

The First Heir 101

Chapter 101

“Last time, that Lynn you mentioned was pretty good. She’s so full of life. I also brought her over this time and the guest appointed her to accompany them,” Nino said with a lustful tone. “Hearing from you, she also has a cousin. Wynn something? She’s a famous beauty in our city, a young married woman. Bring her here too. Maybe the guests will like her too. Two sisters... Surely there will be interest.”

Dick immediately understood and replied, “Master Nino, don’t worry. That little girl owes us 100,000 dollars. I heard her cousin is also short on money for her daughter’s surgery recently.”

“Very good. Do it now.” Master Nino laughed.

Philip frowned. He thought that only Lynn was involved with this. Unexpectedly, they wanted to drag Wynn into this matter as well!

Then, they should not blame him for being rude!

As such, Philip did not leave. He stopped, turned around, and walked to Nino with a cold expression on his face.

“I say, what’s the problem? Why haven’t you handled this kid yet!”

Dick was on fire. Were these men all good-for-nothings?

Nino was also very unhappy. What he hated most was having his words being heard by someone other than his people. As he was a suspicious man, he was always worried that the other person had been sent undercover by his opponents.

“Master Nino?” Philip said coldly.

Nino raised his brows, a wicked smile appearing at the corners of his mouth. He said, “Why, do you know me?”
