

The Doctor 1801

Chapter 1801 Not Late

Nan Suhuai left with slight regret.

Before he left, he specifically instructed Chu Liuyue that she had to properly nurture Thirteen since he was a good talent.

Actually, Nan Suhuai said this in consideration of Chu Liuyue. After all, Thirteen was her person. If he developed well, it would be the most advantageous toward her.

Now, Thirteen was still young, and they couldn't really tell. But once he grew up, he would definitely not be underestimated.

Chu Liuyue brought Thirteen along and personally sent Nan Suhuai out.

Until Nan Suhuai's figure gradually left and even disappeared, Chu Liuyue turned around and gazed at Thirteen quietly.

Thirteen felt nervous from her gaze and unwittingly lowered his head, asking hesitantly, "...Master, did I do something wrong just now?"

Chu Liuyue stared at him. "Follow me in."

Then, she turned around and walked into the room. "Xue Xue, go back first."

Xue Xue, who planned to follow them, looked disappointed. It scratched its head and reluctantly watched their backs for quite some time.

"Ow!" I will come back later!

Thirteen hesitated for a moment and followed her.

...

Inside the room, Chu Liuyue sat down leisurely.

Thirteen stood not far away from her and clasped his hands rather nervously. His head was slightly lowered, and he looked up at Chu Liuyue from time to time.

"Thirteen, you didn't do anything wrong." After being quiet for quite some time, Chu Liuyue spoke.

However, this did not make Thirteen relax. In his memory, Master had never used such a tone and expression to talk to him before.

He knew what rejecting Nan Suhuai's suggestion meant, so he still felt very uneasy.

"Even though many people want to go to Ling Xiao Academy, it doesn't mean that it is the same for everyone. You have your own reasons for being unwilling to go. I've never forced anything on you before, and I naturally won't now. However..." She paused, and her gaze was as sharp as a knife as it swept across Thirteen. "I'm rather shocked that your talent is so outstanding."

This made Thirteen increasingly uneasy.

"This is also my fault. I should've paid more attention to this back then, yet I only found out now." Looking at it from a certain perspective, I have also neglected Thirteen.

Thirteen hurriedly said, "No! This isn't your fault at all, Master! I should have taken the initiative and told you earlier—"

Chu Liuyue smiled. "Actually, there's not much point talking about it now. The most important thing is that your talent wasn't wasted."

Regarding this, she had the same view as her mentor.

To become a strong warrior, a cultivator had many conditions. Talent was unquestionably one condition, but this didn't mean that one would definitely grow with talent. If one didn't have a good mentor to guide them with sufficient patience and perseverance, even the best talent would be wasted.

Luckily, Thirteen was not delayed.

Hearing her say this, Thirteen finally felt more at ease.

"How does Cen Yi normally teach you?" Chu Liuyue suddenly changed the topic and asked.

"Hm?" Thirteen was dazed for a moment. "Big Brother... just gave me a few books for me to understand. Then... he told me to run. Big Brother said that when I could run faster than him, I would be able to help you."

The corner of Chu Liuyue's lips twitched. "Cen Yi really told you that?"

Thirteen nodded honestly.

Chu Liuyue silently cursed to herself. Cen Yi is indeed as cunning as before! He actually lied to a child! What cultivation level is he, and what level is Thirteen? Thirteen has to use so much effort and time to catch up to him! I told him to properly bring Thirteen up, yet he drew such a big cookie for the child?

Chu Liuyue rubbed her glabella.

Thirteen continued, "And during the few years in the middle, Big Brother wasn't around... I've been following Fifth Brother and Tenth Brother..."

Chu Liuyue suddenly recalled that Cen Yi and Si Jing had stayed in the Dahuang Swamp for quite some time to help her guard her Nine-Colored Heavenly Pheasant.

Thinking of this, Thirteen has suffered quite a bit. In such a chaotic situation, it is really rare that he can still develop to his current state. Chu Liuyue thought for a moment before asking, "Regarding your talent, who else knows about it?"

Thirteen hesitated for a moment and then softly answered, "Other than Big Brother and the rest, nobody else..."

This also means that all the other Thirteen Yue Guards knew about this, and only I, the master, knew nothing? Chu Liuyue took a deep breath in, closed her eyes, and waved her hands. "Go back and call Cen Yi over."

...

Cen Yi quickly came over.

After pushing the door to enter, Chu Liuyue glanced behind him.

Thirteen didn't follow him.

Cen Yi said, "Thirteen hasn't finished his journey for today, so I let him go first."

Chu Liuyue nodded.

She had already asked everything she wanted to. The remaining questions were for Cen Yi.

"You long knew about his talent, so why didn't you say it?" Chu Liuyue asked in a straightforward manner.

Cen Yi looked calm. "I did want to tell you at the very beginning, but I hadn't found the time to do it. Besides, his body wasn't very good at the time, so I thought of telling you after his condition stabilized. I didn't expect so many things to happen later on, and so we dragged on until now."

Chu Liuyue was dazed. Cen Yi's words do make sense.

"But... you should've told me about such urgent matters earlier. If I had known about this earlier...."

"Master, you actually don't have to worry. Thirteen's cultivation has always been very successful these few years. Even though I didn't tell you in time... it's not too late that you know now, right?"

Chapter 1802 Memory

Chu Liuyue didn't know what to say...

She leaned against the back of her chair, looked down slightly, and fell into deep thought. After a while, she smiled helplessly. "You're right."

She had never doubted Cen Yi's loyalty toward her. Even if Cen Yi sometimes didn't completely do things according to her instructions, she would basically not be angry or worried.

Cen Yi was always very intelligent. Many times, it was indeed because of his presence that Chu Liuyue avoided a lot of trouble.

He's right. No matter when I find out about this, it doesn't have much of an impact. Under their care, Thirteen still grew up well. The current him is outstanding enough that my picky mentor was filled with praises for him. This is enough.

Chu Liuyue looked up slightly at Cen Yi.

Cen Yi stood quietly, and his expression was honest when he looked at her. In his eyes, it was nonchalant and calm.

"Take good care of Thirteen in the future."

Cen Yi smiled, nodded, and bowed. "Yes."

...

Time quickly passed to the day before the wedding.

According to the rules, the two people who were about to marry could not meet.

36 Respected Elder Ming was the first to come over.

"This was finally done after a total of three months. His Grace commanded many embroidery masters to rush this overnight." 36 Respected Elder Ming placed the intricate agarwood box down as he glanced at Chu Liuyue kindly. "Princess Consort, do you want to open it?"

There seemed to be something tingling in Chu Liuyue's chest.

Her hands lightly brushed across the wooden box, and she then shook her head. "The things that Rong Xiu gives are naturally the best."

This item was too precious, so she didn't even dare open the box to take a closer look.

Logically speaking, the dowry should be given by the bride's mother. However, her mother had long passed on and naturally could not do this.

Rong Xiu directly did all of this for her and didn't put her in a difficult spot.

Since they settled on their romance, so much time had passed in the blink of an eye.

Chu Liuyue suddenly felt unlimited emotions.

The outside had already become lively as everywhere was decorated in a blissful mood. The entire Sky-Cloud Empire seemed to have immersed itself in a joyous sea.

Such a grand event was prepared for her by him.

36 Respected Elder Ming looked at Chu Liuyue kindly and suddenly said, "Actually, I have something to say to you, Princess Consort. Princess Consort, may I know if it's convenient?"

Chu Liuyue recovered her senses, and her red lips curled up. "Venerable, it's too much to call me that. You can directly call me 'Yue'er!'"

36 Respected Elder Ming's gaze became even softer. "Okay! In the future, I will address you like that in private."

Seeing that Chu Liuyue agreed, he waved his hands and dismissed his subordinates. Soon, it was just the two of them left.

Chu Liuyue knew that he was going to say something related to Rong Xiu, so she said, "Do sit down. You can just say whatever you want; I will listen to it."

36 Respected Elder Ming nodded, walked to the seat by the window, and sat down. "Yue'er, sit down too."

Chu Liuyue walked over readily and sat opposite 36 Respected Elder Ming.

...

36 Respected Elder Ming scrutinized the girl before her.

Breathtakingly beautiful.

Her pair of eyes contained a galaxy of stars in a pure and genuine manner, with a rare calmness. Such a woman was rightfully the most suitable one for him.

"Actually, I didn't really like you in the beginning." 36 Respected Elder Ming smiled and directly threw out such words.

Chu Liuyue's gaze was silent. She knew that 36 Respected Elder Ming had much more to say.

Seeing how calm she was, 36 Respected Elder Ming blinked. "Why do you not seem worried at all?"

Chu Liuyue's lips curled up slightly. "You mentioned that it was in the beginning. If you still disliked me now, you wouldn't be telling me these things here, right?"

"Girl, you're too smart, and it's hard to trick you..." 36 Respected Elder Ming instantly felt defeated. One is even harder to handle than the other!

However, he quickly organized his emotions and squinted his eyes as if he were recalling something.

"You should know a little about His Highness's background."

Chu Liuyue nodded.

"Back then, his mother went out to train and unwittingly met that man, becoming very devoted to him. She knew that the people in the clan would definitely object to her finding that man with the weak background, so she privately gave her life to the man. She thought that she had found true love, but she didn't know that the man was Country Yao Chen's emperor and long had a harem filled with people."

"Since then, she had lost all hope, and her body was getting worse and worse. In the end, on her deathbed, she used all her strength to hide His Highness's identity. She thought that she had done it flawlessly, but she didn't expect that the clan had never given up searching for her traces. Though she was gone, they quickly found His Highness."

"At that time, the entire Sky-Cloud Empire hated this issue greatly and even was ashamed of His Highness's presence. They planned to execute His Highness, but luckily His Highness summoned the Extreme God Sundial and showed the best bloodline power in the Sky-Cloud Empire for the past thousands of years! Ever since then, nobody brought up killing His Highness."

Speaking of this, 36 Respected Elder Ming looked comforted, but this expression was quickly replaced by pain. "But this was just the beginning. His Highness's background is special, and he had no foundation. For a very long time, he was bullied in the Sky-Cloud Empire. Even though I could help him, I couldn't be too overboard. If not, it would garner others' jealousy and hatred."

"Time passed day by day, and he slowly grew up. At some point, he became cold, maniacal, and cunning! His nickname 'Grim Reaper' came from there."

36 Respected Elder Ming sighed deeply. "Although he became stronger day by day, his personality seemed to be increasingly cold. Sometimes, people even wondered if he had cut off all his emotions and became a numb killing puppet."

Chu Liuyue was also slightly shocked in her heart. Even though she had some understanding of these issues earlier on, this was the first time she had heard someone say it in full.

After so many years, Rong Xiu didn't even mind it when he brought it up himself.

When she heard it, she still felt pain.

Speaking till here, 36 Respected Elder Ming looked at Chu Liuyue. "But luckily, His Highness met you later on."

Chu Liuyue pointed toward herself. "Me?"

"Yes, you." 36 Respected Elder Ming seemed to have immersed in a distant memory. "I remember that it was a few years ago when His Highness went out to train alone and didn't come back for a long while. When I heard news from His Highness again, he was already a student of Ling Xiao Academy."

Chapter 1803 Marry Rong Xiu

Chu Liuyue's heart tingled slightly.

She and Rong Xiu indeed knew each other before they went to Ling Xiao Academy. At that time, she had just ended her training at Dahuang Swamp and came to the God Residence Realm due to a twist of fate. In the end, she directly met Rong Xiu.

At that time, the two of them were being pursued respectively. Out of desperation, they chose to make an alliance. With this, they got to know each other.

Then, she said she wanted to go to Ling Xiao Academy to cultivate. Without hesitation, Rong Xiu also agreed.

Chu Liuyue subconsciously thought that Rong Xiu was also going for Ling Xiao Academy, like her. After all, although she wasn't familiar with the God Residence Realm then, she had stayed in Dahuang Swamp for quite some time and had heard quite a bit of such news.

Ling Xiao Academy was the top academy in the entire God Residence Realm. Who didn't want to go there?

"Actually, the people in the Sky-Cloud Empire didn't know about your existence at that time and thought that His Highness just wanted to go to the academy to cultivate. It was only until later on, when His Highness said that he wanted to go back to Country Yao Chen, that I realized something was amiss."

When 36 Respected Elder Ming spoke of this, he paused for a moment. "You should know that His Highness doesn't care about Country Yao Chen at all. Unless there's a special reason, he would definitely not go there."

Before that, Rong Xiu had always claimed that he was sick and cultivated at Mingyue Tianshan. In actual fact, he only stayed at Mingyue Tianshan for a very short amount of time. Most of the time, he still stayed at God Residence Realm.

"And His Highness didn't return for a long while when he went. Later on... I met you."

In the beginning, 36 Respected Elder Ming thought that His Highness was falling head over heels for a woman and was displeased. However, he later discovered that this woman caused His Highness to start becoming a normal person with feelings and emotions.

At that time, 36 Respected Elder Ming felt that this woman had to be different.

Later on, he found a chance and finally met Chu Liuyue. At first glance, he liked this girl—smart, sharp, and genuine.

He had met many people in his lifetime, and he had very keen insight about people. After he met Chu Liuyue, he really liked her, so he sent her many greeting gifts.

“All these years, I’ve never seen His Highness spend any effort on anyone except for you.”

All his emotions probably came because of her.

“His Highness had suffered quite a bit before and isn’t close to anyone. Now that he has met someone he loves, it’s really rare. In the future... I hope the two of you can grow old together,” said 36 Respected Elder Ming solemnly, and he lightly patted Chu Liuyue’s hand.

Tears welled up in Chu Liuyue’s eyes as her lips curled up in a smile. “Okay.”

...

After 36 Respected Elder Ming left, Chu Liuyue sat in her room silently for a long time.

When she recovered her senses, she saw the agarwood box from the corner of her eyes. Her heart tingled.

She stood up and walked over.

The box wasn’t locked, but there was the Sky-Cloud Empire’s totem on it.

Chu Liuyue thought for a while and placed her Cosmic Ring on it.

The totem disappeared.

She reached out to open the box, and she saw a sea of fire-like red, looking like the red clouds in the evening sky that were intricately embroidered.

It was soft and light to touch, and it faintly had rays of golden light flashing across.

Magnificent, solemn, charming.

The phoenix coronet’s workmanship was complicated and intricate. It had a golden phoenix with its wings spread wide open, holding a red pearl in its mouth.

It was crystal clear, and its quality was top notch.

Its sides had tassels and looked even more extravagant.

Chu Liuyue gently brushed her hand against the phoenix coronet, and a thought suddenly popped up in her mind. I’m really going to marry Rong Xiu.

Chapter 1804 I Came to Marry You

That night, Chu Liuyue slept very well. She even had a very long dream.

In the dream, it was mostly scenes of her getting to know Rong Xiu and falling in love. Those scenes kept flashing across her mind, and every single one of them looked fresh as if it had just happened the day before.

At this point, Chu Liuyue then recalled that she and him were once more than miles apart. Yet, they still ended up together in the end.

Those who were meant to be together would end up holding each other's hands no matter what.

...

In the morning, knocks were heard from outside.

"Liuyue! Liuyue!"

Actually, Chu Liuyue was already awake. When she heard this, she knew that Mu Hongyu was here.

She walked over to open the door.

Mu Hongyu walked in excitedly and saw that Chu Liuyue's hair was still loose. She widened her eyes slightly. "Liuyue, why haven't you started getting ready?"

Chu Liuyue smiled rather helplessly. "What's the rush?"

That was because she and Rong Xiu were both at the Sky-Cloud Empire, and Changyi Mountain wasn't far from Suming Peak. Hence, they saved on quite a bit of complicated and miscellaneous procedures.

Besides, the wedding's official ceremony was held in the afternoon, which was quite a few hours away.

Mu Hongyu thought about it and agreed, but it was probably because it was her first time going to her good friend's wedding, so she had been very emotional. Her heart kept beating, and she could not calm down.

"You still have to prepare early! Bathing, putting on makeup, changing your clothes... All of this requires quite a bit of time!" As Mu Hongyu nagged, she forcefully dragged Chu Liuyue to the makeup desk and pressed her onto the chair. "Today is your wedding, Liuyue! Of course, you have to look good! You need to become the prettiest bride!"

Mu Hongyu looked at Chu Liuyue's soft hair that lay down with flushed cheeks and bright eyes. "Let me help you!"

Then, she began to take action.

But very quickly, Mu Hongyu discovered a crucial problem—she didn't know how to brush one's hair.

Normally, she simply tied up her hair. However, it clearly would not do for such a formal ceremony.

"Sigh... I previously researched this for some time..."

During this period, Mu Hongyu spent quite a lot of time on this. But when it was really the time, she realized that she wasn't very well-versed in it.

If it doesn't turn out well—

"Pfft." Petite laughter came in with the crisp sound of jade hitting each other. "Let me do this type of thing—"

Chu Liuyue and Mu Hongyu turned around to see Xiao Ba walking over with a smile.

Xiao Ba naturally took the wooden comb from Mu Hongyu's hands. Her voice was soft and flirtatious, almost able to charm one's bones. "Little sister, take a closer look."

Mu Hongyu paused.

The other party didn't look much older than her, but when compared to her flirtatious appearance, they really did seem worlds apart.

Mu Hongyu instinctively nodded and obediently acknowledged it.

Xiao Ba smiled and glanced at her before she stretched out her hand to pinch Mu Hongyu's cheeks. "How obedient!"

Mu Hongyu was never teased by a woman like this, and she instantly blushed.

Chu Liuyue glanced at Xiao Ba speechlessly. She really eats both men and women.

Xiao Ba retracted her gaze and calmly glanced at Chu Liuyue in the mirror. Then, her lips curled up in a smile. "Master, don't worry. Nobody will be prettier than you today."

Then, she started to help Chu Liuyue brush her hair.

The soft hair seemed especially obedient in Xiao Ba's hands.

They didn't see clearly how she took action as her white and thin fingers flew around. Then, a beautiful and elegant hairstyle was formed.

"Little sister, bring the phoenix coronet over," said Xiao Ba softly.

Mu Hongyu reacted and hurriedly agreed.

Chu Liuyue pointed at the seat.

Mu Hongyu walked over and opened the wooden box. Then, she gasped. "Liuyue, this phoenix coronet... is too pretty!"

She had seen quite a lot of precious accessories, but nothing could be compared to this phoenix coronet.

She couldn't use words to describe it. The moment one saw it, the first feeling people got was—beautiful!

It even had a hint of shock to it!

The Sky-Cloud Empire is still an aristocratic family after all, so their spendings are incredible... Just as Mu Hongyu sighed, she carefully took the phoenix coronet out and brought it to Chu Liuyue's hand.

Xiao Ba glanced at it, and a satisfied smile was revealed on her face. This is the only thing that can be worthy of Master.

She did not hurry to help Chu Liuyue put it on, instead helping the latter change to her bridal dress.

This time, Mu Hongyu still helped her take out the bridal clothes meticulously.

After seeing the phoenix coronet earlier, Mu Hongyu's tolerance became much stronger. After helping Chu Liuyue change, she just covered her mouth and tried her best not to scream again.

However, her pair of surprised eyes revealed her current emotions.

Xiao Ba raised her brows delightfully and helped Chu Liuyue with her makeup.

Her hand was very agile, and such a matter was simply a piece of cake to her. Besides, Chu Liuyue was born as a natural beauty.

After busying herself, Xiao Ba then scrutinized Chu Liuyue's face in satisfaction. "This is right!"

On her wedding day, she has to be the prettiest!

Then, Xiao Ba took the phoenix coronet and seriously helped Chu Liuyue put it on.

Mu Hongyu could not help but say, "Liuyue, I've never seen a person prettier than you."

Chu Liuyue looked at herself in the mirror.

She raised her brows lightly, and her eyes sparkled with her red lips.

Decked in the red bridal gown, she seemed like the hues in the sky—charming and elegant.

At one moment, she was also dazed. Indeed, even she hadn't seen herself in such a state...

At this point, a low and melodious voice came from outside. "Yue'er, I came to fetch you."

Chapter 1805 Come With Me

That was a voice she was ever so familiar with.

Chu Liuyue recovered her senses and turned around to look.

The door was currently tightly shut, but the outside had already become lively.

The melodious music floated in and became an earworm.

She heard many people's laughter. However, only his voice was clearest amidst the hustle and bustle of the mortal world.

He said he came to fetch her.

Chu Liuyue stood up and walked to the door.

She placed her hand against the door. It was cold to the touch, yet her palm was burning hot.

She took a deep breath in and gently pushed open the room door—

The bright light instantly poured in!

She squinted her eyes slightly and saw a very familiar face.

She was slightly dazed.

The current Rong Xiu was decked in a red robe for once.

A black jade belt circled his waist, which easily outlined it, clearly showing that his shoulders were broad and his waist was narrow with a tall figure.

The usual deity-like appearance seemed to be tainted with some mortal fire, lightening his usual distance.

The elders fell silent for a moment.

Burning passion also flashed across Rong Xiu's eyes.

The woman decked in red bridal clothes walked out from behind the door.

She was extremely beautiful and charming.

Breathtakingly beautiful—these words were probably used to describe such a beauty, right?

Actually, many people present had seen Chu Liuyue before.

She originally had an extremely pretty and peerless appearance, but she usually faced the crowd with her bare face. Now that she was decked in her phoenix coronet and was meticulously dolled up, it instantly made one feel that she had become another person.

There was actually such a woman in this world.

When she appeared, it seemed as if everything in the surroundings had darkened. She was the only one who was lively, bright, and dazzling!

The so-called troublemaker was just like this.

Perhaps a deity with such an appearance shouldn't even be in the mortal world.

The entire hall was silent. Everyone held their breaths in as if they were afraid that speaking would disturb someone.

Chu Liuyue blinked. Instantly, there seemed to be thousands of stars circling in them.

"Rong Xiu," she softly called out.

Rong Xiu stared at her closely, as if he wanted to engrave her appearance in the bottom of his heart.

The scorching temperature almost caused Chu Liuyue's entire body to burn.

After a moment, he finally stretched out his hand. "Yue'er."

Chu Liuyue looked at his hand. It was thick and powerful, and his palm was covered with a thin layer of calluses.

Only she knew how warm that hand was.

She passed her hand over.

Almost immediately, Rong Xiu held her hand tightly. It was as if he were terrified that the person would immediately disappear when he blinked.

He only felt relieved when he confirmed the petite and soft temperature in his hands.

He suddenly leaned over and softly whispered in her ear, "Yue'er is really... very beautiful."

Chu Liuyue's face blushed slightly, yet her hand had an indescribable stability and warmth. I've finally... walked to his side.

Rong Xiu held her hand tightly. "Yue'er, come with me."

...

The wedding was held at Tongshen Palace.

At this point, Tongshen Palace was filled.

Everyone from the respective aristocratic clans in the God Residence Realm had gathered here. They were all waiting for the wedding's main characters to come over.

At the innermost positions were Shangguan Jing, Shangguan You, Chu Ning, as well as 36 Respected Elder Ming.

When the crowd saw them, they couldn't help but partake in heated discussions.

"Shouldn't those few positions be left for His Grace and the princess consort's parents? Why is 36 Respected Elder Ming sitting there? I don't even know the ones at the side."

"Didn't you hear? Ever since the Sky-Cloud Empire's clan leader caused that scene, he fainted a few days later and hasn't woken up yet! All of us know what kind of background His Grace has. Since the clan leader is unconscious, the only person worthy of sitting here is really only 36 Respected Elder Ming! After all, all these years, he treats His Grace like he is his mentor and father..."

"Your words do make sense. However, what's the background for the three people at the side? Could they be... the princess consort's family?"

"That... Hah, that's a long story! Do you see the person in the middle? That's the famous Shangguan Jing, a true supreme Armory Refinement Master! I heard he's the princess consort's ancestor. The other two people seem to be the princess consort's fathers?"

"I heard that the Sky-Cloud Empire's princess consort was born in the Tianling Dynasty outside of the God Residence Realm. But after a few struggles, she managed to come to the God Residence Realm with much difficulty... Since these two are her fathers, it's normal for them to be able to sit there."

“Normal? The one on the left is fine as he’s a demigod, but the one on the right is only a stage-four warrior! Hmph, it’s hard for us to even see such a person normally, yet they’re sitting in front of us and are more distinguished... This princess consort is really amazing!”

“You can’t say that. Did you see the elder at the side? That’s Nan Suhuai—Ling Xiao Academy’s director! However, he’s the princess consort’s mentor. I heard that he dotes on the princess consort a lot and even spoils her. Be careful of him hearing you! You will be in trouble!”

Some people were nonchalant about it.

“So what? Most of the people are here to give the Sky-Cloud Empire face! Besides, even if they really hear it, can they really cause a scene here?”

For a Shangguan Yue? It really isn’t worth it.

Nan Suhuai slowly clenched his fists in his sleeves and glanced at the people talking.

Shangguan Jing looked up slightly and then quickly looked away.

At this point, the announcement clearly sounded with the accompanying music—

“His Grace has arrived! The princess consort has arrived!”

Chapter 1806 It’s My Blessing to Marry You

Tongshen Palace quickly fell silent.

Everyone looked up at the entrance of the hall.

A beautiful couple was coming hand in hand! In an instant, all the light seemed to gather on the two dazzling people!

They held each other’s hand tightly and walked side by side toward the main hall.

There seemed to be an inexplicable aura that enveloped the two of them, forming a small world that isolated them from the others. That small world could only accommodate the two of them and nobody else.

Shangguan Jing and the others perked up and subconsciously straightened their backs.

36 Respected Elder Ming was also filled with emotions. His Grace has been thinking about this for too long. Now, his wish has finally been fulfilled.

I have almost never seen such an expression on His Highness’s face. Joy, happiness, pride, gentleness... and the deep love in his eyes that he didn’t hide.

All eyes followed them, but there was only one person in Rong Xiu’s eyes.

This scene was so beautiful that it was almost unbearable to disturb.

Many people gathered in the hall had complicated expressions when they saw this.

Nobody would've thought that the Sky-Cloud Empire's His Grace would really marry such a princess consort. Of course, many of them had interacted with her before, so they didn't dare to underestimate her now.

All kinds of gazes landed on the two of them.

Rong Xiu didn't care, nor did she. Their hands were clenched as if they would never part.

Finally, the two of them stood in the middle of the hall.

"Bow to the heavens and earth!" The ceremonial officer's voice was high, and it echoed clearly in the hall!

Rong Xiu and Chu Liuyue turned around and bowed.

Originally, Chu Liuyue didn't believe in heaven or fate. However, she would rather believe that the heavens had taken pity on her when she met Rong Xiu in this life.

Even though they were thousands of miles apart, he still came to her.

The difference in status was huge, but he had chosen her firmly from the beginning.

Her hand lightly brushed against his palm.

Rong Xiu held her hand even tighter.

"Second bow!"

They turned around and bowed again.

Chu Liuyue could clearly see her ancestor's clenched fists and both her fathers' slightly red eyes.

In an instant, countless images flashed before her eyes.

Her father emperor's indulgent smile and proud praise.

She remembered the fire in Tianling and the bone-chilling pain.

When she woke up again and returned to the Chu family with blood all over her body, her father—who had rushed over first—greeted her nervously.

He had been through many hardships for her. Even though he was dressed in rags and covered in wounds, he insisted on seeing her again.

Those nervous and uneasy eyes after knowing her identity.

Hearing her call him 'Father,' he could give up everything.

Also, along the way, her ancestor had protected her countless times...

Chu Liuyue's eyes warmed, and her nose stung.

Actually, she had always been loved and protected. No matter how much pain she had experienced, she still had family. They would become her warm arms.

“Husband and wife, bow to each other!”

Chu Liuyue looked up at Rong Xiu and into his deep and thick phoenix eyes.

She saw herself reflected clearly inside.

She saw the gentleness and love surging in his eyes.

Her red lips curved slightly as she smiled. “I have no regrets marrying Your Highness in this life.”

Rong Xiu looked at her and smiled. He said word by word, “No, it should be said that it’s my blessing to be able to marry you, Yue’er.”

Chapter 1807 Ancestor Takes Action, Explosion!

The two of them bowed.

“The ceremony is over!”

As the ceremonial officer’s clear voice spread through the hall, fireworks erupted on the many mountains outside Suming Peak!

Bright patterns bloomed in the sky. Even during the day, one could still see the flickering light.

36 Respected Elder Ming stroked his beard and sighed. “The Sky-Cloud Empire hasn’t been so lively in a long time...”

!!

Now that His Highness has finally gotten what he wanted, I am relieved.

Rong Xiu held Chu Liuyue’s hand tightly, and the two of them walked side by side into the innermost part of the hall.

There was a distinguished bench. It was clearly reserved for His Grace and the princess consort.

The red train of her dress, as thin as gauze, streaked silently across the black jade floor.

As they walked, the tassels on the phoenix crown swayed gently.

The woman’s skin was smooth, and her eyebrows were like a painting. What was even rarer was that her entire body exuded an indescribable spiritual aura. Just by standing there, she had already surpassed the thousands of sceneries in this world.

Her thick and long eyelashes fluttered slightly. Her eyes moved like a gust of wind, gently stirring the thousands of stars in the night sky.

Rong Xiu looked at her with deep eyes.

At that moment, he knew all eyes were on her. In the past, he would definitely not like it. But today was different—this was his wedding with her.

From now on, she was his consort.

She was so radiant and magnificent.

She was his.

He finally held the most moving treasure in the world in his palm.

...

The two sat down. Only then did Rong Xiu reluctantly retract his gaze from her and look at the people in the hall.

After the ceremony, it was time for the banquet.

But before this banquet began, there was an extremely important process to go through—gifts from all families. After all, the Sky-Cloud Empire was a first-rate family in the God Residence Realm. It was famous and had a noble status.

Now that it was the wedding of the powerful His Grace, Rong Xiu, every family naturally had to prepare generous gifts to celebrate.

The richness of the congratulatory gifts was very important. On the one hand, this reflected the wealth and foundation of the person who gave the gift. On the other hand, it also showed that they were close to the Sky-Cloud Empire.

“Today is my wedding. I welcome everyone. If there’s any neglect, please forgive me.” As Rong Xiu spoke, he raised his glass in invitation.

Everyone raised their glasses.

The hall was very lively.

Sitting beside Rong Xiu, Chu Liuyue picked up the wine glass in her hand and realized that it had been replaced with clear tea.

Her lips pursed, and she took a small sip to hide the smile in her eyes. Then, she put down her glass.

Rong Xiu tilted his head. “Delicious?”

His gaze dropped to her moist, full lips, and his eyes suddenly darkened.

Chu Liuyue blinked and nodded.

It was rare for her to be so obedient and naive. It was like a cat putting away its sharp claws and turning into a soft ball, making people want to hug and tease it.

Rong Xiu rubbed his fingers gently on the wine glass and glanced at the bright and warm sunlight outside. It’s only noon...

He downed the rest of his wine. For the first time, time seemed to pass so slowly.

“Tianji Sect Leader has given you two 1,000-year-old Flying Frost Immortal Pearls!”

“The sect master of Purple Phoenix Sect has given you a pair of Night Sea Coral Screens!”

“The owner of Snow Breeze Pavilion has given you a green-colored Great Essence Pill!”

The ceremonial officer's voice continued sounding.

Chu Liuyue raised her brows slightly. The Sky-Cloud Empire's status in the God Residence Realm is indeed extremely high. Almost all the gifts from various families are rare treasures. Ordinary aristocratic families have probably never seen such treasures, let alone given them away. Only true aristocratic families can have such confidence and foundation.

Rong Xiu listened from the side with a faint smile and relaxed eyes.

Everyone watched from below and sighed again. It turns out that this Grim Reaper can actually smile like this, and all of this is clearly because of the woman beside him.

...

Time slowly trickled past.

There was a low murmur of voices in the hall.

"The people who presented the gifts earlier were all first-rate families in the God Residence Realm. It's obvious that they're here for the sake of His Grace, but why hasn't anyone from Princess Consort's side appeared to present the gifts yet?" someone asked curiously.

"You don't know? The princess consort that His Grace married came from outside the God Residence Realm! For the sake of the wedding ceremony, he specially invited the princess consort's father and friends. But with that background... what kind of good things can her family bring out?" Someone laughed mockingly. "After the families and sects in the God Residence Realm finish their gifts, it should be their turn, right? However, I think... there's nothing to see!"

"Why not? I'm looking forward to what this consort's family and friends will bring! After all, she has won the favor of His Grace, who insists on marrying her. If the gifts are all unpresentable, wouldn't that scene be exciting? Haha!"

"Tsk tsk, you're really sinister! I like it! Just thinking about that scene makes me feel so good! When the time comes, I'm afraid Rong Xiu won't be able to maintain his expression anymore!"

Everyone laughed secretly.

In the past few years, Rong Xiu had been famous in the God Residence Realm.

Some people were envious and respectful, and naturally, some were jealous and resentful. There were also some who had wanted to marry into the Sky-Cloud Empire but were rejected by Rong Xiu.

Which aspect of the women in their family was not stronger than this lowly Shangguan Yue?

Although everyone present was chatting and laughing, many of them had their own plans. There were more than one or two people who wanted to watch a joke.

If this Princess Consort loses face today, it will be equivalent to losing His Grace—Rong Xiu's face!

Although many people lowered their voices, Tongshen Palace was only so big, and most of the people present were top experts. Who could not hear them?

This was deliberately said.

On the one hand, many of the families present were also first-rate families, not much inferior to the Sky-Cloud Empire. On the other hand, they felt that they were telling the truth. If the truth was unpleasant, would they not let others say it?

36 Respected Elder Ming frowned and glanced at Rong Xiu, only to see that the latter's expression was normal as if he didn't care about these words.

His gaze shifted slightly, and he glanced at Chu Liuyue again. There was still a smile on this person's face.

36 Respected Elder Ming sighed in his heart. I really can't see through them...

At this moment, Shangguan Jing suddenly spoke. "Yue'er."

The deep, rich voice immediately caught everyone's attention.

The hall fell silent.

Chu Liuyue looked over. "Ancestor?"

Shangguan Jing smiled and said, "Yue'er, you and Rong Xiu have finally come to fruition today. I'm so happy! I'm used to being carefree alone and haven't saved up much for you all these years, so I don't have anything else to give you. Take this."

As he spoke, he took a bronze Cosmic Ring from his hand.

Chu Liuyue's smile bloomed like a flower. "Ancestor gave it to me, so it's naturally the best!"

Shangguan Jing waved his hand and casually said, "It's just six supreme Yuan instruments. What's so good about them? In the future, I will personally forge a few more for you. At the very least, I have to make ten perfect ones!"

Chapter 1808 Master, the Icing on the Cake!

Gasps instantly sounded in Tongshen Palace. Six Supreme Yuan instruments?! Is he joking?!

It had to be known that for many people present, obtaining a royal Yuan instrument was already a great thing! Otherwise, there wouldn't have been so many families that directly fell out with Ling Xiao Academy in order to fight for the Chi Xiao Sword!

They had long known that Shangguan Jing was a supreme Armory Refinement Master and would give the two a supreme Yuan instrument. However, they never expected that Shangguan Jing would actually give them six!

He actually promised to make up for a few more later and gather ten pieces! Are supreme Yuan instruments as common as cabbages these days?!

Everyone was in a mess.

!!

What they didn't know was that although Shangguan Jing had always fought alone and was carefree, he had almost never lost when competing with an Armory Refinement Master of the same level.

Not only would he refine a supreme Yuan instrument every time, but he would also often win the treasures that the other party had painstakingly refined. Even if it was slightly inferior to his, it was still a true supreme Yuan instrument.

Therefore, in terms of Yuan instruments, he indeed had a rich background! Moreover, it was the kind that everyone present couldn't compare to!

Seeing Shangguan Jing's casual expression, many people felt as if they had been slapped hard in the face.

Earlier, they were mocking the princess consort's family for not being able to give her anything impressive. Now, Shangguan Jing was the first to attack.

Just these six supreme Yuan instruments alone had almost surpassed most of the previous ones!

Chu Liuyue was also a little surprised.

She knew that her ancestor should have some treasures in his hands, but she didn't know that he would actually take out six supreme Yuan instruments at once this time.

After a short daze, she took the Cosmic Ring with a smile. "Thank you, Ancestor!"

Shangguan Jing laughed. "As long as Yue'er likes it! Put it on quickly!"

Chu Liuyue thought for a moment. Since I have the Holy Ring that Rong Xiu gave me on my right hand, I'll wear the Cosmic Ring on the left.

After trying it out, only the thumb was suitable.

It looked like a thumb ring.

Everyone watched from below, their faces pale.

At this moment, there were six supreme Yuan instruments hidden in a ring on Shangguan Yue's left hand! There is also the Holy Ring on her right hand that symbolizes the supreme status of the Sky-Cloud Empire!

Just this alone was enough to make many people present to look up to her!

At this moment, Nan Suhuai laughed. "Senior Shangguan gave such a big gift as soon as he made a move. It's really difficult!"

Everyone looked over. What is the dean of Ling Xiao Academy planning to give?

Chu Liuyue's eyes curved up. "Master has already given me many things. No matter what Master gives me, I like it."

"You little girl!" Nan Suhuai snorted with laughter.

This was the truth. When Yue'er was still in the academy previously, he had indeed helped open many back doors.

But now that it was her wedding, he naturally had to prepare a generous gift.

Nan Suhuai took out two green jade tokens.

Chu Liuyue's heart skipped a beat, and a hint of shock flashed across her eyes as if she had thought of something. Could it be—

"This green jade token is the status symbol of a Ling Xiao Academy elder. Those who hold this token can enter and leave Ling Xiao Academy at will and enjoy the treatment of an elder." As Nan Suhuai spoke, he flicked his wrist.

Two green jade tokens flew in front of them. The two of them reached out to take one each.

Chu Liuyue took a closer look and saw that her name was even engraved at the bottom of the green jade token—Yue.

Her gaze shifted slightly. Rong Xiu's green jade token also had a 'Xiu' engraved on it.

"You can activate it by injecting your force," Nan Suhuai said with a smile.

Chu Liuyue nodded, held her breath, and focused on injecting force into it.

Whir!

The green jade token immediately flickered!

A number gradually appeared.

Chu Liuyue widened her eyes suddenly! What is—

Seeing her expression, Nan Suhuai smiled even more smugly. "I've already saved points inside. This is enough for the two of you to use for a while, right?"

There is such a gift?! It is simply a surprise among surprises! It can probably be used for more than a while? Chu Liuyue felt that even if she were to make use of it, she wouldn't be able to spend it all in ten years!

Outsiders might not know what this number represents, but I know! With these points, can't I casually pick the medicinal herbs in the academy? Can't I just casually flip through the Xuan formations and medical skills in the library?!

Master has really given me a big gift!

Her eyes lit up as she looked up. "Thank you, Master!"

She immediately felt that her master was even more amiable!

However, Nan Suhuai raised his finger and shook it. "Actually, this isn't the most important thing. Yue'er, do you know what the most important meaning of this green jade token is?"

Chu Liuyue was dazed. The green jade tokens are unique to the elders in the academy. Master doesn't mean for Rong Xiu and me to be academy elders but to give us these green jade tokens. Then... is there another meaning?

Nan Suhuai put his hands behind his back and raised his chin slightly. There was still a smile on his face, but there was an irrefutable dignity between his eyebrows!

"Those who hold the green jade token will receive the highest protection from our Ling Xiao Academy! If anyone is harmed, Ling Xiao Academy will definitely avenge them at all costs!"

Every word was sonorous and powerful! It was like a thunderclap that exploded in everyone's ears in the hall!

Everyone looked at each other, suddenly understanding something. Nan Suhuai is protecting Shangguan Yue to the end!

What does this mean? If someone commits a crime in the future, Ling Xiao Academy will definitely not stand by and do nothing!

Rong Xiu is His Grace of the Sky-Cloud Empire, so he basically doesn't need this. Obviously, this was specially prepared for Shangguan Yue!

In the past, Nan Suhuai had always backed Shangguan Yue as her master and stood up for her. In the future, the entire Ling Xiao Academy would become her backing and trump card!

As long as one was afraid of Ling Xiao Academy, they would have the same reverence for Shangguan Yue in the future!

How was this a gift? It was clearly power giving!

Chapter 1809 Staff!

In Tongshen Palace, everyone was first shocked before falling into a long silence. How could this be... How did this happen?

As the director, shouldn't Nan Suhuai do things impartially? He sent the entire Ling Xiao Academy out so openly just to support Shangguan Yue?! Will the other elders and students of Ling Xiao Academy not object?!

"It's not appropriate for Nan Suhuai to do this, right?"

"That's right! Even if Shangguan Yue is his disciple, he shouldn't dote on her like this! What will the others in the academy think?"

"I've heard long ago that Nan Suhuai dotes on this disciple very much. Now that I see it, the rumors really live up to their reputation..."

"Heh, he's the director after all. His spending is indeed extraordinary. I wonder if Ling Xiao Academy will still be as calm as before in the future..."

All kinds of discussions surged like a tide. Although some people didn't say anything, it was obvious that they weren't optimistic about this matter.

Ling Xiao Academy was not a place dominated by Nan Suhuai's family.

Hearing this, Nan Suhuai raised his eyebrows and smiled. "You don't have to worry about that."

He half-turned. Although he was smiling, his eyes were as sharp as knives as they swept over the rude people.

These people fell silent for a moment.

Nan Suhuai's smile widened. "Previously, my Ling Xiao Academy was in great danger. It's all thanks to Yue'er's actions that the entire academy was saved from danger. In the past, this green jade token has never been given to anyone who isn't an elder. Now, I've made an exception and given it to the couple. It was approved by several elders of the entire academy. What? None of us have any objections, but you seem to be quite dissatisfied?"

Who are you dissatisfied with?

Does anyone even care?!

We have already decided. It's not your turn to give your opinions, and it's none of your business!

Although he didn't say these words, Nan Suhuai's expression had already conveyed his meaning very vividly.

Many people felt embarrassed and looked away.

However, Nan Suhuai did not seem to be satisfied. He sneered and said, "There's another point. Let me remind everyone: I've only taken in this one disciple in my life!"

Everyone seemed to have suddenly thought of something and was shocked. Then, they looked at Nan Suhuai in disbelief! What does this mean?! Is he planning to pass the position of director to Shangguan Yue?!

Right! If not for this plan, why would he be so protective of Shangguan Yue and even give her such a big gift?

The other elders in the entire Ling Xiao Academy agreed so much with the giving of these green jade tokens. Could it be that they have already decided—

Many people began to feel uneasy. If Shangguan Yue really becomes the director of Ling Xiao Academy, the situation will be very different!

Even if she has no roots in the God Residence Realm, Ling Xiao Academy is definitely a colossus! If she really becomes the director, her status in the entire God Residence Realm will rise greatly in the future!

It was true that some first-rate families were rich in resources and had gathered experts, and they could nurture outstanding juniors themselves. They didn't need to send their children to Ling Xiao Academy, nor did they have to worry about having a bad relationship with it.

However, this was only a very small portion! Most aristocratic families still hoped that their young descendants could enter Ling Xiao Academy to cultivate and become experts.

Therefore... didn't this mean that they had to treat Shangguan Yue carefully and respectfully in the future?

After figuring this out, many people had complicated expressions.

Actually, many of them had indeed looked down on Shangguan Yue previously. Even though she was talented and powerful, she still looked too weak without the support of her family.

It seemed as if she would collapse if the wind blew.

Now, things were great!

In front of her was the Sky-Cloud Empire, and behind her was Ling Xiao Academy! If these two forces joined forces, how could others play?

The atmosphere in the hall became very subtle.

Many of the previously restless people had given up.

A satisfied expression appeared on Nan Suhuai's face. This is the effect I want! Want to bully Yue'er? Dream on!

"The two seniors have given such big gifts. Our gift is a little embarrassing." Shangguan You smiled.

Although he said that, his expression was magnanimous, and his bearing was natural. It was like a spring breeze.

Just this temperament alone surpassed many so-called noble people present.

Rong Xiu smiled and said, "Father-in-law is the closest person to Yue'er. Coming all the way here is already the best gift for us."

He had addressed them both as 'Father-in-law.'

Shangguan You and Chu Ning!

Some people pondered again. Putting everything else aside, just from His Grace Rong Xiu's attitude toward these two people, it can be seen how much he values the princess consort. It's said that he has even invited the princess consort's friends and subordinates... Such efforts are really rare.

Shangguan You took out a wooden box.

The wooden box was rectangular and dark, with a faint layer of pressure. It was obvious that there was a Xuan formation seal on the outside.

Sensing a very familiar fluctuation, Chu Liuyue widened her eyes in surprise. "Father Emperor, this is—"

"Open it up and take a look," Shangguan You urged with a smile.

Chu Liuyue took the wooden box.

The moment she held it in her hand, the seal on it automatically lifted! The aura surged even more!

Chu Liuyue paused for a moment.

Kada.

The wooden box opened.

A dragon-headed scepter lay quietly inside.

Her heart skipped a beat. As expected—it is the Tianling Power Staff!

“Before I came this time, the Tianling Power Staff automatically flew out of Lang Kun Hall, so I brought it along,” Shangguan You explained. “It belongs to you after all.”

Suppressing her excitement, Chu Liuyue reached out and held the Tianling Power Staff.

Whir!

In an instant, the eyes of the dragon head on the staff suddenly shone brightly!

Almost instinctively, she held the staff and swung it down.

Whoosh!

The sound of air being torn apart rang out! At the same time, an incomparably powerful pressure suddenly descended upon the entire Tongshen Palace!

“A supreme Yuan instrument?!”

Everyone was in chaos again. How could this be a supreme Yuan instrument?! Could it be that this is common among the Shangguan family?!

Shangguan Jing laughed loudly. “This little thing still likes to stick to you!”

Chu Liuyue also clearly sensed that the aura on the Tianling Power Staff seemed to be even stronger than before. I had never realized that this was actually a supreme Yuan instrument?!

As if reading her mind, Shangguan Jing explained, “This Tianling Power Staff is indeed a supreme Yuan instrument I refined a long time ago, but it’s a little different from ordinary supreme Yuan instruments. The stronger the holder is, the greater the power it can stimulate. In the past, your realm wasn’t high, so the power you could sense and exert was limited. Now that your strength has increased a lot, it’s naturally different when you hold it in your hand.”

Chapter 1810 How Fortunate

Chu Liuyue exclaimed in her heart, No wonder! It turns out that I had already seen a supreme Yuan instrument, but I didn’t know it!

Shoo!

Someone below suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood and fell over.

The person beside him immediately frowned and said, “Princess Consort, we’re here today to congratulate you! Isn’t it inappropriate for you to target us like this?”

That person couldn’t withstand the pressure of the Tianling Power Staff and vomited blood.

!!

Chu Liuyue raised her eyebrows in surprise. "Eh? I just took out the Tianling Power Staff, and you can't take it anymore? I thought that everyone present today is a top expert of the God Residence Realm. So I misunderstood? I'm really sorry!"

As she spoke, she immediately took out a jade bottle and asked Yan Qing to hand it over. "This is a Recovery Pill. Please take it!"

Yan Qing respectfully took the bottle with both hands and handed it over.

Not only were people vomiting blood this time, but even the person who spoke almost choked. Are you not embarrassed?

How are you not embarrassed? That attack just now was clearly on purpose!

Just as that person was about to say something, Rong Xiu put down the wine glass in his hand.

Clang.

The sound was neither loud nor soft, but it was suddenly like a huge rock pressing down on everyone's hearts!

Rong Xiu looked up and glanced over, his eyes extremely indifferent. "Today is a joyous day for Yue'er and me. We can't see blood. Yan Qing, send them out."

"Yes!"

Yan Qing looked at the person who had vomited blood. "Please—"

Being stared at by Yan Qing, that person subconsciously trembled. At that moment, he couldn't say a word. He forcefully swallowed the blood in his mouth, stood up, and left dejectedly.

When he left, his footsteps were unsteady as if he had yet to recover.

Everyone was silent for a moment. This couple... really has a tacit understanding!

The audience thought that it would be fine if the couple heard what they said previously and that the couple wouldn't really cause trouble here today.

Unexpectedly, Shangguan Yue was a vengeful person; she directly attacked in front of so many people! However, Rong Xiu actually let it go!

It could only be said that the person who was beaten was really unlucky.

However, this warning made everyone present wary. These two people... They are really not to be trifled with!

Chu Liuyue raised her brows and put away the Tianling Power Staff, her lips curling into a faint smile. Yes, it is quite useful.

“Yue’er, we were in a hurry, so I don’t have much to give you. A few days ago, I asked Senior Shangguan to help refine a pendant. I’ll give it to you!” Chu Ning broke the silence in the hall and handed over a palm-sized jade box.

Chu Ning had brought this jade box with him.

When she was in Country Yao Chen in the past, this jade box was considered extremely good. But in the eyes of these people today, it was very ordinary and even a little rough.

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief. Finally, a normal person came! This is the level of gifts they should have given!

However, Chu Liuyue didn’t care about this. She took the jade box with both hands and opened it.

A small green jade gourd was strung with a red string. There was a faint redness in the jade gourd.

She picked up the small jade gourd.

Countless gazes landed on it.

Someone couldn’t help but chuckle. What is this? It’s fine if the material of the jade box is a little inferior. After all, it is only a container for gifts. However, the quality of this jade gourd isn’t good!

The color is still mottled, and it is really ugly. How could he take out such a thing?

Doesn’t Shangguan Yue feel embarrassed?

Chu Liuyue’s expression froze as she stared at the jade gourd for a while before saying, “Father, inside this is—”

“That’s Chu Ning’s blood.” Shangguan Jing suddenly spoke.

Everyone didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. Blood!? So that Chu Ning had asked Shangguan Jing for help to place his blood in the jade gourd?!

This is too old-fashioned!

What’s the point!?

“Oh my god, even if there’s nothing else to give, he shouldn’t be so poor, right? Giving them blood? What’s going on?”

“That’s right... Even if he borrows a gift, it’s better than this, right?”

“If I were Shangguan Yue, I really wouldn’t be able to take this thing...”

Discussions in the hall gradually arose.

Chu Ning tightened his grip. This is indeed the best gift I... wanted to give.

Shangguan Jing glanced around and suddenly laughed. “I wonder when the divine blood of the Indestructible Holy Body became so worthless?”

As soon as he finished speaking, the hall suddenly fell silent!

Some people still had disdainful smiles on their faces, but their eyes were filled with shock, looking very strange and ridiculous.

Some people quickly looked at Chu Ning! Indestructible Holy Body?!

Chu Ning has the Indestructible Holy Body?! That is one of the rarest Holy Bodies in the world! He is only a stage-four warrior. How could he—

No, no! It's rumored that when he came to the Sky-Cloud Empire half a month ago, he was a stage-one warrior! In such a short period of time, he actually broke through three cultivation levels in a row!

"The Indestructible Holy Body has extremely strong vitality. As long as you're still breathing, you can recover quickly and have higher combat strength. Chu Ning refined the divine blood and fused it into this jade gourd. Wear it on you, and you can contact him at any time. If you encounter any trouble, just call him. If it's really dangerous, break the jade gourd. This divine blood will help you recover."

Although it could only be used once, it was equivalent to having half a life!

"Chu Ning's current realm isn't high, and the power of the divine blood is relatively thin. During this period of time, he has suffered a lot to refine this drop of blood."

Chu Ning quickly shook his head. "No, no, Senior Shangguan is exaggerating. I don't have anything to give you; I just hope you remain safe."

Chu Liuyue's nose stung, but a smile bloomed on her lips. "Thank you, Father!"

He doesn't have any rare treasures, only love and passion. I am so lucky.

"Father, your gift is not inferior to anyone else's!"

Everyone was silent. Needless to say! The divine blood of the Indestructible Holy Body... We have never even thought about it, but Shangguan Yue directly has it! Who doesn't want to have half a life on hand?

They felt as though they had seen a ghost. Even a seemingly lowly existence like Chu Ning could give away such a heaven-defying treasure! What kind of luck does Shangguan Yue have?!

At this moment, a voice came from outside. "The red-gold heavenly phoenix clan leader, Yi Zhao, has arrived—"

Everyone turned around in shock! Yi Zhao? The clan leader of the red-gold heavenly phoenixes? Why is he here?!

Under everyone's gaze, a tall and burly figure appeared outside the door!

As soon as he appeared, a powerful and vast pressure emitted from his body! It was almost suffocating!

Everyone subconsciously held their breaths.

Yi Zhao... To them, he was also a legendary figure!

Someone muttered softly, "Yi Zhao is actually here! Could it be that he's here to cause trouble for Shangguan Yue?"
