

The First Heir 1261

Chapter 1261

The storm swept in.

Today, the entire martial arts world and the whole of Uppercreek paid close attention to one place.

Splendor Hotel!

The news of Marco Lopez, the second son of the Lopez family, getting seriously injured and then killed in a bar spread like a wildfire. It completely detonated the entire martial arts world and ignited the anger of the Fusha martial arts circle!

Basically, all martial arts families and forces around the world were privately using a lot of power to keep a close eye on Splendor Hotel today!

For a while, the entire Uppercreek rippled with all sorts of people and forces that swarmed in droves!

Everyone understood that this incident would definitely set off headlines in the martial arts world!

Would the Lopez family let this matter go?

Of course not!

The entire Uppercreek suddenly became very tense. Many national martial arts families who stayed in Uppercreek at this moment all chose to be silent, not discussing the matter.

The group of people suddenly became agitated and said angrily.

However, they quickly noticed the unpleasant look on Old Master Yarrow's face.

Old Master Yarrow said hesitantly, "Although the person has been found, I'm afraid we can't touch this person."

"What? Is there someone that even Old Master Yarrow can't touch? You're one of the honorary directors of the national martial arts world. As long as that person belongs to this circle, they must listen to you!" one person shouted agitatedly.

Jason Yarrow shook his head and uttered one name, "Philip Clarke."

Everyone gasped when they heard that name.

Chapter 1263

Having said that, Jacob immediately notified the National Martial Arts Association as the director and issued a director's notice!

In the world of martial arts, all families and forces must fully support Philip Clarke!

Of course, even so, some families and forces chose to remain neutral.

Jacob had long understood that these families and forces that chose to remain neutral must be unclean.

Sure enough, after Jacob forcefully announced this order, many families proposed to withdraw from the National Martial Arts Association.

"Very well! The Yarrow family, the Lloyd family, the Shore family, and the Gold family. These four are all big families in the martial arts world and they've chosen to protect themselves by abandoning the ship at this time! Scum!"

After receiving the notice of withdrawal from these people, Jacob exploded in fury!

He was livid!

The slow development of the national martial arts world was all because of such parasites!

Jacob had long wanted to clean up the domestic martial arts family or to shake things up a little.

This was an opportunity!

In that case, he must not be blamed for being ruthless!

Jacob's eyes were cold as he looked at the list of dozens of families and forces in his hand. His expression grew more solemn.

Jason sat at the head of the table and stared at Jacob with cold eyes, roaring, “Jacob Jensen, this guildhall belongs to me! How dare you barge in with your people like this?!”

Although Jacob was in his 80s, he was still full of energy.

At this moment, he scanned those present in the room coldly and shouted gruffly without any nonsense, “Take all of them down!”

Suddenly!

Everyone was startled and started resisting while roaring.

“The Lloyd family is no longer a member of the National Martial Arts Association. You don’t have the right to apprehend me!”

“Yes! Jacob Jensen has no right to take anyone down!”

“You’re abusing your power. We will report this matter to the National Martial Arts Association and expose you!”

However, facing these people, Jacob’s expression remained unchanged. He repeated, “Take them down! Those who dare to resist will be dealt with directly as defectors as per regulations of the National Martial Arts Association!”

When Jason heard this, he was shocked and roared, “Jacob, how dare you?!”

Being a defector of national martial arts was a terrible accusation!

Looking at the expressions on Philip, Josh, and the others, they could only be described as domineering and tyrannical!

Even in the face of dozens of boxers from the Lopez family, they still showed no fear.

They either had their hands in their trouser pockets, smoked cigarettes, or were looking at the sky.

To put it simply, in the Dragon Warriors' eyes, these people in front of them were all rubbish!

"Josh, what do you say?"

Philip was calm as he looked at the group of people wearing white martial arts uniforms that had already taken on fighting stances. His eyes burst with battle spirit!

"One against five, let's see who's faster."

A cold smile appeared at the corner of Josh's mouth like a wild wolf staring at its prey.

"Damn it! Take them down!"

The boxers of the Lopez family on the opposite side rushed over immediately!

The next scene shocked everyone present!

When Rafael saw Jacob, his face turned gloomy as he asked, "Mr. Jensen, are you going to protect them? Is this how you treat your guests?"

Jacob straightened up, stood with his hands on his back, and looked at Rafael before tossing him a folder. He shouted, "Marco Lopez has been active in my territory for dozens of days, bullying men and women, wounding and killing several people after getting drunk.

These are already capital crimes! Young Master Clarke and the others were just brave enough to punish the evildoers, so this is not a question of protecting them.

On the contrary, it's the Lopez family that deliberately hurt the successors of our country's art on the grounds of learning martial arts, so you should be giving us an explanation instead!"

He was supporting Philip to the end!

Rafael did not even open the folder and just tossed it to the ground. He stared at Jacob with cold eyes and said solemnly, "Mr. Jensen, are you deliberately trying to make things difficult for the Lopez family?"

Hearing this, Jacob scoffed. "The Lopez family isn't worthy of my time."

"Damn it!"

Rafael was furious and roared, "Today, none of you can leave! I want all of you to kneel in front of my son and apologize with your deaths!"

Instantly!

In the entire hotel, at various entrances and exits, more than a dozen boxers from the Lopez family rushed in again!

Everyone could hardly believe that the arrival of the seven Aces had directly reversed the situation!

Six days later, life and death would be determined in the ring!

This news immediately spread throughout the martial arts circles, including those of various countries.

All of a sudden, the number of flights to Uppercreek grew manyfold over the past few days.

Currently at the scene, the rest of the people wiped off the cold sweat from their foreheads, but Philip and his group, as well as the Aces, looked indifferent.

Especially the other six Aces. At this moment, they turned their eyes to Philip and scrutinized him.

"Hey, Fatty Pine, is this the heir to the Clarke family?"

It was a burly middle-aged man with a height of 1.8 meters and had copper skin. He elbowed Mobius who stood next to him and asked.

He was Ace Leon Anders, a blacksmith who did not belong to any school and worked as a blacksmith since he was a child. He was full of vigor.

In his entire life, he had only worked on one piece of iron sheet, saying that he wanted to forge the strongest weapon in the world. Until now, no one knew if the weapon had been made.

What was the meaning of this?

They were the seven masters of the martial arts world!

People who would cause a sensation all over the world!

At this moment, all of them were respectfully greeting Philip.

Horrifying!

Philip was a little startled. He quickly helped them up and said with a smile, "Don't do this. All of you are seniors. I can't accept this gesture."

Jacob smiled and explained to Philip, "Young Master Clarke, do you know why they came here this time?"

Philip was not stupid. He looked around before asking, "Because of me?"

Jacob nodded and continued, "Indeed. You should be aware that the Aces don't appear easily. This time, all the remaining Aces have resurfaced. Can you think of the reason?"

Philip was stunned and said, "I thought it's because of Old Master Jensen."

Upon hearing that, Jacob laughed and looked at the masters before saying to Philip, "It's because of your father."

His father?

In an instant, Philip understood what was happening. He said a little unhappily, "Did he use money to make you do this?"

Philip did not stay long before he returned to the hotel.

When Philip was in the taxi and on his way, he felt that he was being followed.

In order not to expose the hotel Wynn and Mila were staying in, he told the driver to drive in one big circle before he got out of the car and turned around to slip into an alley.

The black van that followed behind the taxi also stopped.

Soon, four to five guys with baseball bats and masks jumped down from the car.

“Listen up, just break his arms and legs. Don't kill him!”

The young man who took the lead had a tattoo on his neck. He shouted to the guys.

“Yes, Boss!”

Immediately after, these four to five people quickly rushed into the alley!
