just hiding it.

Otherwise, why would Gu Qing’er give him such an expensive car?

“Mom, no matter what, I’m not going to do it,” Tang Qiulu said.

“Are you stupid, daughter?

If you regret it later, don’t come crying to me!” Sun Mei said with a “why aren’t you living up to expectations” look.

That day, Gu Qing’er called Su Changfeng.

Seeing the contact name change from ‘Explosively Cute Little Fairy’ to ‘Gu Qing’er,’ Su Changfeng picked up the phone.

“Su Yi heard you’re planning to invite him to dinner, and he immediately agreed.

He’s available now.

What do you think?” came Gu Qing’er’s voice from the other end.

“I’ll just stand and watch,” Su Changfeng replied.

Gu Qing’er’s grand gift left Su Changfeng slightly caught between tears and laughter.

It’s not that it’s so expensive — a few million is a small sum to Su Changfeng — but the extravagant way she gifted it would certainly make Tang Qiulu overthink things and didn’t even leave him a chance to clarify.

“You have quite a sense of humor,” Gu Qing’er laughed.

“You’re really generous, just gifting me a Lamborghini sports car like that?

The daughter of the Gu Family is indeed wealthy,” Su Changfeng said.

Chapter 154 - 154 154 Are You Sure You're Not Coming Up

154: Chapter 154: Are You Sure You’re Not Coming Up?

154: Chapter 154: Are You Sure You’re Not Coming Up?

“Of course, when Gu Qing’er makes a move, how can it be simple?

So that’s settled, remember to pick me up in the afternoon, we’ll go to the market together to buy groceries, and then you can cook for Grandpa!” After finishing, Gu Qing’er ended the call.

Su Changfeng was a bit puzzled, recalling the call with Gu Qing’er just now, he didn’t say he would go, so how did it become “settled”?

This young lady from the Gu Family is indeed quite capricious.

But since he’ll get to meet Gu Changsheng, Su Changfeng surely won’t refuse.

After lunch, Su Changfeng left without telling Tang Qiulu because Tang Qiulu’s attention hadn’t been on him at all.

The Gu Family lives in another villa area in Hai City, in the suburbs.

Compared to the luxury and environment of Xianwu Mountain, this place doesn’t compare, but everyone in the villa area is from the Gu Family, and only those with the surname Gu can live there, which makes the place entirely different.

It wouldn’t be incorrect to call it the Gu Family’s ancestral land now.

The guards were clearly instructed by Gu Qing'er, so when Su Changfeng's car arrived, the guards let him in without even checking.

Outside Gu Qing'er's villa, this little girl had been waiting for who knows how long, and finally saw Su Changfeng's car, then tried to display the dignity of the Gu Family's young lady.

When the car stopped, Su Changfeng rolled down the window and asked, "Why are you still standing there?

Get in!"

"Can't you be a bit gentlemanly and open the car door for this lady?" Gu Qing'er said.

Su Changfeng immediately started the engine and was about to drive off, almost provoking Gu Qing'er into cursing him out loudly, she felt like strangling him.

"Are you sure you're not coming?" Su Changfeng said.

As a cherished jewel of the Gu Family, wherever in Hai City she goes, there are people flattering her.

If it were someone else, her temper would surely flare up, and she'd turn back home.

But Gu Qing'er didn't do that, instead, she held a grudge, opened the door, and got in.

"You're really not a gentleman, this car is the one I bought for you." Gu Qing'er pouted with some resentment.

"Alright, if you regret it, just take the car back now." Su Changfeng said.

Gu Qing'er suddenly felt a rush of blood to her head, then clenched her fists in front of Su Changfeng, and said in a threatening tone: "See this?

My fists are as big as sandbags, if you make me angry, the consequences will be dire!"

"Do you remember the master that Wang Fu brought over?"

Hearing this, Gu Qing'er reluctantly let go and lowered her head, it seemed this young lady from the Gu Family had been taken advantage of by Su Changfeng.

Going to the supermarket to buy some groceries, lively and jumping Gu Qing'er was like a flea, seemingly unable to be still for even a second.

Though a bit annoying, Su Changfeng actually found being with Gu Qing'er quite relaxing; he didn't need to be overly considerate of Gu Qing'er's feelings, and could do things as ordinarily as he would with any friend.

After buying groceries, they went to Gu Qing'er's secret base; after a while, Gu Changsheng also arrived, which reassured Su Changfeng.

If Gu Changsheng hadn't come, it meant Gu Qing'er had tricked him.

It was still a bit early, no need to start cooking now, Gu Changsheng invited Su Changfeng to play chess.

However, chess is not Su Changfeng's strong suit, he prefers playing Go.

But since the old man wanted to play, a few games shouldn't be a problem.

When setting up the chess, Su Changfeng went to the bathroom and then installed a chess-playing app on his phone.

Then came Gu Changsheng's nightmare.

This guy had just said he couldn't play chess, and Gu Changsheng thought it was his chance to crush Su Changfeng, but the moment Su Changfeng played chess with him using the app, Gu Changsheng was utterly defeated, losing three games in a row, which made him somewhat unhappy.

Doesn't he know how to be modest?

You've already won, why not spare me some face, at the very least have some respect for elders and youths?

"Changfeng, now you've left me no dignity." Gu Changsheng said.

Seeing Gu Changsheng was a bit unhappy, Su Changfeng laughed and said, "Chess isn't my strong suit; I'm better at Go.

If we had Go here, I could've shown you a thing or two."

This kid really blooms under a little sunshine.

Gu Changsheng snorted coldly: "Alright, since you're so good at Go, I'll introduce you to my friend, who can be considered a national player.

I hope you don't get beaten to tears!"

Gu Changsheng's competitive nature is strong, as Su Changfeng had already noticed at the martial arts school before.

The reason Su Changfeng so mercilessly beat him, was to pave the way for a future meeting.

Now that Gu Changsheng mentioned it, the opportunity had arrived.

"Old Master Gu, if the opportunity arises, I'd be happy to see them." Su Changfeng laughed.

Gu Changsheng couldn't help but frown slightly, feeling a bit displeased with Su Changfeng's complacent expression, and said: "Wait a few days, until my birthday when I'll have my friend come over, then you can come and join us."

Su Changfeng was taken aback, as Gu Changsheng's birthday party is a significant event in Hai City, with various noble families in the business community all eagerly seeking to participate, but lacking the qualification.

Even the Tang Family tries every year but has never attended once.

Unexpectedly, Gu Changsheng personally invited him, which was beyond Su Changfeng's expectations.

"Alright, but as we agreed here, Master, if I do win, you can't get angry." Su Changfeng laughed.

Gu Changsheng gasped in anger, then looked at Su Canghai with dissatisfaction.

"We'll see then, hmph, hope you don't lose too miserably!" Gu Changsheng said.

Su Changfeng rubbed his nose and said nothing since he never feared things he excelled at.

Su Canghai had been exposed to Go since childhood, and he'd watched all the famous games worldwide, analyzing the strategies and grand views of all those masters many times.

Though initially, Huo Tian intended for Su Changfeng to improve his temperament and cultivation, when Su Canghai truly got into it, that's when Huo Tian recognized Su Changfeng's potential to be a national player.

According to Huo Tian, if given the opportunity to devote himself to Go for a lifetime, he would undoubtedly be an Unrivaled National Hero.

Such a comment from Huo Tian's mouth was not casually given.

The pity is that the Su Family was unaware of this hidden gem, even though Huo Tian found it particularly regrettable, it was beyond his control.

At 5 p.m., Su Changfeng began cooking.

Chapter 155 - 155 155 Showcasing Culinary Skills

155: Chapter 155: Showcasing Culinary Skills 155: Chapter 155: Showcasing Culinary Skills The grandfather and granddaughter duo sat in the living room, watching TV together—an idol drama.

Gu Changsheng listened to Gu Qing'er describe the complicated relationships between the characters with a smack of the lips.

"They've been in love for so long, and finally, they're actually biological siblings?"

"The male lead's lover is actually his father's illegitimate daughter?"

"And now this person has cancer?"

Gu Changsheng looked speechless, as if saying, what on earth is this idol drama?

Gu Qing'er was thoroughly enjoying herself, but most of her attention was already in the kitchen.

She quietly said to Gu Changsheng, "Grandpa, Su Changfeng is inside the Tang Family, could it be that he really did housework for three years?"

"We'll find out in a bit whether it's true or not, but judging by the aroma wafting over, it definitely seems that way." After speaking, Gu Changsheng took a deep sniff, just from the kitchen's pleasant scent, he felt that Su Changfeng's culinary skills were likely no worse than Gu Changsheng's.

"Grandpa, if I become one with him, then you won't need to run to a hotel for your birthday in the future." Gu Qing'er said with a smile.

Gu Changsheng looked at Gu Qing'er with a doting expression.

He understood the meaning behind her words and he indeed appreciated Su Changfeng.

He wouldn't mind if Su Changfeng divorced and had a fake marriage with Gu Qing'er afterward, but he must ensure Gu Qing'er never gets hurt.

“Qing’er, grandpa will not interfere with how you handle your feelings, but remember, you mustn’t get hurt.” Gu Changsheng said.

“But grandpa, your granddaughter won’t be easily hurt.”

The grandfather and granddaughter continued chatting like this while Su Changfeng busied himself in the kitchen.

Dinner was served right at six, five dishes and one soup.

Just looking at these dishes made one salivate uncontrollably.

Gu Qing’er was especially picky when eating.

Even those chefs from five-star hotels couldn’t satisfy her perfectly, but now, eating the food prepared by Su Changfeng, her face was full of admiration.

Even though she tried to find faults, she couldn’t find a single one.

Gu Changsheng was equally surprised.

Preparing a decent-looking meal was easy, but reaching Su Changfeng’s standard was somewhat challenging.

“Did you really cook for three years at the Tang Family?” Gu Changsheng asked.

“Most of the circulating rumors are true.” Su Changfeng laughed.

“The Tang Family must be blind not to see your talent?” Gu Changsheng shook his head.

If they had cultivated Su Changfeng properly, the Tang Family would surely undergo a qualitative change, but such a talented person like Su Changfeng was just cooking and doing chores at the Tang Family?

Su Changfeng smiled a bit but didn’t say anything.

After dinner, this time Gu Qing’er was in charge of clearing the table and washing the dishes and chopsticks.

Su Changfeng and Gu Changsheng chatted about martial arts-related topics and asked about Su Changfeng’s lineage, but Su Changfeng didn’t say much, as it was related to his true identity.

When Su Changfeng left Gu Qing’er’s home, it was already close to nine o’clock.

Upon returning to the mansion, Tang Qiulu was unexpectedly sitting in the living room.

Just as Su Changfeng was about to say something, Tang Qiulu suddenly stood up and said, “We need to visit grandma tomorrow.”

After saying this, Tang Qiulu returned to the bedroom.

She must have been waiting for Su Changfeng, just to inform him of this.

However, tomorrow isn’t a family day, and the group hasn’t had any special matters recently.

Based on past experiences, it’s likely grandma intends to participate in Gu Changsheng’s grand birthday celebration this year, hence everyone from the Tang Family must come together to discuss it.

The Tang Family currently handles the West District project, equivalent to having a chance to enter the first-class family tier.

If they can establish good relations with the Gu Family, this chance will increase significantly.

The next day, after everyone gathered at the Tang Family Mansion, grandma indeed brought it up, but the Tang Family members didn’t feel hopeful since they hadn’t entered the top tier for years.

Although there have been some changes, it still wasn’t certain that the Gu Family would notice them.

The Gu Family is virtually the highest in Hai City, and their status is unmatched.

Invitations to Gu Changsheng’s birthday party include only top-class families in Hai City.

Although some in the Tang Family felt arrogant, they know their place compared to this giant.

“Now, our Tang Family has achieved some things, maybe it won’t be like before.

Donglin, Qiulu, find time to visit the Gu Family.” First, send gifts.

If the Gu Family accepts them, it means the Tang Family can attend the birthday celebration.

If not, it remains as before, no invitation.

Of course, grandma definitely wouldn’t go herself.

Hence, it’s bound to be embarrassing, and she must uphold the Tang Family’s dignity.

Tang Xiangdong was unwilling upon hearing this, because the security at the mansion were all snobbish, and he didn't want to be looked down on.

However, since grandma spoke, he didn't dare refuse directly.

"Grandma, I've been quite busy with the group lately." Tang Xiangdong subtly refused.

"Grandma, let Tang Qiulu and Su Changfeng go.

After all, such a humiliating task won't affect Su Changfeng much.

It's something he's already used to." Tang Siwen hurriedly spoke, afraid grandma might assign it to her.

Visiting the Gu Family, they would take their sincerity.

The higher the status of the person going within the Tang Family, the more it reflects their sincerity.

Su Changfeng evidently lacked such qualifications, and grandma didn't want to send him either.

Su Changfeng was notorious in Hai City as a coward; if the Gu Family knew the Tang Family sent him, they definitely wouldn't invite them.

"Tang Siwen, do you intend for the Tang Family to miss the birthday celebration?" Grandma said coldly.

Upon hearing this, the originally smug Tang Siwen felt as if doused with cold water, quickly lowered her head: "Grandma, I wouldn't dare."

"Qiulu, why don't you go to the Gu Family yourself?

Anyway, it's been three years of embarrassment, a bit more won't matter, right?" Tang Xiangdong said.

After many years, the Tang Family had never attended a single birthday party, and Tang Xiangdong had been turned away numerous times.

He indeed didn't plan to go this time either, knowing it'd be a disgrace, but still had to go despite that.

Why subject himself to discomfort?

"I can go, but I can't guarantee I'll accomplish the task." Tang Qiulu said.

Chapter 156 - 156 156 Otherwise let me go

156: Chapter 156: Otherwise, let me go.

156: Chapter 156: Otherwise, let me go.

“No, no, you are in charge of the West District project, you must secure the opportunity for us.” Tang Xiangdong knew how difficult this was, and he also said it would be embarrassing, but when Tang Qiulu agreed, he intended to make her promise to succeed?

“Tang Xiangdong, what do you mean by that?” Tang Qiulu frowned.

“Having your way every month, you’re handling so many troubles effortlessly recently.

With so many issues resolved, can’t you even secure a spot at the birthday banquet?” Tang Xiangdong replied with a smile.

If this estimation was used for something else, it might gain support from those in the Tang Family and the old lady.

However, attending Gu Changsheng’s grand birthday was notably difficult, and everyone was well aware of this, hence, nobody spoke up for Tang Xiangdong.

“Qiulu, do your best.” The old lady said.

At this point, Su Changfeng stood up and said, “Otherwise, I’ll go, Grandma.”

The words from Su Changfeng made everyone present burst into laughter.

Did Su Changfeng really not know his own weight?

If he went to the Gu Family, they might just kick him out straight away, right?

“Su Changfeng, did you get your head caught in a door?

You’re going for the Tang Family?

The Gu Family would certainly be furious if they found out!”

“Yes, you’re not even part of the Tang Family.

If the Gu Family finds out about this, they definitely won’t let the Tang Family attend Old Master Gu’s birthday.”

“Do you even know who you are?

Are you stupid?

Do you really think you can just casually go to the Gu Family?”

Tang Xiangdong stood up with a cold sneer and said, “Su Changfeng, you’ve gotten quite arrogant lately, wanting to interfere in Tang Family matters.

Do you also have your eyes on the chairman’s position?”

These baffling words were actually Tang Xiangdong subtly criticizing the old lady, quite a bold move.

“Just like everyone said, I don’t belong to the Tang Family, but I’ve been invited, not representing the Tang Family.

However, I’m willing to fight for the Tang Family’s participation.” Su Changfeng said.

“Pfft...” Tang Siwen clutched her stomach, laughing heartily, and said, “Su Changfeng, you’re talking as if you’ve already been invited yourself, aren’t you afraid of your lies being exposed by boasting so grandly?”

“I have indeed been invited, and it was Gu Changsheng who personally asked me to go.” Su Changfeng said.

“Haha~!”

“Are you trying to kill me with laughter, Su Changfeng, haha~!”

“I’m laughing so hard it hurts, this coward talks big yet look at who he is, claiming Gu Changsheng personally asked him to go.”

“Su Changfeng, who do you think you are?

A business tycoon or a political giant, that even Gu Changsheng would personally invite you?

Have some sense while boasting!”

Amidst the sneering and mocking, Su Changfeng remained calm and composed, knowing full well whether he was boasting or not.

At this time, Tang Qiulu frowned and snuck a glance at Su Changfeng.

She had a feeling that Su Changfeng wasn’t lying, because he never mentioned things he couldn’t accomplish or achieve.

Also, Gu Qing'er just gifted him a car worth millions yesterday, indicating he indeed had some ties with the Gu Family.

It would make sense for Gu Changsheng to ask him to attend the birthday banquet.

But Tang Qiulu couldn't understand how Su Changfeng suddenly got close to the Gu Family, and apparently in a not-so-ordinary way.

Given Gu Changsheng's birthday banquet, the attendees were mainly top-tier noble families and figures in Hai City.

Even for them, they usually just received an invitation from the Gu Family, without Gu Changsheng himself making an appearance.

Considering the past relationship, Tang Qiulu should speak up for Su Changfeng now.

However, she chose to remain silent this time, just quietly listening to the Tang Family's relatives mock Su Changfeng.

"Su Changfeng, we're discussing serious matters here, not for you to joke around!" the old lady coldly reproached.

"Grandma, you think I'm joking, but everything I'm saying is true." Su Changfeng said calmly.

"You're a fool, I really can't stand it.

Just now you claimed Gu Changsheng personally invited you, and why is that?" Tang Xiangdong impatiently looked at Su Changfeng and asked.

"Maybe he appreciates me more." Su Changfeng said.

"You?

Does he admire you for being a coward?

You sure are something special, boasting without even a rehearsed script!

Truly a coward." Tang Xiangdong rubbed his temples.

Why did the Tang Family allow such a fool to marry in?

Luckily, this was said here, otherwise, if others knew, the entire Tang Family would become a laughingstock in Hai City once more.

"Su Changfeng, just shut up, even hearing your voice is sickening.

Are you pleased making everyone disgusted with your status?" a face full of contempt looked at Su Changfeng.

"Are you sure you don't need my help, Grandma?" Su Changfeng asked, directly ignoring Tang Xiangdong and Tang Siwen.

The old lady sneered contemptuously, "Just keep that goodwill to yourself, the Tang Family doesn't need your help, you coward."

Su Changfeng spoke no more, immediately sitting down, watching Tang Qiulu out of the corner of his eye, sighing internally.

If you would say a word for me, maybe these people wouldn't maintain this attitude?

Having persisted for three years, why did it suddenly vanish?

Su Changfeng didn't understand, and in fact, Tang Qiulu didn't either.

She just couldn't lower her head to Su Changfeng, especially after Gu Qing'er gave him a car, making her even more unwilling to say anything nice for Su Changfeng.

They say a girl's IQ in love becomes zero, but when she's jealous, it directly hits negative.

Of course, in fact, there was also Tang Qiulu's prideful stubbornness, as she was used to Su Changfeng's compromise and patience for three years.

Are you not going to explain?

Do you really not plan to explain?

"Qiulu, you represent the Tang Family to the Gu Family this time, everything is prepared." The old lady decided directly.

At this moment, a servant entered the living room, saying to the old lady, "Someone is outside saying they are from the Gu Family."

The old lady stood up immediately, Gu Family?

The Gu Family, why would they suddenly come to the Tang Family?

Could it be...

"Quick, invite them in." The old lady said excitedly.

Soon, a middle-aged man entered the living room, holding something resembling an invitation card in his hand.

The Tang Family members all wore expressions of disbelief upon seeing it.

The Gu Family sending over an invitation?

The Tang Family can actually attend Gu Changsheng's birthday banquet now, which means the Gu Family can no longer ignore the Tang Family!

Chapter 157 - 157 157 Invitation

157: Chapter 157: Invitation?

157: Chapter 157: Invitation?

"This is the invitation to Old Master Gu's birthday banquet, specifically instructed to be delivered to the Tang Family.

Who will accept it?" The middle-aged man wasn't overly humble, rather somewhat arrogant.

But his attitude seemed normal to all the Tang Family members because he was, after all, a person from the Gu Family.

Tang Xiangdong excitedly walked toward the middle-aged man, and the old lady quickly reprimanded, "Donglin, what are you doing?"

Tang Xiangdong stood in place, and the old lady wobbled to the man, took the invitation, and said, "Please thank Old Master Gu for me, thank him for giving the Tang Family this opportunity."

The man's eyes held a bit of disdain.

Nearly everyone who received the invitation reacted like the old lady.

Truly a small noble family.

"Don't forget to carefully read the requirements on the invitation." After saying this, he walked out of the Tang Family.

The old lady's hand holding the invitation trembled endlessly.

Even after the middle-aged man left, she still hadn't calmed down.

Recalling the past, no matter how hard the Tang Family tried, they couldn't participate in Gu Changsheng's birthday banquet.

But now, the Gu Family unexpectedly delivered the invitation themselves.

It was a huge leap for the Tang Family.

“The Tang Family can finally make a name for themselves, finally make a name!” the old lady shouted.

“Grandma, hurry and look at the requirements on the invitation.” Tang Xiangdong was equally excited.

He was a second-tier playboy in Hai City.

When he went out to have fun, upon meeting first-tier noble family members, he had to bow and scrape; even if he was in the private room first, he’d have to leave immediately if the first-tier noblemen asked him to.

But now, Tang Xiangdong saw a chance to become a first-tier noble himself.

Henceforth, when he went out to have fun, he wouldn’t have to swallow his pride!

“Yes, yes, yes.” The old lady said excitedly, as she opened the invitation.

The invitation indicated the number of attendees and the seating arrangement assigned by the Gu Family for the Tang Family.

“10 attendees.

It seems the Gu Family is giving our Tang Family considerable face this time.” When Tang Xiangdong saw what was written on the invitation, he exclaimed excitedly.

This meant the Tang Family would have their own table, a privilege not just anyone could have.

“It’s possible, it’s possible.” The old lady’s face was all wrinkled from smiling, saying, “Now that the Gu Family pays us such attention, the day when our Tang Family steps into the ranks of first-class families is coming.”

“Grandma, the Gu Family has no choice but to take our Tang Family seriously.

We have the West District project at hand, and the future new district development lies in our hands.

The Gu Family can’t underestimate us, can they?” Tang Xiangdong said proudly.

“Exactly, Grandma, we should not underestimate ourselves.

It’s nothing for the Gu Family to pay attention to us; soon we can certainly hold our own against the entire Gu Family!

They are now afraid and hence give our Tang Family such face.” Tang Siwen said with a smile.

The old lady thought about it, and indeed, there was such a possibility.

However, she had never thought that the Tang Family would see such a day.

Immersed in their fantasies, the Tang Family had no clue why the invitation was delivered.

West District project?

The Tang Family’s status?

The Gu Family couldn’t care less.

Even though the West District project is indeed a good opportunity and the Tang Family could make a lot of money, if Gu Changsheng gave face to the Tang Family just for this reason, could the Gu Family still be considered the pinnacle of Hai City?

The reason the invitation was delivered was all because of Su Canghai.

If it weren’t for Gu Changsheng considering Su Changfeng, the Tang Family would still be left out!

“Grandma, since only 10 can attend, you’ll have to consider carefully who to take.” Tang Xiangdong said, though he wasn’t worried because he was certainly among the 10.

As for the other members of the Tang Family, they anxiously awaited the chance to go with the old lady.

“Hmm, I’ll think it over and tell everyone in a few days.” The old lady couldn’t take this lightly, so she decided to think it over more carefully.

At this moment, Tang Xiangdong looked at Su Changfeng and said, “Although you haven’t decided who to take, you must know who shouldn’t go, right, Grandma?

Su Changfeng isn’t part of the Tang Family, so he’s definitely not qualified.”

“Him?” The old lady sneered and directly replied, “Neither concealed nor certain, he’s not worthy.

How could he attend Gu Changsheng’s birthday banquet?”

“But, he is someone Gu Changsheng invited, even if he’s not going with the Tang Family, he will likely be there.

Su Changfeng, I look forward to seeing you that day.” Tang Xiangdong taunted Su Changfeng.

Seeing Tang Xiangdong’s smug expression, Su Changfeng smiled lightly and replied, “We will definitely meet, don’t be too surprised when we do.”

“It’s come to this, and you’re still boasting.

Do you have to wait to be embarrassed by me on that day to give up?

Fine, if you do come, I’ll kneel and bark like a dog at the banquet!” Tang Xiangdong said sternly.

Su Changfeng couldn’t help but laugh.

He had never seen someone as foolish as Tang Xiangdong.

Why court death?

“Alright, if I don’t go, whenever I see you under any circumstance, I’ll kneel.” Su Changfeng said calmly.

Seeing Su Changfeng’s calm demeanor, Tang Xiangdong felt a bit unsure.

Could this guy really attend?

That was impossible!

Unless the sun rose in the west, Gu Changsheng would never invite him.

He’s just a coward!

Leaving the Tang Family Mansion and returning to Xianwu Mountain, but at the villa district’s gate, Su Changfeng and his family were stopped by security.

“What’s going on?

What’s happening?

Do these people not know we’re residents of the Mountain Villa?” Sun Mei cursed in the car.

The vehicle had been registered, even if the guards were new, they should recognize them.

The property management wouldn't make such a basic mistake.

Su Changfeng got out of the car, puzzled, looked into the security booth, and saw Gu Qing'er was inside!

Presumably, the words Sun Mei said yesterday had already reached the Gu family's lady, and now Sun Mei was in trouble.

Without saying anything, Su Changfeng walked up to Xianwu Mountain.

Under Gu Qing'er's order, the guards forced open the car door and dragged Tang Zhenhua and Sun Mei out of the car.

"What are you doing?

Don't you know we're residents of the Mountain Villa?" Sun Mei shouted, struggling.

Tang Qiulu felt something was wrong, got out of the car, and asked the security, "What's going on?"

Gu Qing'er emerged from the security booth, walked up to Sun Mei, and slapped her directly across the face.

Chapter 158 - 158 158 Gu Qing'er Causes Trouble

158: Chapter 158: Gu Qing'er Causes Trouble 158: Chapter 158: Gu Qing'er Causes Trouble "Where do you come from, you dead girl?

How dare you slap me!" Sun Mei exploded in an instant, reaching out to retaliate, but the security guard reacted quickly and immediately stopped her.

"Yesterday, was it you who said I was some kind of indecent woman?" Gu Qing'er said calmly.

Hearing this, Tang Qiulu understood what was happening.

This girl is the Gu family's cherished daughter, Gu Qing'er!

Sun Mei also instantly put away her shrewish demeanor, standing there not daring to say a word.

“My father and grandfather still don’t know about this matter, otherwise, it wouldn’t just be a slap for you now!” Gu Qing’er said.

Sun Mei was so scared that she was trembling all over, quickly apologizing, “I’m really sorry.

I didn’t know it was you at that time, which is why I spoke recklessly.”

“You knew you were speaking recklessly?” Gu Qing’er is only 18 years old this year, but she was born into a big family, and her aura is not something ordinary people could compare to.

Even Tang Qiulu felt particularly oppressed in her presence.

After about ten minutes of silence, Sun Mei’s back was already drenched in cold sweat.

Tang Qiulu couldn’t stand the oppression any longer and said, “How do you plan to resolve this?”

“How about you divorce Su Changfeng?” Gu Qing’er said.

“What do you mean by that?” Tang Qiulu frowned.

She came here to trouble Sun Mei, so why did Su Changfeng suddenly come up?

“Your Tang Family thinks he is a coward, so what’s the point of keeping him around?” Gu Qing’er laughed.

Gu Qing’er is only 18 years old as well.

Tang Qiulu didn’t think she was trying to steal Su Changfeng, maybe she just wanted revenge?

Is that why she suggested divorcing Su Changfeng to make them a laughingstock in Hai City?

But what good would that do her?

Besides, she just gave Su Changfeng a Lamborghini yesterday.

“I’m just saying, don’t take it seriously, but yesterday’s incident can’t be solved with just a slap.” Gu Qing’er kept it simple.

If Tang Qiulu divorced Su Changfeng, she’d have a chance, but she feared Tang Qiulu would tell him, and he might be unhappy with her, so she immediately said she was just joking.

To be honest, Gu Qing'er really cares about how Su Changfeng views her, which is why she is so cautious.

Otherwise, as the eldest daughter of the Gu Family, would she need to be so careful?

"Miss Gu, why don't you give me two slaps?

I hope Miss Gu can be lenient this time." Sun Mei was unusually submissive in front of the Gu Family.

Gu Qing'er glanced at Tang Zhenhua and said, "This woman is your wife, meaning you've failed in discipline, so you should do it.

But if you go too easy, I'll have to let the security guards do it."

Between Tang Zhenhua and the security guards?

Sun Mei would surely choose Tang Zhenhua.

If a strong security guard struck her, it might knock her out!

"Hit hard." Sun Mei gritted her teeth, glaring at Tang Zhenhua.

Tang Zhenhua is a timid person, usually speaking softly to Sun Mei, never daring to lift a hand against her, finding it hard to bring himself to do it.

But if he didn't, letting the security guards do it would be worse!

"Listen, use enough strength to satisfy me; then she won't have to suffer so much." Gu Qing'er reminded Tang Zhenhua.

Sun Mei closed her eyes, willing for the first time to let Tang Zhenhua hit her, "Tang Zhenhua, if I get hit again because of you, you're dead!"

Tang Zhenhua gritted his teeth.

After being married for half a lifetime, if he said he hadn't felt any resentment, that would be a lie.

Sun Mei had oppressed him for so long, leaving him without a shred of dignity, though the pent-up anger only worsened.

Slap~!

A particularly loud sound was heard, and Sun Mei spun around before falling to the ground.

This slap contained all of Tang Zhenhua's accumulated grievances over the years.

Extraordinarily satisfying!

Too satisfying to describe with words.

Tang Zhenhua felt an instant relief in his heart.

Sun Mei was dizzy from the slap and felt a burning pain on her face, which started to swell after a while.

"Good, I'm satisfied.

Let it go this time." Gu Qing'er clapped her hands and left.

After regaining her composure, Sun Mei stood up and kicked Tang Zhenhua a few times, cursing, "Tang Zhenhua, did you take this as a chance to get back at me deliberately?"

"If I hadn't done it, would Gu Qing'er have spared you?" Seeing Sun Mei's fierce look, Tang Zhenhua crumbled again.

Tang Qiulu pulled the enraged Sun Mei and said, "Mom, you can't blame Dad for this.

If he didn't hit hard enough and let the security guards do it, how do you think you'd be doing right now?"

Sun Mei could understand, but she couldn't accept Tang Zhenhua hitting her so hard, so she said harshly, "From now on, go sleep in the living room!"

Tang Zhenhua couldn't help but smile bitterly.

Once Sun Mei became unreasonable, he had no choice but to accept his fate.

"Tang Qiulu, that guy Su Changfeng just left without wanting to help me at all.

Do you think he still cares about me?!" Sun Mei said.

Tang Qiulu knew Su Changfeng left on purpose, but yesterday's incident was caused by Sun Mei's reckless talk, so how could she blame him?

"Mom, be careful what you say from now on, or next time it won't just be a slap," Tang Qiulu cautioned.

In front of the villa, Su Changfeng didn't rush back in but stayed in the garden.

He realized that him leaving just now might cool his relationship with Tang Qiulu, but after Sun Mei had made him suffer for three years, he couldn't stand it anymore.

Even for the sake of Tang Qiulu, he couldn't keep enduring; it should end now.

More importantly, if he didn't show some backbone, he and Tang Qiulu would surely split, as Sun Mei wouldn't give up on ruining their relationship.

Sometimes Su Changfeng thought Ji Hong indeed had a point.

However, he has his own plan in place, so now he couldn't reveal his strength yet.

After parking, Tang Qiulu saw Su Changfeng in the garden, momentarily pausing, then walked into the villa.

Su Changfeng sighed helplessly, walking up the mountain path to the top of Xianwu Mountain.

"I once promised to show you what Beijing looks like, and I will keep this promise."

Chapter 159 - 159 159 Proud Tang Xiangdong

159: Chapter 159 Proud Tang Xiangdong 159: Chapter 159 Proud Tang Xiangdong Su Changfeng sat on a large rock at the top of the mountain, his eyes a bit dazed.

After leaving the Su Family, his goal was particularly clear.

Su Changfeng wanted to make those who thought he was a waste and looked down on him regret it.

Furthermore, he wanted to take Tang Qiulu to enjoy the most beautiful scenery in the world.

Su Family!

Are you ready now to feel regret for your actions and thoughts?

At the top of the mountain at night, the mist was hazy.

Su Changfeng sat the entire night, covered in dewdrops, until the sky gradually turned whitish before he stood up.

Stretching his body, crackling sounds emanated from it.

Not long after Su Changfeng went down, Tang Qiulu stood at the spot where Su Changfeng had sat all night, looking north with a face full of longing.

Five days later, it was a big day for the entire Hai City, one could say it was an event for the entire upper class, because today was the birthday of the Gu Family's elder, Gu Changsheng.

The Golden City Hotel, the most luxurious five-star hotel in Hai City, had stopped accepting guests a week ago because they were preparing for Gu Changsheng's birthday banquet.

Today, once the invited guests for the banquet were handled, unrelated people could not appear here.

Even the hotel staff were meticulously selected to work today, proving the huge influence of this event in Hai City.

Today, the parking lot of the Golden City Hotel was filled with luxury cars driving in.

All the people getting out of the cars outside the hotel were either big shots from Hai City's official or business circles.

The ten members of the Tang Family could be considered a major force at this birthday banquet.

Tang Xiangdong and Tang Siwen were among them.

Tang Qiulu, who was responsible for the West District project, would definitely come.

Besides Grandma Tang, the other six included Tang Zhenbang and a few others, all core members of the Tang Family.

After Grandma Tang handed over the invitation card, a waiter led them to their exclusive Tang Family seat, not far from the main seat, which made Grandma Tang very excited.

The seating arrangement and the seat location of each participant at the banquet all had meanings.

The closer to the main seat in the venue, the more the Gu Family valued them.

The Tang Family, who previously couldn't even enter, now had an entire table, and their seat wasn't far from the main one.

This change seemed like the Tang Family had crossed a high mountain.

"Where is Su Changfeng?

Didn’t he say Gu Changsheng personally invited him?

Why hasn’t he been seen yet?” Tang Xiangdong observed the people around him.

Many young heirs of first-class families had come, but now he was most concerned with Su Changfeng, not them.

“Donglin, mind your words.

How can you call the elder by his full name?” said Grandma Tang coldly.

Tang Xiangdong was startled, quickly covering his mouth and whispering, “Sorry, Grandma, I will pay attention to my words later.”

“Donglin, how can you believe the words of that guy, Su Changfeng?

Look around, all of them are either rich or noble.

How could Su Changfeng, a mere coward, possibly come here?” Tang Siwen said disdainfully.

“Qiulu, Su Changfeng is your husband.

Before you left today, didn’t you tell him?

Is this guy planning to fool us by saying he got the time wrong?” Tang Siwen smiled at Tang Qiulu.

When Tang Qiulu got up this morning, Su Changfeng was still asleep, so Tang Qiulu couldn’t be sure if he would come.

“Whether he comes or not has nothing to do with me,” Tang Qiulu said coldly.

“Are you so eager to distance yourself from him?

Can’t believe you would be afraid of embarrassment?

It’s been three years, and you’re still not used to it?” Tang Xiangdong joked.

“Donglin, Su Changfeng said that if he doesn’t come, as soon as he sees you, no matter the occasion, he will kneel.

Don’t forget that,” Tang Siwen reminded Tang Xiangdong.

“I won’t forget a word from that coward Su Changfeng.

I will meet him every day until he kneels enough to satisfy me.

Maybe when he starts to pity him, I might let him go," Su Haocao said gleefully.

Having been hit by Su Changfeng twice before, he finally had a chance for revenge and was already planning to find Su Changfeng after the banquet and make him kneel before him.

"Tell me, is Su Changfeng a dog?"

"Maybe, if not, why would he kneel whenever he sees people?"

"However, a dog wags its tail when it meets people.

Donglin, why don't you make Su Changfeng wag his tail then?"

The other Tang Family members joined in, mocking together.

Tang Xiangdong was smug, pretending to say, "I don't think it's necessary, having such a useless dog would be shameful for me as a master."

"That's true."

With lots of people entering the venue, Su Changfeng still hadn't shown up, increasing Tang Xiangdong's confidence about the matter.

In the presidential suite on the top floor of the hotel.

Su Changfeng and Gu Changsheng had played a few more games of Go.

Su Changfeng won again, making the elder doubt life, and Su Changfeng didn't take him seriously, playing on his phone while playing the game.

"Hasn't your friend arrived yet, elder?" Su Changfeng asked with a smile.

Gu Changsheng, blowing his beard and glaring, immediately took out his phone and threatened Su Changfeng, "Alright, you wait and see, if I don't temper your arrogance this time, then I'll call you master next time!"

Su Changfeng couldn't help but laugh, "Old man, you're too old to call me master, isn't that inappropriate?

But if you really want to, I have no objection."

"Old guy, aren't you coming?

They are about to become my master!

And you're still dawdling?" Tian Changsheng said viciously after dialing the phone.

The person on the other side must have had a decent relationship with the elder, otherwise, Gu Changsheng wouldn't have spoken like that.

"I'm here, what's the rush?" At this moment, an elderly man with a head full of white hair came in from outside, followed by a young man and a young woman.

The old man's name was Liu Chen, the president of the Go Association here in Hai City.

The two young people were Liu Chen's disciples, the male named Li Wen, and the female named Zhao Wen.

When Su Changfeng saw Liu Chen, he was a bit surprised.

Liu Chen was well-known in the field of Go in Hai City and was a highly respected figure.

The Go school he founded was famous even in Ajing City.

Many noble families would send their children to this school, and apart from learning Go, they mostly wanted to build a connection with this elderly man.

Chapter 160 - 160 160 Won

160: Chapter 160: Won 160: Chapter 160: Won The high-ranking official in the city bureau is one of Liu Chen's disciples.

Whenever they meet, this official will definitely bow and call him teacher.

With this connection, that school doesn't need to worry about not attracting people.

Su Changfeng hadn't anticipated that Liu Chen had such a good relationship with Gu Changsheng.

"You old geezer, where have you been?

You nearly worried me to death." Gu Changsheng approached Liu Chen impatiently, his face full of displeasure.

Liu Chen laughed and said, "What's the rush?

We're both halfway through the journey of life, take it easy."

“Bah, what nonsense are you talking about!” Gu Changsheng cursed.

Seeing the way they talked, Su Changfeng was a bit taken aback.

Liu Chen was someone even the city’s top officials would treat with particular respect, yet with Gu Changsheng, he wouldn’t retort even if scolded; instead, he would smile.

Apparently, their relationship wasn’t always this good.

It was only in their later years that they reconciled, feeling mutual appreciation.

As a result, their conversation was bound to be somewhat crude.

“Are you the one who pushed my old buddy here?” Liu Chen walked in front of Su Changfeng and said with a smile.

Su Changfeng quickly stood up, as he couldn’t show any laxity towards such an important person.

As a younger person, he couldn’t afford to be arrogant.

“Grandpa Liu, I didn’t expect the friend Old Master Gu mentioned would be you, sir,” Su Changfeng said.

“I heard that old fellow say you not only play chess well but are also good at Go?” Liu Chen couldn’t help but scrutinize Su Changfeng.

He was just a fairly ordinary young man, and Liu Chen hadn’t seen him participate in any tournament within the Go scene in Hai City.

It was probably Gu Changsheng boasting about him.

“How dare I show off my skills in front of you?

I’ve merely learned a few techniques,” Su Changfeng humbly said.

“Come on then, if I don’t beat you today, that old man won’t let us go,” Liu Chen said, sitting opposite Su Changfeng.

Su Changfeng glanced at the time; the birthday feast was about to start, and once Go fell into a stalemate, it could easily last several hours.

“Grandpa Liu, the feast will start soon.

Should we have a match after the meal?” Su Changfeng suggested.

Liu Chen checked the time and replied, “There’s still about 20 minutes before the meal starts, which is enough.”

At this point, Li Wen, standing behind Liu Chen, looked at Su Changfeng disdainfully and said, “Lasting 20 minutes against my teacher is already quite an achievement.

Do you really think you can win?”

Liu Chen gently scolded, “Li Wen, how have I taught you?

You can’t be too arrogant in dealing with people.”

Su Changfeng could tell that although Liu Chen was reprimanding Li Wen, he didn’t hide his own pride.

Still, given Liu Chen’s current status, his pride seemed quite normal.

“In that case, I’ll seek your guidance then,” Su Changfeng said, sitting down.

Liu Chen chose the white pieces, which was his habit; he wouldn’t change regardless of his opponent.

Coincidentally, Su Changfeng liked the black pieces, so there was no conflict.

When Su Changfeng picked up a piece, the atmosphere suddenly changed.

Gu Changsheng also perceived a master’s aura emanating from Su Changfeng.

This guy, once he got serious, he really became a different person.

However, Liu Chen merely smiled.

Young people like to put on airs; the students at his school also learned how to project an aura, but it was all empty.

Without any real skill, they’d sooner or later be exposed.

“I’m hungry, teacher,” Zhao Wen said coyly, implying that Liu Chen should win quickly against Su Changfeng.

“Alright, alright, I’ll wrap it up soon and then you can enjoy your food,” Liu Chen smiled.

Playing Go is like a battle on the field, a warning Huo Tian gave Su Changfeng when he first learned Go.

Therefore, even with the venerable Liu Chen sitting across from him, Su Changfeng wasn't planning to hold back.

Initially, Liu Chen moved swiftly, as he didn't consider Su Changfeng worthy.

He barely displayed his skills, until halfway through the game when Liu Chen suddenly realized that this young man was no simple character.

Liu Chen, who had been sitting casually, now sat upright, a serious expression appearing between his brows.

Seeing Liu Chen like this, Li Wen and Zhao Wen were a bit surprised.

It was the first time their teacher played so seriously against someone young like this.

Su Changfeng was even able to make their master react this way!

The two exchanged glances, seeing disbelief in each other's eyes.

Though Gu Changsheng wasn't skilled at Go, he knew a bit about it.

At this point in the game, Su Changfeng held a considerable advantage, completely pressing Liu Chen.

Looking at Su Changfeng's intense eyes, he seemed like a general in battle, fully immersed.

Gu Changsheng couldn't reconcile this image with the coward from the Tang Family.

"I underestimated you, but overcoming a disadvantage at this stage isn't hard given the old man's skills.

Be ready," Liu Chen said with confidence.

Su Changfeng was absorbed in the board and didn't respond, recalling in his mind the famous games he had studied repeatedly.

Su Changfeng's attitude greatly annoyed Li Wen, who said with displeasure, "Why are you putting on such airs?

Do you really think you're some master?

It's my teacher letting you on purpose!"

Zhao Wen blinked at Su Changfeng, not looking down on him but was rather amazed.

To make their teacher take someone seriously, regardless of the eventual outcome, that in itself was an honor.

In Hai City, in the realm of Go, Liu Chen had never met a rival.

Liu Chen had even achieved outstanding results in national competitions.

“Ahem, don’t talk when watching a game, don’t disturb them,” Gu Changsheng coughed lightly, reminding Li Wen.

Though Gu Changsheng had invited Liu Chen aiming to curb Su Changfeng’s arrogance, at this moment, he suddenly wanted to see just how skilled Su Changfeng was, secretly hoping he might win today’s match.

As the game progressed, the situation became increasingly tense.

Even with Liu Chen resolved to turn the situation around, although not letting his disadvantage grow, he showed no sign of reclaiming the upper hand.

In the final moments, Su Changfeng’s serious expression suddenly became relaxed.

Seeing this change, Gu Changsheng raised an eyebrow.

Could it be that Su Changfeng was about to win?

“Grandpa Liu, forgive my impoliteness,” Su Changfeng placed the final black piece.

Instantly, the white pieces were lifeless and he had won.
