

The First Heir 194

Chapter 194

Bob glared coldly at Philip who was sitting on his seat. He snorted and said, "Who does he think he is? What a sore sight!"

With a scoff, Bob walked away with his black wood cane tapping on the ground. He was about to leave with his group of people.

Philip had been enduring this kind of treatment for a long time. He sat on his seat indifferently and took a sip of his wine. He said calmly, "You can't be sure that I'm not Mr. Clarke."

At first, everyone was shocked. Then, they started laughing loudly.

Was Philip an idiot?

How dare he say something like this?

"Damn! Philip, why don't you take a look at yourself in the mirror? Aside from your last name, what part of you looks like a rich person?"

Eric laughed in frustration.

How could such a shameless person exist? He was hilarious!

Philip did not say anything. He knew they would not believe him even if he told them.

Bob and his group of people snorted and went out of the door.

In a blink of an eye, only a few people were left in the courtyard.

Jess did not leave. She looked at Philip and said coldly, "Philip, I think you're problematic. You boast too much. If you continue acting like this, I suggest that you divorce Wynn."

him

He smiled awkwardly but still remained

did no

later, Bob brought his group of people back to the scene. They were all smiling kept on

was some people were still looking at Philip in detest. Philip did is finally showing its face in Riverdale!" Bob invest in our business?" Samson asked while frowning. He wanted to get man who could invest one billion bucks would definitely have on the top of the list in the country. Could it be not seem his identity, then we should just wait. We'll meet him eventually. You people have to pay more attention to

The party continued.

news

next month. They've invited a number of famous people. We've been invited as well," Samsom smiled and to be invited to a party in Cirrus

was

It was extremely mysterious.

for personal gain. They had an extremely party Cirrus Manor ever held. The rich and powerful level of power and wealth to be kind of place is Cirrus Manor? Is it really that tremendous?" Eric explained briefly and in an instant, everyone in the hall fell