Chapter 2471

In an instant, Hades, Andrew, and Vataco displayed their strongest states. Raging energy fluctuations surged around them. In the sky, the three swords of kingship started flaking at this moment.

“Apollo, today marks your death. Stop your futile struggles.” Andrew spoke sinisterly, and the black mist on his body surged devilishly.

The scythe in his band also glowed with a black luster and exuded rotting vibes of death from the depths of hell.

The red dragon halberd in Fennel’s hand was shrouded in scorching red flames.

He looked coldly at the three gods on the opposite side and said, “Are you sure you can kill me so easily?”

“Apollo, I admit that you’re very strong, but against the three of us, there’s no way you can survive no matter how strong you are!” Vataco said grimly.

“Haha...” Fennel chuckled as he looked at Vataco and said, “Vataco, even if I die today, you won’t live either. I’ll drag you along with me!”

light and desperately sought for flaws under the ultimate attack of these three gods. However, there was none to be found.

There was Vataco's blockade from above, the deadly attack from Hades in front, and the zombie combat group from Andrew on the ground. Behind him, there was Philip whom he wanted to protect.

In this dire situation, Fennel simply had no choice. Either he fought to his death or he gave up on Philip. However, he would not choose the latter!

"Argh!" Fennel roared, and the aura on his body surged.

In the sky, the red sword of kingship began to crumble. He had no choice but to deal with the crisis in front of him at the danger of going berserk.

The three gods sneered when they saw that Fennel chose to fight it out at the risk of going berserk. Of course, everything was within their plans. Today, they must kill Sun God Apollo!

Suddenly, the next second, a storm of battle broke out where Fennel stood.

Chapter 2473

In the sky, a platinum sword of kingship hovered in the air. Complex rules of power intertwined around the platinum sword of kingship with five different sources of kingship, which complemented each other and formed a special energy field.

Under the pressure and rule power of the platinum sword of kingship, the other three opposing swords of kingship showed signs of trembling at this moment. No, to be precise, it was a form of suppression!

The rule power and kingly aura exuded by the platinum sword of kingship gradually suppressed the three swords of kingship of the three gods on the opposite side. Under such suppression, the kingship energy field formed by the three gods actually began to show signs of falling apart and crumbling.

Hades looked at the platinum sword of kingship in the sky with a gloomy face full of disbelief.

The body of the sword of kingship was platinum with intricate patterns. There was also the unique dragon from the East that was entwined around it. Moreover, it was new and bright!

Meanwhile, the electronic warfare command room of the Octagon was tightly packed with data monitoring instruments and equipment. At this moment, many people surrounded those instruments and equipment with expressions full of shock. It was because at that moment, the monitoring data of one of the gods suddenly became unstable. From the highest peak, it plummeted to the lowest point and almost disappeared several times. However, just when the data of that god was about to disappear, brand new data suddenly appeared on the equipment.

For a while, these instruments quickly monitored and analyzed the data, but there was no comparison. It was not the data of the 12 Western gods.

It had nothing to do with the gods. It was a newly promoted god!

“Holy sh*t!”

“Was the historical pattern of the Western underworld about to change?!”

A new god had appeared. Under the rule suppression of the 12 gods, it was almost impossible for a new god to appear!

However, under the suppression of the other three existing gods, a new god had emerged out of nowhere. It was enough to shake the entire Western world. Moreover, the statistics of this newly promoted god were constantly rising and soon overwhelmed the other three gods!

"Arrogant youngster from the East! Even though you have now ascended to the throne of the gods and have displayed extraordinary strength, you still don't have the right to challenge three veteran gods such as us!" Vataco roared with a face full of angry chills.

He could not accept the appearance of a second Eastern god in the Western world. This was a serious threat and challenge to the underworld of the West and the position of the 12 gods.

Sun God Apollo was already enough to upset them. Now, there was another Eastern god who was not weaker than Apollo. How could other gods survive this?

Thus, whether it was for their own interests or the sake of the entire Western underworld and the current 12 gods, this new 13th god must be stopped and destroyed as quickly as possible!

This was not Vataco's thoughts alone. Hades shared the same thoughts as Vataco as well. Only Andrew had eyes full of excitement.

If he could take the corpses of Apollo and this new god and turn them into the most powerful weapons of the Hall of Death, Andrew could trample all over the Western underworld and become the new master of the sacred city of Mount Olympus!

Instantly, in everyone's eyes, several red flame dragons in chimera armor collided with the hundreds of punches thrown by Hades.

Boom!

Suddenly, the void collapsed as sparks flew. Terrifying flames filled the sky and ravaged everything within a radius of several hundred meters.

The entire sky was filled with flames. Some flames formed fireballs and blasted everywhere. The crumbling flames blasted out deep black pits on the ground that was shocking to the eye.

In the center of the raging fireball, a charred figure flew out.

Boom!

The burly figure was sent flying by a single blow and shot out like a meteor hundreds of meters away. He crashed into many broken walls before he fell heavily to the ground. Like a ball, he bounced and rolled out dozens of meters away.

Chapter 2477

Seeing Hades' state at this moment, Vataco and Andrew were also full of shock and surprise.

Battle God Mode!

Hades was actually forced to use Battle God Mode. Unbelievable!

As the name suggested, Battle God Mode was the strongest fighting state of the gods. In this state, they would only have combat in their minds. The fight would only end when one party died in battle. In this mode, the gods would burn their lifespan at the expense of intercepting the energy and material rules of heaven and earth to achieve the strongest state.

Their bodies' cellular activity would also be at peak performance, which meant they could quickly recover and regenerate. Generally speaking, a person in this state would be a tireless killing machine.

Likewise, once this mode was activated, even if the fight was won, the damage to the gods would be huge. It had been many years since a battle like this. Such a battle was enough to destroy half of the Western world. Moreover, Zeus had once issued the order to prohibit the gods from entering Battle God Mode.

That was because it was an irreversible state unless someone died in battle. In other words, Hades was determined to fight Philip until the end.

Chapter 2478

Too strong!

Hades in Battle God Mode was comparable to having the strength of a half-step king of disciples in the sixth zone!

Hades stood in the middle of the energy storm, his body upright and majestic. He raged with energy fluctuations just like Super Saiyan. His thick hair was dancing with the fluctuations, and every inch of his body was covered with dazzling blue energy. Such an energy spill formed a layer of defensive armor that was almost invincible. His eyes were like blue lightning, looking as though they came from an abyss. It made others too afraid to look him in the eye.

Hades sneered as his blue lightning eyes stared at Philip. He said, "Philip, I'll kill you, a newly promoted god, to prove my prowess. This will let me go one step further and set foot onto the path of kingship of the sixth zone!"

This roar, combined with the lightning power from his body, was as loud as a bell and as powerful as lightning. It shook the world.

Immediately after, Hades moved as fast as a blue bolt of lightning once more. His speed had already surpassed the limit of the fifth zone.

Boom!

Bang!

In an instant, Hades and Philip engaged in a fierce battle of the fists. Two figures of blue and crimson could be seen clashing violently, producing massive energy storms.

Fennel displayed his strongest state in Battle God Mode. He jumped into the air, the red dragon halberd in his hand turning red gold as he fought with Hades.

In the sky, an energy storm of red-gold and blue raged. The clouds in the sky were torn apart by the energy storm and disintegrated. Thick dark clouds also slowly gathered in the sky above Fennel's and Hades' heads. The whole area grew dark like the end of the world!

In the sky, Fennel held the halberd. His eyes flowed with battle intent as he started at Hades who was bathed in a storm of lightning energy.

Hades' face was full of sinister chills. The blue lines on his face extremely devilish were eye-piercing. He roared coldly, "Apollo, are you going to stop me from entering the sixth zone of kingship?"

Fennel laughed. The red dragon halberd in his hand had completely turned into the color of red and gold at this moment. Gold dragons were wrapped around the body as though they were alive. Especially the head of the halberd that looked like a roaring dragon.

The master of Mount Olympus would be Hades, the King of the Underworld!

Fennel snorted coldly and said, "Hades, you must be dreaming! Fight if you want to!"

After saying that, Fennel lunged at Hades in a streak of red- gold light.

Boom!

A massive battle enough to destroy the world suddenly broke out. Such a battle was not something normal people could withstand. Even the space began to crumble and crack.

The two gods had entered the strongest Battle God Mode!

On the ground, a trace of gloom flashed in Vataco's eyes. His gaze shifted from the two people fighting in the sky to the deep pit on the ground. He walked to the edge of the pit and looked down into the bottomless abyss.

This blow from Hades was really too strong.
