The City's Strongest Son-in-law

Chapter 91 - 91 91 I Called These People Over

91: Chapter 91: I Called These People Over 91: Chapter 91: I Called These People Over After Sun Mei finished clearing out the items she brought back, Su Changfeng finally stepped out of the room.

"Su Changfeng, stop those people quickly.

These people are stealing in broad daylight, and everything here was bought with my money," Sun Mei said anxiously to Su Changfeng.

"I was the one who called them over," Su Changfeng replied.

"What?" Sun Mei was stunned for a moment and instantly flared up.

"Su Changfeng, what do you mean by that?

Are you saying you have no regard for what I bought with my money?"

"That's right, I indeed have no regard for it," Su Changfeng said coldly.

"You better have those people return everything at once, or else..." Sun Mei hesitated, barely holding back the words "get out." This mansion had nothing to do with her; telling Su Changfeng to get out?

This house wasn't like the small community they lived in before.

"From now on, if you dare to touch anything in this house, don't blame me for being merciless," Su Changfeng turned to Tang Zhenhua, coldly saying, "And you, watch this woman carefully.

Remember this place is my, Su Changfeng's home.

Without my consent, no one is allowed to touch anything here."

Sun Mei was stunned by Su Changfeng's dominance.

She didn’t have the courage to make a scene.

Wasn’t Su Changfeng supposed to be a useless person?

Why was he so assertive at home now?

After Su Changfeng went back to his room, Sun Mei dared to be reckless, saying to Tang Zhenhua, “Look at him, look at him.

Just because he bought a mansion, does he not know who he is anymore?

Now he doesn’t even consider me.

Tang Zhenhua, go give him a lesson and let him know that I still call the shots in this home.”

“Can’t you stop making trouble for no reason?” Tang Zhenhua said in exasperation.

“Making trouble for no reason?” Sun Mei stood in front of Tang Zhenhua and slapped him repeatedly, not in a flirtatious manner but genuinely hitting him.

“How dare you say I’m making trouble for no reason?

Is this my fault?

Aren’t I the elder here?

Why does he get to talk to me with such an attitude?”

“If you’re an elder, at least behave like one.

Look at yourself; do you even resemble an elder?

Besides, this house belongs to Su Changfeng.

Sun Mei, haven’t you realized how much he’s changed?” Tang Zhenhua said.

“What change?

He’s just a useless person,” Sun Mei responded.

Tang Zhenhua tightly held onto Sun Mei.

Even a clay figure would get mad; let alone a living person.

If Sun Mei kept causing trouble, it wouldn't be long before they would both be kicked out by Su Canghai.

"That's right, Su Changfeng is useless, just like me, but right now we're in a house bought by Su Changfeng.

If he decides to kick you out, do you think you can stay?

Your name isn't on the deed!" Tang Zhenhua said.

Hearing the words "property deed," Sun Mei's first thought wasn't that Su Changfeng was running the household, but that she must get Tang Qiulu's name on the house's deed as soon as possible.

It would be best if only Tang Qiulu's name was on it, so she wouldn't have to fear being kicked out by Su Changfeng.

"Don't even think about making me leave this house," Sun Mei said with a cold smile.

"I will make you understand that in this house, I'm the one who has the final say," Sun Mei declared.

The next day, after Su Changfeng dropped Tang Qiulu off at her company, he entered the labor market.

This place was bustling with people, most of whom came looking for jobs.

Su Changfeng was here to hire a housekeeper to cook at home.

Even though Wang Meixiang could do the job, she always had to take care of Wang Lele, and the rules on Xianwu Mountain were particularly strict.

If Wang Lele went elsewhere, there'd be a lot of trouble.

Because of this, Su Changfeng had to abandon that idea.

Not long after entering the labor market, Su Changfeng saw a crowd moving in a particular direction, presumably because something was happening.

Being only human, Su Changfeng was naturally curious, so he followed them over.

Pushing his way through, Su Changfeng saw a slightly older woman, about in her forties, kneeling on the ground.

In front of her stood a well-dressed woman, clearly from a wealthy family and of similar age.

“Look at this, everyone.

This woman’s hands are unclean.

She came to clean my house, and now all my expensive jewelry is missing.

But the cleaning company won’t take responsibility, and this damned woman has no money to pay back.

Can everyone speak up for me?

Shouldn’t this cleaning company be shut down?

Shouldn’t she just die?”

While talking, the rich woman viciously hit the kneeling woman on the head with her handbag.

The kneeling woman, seeing the people around her talking, repeatedly pleaded, “It wasn’t me, it really wasn’t me.

She’s wrongly accusing me.”

“Wrongly accusing you?

Why on earth would I wrongly accuse you?

You’re just a lowlife.

Do you think I would extort money from you?” The wealthy woman slapped the kneeling woman across the face, unsatisfied, and kicked her a couple more times.

“Look closely, everyone.

Do I look like someone who needs to quibble over such a small amount of money?

I just don’t want this lowlife stealing from other homes,” the woman proclaimed.

From her attire, the woman indeed seemed not to lack money.

Thus, the onlookers had no suspicion of her words and all pointed fingers at the kneeling woman.

Seeing everyone supporting her, the wealthy woman became even more smug, disdainfully looking down at the kneeling woman and saying, “Hmph, now I’ll let everyone see what you are!

Don’t think you’ll ever find work in Hai City again.”

An appearance can be deceiving.

Determining someone’s character from their looks is impossible.

There’s a saying that the eyes are the windows to the soul.

Although Su Changfeng didn’t know the truth, he looked into the woman’s eyes and saw that this had nothing to do with her.

It was puzzling why the wealthy woman, who clearly wasn’t short on money, would falsely accuse her.

Su Changfeng stepped forward from the crowd, slowly making his way to the kneeling woman.

Seeing Su Changfeng approach, the wealthy woman assumed he couldn’t contain himself and said, “People like her are no better than rats, and anyone can hit her.

If you’re looking to vent some anger, here’s your chance.

Hit her as hard as you’d like.”

The kneeling woman trembled slightly, obviously terrified.

Chapter 92 - 92 92 Kneel Down and Apologize to Me

92: Chapter 92: Kneel Down and Apologize to Me 92: Chapter 92: Kneel Down and Apologize to Me Su Changfeng crouched down and said to the kneeling woman: “If you’ve been wronged, just tell me.

I can help you.”

Hearing Su Changfeng say this, the woman dressed in a somewhat noble manner looked displeased: “Who the hell are you?

Are you this bitch’s accomplice?”

Su Changfeng calmly raised his head: “If you keep talking nonsense, I’ll tear your mouth apart!”

“Tch.” The woman looked at Su Changfeng disdainfully and said, “Want to tear my mouth?

You don’t even know who I am.

My status in Hai City isn’t something people like you can comprehend!”

At this moment, the kneeling woman shook her head at Su Changfeng, as if she didn’t want to involve him.

“Don’t be afraid, just say what you need to,” Su Changfeng continued.

The wealthy woman, seeing Su Changfeng ignoring her, directly kicked at him.

Such an arrogant woman must have some backing; otherwise, she wouldn’t dare to cause such trouble.

But this woman’s luck was bad, she met Su Changfeng.

Su Changfeng focused, and directly punched the leg that was kicking towards him, hitting the woman’s calf hard.

The woman screamed in pain and immediately sat on the ground.

“You...

you better leave now, I don’t want to get you involved.” The kneeling woman said to Su Canghai with a look of panic when she saw the two had gotten into a fight.

Su Changfeng didn’t care and continued, “I came this time looking for a servant.

If you can prove your innocence, I’ll choose you.”

The woman hesitated; she indeed needed a job now, and with that woman’s disturbance, she couldn’t stay here anymore.

No one would hire her, and no company would be willing to mediate.

However...

The woman sighed helplessly and shook her head, afraid that things might get worse if she spoke out.

It was then that the woman sitting on the ground took out her phone and viciously said to Su Changfeng: “You little bastard, today I’ll make you kneel and apologize to me.

If you’ve got guts, don’t leave!”

Su Changfeng nodded without responding.

The onlookers, fearing the situation wouldn't escalate, thought they couldn't find a job anyway, so they might as well enjoy the drama.

After a phone call, within 10 minutes, a group of people entered the labor market.

Over a dozen, with fierce expressions, shirtless with tattoos, just at a glance, they were clearly trouble.

"Move aside, move aside, out of my way."

The onlookers automatically made way.

A man with not much hair on his head shouted impatiently.

The woman who had been hit by Su Changfeng quickly limped over and said, "That little bastard hit me, husband."

"Damn, you dare hit Wang Tian's woman, are you tired of living?" Wang Tian said arrogantly, and the people behind him were eager to move.

"Wang Tian!"

"He's Wang Tian?"

"No wonder this woman is so arrogant, turns out she's with Wang Tian."

When Wang Tian mentioned his name, everyone present was shocked.

They knew him all too well.

Wang Tian was in the sand and stone business, but he also carried out some shady dealings.

He frequently came to the labor market to find people, and was quite notorious there.

If you got caught by him for work, you'd only get half the pay every month.

If Wang Tian took a liking to someone, they wouldn't dare resist once caught.

Once, someone complained about the low wages, and Wang Tian had his legs broken and dumped in the labor market.

People thought Wang Tian would get into trouble, but the next day he was still there, clearly indicating his powerful backing.

No one dared to provoke Wang Tian after that.

At this point, many laborers didn't like Wang Tian's woman because they knew what kind of person Wang Tian was, and what if she was falsely accusing someone?

But thinking of someone standing up to Wang Tian seemed hopeless, no one there dared challenge him.

"You little bastard, kneel and apologize to me, lick my shoes clean, and I can pretend this never happened!" The woman arrogantly lifted her head, speaking to Su Changfeng with condescension.

Su Changfeng looked at Wang Tian, then at the kneeling woman, and said, "If you don't tell me the truth, even if I want to help you, I can't."

"Young man, thank you, I know you want to stand up for me, but I don't want to get you involved.

You better leave." The woman replied.

"Now you want to leave?" Wang Tian sneered coldly, "Ask my buddies' fists first.

If I let you leave just like that, how would I, Wang Tian, have any face?

How could I hold my own in the future?"

"Young man, it's best to just apologize, don't give yourself any trouble."

"That's right, apologize and leave, take a look at the situation now.

"These people break others' legs without consequence, just apologize, none of us will laugh at you."

The bystanders, knowing Su Changfeng was well-intentioned, all advised him.

Although they wanted some drama earlier, Wang Tian was too ruthless, and none of them wanted to see Su Changfeng meet a tragic end.

Listening to others' flattery and fear, Wang Tian smiled proudly and said: "Wow, seems I'm quite famous around here, you all understand the weight I carry, knows well who Wang Tian is."

Many were annoyed by Wang Tian's arrogance, but indeed no one dared provoke him, so all went silent.

"Did you hear what my woman said?

First, lick my woman's shoes clean, then crawl under my crotch, and maybe I'll let you off today, haha~!" Wang Tian spread his legs, proudly saying: "Being able to crawl under Wang Tian's crotch, you'll have something to brag about to your friends."

Su Changfeng looked somber, just as he was about to step towards Wang Tian, the woman quickly stopped him and said to Wang Tian, "It has nothing to do with this young man.

I'll do it."

"Son of a monkey, an old hag like you, don't dirty my pants.

Who the hell do you think you are?

Get lost." Wang Tian cursed.

Su Changfeng signaled to the woman that he was fine and proceeded towards Wang Tian.

Wang Tian looked at Su Changfeng with satisfaction, proud of the legend he was going to leave behind here again.

A sense of pride welled up inside him.

Chapter 93 - 93 93 Chance Encounter with Zhu Lie

93: Chapter 93: Chance Encounter with Zhu Lie 93: Chapter 93: Chance Encounter with Zhu Lie Bang!

Su Changfeng walked up and kicked Wang Tian right in the crotch!

Wang Tian's expression changed instantly, as if his strength had been drained, and he collapsed.

This kick from Su Changfeng almost crippled Wang Tian's "little brother."

"Move aside."

"Move aside, hurry up and move aside."

"Get lost."

Wang Tian's underlings were about to deal with Su Changfeng when suddenly dozens of people squeezed in, and Zhu Lie emerged.

Zhu Lie looked at Su Changfeng with a smile and said, “What a coincidence.”

“Indeed.” Su Changfeng replied with a bitter smile, “What are you doing here?”

“I’m here to discuss something.

A little brother said there was some action here, so I came to check it out, and who would have thought it’s you.” Zhu Lie said.

Su Changfeng never suspected Zhu Lie of having people follow him; there was no need for it, and this encounter was purely coincidental.

At this point, Wang Tian finally regained his composure, saw Zhu Lie nearby, and quickly asked for help, “Brother Lie, this bastard dared to take a shot at me, you must stand up for me.”

Zhu Lie, irritated, glanced at Wang Tian and told his henchmen, “Beat him up and then we’ll talk.”

Immediately, several henchmen went up to Wang Tian and started beating him up.

The bystanders were all in disbelief.

Who was this person?

Even Wang Tian had to call him brother, and when he hit Wang Tian, there was no hesitation at all, clearly much tougher than Wang Tian.

“Brother Lie, Brother Lie, please make these guys stop.

I haven’t offended you.

Why are you hitting me?” Wang Tian cried out in pain.

Zhu Lie waved his hand, and the henchmen surrounded Wang Tian.

Zhu Lie walked up to Wang Tian and said, “You dared to mess with my good buddy?

Looks like you have some guts.”

Zhu Lie’s good buddy?

Wang Tian looked at Su Changfeng in horror; he was actually Zhu Lie’s good buddy.

What had he gotten himself into!

Although Zhu Lie was the previous big shot of Hai City, he had recently integrated the gray areas of Hai City and now held the top position.

Not just Wang Tian, even big shots like Feng Bin wouldn't dare mess with Zhu Lie.

"Brother, I'm terribly sorry.

I didn't know you were good buddies with Brother Lie.

I'm sorry, please forgive me this time?" Wang Tian knelt in front of Su Changfeng, knowing that if Su Changfeng didn't forgive him, he wouldn't survive under Zhu Lie.

Now the situation turned dramatically, and those who wanted Su Changfeng to admit he was wrong never anticipated Wang Tian would beg and kneel for forgiveness, now reassessing Su Changfeng.

This young man, despite his shabby attire, never panicked even when Wang Tian showed up, and nearly left Wang Tian childless just now.

Not everyone has such composure.

"Didn't expect this young man to be quite remarkable."

"Indeed, misjudged him, no wonder this young man isn't afraid of Wang Tian."

"Thank goodness someone can finally deal with Wang Tian.

Hopefully, he won't be so arrogant anymore."

As these people whispered, Su Changfeng returned to the woman, saying, "They're all my friends, you can see, my friends are stronger than Wang Tian.

If that woman slandered you, or if there was any misunderstanding, speak up now."

"Speak up, nobody will dare to harm you while I'm here." Zhu Lie said.

That woman glanced at the other woman and remained silent.

The other woman glared at her venomously and said, "I didn't slander her."

"Speak up, if you carry the thief label, you won't be able to clear your name.

Who will hire you in the future?

You really want to carry the thief label all your life?" Su Changfeng said.

The woman instinctively clenched her hands; she didn't want to be wrongfully accused or treated as a thief.

"Earlier you brought a man back, he took it.

This morning, when I was tidying up, I saw him hastily leaving." The woman said.

Upon hearing this, the other woman's expression changed immediately!

She indeed went to a club to bring home a young, strong man while Wang Tian was out, but she'd already paid him.

How could he have stolen the jewelry?

And now Wang Tian was right there, what could she say?

"You slut, you dared to find another man?" Wang Tian exploded!

"No, no, no, it wasn't me.

I really didn't find anyone else; she's slandering me." The woman explained in panic.

Ignoring his pain, Wang Tian got up, grabbed the woman's hair, and slapped her several times, shouting, "Son of a monkey!

I work hard to earn money to support you, and you take my money and give it to another man?

I'll beat you to death, you slut!"

After being slapped, the woman saw stars and her face swelled up.

She quickly begged for forgiveness, "Sorry, husband, I know I was wrong now, I won't dare anymore."

Wang Tian, though protective of his reputation, couldn't hold back now.

With everyone knowing he was cuckolded, how could he bear it?

He mercilessly kicked her down and gave her several more kicks.

The people around were surprised, realizing the truth, wanting to laugh but holding back.

Undoubtedly, this incident would make Wang Tian a laughingstock.

"Have you had enough?

Now you should apologize to her.” Su Changfeng said.

Wang Tian shuddered, hurriedly pulled the woman’s hair, and dragged her before the other woman, yelling, “Hurry up and kneel to apologize, damn it, you’ve ruined my reputation!”

“I shouldn’t have falsely accused you, I’m sorry.” The woman quickly apologized, regretting her actions.

Had she not sought trouble or cared about jewelry, her affair wouldn’t have been exposed.

The woman expressed her gratitude to Su Changfeng, saying, “Young man, thank you, without you, I couldn’t have escaped being labeled a thief.”

Su Changfeng knew she feared retaliation, hence was reluctant to voice her truth, so he said, “You haven’t done anything wrong from the start, no need to thank me, and I have my reasons for helping you.

My home needs someone to cook, if you’re interested, come with me.”

The woman, extremely excited, nodded repeatedly, “I’ll go, I’ll go.

Thank you for this opportunity.”

Zhu Lie lightly coughed and asked Su Changfeng, “I have to handle some matters later.

What do you plan to do with Wang Tian?”

Wang Tian, suddenly anxious, knelt before Su Changfeng, saying, “Brother, I realize I was wrong, please forgive me this time.”

Chapter 94 - 94 94 The Shocked Liu Lili

94: Chapter 94: The Shocked Liu Lili 94: Chapter 94: The Shocked Liu Lili “Forget it, I’ve already been cheated on, no point in dwelling on it.” Su Changfeng laughed.

Zhu Lie and his people left, so the matter was considered resolved.

Wang Tian also stormed off with that woman in anger.

“What’s your name, ma’am?” Su Changfeng asked the woman.

“My name is Liu Lili.”

“Aunt Liu, let me take you to my place first.

If you think it’s fine, then I’ll help you pack up your things.” Su Changfeng said.

“There’s no need to look.

You’ve already helped me solve such a big problem and even gave me a job.

Even if the pay isn’t much, it’s fine.” Liu Lili replied.

Su Changfeng laughed.

He definitely wasn’t going to give Liu Lili little money, so he said, “How about a monthly salary of 600?”

“6000?” Liu Lili looked at Su Changfeng in shock.

For an ordinary maid to earn a monthly salary of 6000 was already quite a lot.

She thought she could earn that much, and quickly waved her hand, “That’s too much, no need for so much.”

“When you come to my house, you’ll understand that 6000 isn’t much.” Su Changfeng laughed.

Just cleaning up the villa once involves a lot of work, so 6000 isn’t too much to ensure Liu Lili works tirelessly.

They went to Liu Lili’s home first to pack some things.

On the way, Su Changfeng learned that Liu Lili’s husband had passed away two years ago due to illness, and she’s currently supporting her daughter who is in college.

Life is particularly tough.

But fortunately, her daughter is very obedient and does well in her studies, which is a comfort to Liu Lili.

Even if she does some manual labor and feels wronged, when she thinks of her daughter, there’s nothing she can’t endure.

Liu Lili is from the lowest social class, but she still knows about Xianwu Mountain.

She knows that it’s a place where the rich people from Hai City live, so when they drove into Xianwu Mountain, Liu Lili was stunned.

“Is your home in here, boss?” Liu Lili asked.

Hearing Liu Lili call him boss, Su Changfeng felt a bit uncomfortable and said, “Just call me Changfeng, I’m not used to being called boss.”

“Changfeng?

Your surname is Su...

are you Su Changfeng?” Liu Lili was shocked again.

The name Su Changfeng was even more shocking to her than the Xianwu Mountain Villa!

Su Changfeng smiled bitterly.

Even in Hai City, even Liu Lili knows of his fame?

That’s a bit too much, isn’t it?

Liu Lili realized she was a bit out of line and immediately corrected herself, “Boss, I’m sorry, I...”

“I’m used to it, no worries.

But if you keep calling me boss, then I’ll have to find someone else.”

After taking Liu Lili home, Su Changfeng was just about to prepare a room for her when Sun Mei came down from her room.

“Su Changfeng, what are you doing?

Who is this person?” Sun Mei asked Su Changfeng interrogatively.

“Aunt Liu is the maid I hired.

From now on, she’ll be cooking and tidying up the house for us.” Su Changfeng said.

A maid?

Sun Mei angrily walked up to Su Changfeng and said coldly, “Who do you think you are?

Hiring a maid for our home without telling me?

If you don’t want to cook, then I’ll do it.”

“Alright then.” Su Changfeng glanced at Sun Mei and then instructed Liu Lili, “Aunt Liu, now that someone is cooking for the house, you can just tidy up and take care of the trash.”

Sun Mei gritted her teeth in anger.

She wasn't actually going to cook.

Ever since Su Changfeng came to the Tang Family, she'd rarely been in the kitchen and had long gotten used to having meals prepared for her.

She was just saying it for the sake of it, but Su Changfeng took it seriously?

"You don't deserve to eat the food I make." Sun Mei said coldly, looking at Su Changfeng, and added, "How much are you paying her each month?

Let me tell you, our family won't be footing the bill."

"Don't worry, I'll cover these expenses myself.

You won't have to spend a dime." Su Changfeng said.

Seeing that Su Changfeng was going to let Liu Lili stay in the guest room, Sun Mei was unwilling and said, "She's just a maid.

Why let her stay in the guest room?

What if we have guests staying overnight?

Let her sleep in the storage room, it's enough."

Liu Lili knew her position.

In such a high-end villa, she didn't have the right to stay in the guest room.

Just having a place to sleep was enough.

She said to Su Changfeng, "I think the storage room is fine for me.

It's for guests."

Sun Mei looked coldly at Liu Lili, her face full of disdain, "Seems like you know your place."

"Aunt Liu, this is my house, and I decide where you can stay," Su Changfeng said calmly, as he placed Liu Lili's things in the guest room.

Sun Mei was shaking with anger.

In front of the maid, Su Changfeng didn't give her any face.

How would she have any standing here in the future?

“Su Changfeng, is this what you’re really going to do?” Sun Mei said, staring at Su Changfeng with a grim expression.

“Aunt Liu, from now on, if anyone gives you trouble here, just tell me who they are.” Su Changfeng ignored Sun Mei’s words.

Liu Lili didn’t know what to do.

She knew that Su Changfeng was considered the coward of the Tang Family.

Even though what she saw was different from the rumors, she still felt bad about causing trouble between them because of her.

After all, Su Changfeng had helped her so much.

“Changfeng, I really don’t need to stay in this room,” Liu Lili said.

“Alright, enough.

No one can change my decision.

Get familiar with the place; I have to go out for a bit,” Su Changfeng said.

Liu Lili nodded and had to put her things down.

When Sun Mei returned to the living room, she had many negative thoughts.

After Su Changfeng left, Sun Mei started eating sunflower seeds.

With a trash can right in front of her, she pretended not to see it and tossed the shells onto the floor.

“Liu Lili, what are you doing?

It’s so dirty here, hurry up and clean it,” Sun Mei shouted.

Hearing Sun Mei’s words, Liu Lili quickly grabbed a broom and cleaned up the mess Sun Mei made.

Sun Mei stood up to get some water and spilled it all over the floor.

“The floor is wet, get a mop and clean it up,” Sun Mei ordered.

Before Liu Lili could put down the broom, she was already picking up the mop.

“There’s so much dust on the TV cabinet, aren’t you paying attention?”

“The living room floor is filthy, clean it up immediately!”

“And the banister on the stairs, make sure to wipe it down too!”

Liu Lili busied herself without a word of complaint, doing whatever Sun Mei told her to.

“Be careful.

If something breaks, you couldn’t afford to replace it.”

Chapter 95 - 95 95 The Strong Ji Hong

95: Chapter 95: The Strong Ji Hong 95: Chapter 95: The Strong Ji Hong “I really can’t understand how someone like you gets so lucky, being able to live at Xianwu Mountain.

Let me tell you, if there’s anything you don’t do well, I’ll have my daughter fire you immediately.

Su Changfeng is of no use in this place!”

“Sister Sun, don’t worry, I will absolutely take care of everything.

If you think there’s any place that’s a bit dirty, you can call me anytime.” Liu Lili replied.

“Are you blind?

Do I need to call you?

We hire you to work, do I have to check the hygiene for you?

Then, will you give me half of your monthly pay?” Sun Mei said, looking like a shrew, particularly ugly.

“I’m leaving now.

When I come back, if I see any place that’s not clean inside, you’ll pack your things and leave!” Sun Mei coldly stated.

Sun Mei arranged to meet friends today for shopping, she took her bag and left.

At the place they agreed upon, her friends learned that Sun Mei lived in that villa halfway up Xianwu Mountain, all of them were terribly envious, which made Sun Mei feel quite smug.

“Actually, it’s just like that, the house is just a bit bigger, honestly, it is quite big, I’m not really used to it yet.

It’s not easy to clean the place ourselves, fortunately, I found a maid today so now we have to spend a few thousand more every month.” Sun Mei said.

Most of Sun Mei’s friends are not very wealthy, looking at what Sun Mei’s status has been before, it’s clear.

Even if she wanted to enter the circle of rich people, they wouldn’t accept her.

Just then, an elegant middle-aged woman walked towards Sun Mei and her friends, followed by over 10 bodyguards in black suits behind her, looking clearly not like a simple person.

Judging by the woman’s demeanor and appearance, Sun Mei and the others felt a sense of inferiority.

“I wonder which household’s lady that is, so wealthy, with more than 10 bodyguards accompanying her.”

“You really need to have money.

If I had money, I could definitely maintain myself as well as she does.”

“Why is she approaching us?

Sun Mei, do you know her?”

The woman stopped in front of Sun Mei.

Sun Mei looked at her, puzzled.

“Are you Sun Mei?”

“I...

I am, may I ask who you are...”

Smack!

The woman directly slapped Sun Mei, leaving her stunned on the spot.

Sun Mei’s friends, seeing her get hit, though somewhat angry inside, they dared not say anything, given she was accompanied by over 10 bodyguards.

“You...

how dare you hit me?

We shouldn’t know each other, right?” Sun Mei said viciously, clutching her face.

“Listen to who I am, I am Ji Hong.” Ji Hong, Su Changfeng’s mother, a daughter-in-law of the Beijing Su Family, she doesn’t regard Hai City at all, even the Hai City Gu Family is merely ants in her eyes.

“From now on, keep a low profile.

If you dare to trouble that person even a bit, I will make you regret coming into this world!” Ji Hong said coldly.

Though the Su Family doesn’t value Su Changfeng much, he is after all Ji Hong’s flesh and blood.

Knowing Su Changfeng is being oppressed by Sun Mei in the Tang Family, taking credit for even the villa, Su Changfeng can bear it, but Ji Hong as a mother couldn’t tolerate it, hence decided to teach Sun Mei a lesson.

“I...”

Before Sun Mei could finish her word, Ji Hong directly slapped Sun Mei’s face again and then left.

Sun Mei stood frozen, too scared to speak due to Ji Hong’s dominance.

Indeed, evil is dealt with by evil.

Though Sun Mei is a complete shrew, she dared not speak much in front of the very dominant Ji Hong!

After Ji Hong left, Sun Mei’s friends finally opened their mouths and said, “Sun Mei, what’s with that woman?

Why did she hit you?”

“Did your family possibly offend some prominent family?”

“This person doesn’t look like any ordinary civilian.”

Hearing these words, Sun Mei’s face was extremely gloomy, she had never seen Ji Hong before.

Moreover, she doesn't know who that person mentioned by Ji Hong is.

"Is having money really that amazing?

If I get an opportunity, I'll return those two slaps a hundredfold." With Ji Hong already gone, Sun Mei finally dared to speak harshly.

Moments ago she was scared silly, but now she's back to her shrew self.

Sun Mei's friends dared not speak recklessly, seeing Ji Hong as someone tremendously high status, accompanied by more than 10 bodyguards, a status they couldn't even fathom.

Even though Sun Mei lives in that mountain villa, seeking revenge against this person is mere fantasy.

"Let's go, let's hurry and shop, I heard there are lots of new items at the counters today."

"Right, my old face needs some care too."

"Yeah, if we don't maintain ourselves, we won't be able to keep our men at home."

Sun Mei covered her swollen face, thinking that going shopping like this would be very embarrassing, hurriedly said, "I won't be joining you today, let's meet another time when I'm free."

After returning home, Sun Mei got angrier at the thought of the event, ended up venting it on Liu Lili, scolding her randomly.

Liu Lili understood her position, witnessing Sun Mei's face, definitely having been hit by someone else, but feeling uncomfortable inside, knowing if Sun Mei scolding her could make her feel better, Liu Lili decided not to say anything.

Tang Zhenhua returned home after playing cards, Sun Mei was sulking, feeling puzzled seeing another person at home.

When Tang Zhenhua saw Sun Mei's swollen face, he thought it might have been Liu Lili who hit her, angrily said, "Who are you?

How come you're here?"

"I'm a maid hired by Changfeng." Liu Lili replied.

Maid?

Having a maid in such a big house is no mistake, but daring to hit her owner?

That was indeed excessive.

“Sun Mei, are you alright?

Did this person hit you?” Tang Zhenhua asked with a worried expression.

“If it was her, what would you do?

She’s just a useless person.

Do you dare to hit back for me?” Sun Mei was still angry, her mind filled with haughty Ji Hong, speaking without thinking.

Upon hearing these words, Tang Zhenhua came over to Liu Lili and slapped her.

“You’re just a maid, but dare to hit your master.

Leave here right now.” Tang Zhenhua shouted.

Liu Lili, inexplicably hit, holding her face, said, “I didn’t hit you, Sister Sun, why are you falsely accusing me?”

Sun Mei didn’t expect Tang Zhenhua to take action, but now that he had, she thought it’s just a maid, nothing much.

“If you can’t stand this, just leave directly, we don’t need you here.” Sun Mei said.

Chapter 96 - 96 96 A Despicable Person

96: Chapter 96: A Despicable Person 96: Chapter 96: A Despicable Person This job was given to her by Su Changfeng.

Liu Lili cherished it very much, and she didn’t have the time or opportunity to look for other work elsewhere.

Soon she would have to send her daughter a month’s living expenses.

Thinking of her daughter, Liu Lili could only swallow her grievances.

“I’ll go make dinner,” Liu Lili said.

“Bitch.” Sun Mei cursed disdainfully.

Seeing Liu Lili walking towards the kitchen, Tang Zhenhua stepped forward, grabbed Liu Lili by the shoulder, and said, “I’m telling you, leave here right now.

Do you not understand?”

Liu Lili was extremely aggrieved, her eyes filled with tears: “I didn’t hit her at all.

I just wanted to find a job to make a living.”

“Not you?

Then was it the air that hit Sun Mei’s face?” Tang Zhenhua said coldly.

Sun Mei sat on the sofa, watching the scene unfold in front of her.

Tang Zhenhua rarely acted like a man, and she didn’t like to say much.

Moreover, Liu Lili was brought in by Su Changfeng.

She didn’t agree with it from the start.

If Tang Zhenhua drove her away, it would save her the trouble of figuring out how to get rid of her.

Liu Lili kept shaking her head, not knowing how to explain.

Tang Zhenhua impatiently pushed Liu Lili and said, “Get out now, don’t let me see you again.”

Liu Lili, unable to maintain her balance, fell directly to the ground and secretly wiped her tears.

She knew that if Su Changfeng were at home, he would definitely not let her go.

But if this were the case, it would make things very difficult for Su Changfeng.

Despite the importance of the job, Su Changfeng had once saved her, and Liu Lili didn’t want to make things difficult for him.

“I’m very sorry.” After saying this, Liu Lili stood up and went back to pack her things.

At the same time, Su Changfeng came back with Tang Qiulu.

On the way back, Su Changfeng told Tang Qiulu about Liu Lili.

But Tang Qiulu didn’t have much of an opinion.

Su Changfeng had already been busy with their family matters for three years, which was enough.

Finding a new maid would be fine.

“Where’s Aunt Liu?” Tang Qiulu went to the living room and only saw Sun Mei and Tang Zhenhua, and asked with some confusion.

Tang Zhenhua glared coldly at Su Changfeng: “Su Changfeng, take a look at the person you found, even daring to hit your mother.”

Upon hearing this, Su Changfeng frowned.

He knew exactly what kind of person Liu Lili was.

Would she hit Sun Mei?

Even if Sun Mei deliberately made things difficult for her, Liu Lili would, by nature, choose to suffer in silence.

“Impossible, how could Aunt Liu hit anyone?” Su Changfeng responded directly.

“Then look at your mother’s face.

If it wasn’t that person who hit her, who else could it be?” Tang Zhenhua said.

Tang Qiulu looked at Sun Mei’s face and indeed saw fingerprint marks, but on the way home, Su Changfeng had described what kind of person Liu Lili was.

Liu Lili was unlikely to do such a thing.

“Mom, what happened?

Why would Aunt Liu hit you?” Tang Qiulu asked.

Now that it had come to this, Sun Mei could only continue to smear Liu Lili and said, “The one who got hit was me.

Shouldn’t you ask her?

If I knew, would I have been hit?”

Su Changfeng walked towards Liu Lili’s room.

Liu Lili was in the middle of packing her things.

Seeing Su Changfeng come in, she said, “Changfeng, Auntie doesn’t want to make things difficult for you.

Still, thank you for all the help before.”

“Aunt Liu, have you forgotten the incident at the labor market?

It’s not something you did.

If you don’t want to stand up for yourself, no one can help you.

Besides, where can you go now?

Your daughter will soon be asking you for living expenses, right?

Where will you get the money?

It’s likely no one at the labor market will hire you now.” Su Changfeng said.

Liu Lili’s face was also injured and particularly swollen.

If it were another woman, she wouldn’t have been hit like this—it was probably Tang Zhenhua.

The issue of living expenses left Liu Lili without a rebuttal.

She was also afraid her daughter would ask her for money, but she didn’t have a cent to give her.

“I don’t even know what happened.

Sun Mei’s face was like that when she came home,” Liu Lili said.

“Come with me,” Su Changfeng said.

Liu Lili followed Su Changfeng back to the living room.

“Aunt Liu just said that your face was already like this when you came home.

Were you beaten outside and came home to frame Aunt Liu?

Sun Mei, don’t test my limits!” Su Changfeng’s face was extremely grim.

Liu Lili was someone he had found, and as an employer, he had the responsibility and duty to ensure her safety and innocence.

“Su Changfeng, you dare to call me by my name?” Sun Mei stood up directly, angrily pointing at Su Changfeng.

Tang Qiulu watched Su Changfeng with a grim face.

It was the first time she felt he was so terrifying, and she knew that right now, Su Changfeng was really angry!

“Mom, if you were beaten by someone else, you should find that person to settle the score with.

Why frame Aunt Liu?

Are you not speaking any reason now?” Tang Qiulu said.

Tang Zhenhua had also been blinded by anger earlier and didn’t question Sun Mei’s words at all, but now he realized something was off.

Liu Lili was a maid, even if she had great courage, how could she hit Sun Mei for no reason?

Besides, given Sun Mei’s temper, if Liu Lili did hit her, she would have already retaliated against Liu Lili and wouldn’t let him do it for her.

“Sun Mei, who exactly hit you?

Hurry up and say it,” Tang Zhenhua asked.

“What, now you don’t believe me?

You’ve all gone to believe an outsider?” Sun Mei still didn’t say anything, instead questioning the three of them.

“Fine, if you don’t want to say, that’s okay.

I’ll contact the property management now and have them check the surveillance cameras, let them see whether the marks on your face were there before you got home, or if they appeared after you came back.” Su Changfeng said, holding up his phone.

Upon hearing about checking the surveillance, Sun Mei began to panic a little; once they checked, her lie would be exposed.

She sat directly on the ground, performing her old antics again.

“Now, you three don’t believe my words and trust an outsider instead.

I don’t want to live anymore.

Aren’t we family?

This person is just a maid.

Have your consciences been eaten by dogs?" Sun Mei sobbed.

Su Changfeng's face remained particularly grim, showing no change.

"You still have a chance to tell everyone what actually happened.

If we go to the property management later, your reputation won't be protected," Su Changfeng said coldly.

"Fine, I was beaten before I got home.

What if the person who hit me wasn't her?

Do you plan to hit me?

Then go ahead and let me die, I'll get you a knife," Sun Mei said petulantly, sitting on the ground, nearly rolling around.

"You..." Tang Zhenhua was also infuriated.

It was one thing to falsely accuse Liu Lili, but he had directly hit Liu Lili without any second thought, and now he didn't know how to handle it.

Chapter 97 - 97 97 Get Out Right Now

97: Chapter 97: Get Out Right Now 97: Chapter 97: Get Out Right Now At that time, Sun Mei just watched him hit Liu Lili, without even trying to stop him, clearly wanting to embarrass him.

"What do you mean, you?

If you're a man, get revenge for me now." Sun Mei said.

Su Changfeng said, "Now both of you, apologize to Aunt Liu."

"Don't even think about it, why should I apologize to her?

She's just a servant.

Su Changfeng, are you stupid?

We are the family." Sun Mei said.

Su Changfeng glanced at Tang Qiulu.

Previously, he could ignore everything because of Tang Qiulu, but if he allowed Sun Mei to be so arrogant, Su Changfeng wouldn't be able to stand it!

"If you don't apologize, then leave now, get out of this house, get out of my Su family's house!"

Su Changfeng's words immediately silenced Sun Mei.

Tang Zhenhua looked at Su Changfeng with fear on his face.

The current Su Changfeng was not the coward he appeared to be; instead, he was extremely assertive, making it hard for Tang Zhenhua to breathe.

"Qiulu, quickly speak up for your mom.

Do you want to see her driven away by this guy?" Sun Mei didn't dare to cause more trouble in front of Su Changfeng, so she pressured Tang Qiulu instead.

Tang Qiulu shook her head.

This time Sun Mei had indeed gone too far, and even though Sun Mei was her mother, she couldn't stand it anymore.

"Mom, you should apologize for your mistakes." Tang Qiulu said.

Sun Mei had already told her friends she was living at the Mountain Villa and promised to invite them over some time.

If she was kicked out by Su Changfeng now, she would lose all her dignity, which she cared about deeply, and didn't want to become reality.

"Su Changfeng, no matter what, I am your mom, she is just a servant, why are you making me apologize to her?" Sun Mei said, her tone now softer than ever, and with a hint of pleading.

"If you apologize to her, I will find the person who hit you and make them apologize to you, how about that?" Su Changfeng said.

Su Changfeng was giving her a way out, and Sun Mei understood that if she still refused to admit her mistake, she would only embarrass herself further.

But expecting Su Changfeng to avenge her, Sun Mei wouldn't believe it.

At that time, the woman was followed by a dozen bodyguards.

Su Changfeng was just a coward, definitely incapable of doing it.

“I’m sorry.” Sun Mei said reluctantly.

Tang Zhenhua slapped Liu Lili.

Although he was misled by Sun Mei, he had indeed made a mistake and also said, “I’m very sorry, I was a bit impulsive earlier.”

“Now can you tell me who exactly hit you?” Su Changfeng asked.

“I’ve never met that person, but she said her name is Ji Hong.” Whenever this incident was brought up, Sun Mei felt increasingly frustrated.

She hadn’t even known Ji Hong yet had gotten slapped twice by her for nothing.

Ji Hong!

This name left Su Changfeng stunned.

Why would it be this woman?

Why did she come to hit Sun Mei?

Is this...

Su family’s daughter-in-law’s pride?

In the Su family, I’m looked down upon, in the Tang family I compromise, so you still think I’m worthless, and tried to teach me a lesson?

The sneer on Su Changfeng’s face grew wider and wider.

“Do you know her?

If you could avenge me, I’d certainly look at you differently.” Sun Mei said, hoping this could vent her anger, she could treat Su Changfeng better.

“I can’t.” Su Changfeng said.

If it were someone else, even the Hai City Gu Family, Su Changfeng could handle, but with Ji Hong, he couldn’t make a move.

Sun Mei scoffed, saying, “Just a moment ago, I thought you had potential, only to realize you can’t even handle this matter.”

“Chang Feng, do you know her?” Tang Qiulu asked puzzled.

Su Changfeng nodded, saying, “This person travels with twelve bodyguards all of whom are from the special forces.

Ordinary people can’t provoke her.”

Tang Qiulu looked very shocked, traveling with twelve bodyguards?

What kind of person could she be?

Su Changfeng’s words made the faces of Tang Qiulu and the others instantly turn pale, and Sun Mei felt her legs start to wobble.

Hai City Gu Family!

This is the biggest family in Hai City, someone even the Gu Family can’t provoke, Sun Mei couldn’t even bear to imagine what kind of status that woman had.

“Sun Mei, what did you do to provoke such a person?” Tang Zhenhua shouted loudly.

Sun Mei didn’t care about Tang Zhenhua’s tone, she answered helplessly, “I...

I really don’t know what happened, I never met that person.”

Fear and panic swept over Sun Mei in an instant, leaving her helpless, heart flustered and mind in chaos.

“Don’t worry.

Now that she’s already hit you, it means the matter is over, otherwise, with that woman’s ability, she could wipe out the entire Tang family overnight.” Su Changfeng said.

“But...

but she told me to keep a low profile and not to trouble that person again, but I don’t even know what that means.” Sun Mei’s fear was not alleviated by Su Changfeng’s words.

Ji Hong mentioned a person, definitely someone she had offended, and Sun Mei feared repeating the mistake in the future.

Su Changfeng looked at Tang Qiulu and said, “I have to go out for a while.”

Tang Qiulu wasn’t sure what to say, so she said, “Be careful.”

Su Changfeng drove to the Golden City Hotel, directly to the presidential suite where they had met before.

The entire floor was booked by Ji Hong.

Two bodyguards guarded the elevator entrance, with more people patrolling, and the security was tight, comparable to some government officials.

When stepping out of the elevator, Su Changfeng was stopped by two bodyguards.

“I want to see that person.” Su Changfeng said calmly.

“I’m sorry, young master.

The boss didn’t inform us of your visit earlier, so we can’t let you through.” One of the bodyguards said to Su Changfeng.

Su Changfeng squinted his eyes and said, “I want to go in, do you dare stop me?”

“Young master, don’t make it difficult for us.” The two bodyguards lowered their heads.

As Su Changfeng took a step forward, they immediately positioned themselves in front of him.

“Young master, if you take another step, don’t blame us for offending you.”

“Then let me see how you offend me.” Su Changfeng said coldly.

The two bodyguards exchanged a glance and, disregarding Su Changfeng’s status as a young master of the Su family, attacked him together.

Chapter 98 - 98 98 The Shocked Bodyguard

98: Chapter 98: The Shocked Bodyguard 98: Chapter 98: The Shocked Bodyguard Su Changfeng let out a cold snort and swiftly threw two punches.

The two bodyguards were stunned.

They were knocked back by this young master with just one punch.

The entire Su Family had always thought that Su Changfeng could not compare to his brother and had never seen his fierce skills like this!

They clutched their chests tightly, gasping for air, only able to watch as Su Changfeng walked inside.

Then, as if it were normal, Su Changfeng walked along, taking down every patrolling and checkpoint bodyguard in his path!

“This...”

“How did the young master become so strong?”

The two bodyguards guarding the elevator were dumbfounded.

After all, they were former special forces, yet all 12 of them were taken down without him even pausing for a second!

At the door, Su Changfeng straightened his clothes and rang the doorbell.

Before long, Ji Hong opened the door.

She didn’t appear surprised at all when she saw Su Changfeng.

“Elder Huo told me before that your talent is exceptional.

It seems he wasn’t lying.” Ji Hong said with a smile as she sat on the sofa.

Ji Hong’s aura seemed innate; even just sitting there, she exuded an immense nobility, with no heavy makeup, yet still breathtakingly beautiful.

Elder Huo, named Huo Tian, was previously Old Madam Su’s bodyguard and is now the Su Family’s protector, extremely powerful.

He was the one who cultivated Su Changfeng’s current skills.

“Why did you go find Sun Mei?” Su Changfeng demanded.

“She looks down on my son Ji Hong.

Naturally, I made her hold back a bit; that’s only normal.” Ji Hong’s smile was as warm as a spring breeze, exceedingly gentle.

However, Su Changfeng understood it carried a certain aggression.

“My affairs are none of your concern.

I hope you won’t disturb me again.” Su Changfeng said coldly.

Ji Hong reached into her bag and took out a piece of candy, saying, “This candy, you used to love it.

Mom brought it just for you.

Have some.”

“Whenever you went to buy candies, my brother would pick out the ones I liked and hide them.

Even when you saw it, you didn’t stop him.

Why pretend now?” Su Changfeng scorned.

“Things aren’t fair, even though you are my son.

However, you understand that supporting the Su Family requires considerable ability.

You think you’re biding your time, but the Old Madam sees it as futile.

Now that you have these skills, you must prove yourself and show them who you truly are so they can recognize and respect you.

You think just because you’re a gold nugget, you’ll shine, but if buried too deep, it won’t shine anymore, rendering everything futile,” Ji Hong explained.

“I didn’t come here to listen to this.

I suggest you return to Beijing soon.

Hai City is too small for you to spread your wings,” Su Changfeng advised.

“After you visit me today, I’ll leave tomorrow.

You can play in Hai City as you like, but understand that no one will hide their strength,” Ji Hong replied.

Su Changfeng got up expressionlessly: “Hide strength behind the scenes, and strike when the moment is right!”

Ji Hong stood by the window, watching Su Changfeng leave, his words echoing in her mind.

The right moment?

This was an act of patience, yet Su Changfeng made Ji Hong feel a strong sense of confidence.

As if, if he wanted to, he could do it.

He hadn’t done it because he didn’t want to.

Is it absolute confidence, or perhaps overconfidence?

Even if it’s the Su Family, there’s never been such daring.

How does he have such assurance?

Could it be that you’re relying on Su Family’s little tricks?

With a slight smile, Ji Hong murmured, “You’re oversimplifying this.

The Su Family still has mountains and rivers that can’t be crossed.

Where do you get the qualifications?”

“If I hadn’t given you this chance, you would have taken his place in prison.

Do you understand?

I hope you won’t disappoint me.

Otherwise, the Old Madam will make you replace that guy.”

“You and that person are both my sons, but the fairness in my hands means nothing to the Old Madam.”

“Don’t waste my good intentions.

Otherwise, I’ll destroy you myself.”

The Su Family’s twin brothers looked almost identical, indistinguishable to outsiders.

Thus, when Su Wei Jun first got into trouble, Old Madam Su considered using Su Changfeng as a replacement in prison.

If Ji Hong hadn’t fought for an opportunity for Su Changfeng, the Old Madam would have rushed to Hai City as soon as the trouble arose.

Su Wei Jun was given the name ‘Jun,’ destined from birth to hold a higher status than Su Changfeng in the Su Family.

When Su Changfeng returned home, Liu Lili had prepared the meal.

Strangely, Sun Mei’s family was already eating.

In the past, Su Changfeng couldn’t even imagine this happening!

Sun Mei initially didn’t want to wait for Su Changfeng, but Tang Qiulu insisted they wait, so Sun Mei finally compromised.

“Where did you go?

Why are you coming back so late?

Don’t you know everyone was waiting for you?” Sun Mei asked impatiently.

Tang Qiulu approached Su Changfeng and softly asked, “Are you alright?”

“It’s all fine now.” Su Changfeng smiled as he sat at the table.

Not seeing Liu Lili, he asked Tang Qiulu, “Where’s Aunt Liu?

Why isn’t she eating with us?”

“Su Changfeng, don’t overstep.

Liu Lili is just a servant, what right does she have to eat with us?” Sun Mei said unhappily.

Su Changfeng ignored Sun Mei’s attitude and went to Liu Lili’s room.

At the room’s entrance, he heard Liu Lili on the phone, hesitantly agreeing to make a call, likely speaking to her daughter.

After Liu Lili hung up, Su Changfeng knocked and said, “Aunt Liu, it’s time to eat.”

Liu Lili opened the door and told Su Changfeng, “It’s fine.

You all eat first.

It’s not typical for servants to dine with the family.”

“Aunt Liu, was that your daughter calling?

I can advance you some wages, but you must eat first.

How about that?” Su Changfeng smiled.

“This...” Liu Lili had only just started working and didn’t expect Su Changfeng to bring up an advance on her salary.

Chapter 99 - 99 99 I'm Doing All This Because of You

99: Chapter 99: I’m Doing All This Because of You 99: Chapter 99: I’m Doing All This Because of You “From now on, consider this place your home, and there’s no hierarchy or rules here,” Su Changfeng said.

To him, the ridiculous rules of the Tang Family were laughable, and there’s no way he’d bring them here.

Besides saying thank you, Liu Lili had no idea how to sufficiently express her gratitude to Su Changfeng.

Although Sun Mei was quite displeased at the table, Tang Qiulu and Tang Zhenhua had no objections, so she couldn’t stir up trouble.

Moreover, Su Changfeng’s previous assertiveness had frightened Sun Mei, so she dared not act too brazenly.

After the meal, Su Changfeng handed Liu Lili a month’s salary, a total of 6000.

Liu Lili’s hands trembled with the money, thanking him profusely.

At this point, Sun Mei quietly took Tang Qiulu upstairs to the second floor.

“What are you doing, Mom?” Tang Qiulu asked somewhat puzzled after being pushed into a room by Sun Mei.

“Qiulu, is your name on the property certificate of this house?” Sun Mei asked.

Tang Qiulu found out about the villa much later, so naturally, her name wasn’t on it.

“It shouldn’t be.

Is there something wrong?” Tang Qiulu looked at Sun Mei, puzzled.

“Are you silly?

Why isn’t your name on the property certificate?

Find a chance to have Su Changfeng add your name.

Better yet, get the property transferred to you,” Sun Mei suggested.

Tang Qiulu didn’t understand why Sun Mei was concerned about this.

She replied, “Why bother with a transfer?

Mom, isn’t this just unnecessary trouble?

I’m already exhausted from collaborating with Weishui, how could I even think about that?”

Sun Mei seemed a bit disappointed in Tang Qiulu and said, “Are you out of your mind?

If your name isn’t on the property certificate and you divorce Su Changfeng someday, what will we do?

You need some assurance, and did you see his attitude today?

He actually asked me to leave this house.

I think he’s so arrogant because his name is on the property certificate.

If Tang Qiulu’s name were on it, he’d never dare shout at me!”

“Mom, you’re really in the wrong here.

You went too far, and you still have the nerve to blame Changfeng?” Tang Qiulu now understood what was going on; Sun Mei intended to use her to seize the villa.

If the villa became hers, Sun Mei could continue to remain proud in front of Su Changfeng, but she would never do that.

“Do I have the nerve to blame Changfeng?

What do you mean?

I’m your mother, shouldn’t I have some rights?

Besides, I’m doing this for you.” Sun Mei replied angrily.

Tang Qiulu waved her hand and said, “Let’s not talk about this anymore.

Don’t expect me to do that, and don’t think about it anymore.

The house was bought with Changfeng’s money, so the property certificate should rightly have Su Changfeng’s name on it.”

Just as Tang Qiulu was about to leave, Sun Mei held her hand and said, “Daughter, why are you so stubborn?

Can you assure that Su Changfeng will be loyal to you for the rest of your life?

Aren’t you thinking about the future?”

“Mom, I think you’re intending for the property certificate to have my name on it, so once the villa is mine, you’ll have me divorce Su Canghai, right?

Whether Su Changfeng will remain loyal to me, I’m not sure, but if you’re planning for me to divorce Su Canghai, that’s impossible,” Tang Qiulu said coldly, then shook off Sun Mei’s hand and went downstairs.

Sun Mei was furious.

She thought she was doing what’s best for Tang Qiulu, who not only refused her support but even criticized her.

“Qiulu, I’m doing all this for you, why don’t you appreciate it?

If you’re unwilling, then Mom will act on your behalf.”

When Tang Qiulu returned to the bedroom on the first floor, Su Changfeng was playing with his phone on the floor.

Alongside trying to revive the collaboration, there was another issue giving Tang Qiulu a headache.

If they continued their collaboration, Su Changfeng would share the bed with her.

Tang Qiulu had been trying to find a way to make Su Changfeng sleep in the bed while she wouldn’t have to do that.

But such a solution wasn’t something one could easily come up with, and Tang Qiulu appreciated that she could sneak to the floor to sleep.

However, that option wasn’t viable.

After all the effort Su Changfeng put in to help her, doing that would indeed be a bit excessive.

Tang Qiulu stepped over Su Changfeng with her long, snow-white legs and sat on the edge of the bed, swinging her legs, saying, “Changfeng, have you contacted that classmate of yours?

Recently, the company's vehicles can't access the construction site; everything's been halted.

I'm worried that the longer it's delayed, the worse the consequences will be."

"Not yet, but don't worry, I will definitely handle this," Su Changfeng said, looking at his phone.

In reality, his eyes kept glancing at Tang Qiulu's beautiful legs, which could be described as sexy in two words.

Tang Qiulu sighed helplessly.

The Old Madam called her every day, not only asking how things were going but every call added to her stress.

"Hope the collaboration can be revived, and the project can continue," Tang Qiulu lay down on the bed and let her legs dangle off the edge.

Finally, Su Changfeng could openly look at her.

There was no need to pretend to play with his phone anymore.

"You must be exhausted lately?

I heard massages can relieve fatigue, so how about I give you a massage?" Su Changfeng suddenly suggested.

This startled Tang Qiulu.

In the past three years, their closest interaction was the hug at Yunding Restaurant.

Her subconscious told her to refuse him now, but Tang Qiulu also knew this could be an opportunity to deepen their feelings.

Before she knew it, Tang Qiulu's face turned red, then she nodded.

Su Changfeng sat up and gently held Tang Qiulu's right foot, which felt smooth like jade, looking like a piece of slippery white jade.

He gently pressed the sole and asked, "How does it feel, comfortable?"

"Mm..."

That night, Tang Qiulu slept exceptionally well, perhaps because Su Changfeng had given her a massage.

She slept with a smile on her lips, her face exuding happiness.

At six in the morning, Su Changfeng and Tang Qiulu woke up at the same time.

Their internal clocks were almost identical.

After washing up, they went jogging along the mountain road.

The morning air was refreshing, and looking over Hai City from the top of Xianwu Mountain was exhilarating too.

“I’ve imagined countless times being able to jog on Xianwu Mountain in the morning; I never expected this dream to come true.” At the mountain top, Tang Qiulu closed her eyes, breathing the unique freshness of the morning.

As long as Tang Qiulu was happy, Su Changfeng was infinitely satisfied.

Looking at Tang Qiulu’s natural beauty, Su Changfeng smiled and said, “Do you know that you look really beautiful?”

Chapter 100 - 100 100 How Good Looking

100: Chapter 100 How Good Looking?

100: Chapter 100 How Good Looking?

Su Changfeng suddenly said something that made Tang Qiulu a bit shy; she gave Su Changfeng a sidelong glance and said, “When did you learn to be so glib?”

“I’m just stating the facts.

Being glib is the last thing I’d ever want to do in life,” Su Changfeng laughed.

With her nose wrinkled, Tang Qiulu asked, “How good-looking?”

“Even a beautiful landscape isn’t as good-looking as you.

The sun, moon, and stars in the sky aren’t as dazzling as you,” Su Changfeng said with a sincere face.

A shiver ran through Tang Qiulu, and her hairs stood on end instantly; she quickly said, “Stop it.

Aren’t you embarrassed to say these things?”

Watching Tang Qiulu run down the hill, Su Changfeng smiled and followed.

Actually, this wasn't bad.

Su Changfeng once had a thought of giving up fame and status.

With the funds he currently had, he could live the rest of his life with Tang Qiulu without worries.

But the incident with Zhu Lie was a wake-up call for him—that idea wasn't realistic.

If he wanted to protect Tang Qiulu, he had to become strong enough.

Su Changfeng didn't agree with what Ji Hong said.

If you're strong, you should show it.

But the more outstanding you are, the more you become a target or even get destroyed, and he didn't want to be the tall tree in the forest—that's courting death!

However, Su Changfeng also wouldn't choose mediocrity because it was his pride as the young master of the Su Family!

If he abandoned this, others would step over him to climb higher.

After returning home and having a breakfast prepared by Liu Lili, Su Changfeng drove Tang Qiulu to the company.

Just as Tang Qiulu entered the company, she ran into Tang Siwen and Tang Xiangdong.

The two people in the same boat even looked at Tang Qiulu with the same gaze.

"Why haven't you settled this cooperation issue yet?

Tang Qiulu, are you unable to do it?

The Old Madam has unusually high expectations of you.

Don't disappoint her," Tang Xiangdong said with a smirk.

"Tang Xiangdong, would there be so many accidents if it weren't for you?" Tang Qiulu retorted.

Tang Xiangdong's face suddenly turned particularly ugly.

Tang Siwen and Tang Xiangdong were thick as thieves, so she was sure to speak up for Tang Xiangdong now.

“If it weren’t for you not doing well enough, why would the Old Madam replace you?

I don’t understand why Weishui’s CEO values you so much; did you put some kind of spell on him?” Tang Siwen insinuated, with no attempt to hide her mocking tone.

“Tang Siwen, if you have the time to spare, you should think about whose bride price this is.

Are you hoping to marry into a wealthy family using this person who sent the bride price?

That has nothing to do with you, right?” Tang Qiulu said coldly.

Tang Siwen was not ashamed but instead looked smug.

“After I get married, what is the Tang Family to me?

And what are you, Tang Qiulu?”

“But for the moment, you’re just an assistant of mine, who must obey my orders.

You’d better pray that the person sending the bride price comes soon, so you can attain your freedom,” Tang Qiulu said and got into the elevator.

Tang Siwen was so angry her teeth itched, intending to go upstairs, but she refused to go up with Tang Qiulu and waited downstairs.

“Donglin, how is the investigation of the person sending the bride price going?

Have you found that person?” Tang Siwen asked.

Tang Xiangdong also planned to use this matter to break the company’s current problems, but they really couldn’t find any clues.

Moreover, there wasn’t a particularly powerful Su Family in Hai City.

If they investigated outside Hai City, it would undoubtedly be more difficult.

Never mind abroad; even domestically, there were countless Su Families.

“We haven’t gotten any news on this matter yet, but don’t worry; I’ll do my best to investigate,” Tang Xiangdong replied.

“Once I get married, I’ll surely trample Tang Qiulu under my feet,” Tang Siwen said viciously.

“I suspect this Su Family may have some connection with the Beijing Su Family, and maybe your luck is about to turn around,” Tang Xiangdong laughed.

Tang Siwen touched her face, proudly saying, “That’s for sure; my face is my ticket into the elite.”

Tang Qiulu had only been in the office for a short while when the Old Madam called with her daily inquiry.

“Old Madam.”

“How is the situation?

Have you met Cheng Shi yet?” Recently, the Old Madam was especially exhausted, unable to eat or sleep well, wishing for a remedy for regret anytime she thought about the possibility of this cooperation falling through and the Tang Family going bankrupt, her heart ached immensely.

“Madam, don’t worry.

I’ve been trying every method lately and will definitely handle this matter well,” Tang Qiulu assured.

The Old Madam sighed and replied, “It’s all because of me; if it weren’t for me, this wouldn’t have happened at all.

Qiulu, during this time, you have to be more attentive.

Whether our Tang Family can survive depends on you.”

Despite having been looked down upon by the Old Madam before, Tang Qiulu’s heart wasn’t that hard.

Thinking about the heartache of someone as old as the Old Madam, she felt a bit pained and quickly responded, “Please rest well, Old Madam.

Don’t think too much about it; leave this matter to me.”

“Alright, alright, having you say this, the Old Madam can be at ease.”

After hanging up the phone, Tang Qiulu breathed a sigh of relief.

Suddenly, another call came in.

When Tang Qiulu saw the name Cheng Shi displayed on the phone screen, she immediately became excited.

In the past two days, she had no idea how many times she had tried to contact Cheng Shi, but Cheng Shi simply wouldn't see her, and Tang Qiulu was about to go crazy.

"Brother Cheng," Tang Qiulu quickly answered the phone and immediately said, "I apologize on behalf of our family's Old Madam for what happened before, and I hope you can give our Tang Family another chance."

"The cooperation continues," Cheng Shi said.

Tang Qiulu was stunned upon hearing this; she didn't even know how to respond for a moment.

Initially, she thought she would have to personally apologize to Cheng Shi, but who knew Cheng Shi would actually call her and say they could continue the cooperation.

It seemed like Weishui's CEO wasn't holding a grudge now.

"Thank you, Brother Cheng," Tang Qiulu said excitedly.

"I still have things to do, so I'll hang up," Cheng Shi then hung up the phone.

Tang Qiulu finally felt she could breathe a sigh of relief; she instantly felt much lighter.

But it was Su Changfeng who went out to handle this affair, so when he came home tonight...

In the afternoon, Tang Qiulu told those in the Tang Family to have a meeting.

Reluctantly, Tang Xiangdong and Tang Siwen went, feeling as if Tang Qiulu's commands were like swallowing a fly.

"Tang Qiulu, can't you handle the problem?

Are you trying to make everyone else think about what to do?" Tang Xiangdong mocked during the meeting.

"The Old Madam has already made you responsible for this; there's nothing anyone else can do to help.

I think you'd better figure out what to do on your own," Tang Siwen said.
