The City’s Strongest Son-in-law

Chapter 161 - 161 161 I'm Sure to Win

161: Chapter 161 I’m Sure to Win 161: Chapter 161 I’m Sure to Win “This...” Li Wen looked at the fallen white pieces in disbelief.

He lost!

Liu Chen actually lost?

And, he lost to this person.

Zhao Wen stared straight at Su Changfeng, as if she wanted to strip him bare.

This person actually defeated her master, how incredible!

And so handsome, he’s practically the perfect male idol in her dreams.

Liu Chen was stunned for a long time, looking at the chess game in front of him.

Although he indeed underestimated his opponent at first, from the middle of the game, he tried his best to turn the situation around.

However, under the pressure of Su Changfeng’s moves, he had no chance and ended up losing.

Liu Chen admitted that Su Changfeng was someone who could compel him to use his full strength from the beginning, and even if he hadn’t underestimated him at first, he wasn’t sure he could win.

“It’s just that my master let you win at the beginning, otherwise you wouldn’t have been able to win at all!” Li Wen was displeased with Su Changfeng winning, believing that if it weren’t for Liu Chen’s initial negligence, the unfavorable situation wouldn’t have occurred.

Even if Su Changfeng won, it was merely due to luck.

“Then let’s have another game, this time don’t think my master was careless.” Zhao Wen, wanting to stir up trouble, planned to see if Su Changfeng met her ideal male idol standards.

“Well...

It’s already been a few hours since the start of the birthday feast, and many people are waiting for Old Master Gu to come out.

Why not wait until next time?” Su Changfeng looked at the time, feeling embarrassed as he was too focused just now and hadn’t noticed the time.

“Yes, yes, it’s the old man’s birthday feast.

If I don’t go out, those people would have waited impatiently!” Gu Changsheng laughed.

The usually silent Liu Chen spoke calmly at this moment: “After dinner, let’s have a proper game.”

Liu Chen didn’t think he would lose, because he’s better than many at Go.

He couldn’t possibly lose to this guy!

Su Changfeng wouldn’t disagree with such a request, or else it would be a bit disrespectful to Liu Chen.

But whether he would win or lose then, that’s another story.

“Grandpa Liu, let’s first recharge and then go again.” Su Changfeng laughed.

Liu Chen, leading two disciples, was the first to leave the room.

Gu Changsheng didn’t mind that he’s several decades older than Su Changfeng, directly putting his arm around Su Changfeng’s shoulder: “You did well, once you got serious, even Liu Chen lost to you.

But then, he didn’t play seriously.

How confident are you about winning the game this afternoon?”

“I seem to remember someone having to become an apprentice, old man.” Su Changfeng said with a smile.

Gu Changsheng was stunned for a moment.

Did this kid really remember that?

If he were to call him master at his age and it became known, he would lose face.

Besides, he is the current Family Head of the Gu Family.

Even though he no longer handles family business, he is still the leader.

Wouldn't be quite appropriate to recognize Su Changfeng as a master, right?

"Like someone of your stature, wouldn't you keep your word, old man?" Su Changfeng's words directly shut Gu Changsheng up, making him embarrassed to refute.

Gu Changsheng chuckled awkwardly and said: "An old man's words, how could they not be kept?

But since Liu Chen didn't play seriously, your win doesn't count.

I could call you master, but only if you win against Liu Chen this afternoon."

This old man is trying to escape, huh?

But Gu Changsheng as a disciple, Su Changfeng was determined to have!

"Didn't you just ask how confident I was about winning?" Su Changfeng said.

"Yes, how confident?" Gu Changsheng asked curiously.

"I'm sure to win!" Su Changfeng said with great confidence, leaving Gu Changsheng stunned.

He watched as Su Changfeng's figure left the room, only then did Gu Changsheng snap out of it and hurriedly followed.

"You there, don't boast.

If you lose this afternoon, you'll be embarrassed!"

At the birthday feast, it's almost 2 o'clock now, but Gu Changsheng still hasn't appeared.

This left those attending a bit puzzled.

Surely, many inwardly resented it a lot, but had to keep it to themselves since it is Gu Changsheng's birthday feast.

Even if he's late, nobody dares say anything.

"Why hasn't Old Master Gu shown up yet?

The auspicious hour has already passed, could something have happened?" Tang Zhenbang glanced around and said.

With no movement, why is the Gu Family not worried?

“Regardless of whether Gu Changsheng comes, the important thing is that Su Changfeng hasn’t come either.

Can’t imagine what’s going on in that guy’s mind now, sigh, I can’t eat now.

It’d be better to find him and make him kneel before me.” Tang Xiangdong laughed.

Tang Siwen covered her mouth and smiled lightly, saying: “Don’t rush.

After all, he’ll kneel whenever you see him in the future, what’s the hurry now?”

“You’re right.” Tang Xiangdong nodded happily, sighed: “There’s plenty of time in the future.

If he dares to break his word, we’ll knock him down.”

Just then, the entire venue suddenly became lively, with many people standing up to greet with smiles.

“Hello, Old Master Gu.”

“Wishing Old Master Gu fortune as vast as the Eastern Sea.”

“Wishing Old Master Gu a long life like the Southern Mountains, blessed with deep fortune.”

Amid these endless blessings, there were also many inquiries because there was a nameless young man accompanying Gu Changsheng, who didn’t seem to be from the Gu Family.

“Who is the young man accompanying Old Master Gu from which family?”

“The old man seems to value this person a lot; why else would he be so close?”

“Cause unknown which family’s talented youth this is, being valued by the old man.

Such fortune to be envied.”

Among all the bewildered voices, only the Tang Family remained silent, because they were all stunned.

The old lady, Tang Xiangdong, Tang Siwen, including Tang Qiulu, all had expressions of disbelief.

Because the talented youth everyone was talking about at the birthday feast was Su Changfeng!

Su Changfeng not only came but came alongside Old Master Gu!

“This can’t be possible, why is it Su Changfeng!” Tang Xiangdong’s face turned livid.

He was unwilling to see this scene.

He had planned how to make Su Changfeng kneel, but now it was a heavy blow to Tang Xiangdong.

The old lady took a deep breath; her expression and gaze were very solemn.

She didn’t want to know why Su Changfeng was walking beside Gu Changsheng, because that’s absolutely unimportant.

In her eyes, what’s important now is that this glory is truly happening to Su Changfeng.

Chapter 162 - 162 162 The Shocked Tang Family

162: Chapter 162: The Shocked Tang Family 162: Chapter 162: The Shocked Tang Family “Why is that?

Su Changfeng is a coward, what right does he have to walk alongside Old Master Gu!” Tang Siwen said unwillingly.

Although she didn’t have to kneel and bark like a dog, she couldn’t accept that the coward in her eyes was now high up and walking alongside Gu Changsheng.

Tang Qiulu also had some doubts in her eyes, although she knew that Su Changfeng was not simple, she never thought that Su Changfeng could reach such a height and have connections with someone like Gu Changsheng.

When Su Changfeng came to the main seat and sat next to Gu Changsheng, everyone was stunned.

Now someone who wasn’t even from the Gu Family could sit in the main seat at the birthday banquet, shoulder to shoulder with Gu Changsheng, what exactly was going on?

Su Changfeng and Gu Qing’er sat separately on either side of Gu Changsheng.

Seeing the current situation, some people in the venue guessed a possibility.

Could it be that the young man who came with Gu Changsheng is the future son-in-law of the Gu Family, Gu Qing'er's boyfriend?

"Gu Qing'er has good taste.

This young man is extraordinary, definitely an outstanding talent."

"He looks talented, and he's so handsome.

He's a perfect match with Gu Qing'er, a golden couple."

"We just don't know which family's young master this young man belongs to.

I suppose some family in Hai City will soon rise."

These words were particularly grating to the Tang Family's ears because after three years of marriage, Su Changfeng was just a coward in their family.

Yet, at this moment, he was being praised by those attending the birthday banquet, making the Tang Family feel very uncomfortable.

"He's just a coward, what talent?

Are they all blind?" Tang Siwen muttered through clenched teeth.

Tang Xiangdong wasn't in the mood to reprimand Su Changfeng now.

He just hoped Su Changfeng didn't see him, so he could pretend nothing happened.

Otherwise, if he kneeled and barked like a dog here, he would become the new laughingstock of Hai City.

Tang Qiulu propped her chin with her hand on the table, also couldn't help but smile bitterly.

Everyone considered Su Changfeng as a talent, while the Tang Family saw him as a coward.

Even Old Master Gu valued him highly, but the Tang Family never regarded Su Changfeng.

It was like a big slap in the face for the Tang Family members.

"Qiulu, you are Su Changfeng's wife, quickly go toast the old master." Grandma Tang said.

Now she dared not speak out against it.

If it made the Gu Family dissatisfied, it would not be good.

However, letting Tang Qiulu appear in the capacity of a wife, there would be no problem, and it would also be an opportunity to let those attending the birthday banquet know that the person the Gu Family valued was a son-in-law of the Tang Family.

If so, the Tang Family could also bask in some glory.

The old lady calculated well, but Tang Qiulu had no intention of doing so.

“Grandma, are you sure that by using Su Changfeng now, you can raise the Tang Family’s status?

Is it the Gu Family that looks up to Su Changfeng, or is it the Tang Family they esteem?

Haven’t you figured it out yet?

We were only able to come because of our association with him.” Tang Qiulu said calmly.

“What are you talking about?

We can’t be his appendages!” the old lady immediately retorted.

“So far, there are countless people wanting to get involved in the West District project, but the Gu Family hasn’t reached out.

This proves the Gu Family doesn’t value the West District project.

If they don’t even value the project, will they prioritize the Tang Family because we are in charge of it?” Tang Qiulu shook her head.

It was all just fantasy for the Tang Family members.

Tang Qiulu could be sure that their attendance at Gu Changsheng’s grand birthday was due to Su Changfeng, and most likely, the invitation was extended to Su Changfeng out of respect from Gu Changsheng.

The old lady wanted to retort, but she couldn’t say a word, and her expression was particularly ugly.

The Tang Family now had to rely on a coward like Su Changfeng to elevate their status?

If that’s the case, she’ll lose face because of Su Changfeng.

“In my opinion, no matter what relationship Su Changfeng has with Old Master Gu, it cannot cover up that he is a coward.

If I am to acknowledge his excellence, he'll have to make the Tang Family a first-rate family!" the old lady said coldly.

Tang Qiulu felt an overwhelming disgust at the old lady's words.

Acknowledging Su Changfeng's excellence only when the Tang Family becomes a first-rate family?

But she never considered whether Su Changfeng needed her acknowledgment for his excellence.

Someone who could sit with Gu Changsheng wouldn't care about the opinions of others.

Halfway through the banquet, Gu Qing'er, swaying her ponytail, came over to the Tang Family crowd.

The old lady, seeing Gu Qing'er, quickly stood up, not daring to rely on her old age.

"Hello, Miss Gu, I am Tang..."

Before the old lady could finish, Gu Qing'er bluntly interrupted, "I'm looking for someone named Tang Xiangdong, I heard there's a performance to watch here."

Gu Qing'er wasn't being rude; she just had no goodwill towards the Tang Family, so she didn't pay attention to the old lady.

Because Su Changfeng was her dream man, and the Tang Family called him a coward, if she showed kindness to the Tang Family, it would be a miracle.

Hearing Gu Qing'er's words, the Tang Family members instinctively looked at Tang Xiangdong.

The so-called performance was probably Tang Xiangdong kneeling and barking like a dog!

Tang Xiangdong clenched his teeth and replied, "Miss Gu, I am Tang Xiangdong."

Gu Qing'er giggled, looking at Tang Xiangdong and examining him, she said, "So it's you.

Kneel and bark like a dog.

I must say, I've never seen one my whole life before, maybe you can show me and broaden my horizons."

Tang Xiangdong initially hoped he could avoid it, but didn't expect Gu Qing'er to step up.

He glanced venomously at Su Changfeng from the corner of his eye, convinced that coward Su Changfeng must have told Gu Qing'er about this!

But Tang Xiangdong cherished face.

If he were to kneel and bark like a dog at this occasion, by tomorrow, everyone in Hai City would know about it.

"I was just joking with him, Miss Gu," Tang Xiangdong said.

Gu Qing'er frowned unhappily, "You don't mean to spoil my fun, do you?"

"It was just a joke.

If you don't believe me, you can call Su Changfeng over to ask, Miss Gu." Tang Xiangdong could only find a way to suppress Su Changfeng, hoping Su Changfeng would let it slide.

However, Su Changfeng wouldn't mention it to Gu Qing'er without intending to settle it conclusively.

Chapter 163 - 163 163 Tang Xiangdong Who Learned to Bark Like a Dog

163: Chapter 163 Tang Xiangdong Who Learned to Bark Like a Dog 163: Chapter 163 Tang Xiangdong Who Learned to Bark Like a Dog Because Su Canghai is not some Bodhisattva, and besides, if Su Changfeng hadn't come, would Tang Xiangdong just let it be?

"Do you still need to ask?

If you don't kneel, nothing will happen now, but I will remember this, and settle the score with you slowly!" Gu Qing'er said.

This sentence had two particularly crucial points.

Just now Gu Qing'er said she would settle accounts with "you all," not "you," meaning she would not only deal with Tang Xiangdong but also the Tang Family.

When the old lady heard this, her expression instantly changed.

Despite disliking Su Changfeng interfering in her matters with Tang Xiangdong, she didn't dare provoke Gu Qing'er, as she was the Gu Family's darling.

"Donglin, hurry up and do as Miss Gu says." The old lady said coldly.

Tang Xiangdong's face turned pale.

Now that even grandma had spoken, this situation seemed unavoidable.

"Don't rush." Gu Qing'er suddenly waved her hand and then loudly said, "Everyone, stop and quiet down for a moment."

There wasn't any noise at the banquet.

Everyone was speaking in hushed tones, and when they heard Gu Qing'er speak, they fell silent.

"There will be a special performance later.

I hope it makes you laugh, so don't miss it." Gu Qing'er said.

"Miss Gu, how can you give everyone a performance?"

"That's right, you are so noble, we would not dare let you perform."

"Miss Gu, how about I perform for you, to entertain everyone?"

"Let me do it, let me."

"I'll do it, I'll do it, Miss Gu, let me."

Everyone spoke up, all wanting to make an impression in front of Gu Changsheng, thinking that even a small impression was worth it.

Gu Qing'er shook her head and said, "No need for you all, just watch later."

Seeing they had no chance, those who were particularly eager were like being doused with cold water.

It's unclear why Shihei is so lucky.

If making Gu Changsheng happy is the same opportunity.

Now Tang Xiangdong felt as if he had swallowed a fly, and not just one, a bowl of them.

Normal performances were nothing, but kneeling and barking like a dog; that would be utterly humiliating!

"Tang Xiangdong, begin the performance now.

The audience can't wait." Gu Qing'er said to Tang Xiangdong.

Tang Xiangdong looked at the old lady.

His disgrace also meant disgrace for the Tang Family.

He still hoped she could find a solution for him.

However, the old lady didn't even look at Tang Xiangdong.

What's the loss of face compared to being resented by Gu Qing'er?

Accepting his fate, Tang Xiangdong knelt down and started barking like a dog.

The room fell silent for a moment, followed by thunderous laughter.

Tang Xiangdong's face was flushed as he lowered his head.

Su Changfeng, this all happened because of you.

If I, Tang Xiangdong, do not avenge this, I am not human.

Su Changfeng, wait, one day you coward will kneel to atone.

This humiliation, I will repay you tenfold!

Su Changfeng, when you are useless to the Gu Family, what qualification will you have to compete with me?!

In Tang Xiangdong's eyes, Su Changfeng climbed this connection because the Gu Family wanted him to handle some matters.

But once those matters were handled, he would definitely be kicked aside, and that would be Tang Xiangdong's chance for revenge.

I will avenge this sooner or later; for now, I, Tang Xiangdong, can endure!

"Miss Gu, this person's performance is indeed good, who is he?

He really acts like a dog."

"His name is Tang Xiangdong.

He lost a bet, which is why he is doing this." Gu Qing'er explained.

Many people hadn't heard of Tang Dong, but after inquiring, they found out that Tang Xiangdong was a member of the Tang Family.

This made Tang Xiangdong feel even more humiliated.

No matter what, he's a second-tier noble family scion in Hai City, yet these people didn't know him.

Was the Tang Family's influence in Hai City so insignificant?

The Tang Family is particularly proud, especially with the old lady setting so many rules, making them feel like aristocrats.

But in Hai City, before they cooperated with Weishui, few people knew about them.

Being called a second-tier family was barely accurate, not to mention Tang Xiangdong himself, who was only known within his circle, outside of which no one recognized him.

"Miss Gu, it seems Tang Xiangdong has some enmity with you."

"Everyone remember, when you meet this guy in the future, surely don't give him face."

"Please don't worry, Miss Gu.

From now on, I will be in opposition with Tang Xiangdong."

Most of the people took a stand with Gu Qing'er, as those observant could see Gu Qing'er was targeting Tang Xiangdong.

So they took a stand, hoping this matter would make Gu Qing'er have a bit of a favorable impression of them.

But hearing them speak, Tang Xiangdong now wanted to die.

The people attending the banquet were basically the bigwigs of Hai City.

If they targeted him, then he wouldn't be able to survive in Hai City, right?

Gu Qing'er neither admitted nor denied it, and ambiguously returned to her seat.

The old lady's face was pale.

She originally thought this birthday banquet was an opportunity for the Tang Family, but now, clearly, they were in massive danger.

Although Tang Xiangdong would someday take the chairman's position, now that Hai City's major figures view him as an enemy, if the group let him take over, probably no one would cooperate with him, right?

The Tang Family can't rely solely on the West District for survival!

Something must be done to remedy the current situation.

The old lady looked at Su Changfeng.

Since he is the Tang Family's son-in-law, he should naturally do something for the Tang Family.

Moreover, he was also responsible for this situation.

Who else could the blame be shifted to?

As the banquet was about to end, Liu Chen impatiently stood up and said to Su Changfeng, "Have you eaten well now, little brother?

If so, let's go upstairs."

During the meal, Liu Chen mentally reviewed the situation from memory.

Although somewhat incomplete, he found a few places he thought were flaws.

He was very confident now that a rematch with Su Changfeng could let him regain his position.

Su Changfeng saw Gu Changsheng and asked, "Have you had enough, sir?"

"Yes, yes, I've eaten enough.

Food can be eaten anytime, but a brilliant Go match isn't always witnessed.

Let's go."

Chapter 164 - 164 164 The Foolish Li Wen

164: Chapter 164: The Foolish Li Wen 164: Chapter 164: The Foolish Li Wen As they walked out of the banquet hall, Su Changfeng once again met with Gu Changsheng, with the Tang Family staring at him with fierce eyes.

In the same room, this time Liu Chen was not careless at all.

This match was about reclaiming his ground; he must defeat Su Changfeng to reestablish his position in the Hai City World of Go.

Even though few people knew about his lost match, it was a major blow to Liu Chen, because Su Changfeng was so young that Liu Chen thought Su Changfeng simply didn't have the ability.

"This time my teacher is serious.

You should be careful; don't blame me for not warning you," Li Wen stood behind Liu Chen and said with a smile to Su Changfeng.

Su Changfeng nodded, his serious expression clearly immersed in the game.

The intersecting 38 lines, 361 positions to place stones, at the moment of playing, it was no longer just a board but a battlefield.

Li Wen didn't watch the match because, in his eyes, the result was already clear, and the process didn't matter.

But Gu Changsheng and Zhao Wen watched very seriously.

Gu Changsheng knew from Su Changfeng that he would definitely win against Liu Chen, so he wanted to see if Su Changfeng was truly strong or just boasting.

Although Zhao Wen didn't believe Su Changfeng would win, she was very curious about Su Changfeng's actual strength and if he could become her prince.

As the match progressed, Liu Chen's expression became more solemn.

He was sure he was taking it very seriously, with a particularly correct attitude, but now he was still at a disadvantage on the board, and in the mid-game, he thought he had already lost.

Only a few top Go players could put such pressure on him during a match, and yet, this young man was only in his twenties.

Wiping the sweat off his forehead, Liu Chen hadn't felt such pressure in a game for many years.

Even if he won, it would change his view on Su Changfeng.

Li Wen initially looked disdainful, but seeing Liu Chen's increasingly unpleasant expression, he felt very unhappy.

Could this guy really beat Liu Chen?

After carefully observing the situation on the board, Liu Chen realized he was indeed at a disadvantage.

In the morning match, it could be said the master was careless, but in this match, the master was particularly serious.

If even so he lost, then the master's reputation would be ruined by this person!

No way, Li Wen would not let this happen.

Li Wen gritted his teeth, approached Liu Chen, and pretended to care, "Teacher, if you're tired, please take a break."

Liu Chen shook his head, saying that losing in a game was fine, but losing his character was not acceptable.

Li Wen coldly looked at Su Changfeng, then withdrew a piece from the board, causing the stones to scatter on the ground, saying, "We'll play again later.

The master is tired now."

"Li Wen, what are you doing?" Gu Changsheng said angrily.

Liu Chen also stood up directly, looked angrily at Li Wen, and rebuked, "Li Wen, what are you doing?

I don't mind losing, but do you want me to lose in terms of character as well?"

Liu Chen usually liked Li Wen because he was one of his most accomplished disciples, although his character wasn't great.

However, in Liu Chen's eyes, it wasn't something that couldn't be honed.

Li Wen was a good piece of material that, with some refinement, could become a great master.

But Liu Chen never expected Li Wen to do such a thing.

"Li Wen, is this how the elders in your family teach you?

If they can't teach you respect, I wouldn't mind teaching you a lesson on behalf of your elders!" Gu Changsheng was particularly upset.

This match was especially exciting; even though he was just watching from the sidelines, it was still very enjoyable.

Yet, before the game ended, someone disrupted it, just like finding a bug in your food while you're enjoying a meal.

Li Wen's expression changed immediately.

If the Li Family bore a grudge against them because of this, his mistake wasn't just ruining the game but also ruining his family.

"Grandpa Gu, I'm truly sorry.

I acted impulsively seeing my master tired.

Please forgive me just this once," Li Wen said quickly.

Gu Changsheng didn't look at Li Wen.

He directly took out his phone.

At his age, he finally found something interesting, but Li Wen acted this way.

Would a mere apology really improve Gu Changsheng's mood?

"Bring the Li Family members up immediately," Gu Changsheng said into the phone.

Li Wen was so frightened by this statement that his legs turned to jelly, and he kneeled in front of Gu Changsheng, "Grandpa Gu, I know my mistake.

I'm truly sorry.

Please forgive me just this once.

It's my fault, and I deserve to die."

Zhao Wen originally respected Li Wen greatly, but now she couldn't help but look at him with contempt.

How shameless!

Using such despicable methods to disrupt the game, did he really think it would save his master's face?

Idiot!

"Master, I beg you, please help me," Li Wen implored, seeing Gu Changsheng ignoring him, and knelt in front of Liu Chen.

After all, he was Liu Chen's chief disciple, so Liu Chen should help him.

However, Liu Chen felt utterly embarrassed by Li Wen's actions.

Losing was indeed hard to accept for Liu Chen, but he was not willing to use such shameless methods to avoid losing.

“Li Wen, at first, I thought your character was somewhat promising for improvement, but I couldn’t imagine you’d do such a thing!” Liu Chen said darkly.

Did this mean Liu Chen wasn’t going to save him?

Li Wen felt his heart nearly collapse.

In his eyes, he had only done a trivial thing, and yet this trivial action led to such consequences.

The Li Family members arrived shortly after, and seeing Li Wen kneeling on the ground, they knew things had gone wrong.

He had managed to upset the old man of the Gu Family!

Li Wen’s father walked up to him, slapped him twice, and scolded, “What have you done?

You unfilial son!”

The Li Family’s status in Hai City was quite decent, a bit stronger than the Tang Family, but they were able to attend the banquet because Liu Chen valued Li Wen highly.

Normally, Li Wen held a high position in the family, and no one dared to talk loudly to him because how far the Li Family could go depended on Li Wen.

But now, he had offended Gu Changsheng, and Li Wen’s father dared not indulge him any further.

“Li Wen, from now on, I have no disciple like you,” Liu Chen said.

Li Wen’s father was suddenly stunned!

Chapter 165 - 165 165 Gu Changsheng Becomes a Disciple

165: Chapter 165 Gu Changsheng Becomes a Disciple 165: Chapter 165 Gu Changsheng Becomes a Disciple What on earth is going on?

Li Wen was actually expelled from his master’s tutelage by Liu Chen?

Without this connection, doesn’t the Li Family have no standing in Hai City?

“Take Li Wen and get out immediately.

From now on, no one from the Li Family should appear in front of me, or else, face the consequences!” Gu Changsheng said coldly.

Li Wen was dumbfounded.

In a chess game, they say one wrong move and the whole game is lost.

Only now did Li Wen realize what he had done.

He originally intended to win Liu Chen’s favor, but now he’s been cast out of the school.

After his family dragged Li Wen out of the room, Liu Chen sighed and said to Su Changfeng, “Shall we have another game?”

He knew he might lose, but Liu Chen didn’t want to lose his character.

“Grandpa Liu, you’re not in the best condition now.

If we start another game, it wouldn’t be fair.

I suggest waiting until you’re feeling better, and I promise I’ll come to visit you then,” Su Changfeng said.

Liu Chen realized Su Changfeng was giving him a way out.

If he insisted further, he’d surely embarrass himself.

“Gu Changsheng, you old man, you’re really lucky—able to make an acquaintance with this young friend,” Liu Chen sighed.

Gu Changsheng said proudly, “Isn’t that right?

The people I, Gu Changsheng, take a liking to, are no ordinary folks.”

“Young friend, once we get the chance, let’s have another game,” Liu Chen said to Su Changfeng.

“I’m looking forward to it,” Su Changfeng replied.

Liu Chen turned and left first, but Zhao Wen was still standing there dumbfounded.

Seeing Zhao Wen not moving, Liu Chen said, “Why are you standing there like a fool?”

Upon hearing this, Zhao Wen reluctantly followed Liu Chen’s steps out.

Once out of the room, Zhao Wen pouted and said coyly, “Master, I don’t even know his name.

Why were you in such a hurry to leave?”

“Little girl, didn’t you notice?

That man is the Gu family’s predetermined grandson-in-law.

What do you have to compete with Gu Qing’er?” Liu Chen said with a bitter smile.

Zhao Wen pouted further, a little unconvinced, and said, “We haven’t even tried yet.

Why do you think I can’t compete with her?

Even though Gu Qing’er is the Gu Family’s cherished jewel, that doesn’t mean she’s more charming than I am.”

“You, you really don’t know when to give up.” Liu Chen said helplessly.

Zhao Wen’s expression suddenly turned serious, “Master, if that game had continued, you…”

Liu Chen took a deep breath and said, “I would definitely lose.”

Definitely lose?

This statement left Zhao Wen in disbelief.

Inside the room, Gu Changsheng kept observing Su Changfeng, finding him more and more likable.

He was the best choice for his granddaughter’s husband, unfortunately, such a great person ended up joining the Tang Family.

Gu Changsheng’s gaze made Su Changfeng’s hair stand on end, and he quickly said, “Why are you looking at me like that?

You’re at such an age; don’t tell me you have some peculiar hobbies?”

“You scoundrel, what nonsense are you spouting?

I’m not that kind of person!” Gu Changsheng glared at Su Changfeng.

“Wait a second, can you show some respect to your master?

Is this the attitude you use when speaking to your master?" Su Changfeng, hands on hips, looked at Gu Changsheng proudly.

He remembered acknowledging him as his master.

Gu Changsheng froze, his old face reddened, and he said nothing.

"Old man, as the head of the Gu Family, and the number one figure in Hai City, would you go back on your word?

Want to know what the saliva on the ground tastes like?" Su Changfeng said with a smile.

Gu Changsheng's expression was remarkable, his facial features nearly twisted together.

"I'm already so old, do you want the old man to hold a master acceptance ceremony for you?" Gu Changsheng said unhappily.

"That's unnecessary, but remember, it's enough for you to acknowledge I'm your master," Su Changfeng replied.

A formal ceremony was something Su Changfeng wouldn't insist on, and besides, Gu Changsheng was a senior, and Su Changfeng wouldn't want to bring trouble upon himself.

"You clever rascal, calling you master is no big deal, but you have to promise the old man one thing," Gu Changsheng said.

"Good disciple, don't you have any shame?

Have you ever seen a disciple demand something from their master?" Su Cang said with a face of mixed amusement and resignation.

Su Changfeng was the first in Hai City to talk to Gu Changsheng like this without angering him.

"You can boast for a few days, but when I catch you on something, let's see how I deal with you," Gu Changsheng threatened.

At that moment, Gu Qing'er came running in.

If her father hadn't insisted she go greet the guests, she wouldn't have missed Su Changfeng's match with Liu Chen.

"How did it go?

Did you win?

I noticed Grandpa Liu's face wasn't so good when he left," Gu Qing'er asked eagerly as soon as she came in, looking at Su Changfeng.

"I didn't win, but I didn't lose either," Su Changfeng said.

"Was it a draw?

Even that is quite impressive.

After all, Grandpa Liu is a grandmaster level figure in the realm of Go here in Hai City.

I didn't expect you to hold your own against him," Gu Qing'er said with a smile.

"That grandmaster had already been surpassed by Su Changfeng," Gu Changsheng said with a laugh, though it had nothing to do with him, he felt particularly thrilled inside.

"What do you mean by that?" Gu Qing'er asked Gu Changsheng, puzzled.

"If it weren't for Li Wen deliberately ruining the game, your Grandpa Liu would have definitely lost," Gu Changsheng replied, pointing at the scattered chess pieces on the ground.

Gu Qing'er's eyes widened instantly, looking at Su Changfeng with a look of disbelief.

She initially thought it would be alright if Su Changfeng didn't lose too badly, and when she saw the look on Liu Chen's face when he left, she assumed Su Changfeng had already shown Liu Chen he was not to be underestimated.

However, she never imagined Su Changfeng had actually defeated Liu Chen.

Liu Chen is the chairman of the Hai City Go Association and the best Go player in all of Hai City!

"Is this...

true?" Gu Qing'er asked, still in disbelief.

"You brat, too much humility amounts to hypocrisy," Gu Changsheng laughed.

Su Changfeng shrugged helplessly, "Even if you gave Grandpa Liu ten more chances, he still couldn't win.

Is that not humble enough?"

Gu Changsheng found it both amusing and exasperating.

If Liu Chen heard those words, it would probably be quite a blow to him.

Right now, Gu Qing'er looked at Su Changfeng almost like an idol, with her eyes full of admiration.

Her heart fluttered thinking about his excellent piano playing and skillful talents.

It seemed there was nothing he couldn't do.

In Gu Qing'er's eyes, Su Changfeng was nearly perfect, with only one flaw—that Su Changfeng was already married.

Chapter 166 - 166 166 When will you go to get divorced

166: Chapter 166: When will you go to get divorced?

166: Chapter 166: When will you go to get divorced?

But that doesn't matter, because divorce is possible.

"Su Changfeng, when are you going to get a divorce?" Gu Qing'er asked instinctively.

Su Changfeng was stunned for a moment and said: "Why would I want to get a divorce?"

Gu Qing'er unconsciously said those words and realized she had lost her composure.

As a girl, no matter what, she had to act a bit reserved, so she quickly replied, "It's nothing, just asking casually."

"If there's nothing else, I'll be leaving." Su Changfeng said and walked towards the door.

"Be careful, I guess Tang Xiangdong will try to cause trouble for you." Gu Qing'er warned.

Su Changfeng waved his hand without looking back and said: "I've never taken that guy seriously, he isn't qualified to be my opponent."

After Su Changfeng left, Gu Qing'er suddenly sighed, her shoulders slumped, and her head hung down, as if she suddenly felt drained of energy.

"What?

Now you think Su Changfeng is too outstanding and you're afraid you can't match up to him?" Gu Changsheng said with a smile.

“Su Changfeng is so outstanding, will I be a good match for him?

Grandpa.” Gu Qing’er pouted.

Gu Changsheng affectionately patted Gu Qing’er’s head and said, “Qing’er is the young miss of our Gu Family.

No matter how outstanding Su Changfeng is, can he be outstanding indoors?

In Hai City, there’s no one that Gu Qing’er can’t match.”

Gu Qing’er’s mood was somewhat comforted by Gu Changsheng’s words.

In Hai City, the Gu Family is like the ceiling, if Gu Qing’er were to find a man, the moat would be filled instantly, it’s simply impossible for there to be anyone she can’t match.

“Have you acknowledged Su Changfeng as your master yet?

Grandpa.” Gu Qing’er laughed.

Gu Changsheng was momentarily stunned, surprised that Su Changfeng actually mentioned this to Gu Qing’er, did he intentionally want to embarrass him?

“Grandpa, you always told me not to lie in life, remember?” Gu Qing’er said.

Gu Changsheng gritted his teeth and then nodded.

“Acknowledged.”

Laughter suddenly rang out from Gu Qing’er’s little mouth, Grandpa being someone else’s disciple, that’s definitely big news bound to shock Hai City!

“Girl, you have to keep this secret for Grandpa, otherwise Grandpa’s dignity will be lost.” Gu Changsheng reminded.

“No problem, but you also have to help create opportunities for me to meet Su Changfeng more often, otherwise, as a girl, I can’t keep asking him out all the time.” Gu Qing’er said.

“No problem.”

The two of them, grandfather and granddaughter, made an agreement and even hooked their little fingers.

After Su Changfeng walked out of the hotel, Tang Xiangdong angrily approached him.

The banquet had ended a long time ago, and other guests had left, Tang Xiangdong was deliberately waiting here for Su Canghai.

“Su Changfeng, you’ve made me lose face here, I won’t let you off easily!” Tang Xiangdong gritted his teeth and said to Su Changfeng.

“I caused you trouble?” Su Changfeng chuckled lightly and said, “Obviously you wanted to make the bet, seems unrelated to me, doesn’t it?”

“If Gu Qing’er hadn’t appeared, I wouldn’t have had to kneel to a coward like you.

Don’t think that just getting close with the Gu Family means you can act recklessly, once you’re no longer useful, who knows when they’ll kick you aside.” Tang Xiangdong said while swinging a punch at Su Changfeng.

Su Changfeng laughed coldly, “You think you’re my opponent?”

Tang Xiangdong was extremely angry, already forgetting he had been beaten twice by Su Changfeng before.

Before Tang Xiangdong’s fist landed on Su Changfeng’s face, he clutched his lower abdomen in pain and even retreated a few steps, finally collapsing on the ground.

“Su Changfeng, one day I’ll crush you underfoot, I want you dead!” Tang Xiangdong roared angrily.

Su Changfeng’s expression didn’t change, Tang Xiangdong’s threats were nothing but nonsense to him.

“Someday you’ll realize how foolish your words are, I hope when that day comes, you won’t be too scared.” Su Changfeng laughed.

Watching Su Changfeng’s figure walking away, Tang Xiangdong gritted his teeth with hatred.

From beginning to end, Su Changfeng was always a coward in Tang Xiangdong’s eyes, and Su Changfeng’s reputation in Hai City was all spread by Tang Xiangdong himself.

How could such a person have the standing to be above him?

“I won’t allow this to happen, when I become chairman, I’ll make sure you and Tang Qiulu leave the Tang Family.” Tang Xiangdong gritted his teeth and stood up, brushing the dust off his clothes clean.

Grandma, you old fool, when will you finally go to your grave!

Su Changfeng didn't go home, instead he called Zhu Lie, and after finding out he's at the Charming Night Club, he drove there.

Driving a Lamborghini on the city streets definitely turned heads, though nobody would think the person driving it was the famous coward, Su Changfeng, right?

He parked the car in front of Charming Night Club, and most of the sexy dressed girls passing by instinctively gave him flirtatious glances, but Su Changfeng paid no attention and went straight inside, leaving these fashionable girls heartbroken.

Inside the lounge sat a group of people, not only Zhu Lie and Feng Bin were there, but also the fierce-looking Dao Jiu.

Currently, Dao Jiu had taken care of the three underground boxing rings in Hai City, all taken down one by one with his fists.

The followers of Wang Lei from before didn't surrender easily during Dao Jiu's attacks, but Dao Jiu's strength was evident, and eventually they all behaved.

"Why do you have time to come here this time, what are you up to?" Zhu Lie asked Su Changfeng.

"Can't I drop by to see you when I'm busy?

What are you three up to, discussing something?" Su Changfeng laughed.

The three of them were discussing how to deal with Duan Cheng, because Duan Cheng had been making many small moves lately, seemingly wanting to expand his territory.

Previously, Duan Cheng stuck to his area, and Zhu Lie didn't feel threatened, so he paid no extra attention to him, but recently he's started making some moves, so Zhu Lie couldn't continue to ignore him.

However, Duan Cheng is backed by the Hai City Gu Family, which made Zhu Lie somewhat troubled.

His backing is different from Wang Long and Wang Lei's, after all, the Gu Family is currently a commercial mogul, and compared to those in political circles, the Gu Family doesn't have as many concerns when doing things.

If it really came to a head with Duan Cheng, the Gu Family couldn't be easily shaken.

"Duan Cheng seems to be making some moves recently, probably planning something." Zhu Lie said.

“Duan Cheng.” Su Changfeng frowned, Duan Cheng is controlled by the Gu Family, whatever he’s planning, it means it’s backed by the Gu Family.

Chapter 167 - 167 167 An Unusual Couple

167: Chapter 167: An Unusual Couple 167: Chapter 167: An Unusual Couple But the Hai City Gu Family almost holds the dominant position entirely, so what are they up to?

Su Changfeng thought for a while and said to Zhu Lie, “Let him do it first, let’s see what the Gu Family intends to do.”

“Aren’t you worried that all these things we’ve fought for will be taken by the Gu Family in the end?” Zhu Lie was a bit worried.

Wang Long and Wang Lei are all their work.

If the Gu Family gets involved now and takes everything ready-made, Zhu Lie couldn’t accept such humiliation.

“Don’t worry, I’ll handle it well.” Su Changfeng smiled and said, now he’s the mentor of Gu Changsheng.

If the Gu Family really plans to expand their power in the gray areas, cooperating with them might be feasible.

Seeing Su Changfeng so confident, Zhu Lie didn’t say much more because he trusted Su Changfeng.

What he can’t do, Su Changfeng wouldn’t talk about.

A few people didn’t chat for long when someone called Su Changfeng.

Upon taking out his phone, he found that it was Ji Hong calling.

Upon answering, she said for Su Changfeng to find a time to go back to Beijing, saying that his father couldn’t hold back any longer.

As his child, he can go back to see his father.

This matter made Su Changfeng feel a little strange.

Previously, when Su Tian was sent to the hospital, they didn’t tell him either.

Everyone up and down in the Su Family saw Su Changfeng as an outsider, so why would they suddenly want him to return to Beijing?

Moreover, Su Changfeng also knew that Ji Hong couldn't be in charge of this, so this was Shangguan Feihong's idea, which required careful thought from Su Changfeng.

Because Shangguan Feihong favored Su Wei Jun and never regarded Su Changfeng as part of the Su Family, why would she ask him to return to the Su Family?

Zhu Lie saw Su Changfeng hang up the phone with a serious face and asked, "What's wrong?"

Su Changfeng said something that Zhu Lie couldn't understand, "In this world, I have no place to stand, I'll take the honor of becoming the Master of Mount Heng.

This is a phrase I particularly admire.

If one day you think I'm not myself, just say the first half of this phrase, and let me continue.

If I can't answer it, then this 'me' is not me."

"Not you?

What do you mean?

Did you take the wrong medicine?" Zhu Lie was confused by Su Changfeng's words and reached out to feel his forehead.

Su Changfeng raised his hand to brush it away and replied, "You don't need to understand what this means, just remember what I just said."

"What does this mean in the end?" Zhu Lie asked.

Su Changfeng smiled slightly and didn't offer more explanation.

In this world, I have no place to stand, I'll take the honor of becoming the Master of Mount Heng.

This was the obsession of Su Changfeng after leaving the Su Family.

In this world, there's no place for me, so I'll find a mountain and become its master.

The Su Family can't contain me, so I'll create a brand new Su Family to become its master!

Leaving the Charming Night Club, Su Changfeng found a girl on the hood of his Lamborghini, posing provocatively while a man beside her took pictures.

Doesn't this woman fear damaging someone else's property?

Su Changfeng walked over and asked with a smile, “Have you two taken enough photos?”

The girl looked at Su Changfeng disdainfully and said, “It has nothing to do with you, right?

If you want to take pictures, line up.”

And the man taking pictures also looked at Su Changfeng scornfully, “What’s your rush?

We’ll talk when we’re done.”

“Take more pictures, later I’ll post them on social media for my friends to see, I did sit on a Lamborghini.” The girl said excitedly, changing her poses again.

Su Changfeng couldn’t help but laugh, sitting on the hood counts?

“What are you laughing at?

Hick, step back, don’t disturb our pictures.” The girl said annoyedly.

Su Changfeng helplessly shrugged his shoulders and just looked at them from the side.

After the girl had enough pictures, the man who had been taking them joined her, both having a great time.

“Hey, watch out, don’t lean on the side mirror.” Seeing the man put his arm on the side mirror, leaning his entire weight on it, Su Changfeng reminded him.

“What are you yelling about?

What does it have to do with you?

I want to take pictures this way, got a problem?

Fool, get lost before the owner comes back.

A hick like you, wearing a dragon robe doesn’t make you a crown prince, so why even bother taking pictures?” The man said impatiently.

“So annoying, hick without a clue, even if you take pictures, others wouldn’t believe it, so why waste time here?” The girl said as well.

“Sigh.” The man suddenly sighed and said with some emotion, “If we could take pictures sitting inside, it would be perfect, much more real.”

The girl obviously thought the same, “Why don’t we wait a bit?

When the owner comes, maybe we could ask nicely.

If he's that rich, he shouldn't mind us taking pictures, right?"

Hearing this, Su Changfeng took out the keys and pressed the unlock button.

The car's lights came on, and the two of them froze.

"Sorry, I'm in a rush now, but I've remembered your faces.

If there's a scratch on the car, I'll visit you." With that, Su Changfeng got in the car.

"This...

this car is yours?" The girl looked at Su Changfeng as if she had seen a ghost.

She had just scrutinized him, seeing him in such cheap clothes, she assumed he was a hick, never expecting him to be the car's owner.

The man was equally dumbfounded, he just told someone to wait?

That's Su Changfeng's car, does he need to take photos to show off online?

As Su Changfeng started the car, the girl came to the driver's side, leaned over the window, and, with a charming pose, said, "I'm free tonight, don't you want to invite me for dinner?"

"No thanks, I have two dogs at home waiting to be fed." Su Changfeng smiled slightly and then stepped on the gas to leave.

Luckily, the girl stepped back quickly, or she would have ended up on the ground.

"Arrogant for what, just because you drive a sports car.

Huh, what's the big deal!" The girl cursed, forgetting the seductive poses she made in the pictures just moments ago.

"Let's just leave, no need to stick around and embarrass ourselves here." The man came over, trying to pull the girl away.

But the girl shook him off, full of disdain she said, "Don't touch me; if it wasn't for you being useless, would I be so humiliated?

It's over between us; I don't like riding in your crappy car."

Chapter 168 - 168 168 The Ridiculous Grandmother

168: Chapter 168: The Ridiculous Grandmother 168: Chapter 168: The Ridiculous Grandmother When Su Changfeng got home, he found Grandma Tang sitting in the living room.

Why did she suddenly come?

“Su Changfeng, why don’t you greet Grandma quickly?” Sun Mei reproached Su Changfeng.

“What wind prompted you to personally come here, Grandma?” Su Changfeng laughed.

“Su Changfeng, now you’re very capable, huh?

You actually have such a good relationship with Old Master Gu?

If not for you, would Tang Xiangdong be disgraced today?

I have to ask you, did you deliberately make the Tang Family lose face?” Grandma Tang asked sternly.

“Did you get something wrong?

Grandma, I didn’t initially propose the gambling agreement.

Before you come questioning me, why not go ask Tang Xiangdong how he could be so foolish?” Su Changfeng said coldly.

“You...” Grandma Tang was so angry she was grinding her teeth.

If she hadn’t doubted Su Changfeng’s ability to attend Gu Changsheng’s birthday banquet, she would have stopped Tang Xiangdong right away, because Su Changfeng kneeling meant nothing but a show to her, not important.

But who would have thought Su Changfeng would actually participate?

Now, Su Changfeng’s mood was a bit sour due to Ji Hong asking him to return to Beijing, so he surely wouldn’t speak kindly to Grandma Tang.

Had it been earlier, Su Changfeng might not have argued with her, because this had happened before, and letting her complain a bit wouldn’t have been a big deal.

However, now he just couldn't bear listening to Grandma's nagging.

"It's not my fault, Grandma.

I won't take the blame." Su Changfeng said assertively.

Grandma Tang was furious, shaking all over.

Su Changfeng, that coward, dared to act high-handed in front of her?

Next to them, Sun Mei, seeing this emotion, instantly got a little anxious too.

Despite the family living in the mountain villa, they still needed to rely on the Tang Family to survive.

If Grandma Tang was unhappy, it'd be troublesome for Tang Qiulu.

"Su Changfeng, quickly apologize to Grandma.

How could you talk to her with this attitude?" Sun Mei admonished.

Su Changfeng ignored Sun Mei, continuing to say to Grandma: "If I kneel for Tang Xiangdong, would you think it should be that way?"

"You, coward, kneeling — what's wrong with that?" Grandma bluntly replied.

Su Changfeng laughed coldly, saying: "You've said it yourself, then why should I apologize to you?"

"Fine, I can overlook it, since it's already happened.

But you must restore Tang Family's lost face at the birthday banquet!" Grandma declared.

"Restore?" Su Changfeng showed a playful smile, asking: "How do you plan for me to restore it?"

"Speak positively for the Tang Family in front of Old Master Gu.

If you can make him acknowledge Tang Family's status in Hai City, that would be even better." Grandma's tone was not negotiating with Su Canghai but giving orders.

Su Changfeng shook his head.

Grandma coming to question him wasn't about standing up for Tang Xiangdong.

Her true aim for this visit was now clear.

Getting Gu Changsheng to recognize Tang Family's status in Hai City would effectively bring the Tang Family into Hai City's first-class ranks, wouldn't it?

Grandma Tang's plan was indeed clever, but she was still condescendingly asking for his help.

No matter how useless Su Changfeng may have been in the Tang Family earlier, he wouldn't let Grandma go overboard now.

It's not impossible to help, but if you're asking me for a favor, you should show some attitude, right?

"You want me to do something for the Tang Family, but you still look down on me, why should I do it?" Su Changfeng said blandly.

"Because this is an opportunity for you to redeem yourself." Grandma still appeared arrogantly as though Su Changfeng had made a mistake and had to use this chance to make amends.

Su Changfeng couldn't help but laugh — it was truly amusing.

A chance for redemption?

But did Su Changfeng really need to redeem himself?

The issue was entirely Tang Xiangdong's doing, and the Tang Family losing face at the banquet was because of Tang Xiangdong; Su Changfeng wouldn't take this blame.

"Sorry, I don't need it." Su Changfeng replied coldly.

Grandma gritted her teeth, glaring at Su Changfeng harshly, saying: "Don't think just because Tang Qiulu is in charge of that project, you can lean on her and disregard me.

I could remove her from her position right now with just one word."

"I'll be waiting to see." With that, Su Changfeng returned to his room.

Grandma Tang's threat was ridiculous.

Whether Tang Qiulu was in charge directly affected whether the Tang Family could survive.

Would she really dare do such a thing?

Would she dare gamble the Tang Family's future in a fit of anger?

She couldn’t, and she didn’t have the courage.

Grandma Tang was trembling all over with anger.

For the past three years, Su Changfeng had been a character depicted as a coward, but now as Tang Qiulu’s status in the group rose, Su Changfeng’s attitude had become increasingly arrogant.

Grandma Tang knew Su Changfeng was relying on something, but if she truly had to use that method to handle Su Changfeng, the Tang Family would also collapse, and she couldn’t do it.

“Sun Mei, Su Changfeng is truly a good son-in-law, not bothering to care about me anymore!” Grandma said with a cold voice.

Sun Mei, most frightened of Grandma Tang, quickly said: “Mother, I was going to let Qiulu divorce him, but Qiulu is unwilling.”

Grandma Tang hadn’t asked Tang Qiulu to divorce Su Changfeng earlier because she estimated the family’s rapid progress, not wanting the Tang Family to be laughed at in Hai City.

But now, with Su Changfeng being so arrogant, Grandma couldn’t help but wish for them to divorce, because once Tang Qiulu gets controlled by Su Changfeng, it would be a significant threat to the Tang Family.

However...

Grandma Tang had to admit that Su Changfeng still had some value for the Tang Family at the moment.

No matter how he managed to establish a good relationship, currently, Gu Changsheng did value him, enabling the Tang Family to leverage this to strengthen ties with the Gu Family, thus easing their path into the noble family ranks.

“I’ll give you three days to persuade Tang Qiulu to ask Su Changfeng to do it.

Otherwise, you can forget about having a good life.” Grandma threatened.

Sun Mei nodded rapidly, replying: “Mother, don’t worry, I’ll convince Tang Qiulu to do it.

Su Changfeng, the coward, doesn’t listen to anyone right now, but he will listen to Tang Qiulu.”

Grandma took one last reluctant look at the mountain villa before leaving.

If she weren’t concerned about her reputation, she would’ve shamelessly moved in because this was the place she had longed to live in all her life.

Chapter 169 - 169 169 Fine then I'll see when you die

169: Chapter 169: Fine, then I’ll see when you die.

169: Chapter 169: Fine, then I’ll see when you die.

Sometimes the old grandma would think, if she had treated Tang Qiulu better before, would Tang Qiulu have invited her to live together?

But whenever she remembered that Tang Qiulu was a girl and that the future chairman position was Tang Xiangdong’s, the old grandma abandoned the thought.

As for the Mountain Villa, if possible, the old grandma would snatch it from Tang Qiulu and hand it over to Tang Xiangdong because Tang Xiangdong is the future Family Head, what qualification does Tang Qiulu have to live in this villa?

When the elderly woman returned to her villa, she found Tang Xiangdong sitting in the living room, his face showing an angry expression.

“Donglin, why have you come?” the old grandma asked.

Tang Xiangdong stood up, his face hesitant, wanting to speak but stopped.

“What are you mumbling about, hurry up and speak.” the old grandma said.

“Su Changfeng can’t be allowed to be so arrogant anymore, grandma, this guy doesn’t even put us in his eyes now!” Tang Xiangdong said.

Talking about this matter made the old grandma fume, Su Changfeng was particularly presumptuous when speaking to her, but now Tang Qiulu’s position was especially important, even the old grandma had to endure.

“Tang Qiulu is in charge of the West District project, and her status in the group has risen significantly, which is why Su Changfeng doesn’t take us seriously.

But you also know, that project cooperation can’t be done without Tang Qiulu.” the old grandma said.

This was very obvious to Tang Xiangdong.

Since the last incident, Tang Xiangdong hadn't considered removing Tang Qiulu from this position because this project could affect the Tang Family's future.

"Grandma, the reason Su Changfeng is so arrogant is that you're not ruthless enough and haven't suppressed Tang Qiulu's momentum.

You also understand, grandma doesn't want things to become too awkward because Tang Qiulu is of great help to the Tang Family, and after all, Tang Qiulu is a Tang Family member.

In that case, I'll be the bad guy." Tang Xiangdong said.

The old grandma frowned at these words, he would be the bad guy?

"Are you now planning to have me pass the chairman position to you?" the old grandma asked.

"I have to become chairman now to have status and identity to overshadow Tang Qiulu, grandma.

Moreover, haven't you noticed?

Now, Tang Qiulu is controlled by Su Changfeng, and during this time, Tang Qiulu intentionally made it appear in front of everyone that her relationship with Su Changfeng has cooled.

Can't you see her ambition?

These two bastards are putting on a show here, making you and everyone believe her relationship with Su Canghai is bad, planning for you to value her!" Tang Xiangdong said eagerly.

Tang Xiangdong couldn't wait any longer, because only by becoming the Tang Family chairman could he have more power to deal with Tang Qiulu and Su Canghai.

"No way." the old grandma resolutely refused, though the chairman position would eventually pass to Tang Xiangdong, the old grandma didn't plan to do so now.

Even though she favored Tang Xiangdong, she was aware of Tang Xiangdong's limitations; he currently did not have the capacity to take over the group.

If she gave him the chairman position now, the Tang Family might be affected.

Tang Xiangdong gritted his teeth and said, "Grandma, anyway the chairman position will eventually be mine, so why can't it be given to me now?"

The old grandma's face turned gloomy, then she looked at Tang Xiangdong with a 'disappointment in iron not turning into steel' expression, saying, "If it wasn't because you have no promising future, would the chairman position still not be yours now?

If it wasn't for you being the only male heir, that position wouldn't be yours at all!"

This sentence directly depreciated Tang Xiangdong to worthless, also making him harbor intense hatred towards the old grandma.

"Grandma, are you just going to watch that bitch Tang Qiulu's status rise higher and higher in the group?" Tang Xiangdong asked through gritted teeth.

"I have my ways to deal with her.

If you want to become chairman soon, then quickly improve your abilities; otherwise, just wait until I've passed away!" the old grandma said.

After I'm dead?

Fine, then I'll see when you die.

After walking out of the villa, Tang Xiangdong was filled with murderous intent.

If I must become chairman when you're dead, then you better die!

In the Mountain Villa, Sun Mei was saying something in Tang Qiulu's room, because the old grandma only gave her 3 days.

If she couldn't accomplish the task set by the old grandma, then their family would never have good days ahead.

"Why don't you think for yourself?

Even though you're in charge of the West District project, if the old grandma decides to take away your power, she can easily find a way.

So why would you give up your promising future because of that wastrel Su Canghai?" Tang Qiulu's inflexibility made Sun Mei very frustrated.

No matter how much she tried to persuade, Tang Qiulu simply wouldn't comply.

"Our entire family is counting on you.

If the old grandma deals with you, how do you think we can support the family, and this Mountain Villa costs hundreds of thousands every year, are you thinking he would provide the money?"

“My happiness with your father has just begun, and now because of that outsider Su Changfeng, do you think risking this is worth it?”

Tang Qiulu’s face was as deep as water, for such shameless things, what right did she have to make an excuse for Su Changfeng?

She never expected that grandma would come here and make such shameless demands.

“Mom, I’m not that thick-skinned.” Tang Qiulu said.

“Is pride worth caring about now?

Moreover, what’s wrong with ordering Su Changfeng to do this?

He’s been freeloading for 3 years here, asking him to help you once now, what’s wrong?” Sun Mei scornfully said.

Freeloading for 3 years?

Sun Mei actually dared to say such shameless words?

Not mentioning the things Su Changfeng had helped Tang Qiulu with, she didn’t even know, but just talking about the Mountain Villa, could it not cover the three years of expenses Su Changfeng incurred with the Tang Family?

Being shameless makes one invincible, and Sun Mei has perfectly embodied this idea.

“Mom, don’t forget, who paid for this villa.” Tang Qiulu said.

“Silly girl, now the property certificate of the villa has your name written on it, why care about who paid for it?

Anyway, the house is yours now!” Sun Mei gleefully looked at Tang Qiulu, with an uncontrollable smile on her face because she thought she was very clever, having initially made Su Changfeng transfer the house to Tang Qiulu’s name.

“Mom, one mustn’t be so shameless.” Tang Qiulu said.

“What’s shameless?

In today’s world, who doesn’t do anything for profit?

This is nothing!” Sun Mei said.

Tang Qiulu couldn’t help but sigh; reasoning with Sun Mei was impossible because Sun Mei was incredibly selfish.

Chapter 170 - 170 170 Two People with Different Thoughts

170: Chapter 170: Two People with Different Thoughts 170: Chapter 170: Two People with Different Thoughts “What are you still doing here?

Quickly go find Su Changfeng, now that your grandma has already said so, you should understand her temper, right?” Sun Mei reminded.

Tang Qiulu knew well about her grandma’s personality.

If she really doesn’t finish this task, she will have a hard time in the company in the future!

Although she is still the project leader, her power will most certainly be greatly reduced.

“Let me think about it.” Tang Qiulu said.

Sun Mei checked the time and realized it was her skin care time, so she said, “Alright, think it over quickly.

I need to go back to my room to maintain my skin.”

After Sun Mei left, Tang Qiulu lay in bed but couldn’t fall asleep.

Su Changfeng had already helped her tremendously.

Without Su Changfeng, the Tang Family wouldn’t have had the chance to partner with Weishui on the West District project.

What the Tang Family has now is almost entirely due to Su Changfeng.

If it was in the past, Tang Qiulu might not have been so troubled, but after the incident at Cang Jiao Pavilion, there’s been a rift between her and Su Changfeng.

Especially after Gu Qing’er gifted him a car recently, Tang Qiulu is more reluctant to face Su Changfeng.

Why don’t you explain it to me?

Even if some things are inconvenient to talk about, we’re a couple, so why can’t you tell me?

Tang Qiulu had thought about forgetting these things and making up with Su Changfeng, but she couldn't, because it was hard for her to compromise.

Maybe...

maybe she was also used to Su Changfeng's concessions inside.

"How could you have anything with Gu Changsheng?

How many more things are you hiding from me?" Tang Qiulu muttered to herself, becoming increasingly confused.

It's because she thought Su Changfeng was hiding many things from her, this lack of trust made Tang Qiulu more and more repelled by Su Changfeng.

But there are some things Su Changfeng really cannot tell Tang Qiulu now because she simply wouldn't be able to accept them.

In another room, Su Changfeng also couldn't sleep, thinking about the strange call from Ji Hong today, his mind was a mess.

Why would Shangguan Feihong want him to return to Beijing?

Since the year Su Changfeng was 12, at the high-class banquets in Beijing, Shangguan Feihong only allowed Su Wei Jun to attend.

Although the public knew the Su Family had two sons, only Su Wei Jun was acknowledged.

Because Su Changfeng hadn't appeared for a long time, there were even rumors saying he had long been terminally ill and died.

Over three years ago, Shangguan Feihong had secretly sent Su Changfeng to Hai City.

Since then, he ordered Su Changfeng never to return to Beijing, and likewise never to disclose that he was part of the Su Family.

Things had been done so absolutely at that time, so why has the attitude suddenly changed now?

"If you really intend to take things this far, then don't blame me for severing this thin blood relationship," Su Changfeng said coldly, with a murderous look in his eyes.

When Su Changfeng received Ji Hong's call, a particularly ridiculous idea popped into his mind, but it was precisely because of this idea that he said such a thing to Zhu Lie.

The next day, when Su Changfeng got up and went to the restaurant for breakfast, he saw Tang Qiulu.

Su Changfeng knew clearly that this was no coincidence; Tang Qiulu was waiting for him on purpose.

“Did grandma order you to have me speak well of the Tang Family to Gu Changsheng?” Su Changfeng asked.

Tang Qiulu said nothing and didn’t react at all.

Su Changfeng raised his eyebrows; this meant he guessed it right.

Otherwise, Tang Qiulu would at least shake her head to deny it.

“You only need to nod, and I’ll do it, but I can’t decide if the Tang Family will catch Gu Changsheng’s eye,” Su Changfeng continued.

Tang Qiulu hesitated for a while, and finally nodded.

Su Changfeng didn’t complain nor showed any dissatisfaction with Tang Qiulu and said, “And about Tang Xiangdong having to kneel, do you also think it was my fault?”

After drinking the porridge in her bowl, Tang Qiulu got up and left without saying a word throughout the entire process.

Su Changfeng sighed helplessly, with a wry smile on his face.

Liu Lili noticed that the atmosphere between them had changed recently compared to before.

Although it’s normal for a couple to argue, if it turns into overnight grudges, then it’s problematic.

“Chang Feng, when it comes to matters between a couple, Aunt Liu has been through it.

I’m telling you, there’s no such thing as overnight grudges in a marriage.

No matter if you’re right or wrong, you’re a man; it wouldn’t hurt to apologize to Qiulu,” Liu Lili said.

For Su Changfeng to apologize, it wasn’t a problem, but there were things Tang Qiulu wanted him to explain, but he simply couldn’t, and that was very frustrating.

“Aunt Liu, if your husband went to the Cang Jiao Pavilion but told you that although he went, he didn’t mess around with other women, would you believe it?” Su Changfeng said.

Liu Lili looked at Su Changfeng in shock and asked, “You went to the Cang Jiao Pavilion?”

Su Changfeng nodded with a bitter smile.

“Why did you go to that place?

Look at you, your wife is so beautiful, why would you go to such a place to find unclean women?” Liu Lili said to Su Changfeng, somewhat speechless.

No wonder the two of you are like this; it turns out Su Changfeng still cheated during the marriage, and with a prostitute no less!

Aunt Liu, although I did go to the Cang Jiao Pavilion, I really didn’t go to see a prostitute, I was just there on some business.” Su Changfeng explained weakly.

Liu Lili knew Su Changfeng was a good person, but she still found it a bit hard to believe that he went to the Cang Jiao Pavilion and didn’t do anything.

Gu Family.

Gu Qing’er sat in the living room, her alluring long legs crossed, looking very disappointed.

She really wanted to ask Su Changfeng out, but couldn’t find a suitable pretext.

Whatever the concerns about dignity, they were almost all thrown out the window by this Gu Family young lady.

Hearing Gu Qing’er sigh, Gu Changsheng came cheerfully to her side and asked, “Why is our Qing’er sighing here, facing troubles?

Just tell grandpa, and he’ll solve them for you.”

Gu Qing’er immediately looked at Gu Changsheng with a coquettish gaze, pretending to be pitiful and asked, “Are you playing chess with Su Changfeng today, grandpa?”

Previously, Gu Changsheng was very interested in playing chess.

If someone asked him to play, he’d go even if knives were falling from the sky, but at the mention of Su Changfeng, the old man’s interest was gone.

He had lost so badly that he no longer had any enthusiasm for chess; in fact, he felt more like watching Su Changfeng play.

“Your grandpa’s almost lost his entire fortune, don’t make it hard for grandpa, alright?” He couldn’t help but chuckle bitterly.

Hearing this, Gu Qing'er pouted immediately and said unhappily, "Didn't grandpa say you were really good?

Why give up now?"

"What can you do?

Su Changfeng even beat Liu Chen.

If even a master like Liu Chen lost, how could grandpa pretend it didn't happen?" Gu Changsheng sighed.

Losing a game was nothing to be ashamed of, since Liu Chen was a master and lost too, how could Gu Changsheng remain stubborn about it?
