Chapter 1111

Vinci Hull?

She brought people with her!

When Colin Hull, who was on the ground, heard these words, he suddenly turned over with a face full of disbelief!

Why did Vinci turn up at this time?

He had clearly arranged someone to send her and Flint out of Riverton!

“Vinci, no, don’t!”

Colin tried to get up from the ground with difficulty as he shouted.

However, the two combatants took him down directly!

Philip turned around, staring at Colin with a pair of cold eyes as he said, “After all the scheming, you didn’t expect that your daughter would be unwilling to concede, right?”

Colin looked at Philip with his eyes widened, his face full of fear and horror.

Thump!

He fell to his knees and bowed to Philip, begging for mercy, “Young Master Clarke, I beg of you, please let my daughter go. I admit defeat. I surrender. I’ll bear all the consequences alone!”

Colin was really scared at this moment!

Dead silence!

Everyone was struck dumb!

Philip stood there emotionlessly while staring at Vinci who was standing not far away with her hot figure and cold temperament. He smiled slightly and said, "We finally meet."

Vinci frowned, pointed at Philip, and shouted, "I don't want to talk nonsense with you. Where's my dad?"

Philip shrugged. The two guards behind him escorted Colin out and tossed him in the rain.

At this moment, Colin Hull, who was covered in blood, looked at Vinci on the opposite side. He shouted, "Vinci, go back! Go away! You can't fight him! Don't do anything stupid! Go! "

At the sight of her father, Vinci was full of grief.

She shouted, "Dad, don't worry. I'm no longer the Vinci Hull who needs your protection. Today, I want Philip Clarke to know the consequences of provoking the Hull family!"

While saying that, Vinci's face was full of chills. She stared at the calm Philip and shouted, "Let my dad go and you can keep your life!"

Hearing Vinci's threatening words, Philip frowned as his eyes flashed with a chill.

Threatening him with his wife and child?

Very courageous!

"Philip, you made great plans transferring everyone to Riverton just to deal with the Hull family. But you've forgotten that your base camp is currently empty. And my people, as early as more than an hour ago, have rushed to Riverdale. Presumably, they have found your wife and child by now."

Vinci smiled sinisterly.

It was rare for a woman to be so cruel and vicious.

Philip put his hands in his trouser pockets, his face looking indifferent. The corners of his eyes were faintly glowing. He looked at the confident Vinci and said, "Do you really think that Riverdale is empty?"

His voice fell.

The audience went silent.

Vinci twisted her willowy eyebrows, not understanding what Philip meant.

Was this the last struggle?

“Hehe, Philip Clarke, stop trying to scare me. Whatever the situation, my people will give me an update soon,” Vinci said coldly with killing intent in her eyes.

At the same time, far away in Riverdale.

Wynn was in the villa playing with Mila.

As early as yesterday, she was escorted by Theo’s people to leave the hospital and return to the villa. Moreover, the inside and outside of the villa were heavily guarded by Theo’s people.

The three killers, covered with the pungent smell of blood, stood in front of Wynn. One of them sneered while holding a bloody dagger in his hand. He then took out his mobile phone, ready to record the video. "Cooperate with us and it'll be less painful for you."

Wynn held Mila, who was already shaking with fright, tightly in her arms. She asked with her eyes full of horror, "Who are you? What do you want?"

Among them, the bald guy sneered and snatched Mila away from Wynn's arms. He smiled cruelly. "Just doing what we're paid to do."

The three people recorded Wynn and Mila on video. Then, they quickly sent the video out.

After doing that, the three of them looked at each other, then looked at Wynn and Mila menacingly. They raised the dagger in their hands and said, "You should be on your way!"

With raised hands, the daggers fell!

At the last moment, Wynn was very desperate as she held on to Mila and cried out, "Philip, where are you?"

Then, she watched helplessly as the bloody dagger that reflected the cold light fell toward herself and Mila's neck!

However...

The dagger held by the bald guy was suspended in mid-air for a while and did not fall.

Then, with a thud...

The bald guy fell on his knees and slumped into a pool of blood!

Behind him, a dagger was pierced into his back and passed cleanly through him!

Philip took the mobile phone given by Vinci and glanced at the contents of the video. The corners of his eyes went cold, his whole body full of anger!

However, this anger was suppressed soon enough.

By his side, Theo also glanced at it and his face collapsed!

He pointed from a distance and roared at Vinci. "Vinci Hull, you're so despicable! It's disgraceful to threaten others using their family members as hostages! For the Hull family to resort to this, the entire Riverton will be ashamed of you! I'm warning you, quickly let Mrs. Clarke and Miss Clarke go. Otherwise, I'll bring some people to wipe out the entire Hull family!"

Theo blew his top!

Even if Philip had anticipated it in advance and instructed him to send extra manpower to strictly guard the villa, they still messed up.

The opponent had obviously dispatched an expert. Dozens of bodyguards in the villa were wiped out?

Theo panicked, turned his head, and glanced at Philip. He discovered that Philip's facial expression showed no other changes apart from the initial anger.

Vinci scorned. "I'm despicable? So what? As long as I can make him kneel, I can do anything!"

After that, she turned her head, stared at Philip with cold eyes, and shouted, "Philip Clarke, aren't you all high and mighty? Don't you want to destroy the Hull family? Go ahead, destroy the Hull family now! I want to see how much your wife and children are worth in your heart!"

She raised her head and twisted her eyebrows as her body radiated with chills. She pointed at Philip in the distance and shouted, “Even so, you still can’t escape today! Take a closer look. This place is surrounded by the Hull family’s disciples and special combat bodyguards. Do you think the people you brought are enough?!”

Vinci had lost all patience.

She clenched her fists tightly, staring at Philip with a fierce glare before roaring. “All disciples of the Hull family listen up! Take all of them down! Kill without mercy!”

Instantly!

All the Hull disciples, dressed in black martial arts uniforms with red sashes tied around their waists, rushed directly toward Philip’s side!

In front of Philip, all the combat personnel assembled and formed a solid wall. They were ready for battle!

In an instant, the two forces confronted each other!

Tim put his arms around Philip’s shoulders, his eyes full of affection. He said, “Good boy, you’ve grown a lot again. Weren’t you going to notify me before destroying the Hull family?”

Philip raised his brows and asked in confusion, “Uncle Tim, do you know the Hull family?”

Tim smiled faintly, turned his head, and glanced at Colin who had fallen in the rain.

He walked toward him.

“Colin Hull, do you admit your mistakes?” Tim reprimanded.

Colin was slumped in the rain at the moment. After seeing the approaching person, his whole body trembled with fear. He knelt for the first time, knocked his head on the ground, and said loudly, “Master Tim, I know my mistakes! I’m willing to bear all consequences!”

The moment he saw this person, Colin knew that he had completely lost!

A thorough defeat!

He also lost all will to resist!

It was because no matter how much he resisted, only death awaited him!

Looking at this scene, Tim almost could not bear it. He closed his eyes slightly and then took out a small token. He held it high to all the Hull family members and shouted, "Seeing this token, aren't you going to kneel?!"

Rumble!

A flash of lightning illuminated the sky!

All members of the Hull family looked up at this moment and saw the golden token in Tim's hand. It had the golden character 'T' engraved on the front!

All members of the Hull family had received strict education about this token since the first day they entered the Hull family!

They had been taught to kneel at the sight of this token!

In front of the entire mansion's courtyard, countless Hull disciples wearing black martial arts uniforms with red sashes around their waists fell to their knees!

Chapter 1119

The International Chamber of Commerce on the high seas of Riverton was held once every three years.

The attendees would be representatives from large companies, chambers of commerce, and affluent families in the country and even in the world with solid backgrounds and strong financial resources.

This was a grand multinational chamber of commerce party.

It was held on the largest cruise ship, Queen Elizabeth, on the high seas of Riverton.

This cruise ship was one of the three most luxurious and largest cruise ships in the world with a length of up to 350 yards and a total of eight floors!

It could carry nearly 6,000 passengers!

Very grand and luxurious!

The owner of the cruise ship was also one of the most affluent families in the world, the Elizabeth family.

Speaking of the Elizabeth family, that was the Queen's family!

Everyone was in awe!

Solid strength and countless wealth!

Organizing a transnational chamber of commerce every three years to unite people from all walks of life had long been a family tradition of the Elizabeth family.

The purpose was to win over people from all walks of life and while doing that, maintain economic balance and stability.

The luxury cars stopped at the parking lot in front of White Horse Hotel, the largest and most luxurious hotel at the port.

Handsome and beautiful young, rich second-generation sons and daughters got out of the cars, waving to the crowd with smiles.

Too cool!

It made everyone jealous!

White Horse Hotel was the largest hotel in Riverton and it was near the sea.

One of the best suites in the hotel would cost 300,000 a night!

Once, an unknown rich second-generation booked the room for three nights!

At a point in time, the White Horse Hotel became a very famous hotel in Riverton. It attracted many dignitaries to book the rooms or hold receptions, annual meetings, and so on.

Today, those participating in the high seas transnational chamber of commerce would take a short rest at the White Horse Hotel.
