The City's Strongest Son-in-law

Chapter 41 - 41 41 Plan Revealed

41: Chapter 41: Plan Revealed 41: Chapter 41: Plan Revealed "Are you not planning to tell me?

Or are you really involved with Liu Hu?" the Old Madam shouted.

Tang Qiulu felt a sudden jolt in her heart; if the Old Madam misunderstood this, she would be unable to explain herself even if she had a mouthful of words.

With no other options, Tang Qiulu started recounting the events of the previous day.

However, when she said Su Changfeng handled the matter, no one really believed it, and Tang Xiangdong wore a cold smile.

"Tang Qiulu, do you think everyone is an idiot?

Using that coward as your shield, do you think anyone would believe that?"

The Old Madam also didn't believe it, but at that moment, someone kicked open the door of the meeting room!

Two men entered the meeting room, one was Feng Bin, and the other was wearing a hood, making it impossible to recognize who he was.

Although the Tang Family wasn't a major noble family in Hai City, they would never allow anyone to cause trouble within the group.

He said coldly, "Who are you, to dare come and cause trouble for the Tang Family?"

Feng Bin glanced at Tang Qiulu and said, "Old Madam, my name is Feng Bin.

You must know who I am, right?"

Feng Bin!

Everyone present suddenly became uneasy.

This person was a significant figure in Hai City, someone the Tang Family couldn't afford to provoke.

But why would he come to the Tang Family to cause trouble?

"Oh, it's Brother Bin, what brings you here?

Is there some business you need?" The Old Madam's tone changed abruptly and she respectfully called him Brother Bin.

The hierarchy wasn't determined by age but by position.

Although the Old Madam held great power within the Tang Family, she understood well that Feng Bin didn't see her as significant.

"I helped the Tang Family resolve an issue and came over to get some money out of it," Feng Bin laughed.

"If you indeed helped us handle a problem, I definitely wouldn't let Brother Bin leave empty-handed," the Old Madam knew that such people were difficult to deal with, always with excuses to ask for money.

Furthermore, since Feng Bin came personally, the Tang Family would have no choice but to pay.

"Old Madam, this time, you'll definitely give it willingly," Feng Bin said, then immediately pulled off the hood from the person beside him.

When Tang Xiangdong saw who it was, his face turned exceedingly pale.

It was Liu Hu?

Why was he in Feng Bin's hands?

Feng Bin kicked Liu Hu and said coldly, "What did you do?

Quickly tell the Old Madam."

Liu Hu was riddled with wounds, having been 'served' particularly harshly yesterday, and after being beaten a few more times, he flinched at the sight of Feng Bin.

He quickly spoke, "Old Madam, the whole affair was orchestrated by Tang Xiangdong."

"You're spewing nonsense!" Tang Xiangdong stood up instantly, angrily pointing at Liu Hu, "Stop smearing my name!

I don’t even know you!”

Liu Hu raised his head, ominously glaring at Tang Xiangdong.

If it weren’t for this bastard, he wouldn’t be in this predicament.

Although he was unsure why Feng Bin wasn’t afraid of his backers, ever since the incident yesterday, those behind him hadn’t come forward, implying he might have been abandoned.

The only way to survive now was to heed Feng Bin’s instructions.

“Tang Xiangdong, stop denying this!

If it weren’t for you, why would I cause trouble for the Tang Family?

Got nothing better to do?” Liu Hu said.

Tang Xiangdong was utterly panicked; if the Old Madam found out, his future would be ruined.

Forget about being the chairman of the Tang Family; he’d be lucky to not be kicked out of the family!

He originally planned to expel Tang Qiulu from the family, but now it seemed he might be the one to be kicked out!

“Tang Qiulu, did you orchestrate all of this?

Did you get Liu Hu to frame me?!” Tang Xiangdong pointed at Tang Qiulu with anger in his eyes.

Tang Qiulu responded coldly, “Liu Hu was someone you connected me to previously.

Do you think I could possibly command him?

Tang Xiangdong, are you still unwilling to admit what you’ve done?”

“Grandma, don’t listen to her; this has nothing to do with me, I know nothing about it.” Faced with the situation, Tang Xiangdong approached the Old Madam, pretending to be extremely wronged.

Now the Old Madam’s expression was exceptionally grim.

She knew Liu Hu wouldn't defame Tang Xiangdong for no reason since Tang Qiulu had investigated the matter discreetly, yet why did Tang Xiangdong know about it and even facilitate the connection?

She initially thought perhaps Tang Xiangdong was merely lucky, but she hadn't expected that Liu Hu was brought in by him!

"This man even asked me to get involved with Tang Qiulu and spread it around in Hai City, intending to embarrass the Tang Family and remove Tang Qiulu," Liu Hu continued to confess.

These words drained all color from Tang Xiangdong's face.

He never imagined in his wildest dreams that such a perfect plan would be thwarted by Feng Bin, but how did Tang Qiulu know Feng Bin?

The members of the Tang Family understood that now that Tang Xiangdong's plan was exposed, the Old Madam certainly wouldn't treat him lightly.

If they sided with Tang Xiangdong now, it would be suicidal.

"Donglin, why did you do this?

This really wasn't right!

"Why would you do this when Qiulu is part of the Tang Family?"

"I trusted you so much back then, yet you actually plotted against the Tang Family?"

Tang Siwen's expression was also a bit pale because she was aware of the matter from the start.

Although she hadn't participated, failing to report it was still a mistake.

If Grandma were to blame her, her future would be bleak.

"Grandma, I had no idea about this and it has nothing to do with me!" Tang Siwen explained to the Old Madam.

"Mom, maybe Donglin was just confused momentarily, don't blame him too harshly.

I'll warn him later," Tang Zhenbang didn't want to see Tang Xiangdong losing power within the company.

While no one in the Tang Family dared speak for Tang Xiangdong, he felt compelled to do so.

The Old Madam hesitated; the matter had grown beyond control.

How could it be resolved?

If she didn't offer Tang Qiulu an explanation, she'd be showing blatant favoritism, but she couldn't kick Tang Xiangdong out of the family either.

Despite Tang Qiulu bringing substantial benefits to the Tang Family, in the Old Madam's eyes, Tang Qiulu still didn't measure up to Tang Xiangdong, being the sole heir to the Tang Family.

"Brother Bin, this is an internal matter of the Tang Family.

I'm sincerely grateful for your intervention.

Let me know what you want," the Old Madam said to Feng Bin.

Chapter 42 - 42 42 Go Home and Reflect

42: Chapter 42: Go Home and Reflect?

42: Chapter 42: Go Home and Reflect?

Even though Feng Bin said he came to ask for money, that was merely an excuse.

After all, this was ordered by Su Changfeng, and he was only following orders, so he replied: "Since Old Madam Tang is so understanding, I'm not someone who lacks tact.

I'll come back after you've settled your family affairs."

With that, Feng Bin left the meeting room with Liu Hu.

Now, the meeting room was very quiet, with Tang Xiangdong kneeling in front of the Old Madam, not daring to lift his head.

The Tang Family members also didn't dare make any noise.

No matter how you look at it, Tang Qiulu was responsible for the West District project, and the future of the Tang Family depended on the cooperation with Weishui Real Estate.

But now, Tang Xiangdong instructed Liu Hu to stir up trouble; even if the Old Madam showed favoritism, a reprimand was inevitable.

“Qiulu, Donglin was the one who hurt you; now, tell me how do you want to handle it,” the Old Madam said to Tang Qiulu.

Tang Qiulu was not a fool.

If the Old Madam really intended to punish Tang Xiangdong, she wouldn’t leave the matter to her to decide.

It was obvious she wasn’t planning to do so.

Tang Qiulu understood that if her demands were too drastic, never mind whether the Old Madam would act on them or not, she’d gain no benefits from it in the company.

“Grandma, you handle this matter,” Tang Qiulu replied, even though she was very unwilling in her heart, but given the situation, she had no other choice but to endure.

The Old Madam naturally nodded her head, then addressed Tang Xiangdong: “You don’t need to come to the group for the next few days; stay home and reflect on your actions!”

Tang Xiangdong kept his head down, a smile slowly appearing on his face.

This incident was particularly serious, yet Grandma only asked him to go home and reflect?

Compared to his status in Grandma’s eyes, Tang Qiulu was still no match.

“Grandma, this time I was momentarily confused; I promise to seriously reflect at home for the next few days,” Tang Xiangdong said.

“No one is allowed to mention this matter!” The Old Madam said to everyone in the Tang Family.

Bias, blatant and unmasked bias!

Tang Qiulu looked helplessly at the Old Madam of the Tang Family, thinking in her heart, someday I will prove to you that Tang Xiangdong is not the best heir for the Tang Family.

“Donglin, don’t mind what everyone said; if we didn’t say it, it would have angered the Old Madam.”

“That’s right, you should be well aware of the Old Madam’s temper.

If we spoke for you, Grandma would definitely be angry.”

Tang Xiangdong stood up, looking very proud and smugly at Tang Qiulu, without a hint of reflection: “Tang Qiulu, this time you were lucky and managed to escape, but next time you won’t have a chance.”

“Grandma values me so much, you should be very angry, right?

But what can you do?

The gap between us lies here!”

Listening to Tang Xiangdong’s smug words, Tang Qiulu clenched her fists, even a clay figure would have some anger, let alone being a living person.

“Tang Qiulu, haven’t you realized yet?

You’re just a tool for making money for the Tang Family.

If it weren’t for Weishui Real Estate, you probably wouldn’t even have the qualification to enter the meeting room.

Are you still planning to compete with us?

Don’t waste your energy,” Tang Siwen intentionally moved in front of Tang Qiulu and said.

At 4:30 PM, Su Changfeng arrived at the small supermarket, but it was still closed, causing a sense of unease to rise within him.

Could there really be an emergency at home?

Otherwise, why would it be closed so early?

After picking up Tang Qiulu, he noticed Tang Qiulu was very angry, clearly enraged.

He couldn’t help but ask: “Why are you angry?

Wasn’t the issue already dealt with?

Or didn’t Grandma praise you?”

Tang Qiulu snorted coldly, saying: “Today, Feng Bin brought Liu Hu and exposed everything Tang Xiangdong did, but Grandma just let Tang Xiangdong go home to reflect!”

Upon hearing Tang Qiulu’s words, Su Changfeng couldn’t help but laugh coldly.

In his eyes, although Grandma would protect Tang Xiangdong, at the very least she should demote him for appearances' sake.

After all, such a big deal was made of it, yet just asked him to reflect at home?

It seemed rather absurd.

Furthermore, the Old Madam's actions weren't just protecting Tang Xiangdong, they were outright ignoring Tang Qiulu.

This comment was made because the Old Madam didn't care at all about Tang Qiulu's feelings.

It seemed she had utterly constrained Tang Qiulu, not afraid of Qiulu turning against the Tang Family, truly an arrogant old woman!

"I have a question for you; I found out during the meeting that the person at the farmhouse was Feng Bin, but why did he help me?" Tang Qiulu stared directly at Su Changfeng, obviously this matter had a connection with Su Changfeng.

"Well...

because I paid Feng Bin," Su Changfeng said, pretending to be indifferent.

"How much did you pay?" Tang Qiulu asked curiously.

"100,000."

"100,000?!" Tang Qiulu stared at Su Changfeng in surprise.

Spending another 100,000, she'd have to work hard all year to make that much!

But thinking about it, if it weren't for Feng Bin, she would probably have ended up with Liu Hu yesterday, and he might have ruined her, which made her feel a bit relieved.

"Truly wealthy, wealthy people!" Tang Qiulu said sourly.

Su Changfeng smiled helplessly; it was just insignificant small change.

If Tang Qiulu knew the long string of numbers in his bank account, she would surely be shocked!

When they reached downstairs, Su Changfeng had just parked the car and ran into Sun Mei and Tang Zhenhua who were about to go out.

They saw that Su Changfeng was driving an Audi, parked right next to their family car!

Earlier they had wondered which family had bought it, but it turned out to be theirs!

Sun Mei angrily approached Tang Qiulu and said, “Qiulu, did you buy a car again?”

This matter would be discovered sooner or later, it was just delayed a bit.

Tang Qiulu glanced at Su Changfeng, nodded and said, “Mom, I...”

“Aren’t you afraid Grandma will find out?

Why buy another car?

Do you have to let this guy drive such an expensive car?” Sun Mei glared at Su Changfeng and added, “Did this guy ask you for it?”

Tang Qiulu quickly gestured and replied, “This has nothing to do with Changfeng, it was my decision.”

Sun Mei didn’t believe Tang Qiulu at all and questioned Su Changfeng, “How many enchanting potions did you give my daughter?

Are you aware that if the Old Madam becomes suspicious and decides to check the accounts, can you handle the consequences?

Do you only care about your face and not Qiulu’s safety at all?”

“Mom, stop it; weren’t you and Dad planning to go out?

Shouldn’t you be leaving by now?” Tang Qiulu said.

Chapter 43 - 43 43 The Barrier Finally Disappears

43: Chapter 43: The Barrier Finally Disappears 43: Chapter 43: The Barrier Finally Disappears Sun Mei glanced at the time; not much was left before the movie started: “When I return, you must explain this matter clearly to me!”

After this couple left, Tang Qiulu sighed and looked at Su Changfeng with some grievance: “Why didn’t you tell them about you buying the car?”

“Even if I did, do you think they’d believe me?

Besides, I don’t care what others think.” Su Changfeng said indifferently.

If he said he spent money buying two cars, Sun Mei and Tang Zhenhua wouldn't possibly believe it, so it was unnecessary to say anything pointless.

In the past three years, Su Changfeng never cared about others' views on him, what mattered most to him was Tang Qiulu's opinion.

"You're right." Tang Qiulu seemed helpless, even telling the truth to dad and mom would be useless, they wouldn't believe it at all.

After returning home, Su Changfeng said to Tang Qiulu: "I plan to go out tonight, is that okay?"

"If I say no, would you not go?" Tang Qiulu asked.

Su Changfeng nodded without hesitation.

"If you have something to do, go ahead, but..." Tang Qiulu suddenly stopped.

"But what?" Su Changfeng asked puzzled.

"It's nothing." Tang Qiulu returned to her room, originally planning to tell him not to meet other women, but saying that made her feel strange.

Although they were already married, intervening in Su Changfeng's private life, Tang Qiulu found it particularly uncomfortable.

Sitting by the bed, after picking up the pillow, Tang Qiulu revealed the scissors; these scissors had been placed there since they got married three years ago.

In the first year, Tang Qiulu every night would clutch the scissors while sleeping, but over time, she gradually relaxed her vigilance, thinking she wouldn't need the scissors anymore.

Tang Qiulu put the scissors into the wardrobe.

Standing in front of the dressing mirror, Tang Qiulu examined her body, those long, slim white legs,

During dinner, it was just the two of them at home, since Tang Qiulu became responsible for the household, the conditions were a bit better, sometimes Sun Mei and Tang Zhenhua wouldn't eat at home.

But this was also a good thing, creating alone time for Su Changfeng and Tang Qiulu.

After dinner, Su Changfeng was about to clear the table and wash the dishes when Tang Qiulu stood up quickly saying: “If you have something to do, go ahead, I’ll take care of the things, don’t forget to come back early.”

Su Changfeng paused, then his expression lightened with joy: “It’s fine, I’ll clean up shortly.”

Tang Qiulu stared at Su Changfeng, saying: “When I say go, you go, why so many words.”

Su Changfeng smiled wryly, and after setting things aside, he said: “I’ll go then, once I’m done, I’ll quickly return home.”

After leaving the house, Su Changfeng got in the car and called Feng Bin.

Because the small supermarket had been closed for several days, Su Changfeng foresaw that the owner might be in trouble, so he asked Feng Bin to investigate secretly.

Just when he got home, Feng Bin had sent news, which was why Su Changfeng told Tang Qiulu he’d be out for something tonight.

“What’s the situation?” Su Changfeng asked.

“Brother Changfeng, this matter can’t be explained over the phone, should I come find you?” Feng Bin said.

“No need, I’m heading to Charming.”

At Charming, after meeting Feng Bin, Feng Bin began: “Brother Changfeng, I’ve found out about the person, his name is Zhu Lie.”

“Zhu Lie?

Why does this name sound so familiar,” Su Changfeng asked with a frown.

Feng Bin continued: “Hai City used to have a big brother named Zhu Lie, but three years ago, he suddenly disappeared without any news, and all his underlings’ forces collapsed overnight, nobody knows what really happened, I suspect this man fits the Zhu Lie from five years ago.”

Su Changfeng was extremely shocked, the little supermarket’s owner turned out to be the Zhu Lie who caused a sensation throughout Hai City five years ago?

Given Zhu Lie’s circumstances back then, why would he disappear to run a small supermarket?

Su Changfeng suddenly recalled what Zhu Lie once said to him, it must be because of a woman, likely this generation's Hero, similarly abandoned everything for a woman.

But at the pinnacle of his power, because his woman left him, he wanted none of what surrounded him, such boldness truly admirable!

"Did you find out what's been happening to him these days?" Su Changfeng asked.

Knowing this matter now after three years, it's impossible for Su Changfeng to pretend he's seen nothing.

"There's news saying someone has seen him." Feng Bin replied.

"Brother Changfeng, Wang Long isn't easy to deal with.

Though he's not well-known in Hai City, he has many connections and some big figures are acquainted with him, I think it's best not to get involved in this matter." Feng Bin said.

"Are you ordering me around now?" Su Changfeng said coldly.

Feng Bin immediately looked down and apologized: "Brother Changfeng, I wouldn't dare."

At Golden Dragon Entertainment City, it was said to be massage, foot bath and the like, but in fact, the entire Golden Dragon Entertainment City was just a facade.

And that man was Su Changfeng, followed by Feng Bin, but now cold sweat was beading on his forehead!

Chapter 44 - 44 44 Zhu Lie

44: Chapter 44 Zhu Lie?

44: Chapter 44 Zhu Lie?

Feng Bin was also unsure where Su Changfeng found the courage from, unbelievably not bringing a single subordinate.

Now, they were inside the casino, and if something went wrong, it would be a disaster.

Meanwhile, a young subordinate watching the surveillance hurriedly walked towards Wang Long's office.

"Brother Long, there's a situation in the casino."

Wang Long was smoking a cigar between his fingers, and in front of him was a person with a face full of blood kneeling there, heavily injured, and it was almost impossible to see what he looked like.

“What is it?

What’s going on?” Wang Long asked.

The person showed Yulong the video.

After watching, Wang Long furrowed his brows and asked, “Won a lot, huh?

Really that lucky?”

“There’s definitely something fishy going on,” the person responded without hesitation.

Wang Long pressed the cigar onto the kneeling person’s shoulder, causing a sizzling sound, and then kicked the person aside, saying to the young subordinate next to him, “Take him to the VIP room; I want to see how capable this person is!”

“Got it.”

After the young subordinate left, Wang Long stood up, adjusted his clothes, stretched out his leg to that man, and shouted, “Lick my shoes clean, or else your wife’s life is as good as over.”

The man used all his strength to crawl to Wang Long’s side.

Just as he stuck out his tongue, Wang Long stomped his face with contempt and said, “Back when we were in the same gang, you never expected this to happen, did you?

Back then, with so many brothers, yet you left without a word just for that bitch.

Did you really think I’d let her go?”

The man lifted his head with difficulty, and it could vaguely be seen that he was Zhu Lie, the owner of a supermarket.

With a panicked and helpless expression, he said, “Wang Long, I treated you decently before, didn’t I?

Let her go.

If you’re unhappy, take it out on me!”

Back then, Wang Long and Zhu Lie were in the same gang.

Besides Zhu Lie, he had the most power due to Zhu Lie leaving without a word, causing all their subordinates to leave.

Wang Long didn't want his efforts to be ruined by Zhu Lie, so he swore that day to carve his own path, definitely stronger than Zhu Lie.

In recent years, Wang Long's development was indeed very successful.

He rose from scratch through the underground casino and was currently the strongest casino boss in Hai City.

After his rise, Wang Long never forgot to search for Zhu Lie, and he meticulously scoured Hai City for a long time before finally finding him.

Not only did he want revenge on Zhu Lie, but he also wanted Zhu Lie to see with his own eyes that he was far more formidable.

"Unfortunately, that woman is dead!" Wang Long sneered.

"Wang Long, why did you do this?" Zhu Lie stared at Wang Long with bloodshot eyes and then roared, "If she's dead, you'll absolutely accompany her in death!"

Wang Long wasn't afraid of Zhu Lie's threats, indifferently saying, "You're nothing but a coward now, what right do you have to fight me?

To me, you're nothing but an ant.

A flick of my finger, and you'll die without a burial place!

But don't worry, I haven't had enough fun.

If I let you die like this, it would really be too easy on you!"

Having said that, Wang Long left the office, and Zhu Lie was beaten by his young subordinates.

Soon after Su Changfeng entered the VIP room, Wang Long followed in.

When Wang Long saw Feng Bin, he smiled and said, "Who would've thought it's Brother Bin visiting our humble establishment?

Brother Bin, how come you're free to play a few rounds here?"

Feng Bin didn't answer, knowing that this was Wang Long's territory.

If he angered Wang Long, no one would know where he might die.

Su Changfeng had high hopes for Feng Bin, but now his behavior deeply disappointed Su Changfeng.

With such a lack of courage, how could he accomplish anything significant?

“Who are you?

Sitting in front of Brother Bin, you must have quite the background.” Wang Long asked Su Changfeng.

“Su Changfeng.”

“Buddy, your name doesn’t sound too good, huh?

Why do you share a name with that coward from Hai City?

Must get misunderstood often.” Wang Long couldn’t resist laughing, although he had never met Su Changfeng; he was too famous.

In all of Hai City, no one didn’t know of him.

“The coward you’re talking about is me.” Su Changfeng said calmly.

“You...

so you’re that Su Changfeng?” Wang Long stared at Su Changfeng in shock, clicking his tongue, saying, “Who would’ve thought, you really look like a pretty boy.

But your cheating skills are decent, huh?

You know what happens when you cheat at my place, don’t you?”

Wang Long raised his hand, and his young subordinate behind him said, “Brother Long, the last guy we caught cheating left without a single finger.”

“Did you hear that?

Left without a single finger, never thought you’d be this daring, Su Changfeng.” Wang Long said.

“Did you capture Zhu Lie?” Su Changfeng asked directly, without any nonsense.

Hearing Su Canghai say this, Wang Long instinctively furrowed his brow and, displeased, said, “Who do you think you are?

Do I need to explain who I took to you?

I just want to know if Zhu Lie is here!” Su Changfeng said.

“Yes, I captured him.

What can you do about it?

Surely you, Su Changfeng, aren’t planning to save him?” Wang Long sneered at Su Changfeng, thinking this guy wasn’t as much as a coward as the rumors said, at least not now.

Daring to cheat at his casino and come all because of Zhu Lie, what coward would do that?

The key thing is, this guy likely won money in his casino, catching others’ attention.

His courage isn’t something many can compare to!

“Name your price, how can I take him with me?” Su Changfeng said.

Wang Long was stunned, this guy had quite the nerve, coming onto his turf to demand a person?

“Su Changfeng, do you think I need that bit of money?

Besides, who are you here?

Planning to use the Tang Family to pressure me?

Go ahead and try.” Wang Long sneered.

The Tang Family was just a second-rate family, not worth his notice.

If he wanted, the Tang Family would be finished within a week.

“Of course, in your eyes, the Tang Family is nothing, but I, Su Changfeng, alone am enough!” Su Changfeng said.

“Pfft, haha~!

Sorry, I just couldn’t help it; you’re really first-rate at telling jokes.” Wang Long suddenly laughed, calming down only after a long while, then said, “The reputation of this coward in Hai City is quite terrifying indeed.”

“Brother Long, I heard people say this guy at the Tang Family rubs his father-in-law’s back and washes his mother-in-law’s feet!” One of Wang Long’s young subordinates said.

Chapter 45 - 45 45 Tidying Up Wang Long

45: Chapter 45 Tidying Up Wang Long 45: Chapter 45 Tidying Up Wang Long “Tsk tsk, what an honorable act.

I appreciate it.

But I want to ask you, are you even a man, living such a cowardly life and still managing to survive?” Wang Long mocked.

Su Changfeng stood up, and Wang Long’s minions also stepped forward, standing in front of Wang Long.

“Still planning to take action against me?

It seems you’re not just a coward, you must be pretty dim-witted too.

Don’t you know this is my territory?” Wang Long looked at Su Changfeng as if he were an idiot.

Feng Bin was now drenched in cold sweat.

If Su Changfeng really started a fight here, they both might end up finished today!

“Brother Changfeng, calm down, this is Wang Long’s turf.” Feng Bin said to Su Changfeng.

This call of Brother Changfeng left Wang Long extremely shocked, with the exact same expression Liu Hu had when he first heard it.

“Feng Bin, you call him Brother Changfeng?

Did I hear it wrong?”

“Your ears are fine.

Now release Zhu Lie, and I can give you a chance.” Su Changfeng said coldly.

“Son of a monkey, who the hell are you?

I don’t have time to waste words with you here.

Break his arms and legs and throw him out.” Wang Long said impatiently, then stood up intending to leave.

Before long, he heard sounds of fighting coming from behind, but the noise quickly disappeared.

Wang Long couldn't be bothered to look because he didn't believe Su Changfeng could defeat his minions.

But Su Changfeng, at the Su Family, started saving money for himself after he turned 12 and even learned martial arts from the Su Family's bodyguards.

He always understood clearly that money was just external.

To ensure his position and safety, it wasn't just about having money; personal strength was equally important.

Just as Wang Long was about to take another step forward, he was suddenly grabbed by the neck from behind!

Wang Long didn't understand what was going on, but Feng Bin saw everything clearly and was frozen in place.

Wang Long's minions stood no chance against Su Changfeng, brought down in just a few moves.

Is this...

even human?

"I didn't agree to let you leave!" A cold voice sounded in Wang Long's ear.

Wang Long was terrified, quickly turning his head sideways, spotting Su Changfeng out of the corner of his eye, looking utterly incredulous.

"Su Changfeng, what the hell do you want?

If you mess with me, the Tang Family will cease to exist, let alone you." Wang Long said.

"Take me to Zhu Lie, or you won't need to live in this world anymore." Su Changfeng said coldly.

"How dare you!"

Su Changfeng's grip slowly tightened, and Wang Long felt his breathing becoming increasingly difficult, panic finally showing in his eyes.

"I'll take you, just...

let go of me first!” Wang Long said.

“Let’s go!”

The three of them walked out of the VIP room, and as Wang Long’s minions saw this scene, they all gathered around.

“Su Changfeng, you’re courting death.

I will never let you or the Tang Family off, and the entire Tang Family will disappear because of you.” Wang Long threatened.

Su Changfeng suddenly exerted force, and Wang Long felt like his neck was about to break.

“I’m holding your life now, if you dare speak nonsense again, you won’t see the sun tomorrow.” Su Changfeng said.

“I don’t dare, I don’t dare anymore.”

Arriving at Wang Long’s office, Su Changfeng had Wang Long’s minions go out.

When Su Changfeng saw the barely recognizable Zhu Lie, he immediately released Wang Long.

“How are you doing now?” Su Changfeng came to Zhu Lie and asked.

Zhu Lie forced himself to lift his head, looking at Su Changfeng with a face full of confusion: “Why are you here?”

“I saw you closed your shop, afraid I’d end up buying fake cigarettes from another store.” Su Changfeng laughed.

Zhu Lie also laughed a little, “You should leave quickly, don’t get involved because of me, Wang Long is not someone you can handle right now.”

“I really hate fake cigarettes.

If you don’t go back and open your shop, I’ll have to quit smoking.

Not being able to smoke, that would be a big regret in life.” Su Changfeng said, helping Zhu Lie up.

Zhu Lie then noticed Wang Long being restrained by Feng Bin, and thought of his wife, causing him to panic.

Shakily walking to Wang Long, he asked: “Wang Long, where is my wife?”

Wang Long, unable to move with Feng Bin holding him, looked venomously at Su Changfeng and said: “She’s long dead, after you were captured, I ordered her to be killed.”

Zhu Lie went crazy, grabbing Wang Long’s hair, continuously banging his head, shouting: “Where is she?

Where is she?”

“You need to calm down.” Su Changfeng grabbed Zhu Lie’s hand, kicking Wang Long aside.

He didn’t care if Wang Long lived or died, but with Zhu Lie seriously injured, continuing like this would worsen his injuries.

Wang Long clutched his belly, squatting on the ground, and fiercely said to Su Changfeng: “I will kill you!

And the Tang Family, I’ll wipe them all out!”

Zhu Lie took a deep breath and said to Su Changfeng: “Let me go.”

Seeing the murderous intent in Zhu Lie’s eyes, Su Changfeng released him.

If it were him, he too couldn’t stay calm if Tang Qiulu were captured by someone.

“Wang Long, I’ll ask you one more time, where is my wife?” Zhu Lie’s voice was extremely cold, like a call from Hell.

Wang Long still wore an arrogant expression because, in his eyes, neither Zhu Lie nor Su Changfeng dared to do anything to him.

“I’ve already told you, she’s dead, killed after you were captured.” Wang Long said.

Zhu Lie was no longer crazy like before, instead, he became extremely calm, but Su Changfeng could feel that Zhu Lie was filled with a killing intent.

“Gather as many of your buddies as possible, preferably all of them.” Su Changfeng instructed Feng Bin.

If Zhu Lie killed Wang Long here, being outnumbered, they wouldn’t be able to make a clean getaway.

Feng Bin quickly pulled out his phone and immediately called his buddies.

“If she’s gone, then you can accompany her!

My wife is afraid of the dark.” Zhu Lie said.

Wang Long looked at Zhu Lie with disdain and said: “I bet you don’t dare touch me.

If I die, do you know the consequences?

Not just you, but all three of you will go down to Hell with me, the Tang Family included.”

Feng Bin secretly wiped a sweat, aware that Wang Long wasn’t bluffing like Liu Hu.

Although Liu Hu had some background, it paled in comparison to Wang Long’s, whose businesses raked in astronomical profits annually and had likely bought off many people; otherwise, having so many casinos, he should have been in prison by now.

If anything happened to Wang Long, it would directly affect the interests of some people, meaning Hai City wouldn’t have a place for them to stand!
