

The First Heir 173

Chapter 173

Philip held Wynn in his arms. His eerie eyes reflected a coldness that would wreak havoc.

He would be going on a rampage today.

He would make these people pay the most horrible price they could ever think of!

“Wynn, wait for me. Let me take care of this and we’ll talk when we go back, okay?” The kindness in Philip’s eyes caressed Wynn’s face gently.

“Alright,” said Wynn. She nodded, her eyes filled with trust for Philip.

This man was her husband. He was her guardian for the rest of her life.

Why would she not believe him?

Should she waver just because of what Chloe said?

Wynn did not want to know who Philip was nor what the Clarkes did for a living.

As long as Philip stayed with her, everything would be fine.

Even if Philip did not want to tell her, she would not force him.

He must have his own difficulties.

She was willing to wait for the day when Philip would willingly open up to her.

“Doug? Doug, are you okay?” The thugs got up and surrounded Doug. Then, they helped him up.

Doug’s front teeth were broken and his mouth was filled with blood. His nose was also bloody from the impact.
