

The Eternal 1671

Chapter 1671-please enter the jar

Ning keyun sighed in the crowd, " I didn't expect such an ending. Wan Yiqian could be considered a hero of the world, but he ended up in such a miserable state.

Ning Kewei said,"a blessing in disguise, in case Dongshan mountain rises again." But that will depend on how much his injuries can heal."

"Father, do you think the ten thousand treasures tower has a good chance of rising again?" ning keyun asked.

Ning Kewei said,"50 – 50." However, the ten thousand treasures tower is in dire straits, and a starving camel is still bigger than a horse. What they need the most at the moment is an ally, and what we need the most is also an ally."

what? " ning keyun was shocked and said, " father's meaning is to form an alliance with the myriad Treasure Tower? "

Ning Kewei nodded and said,"yes, it's easy to add flowers to brocade, but hard to send charcoal in the snow." Forming an alliance at this time is the most popular and reliable."

Ning keyun said,"won't the losses outweigh the gains?" After all, the ten thousand treasures tower has a strong enemy, ding Shan, on the inside and Ling Baiyi on the outside. Now, they've even offended the Holy region. If we go to them now, won't we get into big trouble?"

Ning Kewei said,"your worry is not without reason." Ding Shan and the Holy region were still fine. After all, they still had to consider propriety and face when doing things. The most troublesome person was Ling Baiyi. If they were to face him directly, it would be more likely for them to be in danger. However, no matter how stupid myriad treasures store is, they would not provoke Ling Baiyi at this time. Ling Baiyi's injuries today will take at least a year to recover."

"I still think that father should be more careful," ning keyun said worriedly.

Ning Kewei nodded and said, " I will think about it. For us, there are not many chances to turn the tables. We must be careful. I chose li Yunxiao in Red Moon City, and now he has chosen Wan Yiqian. I believe he has a good reason for doing so."

The two of them fell silent. Their black robes emitted a faint light and then disappeared into the surging crowd.

Yunxiao and the others were traveling very fast, and they appeared in the Empyrean one Pavilion a moment later.

Su lianyi immediately made arrangements for everyone. At the same time, she ordered them to pack up and prepare to leave.

the Chamber of Commerce's main assets are still distributed throughout the heavenly martial arts realm," Wan Yiqian said worriedly. I'm afraid that ding Shan will suppress and Annex them from today on.

Chen ZhongXi sighed. at this point in time, money is already a mere worldly possession. Moreover, the real treasure is still in our hands.

Wan Yiqian nodded and said, " that's right. As long as those top-grade items are there, everything else is easy to handle. Although ding Shan is letting us go, he definitely won't stop here. The real danger may just have begun. Everyone should use these ten days to quickly recuperate, and leave the cleaning up to the people below."

Everyone then left to make their preparations.

After leaving the hall, su lianyi quickly caught up with Yunxiao and said, " "Young master Yun, have you thought about where the Empyrean one Pavilion will move to after leaving new Yan city?"

I haven't decided yet," Yunxiao said. but no matter where it is, I can't take back the whole world. You have to be mentally prepared.

Su lianyi smiled. I've already prepared for this. From now on, no matter what, Empyrean one Pavilion will be tied to you. Everyone will listen to your orders.

Yunxiao laughed. you are still the master of the Empyrean one Pavilion. I won't come to you unless there is a special situation. You can stay in my divine realm tablet for a while, but it is not a long-term solution.

"I understand," su lianyi replied. young master Yun, " she said, glancing at Yunxiao. you seem to have something on your mind.

Yunxiao laughed and said, " lady lianyi is indeed attentive. It's not a concern. I'm going to meet a friend."

"Friend? Now?" Su lianyi's eyelids twitched as she said, " it's too dangerous in Xinyan city right now, isn't it? young master Yun, you're seriously injured. I've just ordered people to prepare the largest secret training room."

it's alright, " Yunxiao said. I'll use it when I come back.

In a flash, he disappeared from the courtyard. A tiny bolt of lightning flickered in the sky, and he was actually heading out of the city.

At this moment, the city was too chaotic, and there were countless experts of all kinds. He didn't dare to be too flamboyant and tried to avoid the crowd.

A few hours later, in the wilderness outside Hongyue city, Yunxiao's true body was revealed as the lightning fell.

A cold sneer came from the empty ground, " "You're finally here. Aren't you afraid that I'll wait for you? Don't you feel bad for wasting other people's time?"

Then, a ray of green light flashed and a majestic figure walked out. It was Luo Qingyun.

Yunxiao sized him up carefully, and his eyes flickered with surprise. Luo Qingyun had a faint wild surging power, and under the appearance of the human skin, he looked like an ancient beast.

Is this the power of the tenth-rank divine blood?

Luo Qingyun was the only one with a tenth-order bloodline in the world, and no one knew how far he could go.

Yunxiao smiled wryly. I came here as soon as I settled down. There are too many experts in the city, and I'm seriously injured now, so I don't dare to make too much noise.

"Hmph, is there anything in this world that you don't dare to do?" "Speak, why did you call me out?" Luo Qingyun said coldly.

Yunxiao laughed. Red Moon City sent Li Yi. I didn't expect you to steal him in secret. Aren't you afraid of the chaos in the city? "

"Of course, I'm here to watch the battle between titled martial sovereign Ling Baiyi." As for whether the city is empty or chaotic, I can't be bothered."

as a city Lord, " Yunxiao said with a smile, " Li Yi is much more competent than you.

Luo Qingyun frowned and said, " he's in charge of everything in the city now. Why did you call me out? don't waste my time! There was a hint of unhappiness on his face.

don't you want to fight me? " Yunxiao asked. I thought you wanted to fight me.

"Now?" Luo Qingyun was a little stunned. He sized Yunxiao up. He was barely breathing, and it would be a miracle if he could survive without healing his injuries.

it's not the best time, " Yunxiao said with a wry smile. but I need your tenth-grade dragon blood.

Luo Qingyun's pupils suddenly shrank and shot out bursts of coldness. He shouted, " "What?"

Yunxiao was forced to take a few steps back by the Dragon might, and his face turned pale.

"Of course I won't let you bleed for nothing," he quickly said. Instead, I'll make a bet with you. If you win, you can leave. If you lose, hehe, you know what I mean."

"Why should I bet with you?" Luo Qingyun said coldly.

Yunxiao raised his hand, and the divine realm tablet slowly flew out of his palm, hanging in the air and emitting a bright light.

"Didn't you always want to defeat me? In this divine realm tablet, I'm the master of a realm, and I can exert all my power through my divine sense and thoughts. In other words, if I fight in the divine realm tablet, I'll be in my best state."

do you dare to fight me? " Yunxiao grinned. do you dare? "

He saw Luo Qingyun's hesitant look and knew that he was struggling inside. He laughed and encouraged,"This is a Saint artifact. Don't you want to defeat me when I'm at my peak and inside my Saint artifact? If you lose this opportunity, I won't give you another chance to enter the Saint artifact. In addition, I've already exposed my Saint artifact to the world today. Who knows when I'll be chopped to death on the streets, and you'll never have the chance to fight me. "

"No need to provoke me," Luo Qingyun said seriously. It looks like you're very confident that you can suppress me inside."

even if you know it's a conspiracy, " Yunxiao chuckled. I can see that you still can't help but be eager to try.

"That's right," Luo Qingyun said with a serious expression. If I can defeat you in the Saint artifact, then my greatest inner demon will be eliminated, and my confidence will be unparalleled. In the future, it will be no problem for me to reach the peak."

Yunxiao curled his finger and said with a sinister smile, "Hehe, then come."

"Good! Since you're so confident, I'll try to crush your confidence!"

Luo Qingyun's face darkened, and his heart was filled with a monstrous fighting desire. He walked toward the divine realm tablet.

Although Yunxiao's face was frivolous and full of teasing, he was full of admiration in his heart. Such a firm heart of martial arts that could not be turned back, he was really a real Dragon in the world.

Flowing light swirled on the divine realm tablet and quickly sucked Luo Qingyun in.

"Hehe, now that you've entered my trap, you've got the God's blood. However, as a reward, I'm willing to fight you."

With a smile, Yunxiao turned and stepped into the cave.

Under the blue sky, there were no clouds for thousands of miles.

Yunxiao and Luo Qingyun looked at each other.

Luo Qingyun's face was solemn and solemn, while Yunxiao was still wearing that faint smile with his hands behind his back.

Luo Qingyun looked around and said, "the world within the tool is indeed magical." Is it an illusion that you don't have any injuries on your body?"

...

it's hard to explain," Yunxiao said. it can be considered an illusion. After all, my main body is indeed seriously injured. However, it's not an illusion because it's condensed from my will. At this moment, I can extract the power of the world, and I'm even stronger than when I was outside."

hehe, it's good to be stronger. Otherwise, I'm afraid it won't be enough!

Luo Qingyun's lips curled up into a sinister smile. His eyes were filled with fighting spirit as he raised his hand and slapped.

"BOOM!"

As the palm Power fell, the space in front of him was instantly penetrated.

Yunxiao's figure exploded, turning into countless Thunderbolts and condensing again.

Luo Qingyun took a step forward and clenched his fist. Immediately, the space became unstable, and circles of green light wrapped around Yunxiao.

Soon after, a spear radiance bloomed as he charged forward with the spear in his hand.

Yunxiao was shocked. The green light contained a very strong Dragon's might, which suppressed his body and slowed down the circulation of his aura!

"Swish!"

The long spear pierced into his body and ruthlessly stirred. Suddenly, a sharp spear light exploded!

"Bang!"

Yunxiao's body exploded, turning into countless Thunderbolts that flew away and condensed again a thousand feet away.

His face finally became serious, and he stared at Luo Qingyun with a pale face.

Originally, he was in the form of a will and his power would never be exhausted. However, in order to fight fairly, he deliberately mimicked his original form. After being shattered twice by the lightning transformation, his physical strength dropped sharply.

you've already reached divine transcendence? " in the pure-blood Dragon clan, there will not be anyone who has reached the divine transcendence realm.

Luo Qingyun's eyes flickered like stars. the ten directions divine realm is right in front of me!

Chapter 1672-two moves

Yunxiao's heart trembled. He was indeed the only one in the world who dared to say such words.

"What? are you scared?" Luo Qingyun sneered.

Yunxiao raised his hand and grabbed the cold sword, Ice Frost. The sharp sword light flickered in the sunlight and shone on the water.

"Slash!"

He shouted, and without any movement, the sword trembled with a "Weng" sound, and a Halo bloomed.

Luo Qingyun was shocked, and he held his spear in front of him.

“Clang clang clang!”

Countless sword intents attacked from all directions like rivers and seas.

Luo Qingyun brandished his long spear, creating a barrier and dazzling light.

“Break!”

Luo Qingyun spat out a single word. An angry roar came from the desolate God’s moon spear, causing the space to tremble. A golden light pierced through the boundless sword will.

In a flash, Yunxiao appeared next to Luo Qingyun, just a sword’s distance away, and the cold sword swept over.

Luo Qingyun raised his spear and knocked the long sword away. Then, he took a step back and thrust his spear forward.

But, Yunxiao took the lead and moved closer to Luo Qingyun, keeping a sword’s distance from him. All kinds of sword intents wandered under the cold sword and covered his whole body, preventing him from bringing out the power of the spear.

Shocked, Luo Qingyun kept retreating, but he kept a sword-length distance from Yunxiao and could not break free.

“Ha!”

He slapped the spear with his palm, and a roar came out of it. Then, a beast’s shadow emerged from the spear, roaring around him as it pounced on Yunxiao.

He then formed hand seals with both hands and transformed into a half-demon state. He raised the desolate God spear and struck down.

“BOOM!”

As soon as Yunxiao cut the beast apart with his sword, he felt the boundless spear light. He performed an incantation gesture with his left hand and pointed at the sword, and a layer of light blue ice crystals immediately appeared.

“Bang!”

The tip of the spear landed on the ice sword and shattered it. The spear aura surged on the sword and continued to attack.

Yunxiao felt his arm sink, and the boundless force came from the opponent’s spear, pressing him so hard that he could not only move, but also had to keep consuming his primordial Qi to hold on.

“What are you doing? You want to compete with me in true essence?” He frowned.

“Naturally not.”

Luo Qingyun said coldly, “although you’ve tried your best to condense your real state, a thought is just a thought. It can’t replace the real you.” I’m only facing a cold thought body without any hot blood. I can’t feel any fighting spirit. What a disappointing duel.”

“Oh? It is indeed so.”

Yunxiao chuckled and said, “I’m immortal in this divine realm tablet. I can’t feel the slightest tension or fear. It seems that it’s still very difficult to pretend to be serious.

“Hmph, you’re insulting me!”

Luo Qingyun’s eyes were filled with coldness as he shouted, “So this game is meaningless to me. I’m sorry I can’t play with you!”

A boundless Dragon's might suddenly burst out of the spear and instantly pressed Yunxiao down!

"Bang!"

The space under the spear force exploded completely, and Yunxiao's figure exploded with it. A blue vortex emerged, and a passage emerged from it.

It had blown a hole in the space of the divine realm tablet, which led to the outside world!

Yunxiao suddenly appeared above the vortex and said in surprise, "You can't leave."

Luo Qingyun sneered. I can take whatever I want. How can this level of world power Stop me?!

With a clang, the desolate Divine spear thrust out a golden beam that instantly pierced through Yunxiao's body. The Spear's light turned into a golden ring and dispersed, shattering him again.

Luo Qingyun withdrew his spear and stomped forward as if no one could stop him.

Yunxiao's figure condensed in the sky again as he said with a frown, "If it weren't for the fact that my main body was seriously injured, I really wouldn't mind fighting you and drawing your blood to my heart's content. But the truth always makes it difficult for people to get what they want."

He made a hand seal, and a golden light appeared.

Cobweb-like chains suddenly appeared around Luo Qingyun and wrapped around his limbs. The chains extended to an infinite distance.

"Realm power lock?"

Luo Qingyun was shocked, but he soon calmed down and said, " "It should be condensed by the laws of this world within the artifact. Since I can easily break through this world's space, I naturally won't be bound by the world's power. Li Yunxiao, you're out of tricks."

A sneer flashed across his face as a vast Dragon's might burst out from his body. It shook the chains that filled the sky, causing them to clang and shake in the air.

Yunxiao's face darkened as he took out the Tusita heavenly peak and said in a cold voice, " "Brat, don't force me to throw this stone at you!"

As soon as the Tusita peak appeared, even Luo Qingyun's heart skipped a beat. He had seen the power of that thing with his own eyes, so he couldn't help but shiver and struggle harder.

"You won't shed tears until you see the coffin."

Yunxiao threw the Tusita heavenly peak out, which immediately formed a parabola and fell toward the chains of law.

Luo Qingyun was horrified, and his pupils kept widening. He would most likely die if he was hit by that thing. He roared madly, and the momentum of his body instantly climbed to the extreme.

Suddenly, a sword light flashed past and cut off the chains of law with a clang.

Luo Qingyun instantly broke through the Tushita sky Peak's suppression and retreated a few thousand feet. Only then did he feel relieved and his eyes were filled with fear.

What do you mean, old dragon? " Yunxiao frowned.

He you's figure slowly walked out from the sky, he said, " "You tricked this kid into coming here and then used a stone to smash his blood. I just can't stand it."

...

when did you become a saint of virtue? ” Yunxiao said angrily. I’m a Saint of virtue!

Che you waved his hand and said,”move aside, I’ll take care of the dragon clan’s matters.” This kid is extremely talented, and his martial Dao is firm. I like him very much.”

Yunxiao pondered for a moment, then stepped aside.

Luo Qingyun knew that this was not good. He also recognized the person in front of him. The strength that he had displayed in the battle of the red moon City was still vivid in his mind. He immediately became vigilant and said,”What do you want to do?”

“I just want to draw some blood, don’t be so nervous,” said che you slowly. As a member of the dragon clan, it’s not good for me to bully you as a senior. How about I use two divine arts to exchange with you?”

“Two-style divine ability? What a joke! No matter how powerful a divine ability is, it can’t be exchanged for my blood!” Luo Qingyun’s face darkened.

“Hehe, let’s take a look first.”

Che you’s figure moved and the Xumi Anton sword appeared in his hand. He raised it and it turned into a sky full of sword shadows that stacked on top of each other and spread behind him.

Yunxiao was taken aback. The sword momentum was completely different from his sword Dao. Even though che you was an expert in the sword, he had always been deeply influenced by him. Why did he suddenly have a sword essence?

first form, thousand autumn peak!

A vast sword will slashed down with the Xumi anatta, and the entire space continued to shatter. The sword will that filled the sky was like lonely peaks that came from the sky and continued to overlap.

...

Luo Qingyun's heart trembled violently. This sword was like a hundred thousand mountains pressing down on him, completely irresistible!

"True dragon Avatar!"

He leaped into the air and transformed into his strongest Dharmakaya. He held the spear with both hands and a golden light rushed out.

"BOOM!"

Thousands of mountains and blades were shattered, attacking Luo Qingyun's defense. His body was shaken, and his qi and blood were in turmoil.

Yunxiao's frown grew deeper as he stared at the sword.

His swordsmanship was the sword of life, and every move and form was in a breath. He resonated with it and became one.

However, what Che you was displaying now was the will of controlling the sword. With a casual swing, everything in the world could be used as a sword. The so-called thousand autumn peak should have been a palm technique, but it was easily controlled by him and turned into a sword.

this old dragon has always been in my divine realm tablet. When did he have such a sword principle comprehension? "

Yunxiao was shocked, and he also understood that the reason why Che you used the sword technique was that he wanted him to see it.

As for how much Luo Qingyun could comprehend, it would depend on his own luck.

very good. You're strong and fierce enough to take this thousand autumn peak. Then, the second style will also be ... Untainted!

Che you's sword changed direction and struck down in the same way, but the entire style had changed completely. From the majestic Thousand Peaks, it became empty and ethereal, with the intent of the destruction of heaven and earth.

Yunxiao's mouth was wide open. It was another completely different sword intent!

"BOOM!"

Luo Qingyun finally couldn't hold on any longer. All of his defenses collapsed in an instant. The vast Dragon's might was swept away like dust under this sword, and all of his strength was instantly emptied.

"Bang!"

His entire person was sent flying, directly retreating tens of thousands of feet.

"Aiya, I used too much force. What a waste of so much dragon blood!" Che you cried out, as he looked at the fresh blood, he was extremely vexed.

Yunxiao, on the other hand, was still immersed in the two divine powers. He seemed to be a little obsessed with them, and his face turned dull.

He only came back to his senses when che you's sword struck his shoulder and he felt pain.

"What for?"

"F * ck your sister! Don't you want the dragon's blood?"

Yunxiao was taken aback. In an instant, he appeared beside Luo Qingyun and grabbed at him with his fingers.

Luo Qingyun was furious. He immediately soared into the sky and transformed into a Dragon. He formed a seal with both hands and was about to fight back.

Suddenly, Che Yu's voice sounded, "Kid, how were the two moves just now? If you still want to learn two more styles, you'd better be obedient."

there are two more moves?!

Both Yunxiao and Luo Qingyun were shocked, and their hands slowed down.

Luo Qingyun's face showed that he was struggling. After a heavy snort, he turned his head and raised his arm. He actually agreed to let out the blood.

The two divine arts just now were extremely shocking to him. It was as if they were martial arts techniques made for the dragon clan. He could feel the true flavor of them even more when he was in the real world.

If he could comprehend and learn it, his power would probably reach another level.

Especially when he thought that there were two more forms to this divine power, he was so excited that his blood boiled.

Yunxiao's eyes lit up as well. Even someone as strong as him in the Dao of sword had benefited a lot from the two moves just now. Che Yu was completely demonstrating the sword essence for the two of them to feel.

"Swish!"

The cold sword cut Luo Qingyun's arm, and blood dripped into the purple glass.

Luo Qingyun was embarrassed and angry. He turned his head away, and boundless anger burned in his heart. However, when he thought of those two martial arts techniques, his resentment instantly lessened.

Chapter 1673

1673 Body tempering with dragon blood

"hehe," he laughed, "don't look so unhappy, kid. you're the one who's gained a lot."

Luo Qingyun held back her embarrassment and said, "Senior, these two martial skills are Suan ni,"

"This is what I comprehended from the two world swords. It is the martial essence passed down by the true dragon." Che Yu's eyes narrowed and he said.

"A true dragon!"

Yunxiao's pupils constricted, and he was extremely shocked.

Luo Qingyun's body trembled, and the blood in his body heated up. No wonder he felt so shocked. It was a martial technique left behind by the ancient true dragon.

As he became excited, the blood in his body dripped even faster, like running water.

Luo Qingyun felt a little dizzy. He turned around and said angrily, "Are you done?"

Yunxiao was holding a bucket-like glass container, which was half-filled.

The dizziness in her head became even worse, and she almost couldn't stand still.

"Get lost!"

He roared and clenched his fist, sending a wave of Dragon might to push Yunxiao away.

The wound on his hand was healing at a speed visible to the naked eye until it disappeared.

“You shameless villain, I will definitely take your life the next time we fight!” Luo Qingyun’s face was gloomy, and he felt pain for his own flesh.

“You make it sound like you’ve suffered a loss,” Yunxiao chuckled. There will be more blood. Without my longlong, you will never be able to learn the ancient true Dragon’s martial arts.”

Luo Qingyun thought that this made sense, but he still felt that something was wrong. He snorted coldly and did not say anything.

“Senior, although I have some understanding of the two moves just now, it is not complete. Senior, can you demonstrate it again?” He said respectfully.

Che you rolled his eyes at him, “how much you can comprehend depends on your own comprehension, there’s no reason to teach you a second time ..”

“.....”

Luo Qingyun was speechless for a while and said gloomily, “Alright, I’ll go back and carefully recall. I’ll have to trouble you to demonstrate the other two divine abilities, senior. I’ll definitely watch them carefully.”

Che you touched his chin and said, “there are four world swords in total, I only have two of them and I only learned these two moves.” When I get the other two, I’ll pass them to you.”

Luo Qingyun, “haha.”

“What, are you unhappy?” che you glared at him.

Luo Qingyun quickly said, "it's not a Pixiu, it's just Pixiu."

He couldn't say a word and felt that he had been tricked. However, the other party was an ancestor of his own clan, and the value of those two moves was indeed extraordinary to him.

Che you waved his hand, "go, go, don't disturb my cultivation." I'll teach you when I learn the other two styles. I won't be shameless."

go back and study it, " Yunxiao said with a smile. I look forward to the next real battle.

He waved his hand and sent Luo Qingyun out.

"Old dragon, you're really shameless. You tricked me into bleeding so much." Yunxiao's eyes lit up as he looked at the bucket of dragon blood.

lie?!

Che you jumped up in anger, he shouted: " "You can't talk nonsense! These two divine abilities are indeed priceless treasures. If I didn't admire this kid, I wouldn't have shown him! This dragon blood was exchanged by me, give it to me!"

"Give it to you? You must be joking, right?"

When Yunxiao saw him rushing over, he disappeared from where he was in a flash, completely disappearing.

"Don't use it all, leave some for me!" Che you shouted in anger.

That was tenth grade dragon blood, and it was extremely useful to him.

However, the sky was completely silent, and there was no response at all.

A moment later, Yunxiao returned to the heavenly one Pavilion and began to cultivate in seclusion.

After giving a part of the level ten divine blood to the lingmu flute, he began to absorb it himself. He grabbed a ball of it and spun it in his palm. The vast dragon power kept flowing through his meridians, nourishing and repairing his body.

“What a waste to use dragon blood to temper one’s body!” Che you’s furious voice resounded, “ you could’ve just found some trash dragon blood, but you actually used this level ten divine blood!

“Shut up. If you continue to talk nonsense, I’ll use it all up and won’t give you a single drop!”

yes,” Yunxiao replied, then began to use the tyrant body tempering technique and put himself into all kinds of strange postures.

The wounds on his body were being pulled open, as if his internal organs were being torn apart. In an instant, his face was as pale as paper, and beads of cold sweat kept dripping from his forehead.

However, a faint red glow surrounded his body and was constantly being absorbed.

There were a few obvious lines of blood flowing through her skin, which was as transparent as paper. The blood flowed through the countless acupuncture points on her body, nourishing it.

“Hu hu!”

The power of the blood was too hot and strong. Yunxiao’s body was lit up by an open fire, which grew stronger and stronger, and his whole body was burning in the secret chamber.

After an unknown period of time, the flames gradually extinguished, revealing a charred body that was constantly emitting fine white smoke.

Upon closer inspection, his entire body was charred, and his pitch-black skin had all turned into black charcoal. Only his constant breathing from his nostrils proved that he was still alive.

“Crack crack.”

Yunxiao’s body moved slightly, and the carbon scabs on his body began to crack, turning into powder and falling down.

In the cracks of the scabs, there were traces of gold.

As the large pieces of charcoal scabs peeled off, her skin that was as bright as gold was revealed. It was filled with pure Ling power, and it was a little glaring in the secret room.

Yunxiao opened his eyes, and a bolt of lightning flashed in them.

He made a hand seal with one hand and a golden seal appeared on his palm. The golden light on his body then retracted and his skin turned as white as Jade without a single scar.

He lowered his head to look at his body and muttered to himself, “The sixth gate of the divine body has been activated and absorbed all the power of the Dragon blood. I don’t know if it’s a good thing or a bad thing that the plan to reach the peak of nine-star failed.”

The tyrant body tempering technique had already created its own path with the help of his many magical powers. It was completely different from ao changkong’s.

“Of course it’s a good thing. You should know that no matter how much your cultivation level increases, you can’t step into the God Realm. The only way to become the strongest in this world is to attain mastery of the physical body and become a saint.”

A voice rang out in his heart. It was a guest who had sent a voice transmission to him through divine thoughts in the divine realm tablet.

It turned out that the other party had also opened the sixth gate. After Yunxiao broke through the sixth gate, a subtle frequency resonance was produced between his divine body, and he was caught by the guest.

“Hmm, a complete physical body? Other than the tyrant body tempering technique and the extremely talented inborn divine bodies, no one had ever sanctified their bodies. It’s a pity that my cultivation method has long deviated from the path of the tyrant body tempering technique, and the divine body art was also acquired after I was born. I’m afraid it’ll be very difficult for me to advance further.”

Yunxiao said with a worried sigh.

“Indeed. That’s why I’m very surprised that you can open the sixth door so quickly. This should be fate, so there’s no need to worry too much. Everything is going in a good direction.”

your talent is known as the strongest divine body, ” Yunxiao said. how confident are you that you can enter the Saint realm? ”

I’m very confident that I can open The Seventh Gate with divine power, ” the guest said. as for the last gate, I’m not the only one who has the strongest divine body. His tone was filled with self-mockery and helplessness.

To take a step further, the effort and luck needed to be spent would even exceed the previous hundred feet. Who dared to say that they could definitely do it?

Except for Luo Qingyun, who had divine blood, and Yunxiao, who had countless opportunities, the end of martial arts was the shackles of many people for life.

we'll do our best and leave it to fate, " Yunxiao said with a smile. you also know that fate has its own destiny.

yes. Bin Chen nodded and said, " I've opened the sixth door for some time. During this time, I've been in seclusion to comprehend. Now is a good time to exchange some insights with you.

that's great! Yunxiao was overjoyed. I can't ask for more!

He immediately sat down cross-legged and the two of them began to communicate with divine thoughts across the divine realm tablet.

A few days later, the secret chamber was filled with red light, and the whole room was lit up, shining on Yunxiao.

His brows slightly trembled as he opened his eyes and casually grabbed at the air.

A jade pendant appeared in the air and he grabbed it in his hand. The talisman light on it flickered and a spiritual will was read.

The ten-day deadline was up, and Tianyuan trading company had sent people to drive them away.

When Yunxiao walked out of the secret room, he saw su lianyi standing guard outside.

"How are the preparations?"

everything is ready. It's fine if we can't take those with us.

"Why are you the only one left?"

With a sweep of his divine sense, Yunxiao knew all the movements within a few miles. Not only were there few people in the heavenly one Pavilion, but there were also few people in the surrounding area.

"I'm afraid of dragging them down, so I dismissed them all," su lianyi replied.

that's good, " Yunxiao said. if there's a chance in the future, it'll be the same if we gather them again.

Su lianyi said, " yes. Ding Shan wants to take over the Empyrean one Pavilion. He will definitely take care of these old people. At least in the short term, as long as they obey Tianyuan trading company, they will be fine. I'm just afraid that they will also be purged in the long run."

don't worry, " Yunxiao said. if he can't even tolerate such a trivial matter, ding Shan wouldn't have come to where he is today. Let's go as well, there's no point in staying any longer."

Wan Yiqian and the others had already packed up. There were more than a hundred experts in myriad treasures store who were willing to leave with him. Obviously, they were not willing to be inferior to Tianyuan trading company.

When Yunxiao saw Wan Yiqian, he frowned and said, " "Brother Yi Qian, are your injuries that serious?" Under his spiritual sense's scan, Wan Yiqian's injuries did not improve at all.

you're right! Chen ZhongXi said angrily, " at first, tower master's injuries were already under control and were starting to get better. However, Cangwu Qiong used the cosmic light plate to execute a secret technique and backfired on tower master, causing his injuries to relapse again. Furthermore, they seem to be getting worse.

what? " Yunxiao was shocked. there's such a thing? " Cangwu Qiong isn't a good person, but I don't think he's that despicable."

"Hmph, if I hadn't cut off my connection with the cosmic light plate in time, I would've died on the spot."

Wan Yiqian was old and senile at this moment, and his eyes were full of resentment.

Yunxiao rested his chin on his hand and said, " he must have wiped away the traces you left on it in order to completely refine the cosmic disc. You must have resisted. It's normal for you to suffer a backlash from the battle.

Wan Yiqian said hatefully, 'you're too despicable and shameless! As the Holy region's administrative department, they actually covet this old man's intrinsic profound weapon. This old man will definitely not let them off!"

Chapter 1674-departure

the cosmic disc is too powerful, " Yunxiao said. no wonder he's spying on it. Brother Yiqian, don't think about revenge now. Heal your injuries first and then rise again."

"They all think that I'm easy to bully now, but I'll make them cry soon!" Wan Yiqian said coldly.

Yunxiao frowned slightly, feeling that Wan Yiqian's state of mind was extremely unstable. In his current state, even if he recuperated well and kept a low profile, it would take him more than ten years to make a comeback.

In fact, to them, more than ten years was just a blink of an eye. It was not rare for many cultivators to go into seclusion for decades.

"Feiyang, you must think that I'm going crazy, right?"

indeed, " Yunxiao did not deny it. I don't think you have a good mentality, brother Yiqian.

"Hehe."

Wan Yiqian grinned, as if he had thought of something. His mood improved slightly, and he said, " Feiyang, I hope you can send us to thousand leaves Island.

"Thousand leaves Island! The Fuyao Holy Palace!" Yunxiao said in surprise.

“That’s right, it’s the Fuyao Holy Palace.” Wan Yiqian’s eyes narrowed. Feiyang, did you go to thousand leaves Island?” His eyes were filled with shock and disbelief.

Yunxiao recalled bi yueyan, the elder of Fuyao Holy Palace, whom he had met on the East Sea, the woman in green who possessed the Holy body of Fuyao Palace, and Li Huachi’s dead fiancée, Xue Chenxi.

“I’ve never been to thousand leaves Island, but isn’t the Fuyao Holy Palace a reclusive and secluded cultivation? Could it be that brother Yi Qian has been in contact with them in secret?”

The merchant Union’s business was spread all over the world. The Murong family and the MU family, which were powerful puppet clans, had business dealings with the merchant Union, but they were only limited to the circulation of goods. These families did not participate in worldly disputes.

Wan Yi Qian replied, ‘I have a close relationship with the Fuyao Holy Palace’s Palace Lord. Now that I’m in trouble, I plan to seek her help. Besides, thousand leaves Island is a good place to go.’

Yunxiao was full of doubts. Since thousand leaves Island was a reclusive cultivator, how could they accept a hot potato like him just because of some friendship?

But looking at Wan Yiqian’s confident look, he didn’t say anything.

“Since brother Yiqian is familiar with thousand leaves Island, do you know what happened to Xue Chenxi back then? How could Xue Chenxi have died in the years I was reincarnated?”

Yunxiao asked the question that had been in his heart, “Xue Chenxi has the Fuyao Palace’s saintly being and can be said to be an unparalleled talent. Her strength may not be inferior to Li Huachi’s, but such a peerless figure has died without a sound?”

Wan Yiqian’s expression changed drastically, and he sighed. ‘I’ve also heard about this. I have the same question as you. I even went to thousand leaves Island for this, but I didn’t get an answer. I’ve seen that girl before. If she wasn’t born in a reclusive family, I’m afraid she would be a peerless beauty not inferior to Qu Hongyan.’

this matter directly destroyed all li Huachi's thoughts and forced him to live in seclusion, " Yunxiao said. I hope you can understand the reason. If brother Yiqian is going to thousand leaves Island, please help me ask around."

"Alright, since it's Feiyang's order, I'll do my best."

Wan Yiqian patted his chest and promised.

Suddenly, several figures appeared above the crowd. One of them was dressed in white, and it was tianjue. He placed his hands behind his back and said coldly, " "The Lords" heart-to-heart talk is still not over? Please leave new Yan city immediately and talk elsewhere. Don't get in the way of our business."

"Hmph! A villain who has achieved success!" Chen ZhongXi shouted angrily. It's not your place to interrupt us!"

it's indeed not your turn, " tianjue said indifferently. all of you are powerful figures. I hope you have some spirit of the contract and keep your word.

Chen ZhongXi said coldly,"how did I go back on my word?" Did you bring these people here to drive us away? are these few ants enough?"

"Of course it's not enough," tianjue replied indifferently. I've only brought my men here for show, the ten day deadline is up, if you still care about your face, please leave immediately if you keep your word, don't make things difficult for a small fry like me. "

"You!"

Chen ZhongXi was furious. The pressure from his body surged and pressed down like a mountain.

Tian Jue and the rest were all forced back by the shock, their faces full of panic.

Only Tian Jue remained calm, but he frowned slightly and said, " if Grand Elder Chen ZhongXi wants to kill us, it'll be easy. If he doesn't want his face anymore, then just do it. We can't resist anyway.

Yunxiao patted Chen ZhongXi on the shoulder and stopped him. "Let's go. Let's not waste time with these minions. We'll only become a joke if we kill them."

Chen ZhongXi snorted heavily and retracted his aura.

Tian Jue said,'by the way, I'm here to inform the Lords. The teleportation formation has been too ordinary for the past ten days, so it's currently being repaired."

"Haha, that's great!" Chen ZhongXi laughed angrily. We'll just have to force ourselves to stay here for a while longer and leave when the teleportation formation is ready."

"I'm sorry. Although new Yan city is huge, it doesn't have an inch of land for you. The president has already guessed that you're going to shamelessly deny it, so he's prepared a blueluan warship for you. Please board it and leave."

The person behind him had a mocking expression on his face. He made a hand seal and threw a storage bag into the air. It exploded with a bang, and a miniature blueluan warship emerged in the sky, with the of Tianyuan trading company on it.

Wan Yiqian's face was gloomy and he said coldly, " "Ding Shan is unforgiving after gaining the power, truly a vile person. To humiliate us like this before you leave, is this really what a hero should do?"

Tianjue chuckled and said,"if it weren't for the fact that you're shameless, how could we have humiliated you?" You're the ones who embarrass yourselves."

The crowd was speechless and could only glare at him.

I wanted to take you down and extract your soul just now, " Yunxiao said with a smile. if I attack you now, it will look like I'm angry out of shame. Fine, I'll let you jump around for a while longer."

Only then did tianjue's face reveal a look of fear, and his face turned a little pale.

Yuwen Bo was killed by him, and he did it in front of Yunxiao. The other party would not let him off. The difference in strength between the two of them was like heaven and earth. It was only a matter of time before he was killed.

If Yunxiao really wanted to sneak into new Yan city and assassinate him, even ding Shan would not be able to stop him.

His appearance became extremely unsightly.

the nearest small city to new Yan city is plentiful water city, " Wan Yiqian said. we'll get there in about half a month. Let's take the route there.

Su lianyi's expression was a little difficult as she said, " I just got the news. Ding Shan took over nearly one-third of the assets of the myriad treasures store and Empyrean one Pavilion in the cities of the northern region in just ten days. Plentiful water city is also a small city attached to new Yan city. I'm afraid it's already under their control."

Wan Yiqian sneered,'so what if I control it? Do you think a mere Feng Shui city can stop us?"

He seemed to have deliberately raised his voice, as if he was speaking to Tian Jue, or ding Shan behind him.

"Pa pa pa!"

Tianjue clapped his hands and sneered,"tsk, tsk, how domineering." As expected of the former leader of the merchant Union."

He emphasized the word "once."

Wan Yiqian was so angry that she held her breath in her chest and started coughing violently.

brother Yiqian, " Yunxiao said, " let's go quickly. It's pointless to stay any longer, and it'll only give people the opportunity to make fun of you."

Wan Yiqian also understood and said angrily, " "Go! I'll be back one day!" (This sentence sounds so familiar, Yingluo)

An expert from ten thousand treasures tower flew into the sky and released a huge ninth-grade warship, which covered the sky.

Soon after, everyone flew inside.

Yunxiao was about to go up when tianjue called out to him, " li Yunxiao!

"Eh? What, you want to beg for mercy?" Yunxiao raised an eyebrow.

Tianjue's face was cold, and he sneered, " "If you want to take my life, I'll be waiting for you in new Yan city. Even if they were killed by you, it would be because they were inferior to you."

He raised his hand, and a golden light shot out.

Yunxiao saw that it was a jade pendant, so he reached out and grabbed it. A series of runes were flashing on it, indicating that it had been sealed with a very advanced seal.

"Head shopkeeper han Junzi asked me to give this to you." Tianjue said coldly.

where is she? " Yunxiao put away the jade pendant and asked. where is she? "

...

"He has already left new Yan city," Tian Jue replied.

what? " Yunxiao asked in surprise. leaving at this time? " I'm very curious, how are you going to settle the positions of the star and moon school and the money sect?"

that's for the president to worry about, " Tian Jue said. I don't care and I don't know.

that's right, " Yunxiao said with a smile. I'm quite satisfied with your answer. He turned around and flew into the battleship.

Tianjue's face twitched as he watched his figure disappear, and a look of worry appeared in his eyes.

Although as cultivators, they were all prepared to die at the next moment, the feeling of certain death floating in their hearts made them extremely depressed and uncomfortable.

"Boom, boom, boom."

A loud boom came from the battleship, followed by countless flashes of formation light. It turned into a stream of light and flew toward Fengshui city.

"Plentiful water city?"

In the sky above new Yan city, ding Shan walked out of the void and stared at the warship as it disappeared from his field of vision.

"My Lord, should we set up an ambush in plentiful water city?"

Old Lai followed behind him and asked.

"No need." Ding Shan shook his head. They might not really go to Fengshui city. Besides, one must know his own limits. It's already beyond my expectation that I can get the merchant Union now. If the ancient treasure in Qian's hands has many eyes on it, I'd better not join in the fun."

"Sir is wise," the old man bowed.

"It's not wise, it's self-knowledge." Ding Shan sighed. At that time, my consideration was to divide the Business Alliance equally with myriad treasures store, forming the opposition between the East and West regions and the North Region. Who knew that Ling Baiyi would be so powerful and destroy Wan Yiqian and all his trump cards, allowing me to take advantage of him. One must be content with what one has."

"I understand." The old man nodded. Daren has always been cautious, this subordinate knows that."

Ding Shan said, "Wan Yiqian's biggest trump card at this moment is the ancient treasure trove. However, it's a sin to be in possession of a treasure. The treasure trove is a double-edged sword. We just have to wait and see. Immediately send a message to plentiful water city and tell them to destroy the teleportation formation. Although I'm not sure if Wan Yiqian will really go, I'll still try to cause them some trouble."

Chapter 1675-secret

Old Lai bowed and left.

Ding Shan gazed into the distance, and the corner of his mouth raised into a smile. He leisurely said to himself, "Brother Yiqian, can you come back again? I'm really looking forward to it."

Outside Xinyan city, the myriad Treasure Tower's ninth-grade battleship practically turned into a stream of light, shuttling through the air at an extremely fast speed.

Su lianyi praised, " is this the king's flagship of a thousand Lords? It's indeed extraordinary. With this speed, we only need half the time to arrive."

alright! Wan Yiqian pondered for a while and said, " pass down the order. We're heading toward Ishikawa city.

"Ishikawa city?" Su lianyi was shocked. that place is too far away from new Yan city. Even if my Lord wants to avoid people's eyes and ears, there are still many other cities to choose from.

"At our current speed, it'll take us about a month to reach Ishikawa city. I can suppress my injuries. Feiyang, what about you?"

it's been more than a month, " Yunxiao said thoughtfully. alright, I'll go with brother Yiqian. I just happen to have some doubts that I would like to ask brother Yi Qian."

"You're too polite to ask for advice," Wan Yiqian said.

After making all the necessary arrangements, Wan Yiqian went to a reception room with Yunxiao.

The ninth-grade warship was extremely magnificent and huge, much larger than the beiming family's warship which Yunxiao had taken to sea.

He could casually stay inside as if he was walking on flat ground, and he didn't feel like he was flying.

"Feiyang, if there's anything you want to say, just ask."

The living room was very spacious and there were more than ten chairs inlaid with gold and Jade. Wan Yi randomly found one and sat down. With a wave of his long sleeve, a pot of wine and two delicate cups appeared.

"This is a low-quality wine that I always bring with me. If you don't mind, you can try it,"

He filled the two wine glasses to the brim, and the entire Hall was filled with a fragrant aroma.

brother Yiqian, you look very relaxed at the moment, ” Yunxiao said. you don’t look like you’ve suffered a setback at all. I really admire your mentality.

Wan Yiqian handed the wine glass to Yunxiao and said with a wry smile, ” “I’m trying to find joy in the midst of suffering. Do I really have to keep a gloomy face all day? Try this wine.”

Yunxiao chuckled and led the way. He immediately praised, ” “Even if I don’t drink it, I know it’s a peerless treasure. How could the wine that brother Yi Qian carried with him be of inferior quality?”

Wan Yiqian laughed out loud and said, ” sometimes, I think about it. Who can break away from fame and fortune? who can travel freely in the great void? why not let go of fame and fortune and live the rest of his life in seclusion? how carefree would that be? ”

it’s not impossible, ” Yunxiao said seriously. I can.

Wan Yiqian smiled bitterly. it’s a pity. It’s easier said than done. I can’t do it.

He shook his head and said,”Feiyang, if you have anything to say, just ask.”

Yunxiao’s eyes narrowed. then I’ll be Frank. Where did the tyrant body tempering technique brother Yiqian gave me come from? and what’s the relationship between it and what ao changkong has learned?

Wan Yiqian pondered for a moment and said, ” I knew you would ask this. Back then, I told you that I got it from ao changkong and told you not to reveal it. I didn’t lie to you. The tyrant body tempering technique was indeed given by ao changkong.”

“You gave it to me?”

Yunxiao’s face darkened. what the hell happened? ” he asked.

Wan Yi Qian said, " it's a long story, but I don't have any intention of harming Feiyang. Please rest assured. This time, ao changkong agreed to help Ling Baiyi in order to return the favor he owed me. Because the tyrant body tempering technique he learned was also taken from me. "

"What?"

Yunxiao was so shocked that he seemed to be in a mess. "What is going on?"

"Do you know why I have the confidence to return to new Yan city and fight ding Shan?" Wan Yiqian sighed and said.

brother Yiqian's strength is extraordinary, " Yunxiao said. as long as he recovers, he will be able to compete with ding Shan. Adding on the fact that the experts by my side have followed me here, and more than half of the myriad treasures store's countless years of accumulation is still here, it won't be difficult to fight with ding Shan."

Wan Yiqian said, 'what you said makes sense, but these are not my biggest trump cards. Instead, it's a trump card that myriad treasures store already had when it was first established, and even myriad treasures store rose because of this."

"When the myriad treasures store was first established? Doesn't that mean it was tens of thousands of years ago?"

Yunxiao was taken aback. Myriad treasures store had a long history, and he knew that what Wan Yiqian was going to say next must be a secret.

Sure enough, Wan Yiqian's divine sense spread out in all directions and then released several incantation seals, sealing the entire Hall.

"I'm very weak now. Feiyang, help me keep an eye on the surroundings. You can't let anyone hear this."

"Don't worry," Yunxiao said. I can sense everyone on the ship, so no one will eavesdrop."

Only then did Wan Yiqian nod in relief and said, " tens of thousands of years ago, my ancestor accidentally obtained a huge treasure, so he built the myriad Treasure Tower and developed it quickly, becoming the world's number one Chamber of Commerce.

"A huge treasure trove?"

Yunxiao seemed to understand what was going on, and he said in surprise, " if I'm not mistaken, the treasure has not been emptied after so many years. It's enough to make brother Yi Qian rise again. And the tyrant body tempering technique also came from this treasure? "

"That's right, it's comfortable to talk to smart people. You can understand with just one hint."

Feiyang, " Wan Yiqian praised. you should know that it's impossible to enter the immortal state in the world today. If you want to rule the world and obtain the power of a God, you can refine your body and become a saint. That's a very feasible way.

in that case, why didn't brother Yiqian cultivate the tyrant body tempering technique himself? " Yunxiao asked in a daze. why did you give it to ao changkong? "

This kind of peerless magical power could not be passed down with a Jade slip. It must be a very special medium of inheritance, just like in Red Moon City, he had obtained the inheritance of the moon pupil Divine Art, and it could only be passed down once.

If by any chance Qian had given this technique to ao changkong, he would not be able to cultivate it himself. Moreover, it seemed that he had not cultivated it at all.

"Because I can't activate the medium of inheritance," Wan Yiqian said with a bitter smile.

Yunxiao was taken aback, and he suddenly realized that he had asked a stupid question. For example, the moon pupil Divine Art had been in the red moon City for God knows how many years, but it also seemed to be waiting for him. He had completely picked up a big bargain.

The tyrant body tempering technique might be waiting for ao changkong.

who is that ao changkong? ” Yunxiao asked. why did you choose him? ”

Wan Yiqian said, ” at that time, who the hell knew about ao changkong? but I knew that the AO family was good at physical skills. They were also very famous among the reclusive families. That was why I went to them. They sent ao changkong over and tried it out.

He smiled wryly, the shadow in his heart was hard to calculate.

“The AO clan?” This was the first time Yunxiao had heard of it. He only knew that ao changkong had suddenly risen to power and shone on the earth like a comet, then disappeared. His whereabouts were rarely heard.

He had also guessed that the other party’s identity was likely to be from a reclusive family, but he had never been able to confirm it.

“Just how strong are these hidden aristocratic families?” Yunxiao could not help but frown. It seemed that there were a large number of powerful existences in addition to the two Holy Lands and the seven great forces in the heavenly martial realm.

Wan Yiqian said, ”in terms of understanding of the hidden families, no one can compare to the merchant Union, especially my myriad treasures store.”

“Those aristocratic families don’t care about the world, but they must exchange all kinds of resources,” he said with some pride. The truly powerful existences aren’t below the seven great forces. If all of the hidden aristocratic families come out, I’m afraid that at least one-third of the world will be given to them!”

“One-third of it.”

Yunxiao repeated the words, as if he wanted to judge how strong the reclusive family was from the ratio.

Wan Yiqian said, 'Feiyang, you don't have to think too much. Most of them won't be born. The only public platform is the natural moat ocean, which has a high status among the hidden aristocratic families. Although it's not as extraordinary as the Holy region, it's still a very high position, and has the vague sense of being a leader, highly respected by many forces.'

the natural moat cliff is indeed mysterious," Yunxiao said. moreover, it holds the key to the northern region's Langya Fairyland. Even the sanctuary has tried many times to negotiate with it, but to no avail. So, they can only let it control them.

What if he said so much and vomited out all the unhappiness and depression in his heart? his mood eased a lot. He smiled and said, "That's why they say that there's always someone better. Even if we suffer a great loss in the realm of heavenly martial arts, there's still a great chance for us to make a comeback."

the eternal world of Langya heaven is about to open," Yunxiao said. brother Yiqian, do you need to disappear? "

"What?"

Wan Yiqian trembled, as if he was greatly shocked. He grabbed Yunxiao and screamed, " "Where did you get this information from? How could I not know about such a big matter?"

Yunxiao briefly told her about nanqiu Yu's appearance in Wutian.

"Dammit! That damned nanqiu Yu and Huangfu bi, they didn't even tell me about such a big matter!"

Wan Yiqian's face turned ashen and gloomy. He sat on his throne and did not speak.

the news probably hasn't spread yet, " Yunxiao said. I just happened to run into nanqiu Yu when she went to find Huangfu bi. With brother Yi Qian's strength and identity, you naturally have to go."

"Yes, that should be the case."

Only then did Wan Yiqian's mood improve. She said, " "Otherwise, with the merchant Union's intelligence system, it's impossible for there to be no news. I can't believe that the eternal world is about to open. The heavens are helping me!"

His face was slightly flushed, and his eyes were shining with excitement. He stood up from his throne and paced back and forth, unable to calm the excitement in his heart.

"Oh? Brother Yiqian, are you familiar with this eternal world?" Yunxiao asked.

Wan Yiqian replied, 'yes, I do. It's not that I'm stingy, it's just that it's not appropriate for me to say it to others for the time being. When the day of opening comes, Feiyang should stay by my side to avoid danger."

"Dangerous?" Yunxiao was suspicious.

Wan Yiqian smiled and said coldly, " everyone thinks that the eternal world leads to the eternal God Realm. It's probably true, but it's also wrong.

Yunxiao listened to the ambiguous words and carefully savored the true meaning behind them.

Wan Yi Qian said, 'I can visit nanqiu Yu at the natural moat ocean and ask her what's going on. Anyway, Feiyang, don't worry. When the eternal world really opens, I will not let you suffer!"

Chapter 1676

1676 Nine-layered heaven wave

Yunxiao smiled when he saw the man's excitement and the way he talked about the eternal world as if it was his home. "Since brother Yi Qian is so confident, I'm also very happy. Why did ao changkong create the first part of the tyrant body tempering technique and pass it to me through you?"

Although the topic was full of secrets of the heavenly martial realm, it was a little off-topic, so Yunxiao continued the topic.

"Oh."

Wan Yiqian came back to his senses and said, "It was later discovered that apart from ao changkong, no one else in the entire ao family was able to practice this physical technique. This made him very surprised. You must know that the AO family is famous for their physical skills. They have been passed down for tens of thousands of years, and there have been strong practitioners who have achieved great physical success."

so, you thought of me as an experiment? " Yunxiao asked.

Wan Yiqian was a little embarrassed and stammered, "This Lao Ai can't be considered an experiment, right? at that time, there were many extremely talented experts in the world, but the only one that could catch his eye was you, Feiyang."

Yunxiao's heart was filled with anger as he said coldly, "You really think highly of me. Aren't you afraid that I'll die in the process of cultivation?"

There were many difficulties and dangers when cultivating the tyrant body tempering technique.

Especially in his strange state, he had too many opportunities, which caused many cultivation techniques to be mixed together. Now, he was far away from body refining techniques and was gradually leaning towards demonic techniques.

Wan Yiqian blushed and said, "the flying is too serious. At most, I can't continue practicing and will stop. How can I die? " It's my fault for letting you take such a risk without careful consideration. I'll apologize to you."

He cupped his fists and gave a long bow, full of guilt.

Yunxiao waved his hand and said, "forget it. When I saw it back then, I knew that it was extremely difficult, and it would inevitably conflict with my own cultivation techniques and divine powers. So, I never dared to touch it. It was not until I was reincarnated by a lucky chance that I tried to cultivate it. Brother Yi Qian, please let me have a look at the second half of the cultivation method."

Wan Yi Qian's face revealed a difficult expression and he said awkwardly, "I don't have the second half of that cultivation method with me either." When he saw Yunxiao's face turn uglier, he hurriedly raised his hand and pointed to the sky. "I can swear! Back then, I gave the entire cultivation technique to ao changkong, and he only returned me the first half of the inheritance medium."

Only then did Yunxiao's expression ease a little, but it was still as cold as ice. "What a good ao changkong. Not only did he use me as an experiment, but he also intends to use this cultivation technique to balance me out. If I really followed the first half of the cultivation, I would have to beg him at this moment."

Wan Yiqian was shocked, "it's that serious? I really misjudged him!" His face was full of anger, but it was unknown whether it was true Qi or fake Qi.

forget it," Yunxiao said. the body tempering art I'm cultivating at the moment has deviated. I'm afraid ao changkong has also noticed this, so he didn't come to me for trouble.

Wan Yiqian said in surprise, "Feiyang, your physical skills are indeed very strange. And from your complexion, you seem to be seriously injured."

yes," Yunxiao nodded. I've fully recovered.

"How could it be so fast!"

Wan Yiqian was shocked and cried out.

Although he had guessed that he had recovered a lot, he had never expected that he would recover completely. His face was full of shock.

that's what I mean. Yunxiao chuckled. after the body-tempering art goes astray, there is a glimmer of Hope in the Dark.

Although his divine body was extremely powerful, the reason he could recover so quickly this time was entirely because of the Dragon blood. However, he didn't want to tell the truth and deliberately wanted to be surprised in case something happened.

"This Kasaya can actually have such a magical effect?" Wan Yiqian was stunned.

"Hehe, opportunity, opportunity." brother Yiqian, have a good rest and recuperate, " Yunxiao said. I'll go into seclusion to cultivate as well.

Wan Yiqian was stunned for a moment and hurriedly said, " "Feiyang, can you teach me your body refinement art?"

what are you talking about, brother Yiqian? " Yunxiao said. of course you can. However, this is a path that I created by chance after cultivating half of the tyrant body tempering technique. If brother Yiqian really wants to learn it, you'll have to master the first half of the body tempering technique first, and I'll teach you then."

Wan Yiqian: " Zhenzhen. Cough, cough. I'm old. I'm afraid I can't learn it.

Yunxiao smiled faintly, then left the hall and found a secret room to cultivate.

Wan Yiqian's face was full of contemplation, and he said proudly, " From the beginning to the end, he had not shown any interest in the secret treasure. Was he really uninterested or was he pretending not to care?

I can't have the intention to harm others, but I can't be unguarded. It's better for me to be on guard. After all, the times are different now, and I can't afford to make any mistakes.

After making up his mind, he also went to his secret room to recuperate.

It was not that Yunxiao was not interested in the secret treasure, but no matter how cunning he was, he would not let him get a share or take much advantage of it. So, his top priority was to quickly break through to the peak of nine-stars and step into divine transcendence.

The addition of the secret treasure would cause a lot of trouble for no reason. He did not want to be involved in any more troublesome matters.

After entering the secret chamber, he set up a few barriers before taking out the jade pendant that han Junting had given him.

A series of complicated runes were entwined on the jade pendant. It was a kind of dead knot talisman. Only by destroying the jade pendant could one see the information inside.

Yunxiao's face changed when he scanned it with his divine sense.

"Ishikawa city! How could there be such a coincidence!"

The message hidden in the jade pendant was that he had already received news about Luo yunshang.

Moreover, it was clearly stated in the jade pendant that han Junting had told qu Hongyan about Yunxiao's identity and had asked him to meet in Ishikawa city.

"Whoever a beauty dances for, whoever drinks the world for her."

The peerless dance flashed through Yunxiao's mind, and he was a little confused.

He couldn't calm his mind while cultivating, so he used the Qi creation technique and started to absorb a large amount of primordial stones.

Countless Supreme-grade primordial stones exploded, and the terrifying spirit energy contained in them was instantly sucked dry. Yunxiao kept absorbing them to calm himself.

The battleship flew across the sky, covering a thousand miles in an instant.

After more than a month, he finally saw the image of a city on the huge observation Sky Mirror.

“We’re here! Pinpoint the location of Ishikawa city immediately!”

“We’ll arrive in half a day.”

“Activate all the concealment formations to avoid being discovered by the people in the city,”

A surprised voice came from the Starship. After more than a month of flying at their limit, the people controlling the Starship were also a bit tired.

Wan Yiqian and the others watched quietly in front of the heaven-reaching mirror, which had a diameter of more than 100 feet. Most of them heaved a sigh of relief.

Wan Yiqian snorted coldly and said, “so what if I’m discovered?” Do you think they’ll dare to refuse us if we use the teleportation formation?” His tone was full of resentment.

Ever since the defeat at new Yan city, Wan Yiqian’s temper had gradually become violent.

Yunxiao looked at the city’s shadow projected on the mirror in a daze. It was not real, so he could not see the whole picture.

“Young master Yun, is there something on your mind?” su lianyi looked at him and asked.

Everyone’s eyes immediately turned over.

Feiyang, ” Wan Yiqian said, ” after more than a month of closed-door cultivation, I indeed find that you have a lot on your mind. It’s just that it’s not convenient to ask.

I’m fine, ” Yunxiao said. but I’m afraid I can’t go to thousand leaves Island with brother Yiqian.

Wan Yiqian was shocked and asked,”why?” If there’s anything you need, just say it. I’ll shoulder it with you.”

it’s a private matter, ” Yunxiao sighed. it’s not appropriate for outsiders to get involved. I’m going to meet someone once we reach Ishikawa city, and I’m afraid we’ll have to part ways.”

“Who is it?” Wan Yiqian asked, puzzled. His expression suddenly changed and he said warily, ” could it be that someone knows our whereabouts and is waiting for you in Ishikawa city? ”

Yunxiao shook his head and said, ” it should be a coincidence. Do you remember the jade pendant tianjue gave me when we left new Yan city?”

“I remember. I’ve thought about it for a while, but I can’t figure it out,” Wan Yiqian said.

Yunxiao gave him a look and thought to himself that this ‘what if’ was indeed a shrewd man. Although he was full of doubts, he did not ask him.

...

“Han Junting sent me a message saying that someone is waiting for me in Ishikawa city.”

“Who is it? I can’t believe you’re paying so much attention to me, Feiyang.”

“The real master of the star and moon school, han Junting’s master.”

“Ah?”

Wan Yi Qian couldn’t help but exclaim in shock, his eyes filled with disbelief.

Naturally, he knew who han Junting’s master was. On the other hand, su lianyi and the others were suspicious.

“She, she really came out of seclusion?”

Wan Yiqian said in shock. His eyes flickered continuously, as if he was measuring the changes in the situation.

Yunxiao turned his head slightly and stared at Ishikawa city, which was getting clearer and clearer in the sky Mirror. “Who knows?”

The warship soon arrived outside of Ishikawa city, but because of the invisibility formation, almost no one in the city noticed it.

The people of ten thousand treasures tower quickly put away the battleship, and more than a hundred people stood in the sky outside the city, looking down.

Ishikawa city was not a main city in the North, but it was still a large city. The huge teleportation formation was on the east side of the city, and it was guarded by a large number of soldiers.

brother Yiqian, you should be able to reach thousand leaves Island very soon through the transit in Ishikawa city, ” Yunxiao said. I won’t see you out. Farewell, take care.”

He and su lianyi flew down and headed towards the city.

Wan Yiqian looked at his figure and suddenly shouted, "Feiyang, wait for me."

Yunxiao stopped, turned around, and said in surprise, "What, does brother Yi Qian also want to go with me?"

Wan Yiqian laughed. haha! The most beautiful woman in the world has come out of seclusion. I also want to see her. He gave her a meaningful look and smiled ambiguously.

Su lianyi's body trembled, and her face changed. Only now did she know who Yunxiao wanted to see.

well," Yunxiao said, "it's better to have a thousand brothers with me.

In case the experts of the million treasures tower stayed in the sky, he would fly into the city with Yunxiao.

Yunxiao used his divine sense to sense a very familiar aura, which was faintly discernible and followed the aura.

In the bustling city, it suddenly opened up. The willow trees were green, and the sound of flowing water could be heard.

There was a small bridge across the flowing water, and in the distance, there was a three-story building that was exquisitely carved and full of intrigue.

The magnificence did not match the surrounding environment.

There were four big words written on the pavilion-nine-layered heaven wave.

Wan Yiqian was shocked, 'spatial Mystic artifact-heaven wave building! I didn't expect it to be in the hands of the divine cloud Palace."

The building suddenly rippled with an ancient sound. There was the sound of flowing water, towering mountains, thousands of troops and horses, and a flowing water home.

A new poem slowly came out, " a thousand feet of heart is filled with sorrow, hanging on a Jade hook, a thousand feet of light is cold in the late autumn, if you ask how deep the feelings are, the waves in the nine Heavens flow without measure.

Chapter 1677

1677 Deep hatred

Yunxiao stood quietly on the bridge, listening to the sound of the string without moving.

Su lianyi and Wan Yiqian were extremely nervous. Under the rhythm of the sound waves, their palms were covered in cold sweat.

The flowing water under the bridge seemed to have stopped as well, as if it was quietly listening to the heavenly music.

The entire scene seemed to be frozen, like a poem or a painting.

After an unknown amount of time, the zither music gradually stopped, and the entire air was filled with the lingering sound.

A willow leaf fell and swayed in the wind, which attracted Yunxiao's eyes. Finally, it landed under the bridge, and the water began to slowly take the leaf away.

It was unknown when a graceful figure had appeared on the nine Heavens wave floor. Her face was so beautiful that it could topple the world.

The woman was not qu Hongyan, but han Junting. Apparently, she had dressed up deliberately, which made the whole landscape lose its color and the flowers dim.

Wan Yiqian and su lianyi also sucked in a breath of cold air. Even though they had always been able to see through han Junting's looks and knew that she was definitely a stunning woman, they didn't expect her to be this beautiful.

Yunxiao's heart was also slightly touched. In terms of looks, han Junting was no less beautiful than qu Hongyan, but she lacked the temperament of a peerless genius and a beautiful woman.

"Young master Yunxiao, my master has been waiting for you for a long time."

Han Junting said. Her voice was no longer like her usual aged voice. It was very pleasant to the ear, which made Wan Yiqian and su lianyi a little uncomfortable.

"Sorry for the disturbance," Yunxiao cupped his fists and said.

He lifted his feet and walked forward. His steps were extremely slow, and each step was very careful.

"Master one thousand and sister Lian Yi, please come as well," han Junting said.

It was only then that Wan Yiqian and su lianyi came back to their senses, and they hurriedly followed behind Yunxiao.

Han Junting led the way. The nine-layered heaven wave building was a spatial Mystic artifact. It was extremely spacious inside, and a nine-layered exquisite building appeared in front of them.

White clouds swirled all around him, and there were even neon lights flashing within. A heavenly bridge stretched from north to south.

There seemed to be a spell formation on the bluestone bricks in front of the building. Han Junting's steps were very strange, and the three of them followed her carefully.

After walking past the bluestone bricks, the scenery in front of them changed. The three of them appeared on a bridge. Opposite them was the top of the nine-story building. Inside an exquisite Pavilion, there was a Jade Screen. There was a faint figure playing the strings of a zither behind it.

Master, li Yunxiao is here.

Han Junting retreated to the side of the screen and waited on him carefully.

“You’re here, Zhenzhen.”

After a short silence, a silvery female voice came from behind the screen. It was like spring water pouring into one’s ears. There was actually such a beautiful sound in the world.

“Er, I haven’t seen you for many years. How are you?”

Yunxiao did not know how to respond, so he asked with a long sigh.

“What do you think?” That voice was filled with reproach and questioning.

“Well, if he can eat and sleep well, he’s probably fine.” Yunxiao thought for a moment, then scratched his head and answered.

Wan Yiqian and su lianyi were speechless. They suddenly regretted following them.

This was like a meeting between two old lovers. Why should he participate? he was just being used as a candle.

But now was no longer the time to retreat, he could only brace himself and continue to stay.

“Hmph!”

The voice was reproachful as it said, " "You should be able to eat and sleep well these years."

Yunxiao smiled awkwardly. it's alright. Han Junting should have told you the purpose of my trip, right? " he said. Let's not talk about the past for the time being. Yunshang is also your disciple, and she's in a very dangerous situation now. I hope you can resolve the immediate danger first."

"I've heard from Jun ting about yunshang. But did you come to see me just to say this? You don't even want to see me?" The voice said slowly, and the clouds in the surroundings seemed to freeze.

Yunxiao's hands were also sweating as he said nervously, " "Naturally, I have to see him. It's just that there's something strange about this Jade Screen. It blocked my divine sense and eye techniques."

"Then can't you come forward and bypass the screen to see me?" the voice asked.

Her voice was charming, and the beautiful and gentle rhythm made one's body go soft.

Even su lianyi, who was a woman, couldn't help but blush and her heart beat faster.

Wan Yiqian reacted when she heard that. She hurriedly used her internal energy to suppress her emotions, and the surging blood gradually calmed down.

Yunxiao's eyes flickered as he said, " "Alright, I'll go around this screen to see you."

He raised his foot and stepped on the heaven wave bridge. With each step, he had to pause for a long time, and the entire nine-story Pavilion seemed to be somewhat depressed.

The distance of just over ten meters felt like a few centuries of walking before they finally arrived in front of the Jade Screen.

"Sigh, I suddenly feel that it's better not to see each other."

Yunxiao suddenly sighed. He was just one step away from the final step when he stopped.

“Why?”

The voice suddenly became hurried and angry, and there seemed to be a shadow swaying behind the screen.

I’m afraid I’ll be disappointed, ” Yunxiao said. I’m afraid I’ll be disappointed.

“What?” The voice trembled.

Han Junting’s eyes also flashed with surprise, but it was quickly replaced by anger. She shouted, ” Li Yunxiao, what do you mean by this? ”

“Forget it, I’ll take a look.”

Yunxiao sighed. Then, as if he had mustered up his courage, he walked around the screen and looked over.

What he saw was an extremely ordinary face. His eyes were filled with anger, but the corners of his mouth were raised into an endless cold smile.

...

A bone-chilling sword had already reached Yunxiao’s heart and was thrust down!

“Swish!”

The sound of the sword disappeared, but the blood hissed in the wind. In an instant, Yunxiao's robe was stained red with his own blood.

"Swish!"

"Swish!"

Another two sounds of swords cutting into bodies rang out. Han Junting held her swords with both hands and stabbed them into Yunxiao's back, then came out from the front!

"Ah!"

This turn of events caused Wan Yiqian and Su Lianyi to turn pale with fright. Although they didn't understand what was going on, they knew that they had fallen into a trap!

Just as the two were about to make a move, more than ten figures appeared around them in a flash. They were all women in Palace clothes, each of them holding a cold sword and pointing it at them.

An ice-cold sword intent rippled through the ten-odd people.

Each person's position was extremely good, and it was clearly a group of extremely powerful formations, suppressing the two people so that they didn't dare to casually make a move.

...

"Hehe."

Yunxiao suddenly laughed. His face had turned pale due to the excessive blood loss, but his smile was a little strange. "Hongyan, why have you become so ugly?"

“Gu Feiyang, you must be blind!” The woman said angrily. This Lord isn’t the palace Master, you and I have also met several times, could it be that you’ve forgotten the flux girl by the palace master’s side?”

Her voice had also become shrill, not as pleasant as before.

“Oh, I see. No wonder he could play such beautiful zither music and imitate it to perfection. You scared me to death, I thought the beauty had turned into an ugly monster.” Yunxiao breathed a heavy sigh of relief.

“I’m so angry, damn it!”

The flux girl was furious. She pulled out the cold sword and stabbed it again, creating a second hole in her heart.

Yunxiao twitched in pain, and his face was twisted.

Any woman who was called ugly would fight to the death. Besides, she had been living a pampered life and had always been high and mighty. Who would dare to say that she was ugly?

li Yunxiao, ” han Junting said coldly, ” you can still be so calm at a time like this. I have to admire you. It seems that you still have some good points, but you’re not good enough to make my master like you. You’re not worthy, never worthy!”

Her beautiful face also turned ferocious, as if there was boundless hatred. The two swords in her hands began to stir, and large pieces of fresh meat were turned over, and Scarlet blood spurted out.

“Killing someone is just a matter of nodding your head. How can you women be so cruel? you all want to eat my flesh raw. When did I offend you?”

Yunxiao’s face was twisted in pain, but his brows were still furrowed, as if he did not understand where such a deep hatred came from.

“Hahaha!”

Han Junting laughed hysterically and said, “What deep hatred? To let shizun hurt his feelings for you, this is a deep hatred that even ten thousand death sentences can’t make up for!”

you f * cking pervert! Yunxiao cursed. what does your master and I have to do with you? ” Hongyan didn’t even say anything, so why are you screaming?”

Han Junting was furious. She stirred the swords in her hands even more violently, cutting Yunxiao’s flesh bit by bit.

The string girl seemed to be unable to bear it and said, “Jun ting, that’s enough. Don’t torture him anymore. Just send him to the West!

“Swish!”

The cold sword was pulled out and cut off Yunxiao’s head with a backhand swing. Blood immediately spurted out like a fountain, reaching three feet high.

“Ah?”

Su lianyi, who was far away, cried out in disbelief. Other than shock, there was also a trace of fear in her eyes.

Wan Yiqian’s face also turned pale, and he knew that this was not good.

At this moment, he had only recovered 10 – 20% of his injuries. His strength was probably on par with su lianyi’s and it was impossible for him to escape from this sword formation.

Since the people of shenxiao Palace had killed Yunxiao behind qu Hongyan’s back, they would probably not let them go, and would most likely kill them to silence them.

“You women are really ruthless! The whole world knows that the palace Master of Hongyan Palace admires Gu Feiyang, and you dared to kill him behind her back. Aren’t you afraid that the palace Master will blame you when she finds out?”

Wan Yiqian rebuked loudly, his face full of resentment. But in his heart, hundreds of thoughts were running through his mind, constantly thinking of ways to escape.

“Oh, blame? Tsk, tsk, Lord one thousand seems to know my master very well.”

Han Junting pulled the sword out of Yunxiao’s body and said coldly, “ “This damn person has tortured master for decades. Even if he dies 10000 times, he won’t be able to absolve himself of his sin! Besides, I’ll kill you two immediately after Yunxiao’s death, so my master won’t know about it. ”

Wan Yi Qian’s expression changed drastically, but he immediately eased up and said, “ “Head shopkeeper han, although the star and moon school hasn’t been in the merchant Union for long, I’ve always taken good care of them. Can’t you show some consideration for our relationship?”

“Hehe!”

“Speaking of which, the development of the star and moon school is indeed thanks to Master Yi Qian’s care,” han Junting said with a smile. However, I must conceal what happened today to prevent master from finding out about it in the future and having no choice but to kill Daren and sister Lian Yi.”

please let us go, ” Wan Yiqian said hurriedly. I can swear to the heavens that I will never tell anyone about what happened today.

Su lianyi also nodded quickly, indicating that she would keep it a secret.

Chapter 1678-ambush

“Secret? I believe that only the dead can keep secrets.”

Han Junting sneered, " "Besides, you two have the resources and precious treasures of the two Chambers of Commerce. If I get them, the star and moon school will be even more powerful, and even compete with Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce. I won't have to be inferior to ding Shan anymore."

Wan Yiqian and su lianyi's faces were extremely pale. They could already feel the killing intent coming from the sword formation around them.

"Junting, something seems to be strange," the string girl suddenly said.

"What's wrong?" han Junting asked.

Pointing at Yunxiao's headless body on the ground, the flux girl said, " although li Yunxiao's strength is limited now, he used to be a titled martial sovereign. Is it really so easy to kill him? "

Han Junting's face was grave. he took two of ding Shan's attacks in Xinyan city. It's a miracle that he's not dead. He must be seriously injured now. Our plan is flawless. Isn't it normal to kill him easily? "

Hearing this, the Xian nu's complexion didn't improve, but instead became somewhat pale, " "Then where did his head that I just cut off go?"

Han Junting's face turned pale instantly, and a bad feeling spread out in her heart. She hurriedly spread out her divine sense, but as expected, Yunxiao's head was nowhere to be found.

Logically speaking, when he slashed down with his sword just now, his head should not have fallen far off.

"Xian nu, be careful!"

Suddenly, a sharp shout came from the sky, and a force that could topple mountains and overturn the seas was pushed out, instantly patting the body of the fluxer girl and sending her flying.

Then, without any warning, a sword light appeared and cut the space where the flux girl had been standing in two.

The sword projection flashed with red light, and a woman in red Palace robes appeared with a sword in her hand, her eyes filled with shock.

“Oh, it’s elder min Lei. Even you want to kill me?”

As his cold voice rang out, Yunxiao’s body appeared in front of her in an instant, and he threw a palm at her.

Suddenly, the wind and clouds rose, and the sky changed color.

Han Junting and the Xian nu’s faces turned pale. They couldn’t help but tremble in fear. That flawless attack that couldn’t have failed had failed!

“Great wind Cloud Palm!”

Chi Lei was shocked, her hands quickly formed a seal to meet the attack, and at the same time, she retreated and shouted anxiously, ” “What are you waiting for?”

For some reason, Yunxiao’s heart trembled. An aura of death, which had not appeared for a long time, emerged in his heart, as if a great disaster was about to happen.

In his shock, he couldn’t care less about pushing his palm forward. Instead, he hurriedly retracted his hand, and his body instantly turned golden.

The three-headed and six-armed Dharma form appeared and immediately formed a seal to form a barrier light.

The demonic sky armor also flew out on its own and covered his body.

At this moment, the Jade Screen beside him dissolved, and a figure was hidden inside. He turned his hand into a palm and slapped it from a few feet away.

“My Dao has a limit!”

It was the first move of the beiming Dark Palace’s three moves from beyond the heavens!

“BOOM!”

A mountain-like force slammed into the golden light barrier, and it was completely crushed in a flash.

The vast and boundless profound Yin cold Qi broke through.

Shocked, Yunxiao performed an incantation gesture with his six arms and threw them out, filling the sky with fist shadows.

However, under the influence of the profound Yin cold Qi, it penetrated his skin and began to freeze his meridians.

The force of his punch was immediately affected and slowed down.

“BOOM!”

The surging palm momentum changed in the air. Through the endless cold light, that person’s figure moved, and countless strange phenomena appeared around him.

‘My Dao you ya’s’ palm strike was several times more powerful than before, and it transformed into the second move, Swift and graceful. The cold air in the sky circulated like stars and clouds, as if it should not exist in this world. It was a move that descended from the sky!

“Bang!”

Yunxiao's fist shadows were all crushed, and countless black patterns burst out of the devil Sky armor. The entire armor broke out of his body and transformed into the form of a giant devil for the first time, with tens of thousands of roars coming from inside.

However, it was useless. After the devil Sky armor took form, it was instantly suppressed.

The palm hit Yunxiao's chest hard, and he coughed up a mouthful of hot blood. Yunxiao's momentum dropped instantly, and he was forced back thousands of feet before he could stop.

"So strong. He took two of my attacks head on and didn't die. No wonder you didn't even care about Ding Shan's two moves."

The cold air slowly dispersed, and the figure of the man was revealed.

She was dressed in a white silk robe, and her hair was tied up with a Jade hairpin. The cold air gradually receded, turning into faint clouds that flowed around her body.

"The darknorth section!"

Wan Yiqian cried out in shock, her face filled with deep shock.

Su lianyi's heart was also pounding as she looked at that imposing figure in horror. He emitted waves of cold air, causing her to shiver even from a distance.

"Greetings, Lord Duan Jue!"

Han Junting finally came to her senses and quickly greeted him.

The string girl and Chi Lei also stepped forward to pay their respects. The air shook slightly, and another girl in a pink chiffon Palace dress appeared. She looked somewhat similar to Na Lei. She stepped forward and said, "Chu Mei greets Lord Duan Jue,"

“No need to be so polite,” darknorth duel said.

The women of shenxiao Palace rose to their feet and stood on both sides of the darknorth Duan Jue, looking at Yunxiao with complicated expressions.

“Darknorth Duan Jue, you’re the master of a sect, but you actually launched a sneak attack!”

Wan Yiqian suppressed the extreme shock in his heart and growled in anger.

...

Darknorth duanjue shot him a disdainful glance and said, ao changkong was even ordered by you to launch a sneak attack on Ling Baiyi in Xinyan city. It’s nothing for me to launch a sneak attack.

Wan Yiqian was speechless.

Darknorth demi-Jue raised his hand and pointed at Yunxiao. “Gu Feiyang, I didn’t expect that the tiandang mountains wouldn’t take your life. They’ve even given you a great opportunity. But can you still escape today?”

At the moment, Yunxiao’s internal breath was extremely chaotic, and a large number of meridians were frozen to death, unable to function. He coughed up blood whenever he moved his true essence, and could not even speak.

“This Gu Feiyang is extremely powerful, he even saw through Jun ting and the Xian nu’s flawless plan.” If it weren’t for Lord Duan Jue, I’m afraid he would’ve escaped today.”

Gu Feiyang has the moon pupil, ” darknorth judge said. he can see through all truths. It’s really difficult to fool him. Fortunately, your divine cloud Palace has this Green Lotus Emerald screen, which can block all divine senses. Otherwise, it would have been difficult to launch a sneak attack.”

He wasn't ashamed of his sneak attack at all. Instead, he was pleased with himself after he succeeded.

Er Lei's heart ached as she looked at the Jade fragments on the ground. "The palace Master likes this piece very much. If we take it out and destroy it, we don't know how to explain it in the future. However, as long as we can kill Gu Feiyang, it's worth it even if we have to risk being scolded by the palace Master."

"Hehe."

After swallowing a large number of medicinal pills and heavenly materials and earthly treasures, Yunxiao's injuries were gradually suppressed, and he could not help but sneer.

The inextinguishable golden body was trying its best to absorb the Xuan Yin cold Qi in his body and turn it into his own strength, but the effect was extremely weak. It could only stabilize the injury and not worsen it in the short term.

...

"In fact, master Duan Jue doesn't need to hide in the Jade Screen at all. His face alone is enough to block all divine sense." Yunxiao said sarcastically.

"Haha, Gu Feiyang, you're still as humorous as ever."

haha! darknorth Duan Jue laughed without getting angry. I'm honored to be praised by martial sovereign Vanquisher, but this honor is a little too much.

Yunxiao was speechless. He had wanted to make a few more sarcastic remarks, but knowing that it would not work, he simply shut up.

At this moment, his mouth was still of great use. He stuffed it full of heavenly treasures and swallowed them down in a hurry, trying to make up for it.

“What?” darknorth Duan Jue chuckled and said, “don’t you want to goad me into buying time?” You’re lucky that you’re still alive after being hit by my black Yin true Qi. It’s impossible to suppress your injuries in a short time. The longer you delay, the worse it will be.”

He did not expect Yunxiao’s physical body to be so abnormal that he could suppress his injuries in an instant and swallow pills to recover at all costs.

Yunxiao’s mouth was full of food as he said slowly, “ “Since that’s the case, why don’t you let me drag this out for two or three days and let my cold poison flare up and kill me?”

“Hehe, good idea. But two or three days is too long, I don’t have the patience.”

“It’s said that there’s a dragon expert hidden in your Saint artifact,” darknorth Duan Jue said. “Let him come out.” If you’re strong enough, you might be able to drag it out for six to six hours.”

Yunxiao rolled his eyes at him and said, “ let him come out just because you said so? how proud will he be? ” Who Do You Think You Are?”

Hmph! Chi Lei snorted. if that’s the case, then I’ll have to send you to hell!

The long sword in her hand was held horizontally, and a red shadow flashed across the sky, stabbing forward.

The sword’s momentum was extremely Swift as it went straight for the throat.

Yunxiao’s heart was very heavy. Min Lei and min Mei were both powerful elders of shenxiao Palace. They used to follow qu Hongyan, so they had seen her many times and knew that she was very strong.

There was also the sword formation that trapped Wan Yiqian and su lianyi in the distance. It was also an extremely powerful one sword United formation of the divine cloud Palace. It was set up by 13 people. They worked together as one and cooperated seamlessly.

In the current situation, it was almost impossible to turn defeat into victory. The only way was to find a way to escape, and recovering a certain amount of strength was the key to whether or not he could escape.

Thinking up to here, he immediately summoned che you, bei Xiaonan and all the other officials, telling them about the current situation, " "Brothers, I can only rely on you guys to hold on."

Bei Zhi Nan was expressionless as he reached out to grab her sword.

"Fanatic!"

what? " Zhi Lei was shocked. She waved her sword, and countless sword flowers appeared.

"Bang!"

But he was still caught by beifeng Nan, who then smacked him with his palm, forcing him back.

"You, Who are you?"

what? " min Lei was shocked. Her sword was so sharp that it could even cut through an ordinary ninth-tier Mystic weapon, let alone a mere physical body.

Darknorth judge's pupils also contracted. He carefully sized up beiming nanlai, but no matter how hard he searched his memory, he couldn't find any information about this person.

After pushing back min Lei with a single strike, beifeng Nan stood indifferently beside Yunxiao, ignoring the enemies in front of him.

you! che you snorted, " you call me long long when you're free, but now you're calling me brother? "

I'm ashamed," Yunxiao laughed. I'll reflect on it. I'll leave it to you guys, I'm going to find a place to recuperate."

He leaped up and changed his figure several times in the air, ready to retreat.

Suddenly, the space trembled slightly, and a sharp slash broke through the air, suppressing his figure.

Chapter 1679

1679 Who is it?

Yunxiao was taken aback. He was too badly injured, and although the force was not strong, it was enough to deal with him at this moment. He had no choice but to reveal his true form and fly to the ground.

Then, the space continued to surge, forming a large number of illusionary profound level weapons. They were formed by pure power, and swords, axes, and halberds rained down.

Yunxiao looked carefully and found that it was done by Han Junting, who had borrowed the power of the nine Heavens wave building's own profound artifact.

Everyone was inside the profound level weapon.

The weapons continued to slash down. Under normal circumstances, they would not pose much of a threat, but at this moment, they were extremely deadly.

Yunxiao performed an incantation gesture with one hand, and a mirror flew out of his palm, transforming into countless facets in the air and reflecting a seven-colored luster.

The attacks formed by the light shadows landed on the mirror and were instantly broken down into several rays of colorful light, all of which changed directions.

Part of the energy light was reflected through the mirror, and the rest was reflected at a physical angle, turning into a sky full of light and spreading out around Yunxiao, but not a single beam hurt him.

Han Junting was shocked. Her control of the mirror was extremely precise, and she had calculated the attack from all directions. She did not expect such a magical mirror to exist.

“Die!”

The string girl cried out in surprise. She held a treasured zither in her left hand and strummed the strings. A rapid clanging sound came out and condensed into a giant blade in the air.

At the same time, han Junting once again gathered the power of the nine heavenly wave building’s profound level weapon. It was like an endless wave that came crashing down and shackled him.

Suddenly, a huge shadow appeared in front of Yunxiao. It was the heaven-patrolling bull, its eyes as red as precious Jade. It gave a long cry and stomped its foot. Countless green lights spread under its feet, shaking away the force of the profound level weapon’s shackles.

Then, its huge body leaned forward, and its pair of bull horns fiercely blocked the giant blade’s light.

“BOOM!”

The blade light exploded instantly, turning into countless noisy notes that pierced his eardrums.

In the distance, min Lei and the others were shocked. How many things did Yunxiao have? the power he showed at this moment was enough to compete with them.

one sword United formation! han Junting shouted, ” kill Wan Yiqian and su lianyi quickly!

The thirteen girls replied in unison, ” “Yes!”

Rays of cold light and killing intent bloomed from everyone’s body, flowing like water. They were completely identical, like a perfect piece of Jade.

Wan Yiqian was furious. How could he sit still and wait for death? he roared, "Lord Lian Yi, let's kill our way out!"

He couldn't care about his injuries anymore. A surging power gushed out and a long spear appeared in his hands. There was a huge beast coiling on the spear.

Su lianyi's face turned pale as well. A determined look flashed in her eyes as she decided to risk everything.

At this moment, Yunxiao's clone rose to his feet and put away the great sorrow sunset Cloud Mirror. Then, like a ROC spreading its wings, he flew over the nine heavenly waves and looked down.

Han Junting frowned and said coldly, "You want to escape? In your dreams! This Nine Heavens wave building will be your burial ground!"

"Oh, is that so?"

Yunxiao raised his eyes lazily, then the Tusita heavenly peak flew out of his hand, which expanded to half an acre in size and smashed toward the nine-layered heaven wave building.

Although this spatial Mystic artifact was magnificent and powerful, it could not be moved. It could only stand there and wait to be smashed.

"?!"

Han Junting took a deep breath and her face turned green. Her eyes were bulging and her beautiful face turned ugly.

"Don't!"

She cried out in fear. She had seen the power of the Tusita heavenly peak with her own eyes. Even divine transcendence experts could not withstand a single blow.

Yunxiao paid no attention to her exclamation. With a sneer, he performed an incantation gesture, doubling the size of the half-acre object and smashing it at the nine-fold heavenly wave.

Han Junting's heart was in her throat, and her pupils dilated. She was hoping that the nine heavenly waves could be resisted. After all, it was a famous profound level weapon that could even withstand an attack from a divine transcendence.

However, when the Tusita peak was four-colored, it was already not something that could be blocked by divine transcendence. Now that it had turned into five-colored light, it fell down and caused the entire sky to sink, forming a huge black hole.

"Boom boom boom!"

The mountain landed on the nine Heavens wave and the exquisite building collapsed instantly. It crumbled inch by inch, completely crushing han Junting's hopes.

She cried out mournfully. This profound level weapon was her most beloved treasure, and she immediately rushed forward with red eyes.

"Gu Feiyang, die, die, die! You stole my master and destroyed my building. I'm going to eat you alive!"

He crossed the daggers in his hands in front of his body, and suddenly struck out a huge slash, drawing a long crack in the sky!

After the huge blade and the nine-layered heaven wave were destroyed, the independent space kept disappearing, which attracted everyone's attention.

Chi Lei was shocked, "Jun ting, what are you doing?"

Han Junting's face was contorted in anger, as if she had been possessed by the devil.

The string girl beside her was also secretly shocked. Feeling the monstrous killing intent, she hurriedly said, "Jun ting, guard your primordial spirit. Don't mess up your Qi!"

Han Junting's hair fluttered in the wind, calming her down. She then started to play the zither.

With a deafening boom, the nine Heavens wave was reduced to ruins by the rolling of the Tusita heavenly peak.

The spatial power had completely disappeared, and everyone had returned to Ishikawa city.

Wan Yiqian was overjoyed and hurriedly let out a long cry that shook the nine Heavens.

More than a hundred experts of the ten thousand treasures tower were waiting in the sky. If they were all summoned down, they would have a great chance of winning this battle.

However, after a few breaths, the entire sky was silent and there was no movement.

Wan Yiqian, "Yingluo."

Su lianyi was shocked. what's going on? " Could it be that there's a barrier that's blocking the sound waves?"

...

Wan Yiqian's expression was extremely ugly. He said, " "There's no shield."

This was because he saw some unfamiliar martial artists flying over. The strongest among them was only a six-star Martial Emperor. They were obviously martial artists who had originally been in Ishikawa city.

Su lianyi had a bad feeling and said, " "Then, what's going on?"

Suddenly, a ray of light shot down from the sky, as if it had appeared out of thin air without any warning. It fell directly next to Wan Yiqian's feet and rolled a few times.

"?! Great elder!"

In the event of a moment of dizziness and instability, that head was Chen ZhongXi's.

Although Chen ZhongXi had been injured by Ling Baiyi in new Yan city, his inner core was not damaged like Ling Baiyi's. He had already recovered more than half of his strength in more than a month. Even an ordinary peak nine-star expert was no match for him. How could he have been killed so quietly?

Yunxiao's pupils constricted as well, and he had a bad feeling in his heart.

It proved that there were still enemies in the dark, and they were extremely powerful.

Chen ZhongXi's head was separated from his body, and the hundred or so experts of the ten thousand treasures building were annihilated, their corpses gone.

"You, Who are you?"

The 20 to 30 martial artists from Ishikawa city sensed the powerful aura in the arena. The energy fluctuations from each of them sent chills down their spines. A few of them were so scared that they wanted to kneel down on the spot.

The six-stars Martial Emperor leading the group was the governor of Ishikawa city. He regretted his decision immediately after he asked.

Even a blind man could see that it was a fight between two groups of experts. He secretly scolded himself for being stupid. He should have turned around and fled at the first moment. In this kind of fight between Immortals, the slightest disaster could cause his body to be crushed.

Fortunately, no one paid attention to him. No one even looked at him. The twenty to thirty of them were like air.

The governor of Ishikawa city heaved a sigh of relief. He was about to turn around and leave to avoid being caught in the crossfire.

my Lord, where did these reckless fools come from? how dare they act so arrogantly in Ishikawa city and ignore your existence! a martial artist behind him said angrily.

“?!”

Ishikawa KaiCheng gasped, and his heart sank. He even felt a few sharp gazes on him, which almost scared him out of his wits.

This subordinate was usually quite capable, and he was also very flexible and knew how to take advantage of the situation. He was deeply liked by her, so why was he so blind today?

He suddenly struck out with his palm, striking the subordinate right in the chest, shattering more than half of his internal organs. A stream of blood spurted out like a fountain.

“Can’t you see that these seniors are performing their martial arts? You blind man!”

scram! the city Lord roared, ” turn this place into a forbidden zone! Anyone who dared to disturb the martial arts practice of these seniors would be killed without mercy! No, kill all nine of their families!”

He shouted hysterically. The fear in his heart was like a vast ocean, and his body was trembling.

“Yes, yes!”

His subordinates were also quite frightened. In addition to being shocked by the aura of the people present, they were also frightened by the city Lord’s anger. They had never seen the city Lord so angry before. Even his favorite subordinate was killed by a single palm strike.

They also realized the seriousness of the matter and hurriedly retreated.

The city Lord’s legs went soft, and he flew away with the help of the others.

Yunxiao looked up into the sky. There were no clouds for thousands of miles, and no trace of anyone could be seen.

His heart sank even more. The more he couldn’t find this person’s whereabouts, the stronger he was.

who is it? he dared to kill but didn’t dare to show himself? ”

He shouted at the sky, but there was no response.

Actually, at their level, it was already very difficult to be incited by a few words. After all, it was a life-and-death battle, and any negligence could lead to death.

Those idiots who were impulsive because of a few words had long become piles of corpses on the road of martial Dao, becoming the ladder to heaven for others.

Therefore, ao changkong could launch a sneak attack calmly, the beiming Duan Jue could launch a sneak attack calmly, and Yunxiao could also do a lot of immoral things calmly.

This is a matter of life and death, who’s playing with you in the open?

“Hehe.”

Han Junting smiled charmingly and smoothly tied up her messy hair, restoring her beautiful face. there’s no need to shout. If you can respond to us, that person will naturally come out. If we can’t even get past this obstacle, then we don’t need to know who it is.”

Yunxiao had known this would be the result. After a few shouts, he stopped worrying and continued to devour heavenly materials and earthly treasures, trying to recover as little as possible.

Chapter 1680-bull fight

The people of shenxiao Palace were suspicious. The precious materials that he had swallowed were probably enough to kill a few mid-stage nine-star martial artists.

Darknorth duel’s face twitched, and a grave expression appeared on his face.

If Yunxiao had kept running for his life or fought in anger, he would have felt very safe.

However, at this moment, he was calmly taking the time to recover from his injuries. It was clear that he was still very determined. There was not even a trace of fear or anger, as if he had a plan in mind.

I don’t understand. As a divine transcendence expert, why would he be under a martial sovereign and listen to his orders? ”

The darknorth duel had not moved at all after che you’s appearance. He had only stood there quietly.

Yunxiao’s calm and composed look made him feel a little uneasy, so he finally spoke.

“The world is big, there are many things you don’t understand,” che you replied lazily.

Neither of them was willing to make the first move. They could both sense the powerful aura on each other's body. Not only was the outcome uncertain, but once they started fighting, it would definitely be heaven-shattering and earth-shattering, and the entire city would be turned into ruins.

"I'll give you double what Gu Feiyang can give you," said darknorth judge. will you submit to my beiming Dark Palace? "

"You won't be able to," che you laughed.

"Oh? Beiming Dark Palace is one of the top sects on the continent, so I'm quite curious about what he can give me. " The darknorth demesne said.

Che you laughed sinisterly, " he eats my sh * t every day. Do you want to eat double? "

"Blargh!"

Yunxiao, who had been swallowing all the heavenly materials and earthly treasures, vomited them all in an instant. A large amount of material debris choked into his windpipe, and his face turned red as he coughed violently.

"Cough, cough cough! Blargh, blargh blargh!"

Yunxiao vomited out all the food he had eaten. His body, which had been well nourished, began to wither after losing a large amount of spirit energy.

All the women from shenxiao Palace frowned. They covered their mouths and noses with their hands, showing disgust.

li Yunxiao, " han Junting said contemptuously, " you're a powerful man of your generation. Can you have some manners? "

"Cough, cough cough!"

Yunxiao's face turned red, and he vomited his bile. He stared at che you with a venomous look and roared, " "You disgusting thing, you're ruining my reputation!"

"Hahaha!"

When che you saw his sorry state, he was extremely happy and could not help but laugh.

Darknorth duel's face also turned slightly white, and his stomach churned. He was truly disgusted by this sight. He scolded,"Vulgar, disgusting!"

A cold aura flashed, and killing intent burst out from his eyes.

He pressed two fingers together and a burst of cold Qi shot out.

Che you immediately stopped laughing and sneered. He opened his fingers and turned them into a Dragon Claw. The cold air exploded in his palm and turned into layers of light blue ice crystals that covered his palm. However, they were instantly vaporized.

Darknorth demi-Jue looked over, and his heart became even heavier.

The black Yin true Qi was extremely powerful. One of the important reasons was that it had extremely strong elemental damage. It was difficult for the victim to recover and would also leave behind a great root of disaster.

However, che you's dragon body was extremely strong. When he used his finger to probe, his black Yin true Qi could not harm the Dragon body at all. This caused his extremely strong reliance to lose its effect.

"What, you're not playing anymore?" Che you mocked.

He understood the techniques and abilities of the darknorth mantra, but he knew nothing about it. Weighing the two, he had the upper hand.

it'll be difficult to determine the winner in a short time if you and I fight, " darknorth duanjue said. so there's no need to. We can just keep each other in check. Let them fight for the winner.

"Just because you say it's not necessary, it's not? Wouldn't I lose face then?"

An evil smile appeared on che you's face,"come on, let's warm up"

With a flash of green light in his hand, the Xumi Anton sword slashed out a sword light, cutting a huge wound in the sky and tearing it apart.

The darknorth mantra's body swayed, leaving only an afterimage behind.

Che you snorted coldly and flew into the sky to chase after the darknorth mantra.

The two of them flew in a spiral, chasing each other in the sky.

Darknorth demi-Jue did not seem to want to fight him head-on. He dodged on purpose, and most of his energy was still paying attention to Yunxiao's condition.

Yunxiao's face only looked a little better after vomiting for a long time.

There was no way he could eat anymore. He took out a large number of primordial cores, crushed them all, and absorbed them in front of the people of the divine cloud Palace.

"Vulgar man, my master is really blind!"

Han Junting's eyes were filled with disgust, and her face was filled with a devilish sense of superiority, "Lady flux girl, take advantage of his illness and take his life!"

The blades in his hands separated in front of him, producing a metallic sound. Like thin transparent wings, they appeared in front of Yunxiao in an instant and slashed down with the simplest force!

Yunxiao did not bother to pay attention to her. With a slight sway of his body, he dodged.

Han Junting waved her saber with both hands and chased after Yunxiao in the air, performing a series of chaotic saber Arts with all the essence in it.

Her specialty was her precise control. There was order in the chaos, and she didn't have any extra strength.

In the blink of an eye, Yunxiao was shrouded in a layer of light. But, no matter from which angle the saber beams came from, they were always ten feet away from Yunxiao.

Yunxiao's movement technique was even more exquisite than her chaotic saber moves.

Han Junting's mind was in a mess, and the more she waved, the more anxious she became. The chaotic blades lost their order, but they did not panic, making it easier for Yunxiao to deal with them.

Although it was not difficult to avoid han Junting's attacks, not only was he unable to absorb elemental energy in this state, but he was also starting to get injured.

He landed on the back of the heaven patrolling Bulldog and made a hand seal with one hand.

...

A layer of green light covered him and he raised his foot to kick han Junting.

"Bang Bang Bang!"

A series of explosions occurred in the space, and an incomparably wild power shook out.

Han Junting dodged it easily, then used the shrinking art to shrink her body an inch. She nimbly stepped on the bull's head and brought her two blades together to slash at Yunxiao's head.

All of a sudden, a red light appeared, and the hands that were holding the two sabers were bound, as if they were bound.

She looked down in horror and saw a circle of Red Light Rising from the neck of the heaven patrolling Bulldog, covering her body and making her unable to move.

At the same time, a layer of white light appeared on the horns, turning into a sharp ring of light that tore apart everything around him.

“?!”

Han Junting's heart skipped a beat as a terrifying aura began to surge around her. With a burst of true Qi, her entire body shot up into the air, flipped a few times, and flew away.

The Rings of light from the heaven patrolling Bulldog's horns chased after it and slashed at it.

“Dead water!”

...

The string girl lightly rebuked, and Seven rays of light were plucked out from the zither. They condensed into form in the air and headed toward the circle of light.

“Bang!”

The two forces collided in the air, and the aftermath actually pressed in the direction of the flux girl, causing her to step back in shock, dispersing the shock.

“What kind of bull is this?” The flux girl was greatly alarmed.

Han Junting said, “This bull is a divine hou, it can’t be underestimated.” At this moment, her body was still covered in a layer of red light, and she couldn’t move her two daggers. She struggled for a few times before she gradually moved them.

divine Phoenix?! The fluxer girl was shocked. She frowned, as if her will was wavering.

don’t be afraid, ” han Junting said in a deep voice. when our senior sisters kill Wan Yiqian and su lianyi, we’ll kill this bull and Li Yunxiao with the sword formation!

The string girl was somewhat worried, “can you really do it?” Who knows how many more things he has on him.”

“It’s almost time. I’ve fought alongside him a few times, so I have a certain understanding of his strength and trump cards. We will definitely win today’s battle. Don’t forget that we, the people of shenxiao Palace, are not the only ones here.”

I’ve always felt that this person isn’t simple, ” the string girl said. although he isn’t as arrogant and free as he was back then, he exudes another kind of temperament. He doesn’t lose to those years.

Han Junting’s eyes flashed with anger, ” “Flux girl, what’s wrong with you? Is your Dao heart wavering?”

The flux girl’s expression was somewhat unsightly as she said, ” in fact, my Dao heart had already wavered when the plan failed. With my imitation of the palace Master, it was absolutely flawless without any flaws. However, he still saw through it. Even now, I still don’t dare to believe it. I don’t know how I lost.

Han Junting's heart was also moved. The fluxer had followed her master for decades, and even she herself couldn't distinguish it. In addition, the green Lotus Jade Screen isolated the divine sense, so there was no reason for her to miss.

"Ahem, this is actually very simple."

After listening to their conversation for a while, Yunxiao could not help but interrupt.

"What's going on?"

The two of them asked in unison.

Yunxiao clenched his right fist and coughed twice as he said, "Well, I'm not in a good mood right now, so I don't want to talk about it."

"Then go to hell!"

Han Junting shouted as she slashed out with both her hands.

Having suffered a loss from the patrolling Bulldog, she did not dare to get any closer.

The string girl also flipped open her zither and continuously played the tune, creating countless weapons to slash at the enemy.

The heaven patrolling Bulldog stomped its foot and a green barrier opened up, forming a square under its feet.

Finally, it opened its mouth and a red light flew out from its neck, turning into the nine Heavens Daluo hoop.

The sky was round and the earth was square. The top and bottom combined together to form a world.

Countless attacks from the two of them landed on the outside, only causing afterimages. They were not injured at all.

Yunxiao was overjoyed. Although the strength of the heaven patrolling bullfighting bull was not as strong as a divine being, it was more than enough to deal with the fluxer girl and Han Junting.

He sat on the back of the bull and made hand seals with one hand. He had never stopped absorbing and exhaling Yuan to repair his body.

At the same time, he was constantly on guard against his surroundings in case the person lying in ambush attacked again.

Zhuo Lei and Zhuo Mei, who were not far away, were completely suppressed.

After opening the six gates of the divine body, the Minister's physical strength was unparalleled. Coupled with his fierceness, he was able to fight with Chi Mei.

All kinds of fist lights and sword lights were constantly shaken out. The two of them were the ones who had the most intense battle in the entire field.

On the other hand, Beifeng Nan was much calmer. He basically didn't take the initiative to attack, but just kept using his sword techniques to suppress Chi Lei.

He even kept his left hand behind his back, seemingly at ease.

Min Lei was shocked. No matter how she attacked, she couldn't break through his defense. The winner was decided in an instant, which made her angry and anxious.
