The City's Strongest Son-in-law

Chapter 181 - 181 181 Challenging Huangfu Heibai

181: Chapter 181: Challenging Huangfu Heibai 181: Chapter 181: Challenging Huangfu Heibai Now, Su Changfeng's advantage on the board is gradually expanding, while Sima Chenguang's moves are starting to slow down, which implies that his situation is not very good, surprising everyone a bit.

Is this student Liu Chen really this strong?

No one had heard of such a figure before, could Liu Chen have deliberately hidden this person's strength?

As the game approached its end, the winner was still not revealed, but anyone who understands Go could see what the final result would be.

Perhaps Huangfu Heibai was getting impatient; having not watched the entire process, he said to Sima Chenguang: "It's been dragging on for so long, isn't it about time now?"

This statement put considerable pressure on Sima Chenguang.

When Su Changfeng heard Huangfu Heibai say this, he muttered, "It is indeed almost time."

Instantly, the offensive from the black pieces became unstoppable, and the white pieces quickly crumbled.

The outcome was clear, and Sima Chenguang's face turned gray.

"Lost, actually really lost."

"I didn't expect it, that it would turn out like this in the end."

"Impressive, I never thought there would be such a figure in Hai City."

Hearing the crowd's exclamations, Huangfu Heibai chuckled with pride, as it was his student who emerged; a lack of skill would have been odd.

“Liu Chen, it’s your turn now.” Huangfu Heibai said to Liu Chen.

Liu Chen turned his head, smiling as he looked at Huangfu Heibai: “Even if I go next, what meaning is there since your student has already lost?”

Hearing Liu Chen say this, Huangfu Heibai’s expression cooled as he retorted, “That’s impossible!

Sima Chenguang is a student I trained, he couldn’t possibly lose, are you planning to lie in front of everyone here?”

“Senior Huangfu, indeed your student has lost.”

“And it was a complete defeat.”

“I didn’t expect the president’s student to be this formidable!”

When Huangfu Heibai stepped up to the board, he saw the white pieces had lost thoroughly, while Sima Chenguang’s face was ashen.

Defeated!

Truly defeated!

“I’m very sorry, Master, I have let you down,” Sima Chenguang said in agony, even he did not expect that the person he had completely looked down on would possess such formidable strength.

Throughout the game, Sima Chenguang felt immense pressure, as if being pinned to the ground.

Huangfu Heibai gritted his teeth and coldly said, “I told you before, don’t underestimate the opponent.

It seems you didn’t take it to heart!”

In Huangfu Heibai’s eye, Sima Chenguang was indeed too careless, which is why he lost to Su Changfeng.

However, Sima Chenguang knew that even if he exerted 100% of his strength, he couldn’t compete with Su Changfeng.

“Senior Huangfu, would you be willing to enlighten me?” Su Changfeng suddenly said.

Su Changfeng’s words immediately stirred up the whole room, even Liu Chen’s face turned quite pale.

Having defeated Sima Chenguang, he dared to say such a thing, isn't this clearly provoking Huangfu Heibai?

"Young man, do you know what you're talking about?

Do you think you are qualified to be an opponent of Senior Huangfu Heibai?"

"You are incredibly lucky to defeat Senior Huangfu's student, and you dare to be so arrogant?"

"Young man, be restrained or you'll be utterly disgraced in a moment!"

The association members all glared at Su Changfeng in anger, very dissatisfied with his rudeness.

Liu Chen knew that Su Changfeng challenging Huangfu Heibai was certain death, and quickly said, "Hurry and apologize."

Su Changfeng stared intently at Huangfu Heibai.

According to Gu Changsheng, this opportunity truly was rare, if missed, there might never be another chance in his life.

Even if defeated, so what?

If he didn't challenge this once, how would he know his true limits?

Gu Changsheng, different from others, particularly appreciated Su Changfeng.

Young as he was, if he lacked even this bit of courage, he wouldn't be a young person.

Young people should courageously forge ahead!

Huangfu Heibai indeed had a prominent reputation, but if one's steps falter due to fear of reputations, isn't that a sign of cowardice?

"Senior Huangfu, I hope you can give me this opportunity," Su Changfeng said.

Huangfu Heibai's face was full of coldness; for a long time, no young person had the courage to challenge him, truly courting death.

Sima Chenguang had failed shamefully; Huangfu Heibai had no intention of letting it be so, and now Su Changfeng was courting death, how could he not oblige?

"My student was careless and was beaten by you.

Do you really think you are invincible?

Fine, now I'll let you, this arrogant fellow, know what it means to have others beyond and greater peaks beyond," Huangfu Heibai said.

Each member of the association looked contemptuously at Su Changfeng, all believing that Su Changfeng was courting death.

Now having offended Huangfu Heibai, given Huangfu Heibai's influence in the realm of Chinese Go, Su Changfeng should not expect to achieve anything great in the future.

In today's world, mere effort does not guarantee reward, nor does outstanding ability guarantee success.

Behind every success lies bizarre and multifarious factors.

Take Sima Chenguang for example, his level of Go among the younger generation is indeed quite high, but throughout all of China, there definitely are those with higher skill levels, yet their reputation cannot compare to Sima Chenguang's simply because those people are not students of Huangfu Heibai.

Background and connections are applicable in every field; no one can change it.

However, those people do not realize that in Su Changfeng's eyes, Go is merely a hobby; he has no intention of achieving anything notable in the field of Go, nor does he plan to pave his path to success through Go.

Su Changfeng made the first move with the black pieces.

Huangfu Heibai was indeed a master of his generation, his move speed was exceptionally fast, yet every step was incredibly exquisite.

Midway through the game, the board leaned in favor of Huangfu Heibai.

Now the outcome seemed decided; those observing looked at Su Changfeng with strong disdain, calling him a fool for challenging Huangfu Heibai—wasn't this courting death?

"How much longer can you struggle?" Huangfu Heibai asked.

Su Changfeng remained calm and did not respond.

Although the situations in Go can change extensively, everyone has their own playing habits.

Su Changfeng had memorized nearly all of Huangfu Heibai's famous games; now he thought of those games, intending to anticipate Huangfu Heibai's next move by finding some clues, so even if he was to lose, at least he wouldn't lose too ugly.

Chapter 182 - 182 182 A Small Victory by Ten Moves

182: Chapter 182: A Small Victory by Ten Moves 182: Chapter 182: A Small Victory by Ten Moves Su Changfeng's pace in the game had slowed to a crawl, seen by others as nothing more than Su Cang's dying struggle.

"Either way, he's definitely lost, just give up quickly and stop wasting time."

"Senior Huangfu's time is incredibly precious, don't you know what's important?"

"Your disciple's character seems quite unreliable, President."

Su Changfeng frowned, then coldly replied, "Spectators should remain silent, the outcome is not yet decided, and is this how your characters are?"

His words left them speechless, glaring at Su Changfeng in anger.

With a sneer, Huangfu Heibai thought that if Sima Chenguang had shown such persistence, he would have admired it.

But since it was Su Changfeng, he saw it as a foolish move, especially because Su Changfeng was a disciple of Liu Chen, offering him no support at all.

"Grandpa, Su Changfeng is so cool." At this moment, Gu Qing'er whispered to Gu Changsheng.

Her words were indeed imposing, effectively shutting everyone up, and in facing a heavyweight like Huangfu Heibai, he showed no signs of retreat; he was getting braver, a rarity among the youth today.

But the bolder he was, the more Gu Changsheng worried.

Su Changfeng was no coward, yet why did he marry into the Tang Family?

Was there another motive?

Clearly, Gu Qing'er had taken a liking to him, which also posed a risk to her.

"Is that so?

What's so handsome about being this ugly?" Gu Changsheng scoffed.

Gu Qing'er pouted unhappily and then said harshly, "It seems Grandpa's beard has grown quite a bit."

Gu Changsheng trembled with fear, quickly clutching his chin and echoed, "Indeed, really handsome, otherwise, how would our Qing'er take a liking?"

Seeing Ah Jin Gu Changsheng's words, Qing'er's face softened a bit.

Poor old master of the Gu family, a prominent figure in Hai City, utterly defeated by his granddaughter.

The game was reaching its end, Huangfu Heibai's expression turned serious, and the clarity of the match was fading.

Despite the advantage, Su Changfeng seemed to slowly turn the tide, leaving everyone in disbelief.

Having already defeated Sima Chenguang shocked them enough, could he really defeat Huangfu Heibai?

A Grandmaster in the world of Chinese Go; it would rattle the entire Chinese Go community if beaten by Su Changfeng.

Liu Chen's face flushed with excitement; even he had never compelled Huangfu Heibai to be so serious.

This guy's prowess was truly extraordinary!

Only now did Liu Chen understand the vast difference between him and Su Changfeng.

What kind of person was this young man?

It's hard to imagine he had such formidable Go skills at such a young age.

Gu Changsheng couldn't help but feel proud when he saw Liu Chen staring at Su Changfeng in shock, a thought he couldn't suppress burst forth.

Impressive, isn't he?

He's the Grandmaster's master!

Gu Changsheng had never thought he'd be proud to have once unwillingly apprenticed under Su Changfeng, but now, a seismic shift in perception had occurred, and pride filled him.

Everyone watched the board with bated breath, as if they themselves were in the game, suddenly wishing for Su Changfeng to win because his victory would reverberate across China, and Hai City would become famous through Su Canghai for Go.

However, the difference between Su Changfeng and Huangfu Heibai was still significant, and eventually, Su Changfeng lost.

Yet, Huangfu Heibai wasn't pleased with his own victory because in his eyes, he should have won neatly, but the win was only by ten points!

He saw this type of victory as a disgrace, since Su Canghai was just a twenty-something-year-old with such high Go skills.

A few years more, and he'd be no match for Su Changfeng.

Su Changfeng let out a long breath, "I did my best and managed to keep it to just ten points, Senior Huangfu is truly formidable."

While his words seemed humble, they were actually a slap in Huangfu Heibai's face.

Huangfu Heibai snapped, "Liu Chen, this isn't your disciple, is it?

I can't believe you even brought in outside help."

"Huangfu Heibai, whatever purpose brought you here today, do tell me—or not, it's fine.

But rest assured, I'll keep it confidential," Liu Chen replied with a smile, relishing in having pressured Huangfu Heibai to this extent, bringing him immense satisfaction.

"If he's truly capable, let him enter the upcoming Go tournament, and there he can face Sima Chenguang again!" Huangfu Heibai declared coldly.

"Go is just my hobby; I don't plan to enter any competitions.

As for Sima Chenguang...I never considered him a rival."

Huangfu Heibai nearly spat blood in rage, leaving with Sima Chenguang, faces seething, while the association members stared at Su Changfeng in disbelief.

He actually claimed in front of Huangfu Heibai that he didn't see Sima Chenguang as an opponent?

And his exceptional Go skills were just a hobby!

"My God, who the hell is this guy?

How dare he say such things?”

“I had no idea this person existed, not taking Huangfu Heibai seriously at all?”

“Given what he said, it’s understandable.

Forcing Huangfu Heibai to this point isn’t something just anyone could do.”

“Wow, Hai City actually has such an impressive figure, gaining significant face for us this time!”

Seeing the Go Association crowd about to swarm around him, Su Changfeng hurriedly told Liu Chen, “Grandpa Liu, I have other matters to attend to, so I’ll take my leave first.”

After speaking, Su Changfeng quickly slipped away.

If surrounded by these people, it would be a trouble.

Gu Qing’er watched him run off and immediately gave chase.

Gu Changsheng approached Liu Chen, disgruntled, “Well then, old man, you dare take advantage of me?”

“How did I take advantage of you?” Liu Chen asked, puzzled.

Initially, Gu Changsheng didn’t plan on telling anyone that Su Changfeng was his master because at his age, it would be embarrassing.

Chapter 183 - 183 183 Buying Shoes

183: Chapter 183 Buying Shoes 183: Chapter 183 Buying Shoes But things are different now.

Su Changfeng forced Huangfu Heibai into this position, barely losing by just ten points.

Having such a master like Su Changfeng as his mentor, he feels it’s quite respectable.

“He’s my master, you say he’s your disciple, then I would be your grand-disciple,” Gu Changsheng said.

Liu Chen was stunned.

The Gu Family’s head, Gu Changsheng, would become someone’s disciple?

But this old fellow isn’t easy to convince.

They've been competitors for most of their lives; although they've formed a friendship over the years, Gu Changsheng has never conceded.

Yet now, he's taken this young man as his master!

This kid holds such high status in Gu Changsheng's eyes!

"You...

you..." Liu Chen stammered, unable to speak clearly.

"What 'you'?

This time, I've done you a huge favor.

You should think about how to thank me," Gu Changsheng said proudly.

Indeed, today he helped a lot.

Otherwise, Liu Chen would definitely lose face this time.

Not only did he not lose face, but he also diminished Huangfu Heibai's arrogance.

Liu Chen wouldn't have even dared dream of this in the past.

"Alright, alright, I'll definitely thank you properly."

After leaving the association, Gu Qing'er walked alongside Su Changfeng, smiling quietly, even though she didn't say a word.

But Gu Qing'er was in high spirits.

Just now, when Su Changfeng played chess against Huangfu Heibai, his incredibly serious demeanor captivated Gu Qing'er.

The more she interacted with him, the more charming she found Su Changfeng.

"What are you smiling about?" Su Changfeng asked, puzzled.

Gu Qing'er looked up and replied, "Nothing, nothing, I just feel like smiling.

Is that not allowed?"

"Of course it's allowed.

You're the eldest daughter of the Gu Family, you can do whatever you want in Hai City.

Who dares to stop you?” Su Changfeng said.

“Do you have some free time for shopping now?” Gu Qing’er asked.

It’s no use hiding forever, it’s best to deal with things sooner.

Su Changfeng said, “Alright, where do you want to go?

But I don’t have much time, I can only accompany you for one hour.”

“You think I shop like other women, spending the whole day shopping?” Gu Qing’er said, against her own conscience, because she had forgotten how long she spent shopping with her girlfriends before.

They walked together into a mall, and the people nearby looked at them like they were a couple, drawing admiration.

But instead of going to the brand stores she had visited before, Gu Qing’er found a rather ordinary store.

The shoes inside ranged from 300 to 1000, which might seem pricey to ordinary people, but the Gu Family’s eldest daughter would never visit such a store before.

Gu Qing’er picked a few pairs of shoes, trying them all on for Su Changfeng to see.

Gu Qing’er is very sweet and cute, and quite tall, able to carry any style of shoe.

Therefore, when she asked Su Changfeng if the shoes looked good, his answer was just “They look good.”

Gu Qing’er didn’t think Su Changfeng was just appeasing her, because she was confident in her choices.

She finally bought a pair of high heels for over 600, with Su Changfeng footing the bill, satisfying Gu Qing’er.

They parted ways outside the mall, but Gu Qing’er seemed in a hurry to leave, as if something important was happening.

Gu Qing’er hurried home, put the newly purchased shoes into a clear storage box, placing it seriously at the bedside, as if she wasn’t planning to wear them.

In the shoe cabinet of the Gu Family’s eldest daughter, there are also many pairs worth tens of thousands, but compared with those gifted by Su Changfeng, they’re nothing.

After leaving the shopping center, Su Changfeng stopped in front of a jewelry store for quite some time.

He saw a diamond necklace in the display window, which looked particularly beautiful.

At first glance, he thought of Tang Qiulu, imagining how beautiful she would look wearing it.

While Su Changfeng was absorbed in looking at it, a young man and woman walked out of the store.

The man saw Su Changfeng's fascinated look, and said with disdain, "Look at that.

If you don't have prospects, you can only stare like this.

Aren't you glad to find a man as excellent as me?

Now you know you're much happier than others, right?"

The woman covered her mouth and laughed softly, looking at Su Changfeng with contempt, saying, "A pauper like him, even if I were blind, I wouldn't choose him."

After saying that, they walked over to a BMW Z4, while a Lamborghini was parked not far away.

"This is so cool, when will you be able to buy one to drive?" the woman asked the man.

The man said awkwardly, "Hurry up, get in the car.

Stop talking nonsense.

Do ordinary people buy that kind of car?"

Just then, the Lamborghini's headlights flashed, unlocking, waiting for its owner.

The woman looked around, wanting to see who owned the Lamborghini.

And Su Changfeng suddenly stopped, as now an elderly man was standing in front of him, blocking his path.

"Grandpa Huo?" Su Changfeng called out in disbelief.

Huo Tian, the master who taught Su Changfeng martial arts, therefore, everything Su Changfeng learned couldn't be separated from the training by Huo Tian.

Within the Su Family, it's only Huo Tian who's truly been kind to Su Changfeng.

In Su Changfeng's eyes, Huo Tian was almost like his grandfather to him, hence he never called him master, but always grandpa.

Despite his old age, Huo Tian appeared different from those his age; his posture was remarkably upright, more spirited than some young people.

He smiled kindly and said, "I haven't seen you for a long time, you've grown taller."

"Grandpa Huo." Su Changfeng looked at Huo Tian helplessly and said, "You must be mistaken, I'm pretty grown up now, how could I still be growing?"

Huo Tian walked to Su Changfeng's side, placed his left hand on Su Changfeng's shoulder, and said, "You're good, your physique is better than before.

This means you haven't slacked off with what I taught you."

"Grandpa Huo, I haven't missed a single session," Su Changfeng said, though lacking confidence.

Indeed, he hadn't missed any sessions before; he used to train every day, but lately, Tang Qiulu stopped running with him in the morning, so he slacked off for a few days.

"Since childhood, whenever you lied, you'd inadvertently rub your hands.

Have you not abandoned this bad habit, even now?" Huo Tian laughed and said.

Su Changfeng felt embarrassed, as on this earth, only Huo Tian knew him best, even his little habits.

"Grandpa Huo, why are you here?" Su Changfeng asked.

Yan Jun's smile gradually faded, and Su Changfeng also felt a jolt in his heart.

"Did the Su Family ask you to take me away?" Su Changfeng asked.

"Though you are my disciple, you know it too..."

Chapter 184 - 184 184 I Have 10 Billion

184: Chapter 184 I Have 10 Billion 184: Chapter 184 I Have 10 Billion "Grandpa Huo, I understand, but can you wait for two more days?" Su Changfeng said.

"Alright, just at this time, I will visit a friend.

Remember what I told you, don't be soft-hearted when you need to resist:" Huo Tian turned and walked away.

Su Changfeng clenched his fists, his whole body trembling slightly.

He never expected that Huo Tian would come to Hai City!

However, Su Changfeng knew that Huo Tian was just following orders, so it wasn't his fault.

After getting in the car, Su Changfeng showed no expression as he headed to Hai City Prison, leaving only after an hour.

Then he went to the bank, withdrew a lot of cash, and headed to a small village in the Hai City Suburb.

He placed all the cash he had just withdrawn into a particularly shabby house.

"I hope you won't let me down, or I won't mind ending you myself."

After doing all these things, Su Changfeng returned to the villa.

He had to come up with a reason to make Tang Qiulu believe him before he could return to Beijing.

During dinner that evening, Su Changfeng told Tang Qiulu he would be leaving Hai City for some time.

Tang Qiulu's face remained indifferent, and she nodded without looking at Su Changfeng throughout the entire process.

However, Sun Mei believed that Su Changfeng must be up to something shady and coldly said, "Su Changfeng, if you've got a woman elsewhere, you better hide her well, or you can get ready to be kicked out of our house!"

As for what Sun Mei said, Su Changfeng acted as if he didn't hear it.

Sun Mei was just a shrew and particularly materialistic, so it wasn't surprising she would say such things.

"One more thing, before you leave, hand over all your money.

Don't think you can spend our family's money on other people!" Sun Mei said.

Su Changfeng replied with a smile, "I have ten billion.

Do you want it?”

Sun Mei sneered, as if Su Changfeng, this coward, dared to boast that he had ten billion?

To brag like that, he should at least look at his status!

“You say you have ten billion?

And I say I’m the owner of the bank.

Who are you trying to fool?” Sun Mei said with disdain.

Su Changfeng shrugged and replied, “You don’t believe what I’m saying, so why should I give you any money?”

“Su Changfeng, stop playing dumb here.

You must still have a lot of money.

Hand it all over because it belongs to us, the Tang Family.

You can go wherever you want, but the money must stay!” Sun Mei stood up and said fiercely.

“Mom, please say no more.

Su Changfeng’s money has nothing to do with our family.” Tang Qiulu said to Sun Mei.

“Nothing to do with us?

This coward married into our family, so he is one of us.

Even the socks on his body belong to us.” Sun Mei shamelessly said.

Su Changfeng couldn’t tolerate Sun Mei’s shamelessness.

If he let her continue speaking, who knows what kind of trouble she’d stir up, so he stood up and planned to return to his room.

Sun Mei grabbed Su Changfeng directly, saying, “Trying to sneak away?

That’s not gonna work, hand over all the money on you right now!”

Su Changfeng impatiently shook off Sun Mei’s hand, turning to her with a gloomy face, “If you continue to make a scene, don’t blame me for being rude.”

Upon hearing this, Sun Mei began to exhibit her shrewish nature, angrily scolding, “Su Changfeng, who do you think you are here?

Don’t you know your current status?”

“And who do you think you are?

Sun Mei, living in my house, yet so arrogant?

Where do you get your confidence?” Su Changfeng coldly replied.

“Ha ha~!” Sun Mei laughed loudly at this and said, “Su Changfeng, this house is no longer yours.

The owner is now Qiulu, have you forgotten?”

At this moment, Tang Qiulu immediately intervened between them.

Although the ownership of the house truly changed to her, Tang Qiulu never felt like the owner because she was confused back then when she did it.

Furthermore, Tang Qiulu believed that this was the reason for the gap between her and Su Changfeng.

Regarding this matter, Tang Qiulu regretted it many times and definitely wouldn’t use it against Su Changfeng.

“Mom, stop talking.” Tang Qiulu said.

“Qiulu, this coward is about to find another woman, and yet you’re still defending him?” Sun Mei shouted angrily.

Su Changfeng did not rebut, instead, taking a deep breath and standing in front of Sun Mei.

Slap!

A particularly loud slap echoed throughout the villa.

Sun Mei touched her face, looking at Su Changfeng in disbelief.

Did this...waste dare to slap her?

“My backing down is not a reason for you to flaunt your power here.

Consider this your final warning: if you continue to speak recklessly, don't blame me for being impolite!" Su Changfeng looked at Sun Mei coldly.

Fear filled Sun Mei's eyes, and even Tang Zhenhua stood there dumbfounded.

It seemed as if he saw the aura that Su Changfeng exuded when he beat up Tang Xiangdong before.

"Su Changfeng, what are you doing?" Tang Qiulu, realizing what had happened, yelled at Su Changfeng in disbelief.

After all, Sun Mei was her mother, and for Su Changfeng, as a junior, to hit his elder, how could he do such a thing?

Su Changfeng shook his head with a bitter smile, saying nothing as he returned to his room.

Listening to Sun Mei shouting and hollering in the living room, a calmness settled in Su Changfeng's heart.

Someone like Sun Mei should have been put in her place from the start.

Taking action now isn't too late, but the extent of action taken this time was not enough.

Sooner or later, Su Changfeng would make Sun Mei see her true self!

Tang Qiulu sat on the sofa, dazed, looking as if she had lost her soul.

Su Changfeng's apparent helplessness just now seemed to have widened the chasm between them once more.

Tang Qiulu also understood that Su Changfeng wasn't wrong.

It was Sun Mei who provoked him, causing him to hit her, but still, Sun Mei was her mother.

On the living room floor, Sun Mei rolled around, and Tang Zhenhua couldn't hold her back.

At this moment, Tang Qiulu suddenly stood up, coldly telling Sun Mei, "You two should move out!"

Hearing Tang Qiulu say this, Sun Mei, who was throwing a tantrum, immediately calmed down.

Move out?

They had nowhere else to go, and besides, nowhere compared to the Mountain Villa.

She couldn't bear to leave, and living here was her pride in front of friends.

If her friends from Rui Country found out she couldn't stay at the Mountain Villa, she would lose all her face.

Sun Mei quickly stood up, walking to Tang Qiulu's side, "Qiulu, mom won't cause trouble anymore and won't do it in the future.

Can we not move out?"

Chapter 185 - 185 185 The Relationship Between Huangfu Heibai and Huo Tian

185: Chapter 185: The Relationship Between Huangfu Heibai and Huo Tian 185: Chapter 185: The Relationship Between Huangfu Heibai and Huo Tian Right now, Tang Qiulu finding a reason to kick the two out would be a bit heartless; after all, they are her parents.

She couldn't be too ruthless and said, "If things continue like this next time, we'll all move out.

This place was bought by Su Changfeng; don't think just because I'm the owner, that the house belongs to me, Su Changfeng is the real owner!"

Sun Mei felt incredibly upset internally; now that Tang Qiulu is the owner, why is Su Changfeng the owner of the house?

But she knows Tang Qiulu is very angry right now.

Though she usually listens to Sun Mei, when Tang Qiulu is mad, she isn't joking around.

The most crucial factor is that both Tang Zhenhua and her current living conditions depend on Tang Qiulu, hence Sun Mei doesn't dare go too far.

"Okay, okay, whatever you say is right.

Anyway, Su Cang will leave soon, and Mom won't make a fuss anymore." Sun Mei said.

The next day, Su Changfeng left alone, driving away without notifying Tang Qiulu.

In a hotel somewhere, Huangfu Heibai is still fuming over the events of yesterday.

Although he won against Su Changfeng, the victory felt particularly frustrating and humiliating.

If this gets out, it would be severely damaging to his reputation.

He is a grandmaster in the field of Go, yet he merely won by ten points against a young man in his twenties—people will laugh their heads off if this leaks!

But right now, Huangfu Heibai has something extremely important to deal with; he must meet a certain person.

“Who is that person, Master?

He must be really something if you have to go see him yourself?” Sima Chenguang asked in confusion, looking at Huangfu Heibai.

Usually, wherever they went, the big figures would come to see them, and in Sima Chenguang’s memory, this was a first.

“It’s none of your business, stay here and focus on your game, you don’t need to come along.” Huangfu Heibai responded coldly.

Sima Chenguang was curious, but seeing Huangfu Heibai’s resolute attitude, he wouldn’t dare say more.

Plus, yesterday he was defeated by Su Changfeng, which felt like a lifelong disgrace, so he swore to win next time, thus improving his game was the most important task now.

After walking out of the hotel, Huangfu Heibai took a taxi to another hotel.

Once he reached the main entrance, he adjusted his breathing.

And before pressing the doorbell of a certain room, he adjusted his breathing once more, clearly, he was very nervous.

The doorbell rang, and the door quickly opened.

Seeing the person inside the room, Huangfu Heibai bowed respectfully and said, “Mr.

Huo.”

The person he wanted to meet was none other than Su Changfeng’s mentor, Huo Tian.

Huo Tian had worked as a bodyguard for the Su Family, with many subordinates at the time, and numerous individuals had benefited from him, Huangfu Heibai being one of them.

Without Huo Tian's favor, Huangfu Heibai wouldn't have his current status.

"Come in." Huo Tian said.

Once inside the room, Huangfu Heibai was exceptionally cautious.

Even though years had passed since he last met Huo Tian, and he had become somewhat of a prominent figure himself, he was still very nervous before Huo Tian.

Because Huangfu Heibai knew very well, the elder before him, whose age surpassed his but whose vigor exceeded his own, had hands stained with countless blood; this was indeed a true great figure!

"I heard someone say a young man almost cornered you into losing yesterday?" Huo Tian asked with a smile.

Huangfu Heibai shuddered upon hearing this, mistakenly thinking Huo Tian was reproaching him and quickly explained, "A momentary lapse, won by ten points."

Huo Tian smiled, "Give that person 5 years, and by then could you still defeat him?"

Five years.

Huangfu Heibai's face turned a liverish color; he was already aging, his mind less sharp.

In five years, his skills would inevitably decline, yet this kid was merely in his twenties.

Given five years, he would undoubtedly be no match for this person.

Admitting his defeat wasn't something Huangfu Heibai would do; he, after all, was a grandmaster in the field of Go, where face was tremendously important.

How could he concede before a naïve boy?

"Mr.

Huo, within five years, my disciple can surely defeat him." Huangfu Heibai said.

Huo Tian chuckled, Huangfu Heibai thought he was dissatisfied over losing, yet truthfully, Huo Tian was glad because that person was Su Changfeng, the very student he mentored.

But having Huangfu Heibai harbor hostility toward Su Changfeng was also beneficial; what is a journey without rivals?

Huo Tian achieved his current strength by eliminating numerous obstructions in his past.

“Your disciple is worth good training.” Huo Tian said.

Huangfu Heibai’s face brightened with joy; Huo Tian’s comment meant a lot to him, acknowledging Sima Chenguang’s abilities, which was indeed rare.

Of course, in Huo Tian’s view, Sima Chenguang was merely a stepping stone on Su Changfeng’s path to the future.

“Thank you, Mr.

Huo, for your recognition; I’ll definitely cultivate him well.” Huangfu Heibai replied.

Seeing Huo Tian didn’t respond, Huangfu Heibai curiously asked, “Mr.

Huo, this time you’ve come to Hai City, may I know the reason?”

Huo Tian having resided in Beijing for a long time without leaving made Huangfu Heibai curious.

What was it that would make this giant come personally?

Huangfu Heibai regarded Huo Tian as a great figure not solely due to the Su Family connection, but because of Huo Tian’s own prowess.

Additionally, Huo Tian’s presence in the Su Family greatly enhanced its standing in Beijing.

Without Huo Tian, their status would be considerably less; such was Huo Tian’s influence, the mark of a former underworld leader.

“I’m here to fetch someone.” Huo Tian replied casually.

Upon hearing this, Huangfu Heibai’s breath quickened significantly, and even his scalp tingled.

What kind of person could warrant a visit from Huo Tian himself?

This was simply unbelievable.

Huangfu Heibai understood his own position and dared not inquire further.

After a brief chat, he left.

“What sort of figure could make Huo Tian come himself?

Could it be that a big shot is hidden within Hai City?" Huangfu Heibai couldn't help but marvel outside the hotel.

Huangfu Heibai shook his head and sighed, despite having a very high status within the realm of Chinese Go, being a distinguished person, he still couldn't compare to those true great figures.

Chapter 186 - 186 186 Wu Feng

186: Chapter 186 Wu Feng 186: Chapter 186 Wu Feng For example, those who can make Huo Tian come in person are those he can match.

As the saying goes, there's always a sky beyond the sky and someone above someone else.

After so many years of struggle, he's only touched the threshold of true high society."

Two days later, Huo Tian appeared at the Hai City airport with Su Changfeng.

In these two days, Su Changfeng went to see Zhu Lie and Feng Bin, as well as other pawns in Hai City, and frankly told them that he would be leaving Hai City for some time.

Zhu Lie was particularly curious, but he could also guess that Su Changfeng had a secret identity, so he didn't ask much.

"Grandpa Huo, when I return to Beijing this time, if I do anything that makes you unhappy, please don't blame me," Su Changfeng said to Huo Tian.

Huo Tian nearly regarded Su Changfeng as his own grandson.

In the Su Family, Su Changfeng did not receive the appreciation of others, but Huo Tian paid special attention to him.

"No matter what you do, Grandpa Huo won't say a word.

Go, take back everything that was originally yours!" Huo Tian said.

Su Changfeng shook his head and said, "Nothing in the Su Family belongs to me, and I will not take anything."

"You're still so stubborn, you kid," Huo Tian said helplessly.

"This is not stubbornness, Grandpa Huo.

This is my bottom line and dignity.

When I was kicked out by the Su Family, I was no longer a member of the Su Family, so nothing in the Su Family is mine," Su Changfeng continued.

Huo Tian knew what kind of temperament Su Changfeng had.

From the age of 12, the unfair treatment he received became an obsession in his heart, and no one could change it!

Before boarding, Su Changfeng put on a hat.

He would always do this when returning to Beijing, because whenever he went out, people would mistake him for Su Wei Jun, and Su Changfeng didn't want to live under that name.

Beijing had many familiar places for Su Changfeng.

After the plane arrived in Beijing, Huo Tian said to Su Changfeng, "Go and look around, but don't forget to come home tomorrow."

Su Changfeng nodded without saying anything.

Beijing was so big that there were many places Su Changfeng had never been to, because no matter where they went, his grandmother would only take Su Wei Jun.

Su Changfeng had to stay home, waiting for Su Wei Jun to return and tell him what the place was like.

As a child, he longed for the amusement park described by Su Wei Jun and vowed to visit it when he grew up.

But when Su Changfeng did grow up, he never went to the place, because it was where Su Wei Jun had been and a place his grandmother had a bias towards.

Su Changfeng knew that even if he went, he wouldn't be happy.

Mo Ke Building.

As a well-known company in Beijing, Mo Ke engaged in many industries.

Its chairman, Wu Feng, held a particularly high status in Beijing, though he wasn't able to enter the circles of those big noble families.

However, there were still many people in the process who would give Wu Feng some respect.

Without a work permit, Su Changfeng was stopped by the company's security.

The security guards were particularly rude, asking Su Changfeng to leave immediately, clearly looking down on him.

“Call out Wu Feng,” Su Changfeng said calmly.

The security guards couldn’t help but laugh when they heard Su Changfeng say this.

“Young man, who do you think you are?

You think you’re somebody?

Do you have the qualifications to see the chairman?” A security guard sneered.

“I’ll let you know who I am once he comes out,” Su Changfeng said.

“Get out of here immediately.

Don’t disturb my work.

If you keep talking nonsense, don’t blame me for being unkind.

Look at who you are, still want to see the chairman?”

“Buddy, leave quickly.

Our boss at Mo Ke won’t see you.”

“Oh, don’t know which hillbilly you are, even if you haven’t seen much, surely you’ve seen TV?

Our chairman can be seen on TV.”

Su Changfeng stood still at the door, like a statue.

The security guards frowned as they saw him standing there like that.

“No matter what we say, won’t listen unless we give him a beating first, is that it?”

“Damn it, let’s beat this guy up first.”

“The chairman will be back in a few minutes.

We can’t let him cause trouble here.”

The security guards rolled up their sleeves and aggressively approached Su Changfeng.

Just before they acted, a Bentley stopped at the company entrance, and the security guards instantly pulled back their aggression.

“We’re in trouble now that the chairman’s back.

If he finds out we couldn’t handle this in an hour, we might lose our jobs.”

“Damn it, if I lose my job, I’ll beat this bastard to death.”

“Son of a bitch, you’ve got us all in trouble.

You’ll pay for this.”

At over 30 years old, Wu Feng was certainly one of the most outstanding people in his age group in Beijing.

After getting out of the car, his nearly 1.9 meters tall frame exuded a strong aura, evident from the fearful looks on the security guards’ faces.

“Hello, Chairman.”

“Hello, Chairman.”

“Chairman, you’ve arrived.”

Wu Feng asked with some displeasure, “What happened?

Causing a scene at the company entrance damages our company’s image, don’t you know that?”

The security guards were startled.

One of them hurriedly replied, “This person said he wants to see you, Chairman, but no matter what we said, he wouldn’t listen and refused to leave.”

Wu Feng sneered and said, “So many people want to see me.

Who do you think you are?

Get out now!”

“Is that so?” Su Changfeng just said these two words, as if a superior was speaking to an ant.

Even though it was just two words, the incredibly familiar voice made Wu Feng shudder.

Him...

When Wu Feng turned around and saw the familiar face under the hat, if not for the others present, Wu Feng almost kneeled immediately!

Why would he suddenly return to Beijing?

Many people couldn't distinguish between Su Changfeng and Su Wei Jun, but Wu Feng knew the difference between the two.

Plus, since Su Wei Jun was still imprisoned in the Imperial City, he certainly wouldn't come to this place.

"Mr.

Su...

Mr.

Su," Wu Feng swallowed, deeply regretting his earlier arrogance, and hurriedly bent slightly to greet Su Changfeng.

"It's really hard to find you now, don't you agree?" Su Changfeng said calmly.

"No, no," Wu Feng hastily waved his hand and replied, "Mr.

Su, please come with me."

The security guards were stunned, seeing Wu Feng suddenly change his attitude.

Who is this person that can intimidate our chairman so?

Chapter 187 - 187 187 Su Family

187: Chapter 187 Su Family 187: Chapter 187 Su Family Everyone had a ghostly expression as they watched Wu Feng lead Su Changfeng into the company, with Su Changfeng walking in front and Wu Feng following behind.

"Who...

who is this person?

Why is the chairman so respectful?"

"My God, did we inadvertently offend a big shot?"

“Damn it, it’s really over now.

What should we do?

What should we do!”

The security guards broke out in a cold sweat, all particularly flustered.

None of them could imagine that this seemingly ordinary person could be such a big shot?!

Wu Feng’s office.

Wu Feng stood behind Su Changfeng, looking uneasy.

Others weren’t aware of how formidable Su Changfeng was, but Wu Feng was all too clear.

This person whom the entire Su Family looked down upon had already planted his pawns in Beijing before reaching adulthood.

Even someone as outstanding as Wu Feng in the eyes of outsiders was merely a pawn placed there by Su Changfeng.

“Mr.

Su, the day you return...”

Bang!

Before Wu Feng could finish his sentence, Su Changfeng spun around and kicked him, causing Wu Feng to stagger back a few steps before kneeling on the ground.

“I’m sorry, Mr.

Su, I truly apologize.” Wu Feng said, kowtowing in panic.

“We haven’t seen each other for a few years, but it seems you forgot who you are?” Su Changfeng said calmly.

“Mr.

Su, Wu Feng knows very well, I’m merely your dog, and I will never forget this, I swear.” Wu Feng said with a terrified expression, recalling the image of a blood-soaked Su Changfeng, who at that time appeared like a demon in Wu Feng’s eyes.

He understood that if this man wanted to kill him, nothing he said would matter.

Five years ago, a family in Beijing was massacred, and the case remains unsolved.

The person who orchestrated that massacre is standing right in front of Wu Feng now!

Su Changfeng turned around, looking through the floor-to-ceiling window at the crowd below the Mo Ke Building, resembling ants.

He said, “I hope you remember that everything comes from me.

No matter how strong your wings become, you can do nothing to stop me if I want to take it back.”

Wu Feng hurriedly nodded, disregarding his physical pain, and quickly said, “Mr.

Su, Wu Feng will always remember my position and never forget your kindness.”

“I heard Su Tian is about to die soon?” Su Changfeng asked.

“Since Su Tian was hospitalized, his condition has been far from optimistic.

At this point, it’s money that is just barely keeping him alive.” Wu Feng replied.

“Now that I’m back, he basically has no chance of survival.” Su Changfeng said indifferently.

Upon hearing Su Changfeng say this, Wu Feng’s eyelid twitched continuously!

The Su Family had abandoned Su Changfeng before, and now he’s planning to kill his biological father?

He’s so ruthless, he’s like a demon straight out of Hell.

“Mr.

Su, if you need anything, just say it.” Wu Feng said.

“With your current capabilities, you are still unable to become an enemy of the Su Family, just continue making your money.

When I need to use you, I will definitely come to you.

However, if I come next time, it might be to take your life!” Su Changfeng said calmly.

Wu Feng couldn’t help but shiver all over, trembling, and quickly lay down on the floor.

This chairman of Mo Ke, who appeared so outstanding in front of outsiders, now looked like a dog lying there.

Leaving Mo Ke Company, upon reaching the company entrance, the few security guards who were previously rude to Su Changfeng repeatedly apologized and were nearly kneeling in remorse.

“Mr.

Su, we apologize for not recognizing Jin Xiangyu earlier and bumping into you.

We sincerely hope you will not hold it against us.”

“We know our mistake, Mr.

Su.

Please don’t let Chairman Wu fire us.”

“Don’t be afraid, I have no intention of stooping to your level, but next time you might not be so lucky.”

The security guards thanked him profusely, watching Su Changfeng leave, finally feeling at ease.

Su Family’s Mansion.

In a place like Beijing, the display isn’t about luxurious villas anymore; it’s the deep alleyways of courtyard residences in little alleys.

In the courtyard, there is a separate garden, a fish pond, and even a hundred-year-old Huanghuali tree inside.

Shangguan Feihong sat in a rocking chair under this tree, while Huo Tian stood not far away.

“That good-for-nothing has just returned to Beijing and is already out gallivanting somewhere, isn’t he?” Shangguan Feihong said coldly.

Usually, this would be what Su Wei Jun does, but Shangguan Feihong believes Su Wei Jun is doing it to build good relationships and make some friends so that the Su Family can have a better future.

As for Su Changfeng not returning home, wherever he went, the Old Madam would assume he’s fooling around.

“I told him to come back tomorrow.” Huo Tian said.

Hearing Huo Tian say this, Shangguan Feihong looked displeased but didn’t say anything.

Huo Tian’s status within the Su Family was unusual, notwithstanding that on the surface he was merely a bodyguard.

Even Shangguan Feihong dared not criticize him arbitrarily.

Shangguan Feihong knew that the Su Family’s current position owed much to Huo Tian’s help.

Even when the family was under Grandpa Su Changfeng’s control, Huo Tian was his right-hand man.

Before dying, he even urged ensuring Huo Tian stayed with the Su Family.

Looking at the notches on the tree, Shangguan Feihong smiled slightly.

Those were marked by Shangguan Feihong herself each year as Su Wei Jun grew taller, marking his growth milestones on the tree.

However, Su Changfeng never had the privilege to leave any marks on this tree.

Very soon, not long now, you will be free.

Previously, Grandma promised you this, and there is no way she’d break that promise.

Late at night, Su Changfeng quietly returned to the Su Family’s Mansion.

Although Huo Tian sensed it, he was already in bed and didn’t bother to check, merely sighing instead.

The disparity between Su Changfeng and Su Wei manifested in every aspect already.

Su Wei Jun’s room was particularly close to the Old Madam, and it had excellent lighting.

But Su Changfeng’s room was in the furthest corner of the Su Family’s Mansion, originally a storeroom, receiving no sunlight year-round, dark and damp.

When Su Changfeng returned to his old room, he found the dust inside was nearly a finger’s thickness, which meant that since he left the Su Family, no one had ever come in, not even a servant cared to clean it.

“Even dog kennels get cleaned weekly; is this place truly worth less than that?” Su Changfeng said coldly.

Grasping the corner of a cabinet, Su Changfeng crushed it with his grip!

Looking at the unchanged scenery from when he left, Su Changfeng approached the south wall, where there was a particularly noticeable mark.

Chapter 188 - 188 188 Insight into the Plan

188: Chapter 188 Insight into the Plan?

188: Chapter 188 Insight into the Plan?

That was Su Changfeng when he was 12 years old, and from that moment, Su Changfeng already knew his status in the Su Family and understood that from then on he could only rely on himself.

“Back then you were so short, no wonder people looked down on you.” Su Changfeng stroked the scratches on the wall, his face gradually filling with a bitter smile.

Squatting against the wall, Su Changfeng seemed to return to the time he was still a child.

At that time, Shangguan Feihong wouldn’t let him sit at the table to eat.

Back then, when Su Wei Jun bullied him, Shangguan Feihong gave him a fierce beating, never bothering to ask who was actually at fault.

Even the servants of the Su Family would ridicule him behind his back.

Too much humiliation and injustice happened in this courtyard.

Now, you’re actually planning to let me replace Su Wei Jun in prison?

Shangguan Feihong, if you really intend to do this, then don’t blame me, Su Changfeng, for disregarding this blood relationship!

The Su Family, wherever I, Su Changfeng, am, that’s where the Su Family truly is!

The next day, Su Changfeng met with an arrogant Shangguan Feihong under the pear tree.

“Do you know the rules, when you see me now, do you not even know to greet grandmother?” Shangguan Feihong said sternly to Su Changfeng.

Su Changfeng walked to the tree, nodded to Huo Tian, but did not greet Shangguan Feihong.

Is this unfilial?

Su Changfeng wasn't, but he had been expelled from the Su Family, and Shangguan Feihong never truly regarded Su Changfeng as a grandson, so why should he call Shangguan Feihong grandmother?

"Now that I'm back, what are you planning to have me do?" Su Changfeng asked calmly.

Shangguan Feihong said through gritted teeth: "Why does the Su Family have someone like you?

If it weren't for Su Wei Jun being in jail, you would never come back here."

Shangguan Feihong's disdain had little effect on Su Changfeng, as Shangguan Feihong had repeated it countless times since he was young.

"I heard Su Tian doesn't have much time left, do you need me to see him off?" Su Changfeng said.

Shangguan Feihong angrily stood up, smacked Su Changfeng's shoulder directly with her cane, and cursed: "Su Tian is your father, without him where would you be?

How dare you speak such blasphemous words?!"

The shoulder hurt terribly, but Su Changfeng's expression showed no change in voice, saying, "If it weren't for me, even Su Wei Jun wouldn't exist, would you be willing?"

"Humph, you can't compare with Su Wei Jun!

He will inherit the Su Family in the future, while you're just a waste, an accessory!" Shangguan Feihong said disdainfully.

"Quickly say what you want, I don't have time to chat idly with you." Su Changfeng said.

"Go find Ji Hong, now I don't even want to see you, get out of here immediately." Shangguan Feihong cursed.

Su Changfeng was about to leave but suddenly stopped and said, "Don't play with fire, I can still give Su Wei Jun a way to live."

"Su Changfeng, what do you mean by that!" Shangguan Feihong was so angry that she was trembling; Su Changfeng daring to speak such words, not putting her in his eyes at all.

After Su Cang left, Shangguan Feihong sat down, fuming with anger.

"Su Wei Jun is indeed good, knows how to make me happy, but Su Changfeng is such a waste, dares to speak to me like this, doesn't put me in his eyes at all!

I wish you could die in jail!” Shangguan Feihong said with a venomous expression.

Previously, Shangguan Feihong intended for Su Changfeng to replace Su Wei Jun in jail, but now, another idea arose in her mind.

Only if Su Changfeng dies in jail could this matter be absolutely foolproof.

“Huo Tian, I know you don’t want to make a move and kill him, but as a member of the Su Family, I hope you won’t interfere too much in what I’m planning to do.” Shangguan Feihong said.

“Old Madam, rest assured, I won’t interfere on either side.” Huo Tian said, meaning that even if Su Wei Jun fell into Su Changfeng’s hands, he still wouldn’t intervene.

However, Shangguan Feihong didn’t comprehend this meaning; in Shangguan Feihong’s eyes, now that Su Changfeng returned to Beijing, he was doomed!

Su Changfeng went to the hospital and saw Su Tian lying on the bed.

Ji Hong dodged Su Changfeng’s eyes, didn’t dare to look him in the eye, because Ji Hong thought this matter was very unfair to Su Changfeng, but Shangguan Feihong had spoken, so she had to do as told.

“Is it because he doesn’t have much time left so you let me return to Beijing, or because I returned to Beijing, he would die?” Su Changfeng said to Ji Hong flatly.

Ji Hong was shocked; did he discover something?

Seeing Ji Hong remain silent, Su Changfeng continued: “Even if he died, Su Wei Jun isn’t necessarily able to leave the Imperial City, so let me meet with Su Wei Jun.”

Ji Hong’s face paled and she lowered her head, realizing that their plan seemed to have been detected by Su Changfeng.

But why would he know and still return?

Could it be that he would willingly go to jail for Su Wei Jun?

That’s impossible!

“Chang Feng, you...”

“This is the Su Family’s final chance for me, it’s up to you to decide what to do.” Su Changfeng said and walked out of the ward.

Ji Hong remained unresponsive for a long time, the Su Family’s final chance?

What does that mean!

Ji Hong couldn't fathom why she sensed a crisis for the entire Su Family through Su Changfeng's words, and this crisis was precisely brought by Su Changfeng!

Could it be that he's ready to take down the Su Family?

But considering Su Changfeng's current strength, opposing the Su Family is definitely unrealistic; the actions in Hai City were merely small gestures, and the Su Family didn't take them seriously, while Wu Feng's current power was incapable of competing with the Su Family.

The opportunity Su Changfeng spoke of was likely aimed at Su Wei Jun and Shangguan Feihong, and it was also a catalyst for Su Changfeng.

Because Su Changfeng couldn't sever this blood relationship, but if this matter truly turned out as Su Changfeng imagined, then Su Changfeng wouldn't care about this blood relationship anymore.

After a long time, Ji Hong took a deep breath, looked at the unquestionably unresponsive Su Tian and said, "Is mom really doing the right thing?

Why do I feel a strong sense of foreboding."

"Back then, what the Taoist said completely overturned mom's perception of the brothers Su Changfeng and Su Wei Jun, which is why Su Wei Jun was favored by mom, while Su Changfeng became the Old Madam's enemy.

But both brothers are our children."

Two days before their 12th birthday, by coincidence, the Old Madam met a person claiming to be the Heavenly Master, who then predicted for the brothers.

Chapter 189 - 189 189 Meeting Su Wei Jun

189: Chapter 189 Meeting Su Wei Jun 189: Chapter 189 Meeting Su Wei Jun In the mouth of this Taoist, Su Wei Jun possesses the Emperor's Fate, and if he were to inherit the Su Family, it would surely continue to flourish.

But Su Changfeng, he says, has the traitor face, which would harm the Su Family.

Because of this matter, Shangguan Feihong never regarded Su Changfeng as her grandson from that day onwards.

Later, Su Wei Jun sweet-talked his way into winning the Old Madam's favor, and as Shangguan Feihong invested everything in him, Su Changfeng would definitely become even less favored by her.

Very few people know about this, Ji Hong thought it was particularly absurd, because the Taoist's words were so mysterious, there was no way to verify their truth, yet Shangguan Feihong especially believed in them.

"Maybe the one who can really sustain the Su Family isn't Su Wei Jun, but Su Changfeng?" Ji Hong, being a neutral party, could clearly see the capabilities of Su Wei Jun and Su Changfeng, while the former always went to shady places, squandered endlessly, and had no ambition whatsoever.

Although the latter was expelled from Beijing by the Su Family and joined the Tang Family, he quietly arranged many things while enduring humiliation.

Ji Hong didn't conduct special investigations but understood some matters in Hai City were related to Su Changfeng; in this aspect alone, Su Wei Jun was far behind Su Changfeng.

However, Shangguan Feihong was deceived by Su Wei Jun's sweet words; how could she acknowledge the excellence of Su Changfeng?

At this moment, Ji Hong was praying, hoping for no mishaps with this matter, and hoping when Su Wei Jun was released, he could change, having the demeanor of a Su family heir.

"Please bless our Su Family." After saying this, Ji Hong tearfully unplugged Su Tian's oxygen supply.

Su Tian's hand and foot slightly trembled before he bid farewell to the world, and indeed, this liberated him.

Ji Hong instantly became a tearful mess, thinking she loved him all her life, but had to act for the sake of the Su Family, and in Shangguan Feihong's plans, Su Tian's death was the most crucial link.

"Mom, Su Tian is gone." Ji Hong called Shangguan Feihong.

Shangguan Feihong paused before speaking: "Got it, first spread the news, later I will apply for Su Wei Jun's parole."

Saying Shangguan Feihong wasn't sad was unrealistic, after all, he was flesh of her flesh, but to save Su Wei Jun, she had no choice but to act this way now.

The news of Su Tian's death quickly spread in Beijing, but it didn't shock the public since they had already learned about Su Tian's situation in the hospital, in a coma, it seemed better to have died earlier.

After the news spread, Shangguan Feihong quickly called the person in charge of the Imperial City prison, hoping to let Su Wei Jun temporarily come out to send off Su Tian's last journey.

But the other party's words made Shangguan Feihong particularly angry, no matter what she said, they were unwilling to release, their tone particularly firm, Su Wei Jun had no possibility of parole, leaving Shangguan Feihong furious.

This plan had already cost Su Tian's life, if Su Wei Jun could not be paroled, then all these plans would be shelved.

The next day, Su Tian's memorial was set at the Su Family's Mansion, representatives from all sectors in Beijing came to pay their respects, but under Shangguan Feihong's orders, Su Changfeng could only stay in his room and not come out.

Accompanied by dust all over the room.

Su Changfeng did not leave his room until the day Su Tian was buried.

The urn, Su Tian's plaque, were all carried by the Su Family's bodyguards, Su Wei Jun didn't receive parole, Su Changfeng remained unrecognized by Shangguan Feihong, still not qualified to send Su Tian's last journey.

In Shangguan Feihong's eyes, Su Changfeng was no longer a Su Family member, just someone with some utility value, hence bringing him back to Beijing.

Several days later, Su Tian's funeral was concluded, Shangguan Feihong personally came to the door of Su Changfeng's room.

"Ungrateful brat, hurry up and get out," Shangguan Feihong shouted, leaning on her cane.

Su Changfeng opened the door, expressionless, and said, "Since I'm no longer part of the Su Family, where does this talk of ingratitude come from?"

Shangguan Feihong coldly said, "Su Wei Jun thought of the brotherly bond, he wants to meet you, you have such a brother, you should be glad."

Su Changfeng chuckled, as it sounded so noble, even at such a moment, Shangguan Feihong still placed Su Wei Jun on a pedestal.

Without saying a word, Su Changfeng left the house and got into a car.

As the car drove away, an ominous feeling grew stronger in Ji Hong's heart, she felt something big was about to happen, her eyelids kept twitching.

"Mom, could something go wrong?" Ji Hong asked Shangguan Feihong.

Shangguan Feihong coldly smiled and said, "In this world, no one but us can distinguish between them, do not worry about these things, quickly go make some good food, my dear grandson hasn't eaten delicious food for a long time."

The Imperial City is one of China's largest prisons, and it's particularly well guarded.

When Su Changfeng arrived at the Imperial City, Shangguan Feihong's bribed person directly took him to a more private visitation room.

This place could only be used by those with special conditions; there was not a single monitoring device, a loophole in the Imperial City that was created with money, and some detained in the Imperial City had regular visits from young women who could fulfill all their needs.

Upon entering this visitation room, Su Changfeng detected a faint fragrance, slight enough to make one want to inhale deeply.

A few minutes later, dressed in a prison uniform, Su Wei Jun appeared before Su Changfeng.

"Su Changfeng, you finally came, damn it, you must have enjoyed having fun outside," the Su Family never considered Su Changfeng family, Su Wei Jun certainly would not regard him as a brother, brainwashed by Shangguan Feihong since childhood, Su Wei Jun even viewed Su Changfeng as an enemy.

The plan to have Su Changfeng go to jail on his behalf was proposed by Su Wei Jun, believing Su Changfeng should take his place in prison because the Su Family could only stand strong with his support, what qualification did Su Changfeng have?

"Spit it out quickly." Su Changfeng said.

Su Wei Jun chuckled, his entire demeanor dismissive, saying, "Is this how you talk to your father?

Have you forgotten your position in the family?"

Arrogant, domineering, insolent, Su Wei Jun possessed all those negative traits, and Shangguan Feihong was definitely blind to let this guy inherit the Su Family.

"Do you not remember, I'm not part of the Su Family now?" Su Changfeng said.

Chapter 190 - 190 190 The Civet Cat Replaces the Crown Prince

190: Chapter 190: The Civet Cat Replaces the Crown Prince 190: Chapter 190: The Civet Cat Replaces the Crown Prince “That’s right.” Su Wei Jun smiled and said, “I had forgotten, the place you went to is called... Hai City, right?

You even married into the damn Tang Family and became a notorious coward.

Brother, you really didn’t disappoint, you’re actually famous for being called a coward.

Don’t say you’re someone from the Su Family, the Su Family can’t afford to lose face like that.

“Did you bring me here just to humiliate me?” Su Changfeng asked.

Su Wei Jun frowned, why hadn’t the drug taken effect yet?

The aroma earlier in the visiting room was the drug Shangguan Feihong prepared in advance.

Theoretically, considering how much time had passed, the drug should have taken effect by now?

“I just wanted to see how much of a coward you’ve become now,” Su Wei Jun said.

At this moment, Su Changfeng’s eyebrows suddenly furrowed, a sense of weakness emanated from his limbs, and his head suddenly became dizzy.

Supporting himself on the table, Su Changfeng gritted his teeth and said, “Shangguan Feihong really didn’t disappoint me.”

Upon seeing Su Changfeng’s change, Su Wei Jun knew the drug was now taking effect.

At this point, Su Changfeng should be completely weak.

Su Wei Jun stood in front of Su Changfeng and gave him a kick, cursing, “You damn well should have come to replace me in prison a long time ago, made me suffer so much.”

After saying this, Su Wei Jun began to beat Su Changfeng fiercely.

With Su Changfeng’s previous strength, someone like Su Wei Jun would only need one punch, but now Su Changfeng was completely powerless, allowing Su Wei Jun to have his way.

“Su Changfeng, do you understand the worth of being a coward, to become my stand-in?

Grandma told me you have a traitor face, that’s why you were kicked out of the Su Family.

If you stayed, you’d destroy the entire family.”

Su Wei Jun stomped on Su Changfeng’s face, looking down on him and continued, “You’re truly pitiful, without even your own life.

We were born from the same womb, but in the Su Family, one’s in the sky, the other underground.

Want to know why?”

Su Changfeng’s vision began to blur, and Su Wei Jun’s voice became somewhat intermittent.

The last thing Su Changfeng remembered was Su Wei Jun taking off his clothes and putting on the prison uniform for him.

This trick of swapping flowers with trees instantly turned Su Changfeng into Su Wei Jun.

When Su Changfeng woke up, he found himself locked in a large room that housed 12 people, with others incarcerated for various reasons.

Su Changfeng sat up, shook his head, and felt a hard kick on his shoulder, hearing someone angrily yell, “Su Wei Jun, you’re sleeping comfortably, huh?

Hurry up and clean the toilets.”

Su Changfeng rubbed his shoulder, thinking to himself that Su Wei Jun seemed to be struggling in prison, actually needing to clean toilets?

Indeed, Su Wei Jun had it tough in prison, getting beaten every few days was a usual occurrence for him, and he nearly had to clean the toilets every day.

Sometimes, when the big boss here was constipated, Su Wei Jun had to massage his stomach when he was squatting.

“From now on, you walk your sunny path, I’ll walk my single-log bridge, you’d better not mess with me.” Su Changfeng said coldly.

“What the hell, you actually dare to have a temper?”

“Su Wei Jun, did you sleep your brains out after a nap?

Want to get beaten again?”

“Damn it, really don’t know how to appreciate kindness, give him a good lesson first!”

The 7 or 8 people in the room surrounded Su Changfeng, a big brother-lookalike cheerfully watching what was about to happen.

To him, it was a rare form of entertainment, but Su Wei Jun was so useless, he’d almost always end up crying and begging, offering no novelty.

Su Changfeng glanced at those surrounding him and coldly said, “Don’t blame me for not warning you.”

The room instantly filled with cries of pain.

Those who treated Su Wei Jun as garbage didn’t realize they were now facing Su Changfeng, who was nothing like the useless Su Wei Jun.

The onlooker big brother watched as everyone got taken down instantly, his face showing disbelief.

“This...”

“Wow, big brother, what’s up with Su Wei Jun this time?

How’s he suddenly so formidable?”

“Big brother, what do we do now?

We’re no match for him!”

Seeing Su Changfeng walking towards him, the big brother got a jolt of fear and threatened Su Changfeng, “Su Wei Jun, if you don’t want to die, obediently go clean the toilets for me.”

Su Changfeng acted as if he didn’t hear a word, continuing to walk towards him.

This made the big brother a bit panicked, all those folks couldn’t handle him, so he would surely be beaten as well?

“Su Wei Jun, what... what do you want to do?” the big brother said a bit flustered.

“Are you the most powerful here?” Su Changfeng asked.

“Yes.” No sooner had he said this, the big brother quickly slapped himself several times, then said, “No, no, no, you are the big brother, you are the big brother.”

Su Changfeng nodded with satisfaction and said, “Now that you recognize I’m the big brother, go clean the toilets?”

“What’s your name?” Su Changfeng asked.

“Liu, Liu Chao.

My name is Liu Chao.”

It didn’t take 10 minutes for Su Changfeng to change his status in the room, while Su Wei Jun, imagining Su Changfeng being beaten, couldn’t have anticipated this scenario.

Su Family Compound.

Su Wei Jun sat under the pear tree, which was Shangguan Feihong’s exclusive spot.

Aside from Su Wei Jun, no one else in the Su Family would dare to sit there casually.

When Shangguan Feihong appeared, Su Wei Jun hurriedly stood up, supported her, and said, “Why didn’t you tell me if you were coming out, Grandmother?

I could have helped you.”

Shangguan Feihong smiled broadly; she especially liked the care from Su Wei Jun, and only Su Wei Jun’s care was considered sincere by Shangguan Feihong.

“Do you really think Grandma can’t walk at this age?” Shangguan Feihong said.

After helping Shangguan Feihong sit down, Su Wei Jun said, “You misunderstood me, Grandma.

I was just ready to serve you at any time.

You have no idea how much I missed you in prison, worried those servants would be too rough and unable to take good care of you.

“You’ve suffered these days, but you also need to know that you cannot appear in Beijing swaggering around lately, it’ll cause trouble.” Shangguan Feihong said.
