Chapter 1051

As soon as his words fell, various voices in the hall rang. "Mr. Clarke!"

"Mr. Clarke!"

"Mr. Clarke!"

The big bosses scrambled to stand up, afraid that they would be one step too late.

"I, Ken Cooke of the South River District, will follow the orders of Mr. Clarke of Riverdale. Congratulations to Mr. Clarke for becoming the leader of the southern district!"

At this moment, Ken stood up and congratulated.

"I, Yana Young from the Beauty Palace of the South River District, would like to follow the orders of Mr. Clarke of Riverdale. Congratulations to Mr. Clarke!" Yana also followed and said.

"Moses Dunley of the Prime Harvest Group. Congratulations to Mr. Clarke!" Moses Dunley, who was sitting at the end, also stood up and smiled.

Immediately afterward, the big bosses in the audience all bowed and congratulated him.

"Queso Gang of Golden City..."

"White Dragon Gate of Golden City..."

"Gibson Hart of Golden City's Fiery Koi Gang would like to follow the orders of Mr. Clarke..." Gibson stood up and said stoically.

Shocked!

A biting chill!

Everyone gulped.

They were shaking all over, fearing that the next one would be one of them.

Especially Rachel Clarke, who stood closest to Second Master Hull. She went weak in the knees with her fists so tightly clenched that her fingernails were digging into the palms of her hands.

She stared to the side at Second Master Hull who was lying in a pool of blood, seemingly looking at her with wide eyes.

Her entire body was filled with a chilling horror!

Rick faced the waves and said, “Well, regarding the news about Young Miss, I’ll tell you the details when I return. Right now, I need to deal with some troublesome matters.”

Philip furrowed his brows and said, “People from the branch family?”

“Yeah, a bunch of pesky bugs that I can’t seem to get rid of.”

Rick said so before he hung up the phone.

As for Philip, he took a breath, glanced at Mila on the hospital bed, and said to Theo, “Get ready to return.”

Theo nodded behind him and said, “Okay, but Mr. Clarke, Bowen Roy wants to see you.”

“I see. Tell him to wait for me in the pavilion,” Philip said.

Ten minutes later, Philip arrived at the pavilion.

At the moment, there was a bodyguard in a black suit every ten yards apart, closely guarding and protecting the surrounding area.

Bowen Roy sat in the pavilion, drinking tea.

Seeing Philip, Bowen quickly stood up and greeted him respectfully, "Mr. Clarke."

Philip waved his hand and said, "Have a seat."

Then, the two took their seats. Bowen personally made tea for Philip.

"Mr. Clarke, everything is ready."

Theo stepped forward and handed Philip a coat.

The wind started blowing.

The weather was turning cold.

Philip glanced at Theo and suddenly asked, "You saw?"

Theo dared not conceal it and replied, "Yes, Mr. Clarke. I'll work hard."

Philip did not say anything. He took out another token, handed it to Theo, and said, "Once you take it, do you know what you're about to face?"

Theo's extended hand stopped in the air for a long time, then he solemnly said, "I know that my life and everything I own belongs to you!"

The token fell from Philip's fingers.

Theo caught it and held it tightly in the palm of his hand, his eyes sparkling brilliantly!

Philip frowned, then turned to look at Moses to ask, "What's The Alliance?"

Moses smiled faintly and said, "It's a group with a low profile but very solid background. You can consider it a joint coalition. It integrates all the resources of the world and works to improve all the members of The Alliance! We use the power of the world and do our best to protect the people in the alliance!

"The big boss behind The Alliance wants to unite the weak to attack the strong.

"The Alliance is a secret multinational corporate group that was established 30 years ago. There are a total of 17 representatives in The Alliance, six consortia, and four large domestic families. With huge capital monopolizing the market, it can control a person's destiny. It can make others go to heaven instantly, and it can also make people go to hell immediately. If Young Master Clarke is interested, I can be your referral."

After Moses finished speaking, he turned around and looked at Philip with a smile on his face.

Philip raised his eyebrows. Holding the card in his hand and looking at Moses, he suddenly asked, "What role does your Dunley family play in the alliance?"

Moses thought for a while, squeezed his chin, and snapped his fingers before saying, "One of the representatives, one of the consortiums, and one of the families."

Philip furrowed his brows deeper as he stared at Moses closely. After a while, he smiled calmly and said, "It turns out that the Dunley family's background is so big. I've really underestimated you."

Moses Dunley, the Dunley family, The Alliance.

Interesting.

The Alliance, I think it'd be an honor for The Alliance. Based on your family's background, you can definitely become the sixth council member apart from the existing five council members of The Alliance. In this way, all the resources of The Alliance will be at your control and

In the corridor outside, a crisp sound of high heels hitting the floor tiles came from far and approached. It soon appeared at the door of the ward.

Wynn raised her eyebrows and looked over, her face turning unpleasant in an instant.

What was she doing here?

Philip noticed the change in Wynn's expression. Turning his head, he saw a woman in a white trench coat with big wavy hair, wearing a black knee-length dress. With those slender and straight calves stepping on a pair of high heels, it made the woman's temperament appear noble and graceful.

Chloe Sommerset.

She took off her sunglasses. With exquisite features and a brilliant appearance, she looked like a celebrity.

“Why are you here? Didn’t you go back to Capital City?”

Philip was puzzled and stood up, his face slightly unhappy.

Why did Chloe come here at this time?

In an instant, Wynn and Philip were shocked!

Several people quickly trotted upstairs.

Of course, Wynn was supported by Philip. She dared not run too fast.

Charles sweated profusely and said, "I don't know what happened. I just went out for a while and when I came back, I saw your mother getting emergency treatment. After I asked the doctor, I found out that she was poisoned."

Poisoned?

Instantly, Philip was full of chills!

He never expected that someone would poison Martha!

Outside the door of the operating room, the family waited anxiously.

Wynn was most worried. Her eyes were red, and she kept muttering, "How could such a thing happen? Who would poison Mom?"

Charles could still withstand it as he waited by the door.

Philip walked aside, called Theo, and said, "Bring some people to the hospital. Martha had an accident."

On the other side of the phone, Theo was immediately surprised and said, "Mr. Clarke, is the mother-in-law dead?"

he realized that he was out of line, Theo quickly said, "Excuse me, Mr. Clarke, I “Did you find her?” Philip asked with a frown.

Theo replied, “The person is no longer in the hospital. I’ve looked for the administrator of the hospital. All nurses are registered. There’s no such person.”

Philip was silent, pondered for a moment, and glanced at the operating room. He said, “Assemble manpower and search the city. I want to confirm the other party’s intentions.”

“Yes!”

Theo nodded respectfully, then turned around and hurriedly left.

Philip walked toward the door of the operating room. At the same time, the doctor came out of the room and took off his mask.

Wynn was very anxious and worried. She took the doctor’s hand and asked, “How is my mother?”

The doctor said, “Fortunately, we found out in time and pumped her stomach. She’s fine for the time being but needs to be observed.”

With that, Wynn and Charles breathed a sigh of relief.

Upon hearing this, Wynn rolled her eyes at him and said, "Okay, don't swear indiscriminately."

"By the way, what are you going to do with Chloe?" Wynn asked.

Regarding Chloe, Wynn did not want to know her past with Philip.

As for what she wanted, Wynn was confident that she could handle her.

However, what she cared most about were Philip's thoughts.

Philip sat down while bending over and squeezed his fingers in both hands. He was silent for a long time before saying, "Actually, I've not yet decided how to deal with the matter between me and her. It's just a mess. She has done nothing wrong. I failed her before and I want to make it up to her."

Wynn glanced at Philip, who was looking melancholic, and said, "Phil, do you know what a woman doesn't need the most?"

Philip turned to look at Wynn dubiously and found that her profile was really beautiful.

However, who knew that this kid had actually become the big boss behind Milanelson Angel Investment Group?!

"You have no idea. Philip is rich now."

Martha glanced at the door of the ward, then continued to whisper, "He's the boss behind Milanelson Angel Investment Group. He's very rich!"
